Rev. Father Johnston's play formed an admirable vehicle and the Immaculate Conception Society, under the capable direction of John Primeau, utilized it to the utmost advantage and gave a masterly and convincing interpretation that was eloquent of intelligent direction, hard work in rehearsal and native ability alike. The players knew their parts perfectly, knew what was expected of them, and one and all shared in the satisfaction of having contributed to a very fine amateur performance.

Miss Anna Gallagher, the leading lady of the play, was most delightful in her delineation of the part of Molly Malloy, the winsome heroine. It was a role that called for dramatic talent and Miss Gallagher easily met the test while her vocal numbers were a charming feature of the program.

Joseph Clancy was Terry Sheehan, the young Irish hero of the play and he soon convinced the audience that the part was in good hands. His was an exacting role, but the young singer handled it with convincing ease, and his rich baritone voice was successfully used in several numbers, notable in his duet, "Perfect Love," with Miss Gallagher, one of the high lights of the presentation, and in the song, "Far-away Bells," in the masquerade scene.

A most effective characterization was that of Michael Clancy in the role of Terry's father. Mr. Clancy was the old Irish father to the life, and his realistic conception of the part was of very material assistance.

Equally effective was the rich vein of comedy provided by Miss Stella Brady as Aunt Bridget and by Daniel Leonard as Uncle Thaddy. These two weather-beaten sweethearts, keeping company for forty years and indulging in a constant crossfire of repartee and Irish wit were always amusing. So, too, were Robert Armstrong as Clarence George Murdock, and John Madden as Percival Gerald, poet extraordinary; parts that contrasted vividly with those just mentioned and in the funny characterization of a certain stage type of Englishman provided the audience with frequent reason for laughing.

John Holland was admirably cast as John Ferguson, the "publisher," who turns out to be a secret service agent, and Mary Holland as Betty Clancy, his assistant, gave a capable performance of an interesting role. Edmund Leonard acting as Parsons, the butler, added much merriment to the play, and later in the Paris scene he scored heavily in a dance number that was heartily applauded. In the same scene Ulric Brioux made a great hit by his splendid mouth organ playing, his first number earning him an enthusiastic encore.

John Primeau added to his duties as director the playing of the part of Fiske O'Toole, which he did in his usual smooth manner, and Miss Carmelita Theobold and Miss Helen Clancy contributed materially to the success of the masquerade scene.

Others who had a big share in the success of the play were Miss Margaret McCabe, the musical directress, and John McCabe and Robert Gilman by their work behind stage.

In addition to the musical numbers already mentioned there were several most enjoyable specialties. The Flynn sisters did some clever dancing, to the delight of the audience who demanded an encore. Miss Gallagher and Miss Brady sang "Ramona," with splendid effect and had to repeat the number. Miss Gallagher also scored a similar success in the duet "Saxaphone Waltz" with Daniel Leonard.

Before the last act Gordon S. Matthews, president of the Peterborough Ball Club, speaking from the stage, expressed the appreciation of the kindness of the members of the Immaculate Conception Dramatic Society in staging the play for the club's benefit and also thanged the audience for their patronage.

The members of the company were entertained by the ball club at a banquet at the Downeyflake after the performance, and a very enjoyable time was spent. John Primeau was master of ceremonies and short speeches were made by Rev. Father Carroll, Gordon S. Matthews, Gerald McFadden, Robert Armstrong, Hugh Lush, and others. Members of the company were congratulated upon their fine work and Mr. Matthews again thanked the dramatic society for its kindness.

PRUNING HELPS SMALL FRUIT

Bushes May Be Trimmed Either in Late Fall or Early Spring.

METHODS TO BE USED.

The yield and quality of bush fruits depends upon various factors such as soils, pruning, fertilizers, disease and insect control. Of these factors, pruning is one of the most important in its effect on the size and yield of fruit. In order to prune bush fruits properly, it is necessary to understand the fruiting habits of the various classes. The fruiting habits vary somewhat with the different species, as is shown in the notes given below.

Raspberries and Blackberry.

This group bear their fruits on shoots which grow early in the season from buds on canes of the past season's growth. In most cases there are a large number of buds on such canes and moreover these buds are nearly all potentially fruit bearing. If all the buds are allowed to produce fruiting shoots, there is likely to be more fruits formed than the bush is capable of developing to a desirable size. To get fruit of the largest size, it is therefore necessary to remove some of the buds and this is best accomplished by cutting back a portion of the canes and laterals. After a crop of fruit has been produced the fruiting canes die and should be removed.

Currants and Gooseberries.

This group bears their fruit mainly on canes of two years and on older canes. The largest yields and the best fruits are found on two and three year old canes, but some fruit is also borne on older canes. As a rule the older canes bear rather small fruit and the longer the canes are allowed to remain the smaller the fruit is likely to be. This situation therefore suggests the desirability of having the bush composed mainly of two and three year-old canes with enough new canes to provide for future crops.

Directions for Pruning Bush Fruits.

(a) Red and White Raspberries.

Late Summer Pruning.—Cut out and burn all old fruiting canes shortly after the last picking of fruit has been gathered. In sections where snowfall is heavy and the new canes are liable to break down in the winter through the weight of snow, it is advisable to leave the removal of the old canes until the next spring.

Early Spring Pruning.—Remove small weak canes and thin out the larger canes so that they stand from 4 to 6-in. apart. Cut back tops and laterals of remaining canes in proportion to the vigor of growth. Short canes should have a few inches taken off the top and taller canes should be cut back more severely. Canes should be left from 3 to 5 ft. in height depending on the vigor of growth and variety.

(b) Black and Purple Raspberries.

The general directions given for red and white raspberries are equally applicable to these kinds. The black and purple kinds usually produce several laterals with numerous fruit buds. Where these laterals are very numerous they should be thinned out moderately, leaving from 4 to 6 on each cane. The remaining laterals should also be cut back somewhat, leaving from 4 to 6 buds or each lateral approximately 5 to 6-in. long. These species will produce more numerous and longer laterals if the new canes are headed back in the summer when they are about 2 feet tall.

The black and purple kinds are usually grown in hills and therefore some attention will be necessary in regard to thinning out crowding canes. The number to be left depends on soil conditions, size of canes and vigor of growth. Strong vigorous varieties should be thinned to 4 to 7 canes to a hill while the smaller growing kinds may be left a little thicker, say 6 to 9 canes to a hill.

Same as Black and Purple varieties.

(d) Currants and Gooseberries.

1. Restrict the bushes to 12 to 15 canes composed as follows: 4 or 5 one year canes; 4 or 5 two year canes; 4 or 5 three year canes.
2. Cut out all shoots of the past season's growth except the 4 or 5 strong canes chosen for fruiting the next year and the following year.
3. Remove all canes that have borne three crops.
4. Cut out broken, dead, diseased or borer infested canes.
5. Leave bush moderately open in centre.
6. Where laterals are very numerous thin out the crowding ones.
7. Cut out low drooping canes.
8. Cut undesirable canes close to ground line.

AIR MAIL EXTENDED TO TORONTO

The map here shows how the new Canadian air mail which has just been inaugurated reached Toronto from Rimouski with mail for western points, and how much time and distance will be saved by the new air route over the rail route. The time shown is the actual running time. Air mail will save 16 hours coming to Toronto, train connection making the difference. No. 1 picture shows how the letters will be stamped; 2, Postmaster Lemon, Toronto; 3, steamer Empress of Scotland, which will bring the mail over from the old country. The mail is dropped off at the Rimouski dock, and is taken by truck the short distance to the landing field there; 4, the Transcontinental Airways plane which will carry mail from Rimouski to Montreal; 5, "Duke" Schiller, who won fame in his sensational dash to meet the German fliers chosen to pilot the Transcontinental plane on the air mail first leg; 6, the Canadian Airways Co. plane, which will make the hop from Montreal to Toronto; 7, H. POLLYANNA TO BE PRESENTED HERE

St. James' Young Peoople Bring Fine Amateur Cast From Lindsay.

The play Pollyanna presented under the auspices of the Queen Street Mission Circle in the town hall last evening was a decided success. Large crowds gathered to show their appreciation of the splendid acting done by each and every character.

The play was under the excellent management and direction of Mrs. T. A. Tucker while Miss B. O'Neill handled the general make-up. All that can be said in favor of any play could surely be said of this one, each character seemed to be selected for his or her particular part, and then carried out the same to perfection.

Little Pollyanna in the person of Miss Helen Ingram who is only 12 years of age, was a wonder, her stage acting, memory work and stye was one that an older person could scarcely copy. She played the roll of Pollyanna into the last act when Marjorie Ingram, her sister came on wtih the same ease and grace of manner that charmed all present.

It was a beautiful story of love and drama and plainly showed the carefulness and painstaking work of the Queen Street Young People.

The Sunday school orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. W. Stevens added greatly to the evening's enjoyment.

The assignment of characters was as follows:

Miss Stella Sanderson, Mrs. Stanley Werry, Miss Maude Stevens; Mrs. T. A. Tucker, Miss Beatrice O'Neil, Miss Helen Ingram, Master Gordon Chambers, Mr. Clarke Vanstone, Mr. Jas. Moore, Mr. Ross Morrow, Mr. Frank Pitts, Miss Marjorie Ingram. —Lindsay Post.

The play will be repeated in Wesley Hall, St. James' United Church, on Friday, May 18.

TOWN PAYS TO HAVE FLIGHT START THERE

The burgomaster of the little Thuringian town of Rudolstadt realizes the value of publicity and has agreed to pay Lilli Dillenz a substantial sum of money to hop-off from that town in her pending attempt to be the first woman to fly the Atlantic from east to west. Madame Dillenz has already obtained the services of Johann Risticz as pilot, and their Junkers plane, Europa, is all but ready. One stop will be made at Baldonnel serodrome in Ireland. From there they propose to make a non-stop hop to the United States, although their definite objective has not yet been announced. Last year Madame Dillenz started a transatlantic flight from Norderney in Germany, aboard the Junkers plane D-1230, but only got as far as Horta in the Azores. The lateness of the year forced the abandonment of the attempt. In the illustration (1) is Lilli Dillenz in flying togs; (2) is the plane Europa, and (3) is Johann Risticz with his little son.

"Its Better!" Says a George Street woman

"My grocer praised Rinso, so I thought I'd try a package and see if it was as good as he said. It's better! Rinso makes such rich, safe suds that when I take the clothes out of the washer they're whiter and newer-looking than ever. Even the most soiled pieces become spotless with only a tiny bit of rubbing. No wonder I have the clothes on the line so early now. Rinso is great for cleaning dishes, floors and sinks, too! No wonder I'm getting all my friends to use it!"

Mrs. _____,
George Street, Peterborough.

Science gives you a whiter wash— and saves you hours of hard work as well

WHEN Science said, "Here, in Rinso, is a way to make clothes white with no boiling and little or no rubbing," women were skeptical. It seemed too good to be true. But once they tried Rinso they joyfully agreed that science was right. Rinso brought them a glad freedom from wash day toiling and and gave them clean, white, fragrantly-fresh clothes such as every woman loves.

Rinso makes rich suds which soak out the dirt and grime. No boiling, just a gentle rub here and there and clothes are whiter than scrubbing can make them. Hours are saved, clothes last longer, work is made lighter.

Science is waiting in every package of Rinso to give you the surest wash day help the world has ever known.

Uncle Wiggily

To-day's Bedtime Story

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND LULU'S LOLLYPOP.

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggily was about to hop away from his hollow stump bungalow to go look for an adventure, he met Uncle Butter the goat gentleman skipping along with a basket on his paw.

"Where are you going?" asked Mr. Longears.

"Haven't you time to come adventuring with me?" invited Uncle Wiggily.

"Thank you, no!" bleated the goat. "But before you go adventuring you had better hop over to the duck pond and see what's the matter."

"Why, is anything the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Have any of the Wibblewobble ducks fallen in the water?"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Butter. "That's funny! A duck falling in the water! What harm would that do? No, it must be worse than that!"

"Then I'll go see if I can help before I start adventuring," said Uncle Wiggily, and away he hopped while Uncle Butter went to the store.

"Hadn't you better stay and watch your green grass so nobody will walk on it?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy as she saw Mr. Longears going away. "Those puppy dogs may play tag on it again."

"Not since I had the Tramp Dog put up the four puzzle signs," chuckled Mr. Longears. "They are so mysterious, the animal boys and girls not knowing what they say, that they'll keep off my grass."

"Well, what do those signs say?" asked the muskrat lady.

"Oh, I see you!" answered Mr. Longears.

"Silly! Of course you see me! Don't you suppose I know that?" laughed Nurse Jane. "I asked you what the signs said."

"That's what they say," chuckled Mr. Longears. "There are the letters O-I-C-U—Oh, I see you! Ha! Ha!"

"Oh, now I see!" laughed Nurse Jane. "Well, I'm glad you found some way to keep the boys and girls off the grass until it gets a chance to grow strong. Now where are you going?" she asked, for Mr. Longears started to hop away.

"Something has happened over at the duck pond," was the answer. "Uncle Butter bleated to me that there was trouble as he came past. I'll go see what it is."

Long before Uncle Wiggily reached the duck pond he heard a loud quacking and crying. And when he came within sight of the place he saw Lulu, Alice and Jimmie Wibblewobble swimming around very fast.

"What's the matter?" asked Mr. Longears. "Are you trying to catch some snails before you go to school, or is a hawk after you?"

"Neither one!" sobbed Lulu and she was quacking and crying the hardest. "But I dropped my lollypop in the pond just as I was going to school, and now I can't find it, and it was such a lovely lollypop all flavored with watercress and corn meal and—Oh, dear! Boo hoo!"

"There, there! Don't cry," said Uncle Wiggily kindly. "The handle of your lollypop is made of wood, and wood floats in the water, though candy sinks. So I think we'll find your lollypop, Lulu, by looking for the floating wooden handle. I'll hop along the shore and look while you ducks swim around in the water and look."

In this way it did not take long to find Lulu's lollypop where it had floated down and was caught in a mass of duck weed. The little quacking child rescued her candy and then she and her brother and sister were hurrying off to school when Uncle Wiggily said: "Oh, Lulu! Your eyes are all red from crying. I must make you smile before you go to class. Here, look at this!" With a stick, Uncle Wiggily quickly drew in the wet sand a picture. But it was cut apart, and looked so funny that Lulu dried her eyes and laughed. "Can you tell me those picture that is when the pieces are put together?" asked Mr. Longears. "And that is a puzzle for you, also. So the laughing ducks, after guessing the name of the picture, hurried to school.

CUT-OUT PUZZLE.

"There, there! Don't cry," said Uncle Wiggily.

A SHORT SERMON.

Text: "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it."—Ecc. 12:7.

When the Lord created Adam, it was by the following process: "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul."—Gen. 2:7. When a man dies exactly the opposite takes place, to that at the time of creation. The body returns to the earth and the breath or air which one breathes returns to the atmosphere created by God. Notice God took of that air and breathed into man's nostrils, and man became a living soul.

When a man ceases to breathe, he ceases to live, and when he dies it is a soul that dies. "The soul (the man) that sinneth, it shall die."—Ezekiel 18:4. This does not mean that when a man dies, he breathes out some undefinable something, which lives on after death. A soul that dies remains dead until the time of resurrection.

TOWERS ERECTED.

MADOC, May 17. — Provincial Constable Percy McCoy and Sergeant Roy Clarke, the latter of Belleville, returned to the village on Wednesday afternoon without having had any untoward reason for asserting their authority on the farm of Abraham Robinson in Madoc township.

It is understood that signs had been placed on fences forbidding trespassing, and this apparently applied to the Hydro-electric linemen, who have been at work erecting the large steel towers which will carry power lines across country from Ottawa to Toronto. Several of these towers were to be placed on the Robinson farm and to avoid trouble the officers were ordered to remain on duty there till the work was completed. The towers were erected and there only remains the stringing of the cables over them. This will be done at a later date.

IN PETERBOROUGH CHURCHES

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL

St. Peter's was again filled with a capacity crowd last evening when the services of the Men's Mission began at 7.30. The vast audience of men numbering well over a thousand souls, which began the mission on Sunday evening last, has not diminished on the nights following, and if anything last night's attendance was by far the largest yet.

Father Cloran, missionary priest in charge of the two weeks' mission, congratulated the men last night on the excellent spirit they had shown, not only by atetnding all the evening sermons, but by also being present in such large numbers at the morning masses.

"Getting up in the morning to go to a five o'clock Mass is a sacrifice and a hardship in a sense," declared Father Cloran, "but sacrifice and self denial are principles of Christ's church, and therefore are part of the lives of the Christian. The women came here last week in large numbers to the five o'clock mass and I am pleased to see the men doing just is well."

Pictures in the Home

Father Cloran also appealed for the presence of more religious pictures in the home of Christian people. "It is on old principle, "Show me your friends, and I will tell you who you are.' In the same manner, show me the pictures you hang in your home, and I will tell you what your thoughts generally are. By the same principle, the Catholic should have religious pictures about him in the home. The Christian is a child of God, one who hopes to enjoy His friendship for ever in heaven. The saints are God's friends; men and women composed of human nature who lived lives pleasing to God and are now enjoying the vision of God in heaven for all eternity. The thought of the saints will help the Christian along in his struggle to keep good. The saints were beset by trials and they felt keenly their own weakness. They knew what it was to strive to be faithful to God and to be successful in their endeavor. They are our models and we should strive to imitate them and with God's grace we can imitate them. Therefore, pictures of the saints, pictures of God's friends, should adorn our homes to remind us of their heroic virtues.

Ideals.

"When you look upon the picture of a saint you cannot help saying, "Well, here is a man unknown in his own time and perhaps despised now he is in heaven. He has been there for years enjoying perfect happiness. How wise he was to set aside everything for the sake of Christ!" In fifty years from to-day where shall I be? It rests with myself. If I imitate that saint I shall be with God forever; if not I shall be eternally miserable and tormented.

"Have holy pictures in your home, in the drawing room in the bedroom. Do not be ashamed of them. Do not be ashamed of God's friends, or God may one day be ashamed of you."

Father Cloran announced the men's mission would begin each evening at seven-thirty, with the recitation of the Rosary and a short instruction to be followed by the sermon of the evening and benediction. Mission masses in the morning would be at five o'clock and seven thirty, followed by a short instruction. The mission was not only for men of the Cathedral parish, but also for all men of the city, Catholic or non-Catholic." The mission is a time for us to realize the importance of salvation and also a time to gaze upon ourselves, and see how we stand in relation to Almighty God," he said.

The missionary Fathers, Cloron, O'Hara and Kecugh, will also hear the confessions of all the men making the mission. There will be confessions to-night throughout the devotions until 10.30 this evening. Confessions will also begin each morning at five o'clock.

Enquiry Class.

An inquiry class for information on matters of Christian doctrine is being conducted each evening by the missionary fathers at St. Peter's Rectory, 411 Reid St. The inquiry class will begin each evening at eight o'clock, and private appointments may be made with any one of the Redemptorist Fathers by either phoning or calling at the Rectory.

District Churches

REGENT STREET UNITED.

LAKEFIELD, May 17. — On Sunday morning a children's service was held in Regent Street United Church, the interior being beautifully decorated with flowers, birds, and goldfish, and the music supplied by a choir of twenty-four 'teen age boys and girls, members of the Tuxis Square and C.G.I.T. group. Rev. S. A. Kemp delivered a splendid address on "Flags: Origin, and Purpose." The Union Jack, British Ensign, and the Royal Standard were all discussed, and spiritual lessons drawn for the children.

At the evening service, Mother's Day was observed, and about fifty mothers gathered in the basement, and marched in a body to the auditorium of the church, where seats were reserved for them. Three appropriate selections were given by the choir, under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Moore. The very large congregation enjoyed the impressive service, which was one of the best held in the Regent Street Church.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Mother's Day was observed in the Baptist Church, at both morning and evening services. In the Sunday School the regular suggested program was carried out with recitations by several of the children, and at the close a bouquet of flowers was presented to the youngest baby on the cradle roll. The bouquet was given to the father, Stanley Roseborough, whose youngest son, aged one week, was the winner.

At the eleven o'clock service there was a good attendance with special singing and appropriate music. The pastor, Rev. J. B. McCormack, preached an excellent sermon on "Mother's Place in the National Life." At the close of the service a bouquet was presented to Mrs. Kidd, who had the distinction of being the oldest mother. There was also a good attendance at the evening service, when the pastor spoke on "Mother's Day." There was special music also at the evening service, and at the close the pastor sang "Tell Mother I'll Be There," the choir and congregation joining in the chorus. The services were particularly helpful and enjoyable to the entire congregation.

KNOX CHURCH.

Mother's Day was also observed in Knox Church with a bright service, in which children of the Sunday School took part, recitations being given by Dorothy Sutton and Jean Knox. Special music was given by the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Greenslade, of Peterborough, the organist and choir leader. The minister, Rev. T. M. Wesley, gave an address on the importance of the small things which go to make up lives and characters. In the formation of the latter, home, church, and heredity play a large part.

WESLEY UNITED CHURCH.

At Wesley United Church service on Sunday afternoon, there was a large attendance and a mother's choir and several recitations were given, appropriate to the day. Rev. T. M. Wesley, the pastor, preached a sermon dealing with the place of mother in the home and national life, which was both thoughtful and inspiring.

2ND (ARMOUR) TROOP.

The meeting was opened by forming the semi-circular formation. Then several games were played. This part of the meeting was held outside. On reaching the hall patrol inspection was held.

Mr. John, president of the Boy Scout Association in Peterborough, visited the troop and the troop fell in semi-circular formation. Then the troop sang "How Do You Do Mr. John." Shortly after Mr. John came. Ald. Huffman was the special speaker for the night. Ald. Huffman spoke on contracting. The talk was interesting and was enjoyed by the troop.

At the conclusion of the speech the troop gave the "Gillwell" and "Skyrocket" yells. The scoutmaster took the seconds in class downstairs. The troop played several games. A sing-song was held, followed by Scout silence and the troop was dismissed. The Wood Pigeons were last out.

After the meeting a court of honor was held.

HEALS ECZEMA IN 7 DAYS OR LESS

Here is a surgeon's wonderful prescription now dispensed by pharmacists at trifling cost, that will do more towards helping you get rid of unsightly spots and skin diseases than anything you've ever had.

Not only does this great healing antiseptic oil promote rapid and healthly healing in open sores and wounds, but boils, abcesses and ulcers that are discharging are almost immediately relieved and cleanly healed.

In skin diseases its action is little less than magical. The itching of ecsema is instantly stopped; the eruptions dry up and scale off in a very few days. The same is true of barbers' itch, salt rheum and other irritating and unsightly skin troubles.

You can obtain Moone's Emerald Oil in the original bottle at any modern drug store. It is safe to use, and failure in any of the ailments noted above is next to impossible. Bond's Drug Store, C. M. Moncur, Bert McLeod, McDermid Drug Co. Ltd., and McDermid & Jury can supply you at any time.

Firestone Company Extends Big Factory

HAMILTON, May 17. — Another milestone in Canadian industry was passed when the half-million dollar extension of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company of Canada, Limited, Hamilton plant, was opened for operation. Since this progressive company commenced operations in Canada six years ago, they have been compelled to keep their plant going on an average of 18 to 24 hours a day. To meet the ever-increasing demand for this popular tire, the plant extension has become absolutely necessary, and gives an increased floor space of nearly 151,000 square feet, allowing an increase in production of 40 per cent., or 5,000 tires a day.

With an investment now of nearly $6,000,000 in Canada, the Firestone Company show their faith in the future development of this country. Approximately 1,000 people are employed, with an annual payroll of $2,000,000.

Nickel Leads Market, Trading Is Active

TORONTO, May 17 (Canadian Press). — Trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange this morning was well scattered with prices on the whole showing an upward tendency. International Nickel led the market in activity, but failed to register a gain, selling down ⅝ to 91¼. Page Hersey continued its upward movement of the past few days registering a gain of 1⅜ at 103¾. Westons, in light trading, advanced to 65 for 1½ gain. International Utilities B was the strong spot, and in active trading went up to 16½, 1½ points better than yesterday. F. N. Burt was fractionally firmer at 76. Trading in the unlisted section was exceptionally light. British American Oil at 40¼ was up a half. Carlings Brewing at 36¼ made a gain of 1¼. Canada Dry Ginger Ale was also a strong spot, selling up to 73½ for an advance of 1½.

Fluctuations Are Slight Many Gains Registered

TORONTO, May 17. Canadian Press. — Prices were irregular on the Standard mining exchange to-day, with fluctuations confined to narrow range. Noranda in heavy trading, climbed 1.20 to 24.25, while Abana secured a nice gain of 15 to close at 3.15. Tough Oakes was one of the most active on the list but dropped 2 points to 27½. Hollinger with a small sales volume slumped 30 points to close at 15.70. Changes elsewhere in the list included, Argonaut, up ⅛ at 8½; Barry Hollinger down 1-2 at 81; Granada Rouyn, down ¾ at 27½; Kirkland Lake down 1 at 1.80; Laval Quebec, up 1-4 at 22 1-2; Malartic down 2 at 1.35; Stadacona, up 2 at 18; an Antonio up one at 45; Teck Hughes up 5 at 10.15, and Jack son Manion up 3 at 83.

Favorable Weather Reports Weaken Grain Market

CHICAGO, May 17 (Canadian Press) — Rain reports from the Northwest indicating better prospects for the Spring crop belt, gave a sharp early downturn to the wheat prices to-day. Active general selling took place and rallies failed to hold. Starting at ⅞c to 2¼c off wheat later underwent a material further drop. Corn and oats were also weak, with corn opening ¼c to ⅝c down and subsequently showing decided further losses.

Wheat—May 147½, July 148¾. Corn, May 101⅛, July 104¾; oats May 63¼, July 55¾.

Marking Up Of all Money Checks Spirited Recovery

NEW YORK, May 17.—(Canadian Press.) — Marking up of the call money rate to six per cent. following the calling of about $30,000,000 in bank loans, checked the spirited recovery in prices on the New York stock exchange to-day. The initial declines of from one to six and a half points had been largely recovered by noon and in a number of instances replaced by gains ranging from three to nearly 15 points, but these were substantially reduced or wiped out, in the afternoon selling movement. Stiffer call money also was accompanied by the raising of time money rates from 5 1-8 to 5 1-4, the highest since Oct ober, 1923.

American Telephone and Telegraph common was the outstanding individual feature in to-day's market, soaring nearly 15 points to a new high record at 211 on buying influenced by a proposed increase in capitalization with offering of valuable "rights" to shareholders.

Violent fluctuations again took place in the airplane stocks. Wright opened 6 1-2 points lower at 242, soared to 229 and then fell back to 212 1-2 on the outburst of selling which followed the increase in call money. Curtiss opened unchanged at 150, soared to 165 1-2 and then plunged below the opening price. Radio dropped from 191 1-8 to 184 and Jersey Central sold down to 232, or eight points below the previous quotation.

Third Reading Given Civil Service Bill

OTTAWA, Ont., May 17. — (Canadian Press.)—Third reading was given by the house yesterday to the government bill which empowers the minister of national revenue to nominate customs appraisers, customs preventive service officers and drawback investigators for appointment by the civil service commission. Third reading came after defeat by 92 to 78 of an amendment moved by Hon. F. B. Bennett, leader of the opposition that the appointments should be made by the civil service commission. The vote was on straight party lines. Progressives and U. F. A. and Labor voted for the amendment. Government members and Liberal-Progressive voted against. The bill was then read a third time on the same vote, reversed.

OSHAWA SQUAD IN RARE FORM

STRONG INFIELD

Oshawa's C.O.A.B.L. squad is coming along in good style, and a number of the candidates are showing signs of real form. One thing that is deserving of favorable comment is the systematic way in which Manager Walt. Schults and Coach Stan. Burgoyne are putting the boys through their paces. Plenty of batting practice seems to be the strong point with both the manager and the coach and the result is that the boys are getting their eyes on the ball. Strong hitting wins ball games, and practice makes perfect.

Infield practices are being held regularly, and the inner works crowd, despite the adverse condition of the infield, are showing nice form, also the different shifts that are being worked out are going to combine into a remarkably strong defensive infield for the Motors clan. There is no denying that there is plenty of real good material and the "Big Sixes" are going to have an infield that will be hard to get past.

The outer gardeners are also acting in a whole-hearted manner, and are cavorting around gobbling up the high spirals in a fairly advanced way. The management is going to be kept busy picking their outfield players, on the form some are showing right now.

The big hustling squad is coming right along, too, and in another few days will be starting to dish the old pill up in mid-season form, while the big mitt artists are kept busy as bees ducking around between pitchers' warm-ups, infield workouts and batting practice.

FARMERS BUYING OWN THRESHERS

Wish To Get Grain On Market As Soon As Possible— Run By Tractors.

Moore Brothers of Warsaw, recently purchased a J. I. Case threshing outfit which consists of combination tractor and separator, from F. D McIntyre, the local dealer. This outfit was unloaded in this city, and the Moore Brothers are using the tractor in their spring work. In the fall they expect to do their own threshing with it. Farmers all over the country are purchasing their individual threshing outfits in order to thresh their grain as they draw it from the field, so that it may reach the early market.

Ty Cobb Adds Homer To Record

(By the Associated Press.)

While the leading members of the Big Six were idle yesterday through either rain or gaps in the schedule, Ty Cobb took the opportunity to add a home run and a single to his record. This gave Tyrus three points necessary to break a tie for fourth place existing between him and Frisch, who was idle, along with the entire first division. Cobb batted in four runs as the Athletics swamped Cleveland 15 to 2.

Harry Heilman, the only other Big Six entry to swing a bat yesterday, failed for the first time in eight games to add to his record, which dropped back from the .390's as a result.

The standing to date:

Wedding Bells

TOWNSEND—HEDLEY.

A pretty wedding took place on Tuesday afternoon at 3.30 in Trinity College Chapel, Toronto, when Miss Joan Alison Hedley, daughter of the Rev. Canon Charles W. Hedley, rector of the Church of the Transfiguration, and the late Mrs. Hedley, was married to Mr. John William Durant Townsend, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Townsend of Toronto. The chapel, with its grey stucco walls and blue hangings and carved altar, was decorated with plum blossoms and scythia in tall brass vases on the low steps on either side of the altar, where the same flowers were used. Mr. H. H. Troop played the wedding music. The bride's father, Canon Hedley, and the Rev. A. W. Mackenzie of Lakefield officiated. The bride, who was brought in by her uncle, Mr. Michael Mackenzie, was given away by her father, and looked pretty in a becoming frock of "moyen age" design with long, full skirt, quite plain, of white "Salome" velvet, and long tight sleeves. Over her long court train of velvet was a handsome veil of Limerick lace, held in cap effect on the head with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her shoes were of white satin and her bouquet, tied with white satin ribbons, was of pink roses and gypsophila. Her attendants included Miss Betty Bunting, maid of honor, and Miss Florence Mackenzie and Miss Gladys Heward, bridesmaids. Their pretty frocks were alike in design with folded satin sleeveless bodices held with a shoulder strap of the material and short tight skirts over which were full skirts longer at the back, of silk net with the skirt showing in front. Miss Bunting's frock was in pale pink crepe with satin slippers of the same shade and a larke pink mohair hat with very wide brim with a long scarf end at the right side. Miss Mackenzie and Miss Heward's frocks were in pale green with satin slippers and large green mohair hats. Miss Bunting carried a bouquet of sweet peas, and the bridesmaids, big bouquets of white sweet peas. They carried the bridegroom's gifts, French beaded purses. Mr. William Watson was best man. Mr. Gordon Cassels, Mr. Bruce Taylor and Mr. Gerald Strickland were ushers. Provost and Mrs. Cosgrave lent their charming house, "The Provost's Lodge", to the birde and bridegroom, and after the ceremony the Rev. Canon Hedley, Mrs. M. Mackenzie, aunt of the bride and Mrs. J. M. Duff, sister of the bridegroom, assisted. The reception was held in the large central hall with its large fireplace filled with plum blossoms and wild flowers. The bride and bridegroom, and after the big window with its background of palms and flowers. Mrs. Cosgrave wore a becoming French gown of periwinkle blue georgette with colored embroideries, the skirt cut on many points, small black hat banded with color.

The bride's table was done with roses and the big cake in the centre was swathed with tulle, with lilies-of-the-valley on top. Mr. Michael Mackenzie proposed his niece's health to which the bridegroom responded, proposing that of the bride's attendants, to which Mr. Watson, the best man, replied in clevery written verses. Canon Hedley proposed the health of Provost and Mrs. Cosgrave. Miss Betty Bunting caught the bride's bouquet as she threw it en route to the motor.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend left last night for Montreal and sail this week for England to spend two months and will later live in Toronto. The bride travelled in a smart ensemble of beige with hat of the same shade. Some of the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Senior, New York; Mrs. Rex Macdonald, Vancouver; Rev. A. A. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mackenzie, Lakefield; Mr. S. B. Townsend, Miss Townsend, Montreal; Mrs. Norman Mackenzie, Collingwood.

REVISION BILL IS APPROVED

Committee Decides It May Be Proceeded With in Parliament.

DEBATE NEXT MONTH.

LONDON, May 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The ecclesiastical committee of the Houses of Lords and Commons decided yesterday that the revised prayer book of the Church of England does not prejudicially affect the rights of his majesty's subjects and expressed the opinion that the measure should be proceeded with. The decision constituted the first round in the parliamentary struggle over the revised book.

Resolutions approving the measure will be submitted to each of the Houses of Parliament, to the Commons first, and the debate thereon will probably begin early in June.

U.S. WON'T EXTEND ROOT BRYCE TREATY

Does Not Agree With British Suggestion of Temporary Extension.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(Canadian Press).—The suggestion from the British Government that a temporary extension of the Root-Bryce arbitration treaty of 1908 for a period of six or eight months beyond June 4 next, when it expires, be brought about by an exchange of notes between two governments, has been found impossible by the United States.

The question was taken up with the Department of State several days ago by Sir Esme Howard, British Ambassador, who pointed out that his government had not found itself in agreement in all respects with the provisions of the Kellogg arbitration treaty, submitted by the United States to replace the expiring Root-Bryce treaty. The United States takes the stand that the only way the treaty could be extended would be by negotiation of an agreement extending the convention for the full five years provided in treaty itself.

CHAPTER X.

Garrett Folsom's sister, Miss Anastasia, blew into the Hotel Majusaca that evening.

She made such an entrance as the Queen of Sheba might have made on her historic visit to Solomon. And to carry Scripture analogies still further, she was terrible as an army with banners.

Accompanied by a maid and followed by a string of porters carrying her hand luggage, she strode up to the desk and demanded the manager.

Tuttle, the suave room clerk, stepped forward and proffered his services.

"I am Miss Folsom," announced the new arrival. "I want the best rooms you can give me. Or, better yet, let me have the suite my brother occupied; that is sure to be the best in the house."

"I can't give you that just now, madam," Tuttle told her, "for the police have it in charge. But I feel sure it can be arranged that you may occupy it while you are here. If you will take another room for the night—"

"No, I will not. Get hold of the police and tell them I insist on having those rooms. Who else could have them? And why let them go to waste? They're good rooms, aren't they?"

"Very good—"

"Then I want them and I mean to have them. Lord, I've enough trouble ahead of me, without being put into an uncomfortable bed! Paxton, take this bag, and take my coat."

She was tall, heavy, and of a commanding presence. She would have been ungainly, save that she possessed a certain air of sophistication and good breeding that was accentuated by her clothes.

These, though of a pronounced masculine cut, were perfectly tailored, and fitted exactly the muscular, vigorous shape.

An ensemble of black cloth, with trimming bands of black Bengaline, was of the latest mode and its lines adapted to make the very best of her somewhat difficult figure.

Altogether, as to manner and garb, Miss Folsom was correct, but her face was of the type that has long had the reputation of interfering with the motive power of a timepiece.

It was large and long. The high cheek bones were prominent, the nose, though undeniably aristocratic, was large and aquiline. The eyes were gray and glinting and darted about in angry impatience. And the mouth, a snapping, thin-lipped affair, promised unpleasant consequence to those who incurred the lady's disapproval.

Nonchalantly she took the coat flung at her, carelessly she accepted the bag, and then stood waiting, but scanning with interest the gay scenes about her.

Those nearest were at once observant of Miss Folsom, for no one could be near her and not notice her.

Already she was leaning over the desk, adding admonitory gestures to her spoken insistence on immediate service.

"But, Miss Folsom," Tuttle implored, "please realize I can't do this thing in a minute. I will confer with the police, over the telephone, and if possible I will give you your brother's rooms tonight. But it will take a few minutes, at least. Will you be good enough to step in a reception room, until I can get the connection?"

She indicated a nearby divan, and the maid sat down.

"Pile the bags there, and clear out," Miss Folsom further ordered the laden porters and then made a careless gesture which Paxton interpreted as an order to fee them as they went away.

Looking about the gay scene in the great reception hall, the women in evening dress, the flowers and lights, Miss Folsom gave a sniff of bored disdain and held out her hand to the maid.

Evidently used to silent orders Paxton opened a bag, and drew forth a cigaret case, and as Miss Folsom took one and tapped it on the back of her hand the maid provided a lighted match.

Calmed a little by the first whiffs of nicotine, Miss Folsom sat down to wait. She crossed her legs gracefully, exposing only the conventional amount of her pale colored silk stockings, and smoked thoughtfully, with an entire absence of self-consciousness or embarrassment.

It was not long before Tuttle reappeared and told her that Detective Jepson of the police force would arrive in a few moments, and he thought there was no reason why she should not take possession of her brother's rooms that night.

"Very well," snapped the lady. "There are two rooms?"

"Yes, madam. A bedroom and a sitting room.

"Then arrange to have a bed put in the sitting room for my maid. Or can you give me another adjoining room?"

"I'll find out," said Tuttle, hastily disappearing, for he dreaded further talk with the explosive personage who had invaded his quiet domain.

"Ross—the valet of Mr. Garrett Folsom. Where is he? Get him at once!"

"Yes—yes, ma'am. I'll—I'll see about it—"

"Don't see about it! Get him! Now—immediately!"

But assistance came from an unexpected quarter.

Tubby, passing, heard the demand, and his quick mind leaped to the conclusion that here was the sister of the dead man, and therefore a possible chance for services on his part that might bring welcome emolument. The Folsoms were rich, and the lady was evidently anxious.

But Tubby was gone even before she finished speaking.

And he returned in a very short time with the man in question.

"Oh, Ross," and in her stress of emotion, Miss Folsom grasped his hand. "Isn't it awful! What shall we do?"

"Awful, yes, ma'am," Ross agreed; keeping his poise and proper attitude, even though Miss Anastasia seemed on the verge of hysterics.

And, indeed, the poor woman lost her nerve at sight of the familiar figure of her brother's valet. Hitherto, the strange sights and sounds had so diverted her mind that her personal loss was more or less submerged, but Ross' well known face and voice brought back the realities of her life and she almost collapsed.

"Now, now, Miss Stasia," Ross said, in a low tone, "you must brace up you know. And don't stay here, ma'am. There's so many people about, and they're all so curious. Won't you—"

"What do I care?" she cried, angrily. "Did I ever notice people, Ross?"

"But they notice you, ma'am, and it's not so good. I make no doubt you can go into one of the offices of the management—"

"Of course I can! I can go where I like! But I prefer to stay here. I thought I'd see Mr. Neville before this—oh, there he is, now!"

And even as she spoke, Roger Neville approached, holding out his hand in greeting.

Demand Delays Presentation of Tariff Commission's Recommendation.

WASHINGTON, May 16 (Canadian Press).—The tariff commission's recommendation on milk and cream duties has not yet been sent to the president. Two weeks ago, the commission which investigated the cost of production in Canadian dairies, was ready for White House, and it was understood that an increase in duties would be recommended.

One reason for the delay may be the fact that at their meeting here last week executives of the Farmers Co-operative adopted a resolution demanding that Congress increase the duties on products of the farm and specified an increase to 40 cents a gallon on cream and to four cents a gallon on fresh and sour milk.

W.M.S. MEETING

Mrs. Forsythe Appointed Strangers' Secretary for Cottesloe Society.

COTTESLOE, May 17.—Mrs. Forsythe was appointed stranger's secretary at a meeting of the W.M.S. of Cottesloe, held in the church on Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was opened with a hymn and prayer by the president. It was decided to try to obtain a returned missionary to speak in the church. An invitation was accepted from the Warsaw W.M.S. to join them at the home of Mrs. Robert Moore for the June meeting.

An air service between Durban and Johannesburg is to be started this summer by the South African Union Government.

CATTLE, GRAIN AND PRODUCE

for wheat from North America proved disappointingly small. Wheat finished weak, 2 cents to 2¾ cents net lower, with corn unchanged to ¾ cent off; oats unchanged to 1 ¼ cent down, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to a rise of 10 cents.

Downturns in wheat prices were interrupted at times by rallies resulting from dry weather complaints from Canada and from some sections of domestic Spring crop territory, South Dakota in particular.

In this connection, special notice was taken of a dispatch by a Chisago expert at Bradley, S.D., saying that moisture over large areas had been barely sufficient to lay the dust, and that unless a soaking general rain came soon, South Dakota would raise only a small grain crop at best.

However, comprehensive advices later from a different source asserted that the greater part of the four principal Spring wheat states had received rain during the last few days, that the big wheat belt of North Dakota was well supplied, and that there was general optimism Northwest regarding domestic field conditions. Under such circumstance, selling pressure increased toward the last, especially on the part of houses with Eastern connections, and the close was but litle above the day's bottom level. Deliveries of wheat yesterday on Chicago May contracts amounted to 455,000 bushels.

In the corn market, rains and mild temperatures helpful to germination were a temporary bearish influence. The market effect, though, on corn was afterward largely counterbalanced by reports that corn and oats were being shipped into Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota, local supplies being exhausted.

Oats prices were unsettled, with the market running into selling orders on an advance. Crop estimates regarding oats were more favorable owing to rains.

A feature in the provision market was foreign buying of lard.

Miss Chris Meldrum, who has been operating at the local telegraph office, Craighead's bookstore has resigned her position and is returning to Belleville. Miss Clara Lidster will be the operator in charge.

At Campbellford L.C.I. 25 meeting Tuesday night, the Arch degree was exemplified. The team will visit the sister lodge in Marmora on Thursday night for the purpose of putting on the degree work there.

The general opinion of the band concert last Sunday night, as heard on the street, is that it was the best concert that the local band has ever put on. Visitors from out of town who heard the concert, have congratulated the town on having such an excellent band.

Elizabeth Free, aged 6, met with a painful accident early yesterday evening, while playing with some of her young friends. Apparently losing her nerve, the child fell out of a swing and landed heavily on her head. Medical attendance was at once on the scene and the wound attended. It was necessary to insert stitches. It is believed that the child will be about in the course of a day or two.

MADOC W.C.T.U. GIVES PRIZES

Several short readings were contributed on this theme—Political Status of Women (Bride Broder), by Mrs. Huffman, and Miss Saunderson contributed, "Working Together," and "The Power of Organization." Miss Alice Sinclair, R.N., gave something of her observations of prohibition in United States and of hearing Dr. Grenfell lecture on temperance.

Mrs. McCaffrey explained the essay work to be introduced into the S.S., and the prizes as offered by the publishers of The Northern Messenger.

The meetine was brought to a close by prayer offered by Mrs. J. Henderson, and a social half-hour was enjoyed by all.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Reid spent Sunday in Gananoque with Mrs. Reid's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Huffman and family of Belleville, spent Mothers' Day with Mrs. Huffman, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. R. Wellman in Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bailey and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Richmond.

Miss Tanguey of the High School staff, spent the week-end at her home in Lindsay.

Miss McRory, teacher in Madoc High School, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Sydenham.

Mr. Cleworth Foster has been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Foster.

WEDDING BELLS

WANNAMAKER—KENT.

MADOC, May 17.—At the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. W. W. Kent, second concession of Thurlow, a very pretty wedding took place on May 1st, at half past eight in the evening, when Gertrude E. Kent became the bride of Charles Wannamaker, of Madoc. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. F. MacMullen.

The young couple were attended by Mrs. A. Stapley and Mr. John Devail.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to about twenty guests. Mr. and Mrs. Wannamaker will reside in Thurslow.

OBITUARY

JAMES SCOTT McILVENA

WARSAW, May 17. — The funeral of James Scott McIlvena of Toronto, took place from the home of his son, Alexander McIlvena, on Monday afternoon. The service was held in the Anglican church, Warsaw, where Mr. McIlvena had worshipped while he lived in the village.

Mr. McIlvena, who was seventy-six years of age, died in Toronto on Friday, May 11, after an illness of about a month, although he had been in poor health for some time. He was born in Belfast, Ireland, and came to Warsaw with his parents in 1852. When he reached manhood he went to Apsley but about ten years ago he returned to Warsaw, and about four years ago he with his wife and unmarried children, moved to Toronto.

His wife, who survives him, was Josephine McLean. There are also eight children surviving: three sons, Alex., in Peterborough; Oliver in Warsaw; Theodore in Toronto; and five daughters: Mrs. Coons, Sudbury, Miss Margaret at home; Mrs. William Cuffe Toronto; Mrs. Harold Johnson, Coe Hill, and Mrs. Allan Hendren, Toronto. A sister, Miss Eliza McIlvena, lives in Peterborough, and a brother, John McIlvena, near Quebec.

Mr. McIlvena was a blacksmith, and one who knew his business well. The pall bearers were Messrs. Thos. Cuffe, Charles Calder, Albert Cooper, Uriah Payne, Fred Morgan and William Davis.

COMMUNITY PLATE Week

Thinking of Brides . . . ?
Give a thought to the Groom

And this holds true of entertaining too.

A hostess successful with men is almost always exacting about the quality of her knife-blades—part of an intuition about men—as logical as her lip-stick.

Your table may look as breathlessly lovely as a stage setting . . . but if your guests have to struggle with a silver-blade knife, it leaves a most unfortunate impression of your hospitality.

The new COMMUNITY De Luxe Stainless knives—made in all COMMUNITY Patterns—have steel blades as relentlessly sharp as a Turk's scimitar . . . and as bright as polished silver. They are $10.00 for six at your silverware dealer's.

You can match any Community Plate pattern—new or old—in any piece, at any time.

at the outset of the sitting to make a statement in respect to the casual mention of his name by Ald. Coldwell Tuesday. I wish to state emphatically that in the time I was acting Minister of Immigration in July, 1926, I personally issued no permits to any one and no permits were illegally or irregularly issued to any one," Dr. Manion declared.

In fact no permits of any kind were issued which were not wholly within the law and the regulations."

Dr. Manion emphatically denied that he had communicated at any time by word or letter with Mr. Forke regarding permits. He felt that Mr. Forke would agree with him in this statement. The incident closed by Ald. Coldwell stating that he had merely mentioned Dr. Manion's name as having held the portfolio as acting Minister of Immigration.

Ald. Coldwell expressed his deep regret at having casually mentioned Dr. Manion's name; but said he had not suggested that Dr. Manion had had any connection in any way whatsoever with the issue of large numbers of permits.

Progressive Leader.

In his evidence, Mr. Forke said that he had met Mr. Coldwell in Regina during the campaign of 1925, as progressive leader, Mr. Forke had spoken on Mr. Coldwell's behalf as Mister Coldwell was then a Progressive candidate for Parliament. In March 1927 he had had a personal conversation with Mr. Coldwell in Ottawa. Mr. Coldwell at the time approached Mr. Forke to explain that he (Mr. Coldwell) had no connection with the request for permits made by a young lawyer, to whom Mr. Coldwell had given a letter of introduction to Mr. Forke. In this general and personal conversation Mr. Forke said he had mentioned to Ald. Coldwell some of the difficulties in regard to issuing permits. "I expressed my desire that there be nothing in connection with my conduct of affairs that would not be absolutely correct," Mr. Forke stated.

"In reference to any conversation about general trafficking in permits," continued Mr. Forke, "when I came into the department, I knew nothing about it whatsoever, but soon after I came in a case came up where a young man admitted to me that he was getting $100 and that put me on my guard and perhaps made me suspicious of all applications in large numbers.

I had no knowledge whatsoever, that there was general trafficking, but I just thought if this young man could get $100 for these permits, which might it not be that other people who were applying could do the same thing. That was the only idea I had of general trafficking, and it was in this connection that I explained to Mr. Coldwell how careful I had to be. I can say now, that I had no knowledge, by admission or otherwise, of any other case but this one, in which money was being received for permits."

The Mail and Empire carries the following interesting item to-day, with a cut of Miss Wallis inset: "Miss Katherine Wallis, the artist who, according to a recent cable, had two paintings hung at the Paris Spring salon in the Societe Nationale des Beauxs Arts section, came from Peterboro, Ontario. Miss Wallis was in Canada in the late summer of 1920 and visited the Canadian National Exhibition here the first week in September, where she exhibited a statuette called "The Dawn of Peace," and a bas relief, "The Joys of Solitude," wherein was represented a woman seated in a library with a book resting on her knee, a dog lying at her feet and a vase of roses beside her. Miss Wallis studied with Mons. Waldman in Paris. She told The Mail and Empire, when she was here, that he was the greatest living animal sculptor and "portraitiste." Referring to the latter she said there was no one English word to quite take its place. It was a sort of portrait sculptor. At the time of her visit in Toronto a local evening paper referred to Miss Wallis as a 'sculpturess.' Asked how she liked that, a broad smile was her first answer, followed in a moment by: 'Well, I prefer sculptor. I don't see why we should be called sculptresses any more than paintresses or writeresses'."

REV. J. H. SUTCLIFFE ADDRESSES W.M.S.

Perfect Religion at Home Basis of Perfect Dissemination, He Says.

Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church, gave an interesting address on the work of the Women's Missionary Society at the monthly meeting in Reid street hall, yesterday afternoon of the W.M.S. of Trinity United Church. The speaker outlined the worthy objects and aims of the society and said that religion to be disseminated perfectly abroad, must first be perfect at home.

There was a good attendance at the meeting which was in charge of the president, Mrs. A. F. Bookhout, and later, after routine business had been transacted, of Mrs. H. Stenson's group.

LYRICS OF LIFE

FATE

I've found this true this whole life through,
And I've lived long enough to know:
That, when men weep, the things they reap
They largely reap from things they sow.

I've found this true: by things they do
And not by fate they are undone;
Though much we claim, and much we blame
The world around us, we're the one.

I've found this true, and you will, too:
We loudly plan the larger things,
But when we fall it is the small
Omission that disaster brings.

I've found this true, that I and you
Complain, condemn, and even hate,
Yet in this strife that men call life
That every man is his own fate.

I've found this true: defeat is due
To mortals more, and less to chance.
Tomorrow's fray is won today,
Today before the first advance.
The man tonight who plans it right
Tomorrow makes the battle his.
And that is all the fate there is.

HOROSCOPE

The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate)

FOR FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1928.

Fairly good fortune attends this day according to astrology which reads in the stars promise of friendly aid.

New leaders are to rise among women and one who spans the gap between the past and present is to attain supreme honors. It is foretold.

Weddings today should be happy indeed, for plenty of love as well as money may be expected.

There is a sign of great promise for those who engage in romantic friendships, for out of them should grow lucky marriage, the seers declare.

Again marriage is to be widely discussed and there is to be a decided reaction against radical views, it is prophesied.

The evening of this day should be a rarely fortunate one for theatres and success for new productions appears to be indicated.

The trend of plays is to be toward presentation of serious life problems that confront normal persons, instead of toward studies of abnormal states of mind, astrologers forecast.

Revival of interest in domestic pursuits is indicated for women who will bring to the home many charming changes.

Development of engineering to meet the demands of stupendous enterprises is predicted and Americans will win fame by their splendid talents and training, the stars presage.

Again warning is given against the use of drugs which will spread instead of diminishing, despite all reform work.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year favorable to social affairs and to success in the arts.

Children born on this day probably will be gifted in music and will have other artistic leanings.

NEW STRENGTH FOR ALL WEAK GIRLS

Comes From the Rich, Red Blood Made By Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There must be no guesswork in the treatment of pale, anaemic girls and children. If your daughter is languid, has a pale, sallow complexion, is short of breath after slight exertion or on going up stairs, if she has palpitation of the heart, a poor appetite, or a tendency to faint, she has anaemia—the medical name for poverty of the blood. Any delay in treatment may leave her weak and sickly for the rest of her life. When the blood is thin and watery give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, coupled with nourishing food and gentle out-of-door exercise. The new, life-giving blood which comes from a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, increases the appetite, stimulates the nerves and brings a glow of health to pale cheeks. Mrs. Robert Jackson, R.R. No. 5, Shelburne, Ont., praises this medicine for restoring her daughter's health. She says:—"When my daughter was nine years old she was so weak and thin that we feared we would lose her. She was very nervous, and going to school seemed too much for her. Often she would have to stay at home for days at a time. At times she would have a very high fever, and the doctor's treatment did not help her. I tried several remedies, but with no good results. One day a friend advised me to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I did so. It was not very long after she began taking the pills that I could see a change for the better. She kept on taking the pills for several months, and through them grew into a strong, healthy girl. Since then, if a tonic has been needed at any time, it has always been Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

The pills are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PESKY PUS POCKETS.

Many people who suffer with diseases of an obscure cause have been told that their teeth or tonsils must come out, or that their sinuses must be drained. These infections are now considered by many physicians as being a cause of diseases such as rheumatism, neuralgia, or neuritis. This means that a pus pocket with no external drainage has formed in some part of the body, and that this poison is absorbed by the blood and carried to other parts. This type of pus pocket is termed a "focal" infection. The doctor therefore tries to search out these poison pockets and to treat them with medical applications or surgery. It is true that this method of treatment sometimes brings a temporary relief, but it is also well-known that many cases do not respond and that even if they do, the results are not often permanent.

Many diseases are accompanied by this sinus or focal trouble, but then there are very few individuals who have not some point of focal infection, and only a small percentage develop those diseases that are supposed to be caused by this condition. I have reached the conclusion that instead of the latter causing the former, they are both caused by a primary toxic condition.

The sinus or antrum is a hollow, honeycombed space in the bones of the face or head which can easily fill with catarrhal mucus, especially with one whose blood or lymph fluids contain much waste material. When this waste is thrown out through the nose, the disease is called catarrh, but if it collects in the sinus or antrum it will produce pressure accompanied by pain and inflammation very much as happens when the mastoid cells become filled with mucus and pus, as in mastoiditis.

The pain of an inflamed sinus is sometimes almost unbearable, and the usual treatment is to puncture it and drain these hollow spaces. This relieves the situation, but unless the patient's system is cleansed of the material that caused the trouble, there is almost always a recurrent attack after a few months.

There is only one method that I know of that will permanently empty out these cavities, and that is the fasting treatment, followed by a rigid diet to prevent this trouble returning. A citrus fruit fast should be taken for a week or ten days, and then followed by a diet absolutely free from starches and sugars of any kind. This strict diet must be continued for at least a year, and it may be necessary to take an occasional fast if there is any indication of the trouble reappearing.

Treatments with electricity or heat over the diseased area will assist in the absorption of the waste material.

I am sure you will find this method is the most satisfactory one.

Questions and Answers.

Question—Mrs. H. P. asks: "Will you please tell me the best diet for tubercular bowel?"

Answer—The diet must be well balanced, but with a minimum of starches and sugars. The most effective treatment is to use two or three warm water enemas a day. At the same time, it is necessary to build up the general strength of the body in order to overcome any form of tuberculosis. Strength can come only from exercising,so you must take calisthenic exercises, and walk increased distances each day.

Question—H. F. writes: "You mention a food in your weekly menus called 'zucchini'. Will you please explain what it is, as I have never heard of it before?"

Answer—You probably missed the menu on which a footnote was made explaining about this vegetable. Zucchini is a small Italian squash, similar to the ordinary summer squash, and may be used freely as a non-starchy vegetable if cooked by boiling or baking. As this vegetable is sometimes difficult to obtain in certain parts of the country, the ordinary summer squash may always be substituted when the zucchini is included in the weekly menus.

Question—F. K. L. writes: "Kindly advise through your question and answer column what will take acid out of the blood for good."

Answer—The blood is never acid until death, but most people who are ill have a lowered alkalinity of the blood. This can be corrected by living on a well-balanced diet such as I recommend in this column each week.

Two well-known theories—that the more a man shaves the harder his beard grows, and that beards grow more rapidly in warm weather—have been exploded by an eminent scientist.

Waseda University, in Tokyo, is to have the first theatrical library-museum in all of Asia and the first such building anywhere dedicted primarily to William Shakespeare save for the Shakespeare Memorial at Stratford-on-Avon.

INTERESTING ENGAGEMENT

An interesting engagement has just been announced, that of Miss Marjorie Reeves, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Reeves, of Fort Frances, Ont., to Mr. John C. "Red" Porter, captain of the Varsity Grads, winner of the world's hockey championship at St. Moritz, and son of Dr. and Mrs. George Porter, Toronto, the marriage to take place in Toronto on June 30. Miss Reeves has just returned from New York where for the past few weeks through her talent and beauty she has been capturing the hearts of the theatre-going world in Flo Ziegfeld's musical comedy, "Rio Rita."

DRESS

Here are two views of the right member of a new pair of beige kid sandals. The sketch above shows the outside and the lower sketch the less elaborate left side.

Asymmetrical shoes, they call them—which merely means that they are differently trimmed on the different sides. In a way, of course, all pairs of shoes are asymmetrical. Left shoes are not like right shoes if for no other reason than because left feet are not right feet. They are just the other way round—if you know what I mean. One of the first things that children learn when they start to dress themselves is that it really does make a difference which shoe you put on which foot.

Besides that, strapped shoes have always been a little different on the two sides and the old-fashioned button shoe was decidedly different.

These new asymmetrical shoes show a decidedly different treatment on the two sides. One pair of shoes may be almost entirely of kid on the insides and almost entirely of snakeskin on the outside. The sandals shown above differ as to the arrangement of the narrow bands of snakeskin—not much but enough to make them show that they are in line with the new fashion.

In spite of the undoubted pre-eminence of American shoe manufacturers, the fact remains that the most important style changes still emanate from the custom shoemakers of Paris, and it is also interesting to note that at least three of these influential French shoemakers are women.

When I asked our French correspondent what was the most important material used by these shoemakers, she wrote back as an answer: "Imagination." "Originality and imagination are surely the important stock in trade of such producers as Hellstern and Perugia." They have never been content to work along the beaten track and in making shoes for their exacting clients they have employed Hindu brocades of pure gold, heavy Chinese silks, as well as lizard, crocodile and various reptile skins. Edith, one of the most important makers of fancy afternoon and evening shoes, uses galuchat—a leather that is so expensive that jewelers use it in combination with precious stones.

Why We Do What We Do.

WHY WE THINK

By Mehran K. Thomson, Ph.D.

(Author, The Springs of Human Action)

"People do not think" you often hear it said. This is true. The reason is that we don't need to

Long before human beings did any thinking at all they lived a sort of animal existence. Thinking is not absolutely essential to life, not even to the type of human life that most people live. If you examine your own daily program and follow it through closely you will find that you live mostly by your instincts, habits, emotions, prejudices and a lot of mechanisms that require no thinking in the strict sense of the term. We are social animals and follow the crowds. We do what others are doing. We are constantly subjected to the law of imitation and suggestion.

We think only when we are in a tight place. When the rent is due and we have not the money to pay, when we go walking and lose our way. If instinct and habit and emotion fail us we are compelled to think. This happens when we are confronted with a new situation, one for which we have no ready-made solution.

Thinking is "mental exploration." It means going over in the mind the various possibilities for the solution of a problem, for the various avenues of escape when one is cornered. It involves the use of imagination.

Thinking has untold uses and there is no end to the reasons why we think. But all of these may be summarized in the general statement that we think only and when we are confronted with a problem whether real or fancied.

We may think for the fun of exercising the intellectual powers, in winning a game, in getting out of a scrape, in making money, in getting the better of another person or situation, but always thinking involves the effort to find a way out of a problem that is new to us and for which our ready-made reaction patterns of instinct and habit and all the other mechanical and unconscious activities prove inadequate.

Who likes "Canada Dry" better than children?

Tell us that!

ALL sorts of people like this rare old ginger ale. We know that. Princes. Prime Ministers. Members of Parliament. Travelers. Citizens of the World. Hunters. Explorers. Those who are intimates of the great everywhere. And those who stay at home.

But who likes "Canada Dry" better than the children? Tell us that!

Just watch them when they take their first sip of this fine old ginger ale. Don't their eyes sparkle? Don't they smack their lips, though? And don't they call for more? Of course they do!

Give it to them, for this fine old product has been a favorite with parents for many years. This ginger ale is made from the finest quality of Jamaica ginger and other absolutely pure ingredients. It is the purest beverage you can possibly buy anywhere. The ginger in it, as well as the carbonation, make it particularly good for the children!

MARKET DEMANDS NEAT LOOKING SHEEP

Docking Improves Appearance Without Harming Animals in Any Way.

If it was necessary to keep the flies off sheep their tails might be useful, but as it is they are absolutely unnecessary and in many cases a serious detriment to the health of both sheep and lambs. Docking not only helps to maintain the health of the flock, but a docked lamb presents a much better appearance on the market, and for that reason is more easily sold. Docking and castrating may be done at the same time without ill effects, although many farmers prefer to make two operations. In either case the ordinary sanitary precautions should be followed, and the lambs kept in a cool clean place where they can be watched for a couple of days. Where excessive bleeding takes place tie the stub with a piece of string, but be sure to remove the string later.

The secret of good selling is to provide the market with the class of stuff it wants done up as attractively as possible.

We hear Ourselves!

—as others hear us—is the verdict of the famous Victor Artists who sing and play, so that you too may hear them on the new Orthophonic Victrola

Naturalness is precisely what you get in Orthophonic Victrola music at home, whether it is the "Sextette from Lucia" or "Cohen on the Telephone". It is amazingly real, whether a solo voice, clear and pure, or a chorus of a thousand voices extending from soprano to bass;—a saxaphone solo or a symphony concert. The new Orthophonic Victrola gives you the "feel" of the performance, and you get this, above all in your own home, at the time you select.

These wonderful performances of music come to you only because "Matched Impedance", brings them to you. In more popular words the Victor controlled principle which applies "smooth flow of sound" to every Orthophonic Victrola.

To play you music so fine, you may have cabinets of rare beauty, smart designs, carefully selected woods. Electric drive, if you wish, at slight additional cost. All instruments self-stopping. Prices from $1400 to as low as $115, on convenient payments at any His Master's Voice dealers. Hear them play—today. Arrange for a home demonstration.

TABLEAU IN HONOR OF MOTHER'S DAY

Value of Prayer Shown in Program Given at S. A. Temple.

An interesting story, told in tableaux and with musical illustration by the Temple Band and Songsters, brought Mother Day celebrations to a close at the Temple. Ensign Green who was chairman, in a few introductory remarks emphasized the value of prayer, more especially in a mother's life, as would be shown in the evening's story.

While the audience listened to that international song, "Home Sweet Home," the curtain was drawn, and mother, surrounded by the little family with their books and toys, sat and a moments change, and those present saw the tendering of the blossoms tokens of affection to mother. Just as it seemed mother's joy was to be complete, family growing up, came the wrench of parting and her boy left home to seek fame and fortune and with last words of cheer to him, even through her tears she gave him a Bible and saw him wave his hat as he turned the corner.

A room in lodging house was shown next, with the boy asleep, dreaming of mother kneeling in prayer, and those happy visions of childhood days. The opposite picture showed mother with his photo and her tears wondering where her boy was wandering. A Salvation Army lassie called and offered words of comfort, but was bid by the mother find her boy. Anxiety brought in its steps illness and the mother was shown on her death bed, and again her visitor was the Army lassie and with dying breath she lisped her prayers and forgiveness for her boy.

A gambling den with its bottles and glasses and the attendant evils of these confines showed the boy with his "friends" enjoying life. Laying a hand on his shoulder the Army man reminded him of mother and conveyed the message that in a graveyard lonely lay his best friend. Torn with sorrow at his waywardness re returned home to his mother's house, but there was the empty chair. Again the Army man called and pointed the wanderer to the cross and his mother's Saviour.

A miraculous transformation showed the boy in the well known uniform of an Army bandsman and as he gazed at the cross there comes a call for service— missionary lands, heathens, and although the world, wealth and ease make effort to detract him, he answered and was finally shown a missionary officer pledging himself to the cross and to the Army flag.

This story, very vividly illustrated, reflects considerable credit on Mrs. Ensign Green, who arranged the cast and tableaux. Songster Leader B. Smith and the Songsters and Bandmaster F. W. Robinson and the Band, aided with their music in making the evening a fitting climax to the Mother Day celebration.

WAS VERY WEAK NERVOUS AND MELANCHOLY

Mrs. Geo. McKenzie, Campbellford, Ont., writes:—"A short time ago I was troubled very badly with my heart and nerves, the cause of it, I think, was my going through the change of life.

"I was very weak and melancholy, and so nervous I could hardly bear to hear a clock ticking, and I did not sleep well.

"I was advised to try MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS so I sent at once for a box; took them and got another, and before they were all gone I felt good, my nerves are fine, I do not mind any noise, and I can sleep well. I cannot recommend them too highly to those suffering as I did."

AUSTRALIA GETS FEW BRITISHERS

Visitor From South Declares Canada Has No Problem Like Island Continent.

TORONTO, May 17. — Canada doesn't know what a real immigration problem is, declared J. G. Money, sheep rancher of West Australia, in an interview on Wednesday.

"In comparison with Australia, Canada has no problem at all," he said. "Canada is getting more settlers than Australia, stories to the contrary notwithstanding. And she is getting a larger percentage of British than Australia is. And she doesn't need people as badly as Australia does. Increased population to Australia is a matter of life and death. Here it is simply a matter of economic pressure."

Mr. Money is one of the proprietors of the largest sheep ranch in West Australia, and controls a tract of grazing land comprising nearly a quarter of a million acres. He is in Toronto for a few days in the course of a round-the-world tour, which he expects to complete next October.

People Not Satisfied.

The people of Australia were extremely dissatisfied with the manner in which the continent's population needs were being looked after, Mr. Money said. No efficient and concrete immigration policy has as yet been adopted by the Government there. This was due, he declared, to the fact that a Labor Government was in power.

A certain number of British-born were coming into Australia, but they were few in comparison to the hordes of Southern Europeans who were settling there. This phase of the situation had become alarming to all who wanted Australia to remain British, he said.

Australia, with an area larger than that of the United States, had only 6,500,000 people. This state of affairs became alarming when it was realized that Pacific nations had directed covetous glances at the continent for years past and that it would be possible to land an army on the isolated coast regions of Australia and keep its presence secret for a month or more.

Without unprecedented increase of population during the next 20 years Australia would find herself in a serious predicament, Mr. Money believed.

MRS. HURD WINS TWO IN BRITISH GOLF OPEN

EIGHT WOMEN LEFT IN OPEN GOLF TOURNEY

Six British Players, One French and American in Contest.

PLAY DURING STORM

Glenna Collett Eliminated in Fourth Round by British Golfer.

HUNSTANTON, Eng., May 17.—Great Britain, the United States and France are represented in the surviving eight women golfers seeking the British championship.

The quarter finals this morning will find Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Philadelphia, left alone to represent the United States, and Mlle. Manette LeBlanc, as the sole representative of France. Six British players are left: Misses Joey Winn, Edith Corlett, Enid Wilson, S. Marshall, Judith Fowler and Mabel Wragg.

Miss Glenna Collett was eliminated in the fourth round by Miss Mabel Wragg, who, continuing to play well in a storm, defeated Mrs. A. J. Oxley in the afternoon 5 and 4.

Miss Wragg, Miss Collett's conqueror, survived the fifth round by defeating Mrs. A. J. Oxley, of Willingdon, five up and four to play.

Miss Joy Winn, who beat Miss Curtis, of the American team, passed through the fifth round by beating Miss Molly Gourlay, conqueror of another American, Mrs. Hanley, by five up and four to play.

Mrs. Hurd won two matches yesterday, defeating Miss Aline Dobson 5 and 3 and winning from Miss Doris Chambers, former champion, 6 and 5.

Mrs. Stewart Hanley, Detroit, and Miss Elizabeth Curtis, Clinton, Iowa, were eliminated with Miss Collett in the fourth round.

Mrs. Hurd meets Miss Fowler this morning and if successful will play the winner of the Wragg-Marshall match in the semi-finals in the afternoon.

Miss Collett was beaten three up and two to go by Miss M. Wragg, of Sheffield.

Miss Collett's defeat was a complete upset. She was expected to have a clear path up to the final and to meet there Miss Enid Wilson, strongest of the British women entered—as Miss Joyce Wethered and Miss Cecil Leitch, the leaders in women's golf over here, were not entered.

Miss Joy Winn, 1925 runner-up in the English native championship, beat Miss Elizabeth Curtis, of Clinton, Iowa, six up and five to play.

Miss Molly Gourlay, 1926 English native champion, beat Mrs. Stewart Hanley, of Detroit, seven up and six to play.

Mrs. Hurd defeated Miss Aline Dobson, of Brocton Hall, five up and three to play.

As Mrs. Hurd and Miss Chambers started their fifth round match, weather conditions were little better than those prevailing in the morning. The Philadelphia player, native of Edinburgh, did not seem to mind the weather.

Miss Chambers won the first hole with a par four, Mrs. Hurd taking 5, but her veteran opponent took the next 4 before Miss Chambers could get another par 4 to win at the sixth. Mrs. Hurd came back with a three to win the short seventh and a 5 was good enough to win the eighth. The ninth was halved in 5's, leaving Mrs. Hurd 4 up at the turn.

She then stepped out to win the tenth, halve the next two and close the match out with a win at the 13th, where she was down in par four.

Ruth and Gehrig Mobbed By Youths

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 17, Canadian Press. — The exhibition game here yesterday between the New York Yankees, and the New Haven Eastern League Club, broke up in a riot in the eighth inning when thousands of boys rushed the police, and mobbed Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig in their excitement to get close to their heroes.

New Haven won the game 6 to 5, bunching hits off Myles Thomas in the fourth and sev-

VIEWS ON SPORT

Lindsay Monarchs, C.G.E., and the local "Y" will compete in the two-mile relay race at the Brock Street Arena to-night.

Jack Deannard's squad is coming along in grand style, and a number of the candidates are showing real form. Howden and J. Crary will probably do the hurling, while Cotton and Kennealy will no doubt share the honors behind the bat. T. LeBarr, Terry Hall, Walton, Dormer, and Graham form the nucleus of a strong infield. The outfielders are kept busy by the batting practice of both juniors and juveniles.

* * * * * *

McFadden's Royals are coming right along, too. The youngsters have been practising hard for some time, and with Gordon, H. Hollingsworth, Murray, Hartley, and Stan. Jones, they are going to have an infield hard to beat. Newson, a product of the Oakwood Collegiate, Toronto, is a snappy fielder. Hope is not a stranger in the outer garden, while Sturgeon is also performing well in that area. Holmes, Kitchen, and a new southpaw will do the hurling with Doug. Hatton, who will begin his fourth season behind the bat.

* * * * * *

Gordon Cuthbertson is acting as a playing manager at present for the Kiwanis Juveniles. A snappy practice was held with the juniors last night, with Whatley and Jones forming the battery. Other notables on the hurling staff are Merritt, Braund, and Woods. Cuthbertson will play shortstop, with McCulloch, Sproats, and Green on the sacks. Dunkerly, Foley, Dallin, and Cairns in the outfield are being put through their paces, and show signs of real form.

* * * * * *

The Moose Bantams held their second practice at the Exhibition Grounds last night. Some snappy youngsters are turning out for Bill Carey's aggregation, and with a few more players, will come right along. After a fielding practice, a game was played with the Cognawagas, with Billingsley and Magee forming the battery against the youngsters. Cuffe, Grose, Billingsley, and Baker are new comers to Dorse Davis' crew this season.

PHYSICAL COMPARISONS

NEW YORK, May 17 ((Canadian Press). — Sammy Mandell, sheik from Rockford, Ill., may have something on Jimmy McLarnin in that he knows that he is the lightweight champion, but it does not show in the physical comparison. JAMESTOWN, N.Y., May 17.—(Canadian Press.)—John Sale of Passaic, N.J., led C .C. Pyle's transcontinental foot race into New York State yesterday, covering the sixty miles from Erie, Pa., to Jamestown in eight hours 46 minutes and five seconds. Sale, second in the race standing, has an elapsed time of 507:33:12 for the 2,950 miles.

Andrew Payne of Claremore, Oklahoma, the leader, saw one hour 39 minutes and 52 seconds of his lead over Salo taken away yesterday when he finished in a tie for fourth place with Phillip Granville of Hamilton, Ont., and Louis Perella, of Albany. Their time was 10:25:57. Payne's total elapsed time is 487:23:37, which still gives him a lead of more than 20 hours over Salo.

Granville is third in 521:35:07, and Perrella sixth in 541:56:33.

Gustav Umek, of Italy, finished second in yesteray's lap in 9:36:32. Umek holds fifth place in the standing with the elapsed time of 540:30:28.

Sam Richman, of New York, took third place in 10:15:04.

C.G.E. GAINED LEAGUE POINTS FROM THISTLE

C.G.E. 1, THISTLE 0.

FIRST HALF.

The game started a few minutes late with the C.G.E. at full strength and the Thistle minus a player, although there were three players present, who could have participated provided the equipment to fit them had been available. After two minutes play the C.G.E. forwards worked inside the opposing defence to be held in check and a mass of men opposite the goal mouth caused a scrimmage.

Jack Wade Scored.

Each attack was frustrated until the C.G.E. centre forward banged the ball from a few yards out in amongst a sea of legs that finally found a resting place in the net. Encouraged by their success they came back again to be robbed of a sure goal when Bromley took the ball off James' foot in below the bar. Of course the game was not confined to one area because the Thistle made repeated raids into the C.G.E. territory that proved interesting and provided excitement to the fans. Finally Robb relieve the pressure to let Wade make tracks for the Thistle custodian but his progress was nullied by Bromley who never allowed his man any latitude near the goal.

Style of Play Changed.

Both elevens altered their style of play to the long swinging passes, which opened up the tactics to a fast pace. This method allowed the wing men the opportunity to show their ability but the half backs hecked very closely thereby giving the fullbacks plenty of time to clear the attacks. Flag kicks came in abundance thereafter on behalf of the C.G.E., that failed to be converted.

Just before half time Hyslop kicked the ball out of the goal mouth, after the custodian had failed to clear the C.G.E. effort and continued to press when the whistle sounded the interval

C.G.E. 1 Thistle 0.

HALF TIME.

The second moiety was full of thrills each goal undergoing a bombardment without any success being obtained. A visit to the C.G.E. goal almost proved costly when A. Beggs carried the sphere right into the goal-keeper's place to be given the legitimate shoulder, and lose the ball. Frank Wade punted clear upfield. Laidler beat along the wing with the ball, then centred accurately, McLeod's cranium heading clear. It was brought back again into a scrimmage where the players tried to force the issue.

Griffine Held Them.

The C. G. E. players carried the ball right up against the Thistle custodian, who met the onslaught in an easy manner by coming out of his goals to pick it away from their foot. After fifteen minutes fast play the winners fell away considerably. This permitted O. Beggs to indulge in his favorite code of dribbling also feeding his wing men with the ball. Time and again, the 'Jags' forwards dominated the play and held the manoeuvres to the C. G. E. goal.

Goal Had Narrow Escapes.

Backed up by a supreme half-back line. The Thistle four men forwards baffled the winners' defence and were unfortunate to not gain the equalizer because Frank Wade ran back into the goal in the nick of time to stop Beggs' great effort; then the C.G.E. custodian fisted a well placed attempt from the foot of McPhate. As time went on it was finally conceded a lucky brace of points to the C.G.E. because the ten players were the masters of the situation.

C.G.E. 1; Thistle 0.

Goal scorer, Jack Wade.

Thistle: Griffine, goal; McLeod and Hyslop backs; W. Beggs, Bromley and Armstrong, halves; Mayette, House, Beggs and McPhate forwards.

C.G.E.: Winks goal; Munkley and F. Wade, backs; H. Mann, Robb and Blowers, halves; A. Mitchell, James, J. Wade, Dawson and Laidler forwards.

Referee: Alex. McKinley.

DEMPSEY TRAINING.

Also Reported in Communication With Tex Rickard Recently.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 16. — (Canadian Press).—The Examiner says to-day that Jack Dempsey has been seen lately hiking over the Los Felix Hills and working out in a gymnasium, evidently in preparation for a fight. It also developed he was in communication with Tex Rickard last night. Dempsey was reported to have said he would fight Tunney in September if Rickard met his terms.

RUBE WALBERG HOLDS TRIBE

POUND THREE HURLERS

NEW YORK, May 17. Canadian Press. — The Athletics hammered three Cleveland pitchers for 15 hits at Philadelphia yesterday and took the odd engagement in a five game series by 15 to 2. Rube Walberg held the Tribe to five hits and won his fifth consecutive game.

Walter Miller, who started for the Indians, was driven from the box by a second inning hurricane, which netted six hits and six runs. The Athletics pulled two double steals and Luke Sewell in this round.

Cobb and Hale each hit a home run with one on base off Harder in the fourth, giving the Athletics four more. Jimy Foxx, the slugging star of the series had a perfect day at bat with a double, two triples and two passes.

Fonseca hit a home run for the visitors.

Victor Sorrell, the young Detroit pitcher was the victim of his own wildness at Boston when the Red Sox nosed out the Tigers by 5 to 4 in 11 innings. Two passes and an infield single filled the bases with none out in the eleventh, and Regen's short sacrifice to Rasterling allowed Rothrock, a pinch runner to score with the winning marker.

The victory was Boston's fifth straight, and Detroit's sixth successive defeat. Slim Harriss relieved Settlemire in the seventh after Forthergill's defeat had driven home two runs to tie the score. Harriss permitted no Tiger even to reach first.

Only games scheduled.

CATS TAKE THIRD GAME

Manger's Homer in Tenth Wins 5-3 Decision for Jersey.

ROYALS WIN 8-5

BUFFALO, May 7. — (Canadian Press.)—Manger's home run smash with a man on the tenth inning enabled the Jersey City Black Cats to take the third game of the series from the Bisons here yesterday 5 to 3. Manager Gilhooley's two-base drive with Kunesch on first and two out in the ninth scored the runner and sent the game into extra innings. The Bisons filled the bases with none out in their half of the ninth round, but were unable to score.

Rochester Takes Third.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 17.—(Canadian Press.)— Rochester took the third game of the series with the Newark Bears here yesterday 8 to 3, getting to Fritz Adams when hits meant runs. Billy Kelly singled three times and each attempt scored a runner. Herman Bell turned in his sixth victory in the circuit, without a defeat registered on his record. Before the game, Manager Walter Johnston was presented with a wardrobe trunk by Rochester admirers.

Rally To Win 8-5 Victory.

MONTREAL, Que., May 17.—(Canadian Press.)—After the score had been tied twice, Montreal Royals rallied in the sixth inning to push across three runs and beat Baltimore, 8-5, in the third game of the series here yesterday.

Pitcher Rufus Smith won his own game with a single in this frame. With Fowler on the bases and two out, Coumbe purposely passed Daly to get at Smith, who scored a single for two runs to win the game. Haines, who followed, tripled, scoring Smith with the other Montreal tally.

A spectacular running catch by Fleming in centre field, prevented the Royals from getting two more in the eighth.

"The Legion of the Condemned" is one of the year's greatest pictures. We can highly recommend it. Many like it better than "Wings."

"LITTLE SHEPHERD OF KINGDOM COME"

THEATRES

AT THE CAPITOL.

"THE LEGION OF THE CONDEMNED" THE COMPANION PICTURE TO "WINGS" OPENS AT THE CAPITOL TO-DAY—ONE OF THE YEAR'S GREATEST PRODUCTIONS.

Timeliness is always an attribute in appealing to the motion picture public and, as was the case of "Wings", the epic of the air, "The Legion of the Condemned", another screen story of the aviator, which opens at the Capitol to-day.

Following in the wake of Col. Lindbergh's flight, the country has been demanding more and more air stories. With "Wings" and "The Legion of the Condemned", Paramount is more than keeping abreast of the times.

"The Legion of the Condemned" will give the spectator full entertainment along lines, namely thrills, love, interest and entertainment. From the man who takes his flying seriously right down to the flapper who likewise dwells a bit upon the romantic side, no one is to leave the theater where this picture is being shown without a fine reaction.

It is the War again. You cannot get away from that, but it is the War from an angle only touched upon in "Wings" and developed to a high degree in this story. A young American, a newspaperman, thrown together with members of an unattached flying unit at the front; men who have debts against society that can be obliterated only by an honorable death. They fight for the dangerous missions, making their deeds of valor the talk and envy of the fighting front.

It was only natural that Paramount would select young William Wellman to direct "The Legion of the Condemned." In the first place he was a member of the Lafayette Squadron himself during the War and there is little you could tell him about the photographing of air pictures.

Further than that, the story is from the pen of John Monk Saunders, the author of "Wings."

In the leading roles are Gary Cooper, as the young American newspaperman turned ace, Fay Wray, discovered by Eric von Stroheim and given the lead in "The Wedding March." Both turn in splendid performances. Other members of the cast are Barry Norton of "What Price Glory?" fame, Lane Chandler, Voya George, Francis McDonald, Charlot Bird, Freeman Wood and E. H. Calvert.

AT THE GRAND.

THE DUMBELLS AT THE GRAND FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

That the Dumbells have an appropriate title for their new spring-time revue, "Bubbling Over", seems to be the unanimous decision of those who have seen it further west. From all reports, the show is fairly bubbly over with novelties and surprise hits. The versatility of the various members of this splendid organization has been put to the test in many cases and some excellent characterizations have been created.

Shakespeare said that one man in his life played many parts. Captain Plunkett has gone him one better this time, and one man in a night plays many parts, and none are sad ones. "Bubbling Over" was conceived in a spirit of fun and is carried on for laughing purposes only.

Out of sixteen featured members of the present company eight of them are comedians, and yet each comedian is of such a distinctive type that their efforts never clash. Some of the sketches in the new show require the full strength of the organization, and it is in such examples as this that the perfect team-work counts so heavily. The Dumbells have the elements of a winning team, whether it be on the gridiron, the diamond or the stage.

AT THE REGENT.

PRODUCER AND COMEDIAN HAVE SENT MANY ON ROAD TO FAME

Motion picture producers—to say nothing of audiences — have been harping for years on the desire for new faces for the picture screen. And once in a while a newcomer breezes into Hollywood, gets a chance and before long is hailed as a "screen find." Leila Hyams dropped off a rattler from the East some months ago and now seems destined to be one of our most popular leading women of the screen among the younger set.

And Leila's future is assured if the experiences of a half dozen successful young actresses can count for anything. For she has worked under C. C. Burr's personal supervision and is now appearing opposite Johnny Hines in the comedian's newest First National picture, "White Pants Willie," now playing at the Regent Theatre.

Others who have found the road to success under the Burr-Hines tutelage are Norma Shearer, Dorothy Mackaill, Jacqueline Logan, Billie Dove, Jobyna Ralston, Doris Kenyon and others. For these stars of the film firmament all appeared at various times with Johnny Hines in their "breaking in" days.

Leila Hyams spent most of her young life on the stage before entering pictures. Her parents are well-known to musical comdey and vaudeville partons as Hyams and McIntyre, and she was introduced to grease paint when a youngster.

Later she appeared on the stage with William Collier in "Going Crooked." Her first picture work was a small part in "Dancing Mothers," then came roles in "The Kick-off," and "Summer Bachelors," leading to her greatest film opportunity opposite Johnny Hines in "White Pants Willie."

SOFTBALL LEAGUE OPENS NEXT WEEK

First Game Will Be Played On Monday—Electrics Vs. Mill.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 17.—Following the precedent of last year the softball games will be played on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday of each week. The games will commence at 6.15 p.m. sharp, and all teams are requested to have their line-ups ready to take the field at this time. The schedule has been drafted in skeleton form, but the games have not been finally arranged. This is due to the fact that it is not yet certain that there will be a sixth team enter he League. The local branch of the Canadian Legion has been asked to enter a team. This invitation will be formally presented to the Legion at its meeting Thursday night.

Whether or not the Legion will be able to pick a team of returned men who have not yet been drawn on the other teams is very doubtful at the present time, but the executive is willing to allow due consideration to the fact that the team is late and will allow them to pick their men from any available place. In order that this may be done without "mental reservation," various names have been suggested under which the team might be entered and play. Should they desire to enter, their players may be selected from any of the industrial teams, since any player has the right to choose between an industrial team and a social organization. That is, a Presbyterian who is engaged by the Hydro, may either play for the St. Andrew's team or with the Electrics. The choice is a matter for himself.

The first three games have been called for Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, May 21, 22 and 24. Owing to the last game being called for a holiday, it will be played on the previous day, Wednesday. The games:

Monday—Electrics vs. Mill. Umpires, Vince Farrel, plate; C. Massey, bases.

Tuesday—Clerks vs. Outlaws. Umpires, Weston, plate; Cowell, bases.

The next executive meeting will be held in A. L. Riendeau's office, Front Street, on Monday, May 21, at five o'clock. At this meeting the remainder of the schedule will be completed and the final arrangements made for the play during the season.

NO BASEBALL TEAM IN CAMPBELLFORD

Northumberland League Not Likely To Operate—Hastings Seeks League.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 17.—Campbellford will not have a hard ball team this year, and it is doubtful if the Northumberland Baseball League will be in operation this season. There has been some difficulty experienced in getting together sufficient players in the several towns represented. Just what ball will be played this season has not yet been determined. Unless some last minute effort is successful, the only baseball which will be played in Campbellford this summer will be entirely exhibition.

CANADA CRAYON ASKS PROTECTION

Local Firm Pays Heavy Duty on Raw Materials, Application States.

(Special to The Examiner)

OTTAWA, May 17.—Reference 96 of the Canada Crayon Company of Peterborough for an upward revision of the tariff on chalks and crayons was taken up and the applicant's statement was filed with the Tariff Board yesterday. The operation of the present tariff affords no protection to the crayon industry, which has to pay heavy duties for all the materials it uses. A protection of 40 per cent is asked.

The Canada Crayon Company assured the Board that any increase in the tariff would not result in any increase in the cost of crayons to the Canadian consumer.

First hearing was given reference 65, an application by the Consumers League of Canada for the downward revision of the tariff on paint together with first hearing of an application by Watson Jack and Co. of Montreal (and others) for the free listing of Antimony Oxide (timonox).

The reason advanced for the reduction of the tariff on paints was largely that paint is an essential product in economic and industrial of the country and the only reason more of it is not used is that it costs too much. This cost is largely due to the present tariff, which it is claimed, restricts production. It was further argued that white lead was the only product on which a war-time tax remained.

Interesting Program Given by Warkworth Y.P.S. to Visiting Society.

WARKWORTH, May 17. — The Y.P.S. of St. Andrew's Church, Campbellford were guests of the local Y.P.S. on Monday evening. The visiting society gave an excellent program, which followed the devotional service in charge of the Warkworth society.

Scriptural reading was taken by Miss Cleora Cockburn.

In a few well-chosen words, Gordon McCubbin welcomed the ladies and called on Mrs. (Dr.) Scott to take charge of the following program:

Piano Solo, "In a Monastery Garden," Miss Ruby Townsend; Duet, Miss H. Atkinson and J. Storie; Reading, R. J. Allan; Solo, J. Storie. Dorothy Reynolds; Duet, Misses Mary and Margaret; McGregor Reading, R. J. Allan; Solo, J. Sorie.

A short play was then given, which was greatly enjoyed. The applause which was given these numbers testified to the appreciation of the large crowd that was present.

Dr. C. C. Armstrong, honorary president, tendered a vote of thanks to the Campbellford people, which was seconded by Louis Fowler.

A dainty lunch was served, after which the Rev. Mr. Greer, of Campbellford, gave an interesting talk.

May 17, 1917.

Sergt. J. Rathwell, late of the 93rd Battalion is reported killed in action. Sergt. Rathwell was a well known non-commisioned officer from Norwood.

Pte. A. J. Grier, late of the 93rd Battalion and Pte. Thomas Thorne, Canadian Infantry, are reported to be wounded.

Word has been received that two former captains of the 93rd battalion, Captain Widdifield and Captain Mowat, have arrived in France, and are now at the front. Both reverted in rank and went to the front together.

His Honor Judge Huycke receives a telegram saying that his son, Lieut. Meredith Huycke, has been wounded in the face, back and hip.

Lieut. Harry Latimer reverts to ranks so that he would be able to go over-seas. Lieutenant Latimer was in the 247th Battalion.

Lieutenant Vincent McCarter Eastwood has been awarded the Military Cross. Lieut. Eastwood went over-seas with the 93rd Battalion, and at the front joined the 18th.

Pte. Harold Matheson of Havelock, is reported wounded, and Pte. Charles B. Mulligan is reported killed in action.

Miss Edna Day, former Norwood girl is reported to be lost on a hospital ship near Malta, on which she was serving as a nurse.

May 17, 1918.

Pte. Victor Northcott of the 2nd Battalion, is reported wounded.

Pte. C. Sturgeon, Pte. J. Williams, Pte. F. Underwood, of the 8th C.M.R. arrive in Canada; also Pte. A. Cripps of the 39th Battalion. These men were invalided home.

May 17, 1918.

Lieut. Vincent Eastwood, M. C., returns to the city from overseas.

Corp. A. E. Skillster, a Peterborough soldier, is married in England. The wounded soldiers form an arch way with their crutches.

WIN ENGINEERING PRIZES

Four of the successful students in the recent examinations of the applied science and engineering department of the University of Toronto were: H. P. Smith (1) of Midland, third year student, winner of second prize donated by the Toronto Brick Co.; A. B. Hunt (2) of London, Ont., fourth year student, awarded the British Association for advancement of science medal; N. C. Gibson (3) of Oakville, fourth year student who was awarded the architectural guild silver medal; L. E. Shore (4) of Meaford, was awarded the fourth year architectural guild bronze medal.

The child of a father over fifty years old is said to have ten times as good a chance of becoming eminent as he would if his father were a younger man.

OBITUARY

GEORGE W. JOHNSTON

On Wednesday, May 16, there passed away at his home, 528 Weller street, George Wesley Johnston, at the age of seventy-three years. He was born in Millbrook, the son of Samuel Johnston and Margaret Earskin, and for the past twenty-three years had resided in Peterborough, where he attended Trinity United Church.

Left to mourn are three sons and one daughter: Sidney of Lindsay, Edward of Winnipeg, Harry of Toronto, and Mrs. Thorburn of Victoria Harbor.

Mr. Johnston was an engineer in his younger days on the Midland division of the Grand Trunk, and his three sons are engineers on the C.P.R. and C.N.R.

The funeral will take place on Friday, May 18, from his late residence, 528 Weller street, at 3.00 p.m., proceeding to Little Lake Cemetery for interment. The Rev. David Wren of Trinity Church will conduct the services.

E.P.B.L. OPENS MONDAY NIGHT

League Executive Will Spend Saturday Erecting Wire Screen.

TEAMS WELL BALANCED.

Raybestos, with Maudsley or Masterson pitching, and Crescents, with Mein or Frost on the hurling heap, will open the East Peterborough League race at Exhibition Park next Monday evening at six o'clock. An invitation has been extended to Mayor Denne, Ald. Phelan and Ald. Lowe to provide the opening ceremonies.

There will be no game on Saturday afternoon, the League executive at a meeting last night having decided to use the afternoon in erecting a wire screen protection from foul balls.

The League will co-operate with the City League and an arrangement satisfactory to all concerned will be made for practice hours, and give one night each week on the main diamond for a City League game.

The East Peterborough League is ready for another season with all teams having strong line-ups. A number of players have changed clubs, and Crescents will start Monday's game with a brand new infield, which will include Don Cameron, who was prominent at shortstop with Lakeviews when they won two O.B.A.A. championships, Lew LeBarr with the game club, Eddie Foley and Kane, two well known hockey players, and George Williams, last year with Cognawagas. Joe and Fred Jones and Jack LeBarr will likely work in the outfield. "Bun" Frost is coming back after an absence of some years and will work with Mein in the box. Kenneally will perform behind the bat.

Raybestos have Masterson and Maudsley and Rogers for battery duty, Barry and Harry Corrin for first place, Moore and Nicholls for second, Hillier at short and Scully, last season with Crescents, at third. A strong outfield completes the Brakeliners' roster.

GOOD BREEDING OF CATTLE BASIS OF PRODUCTION OF PURE MILK

G. A. Brethen, ex-M.P., Is the Speaker at Kiwanis Club Luncheon.

HEALTH FOR CHILDREN.

Clean, Disease Free Cattle Produce Good Milk—Pasteurization Is Helpful.

To the average layman, it may seem a long call from good breeding of cattle to good health for the youth of Peterborough, but to Kiwanians in attendance at the luncheon in the Empress Hotel to-day, the address of G. A. Brethen, ex-M.P., for East Peterborough, brought a new realization of the benefits to be derived by children, and grown ups, from milk supplied by cattle free from disease. Mr. Brethen's address was one of the finest heard by the club in many weeks, and met with genuine approval, especially from the medical men among those present.

President Joe John handled the gavel while Harry Dickin, booster, gave an honorary prize to John Meyers, one of the most faithful members, as well as to J. W. Geraghty, and Jack Comstock. "He's" a Jolly Good Fellow," was sung in tribute to Mr. Meyers.

Messrs. Lang and Duranceau, with with saxophone and banjo, contributed the musical numbers of the day, while Art Reynolds did a stroke of business for the Underprivileged Children's Sunshine Club by auctioning off a cigar for fifty cents.

Walter Kidd expressed his pleasure at introducing an old classmate of Norwood high school days, ex-member for East Peterborough, breeder of high grade cattle, and latterly in the poultry business, namely G. A. Brethen.

The Speaker.

Mr. Brethen, in addresing the Kiwanians on the subject of "cattle" desired to divide his address so that he might first give a brief resume of his experiences in the breeding of Holstein cattle, and follow that up by endeavoring to show the relation of health in cattle to health of humans.

Back twenty years he took his listeners, telling them of his start in breeding Holstein cattle properly at the instance of District Representative Duff, and of how the "models have changed" so that the Holstein, rather than being a combination animal and hatrack, has become an animal pleasant to look upon, so that in private sale at the Toronto Exhibition in 1918, his cattle averaged $787 sals price, with the top price for a single animal being $4400.

Mr. Brethen attributed this success to his having laid a good foundation for his herd with Beauty (meaning health) combined with Service (production in milk and butter) as his slogan. Confidence, inspired by his having guaranteed to stand back of every sale, was the second all-important factor. "Nevertheless, you must figure profit and loss together even in the cattle business," he remarked in closing this phase of his address.

In discussing the advisability of having herds government tested, Mr. Brethen declared that from the viewpoint of public health, here was something worthy of consideration, and that cattlemen all over the country had come to realize the same thing. Proof of this fact is found in statistics, which show the number of accredited herds increased from eighty-six to five thousand within a short time. Large districts are being covered by the government in this work, and in many of those districts children may take up their glass of milk while the parents are certain that it is free from disease. Certainly the child's greatest asset is a sound mind in a sound body, and since it has been established beyond doubt that disease can be conveyed from the cow to the child, it is up to the people of every community to take an interest in the better milk ides.

The speaker related instances of children being infected through drinking impure milk and stated that in New York alone, three hundred children died in one year from like causes. "That is why 1,250,000 cattle were slaughtered in the United States in one year and the confidence of the people grew accordingly. Secure in the belief that they are getting pure milk, they are consuming more of it."

Not Personally Interested.

Mr. Brethen referred to the accusation often hurled at a speaker who speaks for improvement along such a line as this, that he is selfishly interested, and that it is not for the health of the people that he is speaking. Since his own cattle had been government tested and accredited for a number of years, the speaker had nothing to fear from this direction but urged Kiwanians to give the matter plenty of thought and to do what they could to co-operate with the health authorities in working along this line.

Of pasteurization, Mr. Brethen said that it was a good thing, and that he believed every dairyman using this system in Peterborough was using it most thoroughly and with the most modern equipment, but that if all cattle were free from disease germs there would be no need for the process of pasteurization.

The vote of thanks to the speaker and to the entertainers was moved by J. B. Nelson and seconded by Dr. E. H. Wood. The latter heartily corroborated all that Mr. Brethen had said and drew attention to the significant fact that here was a man without any axe to grind, coming and speaking in favor of that which the medical men had been working for without too much success for some time.

KIWANIS SPEAKER.

G. A. BRETHEN, ex-M.P. who spoke to the Kiwanis Club today on the importance of "disease-free herds for pure milk supply.

FOUR HOUSES TO BE BUILT

Permits Taken Out This Week For Total Estimated Cost $15,200.

FINE DWELLINGS.

Permits for the erection of four dwellings have been taken out in the first four days of this week. The Toronto Loan and Saving Company is erecting a fine modern dwelling on Weller Street at an estimated cost of $6,500. The house will be two-storey, 36 feet by 26 feet, with brick veneer walls and a gumwood and pine interior finish. A hot air furnace will be installed, and the building will probably be completed about September 1.

Alderman Walter Stocker is erecting a second building this year, and has taken out a permit to build a house on Wolfe Street. The dwelling will be 35 feet by 24 feet brick veneer hot air furnace, and electric fireplace. The estimated cost is $3,000, and it will be completed about August 1.

W. Butcher is building a cottage of six rooms on Walnut Street, at an estimated cost of $2,500. A hot air furnace will be installed and the interior finish will be in British Columbia fir.

Fred Finnis is erecting a house on George Street, 44 feet by 27 feet, one storey high, with five rooms. Interior finish will be in pine, and a hot air heating system will be installed. The cost is estimated at $3,200.

ITALIA'S TRIP PLEASES ITALY

Hailed By Press As Great Achievement—Comments On Discoveries.

CHANGE GEOGRAPHY.

ROME, May 18 (Canadian Press).—News of the return flight of the Italia to her King's Bay base was received with rejoicing throughout the Italian press, which cites the flight as a splendid achievement.

The Popolo di Roma notes that between Spitzbergen and Franz Joseph Archipelago, the Italia found no trace of land, showing that the mythical Gillis Land, as well as Crocker Land, which Peary thought he saw, did not exist. However, the Italia's crew was able to establish the presence of a vast zone of open water near Nicholas II. Land, the paper states, adding that this is enough to constitute a revolution in Arctic geography.

Now that Nobile had made two preliminary flights, popular interest is centering on his projected trip over the Pole itself, when he plans to deposit a large cross blessed by Pope Pius

Relics Unearthed On King Property

Dr. C. H. Amys has in his possession several curious objects which have been unearthed in the process of excavation now going on in the old King property on the corner of Charlotte and Stewart Streets. Among them are an Indian arrowhead and an oddly-shaped piece of stone which is believed to be a primitive plowshare, as it bears all the marks of one of these early implements of agriculture.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS ARE INSTALLED

The electric stop and go lights prchased by the city council are being installed by the workmen of the Utilites Commission at the corner of George and Charlotte streets. The lights are on the posts that will be to the right of the driver as he approaches the intersection. Ordinarily the driver has to look to his left to see the light, but it has been thought advisable to put them on the corner immediately to the right of the driver.

The wiring is being done this afternoon and the men hope to have them working by to-night. According to Chief Newhall no left hand turns will be possible.

Only one set of lights will be installed this year, but the aldermen hope to be able to put up more next year.

At the corner of George and Charlotte the other night a driver was seen to stop his car. The constable on duty noticed him waiting and as he approached the car he saw it had a Toronto number. Asked by the constable why he was stopped so long and if there was anything wrong the man replied, 'I am waiting for that red light at the corner to turn green so as I may proceed.' The light referred to was the one over a fire alarm box.

W. M. FOWLDS TAKES CHARGE OF EXHIBIT

President of Trent Waterway Association Has Gone To Cleveland.

Walter M. Fowlds of Hastings, President of the Trent Waterway Development Association, left Peterborough on Wednesday afternoon to attend Ohio's Second Annual Sportsmen's and Outdoor Show, in the new $11,000,000 Public Auditorium where the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce and Trent Waterway Association have a joint exhibit.

Mr. Fowlds, at a great sacrifice to his business interests in Hastings and district, stepped in at the last moment to fill the breach caused by the inability of Frank G. Stinson, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and Trent Waterway Association, to attend the show.

Mr. Fowlds with G. K. Fraser, Honorary President of the Trent Waterway Association, residing in Burleigh Falls and Hamilton, will look after the interests of this section of the Waterway and M. K. Wagg, General Manager, Georgian Bay Tourist and Steamship Company of Midland will be on hand to represent the northern division.

Mr. Fowlds expressed himself, on leaving, as being very optimistic as to results to be obtained from the Cleveland exhibit. "Ohio and Ontario people are close together in the summer time", said Mr. Fowlds on leaving, "and our exhibit should divert to the Kawartha Lakes and the Trent Waterway an extensive stream of this highly desirable motor and rail tourist traffic."

Around the City

WAYWARD GIRLS ARE DISCUSSED

Local Council of Women Considers Plans For Helping Them.

CONVENTIONS TAKEN UP.

Consideration of various subjects to be brought up for discussion on the agenda at the forthcoming Provincial and National conventions of the Council of Women occupied the attention of the members of the Local Council of Women, at their monthly meeting held yesterday afternoon in the green room of the Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. C. H. Edwards, president, also spoke of several questions of local interest to women, such as the proposed rest room, the appointment of a Town Planning Commission to look after the beautification of the city in future building movements, and the projected appointment of a social worker among girls who are newcomers to the city. Police Matron Wood spoke with regard to the latter suggestion and thought that a wise, tactful woman appointed by each of the churches to look after girls who might be in need of such attention, would be able to meet the need.

Police Matron Wood said that girls who had church and Sunday school affiliations were not in need of so much attention, even though they were strangers and did not have homes here, but so many girls, in their own homes and out of them, desired only to go out to cheap dance halls and in motor cars, and these were the difficult cases. "It would be a big problem for any woman to handle. It is a big problem for me," said Miss Wood.

Several members who took part in the discussion thought that the mothers were the proper people to look after first, as many of them were neglectful of their duty to their daughters. One woman said that constant supervision of wayward girls was the only remedial measure in many instances, and this course was an impossible one to pursue. One thought that mothers would have most influence over their daughters and another was of the opposite view, saying that often an outsider could do more to influence a girl than a member of her own family.

Subjects On Agenda.

Among the resolutions to be brought to the attention of the Toronto meetings, the National Council annual convention being held from May 29th to June 5th and the Provincial immediately following it, on June 6th and 7th, was one suggesting that no woman shall hold office longer than three consecutive years. This did not meet with the approval of the Local Council, which considered that experience was the main attribute of office holders, and they should not be relegated to ordinary membership after three years, if they were worthy of re-election.

The I.O.D.E., on behalf of the Salvation Army, is bringing up a resolution which will ask the Government to impose the maximum penalty for offenses by men against minors, such offenses being on the increase. This was approved.

Approbation was also given to a resolution asking the Federal Government, before the next dicennial census, to allow residents of the Dominion to be termed "Canadians," this also to be used in vital statistics returns.

The Provincial government will be asked to implement the promise recently made to include a woman on the list of official visitors to the Mental Hospitals.

The Toronto Council is asking that Beauty Contests be prohibited absolutely, on the ground that they set up a false standard by emphasizing the purely physical, giving no attention to the mental or spiritual attributes of the competitors, that they do not encourage the skill, or courage, or perseverance which are dominant notes in athletic competitions, and that the winners of such contests are subject to later to unwholesome commercial exploitation.

Address on Immigration.

Miss Leta Brownscombe, convenor of the Local Council's Committee on Immigration, gave a brief, interesting report, outlining the methods employed by the Department of Immigration itself, and the methods followed in Peterborough, where seventy-four cases were handled by this committee during the year. The report concluded with a request that the quota law be enforced in the Dominion, where last year's immigration totals showed a very large preponderance of immigrants from other sections of the world than the British Isles.

At the conclusion of the report, and its final resolution, Miss A. Lancaster read very eloquently a poem entitled "Scum of the Earth," written by a man who takes the apposite view to that of the pro-Britishers, and considers that any nation does wrong that bars from its shores the people of the world who have done so much in past centuries to enrich its spiritual and mental life. This poem was a stirring appeal for consideration of those who may in the future provide the enriching leaven for a materialistic land, and was prefaced by Miss Lancaster with a few words referring to the strong belief of white races as to their superiority on account of differing color.

Taking up for a few minutes the consideration of the system of examination of British immigrants by Canadian doctors on the other side, Mrs. Edwards spoke of the dislike to this system voiced by the English people.

Mrs. W. R. Morris was of the opinion that any inconvenience suffered by them or this account was less now than in the past, when so many had been examined perfunctorily by their own doctors and allowed to embark for Canada, only to be turned back on their arrival.

Mrs. Edwards quoted statistics that declared a great percentage of inmates of insane asylums in Canada, were of foreign rather than native birth.

System Too Strict For Immigration

WINNIPEG, Man., May 18 (Canadian Press). — Many British persons who are willing to migrate to Canada are held back through the rigidity of the system of admission to this country, according to Edward Salmon, editor of The United Empire, and Fellow of the Royal Institute, who arrived here yesterday.

A more satisfactory system of medical inspection would have to come before there could be realised the necessary and possible flow of British settlers to this country, Mr. Salmon said. The present system of medical inspection by a few Canadian doctors in the Old Country penalized them in outlying districts, and made it prohibitive for them to journey in to be examined.

Mr. Salmon serves on a Central Immigration Committee, representative of 30 British organizations all actively engaged in immigration.

NAPANEE MAN IS TRANSFERRED

McCOY TO NAPANEE.

Provincial Constable Harry Thompson of Napanee has been transferred to this city to take the place of the late Provincial Constable Norman F. Maker, who was shot by David Montgomery on May 3rd. Under previous arrangements, Provincial Constable McCoy of Madoc was to come to this county and Constable Maker was to go to his district, but according to Inspector W. H. Lougheed of No. 5 District, with headquarters in Belleville, Constable Thompson will come to this county. The vacancy at Napanee will be filled by Constable McCoy, and McCoy's place will be filled by an officer from outside this district.

ARMY TAGGERS OUT TO-MORROW

Annual Self Denial Week Comes To Close With Tag Day.

FOR SOCIAL WORK.

The invasion of the city to-morrow by an army is a certainty and inevitable, but there is no need of alarm for it will comprise a force of fifty ardent local workers, the majority in the official poke bonnets and uniforms of the world-girdling Salvation Army, who are bent, in connection with the Army's dominion-wide tag day of placing a neat red shield on the label of every coat.

The effort to-morrow closes another annual Self-Denial Appeal which has been carried on by Ensign E. H. Green, together with his workers in the city. Their objective as set by the Territorial Headquarters, Toronto, was $2335.00, and the Adjutant is confident that with a generous response from the citizens to-morrow, Peterborough will once more express its confidence in the uplifting work of the Salvation Army, both locally and throughout the world.

Five hundred dollars was the amount given in the boxes last year. The public is requested to say it with TAGS to-morrow, and again put the local branch over the top.

THE WEATHER

The present showery weather is widespread, and covers most of the United States and Canada. Rainfall yesterday, .15 of an inch; last night .06.—W. P.

Y.M.C.A. CIRCUS GOOD AS EVER

STRANGE ANIMALS.

For two hours of solid fun and an able demonstration of athletic prowess this year's Y.W.C.A. circus cannot be beaten. The audience that crowded Brock street rink last night looked with amazement at the demonstrations put on by the senior, intermediate, junior and beginner members of Peterborough's Y.M.C.A. The clowns, which were numerous, with their antics and tricks always kept the crowd on the qui vive.

The circus opened with the grand parade, headed by the Boys' Band of the Salvation Army. All kinds of wild animals were in the parade. There were four mighty jumboes, six Arabian steeds, an ostrich that runs faster than a horse, the goofus bird that has never been seen before in Peterborough and the millipede, twenty-five feet long, not to mention the numerous other animals. The boys had a band all their own which supplied music during the circus.

Inside the rink exhibitions of drill, jumping, pyramid building, boxing, parallel bar work, and many other feats that demonstrated to the audience the kind of athletic work the Y.M.C.A. is doing among the boys in the city.

A two mile relay race was held between three teams, the C.G.E. Athletic Club, the Y. M. C. A., the Monarch club of Lindsay. The 'Y' boys won but it was not until the last relay that they took the lead. The race was very close throughout and those that go to-night are promised that another relay race will be put on that will be just as good.

Two large rings on the rink floor which were occupied by young gallants all the time gave the spectators no idle moments.

Fifty beginners gave an exhibition of drill which was well followed out and done in a most precise style. Then came the juniors' drill, followed by a wand drill by nineteen juniors, with the smallest boy of the lot taking the lead and directing the others. The beginners gave an exhibition of games in which they are taught to be real sports.

The ever active clowns showed how a boxing bout ought to be staged and then they gave a real jockey race with the Arabian steeds. Pyramiding and parallel bar and horse work by the seniors received the greatest applause of the evening. Everything was done without any hesitancy and the boys went through the operations with ease.

Much of the credit for the success of the circus goes to Douglas Loomis, athletic instructor of the Y.M.C.A. The Senior boys and many members also co-operated with Mr. Loomis to put the circus over.

To-night, last night's program will be repeated, with the grand parade leaving Brock Street Rink at 7.30, going by way of Aylmer, Charlotte and George to the rink again.

Among those taking part were:

STEAMER RAMMED IN DENSE FOG

Crew Rescued From Aboard Ore Carrier John Ericsson.

DETOUR, Mich., May 18 (Canadian Press). — The ore carrier John Ericsson, rammed in a fog 30 miles off here yesterday by the steamer A. F. Harvey, was beached here last night.

The John Ericsson's crew of 30 was taken aboard the steamer John Reiss and the barge Alexander Holley.

The Ericsson's bow was stove in by the Harvey, which was downbound light, headed for Sault Ste. Marie, towing the barge Howley.

The Howley, equipped with radio apparatus, was said by coastguard officials to have messaged that the Ericsson was sinking, sending a score of lake vessels to the spot where the collision occurred.

After the crew had been removed, lines were attached to the Ericsson by the John Reiss and the vessel was able to tow the wreck to shore off Detour. Coastguard boats left immediately for the scene, and it was not immediately known if any lives were lost in the collision.

STEEL STRIKE AT DEADLOCK

Workers Insist On Recognition of Union, Which Company Refuses.

90 CENT SCALE OFFERED.

MONTREAL, May 18 (Canadian Press).—All efforts to date to settle the strike of the structural steel workers in Quebec and Ontario have proved abortive and deadlock has occurred. The Dominion Bridge Company has refused the men's offer to discuss a settlement on the basis of 90 cents an hour minimum. The company also persists in its refusal to deal directly with the union leaders. To-day the men declared that they would maintain their present position until some further suggestion came from the company.

Want Union Recognized

TORONTO, May 18 (Canadian Press).—The steel workers' strike entered its fourth day to-day and although no settlement is in immediate prospect there are hopes of termination before long. Yesterday it was learned that the Dominion Bridge Company offered to pay the strikers 90 cents an hour, but the men are standing fast to their original demands.

Union officials stress the fact that recognition of the union is of equal importance to an increase in the wage scale.

E. L. DAVIS MISSING FROM BROCKVILLE

Former Resident of Peterborough Has Not Been Home Since Tuesday.

BROCKVILLE, May 18.—The local police are investigating the mysterious whereabouts of Edward Lawrence Davis, agent for a local insurance company, who has been missing from his home since Tuesday afternoon, when he left for the purpose of meeting an unnamed man, who had arranged to take him in the latter's automobile somewhere in the country to meet a brother, who, Davis said, desired placing some life insurance.

The missing man, who has been a resident of Brockville since May 1, 1927, when he came here with his wife from Peterborough, is a lover of his home, and is rarely absent after 10.30 at night. He is strictly temperate, and when forced to be absent from home later than usual he always advised his wife by telephone of his where abouts. The money he had collected on his insurance route he left with Mrs. Davis before he departed, and she states that he had between $5 and $10 on his person. He is 37 years of age and weighs 180 pounds.

While in Peterborough Mr. Davis was on the staff of the Sun Life Assurance Company, but left that company on his removal to Brockville. He was a member of All Saints' church. He lived at 535 Bolivar street.

SEARCH PARTIES OUT.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., May 18 (Canadian Press). — Search parties are scouring the neighboring country this afternoon for Edward L. Davis, aged 51, insurance agent, who has been missing from his home since Tuesday, when he left with an unknown man on a motor trip to the central part of Leeds County. Although he told his wife he would be home the same evening, he has not been heard of since. Foul play is feared, and a reward has been offered for information as to his whereabouts.

AVIATORS PLAN ON THREE HOPS

Preparations Are Rushed For Costes To Start By June 15th.

OTHERS FURTHER AHEAD.

PARIS, May 18.—Work is in progress almost day and night on the new Breguet plane with which Captain Dieudonne Costes, hopes next month to make a flight from Paris to New York.

Since his last flight home in six days from Tokio, Captain Costes and his partner, Lieut. Commander Joseph Lebrix, have suffered like Colonel Lindbergh in American from having to attend too many receptions. They have been making a tour of France to fulfill official engagements and now they are off on a tour of European capitals.

Next week, however, the fliers expect to be back and at work preparing for their transatlantic trip, which they hope to start about June 15. It is not yet decided whether Commander Lebrix will accompany his partner as on last year's crossing of the South Atlantic, but probably he will obtain the necessary permission.

Their plane is fitted with a 600-horsepower Hispani-Suiza motor and although there are many improvements over the plane with which they made so many records, the new plane is built on much the same lines.

Competition among Frenchmen for the honor of being the first to make a direct flight from Paris to New York now has been reduced to three candidates, many aspirants having been forced to abandon their ambitions. Of these Captain Costes stands highest in popular favor. The other two, Captain Louis Conderet with his partner, Lieutenant Mailly de Nesle, and Rene Couzinet, with his pilot, Maurice Droubin, however, are well advanced with their tests.

Captain Coudouret with his red Bernard plane, the "France," pins his hopes on his speed. Monday, in a test flight over Le Bourget Field, he flew at a speed of 260 kilometers (roughly 163 miles) an hour and he believes his plane will make well over 200 when fully loaded.

Couzinet, with a load of five and a half tons, also has made 200 kilometers an hour. Before he leaves he hopes to recapture the endurance record with his plane, which is described as a natural flier capable of holding the air indefinitely, even when throttled down. It has three motors, but his flown with only one and is so built that motor repairs can be made while in the air.

FINE MUSIC FOR BANQUET

Knights of Columbus Engage Symphony Orchestra For Celebration.

TO PLAY DURING DINNER.

One of the interesting specialties in connection with the Knights of Columbus twenty-fifth anniversary celebration on May 24th, is the dinner music at the banquet in the evening at the armouries. Angus MalPherson, chairman of the music committee, has arranged for a symphony orchestra of twenty pieces under the direction of Rupert Gliddon of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music. The program which the orchestra is preparing is as follows:

March—"Pontificale," Gounod.

Overture—"The Merry Wives of Windsor," Nicolai.

Selection—"The Shamrock," by Mydleton a medley of Irish airs.

Scenes from "Robin Brood," De Koven.

Intermezzo—'In a Monastery Garden," Kettleby.

Selections from "The Chocolate Soldier," Oscar Straus.

Descriptive—"In a Persian Market."

Selections from "Iolanthe," Sullivan.

This program is entirely separate from the numbers which will intersperse the postprandial toasts. The engagement of this symphony orchestra of twenty pieces is probably the first time that any banquet in Peterborough has been set off with a musical background such as Mr. Gliddon has outlined. The numbers are uniformly marked by melody, and have earned a popularity that endures. Those who attend the banquet are advised that every detail will be in keeping with the standard of the dinner music.

CHICKEN FARM WIDELY KNOWN

D. J. Courneyea Has 2,500 White Leghorn Hens at Tweed.

SHIPS MANY CHICKS.

TWEED, May 18.—Within a few blocks from the main street here is to be found one of the most complete henneries and chicken hatcheries in this section of Ontario. At the poultry farm of D. J. Courneyea may be found 2,500 laying hens of the White Leghorn strain at at this time of year there is no better sight as the sun rises in the morning than to se these hens scratching for their breakfast. Already this year Mr. Courneyea has sold between 18,000 and 20,000 chickens shipped to all parts of Canada and to many sections of the United States when they were a day old. Mr. Courneyea has taken great care in selecting his breeding stock and has made sure that the hens were strong and in a healthy condition. Mr. Courneyea has built up his business from a very small beginning and a visit to his poultry yards is full of interest at this time of year.

The White Leghorn chicks are popping out of their shells at the rate of several thousand a week, for every Monday morning Mr. Courneyea places 5,000 eggs in his two big Buckeye incubators and the hatching process is carried out under ideal conditions as he has a plant that is as near perfection as it is possible to make it.

FIRE RANGERS EXTINGUISH BLAZE

First Bush Fire of Season Near Clear Lake in Methuen Township.

APSLEY, May 18.—The first bush fire of the season occurred near Clear Lake in Methuen Township on Sunday, quite near to the settlement, and at one time in the afternoon threatened to assume serious proportions. The two fire rangers assisted by several men worked hard all day, and finally succeeded in extinguishing it on Monday morning. The fire started by the roadside, a fact which supports the ranger's theory that it was due to someone's carlessness in throwing aside a lighted match or cigarette stub.

To Improve Church.

The congregation of St. Paul's Church, Lasswade, held a meeting after the evening service on Monday (being Rogation Monday) to discuss ways and means of improving the church building and grounds. It was decided to try and erect a porch to the church and a new driving shed, also to complete the painting of the church which was begun last year. Archie Whitmore promised to buy 1,000 shingles towards roofing the shed. Malcolm Bullied also promised shingles, while Wallace Bullied, Charles Bullied, Arthur McColl and Mary Davies each contributed one dollar towards purchasing the paint. Messrs. A. and E. Davis will supply rafters and timber, and Steve McColl fire wood for the winter.

Shortage of Gasoline May Force Dirigible Ita lia To Land At Vadsoe

(Copyright by The Associated Press.)

KING'S BAY, SPITZBERGEN, May 18 (A.P.).—Shortage of gasoline supply may force the dirigible Italia, now returning from a flight to Lenin Land, to seek the mooring mast at Vadsoe, in northernmost Norway, instead of continuing on to its base here.

Radio messages from the dirigible indicate that it is meeting with more than a little difficulty in fighting against a stiff northwest breeze. Taking into account that the ship has been in practically continuous flight since leaving here shortly before 2 p.m. on Tuesday, members of the base force felt that the Italia could have little fuel remaining.

Throughout the afternoon, General Umberto Nobile requested his base ship, the Citta di Milano, for radio bearings to determine his position. The officers of the mother ship were kept busy poring over charts and sending the information he required.

The Italia had stopped at Vadsoe en route here and an emergency base has been established there. Unless changes in weather permit a return here without refuelling, it is regarded as almost certain that the dirigible will be moored at Vadsoe.

At seven p.m. last night the Italia reported that she was approximately 800 kilometres (500 miles) southwest of this archipelago. General Nobile said he would attempt to fly around South Cape, the southernmost point of Spitsbergen, and then follow the West coast to King's Bay. This, of course, in event the opposing wind does not force him to go to Vadsoe.

If enabled to continue to King's Bay, he hopes to arrive by eight a.m. Greenwich time.

PRIZE WINNING ESSAY

Gray Rivers Wins Prize Offered by Madoc W.C.T.U. for Letter.

MADOC, May 18.—The following is the first prize essay, for the Fourth Class, for the W.C.T.U. competition, by Gray Rivers, in the form of a letter written in school hours:

Madoc.

Dear Arthur—

I am writing to tell you why I have decided not to smoke cigarettes and will give you my reasons.

A cigarette! What is it It is an innocent looking roll of paper, but it contains a poison called nicotine.

Dr. J. J. Kellogg found it contains enough nicotine to kill two full grown frogs. Dogs have been killed with one drop of the nicotine. A chemist once took the tobacco from a cigarette and soaked it in a little water. He then injected a portion of it under the skin of a cat. The cat almost immediately went into convulsions, and died in 15 minutes. Therefore, how foolish boys are who smoke cigarettes!

Every boy's ambition is to be healthy, wealthy, and useful. He can be none of these if he smokes cigarettes. Cigarette smoking blunts the whole moral nature, and has an ill effect on the physical system. It stupifies nerves, gives enlargement of the heart, or palpitation of the heart, and often leads to consumption. It makes bright boys dunces, and honest boys cowards, and sometimes sends them to the insane asylum.

Cigarettes and crime are closely related. Every little while we see accounts in the newspapers of all kinds of petty thefts and wrongdoing which boys do in order to satisfy the longing for cigarettes. A boy robbed his mother and beat her because she would not give him the money to buy cigarettes.

A magistrate in New York City once said that out of 35 boy prisoners that came before him in one day, 33 of them were cigarette smokers.

It has been learned that two large cigarette firms soak their products in a weak solution of opium. Opium, like whiskey, creates a longing for more of its kind. Cigarette smoking creates an appetite which it cannot satisfy.

Every boy wants to be an athlete. Did you ever see a smoker who was a great field and track sport? A smoker is not wanted on a baseball, football, or hockey team. He may play well for a few minutes, and then his wind gives out and he has to rest. Therefore coaches will not have such boys on their teams. Neither are they wanted by employers for any responsible position.

University records show that cigarette smokers never stand at the head of their classes.

Smoking is a waste of mone. How many fine homes, and good farms, have gone up in smoke through the slavery of men to the tobacco habit?

Are these not sufficient reasons why cigarettes or tobacco in any form should not be used?

REVIEWS WORK OF MISSIONARIES

HAVELOCK, May 18.—Robert Archer, convenor of the missionary deparment, presided for the program of the Efficiency League of the United Church on Monday evening, and G. W. Denike took the topic which consisted of a brief sketch of the fourth and fifth chapter of the missionary study book "Drums in the Darkness", dealing with the activities of United Church missionaries in Angloa or Portuguese, West Africa. These two chapters mentioned give a review of the pioneer work of the mission in a certain district with the story of its growth replete with such dramatic episodes as that of the man who was attacked by a wounded leopard and had part of his face torn almost off. He set out at once for the mission and has his wounds dressed by a Christian doctor. He recovered and by being able thus to save his life the missionary earned his undying gratitude. The fifth chapter tells of the first native chief to become a Christian and how he established christianity in his tribe, making his people a great example of Christian civilization.

Readings were given by the Misses Eva Griffith and Rena Keene and piano selections by Miss Cordie McColl and Keith Chiles.

In the absence of the president, G. W. Denike had charge of the devotional and business part of the meeting. The scriptural lesson was read by Miss Loyst and the business session was devoted to arranging the program for the next meeting.

Prior to the meeting the first game of volley ball series was played on the church lawn, the series being 26-team. The Khaki and White lost 14 in favor of the Red and Blue most of their points by poor serving, their returns being fairly good, while their opponents were good on serving but noticeably weak on returns.

W. M. A. MEET AT MILLBROOK

Miss Estelle Hetherington Gives Interesting Talk on Stewardship."

HOLD PICNIC IN JUNE.

MILLBROOK, May 18.—The Sunday School hall of the United Church was beautifully decorated with scarlet geraniums and white lillies for the May meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon, the group of which Miss Mary Widdis is convener having charge of the program.

Mrs. J. H. George, secretary of Associate Helpers for the Presbyterial, who attended the branch meeting at Lindsay last week, reported that the picnic for the auxiliaries of the Presbyterial will be held at Roseneath toward the last of June(the 27th being mentioned as the date for the gathering. Mrs. George also stated that the field secretary, Miss Mitchell, will probably make her official visit in this vicinity the first week in July.

The matter of the ten-cent tax for Presbyterial expenses was taken up and on motion it was decided to ask for an offering of this amount from each member at the June meeting, and to supplement from the expense fund any deficit if the objective of $8.00 is not reached.

The special subject for study at the meeting was 'Stewardship'," and this was taken up in a very helpful manner, by means of a blackboard talk by the secretary of this department, Miss Estelle Hetherington. The motto: "Jesus teaches that a man's attitude to the Kingdom of God is revealed by his attitude of his property" and also "Each generation makes some transforming discovery in God's Book." What is "Stewardship" but God's word for this 'generation?" formed the basis of the information presented, the question and answer method being used to provoke thought on the part of the listeners, and leave a lasting impression of the individual responsibility involved.

"The Earth is the Lord's," a stewardship service of worship, employing suitable hymns and responsive readings, was conducted by Miss Widdis preceding the practical talk.

Mrs. J. McKnight gave a reading, "Her Tithes," that was most appropriate to the subject of study.

Quite a number of the members met at 1 o'clock and worked on the quilts for the bale to be sent to one of the Indian schools in the west. After the meeting this work was resumed and the two quilts asked for by the supply secretary were completed; the clothing, sweater, etc., which were also on the list, were brought in at this meeting, and the bale packed ready for shipment to Grafton. When the Presbyterial supply secretary has all the bales from the Auxiliaries on hand, the contents are repacked, and the boxes sent on to their various destinations.

Miss Widdis and the other members of her group, served a dainty lunch, and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed, at the conclusion of the formal meeting before needles were resumed and the workers took up once again their task around the quilting frames.

Mrs. Albert Brown's group is responsible for the June meeting.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hurd with their children, Florence, Madge and John, of Whitby, were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. M. Hurd, and sister, Miss Lulu Hurd, on Sunday.

Among those from her who attended the joint meeting of the Bethany, Mount Pleasant, Millbrook, and Cavan Women's Institutes at the Cavan Community Hall on Tuesday afternoon were: Mrs. J. R. Eakins; Mrs. T. H. Aiken, Mrs. C. Thorndyke, Mrs. T. H. Bradley, Mrs. T. H. Harkness, Mrs. A. J. Henderson, Mrs. C. C. Garside, Mrs. H. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Weston Fallis, Mrs. H. Lang, Mrs. Chester Fee, Mrs. George Fallis, Mrs. Robert and Miss Martha Lunn, Miss B. Olan, Mrs. Percy Elgar, Mrs. W. Lowes, Mrs. Thomas Ingram, Mrs. R. Brown, Mrs. R. J. McKnight, Mrs. Fred McMahon, Mrs. H. Nattress; Mrs. J. L. Byam, Mrs. W. Larmer, Misses Margaret Whyte, Ella Grandy, M. Bristow, Mrs. J. W. Hilton, Mrs. E. Armstrong, Mrs. H. Seaton and others.

DISCUSS USE OF MITE BOXES

SOCIAL EVENING.

MILLBROOK, May 18. — Mrs. J. Spence was hostess for the May meeting of the Golden Links Mission Circle, which was held on Tuesday evening with a good attendance and a marked interest in the work being done as out[illegible] features of the gathering.

The president, Miss Jean L. Burnham, was in the chair and among the business items discussed was the matter of systematic giving, and the increased use of mite boxes by members who do not give by envelope each month. The Circle has a larger allocation to meet this year and there is a general desire to fully reach the objective, though this will mean a united and sustained effort on the part of all connected with the organization.

The honorary president Mrs. V. C. Lambert, thanked the members for the flowers sent while she was in the hospital at Peterborough, stating that the fragrant remembrance reached her on her birthday, and so was especially appreciated.

It was decided to prepare 'prayer charts' covering the work on home and foreign fields, for use by the members during the two summer months when meetings are not held, and so sustain interest, and increase the understanding of the power of prayer in the missionary cause. The "shower" of post cards for Miss E. C. Hawken, who represents the local missionary auxiliary on the home field, will be carried out by the circle as a remembrance of her birthday, continuing a service the Epworth League used to perform each year, until it was disbanded.

The invitation of Mrs. D. Dunn to hold the next Circle meeting at her home was accepted, the third Friday in June being the time arranged for. Rev. Joseph Wilks will complete his talk on missions in Angola at that gathering.

Miss Wilma Fallis read the scriptural lesson from Proverbs 16, during the devotional period, and several of the members led in prayer. Mary Burnham played a piano solo, and the study talk was given by Miss Dorothy Crossley, her subject being on outline of the book, "Uganda's White Man at Work."

There was a pleasant social hour at the close when homemade candy was served. Mrs. Spence and her daughter, Miss Elsie, were warmly thanked for their hospitality before the guests left for home.

REPAIRS EXTENSIVE.

MADOC, May 18.—Residents of the village of Madoc, though proud of its many fine homes and buildings are not proud of the many board sidewalks which border its thoroughfares and for this reason, council and citizens are hoping for the day when they will have been completely replaced with the granolithic type. However, since that day has not yet arrived, workmen have, within the past few days, been busy repairing the bad spots in the board walks and on Durham street south the sidewalks on both east and west sides have been put in good shape for another season. Other streets have also been replanked in places.

W. S. WIGGINS HEADS BOWLERS

GOOD BALANCE ON HAND.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 18.—At the annual meeting of the local Lawn Bowling Club held in the Public Library last night, Walter S. Wiggins was unanimously elected to the position of president. Mr. Wiggins is one of the prominent business men of the town, and for several years has taken a keen interest in the various lines of sport. Since the formation of the club he has been one of the most enthusiastic members and a considerable portion of the success of the club is due him. In his present position as president, there is every reason to anticipate a successful season.

The greens are not ready for play at the present time, but it is expected that the first games will be played on the afternoon of May 24. The rink tournament for 1928 is set for August 6, Campbellford's civic holiday.

Owing to the heavy rain which had been falling throughout the entire day, there was not a large number of bowlers present at the meeting. Those who braved the elements did not allow that effort to dampen their spirits and the meeting was very enthusiastic. Reports from the officers of 1927 show a successful season and a substantial bank balance available for this season's activities. Elections for each of the offices were keenly contested. The following officers will represent the club this season:

Hon. Presidents—C. S. Gillespie and A. J. Meyers.
President—W. S. Wiggins.
Vice-President—R. J. Allan.
Secretary—George Nicol.
Ladies' President—Mrs. Fred Linton.

As well as being elected to the position of honorary president, Mr. Gillespie was appointed to an honorary life membership. Mr. Gillespie has had many years' experience in a wide field of sport. There are few of the less strenuous games which he has not invaded at some time during his life. Mr. Gillespie expressed his great appreciation for the honor which the bowling club had done him.

INSTITUTES HOLD JOINT MEETING TO HEAR MRS. CHARLES MACOUN

Campbellford Lady is Visiting Speaker For East Durham Area.

DISCUSSES WORK.

Cavan, Bethany, Mount Pleasant, and Millbrook Branches Report Efforts.

CAVAN, May 18. — Mrs. Charles Macoun, of Campbellford, was the speaker from the Department of Agriculture at the Women's Institute meeting held in the Cavan Community Hall, when Bethany, Mount Pleasant, and Millbrook Institutes were entertained.

Mrs. Macoun spoke on "What Our Institute Is," in which she said: "It is the outstanding organization the world over. It is a moulder of public opinion. It is recognized by the Government. It is recognized and its aid sought by every organization in carrying on community projects. The Institute's most important work is in our own community and home. We are a part of the Government of Ontario. We are a part of the Department of Agriculture. Dr. Hastings recently stated that if he had the support of all women's organizations, he could wipe out contagious diseases.

"The Government, through the Institutes, will supply free courses in nursing, millinery, dressmaking, etc. The Department of Agriculture has recognized that owing to the uneasiness in rural parts and the steady exodus of young people from the farms that something more must be done for rural Ontario. They have been sending three months' courses and two weeks' courses in different phases of agriculture into our midst."

The second part of Mrs. Macoun's address was "Women's Responsibilities." "God created man and then created woman to be a helpmate on the basis of equality. The moral standard of a nation is set by the motherhood of the nation. Man will measure up to the standard set by woman. Women who are forced to exercise physical and mental faculties will be better equipped to raise and supervise the education of their boys and girls. Prosperity is not always a blessing as it deprives us of the necessity of using our abilities. The ideals of Germany to raise and train great soldiers and dominate the world destroyed the finer characteristics and qualities of people. If it is true, what is our responsibility as women of Canada—Canada, one of the greatest nations of the world. We have the characteristics of the British nation that does not know defeat. From our Scotch ancestors we inherit thrift; from the Irish, wit; from the French, good taste, fine arts; from the U.E.L., a daring and courage. They dared to risk unknown dangerous orders to gain religious freedom. We have all these characteristics. Women must see to it that these ideals are instilled into the minds of the young people. The nobility of labor should be taught. The boy and girl who has his regular chores to do in the evening is learning a valuable lesson in doing things at the proper time. Women have a great responsibility in regard to conditions in our schools, where so much of our children's time is spent; also they have a great responsibility towards the young people of the community, the future citizens of Canada. The means of social life should be provided. Our homes should be thrown open, so that our young people may bring their friends home. Then, as they grow older, they will not have so much inclination to go farther afield."

Mrs. McCoun urged that the Institute continue to strive to work for home and country. "Extend a helping hand to the new citizens coming to Canada from other lands, always striving to set the standard of morality and conduct high that we may help to make Canada one of the greatest nations of the world."

Mrs. R. M. Howden, president of Cavan Institute, presided, and Mrs. Ray Syer was the accompanist for the meeting, while a solo was given by Miss Eileen Hunter.

Reports from the various branches represented were called for.

Mrs. W. Rowan, who gave the report for Bethany, reported many activities for the community welfare the year around. They have twenty-three members and the average attendance during the year is ten. The heaviest work is the upkeep of the street lamps, thirteen in number, which costs about three hundred dollars a year. They also built a fence around the Town Hall which cost them one hundred dollars. Their means of raising money included the sale of ice cream during the summer, a tag day, and a winter contest. A prize of six dollars divided into three, two and one, is given to the pupils having the highest points at the Rural School Fair.

Mrs. Garnet Shield reported for Mount Pleasant. That society has twenty-four members and an average attendance of twelve. Money has been spent for local relief, flowers and fruit sent to the shut-ins and persons who are ill; also donations given to other worthy causes; a banquet was held and other social activities. A roll call rally contest was held for which they chose captains and divided them into groups. Those being present, being on time, and having a suitable response to the roll call, gave a certain number of points to each person, the side losing having to put up a treat for the other.

Millbrook Institute was reported by Mrs. Charles Thorndyke, having 77 members and an average attendance of 50. A picnic was held in June; flowers were bought for around the soldiers' monument; prizes were given at the school fairs; money spent for locl improvement, as well as contributing towards various other causes. A number of social evenings were given during the winter.

Mrs. Richard Matchett reported for Cavan Institute, which society had 34 members and an average of 22, but is starting this year with forty members. She reported many ways in which help had been given locally as well as to numerous calls from outside points.

A duet, "Just Keep Smiling," was sung by Mrs. A. Kennedy and Mrs. R. S. Staples, and Mrs. McCoun gave a few hints to busy women on saving time and strength in daily work, giving the opportunity for questions to be asked. This brought up a great deal of discussion.

A vote of thanks was extended to the speaker and all others who had taken part in the program, after which an excellent supper was served in the basement by the Cavan Institute to all the ladies present.

HAVELOCK BOARD RECEIVES REPORT

HAVELOCK, May 18. —On Wednesday evening the regular meeting of the school board was held in the school with Trustees Anderson, Roche, Scully, Fraser and Jamieson present.

The report received from Inspector Lees on the Public school inspection showed the standing of the school to be good. Moved by Trustees Roche and Scully that the report be filed and also that Mr. Tuill be instructed to look into the matter of suggested equipment for some rooms and report.—Carried.

Moved by Trustees Roche and Scully that the secretary speak to the town constable in connection with boys annoying school teachers outside school hours—Carried.

Moved by Trustees Roche and Fraser, that the chairman appoint a committee to obtain information from Dr. Carr, superintendent of Rural Education at Toronto, in connection with consolidation of schools. This is in view of Inspector Cowle's report in connection with providing a modern building Carried.

After general discussion on water toilets, it was moved by Trustees Jamieson and Fraser that a committee be appointed to go into the matter and obtain information and report to the board.

The chairman and Trustee Jamieson were appointed as a committee.

On motion by Trustees Fraser and Roche the following accounts were ordered paid: Bank of Toronto, $5.00; J. Newton, $15.00.

Napoleon's Old Hat Is Sold for $1,473; Pre-Empire Tricorn Goes To Army Officer

PARIS, May 18.—An old, shabby, three-cornered hat, which was crumpled and battered and had nothing about it to suggest imperial grandeur, was auctioned yesterday at the Hotel Drouot. It was purchased by a French army officer for the sum of 37,500 francs (about $1,473.75).

Even in its dilapidated condition, the hat was of such a shape, with one edge turned up, that it immediately evoked the Napoleonic era. It was accompanied by documents which well authenticated it as the headgear which was worn by Bonaparte during the months which just preceded his becoming Emperor.

Napoleon's valet, Constant, sold this hat to a tailor in Fontainebleau for a small sum after the Emperor had been exiled. Guillot, the tailor, kept the relic, and it has remained in his family.

It is understood that the hat was purchased by an officer on behalf of the army museum, and that it will be placed on display together with other Napoleonic souvenirs in the Invalides.

FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1928.

WIRED AND WAITING FOR THE 29TH.

Those who have been inclined to scoff at the theory advanced in connection with the Great Pyramid of Gizeh that an interpretation of its interior passages presages tribulations for the Anglo-Saxon race on May 29th, must have lost some of their scepticism as they read in last evening's Examiner of the completion of the power line to Chemong Park.

Certainly disaster for at least a few Anglo-Saxons was indicated there in no uncertain manner, for after stating that the power would be turned on on that day of ill omen, May 29th, the item proceeded to say:

"Many of the cottagers at Chemong are already wired and waiting for the current to be turned on."

With the power ready to do its work on the fateful 29th and those unfortunate cottagers "already wired and waiting" for the shock, who is there bold enough to say that those ancients who built the pyramid didn't know what they were doing?

THE PRICE OF GAS.

While negotiations in regard to the purchase of the local gas plant from the Ontario Government and its removal from the control of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission are only in their preliminary stages, the question is arousing a good deal of interest, chiefly based on the hope that a change in ownership would be followed by a drop in the price of gas.

It has always been difficult for the people of Peterborough to understand why the charges for gas here should be about the highest in the Province.

They refuse to believe that the cost of production will not permit of a cheaper rate to the consumer, and for that reason they are following closely the initial negotiations, trusting that finally some relief from these heavy charges can be anticipated.

Domestic gas is the most expensive public utility product that the people of this city are called upon to buy, and they have been at a loss to see the reason for the high rates here as compared with those prevailing in most other cities and towns in Ontario.

Cheaper gas would be a boon to thousands of Peterborough citizens.

NATIONAL SPORTS WEEK.

The fact that next week is being observed as a National Sports Week in Canada, is interesting in the light it throws upon the love for outdoor sport that exists among the people of this country.

The week selected, too, is particularly appropriate as it includes Victoria Day, the first holiday of the summer season, and the day upon which the whole of Canada turns its attention to some form of seasonable sport.

Summer time is play time in Canada, and few countries offer their people such a diversified programme of outdoor recreation as this land of bright sunshiny days, smiling rivers and lakes, and centres well equipped with facilities for organized sport.

Paddling, swimming, fishing, motor-boating, motoring, camping, sailing, baseball, football, tennis, cricket, lacrosse, golf—all claim their admirers and all serve their purpose of keeping Canadians out-of-doors and building up their bodies.

We're a lucky people in this respect, and the setting apart of a week to concentrate attention upon this phase of Canadian life is a good advertisement for the country, even if the idea itself has a commercial origin.

NOTHING MUCH TO THIS REPORT.

The report that Premier Ferguson is to retire from politics next year, and that there is to be a general election, has been given much prominence by the Premier's "favorite?" paper, the Toronto Star.

There does not seem the slightest justification for believing either prediction.

Mr. Ferguson likes the political game, and has repeatedly said that he feels at home in serving the people of his own Province, preferring the Provincial to the Federal arena.

Nothing has happened to cause him to decide suddenly that he has had enough.

Nor is there any reason why there should be an appeal to the people in 1929, or any issue of importance that would justify such an appeal.

The Star notwithstanding, the full term is likely to elapse before there is a general election, and as for Mr. Ferguson's withdrawal from the field, most people will believe it when it actually takes place.

Such stories are usually resorted to in the dog days, but the Star may have decided to steal a march by using a mid-summer yarn out of season.

WHEN THE CAR STALLS.

Having in mind the fact that numerous accidents, particularly upon congested highways, are due to negligence on the part of drivers who stop for repairs or for other reasons without giving proper warning signals, the suggestions which have been made by the Ontario Safety League in this connection are both timely and useful.

The league believes that if the following rules are observed, there is little chance of collisions or other accidents occurring when cars become stalled:

1. Before bringing your car to a stop, signal the car behind.

2. It is better to rely on the hand signal than to depend upon the stop light. It may not be working.

3. To make repairs drive completely off the travelled portion of the highway. The driver who then collides with you will have to go out of his way to do so.

4. If changing a tire on the left side of the car, stop so far from the roadway that this work can be done without standing where there is any likelihood of any other driver running into the worker. Your left wheels should be two or three feet from the paved portion of the road.

5. Do not stop on a curve. Before stopping make sure that there is a clear space of at least 100 yards in front and to the rear of your car.

6. To stop and start with safety means that here must be a clear view of the roadway, a sufficient distance ahead and to the rear.

Observance of the code which has been laid down by the Ontario Safety League will undoubtedly promote improved conditions on the highways and lead to a lessening of the number of accidents.

FASCISM AND POPULAR SUFFRAGE.

It is stated in cables from Rome that, contrary to recent rumors, the King of Italy is prepared to sign the new electoral law which the Italian Senate has approved and which transforms the country into a one-party constituency.

If the King believed that the new system violated the spirit and letter of the Italian constitution, or that the majority of the people disliked and resented it, he certainly would refuse to sign the law, and, if necessary, abdicate, thus escaping personal responsibility for a revolutionary change effected by force and intimidation. Approval of the law by the King will be construed as an admission of the contention of Premier Mussolini that the Italian constitution is subject to modification, and that the acceptance of Fascism by the people implies an acquiescence in the logical corollaries and deductions from the essence of the Fascist doctrine.

Universal suffrage, asserts Mussolini, says nothing and means nothing and is a purely conventional fiction. It is a fiction, of course, where men and women are indifferent to the ballot and fail to exercise their political prerogatives. It is not a fiction where men and women work for it, suffer for it, fight and die for it. In the past Italians have fought for universal suffrage and political liberty. It is possible that now the majority of them are willing to try Fascism and its peculiar plan of elections. It is possible that they are willing to try the syndicalist and the corporative state, to use Mussolini's terms.

What the Liberals and anti-Fascists object to is the use of force to prevent legitimate opposition to Fascism. Electoral systems are not sacrosanct, but the right to discuss and criticize a Government and its laws and policies is fundamental and sacred. There is nothing new or experimental about tyranny, repression and brute force as political weapons.—Chicago Daily News.

A SWIMMING MARATHON.

C. C. Pyle, the eminent promoter of professional tennis and more recently the man responsible for the trans-continental foot race irreverently christened "bunion derby" by cynical sport writers and telegraph editors, is about to be outclassed. Mr. Pyle's achievement seemed to attain the ultimate peak of athletic absurdity, but his honors are threatened. One Norman Ross, of Chicago, announces a swimming race over a course of 2,000 miles from Chicago, Pittsburgh, Minneapolis or St. Paul—depending no doubt on the cash offers—to New Orleans, for cash prizes totalling $50,000.

Mr. Pyle's distinguished crew of horny-footed pedestrians have been getting their names in the papers regularly, while the swimmers are neglected. Obviously this state of affairs needs correction. Anybody with good legs can walk or run across the continent, given time enough and sufficient inducement, but swimming requires special training and therefore must rank as a superior accomplishment.

We hope all the old familiar names of the great swimmers will appear in the despatches again when this Mississippi marathon is commenced. There was a New York girl named Ederle, whose name used to be very well known. Her father, we recall, had a butcher shop on Amsterdam avenue in the days before prosperity overtook the family—perhaps it is there yet. Certainly Gertrude should make a drive for a share of this $50,000. Then there was George Young, of Toronto, who flashed across the front page and presently retired into a decent obscurity. Present also should be the first mother to swim the English Channel—we forget her name—the first twins to swim around Manhattan Island, and all the others of the tribe of aquatic humans whose prowess delighted sport lovers a year or two ago.

The public has a short memory, and the fame of the long-distance swimmers is sadly dimmed. Perhaps the Mississippi will restore their box office value.—Ottawa Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Little beer, joint, don't you cry;
You may be padlocked, bye and bye.

Now that the Toronto Star has announced a general election in Ontario for next year, most people will be satisfied that there will be nothing doing in that line until at least 1930.

Anyway, the bunion derbyists have gone too far to be called back for a false start.

To "Clevelander" and other friends across the border, we can only say that we have no maps with the location of Ontario's liquor stores marked thereon.

The trouble about the Bell Telephone bill in the House is that traces of it may be detected in many telephone bills in many houses.

If he has not already done so, the Hon. Charles Dunning is likely to stop reading the Globe.

Among those who are not likely to be called upon for Empire Day addresses may be mentioned John S. Ewart and Henri Bourassa.

There is not much in a name after all. Mrs. Thrush is to judge the local cat show.

Lemmesee, no one told us where the female waist is to be this year.—Brandon Sun.

If you expect the tired business man to do any digging give him a golf club.—Boston Transcript.

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Que., May 18 (Canadian Press). — With the exception of some business worked in Canadian Western oats with United Kingdom buyers, the export trade in grain here yesterday was limited. There was little or no demand from the Continent on account of the church holiday. The trade in cash grain on spot was also quiet, and prices were unchanged.

An easier feeling prevailed in the market for spring wheat grades of flour, but prices were unchanged. The volume of business continued of a disappointing character. The market for winter wheat grades was also dull.

The demand from local and United States buyers for millfeed continued fair, and a moderate trade was done at unchanged prices. A steady feeling prevailed in standard grades of rolled oats, but the volume of business was small.

There was some inquiry from English importers for Canadian baled hay, and sales of a few lots for prompt shipment to London were made at 30s per ton. The trade in spot was quiet and prices were unchanged.

Owing to it being partly a holiday and a numebr of wholesale and retail houses closed, the market for eggs was inactive, but prices were unchanged. The receipts were 2,166 cases.

There were no further developments in the market for potatoes, but the undertone continues easy at the late decline in prices noted on account of the increased offerings from the country and the somewhat indifferent demand. Car lots of Quebec varieties were offering at 80c to 85c per bag of 90 pounds in bulk, New Brunswick north shore Green Mountains at 85c to 90c per bag of 90 pounds in bulk, and Prince Edward Island White potatoes at $1.05 to $1.10 per bag of 90 pounds, bagged ex-track.

A weaker feeling developed in imported beans, and prices scored a decline of 20c per bushel, which was attributed to the fact that fresh supplies have commenced to come to hand in fair sized quantities. Sales of car lots of choice white hand-picked grades were made at $4.00 per bushel, ex-track, and smaller lots at $4.20 per bushel, ex-store.

Prices for butter were fully maintained at the late advance noted, but the market was very quiet owing to it being partly a holiday. The receipts were 1,832 packages.

There was no actual change in the condition of the cheese market, the undertone being firm under sufficient demand from local buyers and English importers to absorb the bulk of the supply coming forward. The receipts were 1,843 boxes.

GOD'S MINUTE

To know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge.—Eph. 3:19.

Our Father in Heaven, we praise Thee, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who is the great Shepherd of the sheep, that when all we, like sheep, had gone astray, Thou didst lay upon Him the iniquity of us all. Forgive us our sins, we pray Thee, in His Name.

Show us our need of Thee, how great it is; not only for deliverance, but also for daily grace and guidance. Lead us into the green pastures of Thy love and mercy, and give us to drink of the water of everlasting life.

Make plain before us the path of the just which shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

Help us to be kind, tender-hearted and true in our dealing with others, and filled with the power of the Holy Spirit, that we may be faithful witnesses for Christ in the world. Thus may we live that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, we may receive the crown of life that fadeth not away. For Christ's sake. Amen.

A Thought

"THE POWER OF SIN"

Velma Runnels, Campbellford, Ont.

Sin is a deep-rooted disease. It is a disease of the soul that has lost God. No man is happy if he is separated from God. He may have a good time with his own enjoyments but a man who is in sin shuts himself up in himself. The ever-gnawing hunger for God's love dies out and sin knits the kingdom of evil around his heart.

Men fall through the power of sin and their countenance become scar-them idols of pride, unbelief and pleasure.

Sin is not the highway to righteousness. See how much power sin has over the great and brilliant cities. Now don't think for one minute that you will find black sin only in the slums and the poor sections of every city. Go where the cut glass and diamonds dazzle your eyes and where the odour of wine and strong drink fill our nostrils. It is there where you hear the chains of sin rattling.

Must we let this fair Canada of ours shrink away from the Carpenter of Nazareth Just think, citizens, of the thousands who are under the dreadful power of sin to-day. They know the good yet they choose the evil. Some think it is too hard work to be a follower of Jesus. They think that it is easier to follow sin than good. Don't be too lazy to seek salvation. It isn't such a burden when the love of God fills your hearts. There is never a hard road to travel in Christianity but what the Saviour will walk with you.

Don't be slaves of death—slaves of sin. Every sin makes man guilty, and guilty before God. Hence, it is only God who can forgive our sins. The voice of Mercy cries to all, "Come Unto Me." Don't turn your ears away from His voice but go and be saved.

CROSS CROSSINGS CAUTIOUSLY

To the Editor, The Examiner.

Dear Sir:

I have been requested to cross crossings cautiously by a friend who believes in chain prayers and chain admonitions. I am asked also to caution nine friends to do likewise. However as I do not like to show partiality, in choosing only nine friends and as I have no enemies that I know of, I am sending the screed on to The Examiner, that all readers of your excellent daily may be advised to cross crossings cautiously.

Yours truly,
A. MacNAB.
Lindsay, Ont, May 9, 1928.

CROSS CROSSINGS CAUTIOUSLY

Don't Break the Chain.

It might have been your mother, your father, your brother, your sister, your friend, instead of a stranger who was killed in the unavoidable accident.

Avoidable accidents take a toll yearly in this country of ours which exceeds or equals the casualties of any way in which are have been engaged.

I have resolved that from now on I will practice "SAFETY FIRST" and do everything in my power to save life and prevent an accident to my fellow-man.

Won't you do the same and pass this on to nine of your friends?

STRONG COLONIES MOST PROFITABLE

Bees Should Be Provided With Plenty of Food in Brood Season.

The amount of surplus honey that a colony of bees can store depends largely upon the strength of its field force at the commencement of the main honey flow. The greater the number of bees available for field work when nectar is available the greater will be the harvest. The bees that are to gather the honey crop must be reared during the spring and early summer, therefore, the object of the beekeeper during this period must be to provide conditions whereby his colonies may produce the largest number of bees possible. In addition to having good queens, proper protection and sufficient room for brood production, each colony must have an abundant supply of food. It has been estimated that one comb of stores is required to produce one comb of brood and it requires approximately seventeen combs of brood to produce a force of 100,000 bees, which represent a real strong colony. It is quite apparent then that food is an important factor during the spring brood-rearing period. Early flowers supply a certain amount of nectar but this amount is altogether insufficient to maintain maximum brood production and must be supplemented with food given by the beekeeper. No colony should have less than fifteen pounds of stores available at any time during the spring. Any shortage tends to retard brood rearing and this in turn affects the crop produced. Honey or sugar syrup can be given to make up any shortage that occurs but never give honey from an unknown source for fear of disease.

BUCK LAMBS BRING SMALLER RETURNS

Cut of Two to Three Dollars a Hundred Made in Price.

In Ontario, a cut of $2.00 per cwt., will be made on buck lambs commencing Aug. 1. This will be increased to $3.00 on Oct. 1. These cuts are made on the bucks in order to eliminate that class of poor quality stuff from the market.

No consumer, after paying a high price for what he thinks is a tasty piece of lamb, appreciates sinking his teeth into a tough stringy, tainted piece of meat. Naturally after such an experience he turns to some meat of dependable quality. This is precisely the effect that buck lambs have on the marketing of lamb carcasses. They lose friends for the sheep raiser.

A very simple operation performed on all buck lambs would soon eliminate these lambs from our markets and their elimination would give us a more buoyant market, increase our home consumption and admit of greater export. Export is the safety valve of marketing which helps to keep our livestock prices on a profit-making level.

No farmer can tell how or when he will market his lambs. In order to make sure of getting full value for his product he should castrate all male lambs when from ten to fourteen days old. There is little risk attached to this operation providing ordinary sanitary precautions are taken, namely, the use of a good disinfectant and clean quarters after the operation.

Wether lambs make better gains than bucks.

THREE FAMOUS SONS

Mrs. Elinor Bolling Byrd (1) is the mother of three of Virginia's best-known sons, who are familiarly know to their friends at Tom, Dick and Harry. Commander Richard Evelyn Byrd (2) won international fame by his flight from Spitsbergen to the North Pole in 1926 and by his trans-atlantic flight from the United States to France in 1927. This year he is setting forth on an expedition which has as its objective the South Pole. Thomas Byrd (3), in addition to being a lawyer is one of the largest apple growers in Maryland, while Harry Byrd (4), became governor of Virginia after an eventful career which started at the age of sixteen with employment on a newspaper.

SCOTS MOURN ELSIE MACKAY

Mourning for Hon. Elsie Mackay, a victim of the ill-fated Atlantic flight, was a feature of the recent meeting of the Town Council of Stranrear, Scotland. Councillor M'Connell, head of the Summer Visitors' Committee, reported that she had promised to take part in the Stranrear aquatic sports in July, and when asked if she would give an exhibition with her airplane over the harbor she had enthusiastically volunteered to take lessons in the use of a seaplane. She also offered to carry passengers on a seaplane trip, the fares charged going toward the sports fund. McConnell told of her willingness at all times to help the people of "the south-west corner of Scotland."

EXECUTIONER BOMB VICTIM

Man Who Electrocuted Sacco and Vanzetti Shakes By Explosion.

HOUSE IS WRECKED.

NEW YORK, May 18.—(Canadian Press.)— The home of Robert Elliott, official executioner for five States, and the man who pulled the death switch on Sacco and Vanzetti, was bombed early this morning.

Elliott, his wife and two children were thrown from their beds, but were uninjured. The house, located in Queen'sborough, Long Island, was badly wrecked. Elliott expressed the belief that the bombing was done by sympathizers of Sacco and Vanzetti and the police guard, started before the executions, but later stopped, has been resumed about Elliott's home.

MAGNESIA BEST FOR YOUR INDIGESTION

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead, following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisurated Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and make digestion easy. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get Bisurated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

MAY APPEAL TO LEAGUE

Hon. Mackenzie King and R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, led opposing sides in the House of Commons on the government motion to vote $10,000 for the repair of the historic residential quarters in the Quebec citadel. The item carried after long discussion and party lines were split as the government motion was carried by the narrow majority of eleven votes. The exterior of the official residence which has been used by vice-royalty for part of each year for several hundred years, is shown above. The Commons' vote means that the building will be refitted and repaired.

A trial trip to inugurate the plane passenger service of the Canadian Airways, Ltd., was made from Toronto to Montreal recently. The trip of 325 miles was made in three hours and 7 minutes—a third the time by train. Pictured above is the big Fairchild plane, capable of carrying five passengers, which made the trip. Inset on the LEFT is Mr. Greenway, the passenger, and on the RIGHT, Capt. K. F. Saunders, the pilot of the plane. "The ship rode steadier than an automobile" is the verdict of the man who had the role of first passenger. No details have as yet been made public as to the passenger service, but the rate may be about $35 from Toronto to Montreal, or vice versa.

PILOTS WOMEN PASSENGERS

Capt. H. A. Oaks in his Fairchild monoplane recently piloted the first women passengers from Montreal to Toronto by air. The plane, shown above, bucked strong head winds on the journey and was delayed two hours as a result. Capt. Oaks' passengers are also shown above: (1) Mrs. Jack Hammell; (2) her husband, who is president of the Northern Aerial Minerals Exploration Ltd., and (3) Mrs. H. A. Oaks.

OBITUARY

JOHN HENRY MORRISON.

At the age of seventy eight years there passed away in Peterborough on Thursday, May 17 John Henry Morrison. He leaves to mourn one sister, Sarah, of this city

The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning ,May 19, to the Little Lake cemetery, the Rev. Mr. Blagrave of St. John's church, conducting the services.

ELIZA ANN JOHNSTON.

After an illness of nine days, Eliza Ann Johnston, for four years a resident of this city, passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Hall, 577 Bethune street, on Thursday, May 17, at the age of 81 years. She was born in Cavan the daughter of Jonathan McKnight and Jane Forsythe, and leaves to mourn her passing a brother, F. W. McKnight of Toronto, and three sisters, Mrs. Norman Yoe, of Port Hope, Mrs Thomas Wilson of Manvers Township, and Mrs. George Southgate of Toronto.

Deceased while in Peterborough attended Knox United Church. The Rev. William McDonald, pastor of that church, will conduct the funeral service (private), at 1.30 p.m., on Saturday May 19, at 577 Bethune street, and at Bailieboro cemetery.

COL. EDMUND D. O'FLYNN

BELLEVILLE, Ont., May 18.—Lt.-Col. Edmund D. O'Flynn, barrister, of this city, died yesterday after a brief illness. He was born in this city on September 1, 1887, and has resided here all his life. He was a member of the law firm of O'Flynn, Diamond and O'Flynn.

Col. O'Flynn took an active part in social, political and military life. In politics he was a Liberal and twice was the candidate for the party in West Hastings against the present member, W. H. Ireland, M.P.P. When the war broke out he enlisted for active service and joined up with the second battalion as a lieutenant. He was second in command of the 247th Battalion here in the winter of 1916-17. In 1914, Mr. O'Flynn was an alderman of the city, and at the time of his death was a member of the Board of Education. He was president of the Hastings Bar Association, and at one time president of the Ontario G.W.V.A. and vice-president of the Dominion Association. Col. O'Flynn was a member of the Lions and Kiwanis clubs, a Mason and an Orangeman. In religion he was a Methodist. His widow survives.

MRS. MARY BLACK.

The death took place at half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon, in St. Joseph's Hospital, of Mrs. Mary Black, widow of the late Henry Black. The deceased, who was sixty-four years of age, had been ill for some time, and her demise was not unexpected. Born in Ireland, she was brought to this country by her parents while still an infant, and spent all her life in this district. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McKenty, settled in Madoc and later moved to Campbellford where the deceased lived until nine years ago, when she came to Peterborough with her family. In 1926, she moved to Toronto, where she resided up to six weeks ago, when she came to St. Joseph's Hospital here.

The late Mrs. Black was a woman with a host of friends. Her kindly qualities and sterling Christian character made her a fine example of the very best type of womanhood and her passing will be mourned by many, outside of her immediate family.

The late Henry Black died seven years ago. Ten children remain to mourn the loss of their parents, Rev. Harry Black of Lindsay, Joseph of Los Angeles, Leo of Peterborough, Sister Josepha of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Peterborough, Mary, Rose, Agnes, Clare, John and Alex, of Toronto. Another son, Charles, died ten years ago, and an adopted daughter, Sister Angelica of the Sisters of Charity, Hotel Dieu, Kingston, passed away two years ago. Three brothers and three sisters also survive; Dr. A. A. McKenty of Toronto, Harry McKenty of Regina, Daniel McKenty of Havre, Montana, Mrs. A. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Thomas Cummings of Indian River, and Mrs. W. Casey of Tweed. An aunt, Mrs. McAteer, resides in Peterborough.

The funeral takes place at nine o'clock on Saturday morning from the residence of a friend, Mrs. M. McLean, Perry street, to the Church of the Sacred Heart, thence to St. Peter's cemetery for interment.

Uncle Wiggily

To-day's Bedtime Story

By HOWARD R. GARIS

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate)

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE WOLF'S DOOR

"What are you laughing at?" crowed Charlie Chick, the rooster boy as he saw Lulu, Alice and Jimmie Wibblewobble, the ducks, on their way to school one morning.

"Oh, something funny just happened!" quacked Jimmie.

"Only I didn't feel much like laughing a little while ago," said Lulu, picking up a stone in her webbed foot and throwing it almost as far as Charlie or Jimmie could have done.

"What was the matter?" crowed the rooster boy.

"I lost my lollypop," quacked Lulu.

The note was dropped on the path.

"But Uncle Wiggily helped her find it," said Jimmie. "And to make us laugh he drew a cut out puzzle in the sand. Whose picture was it; can you guess?" asked Jimmie of Charlie.

"It was yours!" crowed the rooster boy.

"How'd you guess?" asked Alice.

"Ha! Ha!" chuckled Charlie. "I happened to walk past your pond after Uncle Wiggily drew the puzzle picture and I saw it would make you when it was put together, Jimmie. Didn't it?"

"It sure did!" answered the boy duck. I was the cut-out puzzle."

Then they all ran to the Hollow Stump School, for the Lady Mouse Teacher didn't like her pupils to come late. As for Uncle Wiggily, after finding Lulu's lollypop, he hopped along over the fields and through the woods, looking for an adventure.

From a far-off hill the Fuzzy Fox and the Woozie Wolf saw the rabbit gentleman hopping happily along, and the Fox barked:

"I think I know a way we can catch Mr. Longears."

"How?" snarled the Wolf, for he was very hungry.

"Listen to me!" whispered the Fox. "You know you have just had the door to your den newly painted; haven't you?"

"Yes," said the Wolf, "but what of it? The paint is dry now, and, even if it were not, it wouldn't be sticky enough to catch a rabbit."

"Nonsense! As if I didn't know that!" chuckled the Fox. "But with the new paint on the door of your den it doesn't look like the place where you live. If we can only fool Uncle Wiggily so he'll open the painted door and go in, he'll be in your den and we'll have him!"

"Yes," admitted the Wolf, "but how are we going to get him to open my newly painted door?"

"I'll write a note and drop it on the woodland path along which Uncle Wiggily will soon be hopping," whispered the Fox. "After I leave the note we'll run and hide in your den. Soon Uncle Wiggily will come."

So the Bad Chaps made their plans. On a piece of white bark the Fox wrote this note:

"Uncle Wiggily. Go to No. 35 and you will be surprised."

The note was dropped on the path where, after a while, the rabbit gentleman picked it up and read it.

"Ho hum!" said Mr. Longears to himself. "Somebody wants me to go to No. 35; do they? I wonder who it is and what the surprise will be? I guess I'll go. I need an adventure.

Never thinking it was a plot of the Bad Chaps, the rabbit hopped along through the woods until, reaching the den where the Fox and Wolf were hidden, the rabbit stopped in front of the door that was newly painted.

"This is No. 35," said Uncle Wiggily. "I'll go in and——"

But as Mr. Longears looked at the door he saw where the painter and the carpenter had made four mistakes in building it.

"That's queer," said the rabbit. "Four mistakes in one door. This may be a trick. I'd better not go in until those mistakes are corrected." So Uncle Wiggily hurriedly hopped away.

STRIKE AT CANTON.

SHANGHAI, May 18 (Canadian Press).—The Nationalists were approaching ever nearer Peking to-day. Members of the Shanghai foreign community believed that the Northerners were preparing to retire from the capital into Manchuria. (A Reuter despatch from Tokio said that indications there were that Japan was prepared to act on a moment's notice to prevent the civil war from spreading into Manchuria).

Longshoremen Strike.

CANTON, May 18 (Canadian Press) — Longshoremen and lightermen struck to-day and refused to discharge the cargoes of Japanese steamers. The unions were trying to persuade the Chinese crews of Japanese vessels to join the walkout.

PLANE BRINGS PROBLEM

Introduction of an airplane into missionary work of Australia by Rev. L. Daniels, the flying pastor of the Bush Church Air Society, brought a problem to the members. All agreed that the idea was a splendid one for the parish, which is larger than England and Scotland combined, but how to maintain the plane was a different matter. The society had guaranteed the support of the missionary, but had no funds for upkeep of the machine, and while the flying member prepared his plane for the initial flight the others sought ways of keeping it going. Ranchers then came forward with contributions, and it is hoped to raise a fund to cover maintenance and repairs.

When You Please---What You Please

Are you losing your pep and getting sort of grouchy and irritable around home? Why do you feel as though you're getting old when you are really so young?

More specifically, Indigestion, Constipation, Flatulence, Gas, Bloated or Ulcerated Stomach. These various intestinal ills, if allowed to continue, invariably lead to some more serious disease or ailment. The stomach is the root and seat of more sickness than all other parts of the body combined. Often when stomach troubles are removed a whole chain of other ailments disappear simultaneously. And you'll notice the difference in business, too, and in everyday life. People like to deal with and oblige the bright, healthy, happy looking man or woman, not the sluggish, anaemic, dull looking person who usually goes around with a long face.

Ged rid of it! Now! Regain that lost vitality! That happy, snappy feeling! Eat anything you like! Get rid of it! Now! And we can do it for you! We've done it for numbers of other people worse off than you!

THUNA'S HERBAL STOMACH TREATMENT, permanently, surely and completely curbs and removes any traces of INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, ACIDITY, GAS, BLOATED and ULCERATED STOMACH.

DON'T HESITATE—ACT IMMEDIATELY—INEXPENSIVE AND POSITIVE.

LONDON MAYOR IN HOT WATER

Charges Made Against Railway Management Rebound On Him.

MANY ATTACKS.

LONDON, Ont., May 18. —Mayor G. A. Wenige, who since his election has maintained a relentless attack upon Manager J. E. Richards, of the London and Port Stanley Railway, yesterday found himself on the defensive, in the L. and P. S. controversy, as Comissioner J. P. Moore, K. C., M.P.P., Ald. D. F. Glass and others challenged the attacks and their motives. While Mr. Moore's denunciation of the Mayor proved a theme of intense interest in public life locally. Ald. Glass reiterated his declaration that the Mayor had failed to prove or justify the charges he made against the city's railway, and that he should resign.

Mr. Moore's charge that the Mayor's speech on the L. and P. S. before the Ward 3 Improvement Association was "full of misstatements" was most heartily endorsed by Philip Pocock, who for many years after the electrification of the railway was Sir Adam Beck's vice-chairman in the London Railway Commission.

"The Mayor used his charges to gain the office of Mayor and he is now engaged in ruining the city's valuable property in an effort to avoid the discredit that is coming to him," said Mr. Pocock, "he has never had one constructive idea for the betterment of conditions on the railway and under his mismanagement and interference the success that Sir Adam built up on the line has been lost. Sir Adam made the road pay. Let Wenige get back to Beck's principles. I have watched every movement made by the Mayor with interest as a public man and I have concluded that Wenige has proved that Beck was right when Sir Adam called him a 'pin-head' and a 'menace.' Sir Adam sized him up correctly."

Mr. Moore's entry into the discussion hinging on the Mayor's conduct was featured by the statement that the Mayor has made no effort to assist the commission in bettering conditions on the railway.

"He is more interested in eternally knocking and trying 'to get' somebody than in advancing any intelligent plan for bettering the railway," said Mr. Moore. "By his filibustering tactics he has done more to injure the business of the railway and its Port Stanley concessions and to disorganize the staff than any outside enemy of the road."

Mr. Moore commented on the fact that at Port Stanley on Wednesday high officials of the Cleveland-Canada Navigation Company paid tribute to the efficiency of Manager Richards of the L. and P. S. Railway. Mr. Moore added that since the first of this month 283 cars of coal and 12 cars of sugar have come in at Port Stanley as new business developed by the manager in spite of the Mayor's hindering attacks.

Yesterday Clifford Gray, manager of a downtown music store, answered with a flat denial the Mayor's charges at the Ward 3 meeting that Manager Richards bought two pianos a year ago with tenders from a man "who is some sort of a relative of the manager." Mr. Gray stated that he had made the sales against competition from every music company in London and that he is in no way related by blood, marriage or other tie to Mr. Richards. It was purely a business transaction he said.

Yesterday the Mayor refused to comment on the retorts of Morris Gootson who was attacked by the Mayor at the Ward 3 meeting. "The Mayor is a deliberate liar," said Gootson concerning junk sales. "He speaks disparagingly of me as a Russian Jew. The Mayor himself is an Austrian Jew who always carries on his conversations with me in our own language."

VETERAN MISSIONARY AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Dr. John Buchanan Comes From Bhil People of Central India.

The preacher at St. Paul's Church on Sunday morning is one of the most famous missionaries of the Presbyterian Church. For forty years he has been among the Bhil people of India, and is the possessor of the only gold medal granted by the Government of India for missionary work.

The Bhil people are of the lowest caste in India, and they have been driven back into the hills by the other races. When Dr. Buchanan first entered their country they were known as thieves and killers, but today, due to Christian teaching, they are respected and in demand for their industrial ability.

The story of Dr. Buchanan has to tell is one of the most thrilling of missionary stories and ought to be heard by a very large congregation. He will speak at Norwood on Sunday evening. Rev. William Allan will preach at the evening service, when his subject will be "Losing Children."

The Quaker Oats team for to-morrow will be as follows: W. Curtis, goal; Lucas and H. Curtis, backs; J. Brown, E. Bayliss and W. Rankin, halves; A. Wilson, T. Craig, G. Logan, T. Wilson and T. Foster, forwards.

De Laval eleven has decided on said players, viz.: Fowler, goal; Cross and Downer, backs; Pulley, Ward and Mitchell, halves; Watkins, Dyer, Evans, Gravelle and Hanson, forwards.

TO BE UNVEILED

During his next visit to Toronto, the Governor-General will unveil t beautiful window in memory of the late Col. Noel Marshall in St. Paul's Anglican church.

Why Sunlight Soap Makes Wives Happy!

To see a wash made snowy with Sunlight Soap . . . to have baskets of sweet-smelling clothes . . . these are a joy!

Sunlight Soap starts every wash-day right, finishes it in record time and gives a woman every chance to get her work done quickly and well.

Sunlight, the all pure soap, is purposely made to dissolve freely. Pure soapy suds are made instantly. They cleanse every thread and fibre, quickly and thoroughly.

It's so safe too! Nothing in it to roughen the hands or make them smart . . . . nothing to injure fabrics.

Let this world-famous soap help you as it is helping millions of others.

The $5,000 Sunlight Guarantee means absolute purity, longer life for clothes and helps you to have nicer hands.

YOUNG CHICKS NEED CAREFUL FEEDING

Good Growing Mash Insures Uniform Rapid Growth.

Many poultrymen are of the opinion that after the first few weeks of a chick's life, known as the critical period, it makes little difference what the chicks are fed. They have lost sight of the fact that rapid growth together with proper development of the digestive tract and reproductive organs depends largely on the feed they provide the stock throughout the growing period.

Growth must be uniform, unchecked, and moderately rapid, if the pullets are to come into production in the fall and lay right through the winter when egg prices are good. Growing stock that is turned loose and made to scratch for their living will be stunted, slow in maturing, and underdeveloped, with little chance of their being profitable. They will not have developed the capacity to efficiently handle a lot of feed, which is so important for maximum egg production in later life.

Feed a Good Mash.

To get good growth it is necessary that the growing stock get a good Growing Mash. Proper growth and development cannot be made on grain alone. Grains are largely a carbohydrate and what a growing chick needs is a variety of proteins, minerals, and vitamins that are readily available and in the correct proportions to build strong, large bones, firm flesh, rich blood, and good plumage. A good Growing Mash is very economical, for the birds will not eat more than they need, and you are assured of rapid, sound growth.

Keep the Mash before the stock all the time. Be sure to provide enough hopper space. Do not expect 300 six-week old pullets to get their Mash from a little three or four foot hopper. As baby chicks such a hopper may have been large enough, but the birds have outgrown it. Insufficient hopper space means that only a few of the larger pullets will be able to get their Mash requirements. Provide plenty of hoppers to give the stock unlimited opportunity to eat Mash, but do not let them waste it because of faulty hopper equipment.

Coarse Chick Feed.

The chicks should receive a Coarse Chick Feed in the morning and in the evening to tide them overnight, to add variety, and to help develop the digestive tract so that they can handle a lot of feed efficiently when fully matured and ready to help fill the Nation's egg basket. Feed the chick feed at the rate of one-third in the morning and two-thirds in the evening.

The amount of Mash and Coarse Chick Feed that growing chicks will eat varies with the age, the size of the stock, and the season. If they are late hatched, or if you desire to mature them early feed heavily on Mash. Late hatched pullets want to be brought along steadily and rapidly. On the other hand, with early hatched pullets it is usually wise to hold them back, which may be accomplished by feeding more heavily on Coarse Chick Feed. Never restrict the feed, because it will result in stunted, undersize stock.

ROSE DISEASES MAY BE CHECKED

Plants Should Be Dusted Frequently With Suitable Fungicide.

Roses are subject to several fungous diseases, the two most serious being blackspot and mildew. To control these diseases it is necessary in the first place to supply the plants with the best possible conditions of growth. All affected plants should be removed and burned, and the soil in which diseased plants have grown should either be avoided for roses in the future, or sterilized with steam or formalin. The next step is the application of fungicides in order to protect the plants from infection or to control any disease which may have appeared.

The fungicide that best fills these requirements is a dust composed of flowers of sulphur and arsenate of lead made up in the proportion of nine part of flowers of sulphur to one part of arsenate of lead. These constituents should be sufficiently fine to allow 98 per cent of the mixture to pass through a 200-mesh seive. A hand duster may be used to apply the fungicide.

Early in the morning, when the dew is on the plants, is the best time to dust. The first application should be made before the appearance of any disease, that is, soon after the first leaves have expanded. In some seasons one or two dustings will be sufficient, but in others, when disease is prevalent, it may be necessary to make five or six applications, some of them at intervals of 9 days or oftener.

CHAPTER XI

"Miss Folsom," Neville cried. "Why are you here? Haven't you got a room yet? Come, you can go to Mrs. Valdon's apartments. You mustn't stay here—"

"Why not? Why does everybody want me to hide? I am here to investigate my brother's death. And remember, Roger Neville, I know as yet none of the details. I had only the telegram that Garrett was dead. Then I come here and, I find his rooms are in the charge of the police! I sent for Ross, but before I could ask him about it all you came. I had no wish to ask the hotel people, so perhaps you will tell me the facts."

"Of course, dear Miss Folsom, but not here, I beg of you! See," he spoke low, "see, many are already clustering around us. They pretend to be talking among themselves, but you can see they are greedily listening."

"You are right, Roger," she said. "I was a fool to stay here as long as I have. Let Paxton and Ross bring my things and take me anywhere, anywhere that we can talk."

Relieved at her docility, Neville led her quickly through the throngs to the elevator and took her to the suite occupied by Mrs. Valdon and Mrs. Barnaby.

The arrival was not unexpected, for Neville had gone in search of Anastasia with orders to bring her back with him.

"You poor dear thing!" cried Carmelita as she opened the door. "Come right in and let me take care of you."

"I'm not the kind to be taken care of," was the response, but the tone was independent rather than ungrateful. "Who is this?"

It was a strange thing, but the speeches of Anastasia Folsom, though often rude of words, were accompanied by a smile of good nature that seemed to take away their sting. Her glance at the Duchess was one of admiration, though her question was brusque.

"This is my dear friend, Mrs. Barnaby," Carmelita introduced. "Usually called the Duchess, because of her—"

"Her noble air and bearing," interrupted Miss Folsom, holding out her hand. "I like you, Duchess, you're all right."

"Well, that's that," and Miss Folsom turned from the Duchess as if entirely through with her. "Now, Carmelita Valdon, tell me all there is to tell about Garrett's death, Roger, you can speak when I speak to you, but I want Carmy to tell the story."

She pulled off her hat and flung it across the room, where Paxton picked it up and poked it back into shape.

"And you stay, too, Ross," Miss Folsom went on, as she held out her hand to Paxton and received a cigaret. "Stay, at any rate, until I hear the main facts."

"Yes, ma'am," Ross said, and stood at attention.

Then Mrs. Valdon gave a straightforward and concise account of the death of Garrett Folsom. She told all there was to tell of his bath in the ocean with them, of his sudden sinking beneath the waves, of his being carried to shore by two of the life guards, accompanied or assisted by several men who chanced to be near.

She told how they had all assumed that death was due to natural causes, until informed by Doctor Manning that it was not, but was the result of a murderous attack.

"Who did it?" cried Miss Anastasia at this point.

But her question received no answer.

"Who did it?" she repeated. "Roger, who murdered my brother?"

A quick glance passed from one to another of her hearers, saying as plainly as words could do that she was hysterical and must be calmed.

"That we don't know, my dear. That we have yet to find out—"

"We certainly have! Garrett was my brother! The only human being on the face of the earth I cared for. I shall devote my life to finding the fiend who killed him and avenging his death. Ross, who killed him?"

She turned to the valet and glared at him, with the glittering eyes of a mad woman.

"I don't know, Miss Folsom," the man replied, his voice sad but with the respectful tone of a servant.

"Where were you at the time of his death?"

"Then you can't be suspected! So you can help me in my investigations. I will keep you on, for the present, Ross. You will be useful here and after we go back home. You may go, now, and hold yourself at my orders."

"Yes, Miss Folsom," and Ross departed.

"I'm glad to have him," she said, "he is dependable and capable in every way. Now tell me more. Who was nearest my brother when he—when he fell over?"

"Your own crowd being?"

"These two ladies and myself," he said.

"Well, I don't suspect any of you," but the hawk-like eyes rested sternly on them all in turn. "Who were the strangers? Do you know?"

"Barron? Know anything about him?"

"Nothing at all. It seems Garry talked to him, just casually you know, as lots of people do, in the ocean. But he wasn't at all responsive, and gave Garry rather the cold shoulder."

"Then, if he was an utter stranger, we can scarcely suspect him."

"No, but Anastasia, you can't suspect anybody yet. It's all in the hands of the police—"

"Indeed it isn't! It's in my hands. I am the one who will find out my brother's murderer and bring him to justice. Police, bah! Do they ever accomplish anything?"

"Of course they do," said Neville, with spirit. "You mustn't talk like that—"

"Don't you tell me how I must or mustn't talk! I talk as I choose!"

"Yes, yes, dearie, so you shall," and Mrs. Valdon put an arm round the excited woman. "Do hush, Roger. You only make matters worse when you talk. Now, Anastasia, dear, I'm going to put Roger out and I'm going to give you a kimono and slippers and let you relax a little. Then you must get to bed—"

Anastasia Folsom gave her a comical look and then burst into a short laugh.

"I thought you knew me better!" she said. "I say, Duchess," she turned to Mrs. Barnaby, "do I look like a slipper and kimono person? Do I, now?"

And certainly the strong, forceful personality had in it no hint of the type of woman who loves to relax in that way.

"Besides," Miss Folsom went on, more quietly now, "the man from the police place is coming tonight."

"Up here or anywhere," said Anastasia, carelessly. "I don't care where, so long as I see him. There he is now, likely."

It was Jepson, ushered up by Tuttle, and introduced by him to the group.

"I'm glad to see you, Mr. Jepson," and Miss Folsom's welcome was quite evidently sincere if not cordial. "You're the man to whom I look for help in finding the murderer of my brother."

"I certainly hope to do that, Miss Folsom."

"I don't expect you to do it, I expect to do it myself. I said I look to you for help."

A queer trait of Garrett Folsom's is revealed in the next chapter when a discovery is made in his room.

EGG POOL RAISES RETURN TO FARMER

Has Kept Summer Price Around 30 Cents For Several Years.

It's a long call back to the days of 10 and 12 cents a dozen for eggs—but not so far to the time when less than 20 cents a dozen was considered a fair price for many months of the year. Credit must be given to the pooling idea for developing a marketing proposition that ensures a price well above 20 cents to the producer, even at the time of year when eggs are most plentiful. In fact, the Pool price has stood above 30 cents a dozen for the past four years.

When Ontario's first Egg Pool wsa opened in 1924 it appealed to those who had eggs to sell—particularly the farmer class—as a possible remedy for the annual slump in prices that came as surely as warm Spring weather brought increased egg production. Regardless of the effect the Pool has had in stabilizing prices generally, it is interesting to note that over a million dozens have gone into the Pools of 1924, 1925, 1926 and 1927, that the payment made by The United Farmers Co-operative Company, Limited, as the eggs were graded, was 20 cents a dozen, and that in addition, final payments were sent ranging from 9 to 14 cents a dozen. The total returns to poolers were as follows: In 1924, 31½ cents on Extras and 29 cents on Firsts; in 1925 and 1926; 32½ cents on Extras and 30 cents on Firsts; in 1927, Extras and 30 cents on Firsts; in 1927, 34 cents on Extras and 31½ cents on Firsts.

The 1928 Pool is now in operation and will remain open until such time as the management considers it unwise or unprofitable to producers to store for Fall or early Winter sale. All eggs tagged for the Pool are sorted and graded as they arrive, only sound Extras and Firsts being placed in cold storage for the Pool. The initial cash payment is 20 cents a dozen on those pooled while prevailing prices are paid for Seconds and Cracked eggs. The system of paying cash as the eggs are shipped, and a further cash payment in the Fall, has been proven to be a boon to local merchants as well as to the farmer.

Pantry Scouting Late at Night

WHAT makes a man scout through the pantry late at night? He has a hungry feeling . . . yet ordinary foods do not appeal. Quaker Puffed Wheat, that's just what he wants.

Quaker Puffed Wheat entices appetite and satisfies hunger. Because of its lightness, it does not impose on the digestion. All the wheat bran is there, but delightfully concealed.

The man in the pantry likes the toasted, nutmeat flavour of these whole wheat grains. Puffed to eight times their natural size, and exploded, then cooked and oven-crisped. Serve direct from the package, or warm if you wish.

Quaker Puffed Rice, too

Rice grains, also puffed and exploded. Dainty and light. Easily digested. Always pleasing and inviting to the appetite.

break in wheat prices yesterday. Houses with eastern connections led the selling. Beneficial rains both in the American and Canadian Northwest, as well as in domestic winter crop territory, were ineffective bearish influence.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsteady, 2¼ cents to 4¼ cents net lower, with corn at ¾ cent to 1¼ cents advance, oats ⅛ cent to 1⅛ cents off, and provisions 2 cents to 22 cents up.

Right from the outset, sellers of wheat showed themselves much in the majority, and throughout the day the price rallies which ensued were without power to last. Particular attention was given to improvement indicated for crops in the spring wheat belt, special notice being taken of authoritative trade reports which said that although spring-wheat territory requires additional moisture in some places, rains have been sufficient to start seed, and that early sown wheat fields in Minnesota and sown wheat fields in Minnesota and ance, although later fields are somewheat spotted. It was added that wheat seeding is practically complete in North Dakota and Montana.

Comparative slackness of export demand yesterday for wheat from North America was an additional bearish factor, specifically as appearing to reflect handicaps of Canadians in disposing of their big stock. It was estimated that the amount of North American wheat bought to-day for shipment to Europe was not to exceed 500,000 bushels.

Meanwhile deliveries of wheat on Chicago May contracts were again liberal, totalling yesterday 600,000 bushels. Selling of wheat here against purchases of corn counted also as a bearish influence on wheat.

Corn prices developed notable strength in the fact of wheat weakness. Spread trading that consisted of buying corn and of simultaneous selling of wheat was largely responsible. Receipts of corn continue meagre, and talk was current that a big Western demand for corn all season appears likely. Oats followed wheat rather than corn.

Provisions were responsive to upturns in the value of hogs.

Obituary

MRS. SARAH TUDHOPE.

WESTWOOD, May 18.— The body of the late Mrs. Sarah Tudhope, of Peterborough, who passed away on March 28, was laid to rest in the Westwood cemetery, on Saturday. The Rev. J. W. Gordon, of St. Andrew's church, Peterborough, read the burial services at the grave.

SUSANNAH McPHERSON.

NORWOOD May 18.—The funeral of Susananh McPherson, whose death occurred on Monday, took place on Wednesday afternoon from her residence on Queen street. The services were conducted by the Rev. H. S. Philpot, assisted by Rev. J. P. McLennan. Interment was in the Norwood cemetery.

Deceased, who was 83 years of age, was a life-long resident of this district. She had only resided in the village since last fall, but previous to that time had lived about two miles from the village on the Havelock road.

FRANCIS RODERICK PAKENHAM.

NORWOOD May 18.—The funeral of the late Francis Roderick Pakenham, B.A., whose sudden death occurred in Toronto last week, took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pakenham, Belmont street, Norwood. A private service was held at the house, following which the body was conveyed to the United church, where a service attended by a large number of friends, was held. The services were conducted by the Rev. R. F. Stillman, and the Rev. A. M. Irwin of Whitby. The latter was a former pastor and friend of the deceased. The numerous floral tributes bore silent testimony of the esteem in which this young man was held.

A number of fellow teachers motored from Toronto and attended the service in a body. The bearers were six of the staff of Central Technical School, of which staff deceased was a member. They were Messrs. W. S. Kirkland, principal, J. M. Warren, assistant principal, A. E. MacLean and P. A. Petrie, directors, A. G. Stewart and J. E. Montgomery, assistants. Burial was made in the Norwood cemetery.

Mr. Pakenham is survived by his wife and baby daughter, Dorothy, his parents and one brother, W. E. Pakenham, or Asphodel.

EVELYN GRACE HAIG.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 18. — The funeral of the late Evelyn Grace Haig, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addison J. Haig, Second Concession of Seymour, was held from their residence yesterday afternoon. The services at the house and at the grave were conducted by Rev. C. D. Daniels. Interment was made at Burnbrae Cemetery. The pallbearers were Donald Peake, Jack Stephens, Alex. Stephens, and Harry Stephens. Gerald Mitchell, Ted Peake, Stanley Stephens, and Marcus Haig acted as flower-bearers, forming two ranks on either side of the white casket as it was borne from the house to the hearse. The girls in the class to which Evelyn had belonged at school, also attended in a body. Many friends and sympathizers from both country and town were present to pay their respects.

At the time of her death, Evelyn Haig was in her seventh year. She was the fourth child of the family of seven. While her parents were outside the house early on Tuesday morning, Evelyn apparently tried to put some paper in the stove. Her clothing caught fire, and she died some hours later as the result of injuries from the fire. The sympathy of the entire district is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Haig.

MARKS PLAYERS WELL RECEIVED

Open Three-Day Stay in Campbellford With Capacity House.

VAUDEVILLE ENJOYED.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 18. — Arlie Marks and her company opened last night to a capacity house with "The Family Upstairs" a light farce comedy hit. The company is booked for the three nights of the week-end program at the Regent and will present a different bill at each appearance. This year the company consists of many of the same members who visited the town a year ago and several new members, who have been added to the company during the season. Between the acts the audience was well pleased with the snappy vaudeville staged by members of the cast. Throughout the entire evening generous applause marked the degree of success which the play was enjoying. Although the Arlie Marks Company has been a favorite with local audiences for several seasons, this engagement bids fair to make that favoritism absolutely permanent with the majority of theatre goers.

The Family Upstairs is a lively affair in which a mother seems unable to refrain from "Speaking out of Turn," and saying too much at the same time. The cast of characters as they appear on the stage:

Joe Heller, Frederick Lyle; Emma, the mother, Agnes M. Stutz; Louise the daughter, Miss Arlie Marks; Willie, the son, Bernard Brock; Annabelle, the baby sister, Teresa Corrigan; Charles Grant, the boy friend, Harold Needham; Mrs. Grant, his mother, Millicent Ward; Burt Callahan, dressmaker's hubby, Al. J. Perri.

On Friday evening the Marks Co. is booked to play "The Girl from Childs." The Saturday program consists of a vaudeville program in the afternoon and the regular program for the evening.

LEGION ENTERS SOFTBALL TEAM

J. S. Dickson Will Manage New Entry in Campbellford League.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 18.—At the regular meeting last night, the local branch of the Canadian Legion passed a motion to sanction a softball team to be entered in the town league. J. S. Dickson will be the Legion representative and have the responsibility of entering the team and selecting the players. Ex-service men are asked to hand in their names at the earliest possible date in order to get the team going and in shape for the first game next Wednesday.

The Legion expressed their appreciation of the fact they were to be allowed considerable latitude from which to pick their players, since the possibility of a team from this organisation was not brought to the attention of the executive till the date when the schedule was drawn up. The team will be known as the Legionaires.

Catchacoma News

A remarkable incident was related to your correspondent the other day by one connected with the new "Mississauga Lodge," Gull Lake. He and his friend were smoking cigarettes when his friend going to the shore threw his cigarette towards the water but just as it was about to make the dip a trout jumped clear of the surface and seized it. It is said that the trout got the right end of it and went off puffing.

"Mississauga Lodge", formerly Pearson's, is having between $6,000 and $10,000 spent on it by the new proprietor. There is a large central building and five cottages.

It will be probably the most luxurious of the Catchacoma Lakes resorts and complete in every respect.

The lumber has arrived for the boathouse and other buildings being erected by The Kawartha Tourist Company (Westlake's). The Inn itself is rounding into shape and while with free camping-grounds and moderate charges for meals and accommodations it is not as swagger or as expensive as some of the others it will be comfortable and has large open spaces attached to it and an unexcelled and safe sand bathing-beach.

Catchacoma is doing its best to respond to the Government's request that the Kawartha district provide full accommodation for the increasing tourist trade.

The Catchacoma Hotel (Hugh Cochrane's) has a brook trout stream running through its ground.

J. E. A. Fitzgerald was up at his cottage on Saturday.

If Maeterlink were here he would say it was the original home of the Blue Bird, so many of that species frequent it.

Mr. and Mrs. Cochrane and Mr. Curtis came up for the week-end.

POLITICIAN DIES.

Late John Harold Cascaden, M.D., F.T.M.C., L.R.C.P., M.R.C.S., prominent Ontario Liberal, who died recently in Toronto. He was 48 years old. His illness was short. He was well-known in medical, political and fraternal circles.

Why We Do What We Do.

WHY THE MOUTH WATERS.

Whenever you see a luscious peach or a red ripe watermelon, or some fruit that you like, your mouth waters. The a red ripe watermelon, or some fruit same is true of foods. The sight and smell of grilled steak or corned beef and cabbage; or of whatever foods appeal to you causes the saliva to flow in your mouth before you take the first mouthful.

This is the first process of digestion. Saliva is a secretion given off by the salivary glands located in the throat just back of the mouth and including the tonsils. Saliva serves to moisten the lining of the mouth and throat and aids in swallowing and digesting food.

The mouth waters in advance of the entry of food into the mouth because the saliva must be on hand to moisten the food during the chewing process. This is one of the important reasons for chewing every morsel as long as possible and the advisability of eating slowly enough to give the saliva a chance to do its work.

One does not always have to see or smell food in order to have the experience of mouth watering. The mere thought of a fine turkey dinner will start the saliva flowing in the mouth in anticipation of actually eating the meal.

Picture if you please a cut lemon. What happened to your mouth and throat while reading the last sentence? Didn't you experience a peculiar acid taste? This is a principle that is by no means confined to food. The charm and the lure of the theatre, of novels, of tales of adventure, and sex plays and stories is to stimulate those glands and muscles that are ordinarily involved in the acts suggested by the ideas.

The mouth watering experience is general. It is based on the fact that the mind influences the body. An idea tends to express itself in action. The idea may come through recall in memory, through reading, or through some other suggestion as in seeing, hearing, tasting, feeling or otherwise experiencing the thing which is capable of arousing an emotion or an idea in us.

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists Call It "Joint-Ease" Because It's For Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaking Joints Only.

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the only remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one of more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else.

Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, crick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH

BY DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

© 1928 McCOY HEALTH SERVICE - LOS ANGELES - CALIF.

Dr. McCoy's menus suggested for the week beginning Sunday, May 20th:

Sunday—Breakfast: Coddled eggs, toasted Triscuit, 5 stewed prunes. Lunch: Baked egg-plant, string beans, celery and ripe olives. Dinner: Roast pork, cooked spinach, cooked celery, salad of tomatoes and lettuce, baked apple.

Monday—Breakfast: 1 waffle, browned through, small amount of maple syrup, crisp bacon, pear sauce. Lunch: Oranges as desired. Dinner: Vegetable soup, Salisbury steak, baked ground beets, squash, string bean salad, pineapple whip.

Tuesday—Breakfast: Eggs poached in milk, on Melba toast, stewed raisins. Lunch: Peanut butter soup, salad of raw asparagus. Dinner: Baked sea bass, cooked spinach and parsley, salad of sliced tomatoes, plain Jello or Jell-well, no cream.

Wednesday — Breakfast: Breakfast food retoasted, with cream, no sugar, 1 coddled egg, stewed figs. Lunch: Raw apples as desired. Dinner: Jellied tomato bouillon, broiled chicken, okra, parsnips, salad of raw spinach, raspberry whip.

Thursday—Breakfast: Baked eggs, Melba toast, stewed apricots. Lunch: Cooked turnip tops, molded vegetable salad (peas, celery, cucumbers). Dinner: Roast mutton, steamed carrots, spinach, celery and nut salad, small dish of junket.

Friday—Breakfast: Wholewheat muffins, peanut butter, applesauce. Lunch: *Lettuce soup, dish of string beans. Dinner: Baked white fish, stewed tomatoes, cooked lettuce, turnip cup salad, no dessert.

Saturday—Breakfast: French omelette, Melba toast, stewed prunes. Lunch: Potatoes on the half shell, cooked asparagus. Dinner: Vegetable soup, roast beef, baked ground carrots and lettuce, grapejuice whip.

*Lettuce Soup: Shred two medium sized heads of lettuce and put into a large kettle over a low fire with three or four cups of water. Let simmer for an hour and strain off the liquid, mashing as much as desired of the cooked lettuce through the colander. If liquid does not equal three cupfuls, add hot water. Next, add a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and three cups of whole milk. Return to the stove and heat to almost boiling point, seasoning with a little salt. When ready to serve, add a generous sprinkling of chopped parsley and a teaspoonful of whipped cream to each plate.

Thin strips of Melba toast may be used if desired.

Questions and Answers.

Question—W. J. K. writes: "Thanks for your interesting subjects which I read daily in the paper. Will you please tell me if you approve of my habit of taking one teaspoonful of Epsom salts in water every morning? Will this aid in reducing? What is your opinion of Epsom salts?"

Answer: The Epsom salts treatment which you are using will induce much bile elimination and frequent bowel movements. This will aid in reducing but, of course, it is not advisable to carry on such treatment indefinitely.

Question—Mrs. H. G. asks: "With what foods may we combine non-starchy vegetables?"

Answer: Non-starchy vegetables may be combined with any other article of food. But remember, when combining with the carbohydrates, or starches, no proteins should be used. Combine with either protein or starch, but never with both at the same time. I will be glad to send you an article on food combinations.

Question—R. S. writes: "I have been troubled with eczema on my face and arms for some time. What diet or treatment do you advise?"

Answer: All you need to do is to combine your foods properly so that you will not have an overacid stomach. Also, the skin may be peeled off with the sunburn produced from the use of the ultra-violet light. A few days' fasting is usually enough to make any skin eruption disappear, but the steady diet of well balanced meals is necessary to a permanent cure.

If You Need A Tonic Get The Best!

Guelph, Ont.—"There is nothing better as a building tonic than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Several times when I was rundown, suffered from weak stomach, thin and impoverished blood, I took it and always obtained good results. It enriched my blood, relieved me of the weak stomach, built me up in health, and made me feel like a new person. I also found it splendid to take following motherhood to give me strength. I always recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to those whom I find ailing for I know them to be just as advertised."—Mrs. W. H. Skyring, 52 Nottingham St.

BUDDA BOOK IN ENGLISH

An encyclopedia and dictionary of Buddism in English and French is being compiled in Tokyo, Japan, by the Franco-Japanese Institute. It will be the first book of the kind in the world, and is intended for use of those who wish to study the Buddist religion but are unable to go to the original sources in Japanese and Chinese. The work is being done by a staff under the charge of Sylvian Levi, director of the Institute. It is so large that it will require several years to complete. The Franco-Japanese Institute was established to spread a knowledge of France throughout Japan and to gain information about the Oriental country for distribution in France.

DRESS

5-14

The 1928 version of the peasant blouse is made with an extended peplum. The material is white cotton voile smocked and embroidered in blue and red.

Some fashions, like celebrated opera singers, have a way of making ever so many final bows before they finally retire for good. The peasant blouse retired, as everyone supposed, several seasons ago, and here it is again quite as if nothing had happened.

The fashion for peasant blouses shortly after the war was directly due to the presence in Parisian dressmaking workrooms of numerous Russian exiles eager to turn their knowledge of native embroidery and costume to account in order to make some sort of living.

Chanel was one of the first to show fashionable French women that they were doing more than an act of charity in using these exotic Russian embroideries on their clothes. She also showed their usefulness in connection with the sports type of frock. Madame Yteb, who was herself a maid of honor to the unfortunate Empress Alexandra of Russia, and who started her career as a dressmaker only a few years ago in a small apartment in Paris, also did much to bring the Russian embroidery and Russian peasant blouses into favor. Carpatzi, in Paris, specializes in Roumanian embroideries done in bright colors on hand-made rustic linen.

The new peasant blouses show the characteristic colorful smocking, cross-stitch and other typical peasant needlework. Instead of the coarse homespun linen found in the real peasant blouses a light-weight cotton voile is almost always used.

One of the most interesting of all Russian shops in Paris at present is a small antique shop in a fashionable neighborhood—carrying on a business that was started over seventy years ago in Russia and quietly transferred to Paris at the time of the revolution in Russia. Here are sold old irons, barbaric pieces of jewelry and other art objects once owned and prized by the old Russian nobility.

ITALIA RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP

Had Been Away From Base For 68 Hours and Flown 2,000 Miles.

TO LENIN LAND.

KINGS BAY, Spitzbergen, May 18.—(Canadian Press.)— The dirigible Italia returned to her base here at 9.15 a.m. to-day from an exploring trip to Lenin's Land. The dirigible had been in flight for almost 68 hours over a course of some 2,000 miles.

The long flight was the second that the Italia had made over the Polar regions since her arrival here. The first flight was made on May 11 and lasted only about eight hours, although it had been hoped that the ship would make a 40 hour cruise. Fog and a heavy snow storm compelled the Nobile to turn back after covering 300 miles.

HOROSCOPE

The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel

For Saturday, May 19, 1928.

Benefic aspects rule this day, according to astrology; but the eclipse of the sun is read as a sinister import.

All who seek the support or approbation of influential persons should be active while this rule prevails.

There is a sign of promise for all who engage in constructive work and all the aspects seem to presage such tremendous undertakings as the world has ever known.

The new moon of this date comes with an eclipse of the sun in the Pleides and is believed by the seers to presage great storms in places ruled by these stars.

Southern Mexico, India, and China may suffer from floods as well as unprecedented storms of great violence.

The indication is that the weather in Europe will be unsatisfactory to tourists, for unusual spells of cold are forecast.

Disaster is forecast for Luxemborg and Cologne; while France and the Netherlands may sustain certain severe misfortunes.

The Soviet republic of Russia now comes under a direction of the stars which is most threatening to internal peace.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a favorable year in which their affairs are satisfactory.

Children born on this day may be too easily led for their own good. The subjects of this sign are usually talented.

LYRICS OF LIFE

A WORLD OF OUR OWN.

When the world is wild at night
With the thunders of the storm;
Then a little lamp we light
And a fire to keep us warm.
Though the rain may beat about
Though the wind may sadly moan,
We forget the world without
In a little world our own.

Though the world may seem to be
Eager foe or fickle friend,
What is that to you and me
When the day is at an end?
Though a crowding world I meet;
Though its worries you have known,
All that world we soon forget
In a little world our own.

And tomorrow we shall rise;
Take the gauntlet up again;
Face that world of frowning skies;
Face that world of frowning men;
Knowing, when the shadows fall,
When the weary day has flown;
All that matters, after all;
Is this little world our own.

It has won more people to Kellogg's Corn Flakes★ than to any other ready-to-eat cereal. Flavor and matchless crispness! Just because they taste so good—that's why more than 11,000,000 people demand Kellogg's each day.

Kellogg's

CORN FLAKES

★ Kellogg's were the first and original corn flakes! Their wonder-flavor and crispness has never been copied!

Serve for lunch or dinner as well as breakfast. Fine for the kiddies' evening meal. Never tough-thick—but extra crisp. Easy to digest.

WELL-PROPORTIONED CHILDREN

It is rather distressing to walk along the streets observing the number of sickly, undernourished, deformed, toxemic individuals suffering from the long-continued effects of a pernicious diet. This is particularly heartrending to me because I realize that these unhealthy beings could practically all be splendid examples of physical development and correct education.

I have given a number of lectures before high school student bodies, and I would estimate that about two-thirds are starving for food out of which they could build proper bone and cell structure. The other third appeared to be overweight, but nevertheless lacking in mineral elements.

These mis-shapen, sickly-appearing high school students are the results of many years of wrong dieting. If a child is brought up on white bread and jam, there is little chance for him to have a strong bony framework. I could observe in the bowlegs, knock-knees, anemic, pimply complexions and slouching backs how little our educational system is doing in the practical instruction of food chemistry.

Some of the lower grade schools have recently installed dietitians to supervise the food that is given in the school, but although some improvement over no supervision, the chief aim of these dietitians is to produce spectacular gaining reports and as a consequence the children are stuffed with quantities of acid-forming, mucus-producing foods which add weight but, unfortunately, no health. The increase in weight is usually caused by uneliminated waste poisons, and is directly responsible for the many cases of swollen tonsils, adenoids, appendicitis, and tendencies to the children's diseases.

I believe, however, that the mother should be chiefly responsible for preventing this condition of acidosis. Growing children must be provided with foods containing calcium, silicon and iron. All of the cooked and raw greens contain these important minerals, without which a child can not build healthy bone, nerve or blood tissues.

Not only is it important to select the right foods, but it is necessary to combine them properly, and I advise the complete elimination of the white flour products and white sugar from the child's diet. The craving that children have for sugar is a positive indication that they are not being fed on a properly balanced diet.

Mothers should make a thorough study of these dietetic problems from health books and from the columns of health advice found in the more progressive newspapers.

Questions and Answers.

Question: I.O.V. writes: "I have been dieting according to your instructions in the paper. I have lost 13 pounds—did weigh 188. I notice after eating, when digestion begins to take place, I have a very pronounced metallic taste in my mouth. What would cause this, and will it disappear?"

Answer: You should lose still more weight, and if you will keep on dieting until your weight becomes normal, the metallic taste will disappear. This is produced from an improper balance of your digestive fluids, and continued dieting will correct such trouble.

Question: Mrs. K. D. writes: "All of my family are being benefited by your diet and health articles in our paper, and we wish to tell you of our appreciation. Also, just one question: What foods are meant when we use the term 'protein?'"

Answer: Generally speaking, we mean the animal and its products, viz.: meats, milk, cream, cheese, butter, fowl, eggs, rabbit, fish, etc.

Question: A. C. writes: "Please tell us the proper food and liquid to give in a case where there is pus in the urine. It has been going on for several years, sometimes the pus is quite heavy and sometimes there is scarcely any. I wish to thank you for your helpful advice on various subjects which we get through our paper."

Answer: It is unwise for me to attempt to give you any special advice as I cannot tell what is causing the pus in your urine. Go to a competent diagnostician and find out the cause of your trouble, then write to me again, giving your name and address, and I will send you suggestions about the cure from my point of view.

NORTHERN TROOPS AND LEADER

Above is pictured a detachment of Chang Tso-lin's troops with (inset) the war lord himself, now being watched closely by a great part of the world. Hostilities between Japanese and Chinese Nationalist forces at Tsinan may develop into an Oriental war of major proportions if the rival Chinese factions answer the appeal of Chang Tso-lin, northern commander, for a cessation of internal civil conflict in the face of a national peril.

THE CHURCHES

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL

At St. Peter's Cathedral last evening, Rev. James A. Cloran, C.S.S.R, spoke to a crowded cathedral of men on the doctrine of "Hell" This eloquent missionary preached for some fifty minutes on this very important tenet of Christian faith and it was doubtless one of the most excellent pieces of oratory ever heard from the Cathedral pulpit. It was a solid simple and persuasive sermon and full of scriptural quotations, Father Cloran stressed the existence of a hell, the home of the enemies of an holy and just God, and described the greatest torment in hell as being the separation for all eternity of the soul from its God.

Work of the Redemptorist

Rev. Fathers Cloran, O'Hara and Keough, preaching the men's mission at the Cathedral this week, belong to the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer and are generally called Redemptorist Fathers. The Redemptorists are a society of missionary priests founded by St. Alphonsus in Italy in the year 1732. Their original purpose was to labor among the neglected country folk in the neighborhood of Naples. According to the rule of their order they are "to strive to imitate the virtues of Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, consecrating themselves especially to the preaching of the Word of God." They take simple vows of poverty, chastity and obedience. Their work in the priesthood consists principally in preaching missions, retreats and spiritual exercises.

Aims of The Mission

The Redemptorist Fathers in the work of a mission have a three-fold aim in view, viz.: Instruction, Conversion and Perseverance. The work of instruction goes on morning and evening, a short resume of the teachings of Christ and the church is given after each of the mission Masses in the morning and also a short instruction is given before the Rosary in the evening.

The second aim of the mission is the work of conversion; some from a life of sin to purity of heart; others from a state of luke-warmness to a life of religious fervor. Even good people need the mission to open their eyes to the dangers of life and to put them on their guard against them. This aim of the conversion of the people is effected by the consideration of those very powerful motives which urge man most to work out his savation.

The people must learn to understand the absolute necessity of working out their eternal salvation, the dreadful evil of mortal sin, the inevitable result of mortal sin, viz., eternal damnation unless it be cancelled by penance. In this work of conversion the people are also informed of the terrible judgment that awaits the unrepenting sinner, the torments of hell and the recklessness of delaying his conversion to the God of his soul.

The perseverance of the people at the time of a mission is attempted by reflection on the chief means to be employed for the leading of a truly Christian life. These are: The ready flight from the proximate occasion of sin and the frequentation of the sacraments, Christ's channels of help to us.

Protection of Many.

In order to put these means into practice the mission of the Redemptorist fathers generally closes on the last evening by the consecration of those making the mission to the constant protection of the Mother of Godfl. To-morrow evening at the Cathedral there will be a procession of boys to the parish to the shrine of Our Lady and also the consecretion to Our Lady of the men who are making the mission. The altar of Our Lady of Lourdes in the Cathedral will be beautifully decorated for to-morrow evening's procession and consecration. St. Alphonsus, the Redemptorist founder, had a very special devotion to Our Lady and during his long life of sixty years as a missionary for souls, always preached with a statue of the Blessed Virgin standing on a high pedestal near the pulpit.

Enquiry Class.

The enquiry class being conducted by the fathers at St. Peter's Rectory, Reid street, has proven to be a popular and important part of the mission. People seeking information or advice on spiritual matters may see any one of the Redemptorist fathers by making an appointment during the day or by calling at the rectory in the evening.

Father Keough Speaks To-night.

Rev. Father Keough will speak this evening at the men's mission. Devotions will begin with a short instruction and the recitation of the rosary, to be followed by the sermon of the evening. Father Keough will speak on "The Precepts of the Church" and will treat individually of each of the six laws promulgated by the church for man's welfare and guidance. This is one of the most important sermons in the whole course of the mission. The men's mission will close on Sunday evening.

Stations of the Cross.

Last evening Father O'Hara exhorted the men to be faithful to the beautiful custom of making the stations of the cross daily. "This is a wonderful way of honoring the passion of Christ of bringing upon ourselves a true spirit of compunction and sorrow for the sins of a lifetime. There is no better way of acquiring a horror of sin than by meditating upon the sufferings of the Saviour," he said.

POLICE ACTION UNDER INQUIRY

Home Secretary Gives Notice of Appointment of Tribunal to Investigate.

METHODS QUESTIONED.

LONDON, May 18 (Canadian Press).—The recent arrest of Sir Leo Money and Miss Irene Savage, charged with improper conduct in Hyde Park and later absolved by a magistrate, is to come before the House of Commons for investigation. In connection with the case the Metropolitan Police will be required to explain their alleged third degree methods.

The Home Secretary, Sir William Joynson-Hicks, to-day gave notice in the House of Commons that he would move a resolution next Tuesday that a tribunal be established to inquire into the conduct of the prosecution of Sir Leo and Miss Savage and the action of the police in interrogating Miss Savage on May 15, some time after she had been freed by a court.

4TH BATTERY GOING TO CAMP

Local Artillerymen Will Spend Week at Petawawa Next Month.

IN TRAINING NOW.

Under command of Major J. W. Stevenson, the 4th Field Battery, Canadian Artillery, will tonight hold the second parade of the season, and training in preparation for a week in camp at Petawawa will commence in earnest. Most of the members who have drilled faithfully in the local armories for several years in hopes of being able to go to camp at some time are out again, and it is likely that the battery, despite lack of actual fire experience on the part of many of the men, will make a good showing. The camp will be held the week of June 24. Officers assisting Major Stevenson in the training of the battery are Capt. J. A. Harstone M.C., and Lieut. H. S. Rogers. E. G. Sutherland is battery sergeant-major.

Thus you receive 3 boxes on payment of only $1.09

Offer Limited—Act Promptly

Made to acquaint all women with the remarkable protective features of KOTEX—features found in no other sanitary napkin known

TO show women the remarkable difference and vastly greater protection of Kotex over any other sanitary napkin known, this unique offer is made . . . three regular 75c boxes of Kotex, a $2.25 value, on payment of $1.09.

Go today to any store in this city, or out of town, where Kotex is sold and take advantage of this opportunity. But do not delay. All dealers' stocks are limited. If you come late, you cannot be supplied.

IMPORTANT!

Why gamble with substitutes hospitals have tried and rejected?

Many hospitals have tried substitutes for Cellucotton wadding, but have returned to the exclusive use of this marvelous absorbent, which towers above all low-quality absorbents.

Good hospitals and reputable surgeons take no chances with their patients. Why then should you allow any merchant to substitute a pad made of inferior material when you wish the only original Kotex?

The difference between Kotex and other sanitary pads

Kotex is utterly different from all other sanitary pads. There is no other "like" Kotex.

Thus Kotex has the amazing power of absorbing 16 times its own weight in moisture! Thus Kotex has 5 times the absorbency of the ordinary cotton-filled pad! Think what this means in protection.

Discards like tissue—No disposal problem

One uses Kotex, then discards it—as easily as tissue. Thus no laundry. No problem of disposal. Think, too, what this means.

Another factor is that Kotex deodorizes thoroughly and absolutely as it acts. Which banishes another old-time fear of women.

Accept this offer

Brokers Issue Map Showing Mine Areas

The mining belt of the Pre-cambrian area is charted in complete detail in a map isued by A. E. Osler and Company the Toronto brokers. The boundary of each mining camp, from the Saskatchewan borde: to the Rouyn field, is shown in correct geographical scale, with rivers, railways, roads and trails clearly marked and the location of all the important mines indicated by name. This is the first map to be issued embracing in one plan the full extent of the Pre-cambrian area where mining operations for the precious and semi-precious metals are now being carried on.

A. E. Osler and Co., are pioneers in the development of the mining industry in Canada. Established in 1886 the firm originally traded in bonds and similar securities, the mine comprising only a small portion of its business. With the opening up of the Cobalt area the activities of the company became more extensively identified with the mining interests. The firm sponsored the first public offering of shares in a Northern Ontario property with the issue of the Buffalo mine in 1906. The further discoveries of mineral wealth in Ontario and in the Pre-cambrian belt, east and west, has kept the name of this firm in outstanding prominence among the interests identified with mining.

The Osler building is one of the most centrally located office buildings in Toronto, on the corner of Melinda and Jordan streets, a short block from the main intersection of King and Yonge streets, adjoining the "Globe" building on the west. While the Osler Company have been in this location for the past twenty years the present building was completed in March last. It is now the headquarters of several of the largest brokerage firms in Toronto, members of the Toronto exchanges, with private wire connections to the Montreal, New York and Chicago exchanges. The offices of Osler and Company occupy the second floor.

Wheat Opens Strong And Maintains Gains

CHICAGO, May 18. — (Canadian Press.)—Big export buying, estimated at 2,000,000 bushels, gave a quick upward swing to the wheat market to-day. It was said that all the wheat offered overnight to Europe had been accepted. Opening 1⅝c. to 3-8c. higher, wheat subsequently held near to the initial range. Corn, oats and provisions, as well as wheat, showed strength, with corn starting ⅛ to 1½c. up, but then reacting somewhat. Opening prices were:

Wheat, May 148 5-8, July 150.
Corn, May 104 1-2, July 106 7-8.
Oats, May 64, July 55 3-8.

Prices Move Downward On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, May 13. Canadian Press. — Prices showed a decide decline on the Toronto stock exchange this morning in very light trading. International nickel led the market in turn over, selling down 2½ points to 89 5-8. Page Hersey also lost ground at 102½, down 1¼. International Utilities at 16 was 7-8 lower. Christie Brown, which soared up to a new high yesterday, dropped to 99, for a four point loss. Masey Harris, Shredded Wheat, Canadian Canners Second, Abitibi, and Alberta Pacific grain suffered fractional declines

British American Oil at 40 3-8 was down 1-8. International Petroleum at 42½ Price Brothers at 113, and standard Paving at 28, were down ½. Canada Dry Ginger Ale continued its decline of the last few days, selling at 76, down 1¼. Carling's and Sprucolite were up 7-8 and 7 points respectively.

Mine Market Trend Is Downward To-day

TORONTO, May 18. Canadian Press. — A downward tendency marked the morning session of the Standard mining exchange, with over one million shares changing hands. Noranda suffered the biggest decline. After opening at 24.25, it dropped to 22.80, later closing at 23.35 for a net loss of 80c. Dome Mines was also weak, losing 45 to 9.30 in light trading. Ajax Oil opened strong at 98 but dropped at noon to 83 for a loss of 16½ points. Amulet at 3.35, was down 10. Abana, in the unlisted section eased down to 3.00 for a decline of 18. Hudson Bay sold down 25 to 18.50. McIntyre and Lake Shore also suffered declines, selling down 20 points to 26.50 and 23.55 respectively. Pend Oreille and Sherritt Gordon at 11.65 and 5.95 were up 5 points. Sudbury Basin, Towagmac, San Antonio, Nipissing, Newbec, Barry Hollinger, Area, Howey Gold and Hollinger Consolidated registered gains of from 2 to 5 points. Teck Hughes gained 20 points to 10.15.

MacKENZIE DEAD.

C. P. R. Officials Decide He Was Drowned May 3—Wilson Didn't Sail.

GLASGOW, May 18. — (Canadian Press).—After careful investigation into the disappearance of William Mackenzie, Hamilton, Ontario, and the Rev. W. A. Wilson, Vancouver, B.C., from the steamer Melita on her last trip from Montreal to Glasgow, Canadian Pacific Steamship officials have decided that Mackenzie was drowned at sea on May 3 and that Mr. Wilson did not sail.

WRECK REPORT NOT CONFIRMED

NO VESSELS MISSING.

SYDNEY, N.S., May 18 (Canadian Press).—There was nothing to-day to substantiate the report of three fishermen that they had seen a steamer founder in heavy seas off New Waterford yesterday morning. No wreckage has been discovered, no steamer was reported missing, and no information of any kind has been received to corroborate the report.

McLarnin and Mandell Enter Ring To-Night

MANDELL FIGHT NOW POSTPONED

Will be Held at Polo Grounds, New York To-night.

DOWN TO WEIGHTS

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 18.—(Canadian Press.)— For the second time in lo, these many years, Tex Rickard's proverbial "weather luck" failed him yesterday and forced postponement of Jimmy McLarnin's attempt to lift the lightweight crown from Sammy Mandell. The fifteen round joust will be staged to-night at the Polo Grounds if the weather man is in better mood.

Although the brooding skies failed to break out into a general downpour, the gloomy cast overhead and threats of showers caused the promoter to order the postponement at 2 p.m., just after the contestants had weighed in at the offices of the New York State Athletic Commission. The Canadian lad with the lethal right fist scaled 134½ pounds, just under the limit, while Mandell, after an enforced workout, tipped the beam at at even 135.

When the champion first stepped on the scales, he was half a pound over the weight. After much scurrying around, the little Chicago Italian was allowed fifteen minutes to reduce to the class limit.

Sammy retired to an ante room, shadow-boxed until the time was up, and returned to save his weight forfeit with a fraction of an ounce to spare. The boxers will not be required to weigh again unless a second postponement is necessary. Both probably will scale well over the limit by to-night.

Weather Luck.

In all the years, Tex Rickard has been promoting matches in New York, only one bout previously had been postponed due to bad weather. Last summer, when the heavyweight pot was boiling in fine style, the promoter was forced to postpone Jack Sharkey away from Jimmy Maloney. After the halt, Sharkey quickly cuffed his Boston rival out of the heavyweight picture.

The damaging influence of the overhanging clouds on the box office probably had more to do with the postponement yesterday than actual fear of storms. With the threat of moisture in the air, the customers failed to rally in the numbers that should be expected. With a fair day to-day, Rickard expects a crowd of 40,000 and receipts of $200,000. The setback failed to injure the chances of either fighter, as both are in splendid shape and well able to carry an extra pound or two.

India Favorite At Olympic Games

AMSTERDAM, May 18 (Associated Press). — India's field hockey team ranked as a decided favorite after showing in the opening of the Olympic hockey series yesterday. The team's speed and offensive generalship was unequalled by any of the other contestants in action yesterday. All except Belgium appeared at either the Olympic Stadium or the so-called "old stadium" across the way.

In the opinion of coaches of various nationalities, Germany has the best chance to rank second at the close, with a possibility of Holland placing third and Denmark and Belgium contesting for the next position.

As every team meets every other team, however, there is plenty of room for revision of this judgment. In every position except right back, France was outclassed by the opposing Hollanders, who won 5 to 0. Austria, although much heavier than India, was defeated 6 to 0. The Austrians were content to play a defensive game.

Denmark and Switzerland engaged in a slow, lumbering tussle, with the 2 to 1 victory of the Danes fairly expressing their relative strength.

VIEWS ON SPORTS

The rule regarding the signing of fifteen players per team at one time, which was so strongly debated at the last City League meeting and which was recently settled by the executive, doesn't seem to have affected any of the squads so far. The majority of the managers of the different teams in the three series seem to have been beseiged by a flock of players turning out for their practices. In fact some of the managers have already signed their players, and players who have failed to land a berth are now trying out with other teams. McFadden of the Royals, was the chief exponent of the fifteen players, while Jack Deannard thought it in the best interests of the league to have only twelve.

* * * * * * *

Dorsy Davis' squad are going to put up some snappy argum nts again this season. Wednesday's workout was a brisk one for the "Cogs" and they are being put through their paces with plenty of pep. Billingsly is back on the hurling staff, and Ken Baker is slated as a big mitt artist. Rooke on first is hard to beat, with Crary and Corbett filling the same positions as last season. The outer gardeners are working whole-heartedly in the practices and there will probably be strong competition for the berth left by Mackness.

* * * * * * *

Local runners provided plenty of excitement in the Y.M.C.A. Circus last night. The two-mile relay was won by the "Y" Harriers, with the C.G.E. second and the Lindsay Monarch third. Bates, Hamilton and Strickland ran the first lap, with the former showing a burst of speed which gave him the lead until the last lap, when Hamilton took the first place with a fine sprint. McLeod led for the "Y" for a few laps; McBrien wrested the lead from him, but the former came back strong to win the lap. Sturgeon still kept the lead for the "Y" with a real fast clip, but Tranter beat him to the tape. The Lindsay boys still held third position, and despite the great effort made by Doug. Brandon to bring them to second place in the last lap. He cut down a lead of half a lap to five yards. Larmer led most of the way, with Laderach taking second place.

DRAW FAVORS HELEN WILLS

Champion Seeded in Easier Half in French Hard Court Tourney.

STARTING ON MONDAY.

PARIS May 18. — Helen Wills, the American and Wimbledon tennis champion, is seeded in the upper and easier half of the draw for the women's singles of the French hard court championships, starting next Monday.

Mrs. Molla Mallory, the former American champion, and Miss Penelope Anderson, Virginia girl, who came aboard as Miss Wills' playing partner, are bracketed in the lower half, together with Evelyn Colyer and Betty Nuthall, the English stars, and Kea Bouman of Holland.

Frank Hunter, principal American entry in the men's singles, faces keen competition early in the tournament. His third-round opponent probably will be Henri Cochet, assuming that the French star disposes of Sydney Wood, New York boy, in the second round.

Lacoste in Fourth Quarter.

Jean Borotra is in the second quarter of the men's draw, along with Gerald Patterson of Australia, while Jacques Brugnon is in the third and Rene Lacoste in the fourth quarter.

There are sixty-four entries altogether in the men's singles, forty-two in the women's singles and, more than a dozen nations represented.

Miss Wills will play with Miss Anderson in the women's doubles, and with Hunter in the mixed doubles. Barring an upset the Wills-Anderson team should play the English team of Betty Nuthall, and Joan Austin Lycett in the semi-finals.

Norman E. Brookes, the old Australian star, will join forces with the Americans in two events, pairing with Mrs. Mallory in the mixed doubles and with Hunter in the men's double. The Hunter-Brookes team is in the same quarter as the Borotra-Brugnon Davis Cup combination. Miss Anderson is paired with L. Crawford in the mixed doubles.

Miss Wills plays Hunter.

Miss Wills and Hunter yesterday had the honor of playing the first tennis set in the new French Davis Cup Stadium.

The official opening will be Saturday with British and French women team matches, but the officials desired to give the Americans the privilege of being first to exchange shots across the net where tennis history may be written.

Miss Wills and Hunter were invited to start the ball rolling. Miss Wills won, 8-6. She appeared to be fully recovered from a cold suffered previous to her visit to Holland. Her forehand drives yesterday had almost as much power behind them as did Hunter's smashes.

GODFREY MATCHED.

NEW YORK, May 18. —(Canadian Press.) — George Godfrey, current "black menace" among the heavyweights, and Johnny Risko, Cleveland baker boy, who finished second in Tex Rickard's winter elimination series, were matched yesterday to fight ten rounds on June 20 at

WILL CONTEST FINAL ROUND OF TOURNEY

Mlle. Leblan and Slyvia Marshall Paired in British Open.

FAVORITE NERVOUS

HUNSTANTON, Eng., May 18. — (Canadan Press Cable.)—That graceful young Parisienne, Mlle. Nanette Le Blan, who holds the women's championship of Belgium, and Miss Sylvia Marshall, relatively unknown English woman, who nevertheless holds the county championship of Sussex and who formerly held the Norfolk title, will contest the final round here to-day in the British women's open golf championship.

The French woman won the right to enter the final by a brilliant recovery in the semi-final round against the favorite Miss Enid Wilson. The latter threw away her chances for the title when she was leading 3 and 0 at the twelfth hole. At this stage the grim battle she had been waging against the French challenger collapsed and Mlle La Blan outplayed her the next three holes and only failed to square the match by missing a short putt. The French woman, however, won the seventeenth and a gallery of more than 2,000 watched the gripping drama at the final hole. Miss Wilson appeared nervous and drove her second shot erratically while Mlle. Le Blan registered a perfect four to win the match.

The other semi-final was almost as thrilling and it saw Miss Marshall come from behind with rare courage to overcome the lead secured by her opponent, Miss Judith Fowler in the early stages. The latter had the best of matters until she lost the 11, 12 and 13 holes in succession. This left Miss Marshall two up. Miss Fowler, however, rallied strongly and squared the match at the seventeenth, but at the final hole she faltered in a similar manner as Miss Wilson, her second drive being trapped in the bunker. Miss Marshall on the other hand drove straight and true to the green and this shot gave her the match.

A feature of the sixth round was the defeat of Miss Winn by Mlle. Le Blan. The French woman was supreme from tee to green and played spectacular golf throughout. She was presented with victory at several holes by reason of Miss Winn's erratic putting.

Miss Mabel Wragg, of Sheffield, after performing a national service in eliminating Miss Glenna Collett, the United States' star, and placing herself among the favorite for the crown, went down to defeat before Miss Wilson, 5 and 3.

Brother Eliminates Own Brother In Professional Golf Tournament

LEEDS, England, May 18 (Canadian Press Cable). — Several sensational features occurred in yesterday's match play of the thousand guineas professional golf tournament being played here. They involved the unexpected defeats of Archie Compston and George Duncan, and the elimination of Ernest Whitcombe by his brother Charles. These competitors won the event in 1926-27 respectively.

Results in the first round match play follow: Stewart of Australia defeated Wilson of Crohamhurst, 3 and 2; T. Barber defeated Button of Woodsome Hall, 2 and 1; Charles Whitcombe beat Ernest Whitcombe, 2 and 1; Browne of Broxbourne defeated Fred Robson, 1 up; T. Cotton beat Ted Ray, 4 and 2; T. Williamson beat Ockenden, 1 up; G. Duncan defeated G. Gadd at the 19th hole, and A. Compson beat Gaudin of Alwoodley, 3 and 2.

Second Round.—Bond of West Lancashire defeated Stewart of Australia, 2 and 0; Barber beat Sayner of Birkdale, 3 and 1; C. Whitcombe beat Browne, 2 and 1; Williamson defeated Cotton, 2 and 1; Riseborough of Little Hampton defeated Wingate of Temple Newsham, 3 and 2; Bradbeer beat Duncan, 2 and 0; Jolly beat Oke of Fulwell, 8 and 6, and Davies of Prenton defeated Compson, 4 and 3.

DEFEAT REDS ON HOME FIELD

Brooklyn's 4-2 Victory Breaks Tie Between League Leaders.

CUBS IN FIRST

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 18 (Canadian Press).—Brooklyn got off to a victory over Cincinnati, 4 to 2, in its 1928 debut on Redland Field at Cincinnati yesterday and broke the tie existing between the Reds and the Cubs for first place. Chicago won and went into undisputed leadership. Dazzy Vance got credit for the victory. He was removed for a pinch batsman, Henline, in the seventh, which saw the Robins score two runs and take the lead. Doak finished for Brooklyn.

Pat Malone held Boston to five hits at Chicago and the Cubs won their eleventh consecutive victory, 2 to 0. Hack Wilson hit his fifth home run of the season in the fourth inning. The other tally also came in the second, when Stephenson led off with a double, went to third on Grimm's sacrifice, and scored on Gonzales' single. Malone held the Braves to one hit until the seventh inning.

YANKEES MAKE SEVEN STRAIGHT

Home Runs Feature in 4 to 3 Victory Over St. Louis Browns.

HOMER TWINS CONNECT

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 18.—(Canadian Press.) — The Yankees ran their winning streak to seven straight here yesterday by winning the first of four engagements with the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 3.

The game was featured by Ruth's twelfth and Gehrig's sixth home run, but these drives were matched by circuit blows from the bats of Lu Blue and Otis Brannon.

After the home run battle had ended in a draw, Crowder relieved Harold Wiltse with the bases filled in the ninth and forced the winning run home by walking Combs after Durst had struck out. Stanley Coveleskie went the route for the Yankees for the first time this year.

The Chicago White Sox rallied in the closing innings of their first game at Philadelphia yesterday and nosed out the Athletics by a score of six to five.

The pale hose overcame a three to nothing lead by knocking Ossie Orwell out of the box in the seventh inning and scoring four runs. In the following session, Pitcher Tommy Thomas helped win his own game by scoring two more runs with a long double.

Joe Hauser hit his eighth home run of the season in the fourth with none on base.

Sox in Fourth Place.

The Red Sox went into fourth place in the League standing at Boston by defeating Detroit 5 to 3. Sensational fielding was responsible for the Red Sox victory as Russell allowed the visitors nine hits. Ken Williams drove in three runs and prevented Detroit from scoring at least two tallies when he made a remarkable save on Fothergill's long drive to centre in the fifth innings. The bases were filled and two out at the time. The game was the Red Sox's sixth straight victory, and the seventh consecutive defeat for Detroit.

George Uhle pitched and batted Cleveland to another victory yesterday by defeating Washington at home 8 to 3. The big veteran held the Senators to nine hits and personally knocked in four runs. He scored a mate ahead of him in the sixth with a home run. Fonseca of the Indians and Bluege of the Senators also got four baggers.

Softball Team Preparing for Encounter With Deloro Sunnyside Club.

MARMORA, May 18.—Coached by Tom Cousins, who succeeds Jack Brady, coach of past two seasons, Marmora girls' softball team, are nightly seen at practice. An encounter with the Deloro Sunnyside Club will take place about the 24th according to present plans.

India Favorite

BIG SIX.

(By The Associated Press)

Babe Ruth's home run bat again was the centre of attraction among Six Six yesterday as the Yankee slugger poled his twelfth to help the champions nose out St. Louis 4 to 3, but Harry Heilmann also accomplished a noteworthy feat in Boston. The Detroit swatsmith combed Russell for three singles and walked once in four trips to the plate, giving him a perfect day and lifting his average to .304 Ruth took first place from Hornsby.

Heilmann's surge into the .300 circle marks the first time since the season really got into swing that all of the Big Six have been at or above the charmed figure at the same time.

BEARS WIN 9-8 DECISION

ROYALS LOSE 16-7

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 18 (Canadian Press).—Newark left Rochester last night with three victories and one defeat on the four-game series as a result of yesterday's triumph in ten innings, 9 to 8. Rochester combed Mamaux for 15 hits, but could not bunch them. Charley Gelbert hit two home runs to account for five of the Rochester tallies. Skiff singled with the bases loaded in the tenth to win the game for the Bears, driving home two runs.

Jersey City at Buffalo, rain.

Reading at Toronto, rain.

Lose Fourth Game.

MONTREAL, Que., May 18 (Canadian Press).—The Royals closed their first home stay here yesterday by losing the fourth game of the series with Baltimore, 16-7, evening the series at two victories each.

The contest was a weird affair that saw each club send in three pitchers before the debacle of 31 hits was brought to an end. Twenty hits were collected by the Birds off the offerings of Bailey, Dunagan and Bunkalew, who were on the mound for Montreal, nine of them being for extra bases. Porter clouted two homers to lead his team at bat with four hits and two walks in six times at bat.

Salo Cuts Lead Of Derby Leader

BRADFORD, Pa., May 18. Safely entrenched in second place, John Salo, of Passaic, N.J., yesterday cut a minute and ten seconds from the 20 hour lead Andrew Payne, of Claremore, Okla., holds over the field in C. C. Pyle's bunion derby.

Salo finished third in yesterday's 44.2 mile trek from Jamestown, N.Y., to Bradford, covering the distance in 7:49:01. Payne was fourth in 7:50:11.

The day's heat went to Sam Richman, of New York, who required but six hours 47 minutes and 39 seconds for the jump. Frank von Blue, of Kerman, Calif., was second in 6:49:01.

Payne's elapsed time for the 2,-996.1 miles from Los Angeles is 495:13:40. Salo's time is 515:22:17.

The field of 55 bunioneers will leave for Wellsville, N.Y., to-day, a 53 mile grind.

The derby is scheduled to end at Madison Square Garden, New York, Saturday, May 26.

IRELAND DEFEATED.

TROON, Scotland, May 18. — (Canadian Press Cable.) — In the second international golfing match between these two countries, Scotland yesterday defeated Ireland, eight games to five. One match was halved.

Fairway Leading By Heavy Odds

LONDON, May 18.—(Canadian Press Cable.)— The latest betting quotations on the Epcom Derby, to be run over the mile and one-half course at the popular Epsom course on June 6, are as follows: Three to one against Fairway; 5/1 against Flamingo; 10/1 against Sunny Trace and Rantjitsingh; 100/7 against Royal Minstrel; 100/6 against Palais Royal; 25/1 against Camelford, Blackwatch and The Wheedler.

"LITTLE SHEPHERD OF KINGDOM COME"

THEATRES

AT THE REGENT.

"WHITE PANTS WILLIE" SAID TO BE COMEDIAN'S FUNNIEST PICTURE TO DATE

"White Pants Willie," Johnny Hines' new First National Picture, produced under the personal supervision of C. C. Burr, is breaking all laughter records at the Regent Theatre. According to reports from Hollywood, where it was previewed in various theatres, the picture is crammed with hilarious moments from start to finish.

"White Pants Willie" is a screen version of Elmer Davis' humorous serial story that ran for several months in Liberty Magazine and attracted unusual attention at the time. The story abounds in good-natured fun and the characterization of Willie Bascom, who succumbs to his longing to wear white pants, is declared to fit Johnny Hines like a glove.

Invents Bumper

The picture tells the story of Willie, who works in a garage and invents a magnetic bumper to have auto tires from tacks and nails in roadways. Willie finally rebels against the hard-boiled garage owner, dresses up in his white pants and hies himself to Cold Springs, a fashionable summer resort, where he knows the girl of his dreams is stopping with her father.

Upon arrival, Willie is mistaken for a crack polo player and is forced to enter a championship match. The embryonic polo player comes through with flying colors after a series of hilarious events. He wins the girl and also the support of her father, an automobile magnate, who becomes interested in Willie's invention.

Splendid Cast

C. C. Burr has provided a splendid cast of players to surround Johnny Hines in this new offering. Leila Hyams, a daughter of John Hyams and Leila McIntyre, of musical comedy fame, is seen in the leading role. Ruth Dwyer appears prominently, as does Walter Long, Henry Barrows, Margaret Seddon, George Kuwa, and Bozo, the educated goose. The production was directed by Charles Hines, the comedian's brother, who continues to show his skill in constructing comedy sequences that run in rapid-fire tempo.

AT THE CAPITOL.

"THE LEGION OF THE CONDEMNED"

The many who enjoyed "Wings," the thrilling picture that revolves around flying men and their exploits, will enjoy equally "The Legion of the Condemned," a photo-play patterned on its noted predecessor, but with a vital and unusual story all its own.

The thrills of the bird-men which made such a wonderful epic of "Wings" are repeated in this picture, which has possibly a more stirring background, on account of the reason which sent its members into the "Legion of the Condemned." In "Wings," the two men, who are David and Jonathan to each other, went to war for a normal reason, but in this picture the atmosphere has a different color. Just as "Beau Geste" took its key of sombre thrills from the motive that sent the three brothers to join the sinister Foreign Legion in Africa, so these men, outcase by their sins from polite society, go to join another Legion and expiate their sins in death. They are branded men and they do not wish to come back. Hence their exploits verge on reckless desperation.

Gary Cooper and Fay Wray are a pair of wonderfull overs who become involved in the Great War after they have parted forever, as they imagine. Christine is a spy and Lieutenant Gale Price joins the Legion. Evvn he does not know her true mission and believes that she has betrayed her country to the Germans.

However, later he discovers the truth and promises to come for her at the end of ten days, after she has obtained necessary information from the Germans. In the meantime, Christine's true character has been discovered by the foe and they condemn her to be a decoy for her lover when he comes for her. Christine sends a messenger, an escaped Frenchman, to warn Gale, but the messenger arrives after Price has taken his flight to rescue his sweetheart.

The thrilling climax of the picture is the scene in which both Price and Christine are captured by the Germans and condemned to death, to be saved at the crucial moment by the arrival of French planes dropping bombs on the enemy.

CRICKET NEWS.

The Peterborough C. C. will hold a special practice at the Oval to-morrow afternoon, commencing at 2.30. All members are asked to turn out. Team for the match against St. Edmunds on May 24th will be chosen after the practice. Any new members will be welcome at this practice.

TRACK MUDDY AT LOUISVILLE

Thousands of Visitors Arriving For Kentucky Derby To-morrow.

REIGH COUNT FAVORITE.

LOUISVILLE, May 18.—(Canadian Press.) — Thousands of visitors crowded the hotels and streets today as Louisville made last minute preparations for the 54th renewal of the Kentucky Derby to-morrow.

By private car, airplane, automobile, day coach and even on horse back, the throng poured into the city. More than 70,000 visitors were expected by to-morrow. The rains which had fallen intermittently since Tuesday let up last night but not until the track had been converted into a river of mud. Reigh Count continued to be the overwhelming favorite, even gaining additional support when it was announced that the colt was as good in the mud as on a fast course.

ARTIFICIAL ICE FOR OSHAWA CURLERS

Installation Will Cost About $30,000—Has Eight Ices.

OSHAWA, May 18.—An artificial ice plant will be installed in the rink of the Oshawa Curling Club. While the contract has not yet been let, it is expected that, from estimates received, the installation will cost $30,000, including $2,500 for a building to house the plant.

The Oshawa Curling Club has a fine, modern clubhouse on Bond street east, Oshawa, with eight curling rinks. It is hoped to have the equipment installed by October 1. Estimates have been received from three Ontario firms, but none of these have as yet been accepted. S. Everson, 171 King street east, is secretary of the club.

Saturday Soccer Match Quakers Vs. De Laval

Kick-off at Three O'clock Prompt On King Edward Park.

Saturday's soccer fixture is between the Quaker Oats and the De Laval at the King Edward Park. Kick-off is arranged to take place at three o'clock promptly, and Alex. McKinley will act as the official referee.

This will be the first match these two teams have had and the fan is interested in the outcome because it will make a difference in the league standing.

Neither of the two executives have intimated what players will be chosen to compose the elevens, at any rate all signed men are asked to be at the pavilion no later than 2.45 promptly.

Pilot Fred Mechoir of the Junkers Co. is shown wearing the parachute with which he is prepared to descend on Greenley Island from U.S. army Amphibian plane which is carrying him to the stranded transatlantic areoplane Bremen. The two United States planes bound for the Bremen left Pictou, N.S., en route to St. George's, Newfoundland. Melchoir, who hopes to fly the Bremen off Greenley Island, is a passenger in the Amphibian piloted by Capt. Eaker, and his parachute is a safeguard against conditions which might make landing impossible.

MURDER CREATES MYSTERY

Police of Canada and the United States are co-operating in an effort to solve the mystery surrounding the murder of John A. Kennedy of Windsor, whose body was found near Toledo, Ohio. Kennedy, said to have been the agent of a Detroit liquor importer, had been subpoenaed to appear in Toronto court in an action brought by the dominion government against the Carling Brewery of London. The murdered man is shown ABOVE, as is also the Wayne apartment building, Windsor, in which he lived up to the time of his disappearance a week ago.

GIVING UP BUSINESS

Our time in this store is short and it is going fast. We have thousands of dollars worth of carefully bought fine footwear still to sell. In fact, the lines are scarcely broken yet, and choice is practically as good as ever. These shoes were all bought before the recent stiff raise in price of leather, and we are selling right down to rock bottom figures, based on our original moderate cost. Good shoes can never be as cheap again. If we were buying, we would have to pay more than our selling out prices, but we are not looking for a profit, only a clean sweep to the last pair of shoes in the stock.

Prices Cut for Immediate CLEARANCE

There's only one better way to save money than by buying a pair of shoes at our giving-up business sale, and that is by buying two pair. Practice economy by getting an outfit for every member of the family, while so little money will do it.

CHURCH REPAIRED AND REPAINTED

Springville United Church Beautified and Improved Recently.

SPRINGVILLE, May 18.—During the past week Springville United Church underwent the housecleaning ordeal and on Sunday presented a changed and greatly beautified appearance. The cold gray walls have given place to a warm, cream shade. The unfinished woodwork at the entry to the basement through the church, has been stained the same shade as the old woodwork. A new door opens from the church to the stair landing, while two pedestals have been installed to hold two beautiful ferns—a gift to the church. A new hymn board fills the space once occupied by the clock, which balances a similar board on the opposite side and over the chair left the text, "God is Love" stands out in graceful letters of pale blue outlined with black.

For Mothers Day service, the pastor, the Rev. A. H. McConnachie, chose as his subject the text, "God is Love," and dedicated it to the church. The twin-text, "Mother is Love," was added for this special occasion.

A large bouquet of flowers was presented to the church by a member of the congregation in memory of his mother, as has been his pleasure for the past few years. These were given after the service to one of the oldest mothers of the community, Mrs. Herron, who was not able to attend the service.

Personals

Mrs. A. Murray was the guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sanderson.

Mrs. S. S. Staples and Miss J. Schaffer attended the Women's Institute meeting in Cavanville this week.

QUEEN AIDS WITH SHOW GOWN

Assisted by the Queen of England, workers of the famous Madame Tussaud's Exhibition of wax figures have just completed the gown that will be worn by the wax figure of the Queen. She took a special interest in the making and inspected it before it was placed on the figure. Twenty thousand specially selected stones were used in making the embroidery, on which 12 skilled women worked two weeks. The dress material is fashioned from a beautiful golden fabric shot with old rose silk, embodying the rose, shamrock and thistle in its texture. The short sleeves are of gold lace and the long train is highly embroidered.

CIRCUS PARADE TO BE REPEATED

Y.M.C.A. Performance Will Be Given Again at Brock Street Rink.

There will be another parade of the big circus to-night, starting from the Brock street rink at 7.30 p.m. Last night, due to the rain, some of the animals had to be kept under cover, but Doug. Loomis assured The Examiner that they would appear to-night, rain or shine.

There are still a few tickets unsold for the final performance to-night. You can't afford to pass this show up as it is positively one of the finest that has ever been seen in Peterborough.

The route to-night will be from the rink to Aylmer, Aylmer to Charlotte, Charlotte to George and from George back to the rink.

IN MEMORIAM.

ARMSTRONG. — In loving memory of George J. Armstrong, who died May 18, 1925:

When the evening shades have fallen
And I am all alone,
Into my heart there comes a longing,
If you could only come home.

What would I give to clasp your hand,
Your happy face to see,
To hear your voice, and see your smile
That meant so much to me

Though the flowers on your grave
May wither and decay,
The love that lies within the heart
Shall never fade away.

God hath His mysteries of grace,
Ways that we cannot tell;
He hides them deep, like hidden sleep,
Of him he loved so well.

TWEED EVENTS FOR 76 YEARS RECALLED BY OLDEST RESIDENT MRS. MARY JANE LOWRY AGED 91

Only Two Buildings Standing Now of Those Composing Village in 1852.

BORN NEAR PICTON.

TWEED, May 19.—Ninety - one years old and a resident of this village and adjoining district for seventy-six years of that period is the record that Mrs. Mary Jane Lowry, the oldest inhabitant of Tweed and with one exception the oldest resident of this district, holds.

Mrs. Lowry was born in Prince Edward County near the village of Milford on February 1st, 1837, just at the time when there was a rebellion in Upper and Lower Canada and which led to the uniting of the two provinces in 1841 under the terms of the Constitutional Act. Her maiden name was Mary Jane Beaty, the second eldest child of a family of fourteen of the late James Beaty and Betsy Martin both from the County Fermanagh, Ireland. Of the eight brothers and six sisters of that family she has only two brothers living. Her parents lived to the ripe old age of 80 and 85 years and her grandparents lived to be 85 and 92 years old; so she comes of a long-lived ancestry.

Mrs. Lowry's mind is clear to this day, and all her faculties are quite keen. She is greatly interested in the radio and spends many an hour sitting listening with head phones on her ears. On her ninetieth birthday she had her picture taken sitting at the radio with a smile on her face as if she were enjoying the concert.

When she was fifteen years old her parents decided to move into Hastings County. So in the Winter of 1841 they moved all their household effects and the few roughly-made farm implements that they had, to the township of Huntingdon, settling in a little old shack that had been built a few summers before and only a few miles from what is now the village of Tweed.

The trip was made with a span of horses and a sleigh. The country they settled in was all bush with only a small clearing here and there where a settler who came a year or two previous had taken up residence and had started in a small way to farm. Gradually more settlers came in and during the first few summers the farmers were busily engaged in clearing the forests. Oxen were used for this purpose as they were stronger, quieter and could go places that horses could not. Logging bees were the order of the day when all the men from the surrounding district would gather together, pile up the logs that had been cut the Winter before. While the men were busily engaged in piling the logs, the women who had come along spent their time at quilting bees.

Wolves, bears and wildcats abounded and then never did men dare to venture far at night. Mrs. Lowry was often kept awake by the howling of the wolves, and even after the clearing was made it was no uncommon sight to see a wolf cross the field in daylight. There were no schools then, and the only school training Mrs. Lowry got was in the county of Prince Edward, when the three "R's" were the only subjects taught, and the Testaments were used as school readers.

When she was twenty-one Mrs. Lowry married, and she and her husband took up residence west of Tweed on a farm near Stoco Lake. To them was born four children—three girls and a boy who are all living. The girls are Mrs. John McGowan, Tweed, where her mother now resides; Mrs. Finley Badjeros, Ontario, and Mrs. Creighton, Oakland California. James, the only son lives in Tweed. Mr. Lowry died many years ago.

She has eight grandchildren and several great-grandchildren scattered throughout Western Ontario, the prairie provinces and California. Mrs. Lowry has always been a faithful member of the Methodist Chuch, but for the last few years she has been unable to attend worship. Before that time she was always active in all the activities of the church.

Only two houses that she can remember were in Tweed when she first arrived, in the village which was known then as Hungerford Mills, and one of them is the little old frame house next to her own home to-day.

To-day she spends a great deal of her time sitting in a large old-fashioned arm chair taking a keen interest in everything that is going on around her. She rises early in the morning, which she has done her entire life, and retires to bed early in the evening.

CLUB PRACTICE.

Members of the men's softball team of the Canadian Tecco Club will practice at Confederation Square (Central Park) at 6.10 o'clock Monday evening. Members of the ladies' team will practice at 6.15 p.m., on Tuesday.

Charged Violating Anti-Trust Law

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19. — Canadian Press. — Three trunk line railroads, which combined last year to purchase control of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railway, were cited yesterday by the Interstate Commerce Commission to answer a charge of violating the Clayton anti-trust law in the transaction. The railroads complained against, the New York Central, Nickel Plate and Baltimore and Ohio, were all notified to appear in Washington on June 25th to show cause why they should not divest themselves of all interest "in the capital stock of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railway Company now unlawfully held."

TWO HOLIDAYS FOR CHILDREN

Will Observe Victoria Day and King's Birthday Next Week.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

School children in the City of Peterborough will enjoy more than the usual length of holiday around "the 24th," as a result of the decision reached by the Board of Education. There will be school on May 23, though the afternoon will, as usual, be given over to Empire Day exercises; Thursday, May 24, will, of course, be a holiday, and it has been decided that in place of observing the King's birthday on June 4 (June 3 falls on a Sunday) the Peterborough schools will have a holiday on Friday, May 25, with Saturday and Sunday following. This also applies to the Collegiate.

The above information was given The Examiner by Inspector of Public Schools A. Mowat, who also stated that he was not certain of the course being adopted throughout the country.

PLANES LEAVE FOR GREENELY

WILL LAND PILOT.

ST. GEORGE'S, Nfld., May 19. — (Canadian Press).—After having been held up here since Wednesday by unfavorable weather, the two Amphibian Army planes from the United States proceeding to Labrador for the purpose of landing a pilot there for the Bremen and escorting the famous monoplane to New York, via Pictou, N.S., left here on the last leg of their flight northward at 12.15 p.m., eastern daylight saving time, today. The amphibians circled the town and headed for Port Au Port, on the northern side of St. George's Bay, from which point they planned to follow the coast line to Greenely Island, where the Bremen landed before being moved across to the mainland of the Quebec Labrador.

At 1.40 p.m. the planes were sighted over Parson's Pond, about 100 miles north of St. George's.

NO INCREASE.

Editor of The Examiner.

Dear Mr. Editor—Your editorial of yesterday's date with reference to the Dominion members' indemnity has come to my notice.

May I hasten to inform your readers that there is not the slightest possibility of any increase being made in the amount at the present time.—Yours sincerely,

E. A. PECK.

RANGERS SAIL.

GLASGOW, Scotland, May 19. — (Canadian Press). — Members of the Glasgow Rangers soccer football team who will tour the United States and Canada this summer sailed for New York on the liner California to-day.

Pair Are Held On Theft Charge

WINNIPEG, Man., May 19.—(Canadian Press.)—Isiah Conn, colored, who was arrested some years ago by the police of Chicago for the theft of $10,000 worth of jewelry from Nellie Martini of Winnipeg, was committed to stand trial following his preliminary hearing in police court yesterday.

Jennie Stefiuk, said to be Conn's former sweetheart who pleaded guilty to stealing $5,000 worth of jewels from Nellie Martini ,was remanded until Monday for sentence.

CHANG'S TROOPS TO LOSE ARMS

Japanese Will Disarm Them If They Retreat Into Manchuria.

MORALE SHATTERED.

LONDON, May 19. —(Canadian Press). — Reuter despatch from Shanghai to-day said that it is authoritatively stated that the Japanese authorities are convinced that the morale of the troops of the Northern Dictator, Marshall Chang Tso Lin, has so deteriorated that they cannot hold Peking and Tienstin against any serious Nationalist threat. They hold this view despite reports of successes by the Northern forces at Paotingfu and elsewhere in South-Western Chili. If the Northern armies retreat in the direction of Manchuria the Japanese propose to disarm them at Shanhaik-awn, at the sea coast east of the great wall.

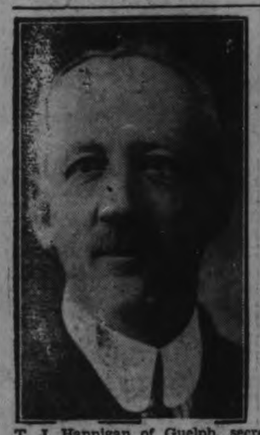
CONGRATULATE CITY.

James Dutton, president of the Chamber of Commerce, speaking with reference to additions to the Canadian General Electric plant in Peterborough, stated to The Examiner this morning, "I was delighted last evening to hear from Mayor Denne that extensive additions would shortly be made to the local plant because during a conversation I was fortunate in having over two years ago with an official of the General Electric in Toronto, it was intimated that the extensions now assured were then under serious consideration.

"The favorable effect of this decision on the part of the G. E. Co., on this community cannot be estimated. It is evidence at least of the faith of the G. E. Co. in the manufacturing possibilities of Peterborough.

"It is bound, in my opinion," continued Mr. Dutton, "to have a very beneficial effect uopn the future development of Peterborough. Changes such as this cannot take place without everyone, and I think every line of business, benefitting, in a very material way. Not only will it add to the prestige of Peterborough in a manufacturing way, but in my opinion it will increase physical values, and ought to be an incentive to other manufacturers, and to our local business men, to take heart and strive for still greater growth, for Peterborough.

"The Chamber of Commerce, with assurance of continuous co-operation, extends its hearty congratulations to Peterborough. His Worship the Mayor and the members of the Manufacturers Committee of the City Council."



T. J. Hannigan of Guelph, secretary of the Ontario Hydro municipalities, fought a battle against suffocating smoke to rescue his wife, when his home caught fire shortly after three o'clock in the morning. Mrs. Hannigan was almost overcome by the smoke. Prevented by smoke from getting down the stairs, Mr. Hannigan climbed in night attire down a verandah post and, securing a ladder, assisted his wife from the second storey.

REMEMBERS EARLY DAYS IN TWEED

who is 91 years old and has lived in Tweed for 76 years. Only two houses remain which were in the village at that time.

YOUNG MAN IS NEARLY KILLED BY ELECTRICITY OR GAS TODAY

Melleville Staples Found Unconscious in Bathroom of Sister's Home.

EXACT CAUSE UNKNOWN.

Sister, Mrs. Ferguson, Is Attracted by Moans and Gives Alarm—Victim Recovering.

Melleville Staples, a young man of about 20 years of age, employed at the Brinton Carpet plant, narrowly escaped death at 1.15 this afternoon, though whether from electrocution or asphyxiation is still a matter of conjecture. The young man was found in a dangerous condition, and the tragedy was only averted through the immediate response of the fire brigade carrying the pulmotor and other emergency apparatus.

It appears that Staples, who lives with his sister, Mrs. Ferguson, at 176 Aylmer Street, had entered the bathroom shortly after one o'clock and had partly filled the tub with water. Though no one witnessed the accident, it is presumed by some that he had reached for the electric light socket while standing in the tub, with the inevitable result that a considerable amount of current passed through his body. The presence of carbon monoxide gas in the room indicated that he may have been overcome by the gas escaping from a water heater, and this possibility was strengthened by the fact that when nearing recovery the young man half unconsciously complained of the gas and called for air.

His sister, Mrs. Ferguson, hearing his moans, had entered the room and found him lying between the tub and the opposite wall. The pulmotor, police and Dr. G. Murray Fraser were summoned and the pulmotor used for seven minutes when the first flicker of reviving life was detected, breathing was resumed in rather spasmodic fashion and the victim began to call for help. Those in attendance considered him well on the road to recovery fifteen minutes after the accident.

Later, a razor was found and the possibility that he may have been about to shave and reached for the light that he might see into the mirror the better was set forth. The exact cause of the accident will be determined when Staples has sufficiently recovered.

Staples had been in this city about a year, having come here from Lindsay, where he had attended Collegiate. The fact that he had enjoyed good health is believed to have helped him withstand the attack either of gas or electricity.

THIRD POSTPONEMENT.

Mandell-McLarnin Bout Again Called Off Because of Rain.

NEW YORK, May 19 (Canadian Press).—Postponement of the Sammy Mandell-Jimmy McLarnin lightweight championship bout was announced for the third time to-day. Rain caused Promoter Rickard to announce that the title bout would be held next week on a night to be determined later.

40,000,000 HAVE VOTES.

BERLIN, May 19. — (Canadian Press.)— More than 40,000,000 men and women are eligible to go to the polls to-morrow to settle the political composition of the next Reichstag to determine the extent to which women are exercising the franchise they will use separate ballots.

Big Pickerel Caught By Trent River Men

TRENT RIVER, May 19.—J. Ward landed a fine pickerel weighing nine and three quarter pounds, and twenty-eight inches in length, while fishing at the big pier. Mr. Ward took the fish to Peterborough, where he will have it mounted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward spend the summer at their cottage here every year, but this is the largest fish he ever caught.

James Cook landed an eight pound pickerel on Tuesday evening at the pier and John Carman got one about the same size on Wednesday evening.

BIG CROWDS GATHER FOR RACES TO-DAY

Threatening Weather Fails to Keep People Away From Tracks.

TORONTO, May 19. — (Canadian Press). — Overcast skies marred the outlook as thousands jammed into the Woodbine Park to-day for the opening of the Canadian racing season and the 69th running of the historic King's Plate, the oldest continuously run race on the North American continent.

A field of fourteen was ready to try for the 50 guineas, the gift of King George, and the $15,000 added by the Ontario Jockey Club, one entrant, Flying Column, being withdrawn to-day. The Seagram stables entry, Young Kitty and Best Bonnet remained popular choice up to race time, with J. C. Fletcher's couple, Dussca and Hannah Deebe, also prominent in speculation, as well as Bonnington.

Louisville Track Heavy.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 19 (Canadian Press).—Derby Day dawned brilliantly with clear skies and a light breeze. Half an hour later rain drenched the city. Alternate periods of rain and sunshine followed during the early morning. The Churchill Downs track would be heavy at least, officials said.

Upwards of 80,000 spectators began storming the gates of the track early in the morning. Twenty-six three-year-olds, all colts and geldings, stood ready, but with indications that not more than twenty would start.

"BIG BILL" CREMATED.

MOSCOW, May 19. — (Canadian Press.)—The body of William G. (Big Bill) Haywood, noted communist, will be cremated to-night under the terms of his will, which directs that half of his ashes be buried in Moscow and the remainder in Chicago.

Twin Calves Born; One Has Two Heads

CAVAN, May 19.—A freak of nature occurred recently on the farm of Edwin Moore, Eighth Line, Cavan, when one of his cows gave birth to two calves—a freak and a normal calf.

This freak had two heads, two tails, eight legs, and one body. All were dead and the mother cow also died.

People came for miles to see the unusual spectacle.

Two Persons Killed In Arkansas Storms

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 19. (Canadian Press.)—Two persons were killed and four injured in storms in Northern Arkansas yesterday.

Near Piggott, Mrs. Golie Gilbert, 22, was killed and her three children injured by a stroke of lightning. At Imboden, Vieron Norris, 17, was killed and Hornie Francis, 22, was injured when lightning struck a tree under which they had taken shelter from a storm.

SHIPS COLLIDE IN HEAVY FOG

Two Vessels Damaged Off New To-day. York Harbor

NO HELP NEEDED.

NEW YORK, May 19. —(Canadian Press).—The Red Star liner Pennland, outbound for Antwerp by way of Halifax, collided with the inbound freighter Anniston City, from Baltimore, during a heavy fog outside of Sandy Hook to-day.

The Pennland's captain reported "considerable" damage to the plates above the water line, but said that no one was injured. He wirelessed that he would not require assistance. The damage to the freighter was said to be slight.

The captain of the Anniston City later reported that the freighter was badly twisted and the craft was taking water rapidly. He said, however, that immediate assistance was not required.

The Pennland was struck amidships on her port said. She will return to her pier as soon as the fog lifts.

BABY SHOW PLANNED FOR KIWANIS FAIR

Entries Will Be Accepted From All Over Ontario This Year.

The Produced-in-Canada Exhibition, which was put on last year by the Peterborough Kiwanis Club, and which was such a decided success, is giving evidence that this year it will be bigger and better than ever.

One of the activities which created a great deal of interest last year was the Baby Show, which was in charge of John I. Allen. There were eighty babies entered in the show last year and sixty-eight judged. It is planned this year not to confine the entries to a certain section as last year, but babies may be entered from anywhere in Ontario.

It is also planned to have the judging done by doctors from the Lindsay, Belleville and Kingston Kiwanis Clubs. Plans have been made to have an address given to mothers and others who are interested, by Dr. Edmund E. King Toronto, who has charge of the Baby Show at the Canadian National Exhibition. There were six hundred babies registered and judged last year at Toronto. If it is possible for Dr. King to be present, it will be a rare treat for the mothers and others who are interested in Peterborough babies.

Bell Telephone Bill Discussed In House

OTTAWA, Ont., May 19.—(Canadian Press.)—The bill to increase the capitalization of the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada continued its stormy course through the House of Commons last night but was still awaiting third reading when the hour allotted to private bills had elapsed. An amendment moved by E. J. Garland, U.F.A. member for Bow River, was defeated by the narrow majority of eight votes. A division which split the Liberal and Conservative followers present found the U.F.A., Progressive and Labor members solid for the amendment. The vote stood: For, 60, against 68.

The Garland amendment provided that a clause should be added to the bil lwhich would make any further issue of stock impossible unless it was offered to the public for subscription.

GREENS ON SALE THIS MORNING

Fresh Rhubarb, Watercress, Onions and Lettuce On Market.

EGG PRICES VARY.

Rhubarb was priced at three bunches for 25 cents on the market to-day, water cress was a nickel for two bunches and green onions and lettuce, fresh and green, were the same.

Eggs had a wide range in price this morning, bringing all the way from 27 to 40 cents a dozen, in varying sizes and grades. One lady whose obliging White Leghorns produced three large baskets of small, larger and large eggs, all of pure white color, priced her baskets from 30 to 40 cents a dozen. Butter sold at 38 to 43 cents a pound.

Little live Plymouth Rock chicks brought an admiring crowd to their chirpy box home, and retailed at 18 cents apiece, or 17½ cents for the lot.

Half a dozen broilers made their bow to the market this morning and were snapped up quickly at 50 cents a pound. They weighed two and one-half pounds apiece and were two months old. Vendors of year-old birds had plenty of variety in their price. The lowest quotation was 28 cents and the highest was 40 cents a pound. One lady took the trouble to draw her chicken, weighing nearly two pounds, and then offered it for 60 cents.

Maple syrup was priced at 65 cents a quart and potatoes at $1.70 and $1.75 a bag. Asparagus sold at 25 cents for two bunches, Ben Davis apples at 50 cents a peck and Peewaukees at 60 cents. Pickled cucumbers were 50 cents a basket.

Cuthbert raspberry canes were selling at 50 for $1.00 and Columbian and black were 75 cents for a baker's dozen.

Little pigs were $5 apiece.

GALT, May 19 (Canadian Press).—Coroner Dr. J. H. Radford, of Galt, stated to-day that he had performed an autopsy on the body of Robert Russ, aged 26, a farm hand, who died suddenly near New Dundee on Wednesday, but declined to give information as to whether an inquest would be held.

Sleeps In Boat; Runs Into Steamer.

BROCKVILLE, May 19. — (Canadian Press). — Paul Beneal of Grenadier Island fell asleep while in his motor boat here yesterday while returning to his home from Alexandra Bay and crashed into the side of a large freighter. When he awakened his boat was sinking beneath him and the water was up to his neck. He succeeded in keeping away from the steamer and three men from Alexandra Bay passing in a boat rescued him.

Expansion Considered For Some Time Finally Decided On This Week.

IMPORTANT ADDITION.

The Canadian General Electric Company, the largest industry in Peterborough, has decided on a building plan which involves the spending of $1,500,000 in building and equipment by 1930. This year two large buildings will be erected, one 328 feet by 100 feet, and the other 100 feet by 90 feet, with a total floor space of 41,800 square feet.

For some time the officials of the Canadian General Electric Company have ben considering expansion, but they had not decided until this week whether they would use the floor pace that they have in Toronto or erect new buildings in this city. On Thursday R. G. Patterson, superintendent of the works in this city, and Mayor Denne went to Toronto and discussed the situation with J. J. Ashworth, general manager of the company, and other head officials, with the result that it was decided that the company would expand in Peterborough, and that two new buildings would be erected this summer and further building done next year, the total cost of both buildings and equipment to be $1,500,000.

The buildings to be put up this year will have a larger floor space than the old Henry Hope plant, recently taken over by the Johnson Outboard Motor Company of Canada, or it a building 50 feet wide was erected on George street, it would extend from Brock to Simcoe street.

In erecting these new buildings the company has asked no concessions from the city. Further improvements will also be made to the front of the plant, where a new gate house is to be erected, and an ornamental fence put up

QUARREL MAY END FATALLY

Windsor Man in Hospital, Believed Dying — Assailant Under Arrest.

FIGHT AT WORK.

WINDSOR, Ont., May 19 (Canadian Press). — One man is believed to be dying in hospital with a crushed skull, and his 63-year-old assailant is under arrest as a result of an altercation in the Michigan Central Railway roundhouse here this morning.

The injured man is Alfred R. Hill, 32, a locomotive fireup man, and his assailant is George Minall, a storeroom employee, who, incensed by Hill's repeated "kidding" regarding Minall's English ancestry, struck Hall over the back of the head with a twenty-pound hammer. A moment earlier, Hill, enraged at the hotness of the old man's retorts, had struck Minall in the face with his fist, inflicting a deep cut.

MANY MOTHERS RECOMMEND THEM

Baby's Own Tablets Are Fine For Nervous, Sleepless Children.

From Canada the fame of Baby's Own Tablets is spreading over the world. Mothers recommend them to other mothers and wherever they are tried nothing but words of praise are heard for these pleasant tasting little tablets that promptly relieve the minor ailments of young children.

"Baby's Own Tablets are one of the best remedies for children's ailments I have ever used," says Mrs. Arthur T. Allen, of Auburn, Me. "My little girl was nervous and could not sleep. I tried the Tablets and she was relieved at once. She was also troubled with constipation and nothing seemed to help her. I had used the Tablets but a short time before her bowels were regular. All mothers should keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house for they are a valuable remedy."

"Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all druggists or will be mailed on receipt of price, 25 cents per box, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LEGION AT HOME GREAT SUCCESS

PRIZES DRAWN FOR.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 19.—Since the formation of the Canadian Legion here, the greatest success which it has enjoyed was the euchre and dance which was held in the auditorium of the High School last night. Music for dancing was furnished by Herb Lecriard and his orchestra, and during the greater part of the evening the floor was crowded to capacity. Guests from every point in the two counties were present and the general opinion was that the evening was a complete success. The price of admission was fifty cents, and this also entitled the holders of the tickets to a chance on the thirteen prizes to be drawn for. These were won by Walter Rutherford, Helen Beatty, Roy Hardy, James Storie, Mrs. George Shaw, A. M. Smale, Warkworth; Miss Margaret Smith, Belleville; Stewart Stillman, T. W. Chaplin, Hastings; V. Brennan, John Costiet, Mrs. W. J. Smith, Belleville, and James Bell. The total value of the prizes was in excess of three hundred dollars, and they were as follows: Chesterfield suite, chesterfield lamp, chesterfield table, table lamp, porcelain top table, windsor chair, end table, comforter, boudoir lamp, fishing rod, box cigars, pound of tobacco and a flashlight. These were won in the order named. The prizes for the cards were won by Mrs. Charles Hay and R. Harris for games, and Mrs. M. Pollock and J. D. McEachern for lone hands.

As a financial venture the affair was as complete a success as it was along social lines. Once more the Legion is able to put a mark down on its calendar of successes.

MUSINGS AT A MANSE WINDOW

HE CAME TO ME AT THE CLOSE OF THE DAY. Where he came from, I never thought to ask; and indeed I did not care. It was enough that he came! His visit strengthened my faith and brightened my hope. I was, as I often am, tired in the work! Thank God, I have never yet been tired of the work, although I have often been tired of those with whom I am expected to work. "Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips."

I had had a good day so far as the consciousness of the presence of God was concerned. He had stood with me and helped me in the declaration of His truth. A sincere effort had been made to arouse men and women to a sense of danger and need; the way of life had been pointed out, and a strong appeal made for a verdict in favor of Christ. The great congregation had gone out into the darkness of the night. The last notes of music had fallen upon our ears. We waited for leaders within the church to come and speak a word of encouragement, and hoped that they would offer to pray with us, but we waited and hoped in vain.

What's the Matter?

I discovered that he was another laborer in the vineyard, and, like every other real worker for God, he had his own troubles and trials. As he took a seat opposite me he began by saying, "Why is it that those who have taken upon themselves the most solemn vows seem so indifferent to the spiritual side of church life and work? I am not denying that they bear their share of the financial burden; or, to put it in a better way, that they have a part in the privilege of giving! It is true that they occupy a place in some pew even if they do not always sleep in it. Their names appear on the official list of those who are selected for leadership, but about the only thing some of them have managed to do so far is to hold up the procession."

As he talked with sadness in his eyes and disappointment in his voice, I was mean enough to feel comforted with the knowledge that I was not the only preacher who was being handicapped!

"What's the matter?" he said, as he continued the conversation. "Why are elders and deacons so indifferent to the claims and responsibilities of the high office they occupy? Can it be that some of them have never really had a genuine spiritual experience. What a tragedy if they are drifting along in the belief that they are all right and have never actually experienced the grace of God in their hearts! At all events I know that I am right when I say that if they have ever enjoyed the love of God in their lives all the signs at present indicate that they have left their first love.

Cumbering the Ground.

"The pity is that they don't do any definite work of a strictly spiritual kind within the church, never come to pray with the minister, never seek to point an anxious soul to the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world, and don't seem the least bit concerned whether men are lost or not! But worse than that is the fact that their occupation of an office which they have never yet proved that they are competent to fill prevents others more worthy doing the things they are failing to do. The whole thing is a tragedy of the worst kind. It is crippling the church, stifling the testimony of the saints, and leading to the destruction of multitudes of souls. A few first-class funerals within some of our churches might be a blessing in disguise."

Continuing, he said: "What would I not give to stir up those who are associated with me to some real spiritual service. I love them, although, I suppose, some of them have difficulty in believing it; but I am sorely disappointed in them. When I think what might be accomplished if they were only as alert and active in the real work of the church as they are about other things, I wish that I could take them aside and get them to face 1 Corinthians 11:30."

Others Feel It, Too.

As my visitor paused for a moment, I could not help thinking how wonderful it was that, just when I was feeling so discouraged and about ready to give up and, like my Master, go where there was less unbelief, he should come in to remind me that there were few places without some difficulties and disappointments.

He said to me: "My friend, Fred. Atkins, has been reminding me of some things which may be as helpful to you as they have been to me. Things are never quite as bad as they look, and most of the catastrophies we dread never happen, and when the blow does fall and darkness descends on us, there are usually wonderful compensations waiting for us just round the corner. It is indeed morally invigorating to be up against something most of the time. It prevents ennui and world weariness and debilitating complacency.

"It must have seemed a dark day for Robertson Nicoll when he had to give up his church in Kelso because of a diseased lung, and told that he was not to preach again. Dark indeed it must have been when he set out for Switzerland—an invalid who had lost his job. But the affliction that forced him out of Kelso brought him to the South to be one of the greatest journalists of his age.

A Subtle Temptation.

"Perhaps the most subtle temptation which afflicts us these days is the tendency to grow weary in well doing. We get so little to hearten us where we have reason to expect much, and we get so much to discourage where we have reason not to expect any.

"Lack of courage means the most helpless impotence. So if we are to build again and build better we must somehow get fresh courage, and I know of no way of doing this except by a strong, adventurous, dynamic faith in God. Don't let us be like some people, desperately afraid of being hopeful! After all, our fears are just as likely to mislead us as our hopes.

"Tenacity is a great quality for dark days, and we have at least achieved something if we can manage to hold on. We have always a little more power of resistance than we think. If we hold on long enough we shall win through—twisted and strained and nearly finished at the end, no doubt, but by God's grace we will not whine or be faint hearted, we will face up to the hard knocks of life without squealing, we will run up the flag to the top of the mast and keep it flying there.

We Get Help.

"I remember lunching in a London club one Sunday with a well-known minister who was in sad trouble, very unwell and thoroughly tired—and yet that morning he had preached one of the most searching and inspiring sermons I had ever heard. I laughingly remarked that he always preached best when things were at their worst. He looked at me and said very quietly, 'We get help.' I have never forgotten those three words. They have been a perpetual rebuke to my fears and a challenge to my faith."

We knelt together, and I found myself saying, "O, Lord, our God, having found Thy favor, we pray that we may never lose the vision of Thy face. Strengthen us for the work to which Thou hast called us. Enable us to be patient with those who sorely try our patience; and give us the joy of winning many of those who are without Thee and without hope in the world. This we ask in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."

—Allan Fairbairn.

The Minister Remarks--

—Maybe if the Cook Stove had a Carbureter, and Gears, and a Self-Starter, more girls would learn how to cook.

—With some people success is the art of making mistakes when no one is looking.

—If some knockers I know would only use their hammers to nail lies some of us would have a happier time.

—The man who devotes hours trying to decide the thing he is about to do is right, knows the thing is wrong.

—Why do some people think they are leaders keep the procession waiting?

—If everybody tended to his own business there would be just exactly enough tenders to go around. If you don't believe me, count them.

Life

LIFE is not a jest, as the poet's epitaph has it in Westminster, but it certainly is a game, a game with a very serious stake, which it requires constant watchfulness to play well. In this, throws of the dice represent the favors of circumstances; the moves, the skill of the player.

Owning a Landscape

A wealthy man displaying one day his jewels to a philosopher, the latter said: "Thank you, sir, for being willing to share such maginificent jewels with me."

"Share them with you, sir!" exclaimed the owner; "what do you mean?"

"Why, you allow me to look at them, and what more can you do with them yourself?" replied the philosopher.

This recalls to mind what a man once said, as he was looking over the large estate of the wealth and sordid Manvers.

"Manvers owns the dirt and the fences; I own the landscape."

Happiness

FOUR steps to happiness:
1. Accept your limitations.
2. Seize your opportunity.
3. Enjoy the good of the hour.
4. Improve the bad, and if you can't, let it drop.

SCHOOL

LORD, let me make this rule,
To think of life as school;
And try my best to stand each test
And do my work, and nothing shirk.

If weary with my book,
I cast a weary look
Where posies grow, O let me know
That flowers within are best to win.

These lessons Thou dost give
To teach me how to live,
To do, to bear, to get, and share,
To work, and play, and trust alway.

Some day the bell will sound
Some day my heart will bound
As with a shout that school is out;
And lessons done I homeward run.

Farmer's Wife and Rural Teacher

ONCE upon a time, the school teachers in a highly developed intellectual centre on this continent debated the question, "Who's the greatest woman in all history past or present?" and a very interesting decision was almost unanimously reached.

Mention was made of Cleopatra, Joan of Arc, Queen Elizabeth, Grace Darling, Florence Nightingale, Jane Addams, Susan B. Anthony and many others, but to none of these was the honor given.

To whom do you suppose they awarded the palm?

To the wife of the farmer of moderate means who does her own cooking, sewing, washing, ironing, brings up a family of boys and girls to be useful members of society, and who still finds time for intellectual improvement.

Despite the fact that there are not too many such women, it would be no exaggeration to say that they are more numerous than many imagine, and no one better than the rural school teacher knows how great and useful they are.

As I pass many of these rural schools, and occasionally enter them to see teachers and children at work, I wonder when the country is going to waken up to appreciate the priceless asset it has in the rural school teacher. It is no easy task which we have committed to them, and the pay we give them is neither creditable to the department nor encouraging to the teachers.

Let the country arouse itself to recognize that the laborer is still worthy of his and her hire whether it be within the four walls of a rural school or the simple home of a farmer of moderate means.

Hats off to the mothers and a larger cheque to the teachers, and the coming generation shall one day rise to call us blessed!

Children's Corner — TELL US A STORY

ARCHIAS, a magistrate of the city of Thebes, was seated at a feast, surrounded by his friends, when a messenger arrived in great haste, with letters containing an account of a plot formed against his life. "My Lord," said the messenger, "these letters contain serious news, and I am requested to ask you to read them at once." "Serious things to-morrow," replied Archias, laughing, and then put the letters under his pillow. The delay was fatal. The conspirators, that same evening, rushed into the banqueting-room, and put the careless magistrate and all his guests to death.

IT is very early in the morning, the sun is not up, but you will notice that the east is reddening to show where he will rise. Hark! what is that sound? It is the tramp of feet, and as we look in the dim light we can make out the figures of men approaching. Let us watch and try to discover who they are. Here they come—hundreds of them—marching along gaily. They are starting early, it seems, on some expedition, but, no! they are evidently returning, for they have captives with them. How early they must have gone forth to be now coming back, before most men are about! Yet it appears as if their task was not yet accomplished, for their leader's face has a look of exultation, coupled with fierce resolve. Ha! whom have they caught? He looks this way and that, but there is no possibility of escape. What is one man against hundreds? So he yields to his fate, and is brought before the captain of the band; now follows an examination close and severe, and the captain is compelled to write down the information that is wanted. We can almost see a grim smile upon the leader's face as he looks at the list with which he has been supplied. Now the march westward is resumed, a chain of hills is on the left, before them lies a town near to the bank of a river; to this place a rapid movement is effected, and as being after sunrise, the gates are open, the victorious band swarms into the streets. Many cheeks are blanched with fear as the inhabitants look from the housetops at the men who now possess the town. Where are the chiefs? the authorities, the rulers? This captain is inexorable, these men he will have or the town shall be destroyed; he knows their names and reads them from the list; so one by one they are dragged forth, for the people would rather keep a roof over their heads than retain their leaders; wretched men, they are brought out by dozens, half-dozens, quite a crowd of them, and trembling they stand before this fierce, unrelenting soldier; words of sarcasm fall from his lips, the cowards are led forth by scores to suffer their richly deserved fate, we have never seen anything exactly like it before or since—but we must hurry away from the dreadful sights and sounds.

Wisdom Of Life

THE wisdom of life consists in a careful culture of your capacities, a large expansion of your sympathies, a loving acknowledgment of your surroundings, a quick eye for opportunity, and a dexterous use of circumstances.

God has delivered yourself to your care, and says: "I had no fitter to trust than you."—Epictetus.

Finest Things In Life Cannot Be Rushed

IN the course of a sermon at the Park Avenue Baptist Church, New York, Dr. Fosdick scored the habit of rushing. The most dominant characteristic of our life is the headlong precipitancy with which we live. In the common parlance we are go-getters. If we fix our eye on a desirable goal we plunge for it. What we need very much to see is that there are some things in life, the finest and highest things, that cannot be achieved by this method.

Dr. Fosdick believes that experience falls into two portions: the things we get at directly—we pounce on them when we want them like a lion on his prey; second, the things we have to get at indirectly by fulfilling prior and often remote conditions. Some things are like catching a train—we run for it. But some things are not like that at all—we get them only by indirection.

Take culture for example. No one can define it, yet we all know what it is—the fragrance and charm of a fine spirit and a rich mind. But such spiritual beauty is not arrived at by any plunging method. Which of you by being anxious ever added a cubit to his culture? Culture is like the light on Moses's face when he wist not that it shone.

"I would like to take life by the throat and choke something out of it,' said a character in one of William J. Locke's novels. But the finest things cannot be choked out of life and continue to live. They come another way. They are the aftermath and by-product of the things which we adore.

To Smoke Or Not To Smoke

"You smoke thirty cigarettes a day?"

"Yes, on the average."

"You don't blame them for your run-down condition?"

The physician shook his head. He smiled in a vexed way. Then he shook his head. He smiled in a vexed way. Then he took a leech out of a glass jar."

"Let me show you something," he said. "Bare your arm."

The cigarette smoker bared his pale arm and the doctor laid the lean black leech upon it. The leech fell to work busily. Its body began to swell. Then, all of a sudden a kind of shudder convulsed it, and it fell to the floor—dead.

"That's what your blood did to that leech", said the physician. He took up the little corpse between his finger and thumb. "Look at it", he said. "Quite dead, you see. You poisoned it."

"I guess it wasn't a healthy leech in the first place", said the cigarette smoker, sullenly.

"Wasn't healthy, eh? Well, we'll try again."

And the physician clapped two leeches on the young man's thin arm. "If they both die", said the patient, "I'll swear off—or at least, I'll cut down my daily allowance from thirty to ten."

Even as he spoke, the smaller leech shivered and dropped on his knee dead, and a moment later the larger one fell beside it.

"This is ghastly", said the young man, "I am worse than the pestilence to these leeches."

"It is the empyreumatic oil in your blood", said the medical man. "All cigarette smokers have it."

"Doctor," said the young man, regarding the three dead leeches thoughtfully, "I have believe you're right."—Brooklyn Central.

We shall have all eternity to celebrate the victories, but we have only the few hours before sunset to win them.

It Doesn't Always Pay To Be Wealthy

THERE WAS A CERTAIN RICH MAN who was credited by his friends with being wise. In their opinion he was a sagacious man.

Like most other people he had enemies. His enemies hated and envied him but the possibility of his being a fool never entered their thoughts.

Yet, of this man, Jesus said that he was a fool!

He was not a fool because he was rich. A poor man is not necessarily a wise man. Jesus does not judge him because of his wealth. In itself wealth is neither good nor bad. It isn't sinful to be rich—provided the wealth is honestly acquired—but it is specially dangerous. A rich man doesn't often hear the truth about himself—he is often being flattered.

He was a fool because he allowed his wealth to burden his heart against human need. He wanted barns. He could have fed the hungry and helped the needy.

—A. F.

Often it is the people in the pews who make the man in the pulpit either a success or a failure.

Let us work as if we could do all, and pray as if we could do nothing.

Oh, to live as if Jesus had died at eventide, and I has seen and touched His side!

Is It a Mark of Superiority?

THERE are many men intellectually well equipped who are living on the lower levels spiritually. Is inability to understand how God could create a universe governed by law and yet leave room for Himself to act above the level of ordinary modes, a mark of superior learning? It is rather a mark of shriveled faith and arrested spiritual development. To reject Revelation and sneer at miracles requires no prodigious mental effort.—"Jesus Christ at the Crossroads."

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

The House of Commons committee on industrial and international relations has endorsed the principle of unemployment insurance based on compulsory contributions from the state, the employer and the employe.

Without discussing at this time the broad question of unemployment insurance, the recommendation looks like the beginning of another drive that will have as its ultimate target the municipal treasury.

It is intimated, as in the case of old age pensions, the responsibility for taking the initiative will fall upon the Provinces, and presumably the Provinces will be expected to pay at least half the cost of the scheme.

And then what happens?

Toward the cost of this form of relief the Provincial Government has required the municipalities to contribute 50 per cent.

While there has been no announcement yet, the adoption of the old age pension scheme in this Province is likely to see the municipalities called upon to pay a similar proportion of Ontario's share of the cost.

And there is reason to believe that an unemployment insurance scheme would result in another similar increase in municipal expenditure.

A POPULAR OFFICER GONE.

Peterborough's war veterans and citizens generally heard with deep regret of the death in Belleville of Lieut.-Col. Edmund D. O'Flynn, one of the originals of the 2nd Battalion.

In so many ways Eddie O'Flynn had been associated with local activities that here we have thought of him as almost a Peterborough man.

Not only was he a comrade of many of our 1st Contingent soldiers in France, but when he was invalided home from overseas he was on duty here as second in command of the 247th Battalion, and in that capacity he came into contact with many citizens of Peterborough and made a host of friends.

During his residence here, too, he was manager of the 247th Battalion hockey team, one of the most colorful organizations that has represented this city in the Ontario Hockey Association.

Lieut.-Col. O'Flynn had a genial, likeable personality that made him popular with all who knew him, and there is a feeling of sorrow among his many Peterborough friends and acquaintances that he should have been cut off in the prime of life.

His services in the cause of the veterans of the Great War—he was president of the Ontario command of the Canadian Legion and vice-president of the Dominion command—will be gratefully remembered.

THIS IS A MISTAKE.

The Quadrennial General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States has recommended a boycott of the newspapers which do not "deal fairly" with the prohibition movement.

Such tactics as this will do much more harm to the cause of religion than newspaper attacks upon prohibition could possibly do, and public opinion will be inclined to agree with the statement of one of the ministerial delegates to the conference, who said: "The Methodist Church should be in bigger business than this."

Surely it is not necessary in the interest of prohibition to interfere unfairly with the carrying on of the legitimate business of publishing newspapers, nor can the friends of prohibition hope to strengthen their cause by adopting such a vindictive policy as is proposed by this recommendation.

The boycott is a weapon that is neither fair nor honorable, and to hear it has been espoused by a Christian church will cause a feeling of regret among many people, who feel, as the speaker already quoted put it so forcibly, that the church "should be in bigger business than this."

THE PUBLIC MUST HELP.

Now that the electric traffic signals have been installed at George and Charlotte streets, the co-operation of the public in ensuring the success of the system is urged.

There may be a certain amount of confusion for a short time, until motorists become familiar with the operation of the lights, but this should disappear quickly, and the system will doubtless be welcomed as a valuable contribution toward safer driving conditions.

Traffic has increased to such an extent that some such protective device as this has become necessary, and it is undoubtedly the case that other intersections down-town will have to be similarly equipped before long.

It will be the duty of motorists generally to make the electric signals as effective as possible by strict obedience to the warnings and careful driving, the system being recognized as in the general interest.

Those, of course, who refuse to co-operate will have no difficulty in attracting the attention of the police, or of making the acquaintance in a business capacity of the police magistrate.

THE BEDROCK REASON FOR ECONOMY.

Government extravagance is a sin against the people. It fosters a condition where the evils of unemployment will eventually creep in and sap the life blood of industry. Governor Fuler of Massachusetts recently issued a warning in his State where the pinch of unemployment has been severe, and where factories have even moved away in recent years. He discussed the situation, in part, as follows:

"I hope the citizens of our towns will realize before it is too late the importance of doing what they can to retain employment for the wage-earners and to encourage the industries upon which they are dependent.

"We cannot have our industries operated so that the employes work fewer hours and earn more money and the employers pay more taxes and at the same time have the product compete in price with those of other places where the women and children work longer hours, where wages are lower and where taxes are much less.

"I mention these things because they give you the fundamental reasons why economy in government is desirable—yes, essential—in the interests of the great masses of people. Many favor economy in general, with the single exception of their own project in particular. Many men in public life would like to favor lavish expenditures and reduced taxes. It cannot be done."

The closing days of Parliament are at hand, and there will be millions voted in the dying hours of the session. It has been the custom not to examine these expenditures with the scrutiny necessary, owing to the anxiety of the members to get home. But the country pays. Relief from income, corporation and sales taxes would be possible if a good many expenditures made purely for political exigencies were eliminated and other expenditures cut to the bone. Provincially there can also be taxation relief, and municipally it is also desirable. There are some directions in which it is desirable to spend money because such expenditure brings a good return; our highway system is an example of that. But there is no doubt that the crying need of the country is economy and a businesslike instead of a political attitude adopted in regard to many things which are urged.—St. Catharines Standard.

THE CAPE BRETON COAL OUTLOOK.

The effect of the test rate for the shipment of coal from the eastern and western coal-fields of the Dominion to the central parts of Canada authorized by the Dominion Government promises to be of as great assistance to the operators of Nova Scotia as there is every reason to believe it will be to the mining concerns of Alberta. It is authoritatively stated by officials of the British Empire Steel Corporation, which controls the operation of the more important coal-fields of Cape Breton, that already more coal produced in those fields has been this year sold for delivery on the St. Lawrence than in any other year of the company's history. Last year a record was created in this respect, but the outlook for 1928 is so bright that there are predictions of two and three-quarter million tons of Nova Scotian coal ascending the St. Lawrence for use in the industrial communities. This means that practically 43 per cent. of the entire coal output of Nova Scotia will be consumed in that territory. Of course, all of this coal will be water-borne and the movement is thus due more to the energetic sales policy which is being pursued by the British Empire Steel Corporation than to the reduced rail rates for the shipment of coal which have been authorized. But officials of that company believe that further sales will be made in the Province of Quebec during the winter months as a result of the introduction of the test rate and that, directly because of it, Nova Scotian coal will penetrate to communities where it has never before entered into consumption.

All this means much to the miners of Nova Scotia and to the movement which has as its object the removal of Canada's dependence upon imported fuels. One of the principal difficulties which the employes of the Cape Breton coal-mining concerns have faced is the seasonal unemployment that seemed to be a perpetual accompaniment of the industry. During the summer months, when navigation was open and the colliers could mount the St. Lawrence to deliver their cargoes at Montreal, Quebec, Three Rivers and elsewhere, there was plenty of work for the miners. But with the closing of navigation and the setting-in of winter, a curtailment of operations invariably took place. Orders for delivery during the succeeding season were insufficient to keep the staff employed at full time, and there was thus a great deal of unemployment and some hardship and suffering. The rail deliveries of coal effected during the winter were exceedingly limited because of the almost prohibitive rates prevailing.

The test rate for the movement of Nova Scotian coal to Central Canada, coupled with the vigorous policy being pursued by the British Empire Steel Corporation since the change in its direction, promises to correct this situation to a very great extent. With more sales being made on the St. Lawrence during the summer season, there will be additional work from the miners in banking fuel for the succeeding season's demands, and with the test rate for rail shipments in force, coal will be moved during the winter months to a greater degree than possibly ever before. In consequence of this and of the new wage agreement entered into between the management and the mine, there is warrant for the assumption that labor troubles in Cape Breton are at an end, and that where unemployment and strife were frequently the case, harmony and industry will now rule. In addition, a great national service is being performed in forwarding the Canadian-coal-for-Canada movement, for every additional ton of Nova Scotian coal that is consumed in the upper Provinces means a proportionate reduction in the importations of foreign fuel. —Brockville Recorder and Times.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Col. Reg. Geary, M.P., is not the first to find the line busy when dealing with the Bell Telephone Company.

Five Chicago men were arrested for fighting on the street with pocket-flasks as weapons. Rather old-fashioned for Chicago, we presume.

Wilson MacDonald, poet, says Toronto people are the most unfriendly he has met. Perhaps it is his verse that has made them that way.

Johnny Risko, the Cleveland heavyweight, is booked to meet George Godfrey, the negro battler, and says he bars no one. This fellow acts like a fighter, not like a business man, as most of the modern ring artists are.

Hon. John S. Martin cannot be accused of originality in his remark that the rains this week were "worth millions to the country." Surely that expression has been used before.

Vaudeville shows should be censored, according to the Social Service Council. And fumigated, too, in some cases.

Skirts are getting higher off the ground all the time. A shipment of Paris gowns is being rushed to Toronto by aeroplane from Rimouski.

Question Box

The Examiner receives many requests from readers for information on many subjects, and hitherto these have been answered by mail. It is believed, however, that many of the questions and answers will be interesting to others besides the inquirer, and in future such questions will be answered through this column. Please address inquiries to "The Question Box." Initials only will be printed.

C.G.C. Q: In what years were St. Paul's letters to the Thessalonians written?

A: A.D. 52 or 53. St. Paul visited Thessalonica on his second missionary journey, withdrawing because of opposition to Bercea. Later he sent Timothy to Thessalonica, and on his return the apostle wrote from Corinth the First Epistle. The Second Epistle was written from the same place not long after. The two epistles are well authenticated.

M.B. Q: When backing down a hill in an auto, on which side of the street should one drive?

A: Always drive with the traffic. In the case you mention you should back down on your left side, so that you would be in the stream of traffic proceeding west on Brock street.

A.M. Q: To settle a dispute, please tell me when and under what circumstances the Washington Post Dance was written.

A: The Washington Post Dance was invented and adapted to ball room dancing during the Victorian era. The music composed for it by J. P. Sousa was later found suitable for a two-step. Sousa was born at Washington, D.C., Nov. 6, 1856, and is best known for his stirring military march music, Washington Post March, Semper Fidelis March, and Hands Across the Sea.

P.E. Q: In The Examiner the other night you printed a statement that "Cigarettes and crime are closely related...Cigarette firms soak their products in opium...cigarette smokers never stand at the head of their classes" and a lot of balderdash like that. Isn't a newspaper supposed to print only what is true?

A: No; not in the sense that you mean true. Many people hold ideas which they doubtless believe to be true, and the newspaper is justified in; in fact obligated to, publishing such opinions even though your belief may be diametrically opposite. It IS true that a schoolboy wrote these things about cigarettes in an essay and that is the kind of truth the newspaper seeks. If you do not believe the statements are correct, a letter from you will be gladly published—and then someone will arise to protest the publication of that as being mistaken in fact.

CATTLE, GRAIN AND PRODUCE

TORONTO LIVESTOCK.

TORONTO, May 19.—Cattle trade opened slowly last Monday, as usual of late, if these happens to be a fairly heavy run on hand. For the first couple of markets, strenuous efforts on the part of buyers were successful in getting prices down about 25c on all grades except the very choicest handyweight butchers' steers and heifers. The heavy coarse steers, cows and bulls were down through several markets. There were heavy carry-overs up to the mid-week. After this a better tone prevailed, and prices quickly recovered to their former levels. In the closing market for the week-end, everything was cleaned up at good firm prices.

All small meats held firm. Hogs scored a general advance of 25c for the week.

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Que., May 19 (Canadian Press).—The demand from foreign buyers for Canadian grain here yesterday showed some improvement and sales of wheat were estimated at a half million bushels, and quite a few loads of oats. In the domestic market sales of No. 6 wheat were made to New York exporters at 25c per bushel under the Winnipeg May option, c.i.f. Montreal, and a sale of 40,000 bushels of No. 2 feed oats was made for shipment to Quebec, and another lot of 20,000 bushels to Bay ports. There was an improved demand from local and country buyers for car lots of grain and prices ruled steady.

Prices for all grades of Spring and Winter wheat flour were well maintained under a quiet demand.

A steady feeling prevailed in the market for millfeed, but the volume of business was not large. The trade in standard grades of rolled oats was quiet but values were unchanged.

The tone of the egg market was steady under an increased demand from grocers and other dealers, but the volume of business in car lots was smaller owing to the fact that packers and dealers were in some cases not disposed to pay present prices asked for shipment from Western and Ontario points. The receipts were 1,619 cases.

The trade in potatoes showed no marked improvement, the demand being only for odd cars to meet immediate requirements, and in consequence the market was quiet, and the undertone easy as supplies on spot continue to be in excess of the wants of the trade.

There were no further developments in the market for imported beans, prices being steady at the late decline noted. There was some demand and a moderate amount of business was done in small lots of choice white hand-picked grades at $4.20 per bushel, ex-store, and car lots to arrive were quoted at $4 per bushel ex-track.

There was an improved demand for butter and as supplies were rather more liberal than earlier in the week a fair amount of business was done and the market was rather more active with a fairly steady undertone. The receipts were 2,073 packages.

The export trade in cheese was quieter owing to a lull in the foreign demand and the fact that what few cables were received reported the English market easier and bid 80s for Western No. 1 white and colored at which price sales of some odd lots were made. There was no change in spot values. The receipts were 2,869 boxes.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, May 19. — Canadian Press. — With Europe buying huge quantities of wheat and also taking a generous amount of rye, the wheat market yesterday scored a sharp advance. Export business in North American wheat yesterday was estimated as amounting to 3,000 bushels.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled 1¾c to 2 3-8c net higher, with corn ¼c off; oats 1-8c to 3 1-8c up, and provisions varying from 10c decline to an equal advance.

Preceding the news of greatly enlarged European demand for bread grain, an unexpected rise in Liverpool wheat quotations led to something of a flurry among the wheat traders here. Word went around that all wheat offered to Europe over night had been accepted, and that cold weather and consequent unfavorable crop conditions were prevalent in western European countries, especially Poland.

Estimates were also current that the world's available supply of wheat had decreased 41,703,000 bushels during April, compared with 21,484,000 bushels in March, and with 58,775,000 bushels in April last year.

Notwithstanding deliveries of 730,000 bushels of wheat yesterday on Chicago May contracts, the upward swing of the market persisted in the late dealings, although profit taking brought about lively reactions at times. There was also selling on late reports of showers in the American Northwest, with some rain in Manitoba. Meanwhile an opposite influence was a statement from a Chicago crop authority saying recent rainfalls in the Northwest compared with last year showed a decided deficiency both as to surface and to subsoil moisture. He added that unsettled conditions now apparently coming to a close have fallen far below making good the previous moisture shortage.

Except toward the last corn averaged higher, sympathizing with wheat; good rains throughout the greater part of the corn belt were reported and temperatures were favorable for germination. Active shipping demand for oats was in evidence.

In the provision market the effect of higher prices on hogs was more or less counter-balanced by slowness of cash demand for meats.

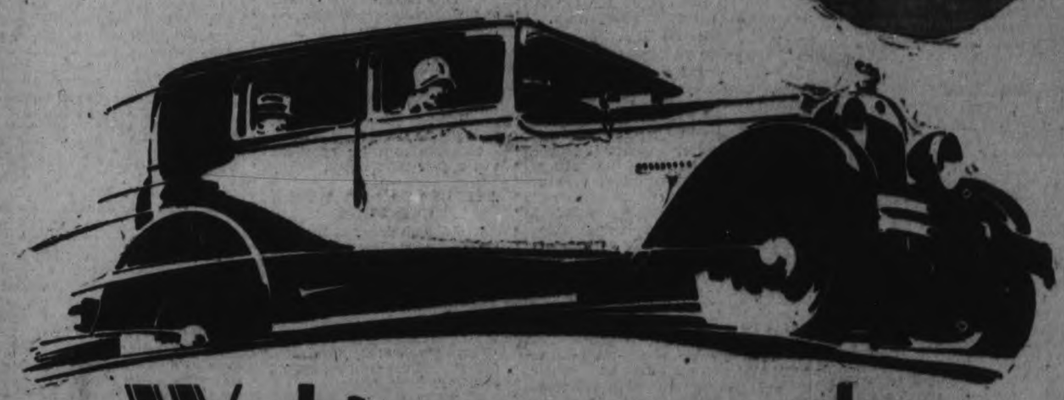
ESSEX Super 6

Outselling All "Sixes"



World's greatest value

by the verdict of the world....

The most important thing ever said of Essex is said by buyers in the largest 6-cylinder sales, and the most overwhelming competitive preference of automobile history.

In many territories Essex sales exceed those of any other "Six" by more than 2 to 1. And, with slight variations, this preference is the nation's and the world's.

TRADE REPORT

Winnipeg, Man., May 19 (CP).—The weekly trade report of the Canadian Credit Men's Association, Limited, for week ending May 12th is as follows:

Halifax: A slight improvement is reported in all lines of Cape Breton. Trade conditions are about normal in the rest of Nova Scotia. Collections are fair.

St. John: Wholesale trade fairly good, retail trade good, collections satisfactory.

Montreal: A very fair volume is reported by dealers in wholesale groceries. Drygoods continue to improve; boots and shoes maintain good volume. Men's furnishings, ladies' wear and clothing fairly busy. Hardware, etc., busy. Retail trade in the city is busy. Country retail trade improving. The good weather has stimulated trade considerably and tourist traffic is heavy for so early in the season. Collections show a slight improvement. The port of Montreal has had a busy week. Road conditions are improving, except in the vicinity of the rivers where high water is still causing some damage.

Quebec: An increase is reported in volume of wholesale groceries over last week. Drygoods fair; boots and shoes busy. Hardware and lumber is in good demand. Better weather conditions and improvement in the highways have resulted in much brisker trading generally, retail trading both city and country having had a satisfactory week. Collections, while still poor, are expected to improve now that business generally shows an upward trend.

Toronto: Wholesale business normal and a little in excess of last year. Retail trade is normal with a good volume shown in sales of hardware, auto accessories and tires. Collections can be considered good.

Winnipeg: Manufacturers transacting a fair volume of business; wholesale drygoods, groceries, boots and shoes, ladies' wear and gent's furnishings normal. Hardware, builders' supplies and auto accessories good. City retail trade still inclined to be quiet, but improving. Country retail fair. Collections in all lines somewhat easier.

Regina: A good volume is reported by dealers in wholesale groceries and hardware. Boots and shoes fairly good; drygoods slow. Retail trade in the city is good; country fair. Collections generally fair.

Saskatoon: Wholesale groceries and drygoods fair. Boots and shoes good. Hardware and builders' supplies dealers report good volume of sales for past week. Retail trade rather quiet in the city. Country good. Collections fair to slow.

Calgary: Business all lines very satisfactory. Upon settlement of carpenters' strike building supplies trades anticipate working at full capacity for some months. A keen spirit of optimism prevailing throughout this district. Crop-growing conditions ideal.

Edmonton: Wholesalers and retailers report business somewhat quieter than preceding week. Collections fair. Excellent weather prevailing. Seeding almost completed under ideal conditions.

Vancouver: Manufacturing fairly good. Wholesale hardware and drygoods good; groceries, ladies' wear and boots and shoes fair; gent's furnishings fair. Retail trade generally is fair. Weather conditions have improved materially and it is anticipated that this will assist business during the coming week. Collections improving. Building and construction work progressing satisfactorily.

CAROL WILLING TO RETURN AS KING

Prince Carol of Rumania, now a guest at the Jonescu Surrey estate, England, said in an exclusive interview that although his plans for the future were uncertain, he might return and assume the throne if his country called. Mme. Lupescu, who has been with him since his exile, is also a guest of former Premier Jonescu of Rumania. Both will probably remain in England until next winter. Photographs show (1) a close up of Prince Carol; (2) Mme. Lupescu; (3) a full-length picture of Carol; (4) Princess Helen, wife of Carol and mother of the infant King Michael; (5) Michael, Carol's son, who is now boy-king of Rumania; (6) Zizi, morgantic wife of Prince Carol; (7) Queen Marie of Rumania, Carol's mother.

JACK PINE'S WIDE RANGE

The jack pine (Pinus Banksiana) has a very wide range in Canada. It is found from Nova Scotia to the Rocky mountains and northward in the valley of the Mackenzie river to Great Bear lake. Its best development as a timber tree is reached in northern Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. It is a very useful tree and because of its ability to thrive on poor sites it will always hold an important position in Canadian forests, provided the co-operation of all citizens is secured in seeing to it that it is not needlessly wasted by forest fires.

Uncle Wiggily

To-day's Bedtime Story

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE BLACK ROCK.

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

The Fuzzy Fox and the Woozie Wolf, hiding behind the door in the Wolf's den, waited and waited for Uncle Wiggily to come in and be nibbled. Every once in a while one or the other of the Bad Chaps would creep on his tippy-tip toes to the side window and look out. But Uncle Wiggily didn't hop along.

As you know, from reading the story last night, the rabbit gentleman, after reaching the Wolf's door, saw something wrong about it and hopped home to his bungalow.

After a while, seeing that the rabbit bunny uncle did not come along to have his ears nibbled, the Fox said:

"I'm going outside and have a 'ook."

"What for?" growled the Wolf. "If you show yourself now, Uncle Wiggily will be frightened and run away before we can nibble him."

"He won't come now," barked the Fox. "He must have guessed we had set a trap for him." So the Fox went out. There was, of course, no sign of Mr. Longears. But when the Fox looked at the Wolf's front door, newly painted as it was, the Fox cried:

"No wonder he wouldn't come in."

"Why not?" snarled the Wolf.

"Because," answered the Fox, "there are so many mistakes on your door. The painter left off the tail of the 5 in the number. The letter N is upside down, there is only one hinge on the door, instead of two and the knob is missing! Uncle Wiggily saw all those mistakes and of course he wouldn't come in."

"Well, what do you know about that?" whimpered the Wolf as he, too,

"My tail is caught," said the lady mouse.

saw the four mistakes. "Well, better luck next time."

"Have you anything to eat in your den?" asked the hungry Fox.

"Not a thing, I'm sorry to say," the wolf growled. "I was counting on a rabbit potpie, but since Uncle Wiggily didn't come——"

"Well, then I'd better go out and see if I can catch Charlie or Arabella Chick," snapped the Fox, and out he stalked, taking his big, dusting brush of a tail with him.

Left to himself, the Wolf crept around his den, looking for stray crumbs to eat. Then, not finding any, he slunk out.

"Perhaps I can catch Uncle Wiggily on one of his adventure walks," thought the Wolf. So the Bad Chap crept along back of bushes and trees until he was near the hollow stump bungalow of the rabbit gentleman.

By this time Uncle Wiggily, forgetting about the danger he had so luckily escaped at the Wolf's door, No. 35, was hopping through the woods. Pretty soon Mr. Longears heard a small voice crying:

"Help! Help! Oh, will some one please help me!"

"That's trouble and I must help," said Uncle Wiggily. Not stopping to think it might be a trick of the Fox or Wolf, Mr. Longears ran to the bush, from behind which the call for help had come, and there he found the Lady Mouse Teacher from the Hollow Stump School.

"What's the matter, Miss Mouse?" asked the bunny.

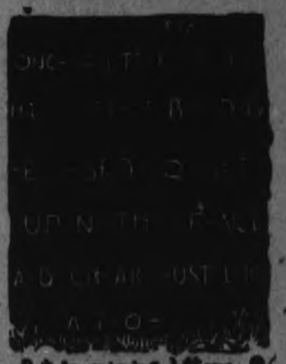
"Oh, my tail is caught in the crack of this black rock," said the Lady Mouse, pointing to a large, dark stone near which she stood. She had switched her tail around when an ant tickled her and the tail caught in a crack. But Uncle Wiggily soon helped her get it loose.

"Now I will walk home with you so you will get in no more danger, said the bunny gentleman. But, all of a sudden, out from behind the black rock leaped the hungry Wolf who had been hiding there.

"Now I've caught you!" howled the Bad Chap. He was just going to nibble Uncle Wiggily's ears when the Lady Mouse Teacher, taking a piece of white chalk out of her pocket, quickly wrote a verse on the black rock. It was a puzzle verse, with letters left out of some of the words.

"Until you read that verse, and put in the missing letters, you cannot nibble Uncle Wiggily's ears!" said Miss Mouse bravely to the Wolf.

So the Wolf began to study the puzzle.



Put in missing letters.

BRITAIN ACCEPTS KELLOGG'S SCHEME

Well Informed Persons Say That Acceptance Will Be Delivered To-day.

LONDON, May 19. —(Canadian Press). — It is understood in well informed circles that Great Britain's reply to the Kellogg anti-war treaty proposal is an acceptance of the plan. The British reply will be delivered to A. B. Houghton, United States Ambassador, to-day, and will be published simultaneously in Washington and London to-morrow.

THE WEDNESDAY HALF HOLIDAY

Reasons Advanced By Merchants for the Change From Thursday.

As announced in Thursday evening's Examiner the retail merchants of this city have decided to close their stores on Wednesday afternoons during June, July and August. This change of the customary weekly half holiday from Thursday to Wednesday is considered in the best interests of citizens generally, of business and Peterborough's no small army of salespeople. Wednesday, the retail merchants responsible for the announcement contend, is the logical day for our Summer half-holidays. Stores in adjacent towns and cities close Wednesday afternoons, and Peterborough's conformity with that general custom will permit our store employees to attend baseball games and other sports staged for that weekly half day off. Another argument in favor of this change is that American tourists are accustomed to the Wednesday half-holiday across the border, and understand that such observance is general in Ontario. Consequently hundreds of tourists from the States, coming to or passing through Peterborough city on Thursdays to shop are considerably inconvenienced by finding our stores closed in the afternoon. And in most instances these disappointed guests of Canada head at once for some other town, where the merchants are ready for catering to their needs.

In this way, last Summer, thousands of dollars intended for Peterborough were diverted to other communities.

It is said that before a famous aviator was about to cross the ocean in his plane he consulted a fortune teller to get a preview of the result of his trip. "I want to know" he told her "if my venture is going to be a success." The cards will surely tell us," replied the old woman, who forthwith proceeded to lay the cards on the table. "Now there are five things you must have to accomplish your trip, and if the cards come right they will show them." She therefore laid the cards in five rows, each row spelling the name of the thing he must have to reach America safely. After the cards were all laid out the aviator enquired anxiously "Well, what I suppose, have I the five things necessary?" "Read the cards," replied the fortune teller, "and you will see."

HOW HE READ THEM

"You see," said the fortune teller, "each row of cards spells a word, and each card represents a letter of the word. If a card is the ace, or one spot of anything that card represents A, B or C. If it is the two of any denomination it represents D, E, or F, and so on. Now here is your code, see if you can work out the names of the five things you must have to successfully fly the ocean, and if you can read them in the cards you will be successful. To help you a bit the second word is "skill." Now find the other four yourself." The aviator did it. Can you?

SOLVE IT: WIN FIRST PRIZE

If you can solve this puzzle, send your answer in at once to compete for the beautiful 1928 Essex Coach First Prize. Write your answer neatly on a piece of paper in pen and ink.

Nothing to Buy or Sell

NO MONEY TO SPEND

Frankly, this is an advertising contest. Its object is to get a wider distribution for the Sterling Money saving hosiery and underwear catalogue, listing three hundred quality items at direct to consumer prices. When we receive your answer to the puzzle, we will write and tell you how many points you have gained towards first prize and will send you a copy of our latest catalogue right away. You can enter and win the highest prizes without buying a single thing, selling anything, or spending a cent of your money. You will be under no obligation whatever to make a purchase to obtain standing for first prize. Send your answer at once.

Follow These Simple Rules

1. Write your answers in pen and ink only, on one side of the paper. Put name and address in upper right hand corner, stating whether Mr., Mrs., or Miss, also name of this paper. Write anything else on separate sheet. Don't send fancy answers.
2. You must be 16 years or over. Employees of Sterling Hosiery Mills or friends and relatives of employees are forbidden to enter.
3. Different members of a family may compete but only one prize will be awarded to any one household.
4. Final awards will be made by a committee of three prominent Toronto business men who are in no way connected with this firm. Their names will be made known to all contestants. Contestants must agree to abide by their decisions.
5. If you find the correct answer to the puzzle you will be awarded 950 points, and we will send you by mail a simple Busy Bee Plant puzzle game on which you will be awarded all the final points. No points are to be awarded for postmen, handwriting, general appearance, spelling, etc., nor are points to be awarded for orders unless sent optionally to a limited amount to complete missing or doubtful answers. You are neither obliged nor required to buy or sell a single thing to win the highest prize.
6. Contest closes 5 p.m. Wednesday, October 31, 1928. Entries should be forwarded promptly.

What Says Gizeh's Great Pyramid About May 29th?

An examination of the Proofs Specially Written for The Examiner

A GREATER WAR than the Great War, with all of its epidemics and its world travail intensified; a longer period of world-wide struggle and sorrow . . . and then, without aftermath of readjustment. . . .

The immediate glory of a destiny achieved; the fulfilment of the highest spiritual desires of the human race; the peace of a thousand years.

These are the predictions of the Great Pyramid of Gizeh, if widely-held beliefs based upon its marvellous mathematical features are to be given credence. And there is a tremendous weight of evidence in favor of these beliefs.

The testing time will come on or about May 29 this year, when the extraordinary predictive theory will be proved or disproved. The course of human events from the beginning can be traced backward in the passages and chambers, but this month occurs the first opportunity to test whether an indication which told of war a few years ago means the same thing when repeated. If this period is marked by an upheaval in the events of man, then the succeeding premonstrations of the Great Pyramid can be accepted.

It should be understood that the Great Pyramid of Gizeh is not a vulgar "fortune teller," nor is it an ordinary tombic structure in which some King of Egypt was laid at rest. It is as far removed from the other pyramids as any original masterpiece can be from its imitations. A famous Egyptologist has said, "If this pyramid was meant for a tomb, it is the most wonderful sepulchre ever constructed, the mere accidents of which are ten thousand-fold more magnificent in wisdom, interest and worth to mankind than all the tombs and Pharaohs of all the dynasties, and all their other works besides." If, indeed, one will cast aside all thought of prophecy, sacred or profane, from his contemplation of the Great Pyramid, he will still find here more entrancing studies than are included in any other structure the world has ever seen. And then, studying its mathematical features, he must inevitably be led to the conclusion that something more than mere figures are intended by the architect, and he will look forward to May 29 with more than ordinary interest.

This pyramid squares the circle, both as to circumference and area; its innermost chambers bear definite relationship to its outermost measurements; its weight and its height and its perimiter all point in indissoluble stone the great truths of astronomy and mathematics which have been hailed as discoveries by savants of the past three centuries.

Could it have been by accident that the base line of the Great Pyramid measures 365.2422 cubits, equal to the number and fraction of days in the solar tropical year? Could any mere happen chance have constructed an originally conceived form of building in which a given course of masonry occurs at just ten times the height that an interior chamber is long; with a length from exterior to vertical axis just ten times its height; and when that height is divided into this horizontal length, gives the mathematical proportion π (3.14159). Or how, in this advanced scientific age, explain by accident the construction of three apparently most diverse things, a coffer, a room, and the pyramid itself, in each of which two principal dimensions added together are π (3.14159) times the third?

It is not difficult, indeed, to understand why many of to-day's brightest scholars attribute the Great Pyramid to the omniscient mind of the Great Architect of the Universe, but let us see for ourselves upon what ground their findings are based, and decide whether there is reason behind the belief that sacred or profane prophecy is built into the stone work of the greatest wonder of the ancient world, still unshadowed by anything modernly constructed.

Not Like Other Pyramids.

It is well to understand, in the first place, that the Great Pyramid of Gizeh is definitely set apart from other pyramids and other buildings in Egypt. These lesser structures are covered with Egyptian emblems that tell of the worship of this and that temporary deity, or of the influence of stars and planets upon the affairs of the then king. In the Great Pyramid, which all history and tradition agree in representing as first in point of date, the earliest stone building positively known to have been erected in any country, there is not in any of its finished parts a vestige of heathenism, or the smallest indulgence in anything approaching idolatry. There is no Egyptology, or any allusion to Sabaism and its worship of sun, or moon, or any of the starry host. In the years succeeding its erection, dozens of other pyramids were built, using the ordinary mechanical features in the building of sepulchral chambers, but the architectural ideas of this grand monument are not found in any other pyramid. It is difficult, indeed, to find a basis for comparison, except in the outer form, and it seems clear that the Great Pyramid was first, with a great purpose and a great architect, while these others are adaptations for their own purposes.

As remarkable as its freedom from heathen symbols is its location in the centre of the land surface of the earth, evidently intended to be placed on the 30th parallel of latitude, and with its sides orientated north, south, east and west. It is evident that the designer had a knowledge of the rotundity of the earth, and had evolved a system of latitude and longitude; as for the orientation, it has been found with the aid of delicate instruments developed in the last decade that the error is only one in 750, a remarkable achievement for builders of more than 4,000 years ago. The height of the Great Pyramid shows a relation to sun distance, which places the architect's estimate at 92,000,000 miles, a nearer approximation than was considered right until a few years ago.

Breaking in with Al Mamoun.

From these generalities it will be interesting to pass to details of the measurements upon which the prophecy for May 29 is built, and in entering the Great Pyramid we cannot do better than follow the very first persons known to have penetrated its innermost secrets—the Caliph Al Mamoun and his horde. What would pass to-day for a touch of humor was shown by the pyramid's architect when he placed the entrance 24 feet and some inches away to the east of the centre of the north face, forseeing that marauders would choose the centre as the starting place for their activities. Sure enough, the Mohammedan chief chose a spot in the centre of the pyramid's breadth, and a little lower than the real entrance, with the result that when his workmen, tunnelling with rude instruments, had penetrated a hundred feet they had still no indication of a passageway's existence. Then they were on the point of mutiny. They recalled that an old king in his fables had told that all the wealth of Egypt would not enable him to destroy one of the pyramids, and they were sitting around in their excavation discussing the futility of their struggle when they heard a stone fall in a hollow space only a few feet to one side of their tunnel. Hammers and fire and vinegar were used to blast a way through in the direction of the noise, and they burst into the entrance passage, where we follow them. Romans and Greeks and Persians had trod this passage before the entrance was lost, but they never saw what is revealed to Mamoun's horde and to us, by the falling of the roof stone. Behind it appears the ascending passage, hitherto hidden from all eyes. It is still blocked, it is true, by granite plugs, but revealed, nevertheless. The grim crew of Saracen Mussulmans, unable to cope with the solid granite, break a way through the ordinary masonry at the side, and enter the passage again beyond the portcullis. There again they find the passage blocked, but only by limestone blocks. They hammer and chisel until the first block is shattered: they carry the fragments away—and then another and another limestone block slides down from a strange reservoir to bar the way. The Commander of the Faithful is present, and insists that, whatever the number of stones, they must be removed.

Then, by Allah, they shout: the treasure of the Great Pyramid, sealed up from the fabulous times of the mighty Ibn Salhouk, lies full in their grasp before them. Up 110 feet of the steep incline they rush; through a passage of royally polished white limestone, but only 47 inches in height and 41 inches in breadth. Then suddenly they emerge into a long, high gallery of seven times the passage height; black as night and deathly calm. In front of them, on first entering into this part of the now termed "Grand Gallery," and on the level, they see another passage; on their right hand, a black, ominous-looking hole, 140 feet deep; while onward and upward is a continuation of the glorious gallery, leading them upward to possession of all the treasures of the great men of the antediluvian earth. Narrow is the way, only six feet broad at any point, and contracted to three feet at the floor, but 28 feet high, almost above the power of their smoky torches to illuminate; and of polished, glistening, marble-like cyclopean stone throughout.

Up the Grand Gallery.

This must surely, they think, be the high road to fortune and wealth! Up and up its long ascending floor-line, ascending at an angle of 26 degrees, these determined marauders push their way for 150 feet, climb over an obstructing step three feet high; bow their heads beneath a low doorway; pass a hanging portcullis; crawl along another short, low passage; and leap into the grand chamber which was, and still is, the conclusion of everything forming the Great Pyramid's interior; the chamber to which and for which, according to every subsequent writer, the whole Great Pyramid was built.

And what do they find here, these maddened Muslim in Caliph Al Mamoun's train? A noble apartment, now called the King's Chamber, roughly 34 feet long, 17 feet broad, and 19 feet high, of polished red granite, in blocks squared and true. A well-built room, and handsome; but where is the treasure? The plunderers trim their torches and peer into every corner of the flinty hall. The room is clean, and ready for its long-expected visitors; but the gross minds who occupy it now find it barren. There is nothing whatever here, in the whole extent of the apartment, except an empty stone chest without a lid!

The sequel, so far as the Mohammedans are concerned, can be quickly told. Al Mamoun was thunderstruck at his lack of success. His people murmured, so he had a large sum of money brought secretly from his treasury and buried by night near the end of his own quarried entrance hole. Next day he caused the men to dig precisely there, and, although they were only digging in the masonry just as they had been doing for weeks, yet on this day they found a treasure of gold, just sufficient to pay their wages!

We have followed the first people to enter the King's Chamber, and we are grouped around the granite chest, or coffer. It is needless to review all the proofs that exist to show that this was never intended as a sarcophagus. It is not emblazoned with hieroglyphics as are all other sarcophagi; it is just a plain hewn stone box without a lid. Its cubic contents equal four quarters of corn (British measure). We are not interested in the theory whether this is the origin of the British corn measure, but in figures and what the figures tell. And this old granite coffer is replete with wonders. For instance, as closely as can be measured because of dilapidations by souvenir-hunting tourists, the interior volume of the coffer is equal to the volume of the sides, ends and base. A curious check on the depth of the coffer is afforded by the ledge cut out to receive a lid. A frame made to fit this ledge would, when let down inside the coffer, just form the diagonal of the coffer's interior, and the frame's height would just measure the coffer's depth. The coffer is just the fiftieth part of the capacity of the chamber in which it stands.

Mathematics in the King's Chamber.

And what of the indications of that room, the King's Chamber? On multiplying the length of the King's Chamber by the special pyramid numbers, 5 x 5, we find it to yield 10303.29, and the area of the square base of the Great Pyramid is equal to the area of a circle whose diameter is 10303.30, a demonstration in areas of the squaring of the circle (within .01 of an inch) which was one of the chief objects of the Great Pyramid's external figure. Or consider pyramid inches in the King's Chamber to signify pyramidc ubits outside the structure, and the following results come out correct to six places of decimals: Take the length of the King's Chamber (412.132 inches) to express the diameter of a circle. Compute by the best methods of modern science the area of that circle; throw that area into a square shape, and find the length of its side. The answer will be 365.242 pyramid cubits, a quantity which not only represents the mean of all the measures of the length of the Great Pyramid base-side, but defines the number of days in a mean solar tropical year.

Again, take the 412.132 as the side of a square, find its area, and throw that into a circular shape. The radius of such a circle will be found to be 232.520, or, in pyramid cubits, the mean of all the measures of the Great Pyramid's vertical height.

Again, take the circuit of either of the principal walls of the King's Chamber, and divide by the length, in this manner: 412.132 + 235.243 + 412.132 + 235.243 = 1294.750 and 1294.750 ÷ 412.132 = 3.14159, which is π equably, with modern mathematics.

So much for the figures contained in the King's Chamber and in the coffer, probably sufficient to show that in this Great Pyramid there is too much to be explained away by coincidence. But on entering this magnificent inner chamber we followed Mamoun's horde through a little ante-chamber, under a hanging portcullis, and surely there should be something there to check up with the remainder of the structure. Yes, indeed. Every measurement in this wonderful building has some significance, and the ante-chamber is replete with story-telling figures.

Beyond Coincidence.

The floor is partly in granite and partly in limestone, and the former is 103.033 inches in length while the latter is 13.23 inches, a total of 116.26, which is equal to the diameter of a circle having an area precisely equal to a square of 103.033 inches in the side. "And now," says the Abbe and Chanoine Moigno in 'Les Mondes,' "who could pretend that the diversity of the materials forming the floor, and their relations and differences of length, were a brute accident on the part of the architect of 4,000 years ago?"

Still less can the measurements be considered accident when the following is considered: 103.033 x 5 (a Pyramid number) = 515.165, which is the length of the cubic diagonal of the King's Chamber. Or take the whole length of this ante-chamber, 116.26, and multiply it by π (3.14159) and the result is 365.242, the length in cubits of the base line of the Great Pyramid, and the number of days in a year. Or, again, multiply this 116.26 by 50 (a Pyramid number) and the result is the ancient vertical height of the Great Pyramid, 5813 inches.

These examples might be multiplied almost indefinitely, but two more must suffice. The height of the ante-chamber is 149.4 inches, which is equal to the base-side length of the Great Pyramid plus the vertical height divided by 100, thus: 9131 ÷ 5813 = 14944, ÷ 100 = 149.4. And that this is not mere accident is further shown by a granite leaf, or portcullis, seen to the right of the ante-chamber in the sketch. This portcullis so divides the space that 91.3 inches are above, equal to the pyramid base-side divided by 100, and from the leaf to the floor measures 58.1 inches, or the pyramid vertical height divided by 100. The lower portion of this leaf or portcullis is exactly one quarter the capacity of the coffer in the King's Chamber.

Squaring the Circle.

The second example of the relation between the interior rooms and the external measurements of the Great Pyramid is even more striking. The 35th masonry course from the bottom is definitely set apart from the others by features in its construction, and at this course the length from the exterior to the vertical axis of the pyramid is 3652.42, which, divided by 10 gives that oft-repeated base-side measurement and the number of days in a year. Again, this 35th masonry course is just 1162.6 inches above the base of the pyramid, ten times the length of the ante-chamber. Dividing the 3652.42 by the 1162.6 gives π (3.14159), and thus two straight lines are given to show the proportion of the circumference of a circle to its diameter.

Has sufficient been learned in this brief visit to indicate that the Great Pyramid was not thrown hastily together, and without purpose? If the Great Pyramid does not contain these metric features claimed for it, refutation is within reach of line and rule, and the pyramid stands to be questioned of and reply for itself to all gainsayers. Therein it differs from theory.

Hardly a year passes but some new squarer of the circle appears, bringing out some new series by which a more rapid conveyance of the true value of π may be obtained, but here, in a building erected in the year 2170 B.C., its entire mass and its separate particles go to make up one grand and particular mathematical figure expressing the value)(!

How long after the Great Pyramid was built did savants hail as a discovery the knowledge of the precession of the equinoxes! And yet, in this wonderful structure the grand cycle of the universe is clearly shown in measurements.

Up until 1874 the computation of sun distance generally accepted by astronomers was 95,233,000 miles; the Great Pyramid, built 4,044 years before that time indicated a distance of 91,840,000 miles, which is within 990,000 miles of the present-day accepted distance, while the astronomers of a mere half-century ago were 2,403,000 miles in error!

The Pyramid in Prophecy.

And now, are we ready to accept the prophecies of the Great Pyramid? Upon the wall of the entrance passage are two parallel lines deeply cut, indicating, it is generally believed, the date of the building of the pyramid, which, by other observations, is placed at 2170 B.C. Following the passage downward and upward for 2,170 inches, we reach the entrance to the grand gallery, indicating the beginning of the Christian era, or the year 1 A.D. Thirty-three inches from this entrance is the deep pit, indicating the death of Christ in His 33rd year—and the symbol of His resurrection is to be found here also in the evidences of the bursting of a covering stone from below. A measurement of 1,914 inches from the entrance to the grand gallery brings us to the narrow passage, which is 51 inches in length, with a fraction. Then we enter the ante-chamber, 116 inches and a fraction in length, and, traversing that, are forced again into a passage as low as and narrower than, the preceding one.

Up to Fateful 1914.

Shall we consider the 1,914 inches to represent the passage of time up to the year 1914? Then we enter a difficult passage, 51 inches long. These being momentous days, nearing the end of the Great Pyramid's story, can we take the 51 inches as being more particular than the previous indications of a year to an inch, and representing, therefore, months? Then we have the 51 months of the Great War. The ante-chamber is rough and unfinished, with obstructions and the hanging portcullis with its threat, representing the disturbed days of the past nine years, when wars and threats of wars have kept the nations of the world on the alert; when earthquakes and disasters have stricken wide sections, but the world as a whole has not been subjected to such an upheaval as marked the years 1914 to 1918.

What of the Future?

The end of the ante-chamber period is close at hand, and if the Great Pyramid's predictions are correct, the world will soon enter a period of trial more exacting than its last trial by war, and lasting longer. But after that there is no more struggle: the splendid King's Chamber marks the consummation of earthly struggle, the achievement of destiny; the uttermost in human development.

The mathematical features of the Great Pyramid being proved, the question should rather be, can the world afford to reject the prophetical features? For surely there must be a purpose in a structure so marvellously conceived and so expertly constructed. Hundreds of the proofs have been omitted for lack of space; the Queen's Chamber, representing the development of a special nation which refused to enter the Christian dispensation, has not been dealt with; scores of sacred prophecies fulfilled have not been touched upon. This mathematical perfection, which cannot be disputed and this profane prophecy, proved up to the present date are submitted for the personal investigation of the reader.

FINAL SERVICE OF DEDICATION

Men Who Have Been Attending Mission Will be Dedicated to Mary.

ATTENDANCE GOOD.

At the devotions of the Men's Mission at St. Peter's Cathedral last evening, Father James A. Cloran in the instruction before the Rosary announced that to-night at seven-thirty there would be special devotions in honor of Our Lady. There will be a procession of boys from St. Peter's School to the altar of Our Lady, which will be beautifully decorated for to-night's services. After the procession and the singing of hymns in honor of Mary, there will be a solemn dedication of the boys and men making the mission to Mary, "the Queen of Heaven."

"We needn't tell you men here to-night, how highly the priests of the Redemptorist Order honor the Mother of God. It is traditional with us since the day of our holy founder, St. Alphonsus. Saturday night we will all dedicate ourselves to our sweet Mother Mary. As poor weaklings we will place ourselves under her kindly patronage. She is the refuge of sinners and we will implore her Saturday night in a public manner to assist us at all times; that amid the dangers of this life we may do the Will of God in all things and one day save our immortal souls."

The Test

Father Cloran congratulated the men on their wonderful attendance at the morning Masses. "It is edifying indeed each morning when I come out for the five o'clock Mass to see this large Cathedral over half filled with men. While the rest of the world around you is at rest, you wend your way here along deserted street to kneel before the altar of God and assist at the holy sacrifice of the Mass. As the shepherds on the hillsides of Judea two thousand years ago, listened to angelic voices and left their flocks to hurry to the cave to adore their God in the form of a small Babe on that first Christmas night, so you also come here morning after morning answering the call of your church to adore the same God adored by the shepherds; to you, however, as the Host in the hands of God's priest at the altar.

Cardinal Newman, a great churchman of the last century, said that the test of real religion in a man was his willingness to do hard things for God. During the past week you have proven that you indeed can do hard things for God, because this church, with its early morning crowds and its evening crowds is the proof. The world at large cannot understand why you have done all this, but you have done it, not for me but for yourselves, for the sake of God and for your eternal welfare. And every inconvenience which you have put yourselves to to make this mission, has been seen by the all powerful eye of God and will draw God's blessing on you.

MILLBROOK LADY IS HURT BY FALL

PAINFULLY CUT.

MILLBROOK, May 19.—Mrs. Charles McNeil met with an accident at her home, King street, on Thursday afternoon; falling while at work in the kitchen, and striking her head against the door, causing a deep abrasion on the left side near the temple; and severing two a teries; besides injury to the left eyelid.

Mrs. McNeil was alone at the time of the accident; and does not recall how it happened; when she regained consciousness she managed to reach the parsonage next door where help was obtained and Dr. H. A. Turner called. The latter took Mrs. McNeil to his private hospital where the proper medical attention was given; after remaining over night at the hospital the patient was able to be taken to her own home on Friday, her sister Mrs. Campbell, coming out from Peterborough to stay with her.

Recovery is assured and there will probably be no serious after effects of the accident, though convalescence may proceed slowly.

About $25,000,000 is now in circulation and in banks of Great Britain.

Wedding Bells

EASON—MANLEY.

A pretty wedding took place at Knox manse on Wednesday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, when Miss Rose Ella Manley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manley, of Otonabee, was united in marriage to Leonard Daniel Eason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Eason, also of Otonabee.

The bride looked charming in a becoming frock of coral georgette, with hat to match. Her shoes were of black patent, and she carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bride was attended by Miss Mae Eason, sister of the groom, wearing a frock of mauve georgette, with hat to match, and carrying a bouquet of roses. Mr. Charles Manley, brother of the bride, supported the groom.

The gift to the bridesmaid was a string of pearls, to the groomsman a pair of cuff links, and to the bride a cheque.

Mr. and Mrs. Eason left on the 3.30 train for Toronto, Niagara, and points west, the bride travelling in a rose ensemble, with hat to match. On their return they will reside in Peterborough.

REYNOLDS—COPE.

A quiet but pretty wedding took Ont., on Wednesday, May 9, when Rev. Dr. Hallam united in the holy bonds of matrimony Bertha Ellen Cope, second youngest daughter of Mrs. Catherine Cope and the late James Cope, of Humberstone, to Mr. Joseph Reynolds, only son of Mrs. Mary Reynolds and the late John Reynolds, of Peterborough, Ont. The bride, who was unattended, looked charming in a lovely gown of light shade rosewood silk canton crepe trimmed with gold, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations and ferns tied with long streamers. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the afternoon train for Welland, where they were met by a host of friends and relatives amid a shower of confetti and good wishes, when they journeyed to the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osten, where a reception was held and a sumptuous dinner served to about thirty-five guests. The dining-room was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers, daffodils and hyacinths. The presents received were costly and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds left later on an extended trip to Cayuga, Toronto, and other points, and on their return will reside in Peterborough.

Obituary

EX-MAYOR CHARLES NEWMAN

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 19. Canadian Press. — Former Mayor Charles Newman, aged 62, died at his home here to-day.

MRS. MARY GILLOTT.

MILLBROOK, May 19. — In the death of Mrs. Thomas Gillott, which occurred here this morning, May 19, 1928, the village of Millbrook lost its oldest resident and one of its most highly esteemed residents. She was in her 94th year, and had lived here for over seventy years.

The late Mrs. Gillott was born in Hope Township, her maiden name being Elizabeth Edwards. She was a life-long Presbyterian. With her husband she celebrated her golden wedding in November of 1903, though Mr. Edwards passed away five years later. On April 17 of this year Mrs. Gillott observed her 93rd birthday.

Left to mourn are one son, W. J. E. Gillott, furniture dealer and undertaker, of this place, and one brother, John Edwards, aged 88 years, who resides at Mitchell, in Huron County.

The funeral will be held from her late residence on Monday, May 21, at two o'clock. Interment will be in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Millbrook.

ELIZA ANN JOHNSTON.

After an illness of nine days, Eliza Ann Johnston, for four years a resident of this city, passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Hall, 577 Bethune street, on Thursday, May 17, at the age of 51 years. She was born in Cavan, the daughter of Jonathan McKnight and Jane Forsythe, and leaves to mourn her passing a son, Emery Johnston, of 50 Tona avenue, Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Howard Hall, 577 Bethune street, Peterborough; a brother, F. W. McKnight of Toronto, and three sisters, Mrs. Norman Yoe, of Port Hope, Mrs. Thomas Wilson of Manvers Township, and Mrs. George Southgate of Toronto.

Deceased, while in Peterborough, attended Knox United Church. The Rev. William McDonald, pastor of that church, conducted the funeral service (private), at 1:30 p.m., on Saturday, May 19, at 577 Bethune street, and at Bailieboro cemetery.

GEORGE W. JOHNSTON.

The funeral of the late George W. Johnston took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, at 528 Weller street, to the Little Lake Cemetery. The services, which were largely attended were conducted by the Rev. D. Wren of Trinity United Church.

Pall-bearers were Messrs. George Adams, Thomas Dayman and William Hutchinson of Lindsay, W. Stocker, R. J. Soden and James Lillico of Peterborough.

Survivors are his sorrowing wife, who is a sister of the late Hon. G. A. Cox and the late Aaron Cox, and was formerly Miss Mary Cox of Colborne, three sons, Sidney of Lindsay, Edward of Winnipeg and Harry of Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. A. Thorburn of Victoria Harbor.

MRS. MARY BLACK

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Black was held this morning from the Sacred Heart Church. Solemn High Mass in the presence of the Bishop was sung by her son, the Rev. Harry Black assisted by Rev. Father Finn as deacon and Rev. Father Carrol as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Butler and Father Gillogly were assistants to the Bishop. The pupils of the Sacred Heart school sang the hymn before and after Mass, and the music of the Mass was sung by the pupils of St. Peter's High School. Right Rev. Monsignor McCall, V.G., preached, using for his text: 'It is a' holy and wholesome thought to pray for dead that they may be loosed from their sins."

Among those present in the sanctuary were His Lordship Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Brien, Rt. Rev. Msgr. McColl, V.G., Lindsay; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Kelly, Cobourg; Rev. Father McGuire, St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough; Rev. Dean O'Sullivan Port Hope; Rev. J. J. O'Brien and Rev. C. Moloney, Sacred Heart Parish, Peterboro; Rev. Fathers Costello, K. Corkery, and G. Maher St. Peter's Cathedral, Rev. Father J. Macauley, Ennismore; Father Garvey, Lakefield; Father J. Ferguson, Warkworth; Father McCarthy, Norwood; Father Gillogly Kinmount, and Rev. J. McGuire of Hastings.

New York Exchanges Close Again To-day

NEW YORK, May 19. — (Canadian Press).—New York Stock Exchange and the New York Curb Market were closed to-day for the fifth Saturday this year to give brokerage houses another opportunity to catch up with the heavy congestion of work resulting from the recent series of 4,000,000 share markets.

Steel Production High In Canada Just Now

TORONTO, May 19.—In a summary of the iron, steel and machinery markets, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News makes the following comment this week:

So far as production and turnover are concerned the steel industry is more active to-day than has been the case for a long time. Price are not quite so satisfactory, because a strong competition both in Canada and against United States and European imports.

Consumption of practically all lines of iron and steel is high. The physical volume of business, according to the monthly review of the Bureau of Statistics, is mounting steadily, and is considerably over last year's mark. Employment, while showing season decline in some industries, is on a high level in iron and steel plants, both producing and consuming.

The automotive industry is working at full measure, except in the case of the Ford plant, and reports are to the effect that Ford will soon swing into large-scale production. The considerable number of plants producing parts and accessories are very busy, and some annouhce extensions to plants and establishment of new factories.

Railroads are buying considerable material. The Pointe St. Charles shops at Montreal are well under way and, apart from the cost of construction, a huge sum will be spent in Equipping the shops. The T. H. & B. railway are investing, it is reported, a million and a half dollars on new shops.

Construction industry is breaking all records. Hotels, stations, office buildings, apartments, all large consumers of iron and steel, are being built or planned in every city.

The Algoma Steel Corporation expects to spend $12,000,000 within the next two or three years on extensions, according to Robert Dodd, president of Lake Superior Corporation, involving the construction of three new industries at Sault Ste. Marie, the conversion of Michipicoten Harbor into probably the greatest coal distributing port on the continent, by the building of huge coal docks from which coal coming by water could be distributed east and west, and the building of a smelter at Michipicoten. The new mills to be built are a benzol plant, a skelp plant and a sheet plant.

Prices are unchanged, although they are in many cases only nominal, with competition forcing consideration of every sale.

Rains in Wheat Area Result in Downturn.

CHICAGO, May 19 (Canadian Press). — Rains in the winter wheat territory south-west tended to ease wheat prices down to-day in early dealings. Word of a nine to twelve per cent. increase of spring wheat acreage in Canada was also a bearish factor. Opening unchanged to ½c lower, wheat afterward showed material setbacks all around. Corn, oats, and provisions were likewise easier, with corn starting ½c to ¼c off, and later continuing to sag.

Opening prices were: Wheat, May, 147¼; July, 149⅝. Corn, May 102¼, July 106¼. Oats, May 63½, July 58⅛.

SUSTAINS STROKE.

Alexander Watson, 70, Who Lives Alone at Millbrook, Is Taken Ill.

MILLBROOK, May 19.—Alexander Watson, 70 years of age, who lives alone, had a slight stroke at his home, Anne street, on Thursday evening.

Dr. H. A. Turner is the physician in charge, and the patient is doin as well as could be expected. Mr. Watson's brother and his wife have arrived and are looking after the home and the sick relative.

"YOU CAN BUY A BIGGER CAR BUT NOT A BETTER ONE"

THE success of the new Oldsmobile is easy to understand when you know why this new six was created and how it was perfected.

It was created specifically for those whose preference is for a truly fine automobile. It was developed to standards of quality, style and value that made no compromise with price. It was proved by over a million miles of relentless testing. And from the day of its announcement, this Oldsmobile has enjoyed a rapidly growing recognition as the fine car of low price.

Its new high compression engine — embodying the most advanced features of design — provides true fine car smoothness, snap and speed. Its insulated chassis and silenced interiors create true fine car environment. Its modish Fisher bodies reveal a new expression of fine car beauty; while such features as Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers and radiator shutters contribute the final touches of fine car luxury.

Naturally, all this in a car selling for $1,165 has kindled genuine enthusiasm among car buyers of taste and discrimination. They have inspected it — driven critically—and said, "You can buy a bigger car, but not a better one!"

One Automobile That Says:

"I am Somebody—I'm Going Somewhere"

THOUSANDS of cars roam the streets. Some claim to go very fast, some tolerably fast. Some get by on nickel plate. Many sell on price alone.

But Reo builds the Wolverine to be a different kind of an automobile.

Builds it to say, "I am somebody—I'm going somewhere." And Reo makes the Wolverine mean just what it says.

Reo gives it a heavier chassis—the most expensive brakes in the industry—a motor that compares with those in many more expensive cars—trim bodies and comfort.

In short, Reo builds the Wolverine for people who want a car that really looks like something, acts like something, gets somewhere—

That's the Reo Wolverine. Meet one today in any Reo showroom. Ask it to tell the entire story with you behind the wheel. You'll be surprised.

HEALTH BRINGS BEAUTY.

Many people consider themselves as being "unfortunately" not beautiful. Have they ever considered the fact that many of them would be much easier on the eyes if they had received the best dietetic and cultural care when they were children?

Any disease if long continued will result in ugliness. Any case of long continued malnutrition, improperly balanced feeding, or gluttony will destroy the proportions of our figures that are supposed to be modeled after the image of God.

If one were describing the symptoms of ugliness, he would be describing disease symptoms as well. It would be impossible to imagine Hercules afflicted with tuberculosis, Diana with gout, Apollo with biliousness, or Juno with mucous colitis. Just imagine Robin Hood running off with his fair maid Marion if she had weighed two hundred and sixty-five pounds!

The alterations produced by disease are so pronounced that any competent diagnostician can distinguish a healthy person from a sick one simply by the general appearance. In many cases it is even possible to recognize the principle disease with just a general inspection.

I know that many of the conditions under which we live are not conducive to beauty. One who sits at a desk all day certainly has some disadvantage physically compared with the legendary golden age when all that was necessary was playing leap frog under the trees from which luscious and nourishing fruits fell just when one was ready to eat them.

I believe that our civilization is an improvement over any past age within history. I would rather have an automobile and a radio, a home with hot and cold running water, electric lights and convenient sewage disposal than to live in a palace with the filth and ignorance of the middle ages. We have not reached perfection, and we can always look forward to better things.

One of the drawbacks of a civilized community is that it tends to specialization. An individual must be able to do something uncommonly well or he is very likely to be dragged into the mire of failure. This specializing permits us to use some muscles but neglect others. We may be compelled to occupy a limited number of positions during many hours. This interferes with our health and beauty unless we take special care of our exercise and play.

Each person should develop a hobby that will correct his one-sided work. If he will also eat a correctly balanced diet, such as I outline in my weekly newspaper articles, he may preserve his health and figure for many years longer than the average.

If you wish to avoid physical and mental decay, you should make yourself a specialist in health producing habits.

I am sometimes astounded to observe the remarkable changes that patients undergo while following the right diet exercise and hygienic methods. Many of them blossom out into astounding beauties, even in cases that looked exceedingly hopeless in the beginning. A small thorax will enlarge to normal if one practises deep breathing several times daily. Though your back be crooked, you can improve it by the right kind of exercises.

Don't think this is hopeless with yourself. Everyone is capable of improvement unless he is at death's door. So throw out your chest and pull your head back and resolve to day by day become better and better. The time to start is NOW!

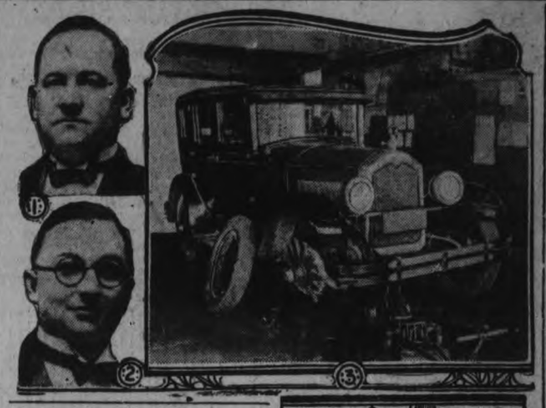
Questions and Answers.

Question—J. K. writes: "I have what the doctors call a gastric stomach. Was all right till two months ago. Was told to eat soft foods. Have been doing that but still suffer from the gas which comes up about two hours after eating. No pain; except that it bothers my heart. The gas will move up and down, and I have to sip hot water to get relief."

Answer—The word "gastric" means stomach, so you were apparently mistaken about what the doctor said. He doubtless said you were suffering from gastritis which means inflammation of the stomach, as your symptoms seem to indicate that this is your trouble. Nothing could be worse for you than to take the "soft foods." The irritation in your stomach is not produced by foods which are too coarse, but rather by an overamount of hydrochloric acid in the gastric juice. The "soft" diet given for gastritis actually produces more trouble and is exactly the wrong diet for you to take. Leave out sugars and starches and balance your meals properly if you wish to get rid of excessive gas and stomach irritation. Drink a large amount of water between meals to keep the digestive fluids diluted until they naturally reduce in quantity because of your change to a correct diet.

Question—Mrs. John B. asks: "Will you please explain through the health column what is meant by 'dextrinized' food?"

Answer—Dextrinized food is that which has been thoroughly toasted or browned all the way through, thus changing any starch that particular food may have into what is called dextrin. In this form the digestive organs are saved much work, as the dextrinizing process prepares the food for immediate assimilation. When the starch itself is eaten, it must be converted into a substance similar to dextrin before it can be assimilated.



Public feeling is running high at Niagara Falls, N.Y., following the shooting of Jacob Hansoi, who was wounded by two United States coast guardsmen near Lewiston, N.Y., on the same road where it is said 500 shots have been heard in the past eight weeks. The city council has passed a resolution condemning the practice of searching autos at will for liquor, and members declare at least three autos were fired on by guards. Glen Jennings and Chris Dew, before they hit Hanson. The men have been surrendered to federal official. In the illustration above (No. 1) is the victim, J. D. Hanson; (No. 2) is James Franklin, exalted ruler of Niagara Elks, who has sworn out a warrant for the two coast guards; (No. 3) shows the car where a bullent went through the windshied, wounding Hanson, and (No. 4) is a map of the district where the shooting took place.

PLANS SOLO FLIGHT.

A solo flight from Manhattan to Berlin is the project of Commander R. De Barros, commander-in-chief of the Brazilian air force, who paid a brief visit to Toronto recently. He intends to make the attempt during July in a single-motored monoplane of his own design.

Cavan

CAVAN, May 19.—Mrs. Norman Lamb was called to Daventry on Tuesday owing to the illness of her daughter, Mrs. W. White.

Lawrence Kellett and Bowen motored from Oshawa on Saturday and were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. James Paul.

Mrs. C. Carr and son Ross were visitors to Toronto during the week-end.

Mrs. Touchburne returned to her home in Cavan on Sunday after a prolonged visit in Hamilton. Her daughter, Mrs. Woodhall, Dr. Woodhall and two sons motored down with her.

Mr. Gordon Reynolds of Toronto spent the week-end in Cavan.

The Misses Belva and Rita Ruth of Peterborough, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. James Paul.

Col. O'Dell, P.S.I., paid an official visit to S.S. No. 7 on Tuesday.

The Galbraith farm has been rented in two parts. The north parcel of land to Mr. Harry Smith for pasture, and the southern portion to Mr. Graham. The use of the north part for pasture will necessitate the closing of the gate, and that will mean no road in to Dranoel station. The C.P.R. has never purchased a road for the use of the public, having just made use of the driveway through the farm.

Mrs. R. Vance of Franklin and Mrs. Earchman visited their sister Mrs. E. Fallis on Thursday and attended the Institute meeting in Cavan Community Hall.

Mr. Harry Bigelow has finished his spring seeding.

In Cavan Centre the majority of farmers will finish this week. Mr. R. Staples and Mr. R. Matchett have finished. Some have commenced to prepare their root ground.

TREE-PLANTING ON PRAIRIES

The tree-planting policy of the Department of the Interior which has been in effect for upwards of twenty years, has done a very great deal to improve the conditions of farm life on the prairies of Western Canada. Many thousands of homes have been made more beautiful and more comfortable and the farms more productive by the splendid plantations which have been established.

Ennismore

ENNISMORE, May 19.—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Donohue and family motored from Toronto and spent the week-end with the latter's mother, Mrs. M. Cadigan.

The many friends of Mr. Edgar Kearns will be pleased to learn that he is home from the hospital and is progressing favorably.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cadigan and Mr. Gerald Cavanagh attended the play in Downeyville.

The burial of the dead was held here on Friday of last week, when requiem High Mass was said by the Rev. Father McAuley, and afterwards the bodies which were in the vault during the winter months, were buried.

"They're very beautiful dolls, ma'am," said Paxton, picking up one and examining its costume.

"Yes, and they have that wonderfully human look, that only these real French dolls have. Why, that one looks like—well, I can't think who it is, but she looks just like some one I know. Now, Mr. Jepson, don't wait for any sort of preliminaries. Just sit down there at that table and tell me what you propose to do."

The detective had never before been up against a proposition of this sort, but he realized not only that it was necessary for him to obey orders, but that this strange woman might be of real benefit to him in his investigations.

"I don't believe, Miss Folsom, that you quite understand how soon it is to expect any real work to be done yet. You see, the inquest has not yet been held."

"No. When will that be done?"

"I don't know—"

"Oh, you don't? Then I will tell you. It will be held tomorrow afternoon. It would be tomorrow morning, but it will not be possible to get the witnesses together by that time. But tonight, as soon as you leave me, you will get posters printed and have them up by sunrise, all over this part of the beach and boardwalk. They will summon to the inquest every one in Ocean Town who can give the slightest bit of information or evidence concerning the death of Garrett Folsom."

And, after a short but intensive session, Jepson departed to carry out the lady's orders.

* * *

As somebody or other has pithily said, the way to do some things is to do them.

This was the dogmatic belief of Anastasia Folsom, and on this principle, to her way of thinking, hung all the law and the prophets.

So, she brought it about that when the guests of the Hotel Majusaca opened their eyes the next morning, they were greeted by the sight of an envelope stuck under their bedroom door.

The message was to the effect that anyone knowing personally the late Garrett Folsom, or anyone knowing any fact that bore upon his tragic death, must immediately communicate with the management of the hotel.

In the minds of most of the readers of this notification, there was aroused only curiosity and the sort of excited interest that the news of a murder usually stirs up.

Yet there were many who felt themselves called upon to respond to the summons.

Some, to be sure, were merely urged to such a course by a morbid desire to mix into the matter. Some from a pride that lured them to the limelight under any pretense. And some felt conscientiously bound to tell what they knew in the cause of right and justice.

Wherefore a goodly number of the hotel's guests presented themselves at the desk, and were directed to Room J, where they were met by Mr. Pelham himself.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

Death strikes Garrett Folsom while bathing with a party at Ocean Town, N. J. At the Hotel Majusaca, where they had been guests, an inquiry is begun, after a doctor, perfunctorily examining him on the beach, pronounces him dead.

Folsom's companions had been Roger Neville, Mrs. Helen Barnaby and Carmelita Valdon. It is established that Folsom, just before his death, had been standing next to Ned Barron, known as the copper king.

Folsom's sister, Anastasia, is sent for in New York. Then the startling announcement is made that Folsom had been stabbed to death in the water. Ross his valet, is questioned, as are Barron and his wife, but no light is shed on the mystery.

Anastasia, an eccentric, masterful woman, arrives. She lets everyone understand, even Jepson, a detective, that she is in full command of the investigation.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XII

A slight warning glance from Roger Neville was caught by Jepson's quick eye and, understanding, he agreed tacitly with the speaker and said:

"Very well, Miss Folsom, we will put it that way, then."

"We will. But you wouldn't have agreed so easily if Mr. Neville hadn't given you the wink. Now, you may as well understand, once for all, Mr. Jepson, that I am at the head of this whole affair. I am the one who has lost a dear relative; I am the one who is investigating his death, and it is to me that you are to report and from me you are to take instructions. I suppose until I came, Mr. Neville was by way of being in charge, but that is so no longer. Now, Mr. Neville, though my friend and my brother's friend, has no authority of any sort and is not to be consulted in any way."

Whatever he may have felt at this exceedingly straightforward speech, Roger Neville said no word, merely shrugging his shoulders and nodding as if in acquiescence.

"My heavens!" exclaimed the Duchess, who was outspoken herself, "I should think you'd be glad of help, Miss Folsom. And Mr. Neville was your brother's confidential friend, I know. Why do you flout him like that?"

Anastasia turned on her and seemed about to launch forth another angry speech. Then, with a sudden smile that transfigured her homely face and made it almost attractive, she said:

"I'm running this, Duchess, dear. Don't butt in!"

"Now, tell me, Miss Folsom," Jepson began, fearing he was losing his whip hand of the situation, "is there any one—any one in the world, whom you would suspect of having any motive for wishing your brother's death?"

"Many," she said, looking at him, squarely. "My brother was a man of wide and varied interests. He was a man of independent nature and strong will. He usually got whatever he wanted, irrespective of obstacles that stood or seemed to stand in his way. In these proceedings he not infrequently made enemies, or at least severed friendships and caused ill feeling, even hatred, on the part of those who had once liked him. I tell you this, frankly, that you may know what manner of man he was. But I never thought that any of these enemies he made were so desperately angry with him as to kill him! Yet that has come about, and so, as I said, it is now my life work to seek out that murderer and hang him."

Though speaking positively, Miss Folsom's voice was controlled and her manner quiet. Her rage seemed to have spent itself, and when she announced her intention of avenging her brother's death, she looked like a great and majestic goddess of fate, and her eyes, no longer snapping with anger, were somber and deep with intensity of purpose and righteous wrath.

"You are quite right, Miss Folsom," Jepson said, a little awed by this strange person, but endeavoring not to show it. "I am told," he went on, "that you wish to occupy your brother's rooms—"

"I do," she said, "and I'd like to go there at once. We are doing nothing here, of course, and I want to get started."

"Tonight?"

"Certainly tonight. Police don't go to bed at curfew, do they? If you please, Mr. Jepson, we will go to the rooms at once, and then we can get a real start."

Already Miss Folsom had risen, and was picking up her hat and putting it on.

"Come, Paxton," she said, "bring the things that are here, and you can call the porters to bring up the rest. Good night, Duchess; good night, Carmelita. Roger Neville, I thank you for what you have already done for my brother and for me and I excuse you from further responsibility. No, thank you, I need no other escort than Mr. Jepson and my maid."

Majestically, she stalked out of the door, and the trio disappeared down the hall toward the elevator.

"My word!" exclaimed the Duchess, "isn't she a caution?"

"I told you so," Carmelita said, as she lighted a cigaret. "Clear out, Roger, I'm done up, and we're going to bed."

"All right, Carmy. Good night. But—I don't like it."

"Neither do I," said Carmelita Valdon.

The three who entered the suite of the late Garrett Folsom were struck with the attractiveness of the rooms.

"What charming atmosphere!" exclaimed Miss Anastasia. "But it's easily seen why. There are lots of Garry's personal belongings about. And flowers and oh, my goodness! Look at the dolls!"

There were several of the quaint and curious French dolls, so much affected by smart society people.

These dolls were not entirely a novelty to Miss Folsom, but they had never appealed to her strongly, and she had never owned any.

"Bless his heart!" she said, with feeling, "to think of Garry liking these

GIRL INJURED BY MOTOR CAR

Automobile Skids, Striking Vera Clark, Who Was Waiting For it to Pass.

TEETH KNOCKED OUT.

As the result of being struck by a motor car on Thursday afternoon while returning from school, Vera Clarke, 10 is suffering from severe bruises and several cut about the face and body. All her upper teeth have either been knocked out or have had to be removed since the accident.

The car is owned by W. H. Webb, Trenton. At the time of the accident there was another occupant with him, W. D. Peray of Kingston. The address left by the men was Toronto, but the police say that this has since been found incorrect by investigation of the license number.

At the time of the accident the roads were very slippery and frequent showers of rain had fallen during the day. Vera Clarke was returning from Connely's school and had stepped off the road to allow the car to pass. As nearly as can be ascertained, the car suddenly swerved, struck the girl and came to a stop against the fence beside the road. The accident happened shortly after four in the afternoon and just a few yards west of Clarke's corner on the Havelock road. Medical attention was immediately summoned.

W.M.S. SECRETARY TELLS OF MISSIONS

Miss Evelyn Mitchell Addresses Madoc United Church Ladies.

MADOC, May 19.—Miss Evelyn Mitchell, travelling Secretary for the W.M.S. of the United Church, was the speaker at the Wednesday evening service of Trinity Church in Madoc, May 16. Mrs. L. Ashley, president of Madoc W.M.S. presided, and introduced Miss Mitchell, who spoke fluently and earnestly on missions, those of the home land from personal touch, and those of the foreign field, from direct messages from the missionaries, and from the Board of Foreign Mission meetings.

"Lloyd George, when asked concerning foreign missions, she quoted, said, 'Foreign missions must succeed, or all else must fail.' The last commission of Jesus was, 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.' This is our charter, and any organization not living up to its charter, should forfeit that charter.

"We sing, 'Like a mighty army moves the Church of God,' but do we? There are so few really interested. We are satisfied with the drill, but how many fight, or go 'into all the world'."

She dwelt eloquently on the fruits of the missionary enterprise. For years there was very little return, but now—most wonderful.

In India, China, Japan, Korea, Africa, Trinidad, and Canada, all showing returns for the work of the missionaries.

The Day of Prayer in the Angola Church, Africa, the church was packed to the doors, and the Sunday school numbers over 3000 members, after only 40 years work.

In Korea, after 25 years' work, business places are closed for the day of prayer, and the meeting lasts from 5 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Miss Mitchel dwelt on the Northfield Conference and the urgent need for equipment, by all the workers.

Then she continued, we haven't sent to "all the world," as we should—now they are coming to us, this is our last chance, and theirs.

Then, dwelling on every phase of our home missions, she stressed the great work already done, the great need for more and larger work, and the great possibilities in the many peoples who have come to our door. She gave one instance of a girl trained by the missionaries, who now teaches five days of the week, organizes Sunday schools, and preaches every Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Rivers gave a beautiful recitation, "All For Jesus." After the collection a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Miss Mitchel on motion of Mrs. Rivers, and Mrs. Harrison.

OBITUARY

CAMPBELLFORD, May 19. — The funeral of the late Alexander James McCoy was held this morning from the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. H. Greig, Ranney street. The service was conducted by the Rev. Ernest Harston, and the remains were taken by train to Helverton, N.Y., for interment. Many beautiful floral designs attested the esteem in which the late Mr. McCoy was held. The pallbearers were J. C. Birmingham G. A. Ironsides, G. A. Kingston, Dr. O. C. Watson, F. W. Wood and Wesley Stephens.

The late Mr. McCoy was in his eighty-first year and for the past two years had resided with his daughter here. Born in Depeyster, N.Y., Mr. McCoy was educated to the legal profession, and was a graduate of Albany Law School. Owing to ill-health, however, he did not practice his profession. He was a member of the Masonic order and took a keen interest in politics in the United States. A staunch Republican, Mr. McCoy was very active in the interests of his party. For several years he held the position of Superintendent of the election board for his district. He was also interested in the affairs of his town and was a justice of the peace for many years till his health demanded that he resign the office. He was also an active and devoted churchman and a staunch believer in the Presbyterian faith.

His wife predeceased him about two years ago. He is survived by one son, Ralph, of Nutley, N. J., and one daughter, Mrs. E. H. Greig of Campbellford. They will accompany the remains to Henvelton, N.Y., where interment will take place unthe Masonic rites.

DEHYDRATION OF FRUITS

Experimental work carried on at the dehydrating plants of the Department of Agriculture at Penticton, British Columbia, and Grimsby, Ontario, has shown, according to a recent bulletin, that there is a good future for dried peaches made from good stock. Some varieties of peaches are excellent for dehydration, others fair, and some practically worthless. Dehydrating poor stock will always result in a loss.

NUMBER OF ROAD BUILDERS

The number of persons employed in road construction in Canada in 1926 reached a total of 26,071, and was greater than in any of the past seven years.

RESULTS OF FISH TAGGING EXPERIMENT

From 1913 to 1924 inclusive a percentage of the parent Atlantic salmon that were captured and stripped at the several retaining ponds and egg collecting points of the Dominion Department of Marine and Fisheries, in the Maritime Provinces, were marked by attaching a numbered silver tag to the dorsal fin. The marking was originally undertaken to obtain definite evidence to counteract the idea that existed in some quarters that there were two distinct races of Atlantic salmon in our eastern rivers, one of which entered the rivers in the spring, and the other in the autumn; that the progeny of the late run fish were always late run and vice versa; and that in some streams late fish were being propagated which were not as valuable as early fish. As over 70 per cent of the recaptures were 'late' fish recaptured as 'early' fish, the apprehension in question has subsided.

ANOTHER "TOL'ABLE DAVID" ROLE FOR RICHARD BARTHELMESS IN "LITTLE SHEPHERD OF KINGDOM COME" WHICH COMES TO THE CAPITOL ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

"Tol'able David" has been re-incarnated—reborn under the magic touch of Richard Barthelmess, who once again has created a barefoot boy, in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," the idyllic film-drama, the attraction at the Capitol Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

As Chad Burford, the Kentucky mountain lad, who dreamed of "the settlement's" books and grand persons, Dick Barthelmess has added another lovable and unforgettable portrait to his already brilliant gallery.

Throughout the last few years Barthelmess has grown to be more than a name or even a personality, merely incidental designations. He has become a symbol—Romance to Everygirl and Son to Everymother—the Man-boy. A very real Peter Pan, refusing to grow up. A mirror reflecting the boyhood days of Everyman.

Dick, they call him—all of them! And that's significant. It's boyish and yet manly. Only chums and buddies call a man named Richard by the more intimate and friendly Dick. Girls, too. It's irresistible.

There may be a reason for this aura of friendliness and warm intimacy. The realists and romanticists would have various and sundry reasons, but the simple fact is that Dick is a man-boy at heart. A man-boy in his outlook on life, his philosophy and dreams.

A man-boy who steals away from his make-believe world whenever he can and loses himself on his yacht at sea or traveling in strange countrysides. A man-boy who thinks young and lives young. A man-boy with man-reasoning and boy-irresponsibilities, whose moods are those of a boy of fourteen still dreaming of conquering worlds and whose love of life is that of a man of thirty, enjoying the full-grown fruits of experiences and values.

Dick Barthelmess as Chad Buford is a revelation, starting and breath-taking. It is uncanny that a man should be able to etch a delicate character such as Chad after the six-year interval since David.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" will long occupy the deepest recesses of the heart because Dick Barthelmess has given it flesh and blood and soul; because only the screen's man-boy could have imbued it with feeling and undestanding.

WOMAN IN THE HOME.

Household Cares Make Great Demands on the Health.

The work of the average woman in the home makes greater demands on her vitality than men realize, and there is always something more to do. When the breadwinner has finished the housewife begins anew. No wonder women's backs ache and their nerves are worn out. No wonder they get depressed and irritable, suffer from headaches and generally feel out of sorts. But of course all women are not like that—what is the difference?

A woman with plenty of healthy red blood in her veins finds work in her home easy. She asks for no pity; her vitality is at par. This points the way to health for others. Make new blood. You can do it with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills have the marvellous property of renewing the blood and toning up the nerves. Your improved appetite and digestion will show the effect of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Your fatigue and your backache, your headaches and depression will vanish. You will find new joy in living. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50c a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MUSICAL EVENING BY YOUNG PLAYERS

Pupils of Miss Lily Bacon Give Pleasing Piano Program.

A very enjoyable musical evening was held at the home of Miss Lily Bacon, 202 Edinburgh Street, last night, when a number of her piano pupils gave an interesting program, assisted by two vocal pupils of F. G. Mann, Mrs. L. Groombridge and Roy Pitchford, and by a violin pupil of Mrs. J. Foster, George Gatfield. A large number of friends were present and much applause was given the various numbers on the program. Refreshments were served later.

The program was as follows:

Piano solo, "In Spain," by Barbara Gray; piano solo, "At Evening," by Helen Starr; vocal solo, "Marcheta," and encore, "Just for Awhile," by Mrs. F. Groombridge; piano solo, "The Chatter," by Mary Terrace; violin solo, Borowski's "Adoration" and encore, "Farewell to Cucullain" (Londonderry Air), by George Gatfield; piano solo, "At the Masquerade," by Marion Wigg; vocal solo, "Early One Morning" and encore, "The Bailiff's Daughter of Islington," by Roy Pitchford; piano solo, "Little Emerald" and "L'Avalanche," Mabel Bacon; piano solo, arrangement of the hymn-anthem, "O Great First Cause," with music and words composed by F. G. Mann and F. M. DelaFosse, played by Arthur Bacon.

PROVINCIAL HELP FOR DAVIS CASE

Brockville Authorities Ask For Assignment of Detective To Case.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., May 19. — (Canadian Press). — The municipal authorities last night decided to request the Provincial police to assign a detective to investigate the disappearance on Tuesday last of Edward L. Davis, local insurance agent, all efforts to locate him since that time having proved unavailing. A search of surrounding country conducted yesterday afternoon by the police and citizens failed to reveal any trace of Davis.

FEDERAL DISTRICT FORMED.

MEXICO CITY, May 19.—(Canadian Press.)—The Senate last night passed General Obregon's proposals substituting a Federal district for the present elective government in Mexico City and the surrounding towns.

HOROSCOPE

The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate)

FOR SUNDAY, MAY 20, 1928.

Another day of conflicting planetary influences. According to astrology benefic aspects dominate.

Merchants should prosper at this time, but there will be more or less difficulty with employers, it is indicated.

All the signs appear to indicate for business a tendency toward wholesale co-operation. Chain stores and chain banks will multiply.

Newspapers and magazines continue under a promising rule that presages for the year increased demand for information.

Neptune is in a place believed to encourage corruption and intrigue in business as well as political affairs, the seers announce.

A London astrologer foretells for America a new political party which will disturb the plans of candidates for office.

Wind storms are foretold for the Atlantic coast and the Pacific coast also will experience unusual convulsions of nature.

Scandals will continue to be uncovered revealing corruption among government employes in various cities, the seers prophesy.

After the period of revelation regarding all the sordid things of life there will follow a time when aspiration toward the intellectual and spiritual will be prominent it is foretold.

Housing again is to occupy attention, especially in large cities, the seers predict. Flat-dwellers are to demand relief, if the stars are rightly interpreted.

Earthquakes in Mexico are prognosticated for the summer, when there will be much travel.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have difficulties galore if they indulge in lawsuits. The year should be successful.

Children born on this day probably will be gifted and versatile. The subjects of this rule usually have exceedingly strong characters.

FOR MONDAY, MAY 21, 1928.

Until late today the planetary government is most favorable according to astrology.

This should be a day pre-eminently favorable to planning and to making important decisions.

The rule is auspicious for college students who desire to choose vocations and for all who have a desire for change in their life work.

The sway is auspicious for making beginnings in business or in professional work.

Merchants will benefit from this rule of the stars which should encourage foresight and wise buying.

Changes in fashions foretold months ago will be definite in the autumn when dealers in women's wear will be wise to get rid of old stock.

New modes will add much to the attractiveness of women and to the cheerfulness of men's attire, it is prognosticated.

This is a first rate rule for those who have important dealing with banks. Loans may be possible under this direction of the stars which would not be entertained at other times.

Fame for newspaper correspondents is foretold, for the world is to offer opportunities to gather sensational information.

Newspapers are to prosper and they will introduce novel ideas in the transmission of press reports, the seers prophesy.

Vast enterprises that test the best engineering skill of the time are indicated by the stars.

Architects are to plan buildings more stupendous even than those of the past and all world achievements are to be outdone, it is announced.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the forecast of a favorable year, but speculation should be avoided.

Children born on this day probably will be charming in personality and of artistic trend. They may be too fond of romance for their own good.

Why We Do What We Do.

WHY WE HAVE HOBBIES

By Mehran K. Thomson, Ph.D.

(Author, The Springs of Human Action)

We work in order to accomplish something. We play for the sake of playing. Play is an end in itself, while work is a means to some other end. A hobby is the favorite form of play or diversion to which one devotes a great deal of time. Almost any activity may become a hobby for some one.

A real hobby is able to absorb the energies of the whole man for the time being and make him forget his work or his troubles. It is a most useful and convenient method of releasing the strain of living. It is said one of the chief hobbies of Abraham Lincoln was telling humorous stories.

We have hobbies, then, chiefly for relacation and flight from the sterner aspects of life. This relaxation and escape from reality is possible through hobbies because the mind is capable of harboring ideas, a practice or a mechanical function through the force of habit. We get used to certain situations and find pleasure in the recurrence of the experience.

Hobbies give us a sense of security because we feel at home in them. We usually select for a hobby the thing we can do best which adds to our confidence and self esteem. This serves to balance our lives. We revert to it as to an old friend from whom we derive comfort and cheer.

Hobby is a form of obsession. You might call an obsession the extreme form of practicing a hobby. A hobby is to be ridden on occasion. But when a man gets so attached to his pet theory or pastime that it becomes an obsession and he is no longer able to get back to the world of reality his hobby has carried him too far.

DRESS

By MARY MARSHALL

This wig hat from Le Monnier of Paris is made of hemp thread dyed black and varnished. The hemp is worked on a black net foundation to resemble a coiffure of close black ringlets.

Fashion at present seems to be running along in two distinct channels—channels that don't seem to be headed at all in the same direction. There are new frocks with scant, short skirts, scant and short in spite of the possible inch that has been added since last season. And there are the long, wide skirts that are as different as though they belonged to fashions of an entirely different century.

The question of head covering is just as confusing. Some women still go short haired, with apparently no intention of being anything else. And there are longhaired women—not long haired because they have not yet had the courage to have their hair cut or because they are conservative or old fashioned, but because they choose to consider short hair hopelessly old fashioned. On the one hand women anxious to take advantage of the softening effect of curls and softly rippling hair, and on the other women who feel that smartness depends on showing the natural contours of the head.

In the meantime the milliners must be having a distressing time of it—trying to provide hats for women who want to hide every spear of hair and women who want it all to show.

Some of the new hats really seem to have been made for an entirely hairless species of women because it is impossible to see where even a feather's weight of hair could be stowed. Take the little wig hats of the sort that Le Monnier and other French milliners have been making. They are wig hats not only because they fit the head as closely as a wig and are made like wigs on very light foundations but because they are covered with curls—curls not of hair, however, but of hemp thread or feathers or braid that takes on a singularly hair-like appearance.

To Enliven Flavour!

BECAUSE a little mustard adds tang and charm to almost any chafing-dish specialty, supper-party hostesses use it constantly. Next time you make a welsh rarebit or other late supper dish — remember the mustard!

WELSH RAREBIT

1 pound soft cheese, 2 tablespoons butter, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon Keen's Mustard, ¼ cupful milk, 1 tablespoon Worcester Sauce. Cook the cheese in a chafing dish; melt the butter before adding; put in the other ingredients, the milk last. When smooth and creamy serve on hot crackers or toasted bread.

LYRICS OF LIFE

A NEW WORD

Wake up tomorrow morning
A new word in your mind,
Wake up tomorrow morning
Determined to be kind.
A little smile of greeting,
Some friendly word you say,
Will make the man you're meeting
Feel better all the day.

Wake up tomorrow morning,
Man, woman, girl, or boy,
And make tomorrow morning
A thing of peace and joy.
For you can make your neighbors
Forget the hurts they had,
Can lighten all their labors,
And make the whole day glad.

Wake up tomorrow morning
And cheer the hearts of men,
And find tomorrow morning
It all comes back again.
Amid the sin, the blindness,
The sorrow, and the strife,
Oh, make a word of kindness
A new word in your life!

AMUNDSEN MARKED LENIN LAND, HE SAYS

Astonished That Nobile Failed To Sight It During Flight.

OSLO, Norway, May 19. —(Canadian Press). — The announcement that General Umberto Nobile in his flight in the Italia failed to sight Lenin Land was described by Raould Amundsen in an interview to-day as "astonishing."

The explorer said he had personally visited Lenin Land on an expedition and made his way to this island group with sleighs and had signal posts erected. The Italian airship must have passed the island in a fog, he declared.

"Then, doctor, it is all right to continue with the Nerve Food."

"Most certainly. It is evidently well suited to your wife's needs and she should use it regularly until fully restored."

"I wanted to be sure that you approved of this treatment."

"Well, we doctors realize how difficult it is to restore a run down nervous system and are only too glad to give credit to a medicine which produces such splendid results as does Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"Scarcely a week passes without some woman telling me of the benefits she has obtained from this treatment. Of course there are many men also benefitted, but they are not so likely to tell me about it."

If you are nervous, irritable and sleepless; if you get up tired in the mornings and do not feel equal to the daily task; if you have nervous headaches or neuritis, just remember that there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to renew nervous energy and vigor.

BISONS WIN OPENER 8-7 IN MONTREAL SERIES

LEAFS INCREASE LEAGUE LEAD

Toronto Club Defeats Red Wings 7-5 on Rochester Grounds.

ALEXANDER GETS HOMER.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 19. — (Canadian Press.)— Toronto made its first appearance of the season here yesterday and defeated the Rochester Red Wings 7 to 5 increasing its lead over Montreal and Rochester clubs. Alexander hit his ninth home run of the season, with Sheedy on base in the eighth inning. Sheedy also hit a circuit clout, the Leafs had extra base hits during the game.

Southworth featured with a diving catch in right field of a liner off Sexton's bat.

Bisons Take Opener.

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 19.—(Canadian Press.)—The terrific batting of Al Moore allowed the Buffalo Bisons to get a hairline decision over the Montreal Royals in the opening game of the series here yesterday by a score of 8 to 7. Moore went on a hitting spree with five safeties, including a home run in as many tries and his bat furnished the transportation for four of the Bison tallies. Hopkins' wildness paved the way to the winning Bison rally in the eighth. He walked the rst two batters to face him and both subsequently scored on Moore's single.

HUNSTANTON, England, May 18. —(Canadian Press.) — Nanette Le Blan, of France, won the women's golf championship of Great Britain to-day, defeating Miss Sylvia Marshall three up and two to play in the final 36 hole match.

The Woman Driver

I like to drive with Champion Spark Plugs because I know I'll not be annoyed with engine trouble due to faulty spark plugs.

Champion is the better spark plug because it has an exclusive sillimanite insulator specially treated to withstand the much higher temperatures of the modern high-compression engine. Also a new patented solid copper gasket-seal that remains absolutely gas-tight under high compression. Special analysis electrodes which assure a fixed spark-gap under all driving conditions.

The City Softball League will hold a meeting on Monday night in the Belmont Club rooms at 5.30 sharp.

The C.G.E., the Westclox with two other teams have made entries to the City Softball league; while it is considered likely that the combined staffs of the C.D.S.L. and Teco stores will enter a team. The executive has set an eight team loop as its objective for the operation of a successful league, and any of the local organizations who are considering upon entering a team are requested to send in their entry to Norman Lewis of the Post Office staff on or before Monday, May 21st, on which date the entry list closes.

Hardball has taken a great boost in Peterborough this summer; Senior Intermediate and Junior. Now, why not softball? With a league composed of teams from the following organizations and business houses of this city, Knights of Columbus, C.G.E., Westclox, Teco Stores, Lockworks, Knights of Pythias, De Laval, and Peterborough Canoe Co., much could be done to provide fun and outdoor recreation for all those who are not able to play hardball.

* * * * * *

Raybests and Crescents open the East Peterborough League schedule at the Exhibition grounds at 6 o'clock on Monday night and a great game is expected by baseball fans. Both teams have rounded up some snappy players and they ought to go big this year. The Intermediates have been practising hard for the past week, and on Monday night they should serve up a brand of ball that will draw big crowds for their next games.

The Lindsay boys will no doubt make a strong bid to carry off some of the honrs in the meet scheduled to be in their own home town next Thursday. Ralph Morden of Belleville is also coaching some boys for the meet. Faulkner and Bill Van Tassel are two of his entrants, the former will probably be seen in the half mile and the other fellow is training for the century parade. The local Y.M.C.A. will be strongly represented there, too; and Jack Pilling of the Canadian General Electric, is sending some of his runners to the tape.

* * * * * *

Doug. Brandon of the Lindsay relay team made a gallant effort to put his club in second place on Thursday night in the Y.M.C.A. Circus. Starting with a handicap of about a half a lap he struck a pace which brought him to within a few yards of his opponent at the tape. The strong fight put up by him to uphold the honor of his club was an outstanding event of the relay. Hector McLeod, although he had been performing almost steadily throughout the program, ran a great race and won his heat with a brilliant burst of speed.

PIRATES WIN FROM PHILLIES

Take 6-4 Victory in First Meeting of Two Clubs This Year.

ROBINS LOSE 7-6.

NEW YORK, May 19.—(Canadian Press.)— Pirates defeated Philadelphia at Pittsburgh yesterday six to four in the first meeting of the two clubs this year.

Kremer, after holding the Quakers to four safeties in eight innings, was relieved by Grimes in the ninth, with one out, two runners on bases and Williams at bat. Paul grabbed Williams' lines and Grimes threw out Sand to end the game.

Miller started for the Phillies but stepped aside for Walsh in the sixth. Baecht also had a turn on the mound.

The Reds put on a five run rally in the eighth inning at Cincinnati, and defeated Brooklyn in the second game of the series 7 to 6. Pid Purdy, pinch batsman, capped the rally with a triple which scored Critz with the ultimate winning run. Elliott was routed in this inning ,and relieved by Moss.

Babe Herman sent Brooklyn away to a good start in the opener when he hit into the right field bleachers with one on. Mays, Edwards and Kolp were pounded by Brooklyn before Jablonowski entered the game and halted the Robins.

Behind superb pitching by the veteran Artie Nehf, the Cubs forged the twelfth link in their winning streak by defeating the Boston Braves ,3 to 1, in the second game of the Chicago series.

Nehf allowed but five scattered hits, one of which was a home run, by Rogers Hornsby, who was the only Brave to pass first base.

Kiki Cuyler returned to the Cubs' line-up after several days' absence because of an injured hand, and poled a homer over the right field fence in the third inning with Maguire on base .The other Cub run came in the fourth inning when Beck sent Grimm home with a single.

TALC DEPOSITS OF MADOC

For over twenty years deposits of superfine white talc have been worked in the Madoc district, Hastings county, Ontario, which still leads in the output of talc produced in Canada. The Madoc talc is ground in local mills, and is used in the talcum powder, paper, textile, soap, and rubber industries.

Inside Sportin' Dope—By a Wise Cracker

Mister Sporting Editor:

Well, it won't be long now, Mac. Next Thurs. the Petes open the Central League season in Oshawa, and on Sat. of next week Mister Walter Gerow, Mister Peeney Mills and all them lads from Belleville will be along to see how good us and them is. Athough the crowd at the ball club show the other night looked like the best the boys could expect in new uniforms was a used set of B.V.D.'s each, anyway new togs will be worn by all and sundray for the big doings next week. The Belleville game will have the usual fuss and feathers for the opening, Mac, so the politicians and the civic rulers had better be getting their arms in shape and be ready to take part in the ceremonies. They won't be no speeches, except them that the crowd sez to the umpires, which will be snappy as usual, likely.

The Petes has been give a tough task to clash with them imported Oshawa Motors the 1st game of the season, but while the lads ain't in nothing like mid-summer form, they're hopeful that they'll be able to show the tourists on the Oshawa line-up that this league ain't all gravy. The old timers among the Motors know that, but the new birds is libel to imagoine that up in this neck of the woods they don't know nothing about baseball. Some of them is likely to get their eyes open before Labor Day, and mebbe the Petes will put over the 1st lesson next Thurs. when the lid is pried off. Serve them Oshawa birds right, too, sez I.

Meanwhile the bunion derbyists New Yorkward plough their weary way, Mac. They say people nowadays ain't built of the same stuff as the old boys used to be, but I'm here to say that them lads that has been plugging along over the highways for the last 10, 11 weeks ain't made of no soft material. If you think what they are doing is easy, just start out tomorrow morning and jog down to Port Hope, get up the next day and trot into Toronto, day after that move over to Hamilton, and keep that rate up for 3 mos., and see how you like it. And the worst of it is, that if the cash ain't forthcoming when the lads finish in N. Y. they'll be too footsore and weary to chase the promoter. It's a great race if they don't all weaken.

Just to change the subject, Mac, you may of heard a lotta folks say young players can't get no chance with the Peterborough ball club, but you can take it from that's what apples and water produce when they're boiled. This year the call went out for young players. Do you think many of them answered? Not what you'd notice. They're all sticking in slower company, refusing to try to fight for a position in the sr. loop. And I'll lay 6, 2 and even that most of them'll never get higher all their lives. The lad that makes good in baseball or anywhere else is the bird that sez, "Try and keep me off the team," and then gets out there and struts his stuff so effective that they ain't a chance in the world for him to oe kept off. But a guy that ain't got enough confidence in his own ability to be willing to battle for a place ain't got much chance of impressing the world. This year there's plenty of opportunity for young stuff to crash the gate into sr. company, but they don't seem to be a One-Eyed Connelly in the lot.

Well, Mac, see you out there next Sat.

Sportfully yours,

TITLE BOUT TO-MORROW.

Second Postponement Necessary Because of Wet Weather.

NEW YORK, May 18 (Canadian Press). — Tex Rickard announced to-day that Sammy Mandell will defend his lightweight championship against Jimmy McLarnin to-morrow night, weather permitting. The promoter was authorized by the Boxing Commission to again defer the bout on account of rain. Originally scheduled for last night, it was postponed until to-night when clouds gathered in the afternoon. The clouds were followed by hard rain to-day.

Dundee and Levine Suspended By Board

DETROIT, May 19. Canadian Press. — Joe Dundee, world's welterweight, champion, and George Levine of Brooklyn, who were ordered out of the ring in the ninth round of their bout here on Thursday night and the fight called "no contest," were placed under indefinite suspension by the Michigan State Athletic Board of Control yesterday.

RAIN FORCES SECOND DELAY

Scrappers Will Have to Weigh in Again This Afternoon.

HARD ON MANDELL

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 19. — (A.P.)— The weatherman frowned again yesterday on Tex Rickard and forced the promoter to postpone until to-night the fifteen round lightweight championship bout between Jimmy McLarnin, of Vancouver, B. C., and Sammy Mandell, title-holder, at the Polo Grounds.

Whereas murky skies and threat of rain called the first halt on the festivities, scheduled originally for Thursday night, a thorough-going downpour halted the party yesterday. If the storm continues through to-day ,the match will be set back until Monda ynight.

Under the rules of the New York State Athletic Commission, the second postponement will force the boxers to weigh in again this afternoon at 2 p.m. Mandell had difficulty making the weight Thursday when he scaled several ounces over the 135 pound limit, but succeeded in removing the extra weight after a 15 minute workout. McLarnin weighed 134½.

Both fighters worked strenuously yesterday to keep within the class limit. McLarnin shadow-boxed, skipped rope and punched the bags for nine rounds ,while the titleholder exercised the equivalent of eleven rounds, manager of the youngesters declared that both will be within the poundage to-day.

WOODBINE TRACK IS MUDDY TO-DAY

Heavy Rains Threaten To Spoil Historic King's Plate To-morrow.

TORONTO, Ont., May 18 (Canadian Press). — Heavy rains in the past twenty-four hours have made the track at Woodbine Park very heavy, and unless the weather remains fine until to-morrow afternoon, conditions will be poor for the sixty-ninth running of the King's Plate, classic of the Canadian turf. The racing strip should dry out in twenty-four hours, but to-day there was a threat of more rain.

Coriditions naturally affected the betting to some extent, but Trainer W. H. Bringloe, of the Seagram Stable, contends that Young Kitty, the favorite, is well suited to the muddy track.

certainty that the spectators will scream in merriment. Pangborn has many admirers and he will vastly increase his popularity by his work in this screaming farce.

Even Thrills are Present.

Did you ever see Marie Prevost in a bathing suit? Well, she gallops through one hilarious sequence in "The Girl in the Pullman" wearing a brief but becoming swimming suit—and she gets it wet.

Can you imagine the complications that would arise from a honeymoon, chaperoned by a mother-in-law, an ex-wife and an ex-suitor? And all in the same Pullman?

And what a blood-chilling thrill is in store for picture fans when a runaway Pullman goes careening down a grapevine grade—with its passengers oblivious of their danger.

Fashion stuff the flappers will gasp at when they see Marie's trim figure, encased in everything from a daring bathing-suit to a pair of knock-'em-dead pajamas. And Kathryn McGuire running the gamut of garments!

Variety in Backgrounds.

There is plenty of variety in the backgrounds—a doctor's office—a swimming pool—a hotel lobby—a railroad train—and a Pullman car.

The secondary characters provide many laughs, especially the Pullman porter and the befuddled, convivial passenger among others.

A flannel night shirt plays a prominent part as a laugh-getter—circumstantial evidence; when found on the arm of the bridegroom in another girl's compartment.

All in all, "The Girl in the Pullman" is said to be fine entertainment—just the sort you'll enjoy to the full.

AT THE GRAND.

"BUBBLING OVER"

The Dumbells, minus Captain Plunkett himself, are back with us again in their spring time revue, "Bubbling Over," which was welcomed by a large audience at the Grand last night. While it would not be accurate to describe this particular presentation as the best the Dumbells have provided, it is a lively and bright performance done in the Dumbells' happy style, and "bubbling over with merriment and music. As usual it is handsomely staged and the lighting effects are above the average.

Every theatre-goer has his favorites in a Dumbell production, one reason why the Plunkett revues remain so consistently popular. The writer finds his choice varying from season to season but in the current offering has no difficulty in naming Fred Emmey as the bright star of the present Dumbell constellation, and would be inclined to give second honors to Glen Allan, whose dancing develops new artistry with the passing seasons.

Emmey, whose "silly ass" Englishman characterization, is delicious fooling, was responsible for most of the real hearty laughs of last night's performance. Ably assisted by Charlie Jeeves, who was a smooth-working "straight," Emmey's contributions to the comedy earned rich returns, and when he cut loose at the piano in the studio scene, in the second act, the big comedian made a tremendous hit. Emmey is a real asset, to the Dumbells, and his absence from the present revue would be disastrous.

Glen Allan's two dances, in which Morley Plunkett was of great assistance, were most successfully executed. Here is an artist who could easily make good on his own.

All the old favorites, and several not so long with the Dumbells, were given frequent opportunities to shine and accepted all their chances without an error. Al. Plunkett handicapped by a heavy cold, was obviously singing under difficulties, but successfully put several numbers across. Ross Hamilton, as "Marjorie," showed some gowns that made the feminine portion of the audience gasp with envy. "Red" Newman revived "A Farmer's Boy" in association with Pat Rafferty, with splendid success, and his new numbers, "Getting things by Degrees," and an "Old Bill" song, were enjoyed. Pat Rafferty had the catchiest song in the revue, "Him as 'As," and scored, as always, while his fun-making was as effective as ever. Jack McClellan won laurels by his clear cut comedy methods. Morley Plunkett was a host of strength. Jack Holland contributes a little bit of pathos, as well as plenty of fun, and Howard Fogg was as pleasing as always in his violin numbers. Two very pleasing vocalists, Cameron Geddes, a basso of wonderful range, and Harry Binns, a sweet-voiced tenor, made their numbers among the outstanding features.

"Bubbling Over" will be repeated at the Grand to-night and doubtless will attract a capacity audience.

Get this valuable book, "Heat and Health with Warm Air." Ask also for the Findlay Service Chart which aids you to draw an exact plan of your house. From this we will figure out—without obligation—the cost of a Findlay Warm Air Heating System—in your home.

This book-and the FINDLAY CHART—is worth dollars in your pocket

HOME OWNERS and home builders who heat with warm air have combined comfort with HEALTH—for Warm Air Heating is the only means by which humidity, air circulation and temperature can be maintained.

Findlay Warm Air Heating Systems—based on a furnace built on scientific principles—are guaranteed. They are the only real bonded systems offered.

It is not the actual guarantee which is so vitally important to you—it is the fact that the performance of the flawless Findlay makes this guarantee possible. $35.00 puts this furnace in your house, balance paid on easy terms. Instal in the summer and have it paid for before coal bills come in.

THEATRES

AT THE REGENT.

Laughs, chuckles; grins, smiles, thrills—these are the main ingredients of Marie Previst's new star comedy, "The Girl in the Pullman," which will have its premier showing at the Regent Theatre on Monday next. Harrison Ford, Kathryn McGuire, Franklin Pangborn and Harry Myers are featured in one of the most brilliant farce comedies of the season.

From the opening scene of "The Girl in the Pullman," laughs abound. The fun begins when Dr. Burton, a nerve specialist, played by Mr. Ford, practices his art on a ticklish patient whose nerves are all shot to pieces. Then the spectator is carried to a hotel lobby where seventy pairs of feminine legs are on display. It is safe to say that these silk-encased pedal extremities will create a sensation at every showing, but purely from the standpoint of physical art. There isn't a single shot in this scene to which the slightest exception may be taken by the most Puritanical mind.

Pangborn in Great Scene.

Franklin Pangborn, the comedian, has a strong part in the rendition of which he is obliged to utilize a steam cabinet with amazing results. His clothes are across the room and there are many women in the offing, and when he decides to possess himself of his raiment at any cost, it is a

BOY'S BODY FOUND IN MASSENA CANAL

MASSENA, N. Y., May 19. —(Canadian Press). — Body of small boy whose description checked in many details with that of the boy missing from Iroquois, Ontario, was taken from the canal here last night. The child is between three and four years old and had met death, according to the coroner's report by drowing several days ago.

Donnie Montpetit has been sought by the Canadian Police since his disappearance from Iroquois on April 27. Police have been conducting a search for a band of gypsies which was near the Montpetit home at the time the boy disappeared.

RIVERS FALLING.

Mississaugi and Spanish River Flood Drop Several Feet.

SAULT STE. MARIE, May 18. — (Canadian Press.) — The water in Mississaugi and Spanish rivers has been lowering in the last few days. The Mississaugi, which was in places almost nineteen feet above normal, has dropped three feet and after being closed for two weeks by floods, the trunk road is open for motor cars between Iron Bridge and Dean Lake. Between the latter place and Blind River, however, the road is still impassable.

McMURRAY WILL COME ON TUESDAY

Advises Immigration Probe That He Will Reach Ottawa Next Week.

OTTAWA May 18.—Canadian Press —Canadian Press. — Hon. E. J. McMurray, former Solicitor General for Canada, will definitely appear before the Parliamentary Immigration Inquiry on Tuesday morning. Telegraphic advice from Mr. McMurray, that he had postponed an important legal trial to be present in Ottawa on that date was read at this morning's sitting of the inquiry.

SHIPMENTS OF GAME ANIMALS

The British Columbia Game Conservation Board has just concluded two important actions in connection with restocking certain areas of the province. Twenty-five elk and one hundred Rocky Mountain sheep, donated by the Department of the Interior and taken from the herds in Buffalo nation park, Wainwright, Alberta, were liberated at points where these species had become thinned out. The elk in one shipment were set free at Spence's Bridge near Kamloops, while the sheep in two shipments of fifty each, were released between the Okanagan valley and the Keattle river, and at Chase, B.C.

He Feels A Different Man Altogether

British Columbia Man Praises Dodd's Kidney Pills

"I cannot recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills highly enough for the wonders they performed with me," writes Mr. Andrew Kerr of Beavermouth, B.C. "I feel a different man since I started taking Dodd's Kidney Pills. I keep a box on hand at all times in case of sickness. They are a wonderful medicine to take. My back is quite well now, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills." For almost three generations Dodd's Kidney Pills have been the standard remedy for Backache, Rheumatism and ailments arising from Faulty Kidneys. They strike at the seat of the trouble, the Kidneys. They are no cure-all. Simply an effective Kidney Remedy.

Concrete paving, Bloomfield, Ont.

You Need This Kind of Paving

. . . Concrete paving . . . permanent, safe, saving. Your community needs it to save taxes, for concrete paving costs practically nothing for upkeep. You need it to save gasoline, tire and car repair bills and to give you the pleasure of driving over a safe, even, non-skid traction surface.

Concrete paving draws tourist traffic, improves transportation, aids industry and stimulates prosperity . . . in which you share.

It is permanent . . . and makes each ensuing year's budget more productive of NEW MILEAGE.

For your own sake and for the sake of your community, advocate concrete at every opportunity.

"It's the little it costs to maintain that makes concrete paving economical."

HASTINGS SEEKS BERTH IN E.P.L.

Officials of League Look With Favor on Proposed Entry.

OPENING GAME MONDAY.

The strong Hastings ball team, credited with being the class of the Northumberland League last season, has applied to the East Peterboorugh League for a berth in the local loop. The Northumberland League will not operate this year. "Bill" Welman was in the city yesterday and talked with E. P. L. officials who were inclined to favor the entry of the Hastings club. A decision will be reached over the week-end.

Everything is in readiness for the League opening at the Exhibition Park next Monday evening at six o'clock, with Raybetos and Crescents starting the race Interest has been added to this particular game because of the appearance of new faces on the line ups, the newcomers to the league being, Ken Kane, Ed. Foley, Bob Ross and Bun Frost. Frank Scully, who did some hard hitting with the Crescents last season is now with Raybestos at third base. George Williams, third baseman for the Cogs, will be seen with Crescents.

Mayor Denne will pitch the first ball Ald. J. M. Greene, chairman of the Parks Commitee, will bat, and Alderman Stan. Lowe will attempt to grab the Spalding behind the plate.

Umpires Kay and LeBarr will handle the game.

How Chiropractic Gets You Well

People who have been benefitted by Chiropractic adjustments are often at a loss to know just why this has been so. They perhaps were of the opinion that Chiropractic might be of value in cases of spinal curvature or nervous disorders, but utterly fail to grasp the reason for the tremendous success which Chiropractors have in those diseases which apparenly have their seat in organs remote from the spine.

They fail to take into consideration the importance of the intricate nervous system in every conscious and subconscious function of the human mechanism.

When the hand is thoughtlessly placed in very hot water, it is suddenly jerked away. This is without conscious thought. From the hand a telegraphic message is flashed to the brain through nerves, and messages are immediately sent from the brain to certain muscles which suddenly contract and remove the hand from danger. If all the nerves leading to the hand were cut, the person would not be conscious of pain nor would he have the ability to move the hand, no matter how much he should will to do so.

We readily grasp this idea as it is illustrated above, yet we fail to realize that the same process occurs in other functions. For example, when food is taken into the stomach, messages are flashed to the brain. A call is made for the glands of the stomach to pour out those juices which will digest the foods and make them fit material to be absorbed and used by the body. All this process is the result of telegraphic messages going to and fro between the stomach and the brain. If all the nerves leading to the stomach were cut, digestion could not occur there. So it is with the kidneys, the liver, the heart, and, in fact, all the organs and tissues of the body. In order for these organs to function properly it is necessary that the intricate nervous system be free to transmit its messages.

There are million of these tiny nerve fibres. They supply every portion of the body. Every one of them, either directly or indirectly, passes to the brain, which is the great central switchboard. It is here that the messages are received and it is here that, either consciously or sub-consciously, they are interpreted and return messages are sent out which lead to the proper action.

The spinal cord is the great cable which extends downward from the brain incased in the spinal column. Between the segments of this spinal column are many small openings through which nerve trunks make their exits. These segments of the spinal column are subject to slight displacements. When this occurs, the openings between them are decreased in size and the nerves which traverse them are subject to being squeezed.

It is the Chiropractor's business to discover just where the nerve trunks are impinged. Having found them he restores the spinal segments to their normal position and relieves the interference. When this is done, health is the result as a natural consequence, and it has been accomplished in a natural, common-sense way.

CHEESE MAKERS' ASSOCIATION IS ORGANIZED AT MEETING OF PETERBOROUGH DAIRYMEN

W. V. Drewry, of Warkworth, Gives Short Outline of Aims of Association.

ELECT OFFICERS.

James T. Irwin Reviews Work Accomplished By Other Associations —By-laws Read.

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a cheese makers' association was held in the Legion Hall, Friday evening. W. J. Moore, Dairy Instructor for Peterborough District, was in charge of the meeting, and W. V. Drewry, of Warkworth, was duly appointed chairman of the meeting, with J. A. Murray, of Campbellford, as secertary.

The secretary read a copy of by-laws and the meeting was opened for discussion for same. Mr. Moore assured those present that the makers were in favor of a local association.

Officers Elected.

On motion of Mr. James and Mr. Borland, R. J. Allen, of Peterborough was chosen as president. Other officers chosen were: Vice-president, T. Borland; secretary-treasurer, Cecil Cuthbertson; board of directors, Messrs. James of Dunsford, A. Wilson of Young's Point, and Mr. Baker of Warsaw.

W. V. Drewry of Warkworth gave a short outline of the aims of the association and called on James T. Irwin, Dairy Produce Grader of Belleville, to address the gathering, who reviewed the work accomplished by local associations which had been operating for some time. Perth section being first to get under way had accomplished great work, moving from the thirteenth to first place in the county standing. Following this, Mr. Irwin went over the different clauses of the constitution.

Short addresses were given by J. A. Murray, W. V. Drewry, and W. J. Moore.

MUCH BUILDING IS AUTHORIZED

MONTH'S TOTAL $75,000.

Building in Peterborough last week more than doubled that which was started during the first two weeks in May. Thirteen permits were issued by City Engineer Parsons, involving an amount of $38,190. The total for the first three weeks of this month has reached the $75,000 mark. For the first week in May 17 permits were issued, amounting to $17,465, and for the second week 18 permits amounting to $19,760.

This increase, together with the announcement that the Canadian General Electric Company will spend $1,500,000 in buildings and equipment in this city in the next two years will make the month of May, 1928, one of the best in the history of the city of Peterborough.

Permits were taken out for the construction of five dwelling-houses, bringing the total up to eleven for this month, two garages, four additions to houses, one service station and alterations to one store on George Street.

The Metropolitan Stores, Limited, have let the contract of remodelling their property on George Street and of erecting an addition at the back, to A. McIntyre and F. Barrett. At present the contractors are building a partition in the store formerly occupied by J. H. Meredith. J. A. McNabb is to occupy the southern half of this store. The rest of the store, with those occupied by J. A. McNabb, A. A. Fowler and Bert McLeod, will be remodelled and an addition built to the back at an estimated cost of $15,000. The work is to be completed about August 1.

The dwelling-houses being erected are: W. Juniper, McFarlane Avenue, estimated cost $1,290; Fred Finnie, north of 493 George Street, estimated cost $3,200; Toronto Savings and Loan, Weller Street, estimated cost $6,500; W. Butcher, 23 Walnut, estimated cost $2,500; W. Stocker, Wolfe Street, estimated cost $3,000.

J. R. Paquette is making alterations and building an addition to the house at 27 Crescent Street at an estimated cost of $1,800, and T. De Forge is making alterations and building a veranda to the dwelling at 507 Albert Street. The estimated cost is $650.

It was stated in error last week that the house being erected by the Toronto Savings and Loan was hot air heated. A bot water furnace is to be installed.

MINISTERS DO NOT BELITTLE OTHERS' JOBS

Rev. James Gordon Takes Issue With Bruce Barton's Charge.

ADDRESSES ROTARY.

St. Andrew's Minister Gives His Total View of Universe.

A sentence used by Bruce Barton in one of his articles appearing in The Examiner recently, furnished Rev. James W. Gordon of St. Andrews Church with the subject for a most interesting talk to the Peterborough Rotary Club at the weekly luncheon to-day.

Of the Barton articles in general, Rev. Mr. Gordon said that they contained many things that were true, many things that were crude, and some things that were absolutely untrue.

In this latter category he placed the statement upon which his address was based namely a statement by Bruce Barton to the effect that most preachers begrudgingly admitted the value of other men's occupations; considering their own to be superior to all others.

The speaker said that this was not true of one minister in ten thousand and ,that the accusation should never have been made. He proceeded to develop his total view of the universe during which he emphasized the fact that every person who was engaged in doing something to make the world a better or more comfortable place was completing the work of Creation. He warned his hearers of making the mistake of undervaluing the importance of some other fellow's job simply because he happended to wear overalls and to have dirty hands. The white collar job was not superior to any other occupation and in this connection he predicted that the technical school here when completed would make a valuable contribution to the betterment of Peterborough because it would teach young people to work with their hands and their brains.

Every one engaged in an occupation that added to the happiness and comfort of the world should be regarded as having a worth-while job.

"I believe that the man who gives us a good game of baseball," said Mr. Gordon, "is making a useful contribution, for we are helped by seeing a game of ball, or better, by participating in one."

In summing up his total view of the universe, the speaker declared that it was essential that men should learn to play the game with their fellow men; that they should help their bodies and that they should learn to accept a defeat, take a bump and come up smiling.

As for the church, it was its task to take all these other useful occupations and put soul into them.

Rev. Mr. Gordon was introduced by Rotarian Chris. G. Graham, who referred to his pleasant associations with the speaker of the day, and a vote of thanks was proposed by Rotarian George C. Macdonald, who praised Mr. Gordon as a man and as a preacher.

The speaker prefaced his address by a feeling reference to the friendships he had formed in Peterborough and at his regret in having to leave this city.

A letter was read at to-day's luncheon from the Lindsay Club proposing an inter-city meeting and the matter was turned over to Rotarian Ross L. Dobbin for attention.

The Toronto Rotary Club's invitation to Peterborough Rotarians and their ladies to visit the Boys' Training School at Bowmanville on May 30th, was read by President Killaly. The school is to be thoroughly inspected by representatives from many clubs and ten members of the Peterborough club signified their intention of being present.

Rotarian J. H. Seels urged his fellow members to get busy in regard to securing boys for the summer camp, warning Rotarians that the time was short and action was needed.

'QUAKES KILL MANY IN PERU

News of Deaths in Interior Last Week Reaches Capital To-day.

25 IN ONE VILLAGE.

LIMA, Peru, May 21 (Canadian Press).—Entire native villages have been destroyed by successive earthquakes in the Cajamarca Department, taking a heavy toll of lives, according to fragmentary advices reaching the government to-day over the partly restored telegraph wires. The tremors began last Monday and lasted until Wednesday. In one village alone twenty-five were known to be dead.

Junkers Plane Bremen Is Damaged In Attempted Take-Off From Greenely

HALIFAX, N.S., May 21 (Canadian Press)—The trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen was damaged yesterday when Fred Melchoir, Junkers mechanic who dropped by parachute to the mainland near Greenely Island Saturday, attempted yesterday to take off for New York, according to news reaching here yesterday afternoon, via the Government wireless service. No details were given other than that it would be necessary to ship the plane by steamer to some point where a suitable ground would provide proper facilities.

The two United States army amphibians which flew to Greenely Island from St. George's, Newfoundland, Saturday to land Melchoir and returned to St. George's later in the day, after Melchoir had reached the ground by parachute, arrived in Pictou, N.S., late yesterday afternoon to await the arrival of the Bremen, which they were to have escorted to New York. General Fechet, commanding the expedition, was informed soon after his arrival, of the reported accident to the Bremen, and said last evening that the future movements of the amphibians were undecided. The trip to the Strait of Belle Isle had been uneventful and pleasant, he said.

GREAT BRITAIN IN ACCORD WITH PRINCIPLE OF TREATY FOR RENUNCIATION OF WAR

Will Support Movement to the Utmost of Their Power.

EVOKED GREAT INTEREST.

Suggestions Received From French Government in Connection With Proposal.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 21 (CP).—The text of the British note to the United States concerning the proposal of Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg for the outlawing of war follows:

The note was dated May 19 and was delivered from Sir Austen Chamberlain, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, to Alanson B. Houghton, United States Ambassador in London.

The Note:

Your Excellency:

Your note of April 13th, containing the text of a draft treaty for renunciation of war, together with copies of correspondence between the United States and the French governments on the subject of this treaty, has been receiving sympathetic consideration at the hands of His Majesty's Government in Great Britain. A note has also been received from the French Government containing certain suggestions for discussion in connection with the proposed treaty and the German Government were good enough to send me a copy of a reply which had been made by them to the proposals of the United States Government.

2—The suggestion for the conclusion of a treaty for renunciation of war as an instrument of national policy has evoked widespread interest in this country and His Majesty's Government will support the movement to the utmost of their power.

Abolish War.

3—After making a careful study of the text contained in Your Excellency's note and of the amended text suggested in the French note, His Majesty's Government feel convinced that there is no serious divergence between the effect of these two drafts. This impression is confirmed by a study of the text of the speech by the Secretary of State of the United States to which Your Excellency drew my attention and which he delivered before the American Society of International Law on April 28th. The aim of the United States Government, as I understand it, is to embody in a treaty a broad statement of principle to proclaim without restriction or qualification that war shall not be used as an instrument of policy. With this aim His Majesty's Government are wholly in accord. The French proposals equally imbued with the same purpose have merely added an indication of certain exceptional circumstances in which the violation of that principle by one party may oblige the others to take action seeming at first sight to be inconsistent with the terms of the proposed pact. His Majesty's Government appreciate the scruples which have prompted these suggestions by the French Government. The exact fulfillment of, treaty engagements is a matter which affects national honor, precision as to the scope of such engagements is therefore of importance. Each of the suggestions made by the French Government has been carefully considered from this point of view.

4—After studying the wording of Article 1 of the United States draft His Majesty's Government do not think that its term exclude action which a State may be forced to take in self-defence.

Mr. Kellogg has made it clear in the speech to which I have referred above, that he regards the right of self-defence as inalienable and His Majesty's Government are disposed to think that on this question no addition to the text is necessary.

Difference Found.

5—As regards the text of Article 2, no appreciable difference is found between the American and French proposals. His Majesty's Government are therefore content to accept the former if, as they understand to be the case, dispute "among the high contracting parties" is a phrase wide enough to cover a dispute between any two of them.

6—The French note suggests the addition of an article providing that violation of the treaty by one of the parties should release the remainder from their obligations under the treaty towards that party. His Majesty's Government are not satisfied that if the treaty stood alone, the addition of some such provision would not be necessary. Mr. Kellogg's speech, however, shows that he put forward for acceptance the text of the proposed treaty upon the understanding that violation of the undertaking by one party would free the remaining parties from the obligation of observing its terms in respect of the treaty-breaking state.

7—If it is agreed that this is the principle which will apply in the case of this particular treaty, His Majesty's Government are satisfied and will not ask for the insertion of an amendment. Means can, no doubt, be found without difficulty of placing this understanding on record in some appropriate manner so that it may have equal value with the terms of the treaty itself.

8—The point is one of importance because of its bearing on the treaty engagements by which His Majesty's Government are already bound. The preservation of peace has been the chief concern of His Majesty's Government and the prime object of all their endeavours. It is the reason why they have given ungrudging support to the league of Nations, and why they have undertaken the burden of guarantee embodied in the Locarno Treaty. The sole object of all these engagements is the elimination of war as an instrument of national policy just as it is the purpose of the Peace Pact now proposed. It is become the object of both that there is no real antagonism between the treaty engagements which His Majesty's Government have already accepted and the pact which is now proposed. The machinery of the Covenant and of the Treaty of Locarno, however, go somewhat further than a renunciation of war as a policy in that they provide certain sanctions for a breach of their obligations. A clash might thus conceivably arise between existing treaties and the proposed pact, unless it is understood the obligations of the new engagement will cease to operate in respect of a party which breaks its pledges and adopts hostile measures against one of its co-contractants.

Sarnia Man Drowned In St. Clair River

SARNIA, Ont., May 21.—(Canadian Press).—John Armstrong, aged 49, was drowned in the St. Clair River at Point Edsard between five and six o'clock yesterday morning when he presumably fell from the new sand dock. Workmen saw his hat floating in the water and gave an alarm and in a few minutes dragging operations brought Armstrong's body to the surface. An inquest will probably be held.

REPORT SHOWS SITUATION NOT WELL HANDLED

Dr. W. J. Bell Refuses Further Comment On Scarlet Fever Case.

EXPLAINS RELATIONSHIP.

Provincial Department Steps In Only Where Local Board Fails to Function.

(By Staff Reporter.)

TORONTO, May 21. — Dr. W. J. Bell, Deputy Minister of Health, this morning refused to comment on the statement attributed to him in connection with failure to placard the house of a milkman whose children had scarlet fever, in which he was quoted as saying Peterborough was a social outcast in health matters, beyond stating that in his opinion if the report furnished to the Department was correct, and he believed it to be correct, the local authorities did not deal with the situation as it should have been handled. Dr. Bell refused to discuss the details of the case. He studiously avoided mentioning any names.

Explaining the relation between the Department and the civic authorities, Dr. Bell said health matcame under the control of the local board, and if the local board failed to function, the Provincial Department stepped in. "But how are we to act if we are not informed?" asked Dr. Bell. "By the time we learned the facts of the Peterborough case the period for quarantining of contacts had practically expired, and it was too late for us to act then."

"We are dealing directly with the Peterborough Board of Health in this matter," said Dr Forbes Godfrey, Minister of Health, "beyond that I have nothing to say for publication."

WAR GAS FUMES KILL 11 PERSONS

Residents of Hamburg Harbor Area Driven From Homes During Night.

GAS LEAKS FROM TANK.

HAMBURG, Germany, May 21 (Canadian Press).—Hamburg to-day was fighting a deluge of phosgene gas, wartime poison gas, which began escaping from a chemical factory in the harbor district last night, overcoming a large number of persons. By noon to-day eleven persons, most of them firemen and policemen, were dead, and ninety victims were in the hospitals under treatment.

The entire city was menaced, but it was hoped that the rain which set in would absorb the gas fumes. The gas escaped from a tank in the chemical factory of Dr. Hugo Stolzenburg. Phosgene is no longer manufactured there, but quantities of it were stated to have been accumulated and stored for exportation to the United States.

The first effects of the gas were felt near the harbor, driving the residents of the district from their homes in a panic. Troops were called out, and after the people were guided to other sections of the city, the streets in the vicinity were closed. All ambulances and fire brigades were mobilized for service, the fire brigades donning gas masks and fighting off the fumes with ammonia.

Hastings County Man Wins Appeal On $135

TORONTO, May 21 (Canadian Press).—Four separate judgments were written by judges of the First Divisional Court in the appeal of A. Percy Dixson from the judgment of Judge Deroche, Hastings County, awarding $135 commission to Lyman S. Weaver, real estate agent on the sale of property. The appeal was allowed and the action dismissed with costs. The defendant had listed certain lands with the plaintiff for sale at the price of $4,800. The plaintiff found a purchaser at $4500, and Judge Deroche allowed a commission of three per cent on $4,500.

RESCUE WORKERS STILL TRYING TO BRING TRAPPED MINERS OUT THOUGH ALL HOPE IS ABANDONED

Thirteen Have Been Brought To Surface Alive From Pennsylvania Pit.

EXPLOSION CAUSES DEATHS.

Many Bodies Found Mutilated as Result of Heavy Blast of Unknown Cause.

MATHER Penn, May 21. Canadian Press. — The bodies of three more miners victims of the explosion in the Mather Mine, late Saturday, had been recovered up to this afternoon, by rescuers, who are pushing past the scene of the blast in an effort to learn the fate of 138 men entombed in the far recesses of the workings. Seven bodies were brought up this morning, while shortly after noon the rescuers carried 14 additional bodies from the mine, making the known death toll 60.

Thirteen men were rescued alive of the 211 in the mine at the time.

To-day the first official inquiry was started when a coroner's jury delved into the cause of the blast.

This is an unusual step, such investigations as a rule being held only after all the bodies have been recovered.

Mine rescue experts have given up all hope of returning any of the entombed men to the surface alive. Several of the bodies recovered were decapitated, minus arms and legs, or in other ways mutilated. Bureau of Mines officials will not comment on the cause of the blast.

Six Climb Out.

Of those saved, six climbed the 360 steps from the interior workings of the mine to an air shaft some distance away from the main entrance. The remainder were found by the crews and brought up in cages.

The rescue crews are working in relays of four teams each, led by experts from the United States Bureau of Mines at Pittsburg and state mine inspectors. They have been working all night and day, but their progress has been hindered by the great amount of gas and mine damp they have encountered, necessitating frequent stops that air locks might be constructed at intervals. They have not as yet encountered any fire; a strange factor in the annals of mine disasters.

The mine shaft is about 250 feet in depth, with tunnels spreading several miles in each direction. The rescue crews had progressed last night to the entry of the tunnel leading to the 14th butt, where the explosion is believed to have taken place. Beyond this point it is believed they will find the majority of the men entombed.

Fifteen rescue crews equipped with masks to ward off the poisonous after-damp and gas, last night had fought their way through the debris-strewn passageways. Their progress was slow, for they were forced to build air locks at intervals so as to flood the explored sections of the mine with pure air. Working in shifts, the workers progressed during the night and yesterday to a point near where the terrific explosion occurred. Behind this point it was believed most of the missing men would be found, and as one veteran rescuer put it, "the chances of getting them out alive are slim."

Gas Very Heavy.

As each crew descends they carry in their hands little cages full of canaries—harbingers of danger. These so far have been unable to get beyond the 18th butt or working face of the mine—an indication of the terrific flood of gas and damp, aftermath of the explosion.

It is this lethal flood which brings the belief that no survivors will be found. Even Tom Callahan, assistant mine boss, who was working near an air shaft when the explosion occurred and who hastily gathered his 15 men, constructed brattices and then telephoned the mine house on the surface that he and his men were alive, but "to hurry," was unable to escape it. Their bodies were found on the floor near the entry of the 15th butt, whence they had fled at the approach of the gas.

The Mather Mine normally employs 700 men. Saturday, being a half holiday, did not find all the men at work. The night shift enters the mine at 3.30; the day shift does not leave until 6 p.m. The blast, which was caused by gas, occurred at 4.37 p.m., thus catching both shifts in the workings. The explosion came between the 14th and 15th butts off the main channel, according to L. O. Lougee, engineer for Pickand-Mather and Company, of Cleveland, owners of the mine, who has made several trips below the surface.

The mine, which has been in operation more than ten years, was considered the safest in the district. No serious casualty has occurred there since its opening.

The town of Mather was considered a model; it was pointed out as one of the prettiest mining communities in existence. The main was operated on the open shop plan.

Arrangements have been made by mine officials to care for all the fami-

QUEEN'S ALUMNI HOLD RE-UNION

ELECT OFFICERS.

On Saturday evening a representative gathering of the graduates and undergraduates of Queen's University had a dinner and re-union at the Empress Hotel. All faculties were represented. Several of the diners belonged to the vintage of the nineties; a number had graduated during the Cappon-Watson-Shortt triumvirate; and even the present graduating year had contributed one of its most brilliant members.

Before the dinner the guests enjoyed a re-union when friends scattered over this whole district met again, sometimes for the first time since the last Queen's gathering. Already one caught the familiar "Do you remember. . ." frequently heard throughout the evening.

The college songs, after each course of an excellent dinner, provided as always a delightful link with the past for many of the older graduates. "On the Old Ontario Strand" and "Alouette" have been sung lustily if not tunefully for many a generation at Queen's. They carried the minds of some present back to football matches long forgotten, and the shades of Faculty dinners eaten in another century.

Dr. J. C. Smith sang two solos in his usual good form and along with V. R. Henry was the centre and life of the community singing. Donald Munroe was the accompanist.

The President, R. F. Downey, then introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. W. E. McNeill, M.A., Ph.D., Registrar and Treasurer of Queen's University. His address, "Queen's—Past and Present," thrilled his audience. His presentation of it combined a charmingly logical development with that precision and elegance of diction familiar to all his ex-students, and reminiscent to them of his English classes during the decade of his connection with that department.

He began what proved a delightful address by a modest reference to his own connection with Queen's covering a score of years. He gave a humorous account of his early class-work and of the exacting duties connected with the Registrarship of a rapidly developing modern university.

He referred to the Queen's of tradition, great in its ideals and its vision, led by Principal Grant, victoriously through the bogs of penury to firm financial footing. He spoke feelingly of the ungrudgingly self-sacrificing service of the staff gathered about him by this indomitable principal,—a noble example for impressionable youth. He traced the healthy growth of the institution, from these sturdy but modest beginnings, through the reign of Principal Gordon. He indicated the high standard of scholarship maintained in the faculties and the international reputation of many professors, whose loyalty kept them true to this university in spite of opportunities for greater emoluments elsewhere. Names beloved by many present were mentioned in this Roll of Honour—names outstanding, not alone for learning but for service, not alone for sacrifice, but for vision. Such men as Nathan Dupuis serve as a beacon to guide the stumbling footsteps of the undergraduate world along the rocky way of loyal service to their Alma Mater and their country.

As he progressed towards the modern era of Principal Taylor's regime, Dr. McNeill showed how well the earlier standards had been sustained. He gave interesting illustrations of the lucrative positions still calling to the member of Queen's staff from wealthy American and even from distant and scholarly English universities.

Turning from its staff to its students, the speaker pointed out how nation-wide Queen's contribution had been, and how her graduates had permeated all fields of professional activity in Canada and dominated many even outside our own land. He instanced stars in the fields of mining, medicine

No Motive Found For Loomis Suicide

DETROIT, Mich., May 21.—(Canadian Press).—The motive that prompted Dr. Frank Remington Loomis to take his own life Saturday morning remained undetermined yesterday, no trace having been found of a statement the physician intimated in a note to the police would be received in newspaper office, "within 24 or 48 hours."

Mrs. Gertrude B. Newel, whose name figured in the doctor's trial a year ago on a charge of slaying his wife, a charge on which he was acquitted, was located yesterday, according to Emil Colombe, an attorney, associated with Dr. Loomis defense. Colombo said she could be produced "when necessary."

FRIENDS HONOR YOUNG COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferren Entertained By Neighbors on Fallis' Line.

PRESENTATIONS MADE.

MILLBROOK, May 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Lavergne Fallis were hosts for a very enjoyable social gathering on Thursday evening, when more than sixty friends gathered at their home, Fallis Line, in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferren, who have recently moved to the Line, their marriage having taken place at the United Church Parsonage, 28 Simpson avenue, Toronto, on Saturday, May 5, the Rev. S. E. Greenslade officiating.

Mrs. Ferren, previous to her marriage, was Bertha Gladys Fallis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fallis, Bethany, and the groom is a son of Alan Ferren, of Cavan, and was born on the Fallis Line though that has not been his home for some years. Mr. and Mrs. Ferren are living on the Mitchell farm, formerly occupied by Allie Fallis until his removal to the homestead purchased from J. H. George when the latter moved to Millbrook to reside.

Music and dancing formed the chief entertainment on Thursday evening, and midway in the good time being enjoyed, Mr. and Mrs. Ferren were giving seats in the midst of the company, when Roy Fallis read an address emphasizing the pleasure felt by the many friends of Mr. Ferren at his return to make his home in the neighborhood where his boyhood had been spent, and warmly greeting his bride as well. On behalf of the company, Byron Fallis and Leslie Hunt presented Mr. and Mrs. Ferren with a lamp for the latter, and a handsome walnut mantel clock to the former. Suitable reply was made by Mr. Ferren on behalf of his wife and himself, and shortly afterward supper was served by the hostess and the committee in charge.

Dancing was afterward enjoyed, those assisting in furnishing the music being: Messrs. Porter, Crocker, Patton, Beggs, and the Rusk brothers.

Three Are Killed In Train Wreck

Mrs. Thomas Fennell., of Norwood, and Miss Audrey Whitney, of Wooler, were guests of Mrs. Fennell last week.

Miss Mary Howe has returned after a few weeks stay with friends in Belleville.

Campbellford

CAMPBELLFORD, May 21.—Miss Lorna Cotton, New York, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Williams, Inkerman street.

Captain T. E. Hyland and R. S. M. Earl Johnston motored to Belleville yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Col. E. D. O'Flynn.

Several parties of Campbellford people motored to Peterborough on Friday and Saturday evening to see the Dumbells. The reports brought back to town are very complimentary to the Dumbell program.

Monday night sees the opening game of the Campbellford soft ball league. Last year there was considerable interest shown in the games from the very first. This season should have a similar effect on the fans since the Clerks are out to win the silver trophy if at all possible. Should they be successful the cup will become their property as they have already won it for two consecutive years.

Druggists Trained In Peterborough

TWEED, May 21. — The only two drug stores in this village are operated by young men who spent their apprenticeship days in Peterborough. Robert Bateman, a resident of this district, put in his time in F. C. Weber's drug store, Peterborough. Carl Wilson is an Otonabee boy and a graduate of the Peterborough Collegiate, and served his apprenticeship with J. Lynch, Peterborough. Mr. Bateman has been operating a drug store here for over a year and Mr. Wilson for a coupe of months.

BANQUET HELD AT MILLBROOK

A.Y.P.A. of Saint Thomas' Church Hold Social Evening in Parish Hall.

MUSICAL PROGRAM.

MILBROOK, May 21.—The A.Y.P.A. of Saint Thomas' church held a gathering of special importance in the Parish Hall on Thursday evening, when the "Live Wires", captained by Miss Elizabeth Russell, the losing side in the membership contest conducted through the winter months, banquetted the winners, the "Busy Bees", captained by Miss Ada Attwooll.

A short program preceding the supper hour was much enjoyed, those taking part being: Mrs. P. C. Howard and Miss Elizabeth Russell, who contributed vocal solos, as did also Mr. R. Stone, and there was a chorus by the younger boys who are A.Y.P.A. members,

A 'musical contest' caused much merriment, the music of popular airs being cut into small strips, those in one chorus having to 'match slips' until the full piece was secured when the group must sing in unison. Harmony, and even melody, may have been lacking but at least there was plenty of fun when the music began.

The tables were most attractive with floral decorations, and the substantial menu was much enjoyed, a very pleasant social time being spent about the festive board.

Games of various kinds filled out the evening happily, Miss Muriel Smith, was the accompanist of the evening, and community singing a 'get together' feature.

The two sides started the year with ten members each, and on Thursday evening the membership roll showed 65 names, hence undoubted success has crowned the plan which provided a pleasant competition in gaining the young people of the church for the organization. Five points were given for a new member, and two points for attendance; one point was given for a visitor could not be brought each time to the meeting The Live Wires, who chose white ribbons as their distinguished mark, had 639 points; and the Busy Bees, who were known by the blue ribbons each wore, totalled 515 points, leaving the former winner by 124 points.

The election of officers takes place at the next meeting. A vote of thanks to the losing side was given by Misses Ida Attwool and Gladys Gray.

HOME COOKING SALE.

Mission Band of St. Andrew's Church Holds Successful Sale.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 21.—After taking everything into account, the home cooking sale held in the sample rooms of the Windsor Hotel on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Mission Band of St. Andrew's Church, was the most successful event of its kind which that organization has staged for some time. The financial returns were the largest ever realized by the band. In response to an appeal made from the pulpit, the supply of articles was exceedingly generous, and there was a wide range of goods at reasonable prices. The demand also was in proportion to the supply and before six o'clock the stock in trade was completely exhausted, forcing an early closing.

MARKS COMPANY CLOSES SEASON

Winds Up Campbellford Engagement With "A Modern Cinderella."

CAMPBELLFORD, May 21.—After enjoying large audiences during their entire three nights' engagement here, the Arlie Marks company closed for the season with "A Modern Cinderella." The play is quite up to the high standard maintained by the company during their engagements here, and has done much to establish the reputation of one of Campbellford's favorite troupes. The cast is composed of ten players, each playing his part with the skill of a genuine artist. The cast: Mrs. Dean, proprietress of a rooming house; Miss Agnes Stutz; Eugenia Dean, her daughter, Millicent Ward; Miss Chorine, a roomer, Teresa Corrigan; her sister in the act, Rose Ames; Steven Gray, another roomer, Al. J. Perrin; Howard Hastings, also a roomer, L. E. Perrin; Stanley Winton, a new arrival, Vernard Brock; Slim Higgins, who is too long for his bed, Harold Needham Nathaniel O'Neil, servant, Frederick Lyle; and Peggy O'Neil, another servant, Arlie Marks.

Woman Breaks Record Swimming Endurance

CHICAGO, May 21 (Canadian Press)—Mrs. Myrtle Huddleston, of Mattoon, Illinois, was taken from the pool of the Lincoln Park Hotel early to-day after being in the water 50 hours, 10 minutes, 15.45 seconds. The time beats by 17 hours and 50 minutes the best previous endurance record for women and by 4 hours and minutes the best previous record of a man. Mrs. Huddleston is 30 years old and a mother.

BALDWIN HAS MANY OFFERS

Joking Complaint About Lack of Press Opportunity Taken Seriously.

REFUSES THEM ALL.

LONDON, May 21 (By the Canadian Press).—The "complaint" made by Premier Baldwin at a luncheon of th Institute of Journalists that he hao never had a single offer of any kind tt make any contribution on any subjecr to the press has added yet anothe burden to his already heavy post bag. Offers have arrived at No. 10 Downing Street from various quarters. This fact is revealed in a letter sent by Mr. Baldwin's secretary to a firm of architectural publishers, who wrote to Mr. Baldwin asking him to contribute a preface to a book they are shortly publishing on architecture in Great Britain at the present day.

The reply is as follows: "The Primt Minister has asked me to thank you foe your letter, and to express his regret thar the stress of his preoccupations does not allow him to fall in with the suggestion which it contains. In regard to what you say about his recent speech at the Institute of Journalists I must confess to you that from the correspondence which has reached him since from several quarters he will at all events never again be able to complain that if he has made no contribution to journalism it is through lack of offers."

GIVES ADDRESSES ON SOCIAL HYGIENE

Mrs. Haygart, of Toronto, Addresses Millbrook Women and 'Teen Age Girls.

MILLBROOK, May 21.—Mrs. Haygarth, of the Social Service Hygiene Council, of Toronto, addressed the 'teen age girls in the Assembly Hall of the Continuation School on Thursday afternoon, showing the film, "The Gift of Life", and emphasizing the importance of both physical and mental health.

In the evening Mrs. Haygarth, who works under the Department of Health of the Provincial Government, addresed the women of the community, again showing the film with additional reels presenting material suitable for adults.

The war, Mrs. Haygarth stated, had given an impetus to the campaign for health, and the film she was showing had been bought to present to parents a way of weaving for their children true stories in connection with the development of life, thus helping them to discharge an important responsibility that undoubtedly rests upon them. The speaker hoped that in the near future the schools might take up the instruction where the home left off.

Eight out of the nine provinces now carry on such instruction and last year $80,000 was spent in Ontario alone in dealing with the health question from this angle. "The government believes that children are not properly equipped for life without a knowledge of their own bodies and the right way to care for them."

The local department of health took the initiative in bringing Mrs. Haygarth here to speak, the Women's Institute co-operating by taking the evening gathering under its auspices.

Mrs. T. H. Harkness, president of the Institute, moved the formal vote of thanks to the speaker at the conclusion of her lecture, the past president, Mrs. Charles Thorndyke, seconding the motion.

IN POLICE COURT

CAMPBELLFORD, May 21.— The charge of defamatory libel brought by the Crown under the criminal code against Sarah Sinclair of this town, came before Magistrate Payne again on Saturday morning and after further evidence had been heard, was dismissed. The case arose out of two letters which were alleged to have been written by the defendant to Mrs. Roy Varty, Havelock, and first appeared in court a week ago when it was adjourned till yesterday in order that further evidence might be obtained.

Mail Plane Forced Down Near Brockville

BROCKVILLE, Ont., May 21. — (Canadian Press).—A Canadian air-mail plane en route from Montreal to Toronto and piloted by D. S. Bondurant was forced to land near here Saturday afternoon by adverse weather, with engine trouble as a contributory cause. From a height of 200 feet the town of Brockville was not visible Pilot Dondurant stated after he had successfully landed in a field on the outskirts of the town. In flying over the town collision with a church steeple was narrowly averted.

Within a few minutes after landing the mail was transferred to a Canadian National Railway train.

SOCIALISTS HOLD LEAD IN REICHSTAG

BERLIN, May 21. — Returns today from Sunday's election of the new Reichstag indicated that the Socialists were the strongest unit in Germany The Socialists registered decisive gains while the German Nationalist party's losses were conspicuous

None of the major parties was regarded as likely to obtain overwhelming control in the new house and parliamentary leaders were determined to form a coalition ministry of Socialists ,Centrists, People's Party and Democrat The present cabinet is a coalition of Nationalists, Centrists and People's party. The losses of the Nationalists were regarded as eliminating that party from participating in the next ministry.

"YEARS OF PROGRESS IN WASHING"

By HILDA DORAN ROSS
Home Economics Counselor

"GRANDMOTHER says that when she was young everybody made their own soap. Yes, it was harsh soap—ruinous to fine silks and laces—but then it didn't matter. People wore sturdy homespun clothes made to withstand hard treatment. Now we wear soft, silky garments which just simply cannot be washed with ordinary soap.

"For years manufacturers have been experimenting and improving soap. And as Home Economics Counselor, I have tested soap in every form, so that I could advise housewives with authority. My tests have shown me that the best soap for the weekly wash and for all household washing tasks is Princess Soap Flakes. They contain no harsh chemical filler, or harmful free caustic, and will not hurt your hands or your daintiest garments. And they are just as effective for heavier things.

"Princess Soap Flakes are economical, too. A small amount dissolves into mountains of foaming suds which clean clothes like magic."

HOROSCOPE

The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate)

FOR TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1928.

This should be a fairly fortunate day, according to astrology which finds that the aspects are better in the afternoon than in the earlier hours.

Financial affairs are well directed, and all the signs appear to presage increase of prestige on the part of the banks.

Bankers are to extend their interests into many lines of business and to gain great power, it is prophesied.

Again the stars smile on editors and publishers, who will profit greatly from advertising.

Under this rule of the stars intrigue and deception are supposed to be more prevalent than at other times.

Inclination to conceal facts or to misrepresent is said to be common when Neptune is in malefic sway.

Storms at sea and disasters to shipping again are foretold. Rough passage may be expected for those who sail under their positing of the stars.

This is not an auspicious day for seeking employment and it is well to delay action.

Men and women of super intelligence and training will be in demand as never before, the seers explain. The end of the year will bring important openings to many men and women, astrologers foretell.

Danger of nervous breakdown is supposed to be great at this time when a tendency toward over exertion may be strong.

Warning is given that the temptation to indulge in premature romance will be strong under this quarter of the Moon.

Self control and poise should be cultivated as never before because there will be many sources of irritation while this configuration prevails.

Persons whose birthdate it is may expect sudden surprises in the coming year when national affairs may affect personal matters.

Children born on this day probably will be gentle and kindly in nature. Subjects of this sign usually pass through many varied experiences that require strength of character to meet.

LYRICS OF LIFE

I'M THINKING OF YOUR MOTHER

"I'm thinking of your mother, son,"
His father said "and not of me.
Enjoy your youth, and have your fun,
But be the boy you ought to be.
And when I ask you to be straight,
To mix some judgment with your joy,
The way I've had to do of late,
I'm thinking of your mother, boy.

"Men grow accustomed to life's cares,
In fact expect them in a way,
But quite another world is theirs,
The little world where women stay.
Let's keep it from the storms tonight
That beat about the heads of men,
For, when I talk of living right,
I'm thinking of your mother then.

"So just forget about your dad,
Remember what a mother's worth,
Think of the mother you have had,
The finest woman on this earth.
And when I worry over things,
Don't think your father is the one,
If grief your conduct ever brings,
I'm thinking of your mother, son."

PAPAL DELEGATE HERE THREE DAYS

Most Rev. Andrea Cassulo Will Arrive in the City On Wednesday.

His Excellency the Most Reverend Dr. Andrea Cassulo, Apostolic Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, will visit the city during the latter part of this week. The Papal Delegate, who was recently appointed by the Holy See, wishes to visit every diocese in the Dominion, and is making his visit to Peterborough coincide with the celebration by the Local Council of the Knights of Columbus of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their foundation in the city, which took place on May 24th, 1903.

His Excellency will arrive on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at the C.N.R. depot. There he will be met by a massed procession of men of the city, district and diocese, who will accompany him to St. Peter's Cathedral. Children of the city will be gathered at the head of Hunter Street. Addresses from the clergy and laity will be presented to His Excellency in the Cathedral and he will give Benediction in conclusion of the ceremony.

At half-past nine o'clock on the morning of Thursday, May 24th, His Excellency will solemnize Pontifical High Mass at the Cathedral. The sermon will be preached by Rev. John E. Burke, of the Paulist Fathers, Toronto, and an address of welcome will be read from Knights of Columbus, who will march in procession to the Cathedral.

At half-past three o'clock, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given by His Excellency, after which an address from Mayor Denne will be given to the Delegate on the grounds of St. Mary's Convent, and a reception will be held later.

On Friday, Catholic institutions of the city will be visited by the Delegate, and Benediction to the school children will be given in the Cathedral at three o'clock.

On Saturday, His Excellency will leave by motor for Port Hope and Cobourg, thence travelling east on the C.P.R.

A cordial invitation to anyone interested is extended for these ceremonies, a feature of which will be the presence of thirty-eight boys of the DeLaSalle Band of Toronto which is coming here for the Delegate's visit.

POST Toasties THE wake-up food quick energy for work or play MADE IN CANADA T1-28

DRESS By MARY MARSHALL

Here is the new semi-princess silhouette, developed in black face, with the close-fitting upper portion covered with black sequins.

Many women have looked forward for a long time to a change in silhouette because they took it for granted that a new silhouette would be a less slender silhouette and the new fashion era, they assumed, would mean less need for dieting and reducing exercises. Plumper ladies who just haven't been able to attain the slender silhouette of recent years have felt that before long curves would come back to fashion, and they would be able at last to goat over their bean-pole sisters.

And now at last a new silhouette has arrived, a silhouette that looks as if it might settle down and remain with us for a season or so. But, alas for the plump sisterhood, it demands every bit as much slenderness as the silhouette that it has come to replace. For the bouffancy and fullness under which the plump ones had hoped to hide their rotund hips doesn't begin until the line of the hips has ended!

This new contour is known as the semi-princess silhouette—semi, because it starts out to be princess and continues so well past the hips and then suddenly changes its mind and spreads outward with its greatest width somewhere below the knees. No one can say that it is particularly wearable or comfortable, and this very fact gives hope to those who find it unbecoming that it will be short lived.

The fact remains that these semi-princess frocks are decidedly on the increase among well-dressed women and the new shorter coats are worn over full skirts in a way to carry out the new lines.

Jenny of Paris has produced a number of important models showing this new semi-princess silhouette and it is also to be seen in much of the newest work of Louiseboulanger.

An elaborate exhibition of the work now being done by Swiss women; and of work which they did in past centuries, is to be given in the city of Berne this Autumn. Women architects have designed the buildings in which the exhibition will be held and every detail of the big display will be managed by women.

Under the new South African liquor law, women no longer will be permitted to work as barmaids, a prohibition that is already in operation in the Transvaal.

HUMANE SOCIETY EXECUTIVE MEETS

Decides to Renew Subscriptions and to Hold Paper Collection June 1.

A regular executive meeting of the Peterborough Humane Society was held on Thursday evening, May 17th, in the Chamber of Commerce. The President, Dr. Thomas Johnston, V.S. presided. It was decided to renew subscriptions to the Pleader, to the Y.M.C.A., and Y.W.C.A., and to give a new yearly subscription to the Boy Scouts.

A letter was read from Trent River about a rescue from drowning. This matter will be referred to the Royal Humane Society, Hamilton, and the Secretary was instructed to send a complimentary letter to the heroine, Miss Florence Sedgewick, Trent River.

A notice of the annual convention to be held at Guelph, was read and the Secretary was appointed as a delegate to this Convention.

Dr. J. J. Craig was present, representing the Kiwanians, and asked for the co-operation of the Humane Society in opening the Made-in-Canada Exposition, in October, with a Horse Parade. The Society very willingly agreed to take charge of this and with F. H. Dawson as Convenor, arrangements will soon be under way.

It was decided to hold a Paper Collection on Friday, June 1st, and as the Junior Boys and Girls are collecting the papers this promises to be a very profitable occasion.

Inspector Smith's report of activities for past month was as follows:

3 emergency calls.
16 calls to sick dogs and cats.
5 horses examined.
7 dogs brought to shelter.
5 dogs humanely destroyed.
2 dogs placed in homes.
2 dogs claimed by owners.
4 cats brought to shelter.
9 cats humanely destroyed.
2 cats given to homes.
5 complaints investigated.
3 warnings issued.
1 stable inspected.

The Society of Women Geographers, which came into existence only three years ago; now boasts of members in practically every country of any prominence.

INTOXICATED DRIVERS.

"A driver who has been drinking is too dangerous. The life of a child or anyone else should not be at the mercy of alcohol. So far as the Journal is concerned there will be no exceptions to the rule of publishing the name of anyone convicted of being under the influence of liquor while driving a car." —Ottawa Journal.

Similar declarations are being made by other Ontario newspapers, which are thus adopting a policy that has been carried out for some time by The Examiner.

Our position is exactly that stated by the Journal. There will be no departure from the rule of publishing such names, and the public might as well understand that first as last.

The drunken driver is one of the greatest menaces to the safety of the public, and he can expect pity from neither newspapers nor the courts.

The man who knows he has to drive should leave liquor alone; the man who has been drinking should leave the wheel alone.

Those who try to combine liquor and gasoline need look for no sympathy if their conduct gets them into trouble.

Newspapers are lenient enough with offenders who drink too much, but the individual who drinks too much and then tries to drive a motor car is in a different class and must be expected to be treated as such.

THE C.G.E.'S EXPANSION.

The announcement of the Canadian General Electric Company's intention to spend $1,500,000, in addition to the already huge local plant, during this year and next is rightly hailed as splendid news for Peterborough.

This comprehensie building program, which will this year add 41,800 square feet of floor space to the Peterborough plant and in 1929 still further enlarge the local facilities, represents expansion that cannot fail to be of material benefit to this community.

Last year the Canadian General Electric Company paid $1,861,632.74 in wages and salaries and $20,771.78 in taxes here, figures that are eloquent of the value of the industry to this city.

The important additions now decided upon will materially increase the capacity of the plant and mean the employment of more workers, while the building activities themselves will provide employment for many building trades workers during the next two years.

Peterborough's prestige as a manufacturing centre cannot fail to be increased as a result of this decision of the Canadian General Electric Company to expand here rather than in some of its other plants, and this building program, following the location of the Johnson Outboard Motors here, will do much to concentrate attention upon this city as the logical location for industries seeking a site.

ABOUT THOSE PERMITS.

Enough has been revealed in regard to the question of immigration permits to justify a demand from the people that the light of day should be thrown upon this matter.

If there has been trafficking in permits and somebody has been profiting thereby, it should be possible to get at the facts—and the facts should be got at in the public interest.

The testimony so far given before the Parliamentary Committee on Agriculture and Immigration has been contradictory and of no great value in getting down to the root of the matter.

It is disquieting to find that prior to September, 1927, no record of applicants for permits was kept, and while the committee has made a half-hearted effort to do something by asking for a list of parliamentarians securing permits since October, 1926, it will be difficult to satisfy the public that such information is all that is necessary.

The inquiry should be more exhaustive than that, and should go back much farther if the question of how these permits have been used is to be thoroughly probed.

As the Toronto Globe points out, "it is important to learn whether the Immigration Department has been in charge of immigration or whether it delegated a large part of its authority to permit collectors."

WELCOME NEWS.

E. A. Peck, member for West Peterborough in the House of Commons, has written The Examiner to say that there is no possibility of the sessional indemnities of the M.P.'s being increased during the present session.

The announcement, we are sure, will be received with satisfaction.

The members at Ottawa have no conception possibly of how much indignation has been aroused by stories to the effect that they were about to vote themselves an increase of $2,000 a session.

No one we have heard discuss the matter hesitated to condemn the proposal as a barefaced raid upon the Treasury that could not possibly be justified.

The Canadian people feel in regard to this question that the Ottawa Journal was right when it said:

"Canadian legislators, come to think of it, are not so badly looked after. For a session, which averages about five months, they receive $4,000, which is $800 a month. In addition they receive free transportation for themselves and their dependents upon all Canadian railways; are allowed travelling expenses to and from their sessional duties; are given free stenographers; and are provided with a first-class restaurant where they and their families can secure meals at prices that are actually below cost."

It is understood that the Cabinet stoutly refused to yield to the demand for an indemnity increase.

If that is the case the Cabinet Ministers have earned the gratitude of the Canadian people.

BEHIND PRISON BARS.

The report of the Superintendent of Penitentiaries has just been published. Its figures show an increase in the daily average of prison population amounting to 60. Last year this average reached 2,456, as compared with the figures for the preceding year, which were 2,396. It is gratifying to find that the net expenditure shows a reduction, while the revenue for the year was the largest ever turned in by the penitentiaries, and amounted to $183,004. There were no escapes from the prisons last year.

One of the most interesting though regrettable features of the report is to be found in a comparison of the ages of the inmates of the prisons of the Dominion. These show that 281 were under 20 years of age, 1,036 were between the ages of 20 and 30, while 45 were over 60 years of age. The figures indicate that the crime problem is largely concerned with the youth of the land. In fact, it might with perfect truth be said that it is wholly a young man's problem. If every young man and woman could be kept in the straight and narrow way until the age of 25, the penitentiaries of the world would shortly be closed forever.

Much of the crime that is committed arises from ignorance and illiteracy, and the penitentiaries are doing good service in enabling those whose education has been neglected to acquire something of what has been lost.—The Globe.

PITT AND CANADA.

The one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the death in England of William Pitt, the "Great Commoner"—who died Earl of Chatham, nevertheless—has been observed with all the respect and reverence due to the memory of one of England's greatest statesmen. It has been the occasion of a universal chorus of tribute which, if it has added little to our knowledge of the war minister who raised his country "to a height of prosperity and glory unknown to any former age," has left no doubt as to his pre-eminent place in history. And it has directed public attention in Britain to the lack of memorials, apart from that in Westminster Abbey, to the genius of the real founder of the British Empire.

In the commemoration of Pitt's services and achievements, Canada has good reason to share, for it was largely due to his energetic initiative and his inspired direction of the war with France that she became a British possession. Some Whig historians have sought to minimize his influence upon the operations of the Seven Years' War, which resulted so triumphantly for British arms, and so completely vindicated British policy.

It has been said that some of his military undertakings were rashly conceived, and badly executed; that others were more spectacular than effective, and not worth the cost in blood and treasure; and that the conquests in India, however magnificent, were not planned by him. Chatham's critics, indeed, while acknowledging his enterprising temper, his unflagging energy and his unconquerable determination, have attributed the success which attended his leadership less to the skill of his dispositions, than to the resources at his command and the national spirit which supported him. Yet, even Macaulay, with all his political prejudices, felt constrained to admit that if the national spirit rose to the emergency, and the national resources were contributed with unexampled cheerfulness, it was undoubtedly the work of Pitt.

Certainly, whatever may be said of the part he played in the conduct of other campaigns, there can be no question as to his share of responsibility for the conquest of Canada. In Britain, as in France, there were those who regarded the struggle for possession of North American territory as not worth the sacrifice of a soldier's life, or the cost of a military transport. What to Voltaire represented "a few acres of snow" appeared to some British statesmen as a prize of no greater value than the remote island of Guadaloupe.

But that was not the view of Pitt. With a spacious outlook, a profound sense of strategic values, a supreme gift for organization, and an unerring instinct in the choice of men to carry out his designs, he combined the vision of a statesman who, more clearly than any of his contemporaries, divined the destiny of the American continent, and realized the opportunities for colonial development in its northern regions under British rule. And having set his mind upon the establishment of British supremacy in the New World, he spared no effort, and neglected no resource, to carry to a triumphant conclusion the campaign in which Wolfe and Amherst, Boscawen and Saunders were his glorious instruments.

What is not so often remembered is the fact that the war minister who determined the fate of Canada as a British possession came near to being her first administrator. Compelled, at the height of his power and popularity, to resign from the Bute ministry on account of dissension over the policy adopted in regard to Spain, Pitt was offered by the young king, George III., the governorship of Canada as a mark of royal gratitude for his services.

The "Great Commoner," however, pleaded family circumstances as a reason for declining the office, which eventually fell to Murray. Had he accepted, even though residence at Quebec was not called for under the terms of the offer, who can say what the results would have been? The historian must only take account of facts, and cannot speculate upon the might-have-beens. Yet it is an intriguing thought that the history of the colony that is now the Dominion, and even, perhaps, that of the colonies which became the United States, might easily have followed a different course if "the first man in England" had, at a critical period, linked his administrative genius with Canada's fortunes.—Ottawa Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The Bell Telephone bill is having a rough passage in the House, proving that some of the members at least realize that they have some responsibility towards the public.

Despite political stories of distress as to Toronto's condition, 35,000 people saw the running of the King's Plate on Saturday.

Peterborough did well by the Salvation Army on Saturday, as a recognition of the fact that the Salvation Army always does well by Peterborough.

Early season indications are that Ontario will play host to a record number of United States tourists this summer, and that this district is to get a large share of this profitable traffic.

The Peterborough City Council is in good company in discussing the removal of gasoline pumps from the streets. The House of Lords has been giving some attention to the same question.

The Question Box

W.G.—Q: On what date did the Quaker Oats fire occur?

A: December 11, 1916.

D.C.—Q: What is the world tendency in regard to capital punishment?

A: The tendency in every country since the 19th century has been to reduce the list of capital offences. In England, more than 200 capital felonies were created by the statutes of the 18th century, including even petty theft. The law of 1861, however, abolished the death penalty for most of these offences, and only for treason, murder, piracy with violence, and the firing of government arsenals and dockyards can the death penalty be inflicted. In point of fact, treason and murder alone remain capital offences. Holland, Rumania and Portugal have abolished capital punishment, and it is rarely inflicted in Sweden, Denmark, Belgium or Switzerland. In 1920 it was reintroduced into Russia.

L.F.—Q: Are there more automobiles in Peterborough now than at the end of the war boom in 1918?

A: Six times as many, as nearly any pedestrian can tell. In 1918 there were 1,920 motor vehicles registered here, and to-day there are nearly 12,000. This, of course, includes the registration centre.

T.B.E.—Q: (1) How old is the carpet manufacturing industry? (2) How extensive is it in Canada?

A: (1 An Egyptian fresco, about 3000 B.C., shows a carpet loom and its workers. Carpets, plain and figured, were used in Homeric times, and Pliny refers to the Babylonians as skilful weavers. It is not until the return of Crusaders that carpets were introduced in England, and it was 1701 before a charter was granted the weavers of Wilton and Axminster. (2) The carpet industry in Canada, in which the Brinton Carpet Company has a considerable part, produced in 1924 carpets of a gross value of $2,725,779, with upwards of $5,000,000 invested. There are about 700 employees.

GOD'S MINUTE

Lord increase our faith—Luke 17: 5.

Our Father in Heaven, it is fitting that we acknowledge Thee every day; Thou dost not forget us. Teach us to set Thee before our eyes continually.

Our reasons for thanksgiving are new every morning; give us grateful hearts. Keep us from sin; cleanse us from its pollution; save us from its guilt. Grant us true repentance for our sins; help us to overcome evil evil with good.

Give us eyes to see, ears to hear, and hearts to understand. May we value our time, see our opportunities, and hear and understand Thy voice. Help us to love Thee supremely and our neighbors as ourselves.

Give us our daily bread and something for those who lack. Keep our eye lifted up to the white fields and to the Lord of the Harvest, who is able to save the needed laborers. Grant to us some share in the labor, and some sheaves to bring with rejoicing.

Hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom and the doing of Thy will among men. May our days end in peace, and may the House of the Lord be our dwelling place for evermore.

CATTLE, GRAIN AND PRODUCE

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Que., May 21 (Canadian Press)—Owing to the fact that foreign buyers failed to respond to local exporters' offers, the export trade in grain here Saturday was extremely dull. The car lot trade in oats was also inactive, but prices were unchanged.

The movement of Spring and Winter wheat flour was small, but prices for all grades were firm.

The local and United States demand for all lines of millfeed continued good and a moderate amount of business was done at steady prices. The inquiry for standard grades of rolled oats was limited but values ruled firm.

Prices for all grades of eggs were fully maintained under a quiet demand. The receipts Saturday were 2,565 cases.

A fairly active business was done in butter and the undertone to the market was firm. The receipts were 1,341 packages.

The local and export trade in cheese was fair and values were unchanged. The receipts were 1,452 boxes.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, May 21 (Canadian Press)—Corn became the speculative leader toward the last Saturday in the grain trade, and scored a sudden sharp advance. Aggressive commission house buying of corn developed in connection with signs of a decided falling-off in the domestic corn visible surplus to-day, and with talk of chances that labor troubles in Argentina would spread to Buenos Aires.

Closing quotations on corn were strong, 1¼ to 1⅝c net higher, with wheat unchanged to ½c up; oats varying from ⅝c decline to 1c gain, and provisions 7c off to a rise of 12c.

Buyers of corn were quick to take advantage of indications that selling of late in the corn market had been considerably overdone. This selling was brought about to a large extent by favorable weather, but offerings Saturday except in the early dealings were scarce, and price upturns when once well started took effect at a rapid rate. Association with apparent likelihood of a liberal decrease in the corn visible supply was the fact that primary shipments of corn for the week were 2,420,000 bushels in excess of arrivals.

Accelerating the late upward swing of the corn market moreover was news that port strikes in Argentina appeared to becoming worse, and that possibilities of Buenos Aires being affected were increasing. Under such circumstances, it was asserted in some quarters that if the Argentina corn movement is delayed to a material extent the result might easily be to turn a fair demand to the United States for corn to be shipped to Europe.

Wheat and oats rallied toward the last, influenced by corn strength and by Winnipeg messages indicating that liberal export business in wheat was in progress. Earlier, reports of rain in Saskatchewan, and also in domestic winter wheat territory southwest tended to keep the wheat market here easy. There were dispatches at hand, too, telling of 9 to 12 per cent enlargements of Spring wheat acreage this season in Canada.

In the provision market, conditions were easy, the main factor being a downward trend of hog values.

A Thought

"PRAYER"

When we doubt God in prayer then our life becomes a blackness of despair. When we trust in the wise and loving Saviour then the dark clouds become gems of comfort and support. Prayer is just a lone conversation with our Heavenly Father. What could be superior than to give the mind an inner sight that brings it nearer to God?

In very much of our prayer there is really but little thought of God. We think only of what we need and let our minds drift from the loving Father of whom we are seeking it. There is no power in that sort of prayer. But when we really do meet God's face in prayer, then there is power.

God delights to hear his people pray in the unity of His people. Many a church congregation pray for revivals who really do not desire a revival. They are only thinking of the increase on the membership roll and not about the number of lives saved for God.

Prayer educates the soul and heart. It makes God real to us and not just an idea. It is the peace of God which passeth all understanding. Prayer promotes spiritual growth, for prayer and Bible study go hand in hand.

A person who spends much time in conversation with his Father has a different light in his eyes and a glowing, open countenance.

Even Jesus prayed when He drew nearer and nearer to the Cross. The victory of Calvary was won that night in the garden of Gethsemane. Many tempations are overcome by prayer. Therefore, our whole life should be a life of prayer. Confide in God and God will understand.

Other men of God, once mighty, have lost their power because they have allowed increasing work to crowd out prayer. Let us never forget that the more pressing work the more time must we spend in prayer. The busier Christ's life was, the more He prayed. When He needed rest and food, he prayed more.

Prayer is the glory of the soul and a closer road to God.

Pray, for prayer availeth much.

FRENCH FAVOR TREATY PLAN

Likely To Accept British Proposal For Collateral Interpreation Compact.

LEAGUE PARLEY EXPECTED.

PARIS, May 18.—Evidence is not lacking here that the French in the last analysis will be found willing to accept the procedure which it is understood Sir Austen Chamberlain will suggest in his coming note to Washington on the anti-war compact.

It is reported here that the British Foreign Secretary will explain to Secretary Kellogg that London is agreeable to acceptance of the American text as it stands, without the insertion of any reservations, but will ask that there be established among the powers a common understanding on the interpretation of the anti-war compact in its relation to existing commitments.

As Lord Cushendun said in the House of Lords, there should be placed on record, "in some formal and accepted manner," the various views as to just what the anti-war treaty meant.

London, it is believed, feels that Mr. Kellogg's New York speech met the situation, but that there remain particular points not covered by the Secretary of State, and that, furthermore, the interpretation of such important documents should not remain simply as the record of a speech made by Mr. Kellogg but should be incorporated into some sort of correlated document which could be left alongside the treaty against the day there might arise a need for construing it.

Puts Our Co-operation First.

Now, the main purpose of the French reservation put forth in M. Briand's draft of the treaty was to assure that the Covenant of the League of Nations, the Locarno compacts and the French security treaties should remain as before the anti-war treaty was signed. While still insisting that the logical thing would be to make this plain in the treaty itself, that is a secondary rather than a primary consideration for the French. Either in the treaty or outside the treaty, they wish to record their interpretation of it. And it appears that Germany, Italy, Britain and Japan agree that something of the sort should be done.

There is not, nor has there been, in France any great enthusiasm for the anti-war treaty, but there is a very real desire to obtain American international co-operation, and so much value is attached to this that the French may be found quite unwilling to allow the question of procedure to block the making of a compact. If they can get satisfaction in fact they may waive the question of form.

The prospect of any such document setting forth the construction and meaning of the Kellogg compact contains great interest. It might easily happen that this document, at least in popular fancy, might come to have greater importance than the treaty itself, since it might well have such an important bearing on the application of the anti-war compact.

Opposition in Our Senate Foreseen.

One can easily guess that when the matter comes before the American Senate more words will be spoken about this accompanying document than about the treaty itself. Especially is this true since it is but natural that the consideration of limitations by the other powers put upon their acceptance of a promise never to fight again would bring the question as to whether the United States would on its side limit its adherence to that pledge.

It is regarded likely that the legal experts of the foreign offices of the European nations concerned will discuss the possible forms of expressing their common interpretation of the treaty in the course of the meeting of the League Council, which opens in Geneva the first week in June. This would not naturally be a League meeting, but it would represent conversations among the diplomats who happened to be then and there assembled.

It will be recalled that London suggested a meeting of local experts of all the nations involved, including America, but dropped the proposal when Washington showed a dislike for it. It is entirely likely that the foreign office experts, with some few additions, could formulate the proposed document from the declarations made by Mr. Kellogg in his speech of April 28. It is hoped the American Secretary of State will have no objection to putting his statements into formal and durable shape.

ALL too many people, broken down in health, suffering from overtiredness and nervousness, have found in their three "good" meals a day the cause of their poor health! Proper nourishment is a negligible quantity in many modern-day dishes. In all too large a number of them it is dangerously lacking.

A food expert planned one food which has grown to be the favorite of millions, for it gives five precious nutritious elements: dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for energy; iron for blood; phosphorus for teeth and bone; protein for muscle and body-building; and the very essential vitamin-B. This food is Grape-Nuts. It is prepared by a special process which gives you all this valuable nourishment in the most easily digested form.

Have it for breakfast to-morrow. Your grocer sells Grape-Nuts in wax-wrapped packages. It's ready to eat—with milk or cream. A serving is four teaspoonfuls—costing less than one cent.

A Delightful Crispness for Teeth and Digestion
Grape-Nuts comes in crisp, golden kernels which you like to chew. This gives the needed healthful exercise to your teeth and gums and starts the process of digestion where it should properly start — in the mouth.

YOSHIO MARKINO NOTED AS ARTIST

Japanese, Who is Also Author, Has Gallery in London.

LONDON, May 21 (By the Canadian Press).—Perhaps the smallest art gallery in London is Yoshio Markino's studio, a little detached room at the rear of Mrs. Nigel Playfair's attractive furniture and decoration shop in the Brompton road. It is reached through a tiny garden at the back of the shop and up a short flight of wooden steps. Markino is a Japanese artist-author and lecturer of international fame, and is known in Europe and overseas for his books and pictures. He came to London in 1897. In his pictorial art he works in water-colors and among his books are: "The Color of London," "The Color of Paris," and "A Japanese Artist in London."

At a recent exhibition by Markino in his little gallery which was opened by John Drinkwater, the poet and dramatist, H. G. Wells, the novelist, was one of the first purchasers of a Markino picture.

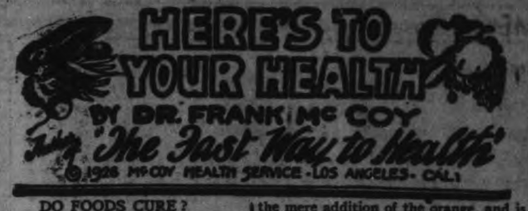
Lilacs In Full Leaf In Cavan District

CAVAN, May 21.—Lilacs are almost in full leaf and the leaves of the apple trees are coming along quickly. A few plum blossoms can be seen, while the early sown wheat is up.

If you buy out of town, and I buy out of town, and all our neighbors buy out of town, what in thunder will become of our town? Ever think about it?



DO FOODS CURE?

There have been many attempts to classify foods into their disease-curing properties. In fact, I have seen many lists of foods that resembled a medical pharmacopeia, but I have found that the belief in specific curative foods is largely one of superstition. Foods are only "curative" when they supply deficiencies in the diet.

I frequently use the orange juice fast in diseases where there is a condition of acidosis, that is, a lessened alkalinity of the blood, because I have found in my private practise that no other method will increase the alkalinity of the blood as rapidly and, at the same time, permit the elimination of poisons unhampered

The reason that we do not consider starvation and excessive thirst as diseases, and food and water as medicines, is because of the obvious cause and effect. Yet, food would undoubtedly help a starving man more than all the medicine in the world. There is no doubt that many diseases are caused directly by a lack of certain elements in the food just as other diseases are caused or at least prepared for by the overeating of rich pastries.

Scurvy was the plague of the middle ages. Every boat going on a long trip or every large military encampment was likely to suffer its quota of victims. Now we know this disease is directly due to a lack of vitamin C which is so abundant in the citrus fruits. In this sense only may food be regarded as a medicine.

Fortunately, because of the abundant supply of food at the disposal of civilization, scurvy is rare among adults, but it is all too frequently found among babies, particularly those who are fed exclusively on those prepared baby foods, or pasteurized milk, from which vitamin C is absent. Had they been fed properly, with the addition of orange juice, this trouble would have been entirely avoided. I have prepared an article on the feeding of infants which I will be very glad to send if you need it. Practically all children would develop into strong healthy adults if they were properly fed from infancy.

The citrus fruits are possibly the most valuable foods to use in the majority of diseases, but of course one should be very careful not to use them in combination with starch because this will very likely produce fermentation enough to offset the good of the fruit.

Recently a test was made in the Berkeley (California) schools wherein certain groups of children were given oranges at recess. The weight increase was even more than with a similar group who were allowed a glass of milk each at the same recess. This confirms my own discoveries that the increase of weight is often more than can be accounted for in the mere addition of the orange, and is due to the increased assimilation of other foods.

Children usually receive enough of the milk elements at home, but frequently their diets are lacking in important elements so necessary for growth which are found in the fruits and green vegetables.

Health is not obtained by stuffing with food or quantities of drugs, but with a well balanced diet containing all of the essential elements, eaten in the proper combinations to avoid intestinal poisoning—taken with sufficient exercise and fresh air to insure consuming the surplus and eliminating the waste.

Questions and Answers.

Question—J. L. writes: "I am unable to do the exercises you recommend, that is, those taken while lying on the back, as my entire weight seems to rest on the end of my spine and it is very painful."

Answer: It is a good plan to place a quilt on the floor and take your exercises on that, or put a small pillow under your hips to furnish additional padding if you do not have enough of your own.

Question—Mrs. L. M. asks: "Will you please explain in the question and answer column how to prepare Salisbury steak?"

Answer: This steak is prepared by grinding through a meat grinder only the red, lean part of round steak from which all gristle and fat have been removed. This may seem similar to "Hamburger" steak, but it is really more palatable and more easily digested, and has an entirely different flavor when the fat is left out. Press the ground meat into a dry cake pan to a depth of about one inch, place in a hot oven and turn the fire down. Meat will cook through in about five minutes. A tasty addition may be made by grinding spinach or parsley with the meat.

Question—L. W. asks: "Is the only way to cure mouth breathing by removing the tonsils and adenoids? When I wake in the morning my teeth and tongue are coated with a hard, dark substance which washes off like blood. What is the cause, and how can it be stopped?"

Answer: Surgical removal of adenoids, or reducing them by dieting, are the only cures for mouth breathing, but I consider the treatment by diet to be the best and of more lasting benefit in every way. Enlarged tonsils can be reduced to their normal size by diet treatment alone, and operations are not necessary. The dark substance may be caused by bleeding from the gums. Consult your dentist.

Why We Do What We Do.

WHY WE CRITICIZE

By Mehran K. Thomson, Ph.D.
(Author, The Springs of Human Action)

Criticism is cheap. The work of the destroyer is easy. All he needs is an ax. We like to criticize because it requires no special talent. It is a lot easier to find fault with a professional baseball player than it is to go out there on the field and play better yourself.

This does not tell the whole story. We criticize because we enjoy doing it.

The person who sets himself up as a judge or critic assumes a lofty position. The critic is supposed to know a lot more than the one who is criticized. Theoretically the right of criticism is reserved to the learned and aged, who are looked up to and respected for their knowledge and experience.

In reality the most ignorant person is the quickest to criticise and is always ready with solutions to all sorts of problems.

There are two reasons for this. One is that the ignorant person has no means of knowing how inadequate his theories are. He has not sufficient background to appreciate his lack of knowledge. He does not know that his ideas are antiquated or irrational and impractical.

The most important reason why the ignorant are most ready to criticize and to give advice is that by this means they make up for their conscious and unconscious sense of inferiority.

We like to criticize because criticism is easy, it appeals to our sense of importance, it feeds our pride and vanity to take down the other fellow a peg or two and in so doing to stand on relatively higher ground ourselves. We assume a similar position when we laugh or poke fun at another person.

MONUMENT SUGGESTED

It has been suggested that a monument be erected at the Humber river near Toronto, dedicated to Etienne Brule, the young Frenchman whose trip from the Huron country down the Humber to Lake Ontario in September, 1615, won for him the distinction of being the first white man to visit those parts. He was followed five years later by his chief, Samuel de Champlain, founder of Quebec and Father of New France, while in 1678, the noted French explorer, La Salle, put in with his vessel at the mouth of the Humber and was nearly frozen in for the winter, escaping only by arming his crew with axes and ordering them to cut the boat clear. The dotted line on the map shows the route followed by Brule in passing from Lake Simcoe along the Holland river and then down the Humber. The UPPER inset is of Champlain; the LOWER, La Salle.

Mr. McLeod discovers a new way to save money

HE never hesitates to spend money, to make more money, but, characteristically, he would rather pay 50 cents for something than a Dollar. A thrifty soul—and a good friend of ours.

"So you notice that more people are using the Evening Rate for Long Distance," he said to us the other day.

"Yes, that's true. While many people do not realize how comparatively low the Evening Rate is (after 8.30 p.m.) it is gradually dawning on more of them that it is an easy way to save money. Take your own case. Look at these examples of Evening Rates:—

Station-to-Station.		Evening Rate
Peterborough to	Brantford	.45
"	Hamilton	.40
"	Kitchener	.45
"	London	.60
"	Montreal	.85
"	Ottawa	.50
"	Toronto	.30

"This list doesn't include some of the towns I call, but it gives me a good idea of what the rate to them would be."

"Quite so. And remember, that the time in effect at the point where the call originates (whether Standard Time or Daylight) applies on Evening Rates."

CHAPTER XIII.

A group of people sat on the deck of the hotel and watched the kaleidoscopic crowd already assembling on the boardwalk and the beach.

One of these was Ned Barron, who had stood next to Garrett Folsom at the time of his sudden collapse.

"Of course I must report, Maddy," he was saying to his wife. "I stood next to Mr. Folsom. I had been talking with him. As I had never seen or heard of the man before, my evidence can be of no help, but I must offer it."

"I wish you wouldn't," Madeline Barron said thoughtfully. "I see your point of view, of course, and it is logical in a way. But, as you say, it can be of no help, and it would get you a most unpleasant notoriety. Why, they may even think you knew the dead man, and they will call on you for testimony at the inquest—and—and all sorts of horrid things!"

"Bless your heart, child, what a fearsome picture you draw! I can't feel, though, that I shall be greatly inconvenienced, except that it may cut into my time a little. But duty is duty, and I certainly was next the man—"

"I, too, advise you to keep out of it, Ned."

It was Croydon Sears who spoke, who, with his son, Robin, and Angelica Fair, completed the party.

"I don't think it is your duty," Sears went on. "You know nothing of the man; you have no personal interest in the affair, and since you can be of no possible help, why mix in?"

"That's all right, dad," Robin Sears said. "But these notices ask any guest of the hotel who knows anything about the matter—"

"There you are," returned his father "Barron doesn't know anything about the matter. Hello, here's Tite Riggs. Let him advise us. Come here, Tite, sit down and give us some words of wisdom. Ned, here, thinks he ought to announce to a waiting world that he stood next Mr. Folsom, who was, they say, killed while in bathing."

"I saw you talking to him," said Riggs, sitting down near them. "I assumed from that that you knew him."

"Well, I didn't," said Barron, shortly. "And I wasn't talking to him; he was talking to me."

"A distinction with a difference?"

"Very much of a difference. I detest being addressed by strangers, especially those who have a rooted conviction that ocean bathing constitutes an introduction. It's too absurd! Because you stand next to another man at the rope, or bump into him by reason of a buffeting wave, does that mean sudden friendship?"

"No," Madeline said, decidedly. "And Ned is foolish to give the matter a thought—"

"Oh, I know my duty, even though it is not in line with my inclinations. You agree, don't you, Tite, that I am bound to tell the management—after these notices we all received this morning—that I stood next to this victim of a tragic death? Even though I was annoyed at his unconventionality, my duty as a good citizen is plain. And, too, if only to clear myself from possible suspicion—"

"Clear yourself!" his wife exclaimed. "On the contrary, you will put yourself in a position to be suspected!"

"Nonsense, Maddy, you're overexcited about this thing. Tell her, Tite, that I've no choice in the matter."

"I think so," Riggs said, slowly, looking at Madeline with an apologetic air. "It seems to me it would be better in every way for Ned to go at once to the management and make his report."

"And be subpenaed as a material witness—"

"Good heavens, Maddy," cried her husband, "I didn't know you even knew there was such a thing as a material witness or a subpena. Where did you learn such terms?"

Madeline Barron smiled. Always lovely, when she smiled she was beautiful. Her small, dark face lighted up with a touch of roguery, her expressive dark eyes shone as she said:

"Oh, I read detective stories, now and then. Who doesn't, nowadays?"

"You do!" Croydon Sears seemed surprised. "I know most men do, but I didn't think those yarns appealed to women."

"I love 'em," Madeline declared, and Tite Riggs smiled his sympathy.

"So do I," he said. "And any one, man or woman, could do a lot worse in a literary way than to read detective fiction."

"Yes, I know," Barron said, carelessly, "presidents, prime ministers—I know. But tell me, Riggs, don't you think I ought to—"

"I sure do, Barron. Of course you ought to. You MUST report, and the sooner, the quicker. Come on, now, I'll go with you, if you like."

"Do. Not that I need bolstering up, but I know your own curiosity is the urge."

"Let me go, too, will you?" asked Robin Sears. "I'm a born detective—"

"Hush your nonsense, boy," said his father. "No, you are not to go. I don't want you dragged into this business, too. You've no duty calling you, have you?"

"No, Angel and I were far out in the surf when it all happened. But I want to go; I'd like to see how the thing works—"

"Yes, I know. Your inordinate curiosity, your—"

An interruption came in the person of Miss Anastasia Folsom.

Tall, majestic and quiet-mannered, she approached the group, and as the men rose, she announced herself, speaking to all, and yet, as her quick eyes darted from one to another, fastening themselves on Madeline, she seemed to regard her as the one to be addressed.

"I am Miss Folsom," she said, "and I am the sister of the man who was murdered down here yesterday. I have been told that, so far as is known, Mr. Barron was the last one to talk to my brother before he collapsed, and so—"

Immediately Madeline Barron was on the defensive.

"Miss Folsom," she said, rising, to emphasize her words, "you have been misinformed. My husband spoke to Mr. Folsom shortly before Mr. Folsom fell down into the water. But others spoke to him after that. I know, because I stood at the other side of Mr. Barron, and I had opportunity of observing."

"I am glad to learn, Mrs. Barron, that you were observant. Your testimony may be of value. As nearly as I can find out, you and Mr. Barron were on one side of my brother, and two ladies, known to me, were at his other side. Now, will you tell me, please, who, since you were noticing, was also near him? Not necessarily on the rope, but nearby in the water?"

Madeline thought. She was most anxious to remember those who were nearby, as every other possible suspect helped to fend off thought of her husband. She knew that Ned never knew the dead man, and had no possible personal interest in him, but she knew too how in the stories she had read, an innocent man was frequently put in most unpleasant situations.

"Mr. Sears was not far off," said Madeline Barron, at last. "But nearer still, I remember now, were Mr. and Mrs. Tracy. Yes, they were very close to Mr. Folsom, and doubtless can tell you something of the circumstances."

"There's not much to tell," said Miss Folsom, her lips set in a grim line. "Nobody, except the man who stabbed him, was paying any particular attention to him. Why would they? In the ocean, each individual is looking out for himself or for some one in his care. Few are watching their neighbors. So, as somebody certainly did kill my brother, with a knife or a dagger, that person came into the water prepared and, of course, centered his whole energy on accomplishing his fiendish plan unobserved.

"That's why I care little for the evidence or testimony of those who chanced to be near the unfortunate victim of this tragedy. Yet, as there is always a chance that an observer might have seen some suspicious circumstance, some indicative move on the part of some one else, I am asking those who were nearest for any information they can give."

Miss Folsom's voice was low, her manner quiet and on the whole she made a favorable impression on those who heard her.

Except for two of them.

Tite Riggs, watching closely, saw a hint of the iron hand under the velvet glove, and felt sure that the lady was politely plausible in her manner because she deemed it policy and not because she was entirely sincere in her statements.

And Robin Sears noted searchingly the unconscious movements of Anastasia Folsom, and ascribed her involuntary facial expressions or instinctive gestures to an unacknowledged suspicion or doubt of something or somebody unmentioned.

SOCIETY REVIEW

OTTAWA, Ont., May 21 (by the Canadian Press).—Lady Pope entertained Thursday at a luncheon party which she held for her guest, Miss Juliet Taschereau, daughter of the Prime Minister of Quebec, and for Miss Alleyn Fiset, eldest daughter of Major-General Sir Eugene and Lady Fiset, whose marriage to John Munstall of Quebec, took place yesterday afternoon in the Juniorate of the Sacred Heart Church, followed by a large reception. Lady Pope's guests included Mrs. Henry Gill, Mrs. Geoffrey Birkett, the Misses Helen and Mauriel Brenner, Miss Hope Macmahon, Miss Kilein Scott, Miss Sylvia Smellie, Miss Violet Cuffe Quin and Miss Gabrielle Fiset.

More than three hundred guests from among the Conservative women of Ottawa attended a delightfully arranged reception and tea held by Mrs. M. H. Rowley at her residence, Stadacona Hall in honor of Miss Mildred Bennett, sister of the leader of the Opposition. Miss Bennett, Mrs. Crombie, the president of the Conservative Women's Association of Ottawa, and Lady Perley, received with the hostess.

Lady Foster was hostess on Thursday at a tea which she held at her residence for Miss Ann Elizabeth Wilson of Toronto, for Mrs. C. B. Hagen of Calgary and Montreal, and for Miss S. Atkinson, an English artist who is touring Canada.

Mrs. Arthur C. Hardy held a luncheon party early this week for her mother, Mrs. George Fulford of Brockville, who has since left for a visit in Toronto.

Hon. Senator Dr. H. S. Beland was host to the Directors of the Alliance Francaise early this week, the president, Mr. Justice T. Rinfret being the guest of hohor. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux presented to Mr. Rinfret an expression of congratulation on his having the Legion of Honor conferred upon him recently.

New York Yanks Win Eighth Straight Victory

PIPGRAS HOLDS ST LOUIS 9-3

Combs' Homer With Bases Full in Fourth Feature of Game.

DICKEY RELEASED.

NEW YORK, May 21 (Canadian Press).—The Yankees knocked out Sam Gray in the sixth inning here yesterday, to win their eighth straight victory, and their twelfth out of thirteen played against the west. The Browns were victims yesterday, 9 to 3.

It was George Pipgras' seventh victory without a defeat this season. Earl Combs' homer with the bases filled in the fourth inning featured, while a pinch single by Sturdy with the bases filled in the fifth accounted for two St. Louis runs.

Babe Ruth failed to add any homers to his total, getting but one single. He was stopped after making four homers in three games.

The Yankee management announced that William Dickey, rookie Yankee catcher, was released yesterday to the Albany Club of the Eastern League on option.

Detroit ended its losing streak which had continued through seven games, by defeating the White Sox, 2 to 1, at Detroit.

A ninth inning rally, decided a pitchers' battle between Ted Lyons and Elem Vangilder, in favor of the Tigers. As Detroit went to bat for the last time they were one run behind. After Heilman had lined to Mostil, Fothergill drove the ball over the left field fence for a home run, tieing the score. Further hitting followed.

Cleveland made a clean sweep of its series with the faltering Senators at Washington, winning 4 to 3. Fonesca, whose hitting during the series was hard and timely, got a single and triple yesterday.

Only three games were scheduled.

PRINCESS PATRICIA SHOWING PAINTINGS

Holds First Public Exhibition in London Gallery—Ch[illegible] as Studio.

LONDON May 19.—Lady Patricia Ramsay (Princess Patricia) is holding the first public exhibition of her paintings at the Goupil Galleries, Regent street. The exhibition opened on May 11, and will continue for three weeks. Most of the pictures were painted at Clarence House, where the room which was used as a private chapel by Lady Patricia's mother during her lifetime has been turned into a studio. It is a curious octagonal room, and in it Lady Patricia Ramsay spends much of her spare time in London. There is still some of the chapel furniture in it. Lady Patricia's own works, largely pictures of Bermuda and Ceylon, adorn the walls.

BRAVES BREAK CUB'S STREAK

Bunch Hits To Take Fourth Game of Chicago Series 4-3.

BISSONETTE GETS HOMER.

NEW YORK, May 21.—(Canadian Press).—Del Bissonette's terrific hitting featured the Brooklyn attack yesterday as the Robins at home mauled three Philadelphia pitchers, to win by 11 to 4. Bissonette scored a run after drawing a pass from Sweetland in the second, touched Ring for a home run with two on in the third, and tripled at the expense of Pruett with two on in the seventh. Every Brooklyn player made at least one hit.

Bissonette's homer was his seventh of the season, and placed him in the lead over Hack Wilson of Chicago.

The lowly Boston Braves checked the Cubs' 13-game winning streak yesterday by taking the fourth game of the Chicago series, 4 to 3. The Cubs batted Bob Smith, the infielder who was converted into a pitcher, hard, but were cut off three times by double plays. The Braves bunched most of their eight hits in the sixth inning when they scored three runs off Guy Bush.

Chicago's winning streak started on May 5, taking three games from Philadelphia, three from Brooklyn, four from the Giants and three from Boston.

CADETS BEAT CLERKS IN SOFTBALL GAME

Hard Fought Battle at Millbrook End With Score 14-13.

MILLBROOK, May 19.—The second game in the series for the local softball league took place at the agricultural grounds on Friday evening, between the Cadets and the Clerks, resulting in a win for the former by a score of 14-13.

There was a good attendance at the game which proved a snappy one throughout. The teams lined up:

Umpires: Foster Russell; J. A. Vance.

The next game in the league series is on Tuesday, May 22, at 7 p.m. between the Town Team and the Tuxis Square.

CUBS WIN MOST GAMES

Chicago Entry Adds Six More Victories To Make Record.

GOOD PITCHING.

NEW YORK, May 11.—(Canadian Press.)—The mad flight of the Chicago Cubs and the almost impertinent position of the Boston Red Sox in the first division captured the interest of baseball fame last week. The Yankees also were present when honors for the seven-day period were handed around, but then the Yankees almost always are.

The Cubs continued on their nonstop journey by adding six more victories to ther string in the week ending Saturday night, running their consecutive record to thirteen, by far the best mark of the season in either major circuit. The Yankees piled four more successes on to a previous run of three and the Red Sox added added four games won to a pair from the week before.

The Cubs are winning on good pitching and opportune hitting the Red Sox on pitching and air tight fielding, and the Yankees on an all-round combination of everything needed for baseball.

The spectacle of the Red Sox in a winning career which has extended through six games is novel, but not so novel as fans may suppose.

The week's results:

Raybestos and Crescents open E. P. L. schedule at Exhibition grounds tonight at 6 o'clock. "Be on hand, it will be good."

The fine weather of late has favored Deloro. The ball ground is in splendid condition for this time of year and the Smelters are making full use of it. The whole team is together with the exception of Inky Woods, who is still in Peterborough. The gang feels quite ready to go at the first call of the "umps." The new outfield is slugging the pill hard while the infield maintains the same consistent hitting crew. Speaking of the outfit as a whole, it is well balanced and as the scribes are apt to say "Youth must be served," so keep your eyes on the northern addition to the C.O.B.L.

Many soccer fans have suggested that the soccer association make arrangements with some of the prominent soccer teams from Toronto. They pass through Peterborough en route to Montreal to play their provincial league games.

Last season the soccer players contributed a good amount of money through the medium of the Phelan Charity Cup and they intend running the competition this year as usual, under the auspices of the local executive.

ENGLAND WINS FROM FRANCE

Take Three Singles In Special Women's Team Matches.

MAKE GOOD SHOWING.

AUTEUIL, France, May 21 (Associated Press). — England defeated France, 8 to 4, in the special women's team matches by winning three singles matches yesterday. Suzanne Deveau scored the only singles victory for France, defeating Eileen Bennett in a close match, 6-4, 4-6, 11-9.

In the doubles the French women fared better, winning both of the matches played yesterday. England won five of the six matches played on Saturday. Although the six French women made a much better showing yesterday, their play was still far below the standard set in previous years when such stars as Suzanne Lenglen, Didi Vlasto, and Helen Contoslavos took part in the matches.

Summaries of yesterday's matches:

Singles—

Betty Nuthall, England, defeated Madame Bordes, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6.

Joan Fry, England, defeated Mme. Vaussard, 12-10, 6-3.

Mrs. Watson, England, defeated Mme. Lafaurie, 6-1, 6-0.

Suzanne Deve, France, defeated Eileen Bennett, 6-4, 4-6, 11-9.

Doubles—

Mme. Bordes and Yvonne Bourgeois defeated Mrs. Lycett and Miss Nuthall, 6-1, 9-11, 6-2.

Mme. Lafaurie and Mlle. Deve defeated Miss Collyer and Miss Fry, 6-1, 1-6, 6-4.

MAKES CLEAN SWEEP.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, May 21 (Associated Press). — Great Britain made a clean sweep of the second round Davis Cup tie with Finland by winning the doubles and two singles matches yesterday.

The English had already taken the first two singles.

Great Britain clinched the victory when G. R. Crole-Reese and C. H. Eames defeated Grahn and Grotenfell of Finland in the doubles, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

In yesterday's singles, J. C. Gregory took a straight set match from Granholm, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2, and Edward Higgs won the fifth match for Great Britain by defeating Grahn, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

Great Britain will meet Germany in the third round.

HUNGARY ELIMINATED.

THE HAGUE, May 21 (Associated Press). — Holland's Davis Cup team eliminated Hungary yesterday, 3 to 2, and advanced to the third round, where it will meet the winner of the Denmark-Austria competition.

lies of the victims, for the survivors and for the interment of the workers lost in the blast.

The recovered dead, brought to the surface by rescue teams, were taken to the mine machine shop, where undertakers from all parts of the mining field were on duty. Here the bodies were prepared for burial and removed to recreation hall for identification. Some of the bodies were burned and mangled, and seven were unidentified.

McLarnin and Mandell Will Enter Ring To-Night For Lightweight Championship

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 21 (Canadian Press)—To-night, if the weather man experiences a change in heart, Tex Rickard will put on his much-delayed lightweight titular battle between Jimmy McLarnin and Sammy Mandell at the Polo Grounds.

Rickard's luck with the weather, proverbial among boxing devotees, failed him completely in his attempts to get Mandell and McLarnin into the ring at the Polo Grounds last week. Scheduled successively for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, the match was postponed each time because of rainy or threatening weather.

Mandell rushed back to his camp at Orangeburgh, N.Y., Saturday to resume training. He went through a brisk workout and had another on schedule for yesterday. The Vancouver boy took to the road and also went through his paces at a local gymnasium. Both were confident they would scale under the class limit of 138 pounds when the appear for the weighing-in ceremonies this afternoon.

BISONS TAKE SECOND GAME

DEFENSIVE PLAYS.

BUFFALO, May 21 (Canadian Press). — The Buffalo Bisons copped the second game of the series with the Montreal Royals yesterday, 4 to 2. The Royals made a game bid against big odds, as the Clymer men outhit their rivals fifteen blows to six. Mangum twirled fine ball for the locals, and home runs by Shannon and Fowler proved the only markers registered by the Canadians. Archdeacon and Felix featured with marvellous defensive plays to aid the Bisons.

BEARS DEFEATED.

NEWARK, N.J., May 21 (Canadian Press). — Baltimore, by timely hitting here yesterday defeated the Bears, 8 to 4. Chick Davies started for the Bears and was pounded out of the box in the fourth inning, which also marked the exit of George Earnshaw, who started for the Birds. Coumbe, who finished the fray, held the Bruins to one hit.

LEAFS BREAK EVEN.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 21 (Canadian Press). — Rochester broke even with Toronto here yesterday, taking the first game 7 to 6, and losing the nightcap affair, 5 to 4. The defeat in the second game was the first of the season for Herman Bell, who had won six straight starts. Gelberg hit his eighth homer of the year in the first inning to even the score, and in the eighth Pinch Hitter Hoffman hit a home run in the ninth to win the game after the Leafs had taken the lead.

POLITICAL WORKER.

Mrs. Corbett Ashby Has Been Election Worker Since Youth.

LONDON, May 19.—If public service were a sure road to political honor, there would be few better-known women politicians than Mrs. Corbett Ashby, President of the Women's National Liberal Federation, says the Daily News and Westminster Gazette. The daughter of a Liberal M.P., she did valuable electioneering work when still a girl, exercised her political gifts when at Newnham, and afterwards fought in the Suffrage movement under Dame Millicent Fawcett. Her work in feminist causes was crowned in 1923, when she was unanimously elected President of the International Suffrage Alliance. Having fought four general elections in the most difficult constituencies, she is now prospective candidate for Hendon, while, as a worker for peace, she is untiring.

LEAGUE SEASON WILL OPEN HERE NEXT SATURDAY

Belleville, Petes' Old Rival, Will Provide the Opposition.

OSHAWA THURSDAY.

Local Crew Will Participate in Ceremonies in Motor City.

The Peterborough Central Ontario League team will play its first game in Oshawa on Thursday, Victoria Day, and its first home fixture here on Saturday afternoon at James Stevenson Park when the Petes old rivals, the Belleville team, will play the 1st off.

The Petes had their best practice of the season on Saturday afternoon when after a fielding practice they worked a five-inning game twth Jack Deannard's Kiwanis Juniors. The teams exchanged batteries, Hardill and Wilgar working for the Juniors while Howden and Cotton, the Kiwanis battery, were in the points for the Petes. The game was featured by two hair-raising catches by Al. Heckman who played right field for the Petes. The latter had Moore of Lakefield at first base, Batten, second, Holyman, short, and Johnston, third, while Heckman, Ray Rose and Jack Turner were in the outfield.

The Petes new uniforms have arrived and will be worn for the first time in Oshawa on Thursday. The Motor City Club is preparing a big league opening for the first game and the Petes have been requested to be on hand early to take part in the ceremonies.

BEARS LEADING WEEK'S VICTORIES

Have Record of Five Wins and Two Defeats in the International.

NEW YORK, May 21 (Canadian Press).—With Walter Johnson now actually at the helm, the Newark Bears are playing the sort of ball the owners expected of this high-priced team. For the week ending Saturday night the Bears turned in a record of five victories and only two defeats.

The Bears led the league with 62 hits last week, fielded as well as could be expected, and enjoyed good pitching. A few more such weeks, and they will be making a show of the league race, as so many fans predicted when such a strong array of ex-major league talent was corralled last winter.

Buffalo and Jersey City kept right at the heels of Newark last week, each with three victories and two defeats. The best Toronto could do was to break even on six games, but the Leafs nevertheless kept the league lead. Bill Clymer is still trying to strengthen one or two spots in his Bison machine.

The Skeeters were moving along at an amasing gait until Ted Jourdan was injured, and they slackened only a little when his services were lost.

Reading, built into a really strong club by its Chicago owners, broke even on the week, but was able to play only four games.

Montreal lost four of seven, but did better than Rochester, which lost four in six. Baltimore duplicated the Red Wings' record.

Jack Bentley was the outstanding pitcher of the week with a two-hit game against Montreal. Mamaux of Newark; Collins of Toronto, and Wisner and Foler of Reading pitched three-hit games.

Buffalo led in home runs with a club total of nine. Gelbert of Rochester took in dividual honors for the week with three.

The following table shows the games won and lost, runs, hits, errors, opponents' runs, and home runs of each International League Club for the seven day period ending Saturday night:

REIGH COUNT FIRST IN DERBY

Races Through Mud and Rain For 54th Kentucky Derby Victory.

SPECTACULAR EVENT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 21. —(A. P.)—Rain or shine, mud or slop—it was all Reigh Count.

The big red colt, owned by Mrs. John D. Hertz of Chicago, wife of the taxicab magnate, splashed to victory in the fifty-fourth Kentucky Derby Saturday, racing through a drizzling rain and mud ankle deep, in one of the most spectacular races in the history of Blue Ribbon event of the American turf.

Reigh Count, son of Sun Reigh-Contessina, heavily played favorite, won just as his supporters said he would—finished three lengths ahead of Misstep. And trailing in fourth place came Jack Higgins, winner of the Louisiana Derby.

Reigh Count defeated the largest field that ever went to the post in the Kentucky Derby, running the punishing mile and a quarter route in 2:10 2-5. Twenty-two three-year-olds faced the barrier, exceeding the previous largest field in 1923 when twenty-one started in the race won by Zev.

The winner rewarded Mrs. Hertz with $55,375 as first money, with $6,000 going to Misstep and $3,000 to Eward B. McLean, the Washington publisher and owner of Toro. In addition to the $55,375, Mrs. Hertz received gold palte valued at $7,500 and all the glory that money could not buy.

Reigh Count paid better than two for one in the mutuals, rewarding his backers with $6.12 for every two dollars invested in his chances. His place price was $5.76, and $3.98 to show. Misstep paid $8.28 to place and $5.90 to show, while the show price on Toro was $2.76.

Upwards of 80,000 witnessed the race, all of them dampened by a soaking rain, but too excited to be daunted by the terrific downpour that broke over Churchill Downs an hour before the horses were led out of the paddock. For forty minutes the rain came down in a torrent, but just before the call of the bugle it settled to a steady drizzle and it was drizzling when the race was run.

After the race, the sun came out apologetically from behind the black clouds

DE LAVAL BEAT QUAKER OATS FOUR TO ONE

Evans Opened the Scoring in Early Stages—Play Was Very Keen and Interesting.

QUAKERS' SHOOTING POOR.

Dyer Accomplished the "Hat Trick"—Quaker Forwards Found Fowler Unbeatable.

A good crowd of spectators witnessed the De Laval trim the Quaker Oats on Saturday afternoon in a soccer league fixture at King Edward Park, to the tune of four goals to one. The sensation of the game was the brilliant display of Dyer, son of Frank Dyer, who played for many years, in scoring three wonderful goals during the play, while Fowler in goal gave a superb exhibition.

When the game was started the exchanges at once became interesting, with the balance swinging slightly in favor of the Quaker Oats, who early showed football of a good class all over but the De Laval took the sting out of their activities when a well-planned forward attack culminated in Evans beating the Quaker goal-keeper with a gentle touch wnto the net.

Poor Shooting.

Without any hesitation the losers went back into the De Laval territory to gain unfruitful flag-kicks. Time and again, the Quaker forwards would break through the defence to finish with very weak shots or shoot directly into the De Laval custodians' arms. An excellent example of target practice was demonstrated to them by Dyer and Evans, as the latter repeatedly pick the ball away from the foot of the full-backs to miss by inches.

Play Very Keen.

Play continued to be of a very keen and interesting nature, the keenness being reflected in the number of free kicks awarded against players. There was no choice in selecting which eleven did the most pressing because the ball went from end to end at a fast rate with the goal-keepers demonstrating their abilities between the posts. Near the interval, the Quaker Oats made a desperate effort to get the equalizer. A break away on the right about brought success but Downer jumped into the fray to come out with the ball, then the whistle called half-time. De Laval 1, Quakers 0.

Second Half.

At the outset of the second half the form of the De Laval players revealed an improvement, and with Ernie Hanson educating the youthful attack with him, brought out the abilities in his team-mates, and with the Quaker men playing very keenly with an re-arranged team proved a failure because it seemed to unbalance the players' tactics. A number of the players, however, in their eagerness at times overstepped the bounds of legality, with the result that free kicks were often given against both teams.

Fowler's Marvellous Save.

From a free-kick, Craig landed the ball into the De Laval goal-area, where a desperate raid found the custodian in an unbeatable mood. A Quaker player rattled a hot shot to go into below the bar, Fowler grabbed it quickly threw it out, but he was just back into position again to make a spectacular save which received loud applause from spectators and congratulations from players. Encouraged by the success the defense had shown, the halves and forwards assumed the aggressive in great style, launching attacks on the Quaker goal that staggered the Quaker's team. The forwards carried the sphere right up into the goal mouth, then slipped the ball back to the half-backs, who banged for goal. Ward altered the play a little when he drew the defense close upon him, then passed quickly to Dyer and wasting to time, he sent in a rising shot into the net. Curtis having no chance to save.

Foster's Smart Goal.

No sooner had the De Laval scored, than the Quakers from the centre-kick made tracks for the opposing goal, the De Laval full-backs tried to intercept the play but Foster gained the verdict when a low grounder of his beat Fowler into the corner of the net. Their success did not continue long. Nice combination on the De Laval wings terminated in disaster to the Quakers. The ball was kept travelling from wing to wing, until Watkins dribbled his way into goal, he was checked quickly. Dyer grabbed the ball and from an oblique angle scored, which bewildered his playmates. With an abundance of enthusiasm the De Laval made play very interesting as time wore on.

Dyer Did "Hat Trick."

From this point till the close it was almost always De Laval attack versus Quaker's defence, and the latter was not good enough to successfully withstand the assaults. Repeatedly, Hanson confined the play to his section, then would swing the ball across to the vacant wing—Dyer and Watkins. They worked the triangle play along with Mitchell, until Dyer gained possession near the goal-line and from a peculiar angle landed the ball into the far corner of the net. After this four-goal lead the De Laval took things easy which allowed the Quakers to dominate the play in the final minutes. No matter what they accomplished in the open field, their hard work was unproductive against Fowler, who was undoubtedly the master of the situation, so the score remained unaltered till the end—De Laval 4, Quakers 1.

Goal-scorers—De Laval, Dyer 3, and Evans, Quakers 1

Quakers—W. Curtis, goal; Lucas and H. Curtis fullbacks; Carmichael, Byliss and Rankin, halves; A. Wilson, T. Craig Buchan, T. Foster and T. Wilson, forwards.

Refeeer—Alex. McKinley.

THEATRES

AT THE REGENT.

"THE GIRL IN THE PULLMAN."

What is termed a "human horse-shoe" is the latest in good-luck pieces. The left hind foot of a rabbit has no fascination for Marie Prevost, nor does she spend her spare time hunting for four-leaf clovers, for in William Orlamond, Miss Prevost declares that she has an infallible lure for good fortune. And Miss Prevost knows:

Orlamond, who is a gray-haired veteran of stage and screen, plays a humorous characterization in her latest starring picture, "The Girl in the Pullman," which was filmed under Erle C. Kenton's direction. His presence in her supporting cast, despite the fact that it is a minor role he portrays, is sufficient to assure Miss Prevost that "The Girl in the Pullman" will be another successful picture, for whenever he has appeared in her support the picture has been a big success.

Starting with "Up in Mable's Room," Orlamond has been cast in each of her succeeding starring pictures, including "Getting Gertie's Garter," "The Rush Hour," "For Wives Only," and "Man Bait." The cast of "The Girl in the Pullman," which was written for the screen by F. McGrey Willis, now playing at the Regent, includes Harrison Ford, Franklin Pangborn, Ethel Wales, Harry Myers and Kathryn McGuire.

The story of "The Girl in the Pullman" deals with the troubles of a divorced couple and with their subsequent courtships under difficulties. The story is complicated, but it is unravelled in a satisfactory manner. The action takes place in a beautiful home and in a Pullman coach, and because of the mix-ups that take place, there is much jollity for the spectators.

AT THE CAPITOL.

Richard Barthelmess Becomes a Country Boy Again in "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" Which is the Feature Attraction at the Capitol To-night.

Richard Barthelmess, who is beloved by millions as the greatest portrayer of typical youth on the screen, is again a boy in his teens for "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," which will be at the Capitol Theatre to-night and Tuesday and Wednesday.

Barthelmess is seen as a barefoot wanderer in the opening scenes. The picture carries him through vivid experiences, and a beautiful romance.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" is an Alfred Santell production and Molly O'Day is Barthelmess leading lady. She will be remembered as the dancer in "The Patent Leather Kid," in which she scored a great dramatic hit.

The present cast is made up of Doris Dawson, David Torrence, Eutalie Jensen, Gardner James, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Claude Gillingwater, Nelson McDowell, Martha Mattox, Victor Potel, Mark Hamilton, William Bertram, Walter Lewis, Ralph Yearsley, Robert Milasch, Walter Rogers and many others:

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" was a great novel, and is an even greater picture. It will add much to Barthelmess' popularity here, where he already has many warm admirers.

NO MORE PILES

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this —an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to Pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store and druggists anywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.

WESTERN UNABLE TO ENTER SERIES

Other Teams of Senior Intercollegiate Union Have Schedules Drawn.

MONTREAL Quebec May 21. — Canadian Press. — The University of Western Ontario will not be represented in senior intercollegiate Rugby this fall. Consideration of the application of Western for entrance into the senior ranks was postponed at the meeting of the Canadian Intercollegiate Rugby Union here Saturday because McGill, University of Toronto and Queen's, the three clubs now forming the league, had already completed their schedules for 1928. All three colleges have made arrangements with other teams for exhibition games on the dates when they have byes and the impossibility to consider the inclusion of a fourth team this year has postponed consideration of Western's application until 1928.

After lengthy discussion favorable and otherwise the four-year rule the bone of contention in major intercollegiate sport since its inception was retained by a split ote. This regulation was the cause of Queen's dropping from senior intercollegiate hockey last fall and in the middle of last winter. University of Montreal officials announced that if the rule were not discarded their club would have to follow in the footsteps of the Kingston institution.

Representatives at the meeting were Professor Mackenzie and Dr. Porter Toronto; Professor Wilgar and J. S. Macdonnell Queen's; H. Gaboury, University of Montreal; Dr. A. S. Lamb and A. R. Hazin, McGill.

BASEBALL

The opening games of the City Baseball League will be played on Victoria Day. The first will be a Juvenile game between the Moose and East City team, and will be played at James Stevenson Park at ten o'clock.

The second will be played at Exhibition Park at two p.m., when Royals and Kiwanis Juniors play as ad added attraction to the program of horse races.

SCHOOLS MEET IN COMPETITION

Toronto Pupils Contest Right to Take Part In Empire Day Concert.

FOR CHORUS SINGING.

TORONTO, May 19.—The best public school choruses in Toronto gathered at Central Technical School on Harbord Street upon the occasion of the annual school chorus competitions. The best choirs selected from the various schools will be heard in Massey Hall at a big Empire Day concert on May 23. Three different classes were heard—the juniors who sang in unison, the boys who also sang in unison, and the seniors who charmed the audience with their three-part harmonies of soprano, alto and boy bass.

The boy basses perhaps are the most interesting singers. Many young lads' voices break just when they are getting fond of singing. The public school officials wisely decided to get some three part harmonies that would include these boys, and as a result they were heard to advantage in "The Ash Grove," the piece selected for them.

Seven Compete.

In this event there were seven competitors, and the two best were adjudged to be Huron and Whitney. These will sing at Massey Hall on the evening of May 23, and on that occasion, one or the other will be declared winner.

The smallest children had as their number, Fletcher's "What Does Little Birdie Say." Their sweet voices, not strong, but infinitely charming, were a delight to the ear. No matter how well trained or how emotional the group-up, he or she never can attain those delicate wisps of notes, pure and true as the woodland strains of birds that come only from childish throats.

The winner of this section was Queen Alexandra School, with Ryerson second. The former will sing in Massey Hall. The other competitors were: Earl Beatty, St. Clair, Givens, Dewson, Hodgson, Hughes, and Williamson Road.

Delight Audience.

Some very good singing was heard from the boys in their soprano choral work. There was a sweet naturalness about their efforts that proved an unalloyed delight to all the audience. The two best choruses were Pyne and Duke of Connaught. Both of these will appear at Massey Hall. The song they sang was Arne's "When Daisies Died."

Other competitors were: Park, Clinton and Victoria Industrial. The adjudicators were Dr. Ernest MacMillan and A. T. Cringan, Mus. Bac. Both were lavish in their praises of the children's singing, and commented on the exceptionally high standard displayed.

FAST HORSES HERE FOR VICTORIA DAY

Good Program of Races is Arranged—Ball Game Added.

One of the best celebrations of the holiday for the Queen's Birthday is in the making for this year, when a fine program of horse races has been arranged for the Exhibition Grounds.

In addition, it has been arranged that the City Baseball League will open on this date at the Exhibition Park, with the Royals and the Kiwanis the opposing teams.

The full band of the 57th Regiment will be present during the day. There will be a parade of players, officials and the band to the grounds, and it is hoped that with the big program that has been arranged that the citizens will support it.

Among the horses from outside points are Peter Direct, Minnie Patchen, with a mark of 2.17¼; Final Directum, Hal E. Donna Bell, The Limit, and Alberta Hal. Local entries include Armadale, Jack Abbey, and Lu Grattan and others are expected.

IN PETERBOROUGH CHURCHES

St. Peter's Cathedral.

Father Keough, speaking on "The Church," on Friday evening, took for his text 'If anyone will not hear the church let him be to thee as the heathen and the publican."

"We hear the objection against the church to-day that she has failed in her mission. We are told that she has been a failure, that she does not produce in her members that sanctity and holiness that she claims to nourish and foster. This is not a fact, however, and cannot be a fact because God Himself has said so. Jesus Christ, who was God promised to be with His church to the end of time, and while Jesus Christ is with the church let no man dare to assert that the Church is not holy.

'Even if Christ had not assured the church of His perpetual company and protection can any impartial and fair mind know the church as she is to-day and still claim she is not holy? Could any unbiased mind stigmatize her as a failure? The church a failure! and thousands in the ranks of her men who have sworn themselves and their lives to the service of God's altar, cutting themselves away from all right to family and home life to give themselves wholeheartedly to the service of God's altar. The church a failure! and countless devoted women the world over who have vowed their earthly days to the practice of perfect chastity and virtue!

"The church a failure and a thousand men who are making this mission, sacrificing ease, rest and comfort, morning after morning, to come here in the early dawn to be present at the holy sacrifice of the Mass. The church a failure! and the large body of men, pure in heart and unsullied in soul, approaching God's holy table to partake of the Body and Blood of the Saviour. If this be not evidence of sanctity then I pray those who falsely accuse the church of failure to produce what they call evidence of where true holiness is to be found.

Sacrifices for God.

"My dear Christian men, it is not loud talk or prattle which makes a church and its members holy. Holiness is effected by virtue and good deeds. We become holy by doing something for our religion, by making sacrifices for it to please God. It is no manifestation of holiness to dress one's self up in the latest fashions in order to parade them before a congregation at a service whose hour does not interfere with our sleep and our comfort. But it is a proof when we go morning after morning in good weather and in bad weather. The church has the law of sanctifying Sunday by the hearing of mass and that law binds under pain of sin. We go to mass Sunday after Sunday to adore God, to offer Him the sacrifice of the mass. We go there to offer to God the Father the Body and Blood of His Divine Son.

Careless Christians.

"Though we know the church is holy and can prove she is holy still we must admit that not all of her members give evidence of that sanctity which we have a right to expect of them. Not a few are anything but a credit to the church, and it is on account of these the church must bear the reproach and listen to the taunt that she has failed in her mission. If a so-called Catholic brings discredit upon himself by a sinful life can he lay the blame of his immoral life on the church? No. He can blame himself if he is a black sheep of the fold because he is not obeying her laws. He is not hearkening to her voice. No intelligent person who knows the church as she is and knows her laws will blame her for the sins of the bad Catholic. Members of the Catholic Church are sometimes found in sin and disgrace but this is because they will not hear the church; they are her disobedient children.

"The Catholic who misses Sunday mass for a slight reason, may call himself a Catholic, he may pose as a Catholic, but in the eyes of the church he is only a nominal Catholic. Catholic in name and not in reality. He is not a Catholic, because as Christ has said "If he will not hear the church let him be to thee as the heathen and the publican." he careless Catholic is a heathen and a publican in truth and indeed.

A Divine Guide.

"The church is the divinely appointed guide, pointing out to us the way to heaven. Thus it is not sufficient for us to keep the commandments of God. We must also observe the precepts of the church. The church is a society established by Christ and as a society it has received power from Christ to make and enforce laws for the welfare of its subjects. It is evident even from profane history that Christ established a society here upon the earth. We call that society the church. The church is the oldest society in existence. She has come down to us intact through the centuries. She has seen empires rise and fall, she has seen kingdoms disappear she has seen thrones fall and crumble in the dust. She has a membership of over three hundred millions.

"She is the most important of all societies. Other societies are concerned with man's temporal welfare, but she is the guide of man's eternal welfare. Refuse to obey the laws of the church, and you refuse to obey the laws of God, and if you will not hear the church or submit to her, she leaves you to the justice of God."

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL

Speaking briefly at the half past ten o'clock Mass at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday morning, Rev. Joseph O'Hara, C.S.S.R. based his sermon on the words of David: "Great is Thy mercy, O God, beyond the heavens."

"These words," said Father O'Hara, "are an outburst from a heart full of gratitude to a merciful God. David had fallen into the iniquity of sin, but he was drawn out of the mire by the merciful hand of God. In our own lives, we may on many occasions have been impelled to cry out in the same way. When we think of the malice of sin and its opposition to God, our minds stagger at the realization that God not only pardons sin but even takes the first step toward reconciliation.

"The Holy Scriptures are full of instances of the unmerited mercy of God." Father O'Hara went on to outline the many sins of the children of men, from those in the Garden of Eden, on through the evils which brought on the Flood, the sins of the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the sins of the Jews, crucifying their King.

Calling to mind the story of the Prodigal Son, which is an outstanding example of the love of God for the sinner who repents, the reverend speaker spoke of the overpowering love of the Redeemer, as manifested on Calvary, when He prayed aloud: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

Evening Service.

The men's mission closed last night at St. Peter's Cathedral when Father Keough spoke to the men on perseverance and the use of the different means of persevering in the good resolutions taken during the mission. "This morning almost a thousand men and many hundreds of women received Holy Communion in this Cathedral," declared Father Keough, "which means you are free from sin and spotless in the eyes of God. Tonight you are happy and you are joyful in this knowledge. You are enjoying true peace and happiness because you have come closer to God during the past week. May this peace and happiness of soul which you experience tonight continue not only for a short time after the mission, but may it continue all the days of your life.

Prayer.

"One of the means of persevering in God's grace is prayer. St. Alphonsus assures us that if a man prays his salvation is sure. The man who prays continually is not going to stray very far from God in this life. Prayer will keep his mind and thoughts upon Heaven and prayer in time of temptation will carry a man through many dangers. On the other hand if a man will not pray, his salvation is very doubtful. How is he going to resist temptation if he does not cry to God for help? How can we give God honor and glory if we do not pray? By prayer we raise our minds and our desires from this world to the next life. By prayer we take our mind from creatures and direct it to the Almighty. We will never make any advance in the spiritual life, we will never even overcome our many daily faults if we do not use the God-given weapon of prayer.

Occasions of Sin.

"A second way of persevering in God's grace and God's friendship is of course the avoiding of the occasions of sin. God demands of us to lead holy lives and naturally demands that we avoid any place, person, or thing which may endanger our morals and lead us into the mire and filth of sin. It is only a sham to go to confession, tell one's sin, ask God's pardon and then to go right back to the old dangers of sin again. You know from past experience that a certain thing has been the means of causing you to fall into sin, then in God's name why do you not fly from that dangerous occasion of sin. When you confess your sins, you not only ask God's pardon but you also promise Him you are not going to sin again. How are you going to avoid sin if you do not avoid danger? If you are sincere in your desire of serving God, you will avoid any person, place or thing that will interfere with your serving and loving God.

The Sacraments.

"A third way of persevering is by feeding the soul upon the sacraments of Holy Mother Church, especially the Sacraments of Penance and the Eucharist. Why do you men need to be exhorted to receive Holy Communion often? What is the mind and wish of the Church in this regard? The Church wishes us to receive Holy Communion daily if possible. A very large number of men in this Cathedral parish receive Holy Communion once a week. Persevere in this holy habit of receiving Christ weekly in this sacrament of His love. A large number, however, do not go weekly, so tonight, the closing of the mission I am going to ask you to promise me that on the first Sunday of every month you men will receive Holy Communion in a body as a public act of homage to God.

"It was a wonderful sight to God and men to see the numbers of men that came up to this communion railing this morning. What you did this morning, should be done monthly as a public act of homage to God."

Bishop O'Brien.

At the close of the sermon Bishop O'Brien officiated at benediction, with Rev. K. A. Corkery as deacon and Rev. J. T. Finn, sub-deacon. His Lordship congratulated the men on their excellent attendance, remarking that it was the best attended mission in the history of the parish. He also thanked the missionary fathers, Rev. James Cloran, Rev. Joseph O'Hara and Rev. John Keough for the untiring zeal which they had shown during the past two weeks in making the mission such a success.

As "a little gift" from the missionaries who have labored so hard and so faithfully during the past two weeks at the Cathedral, High Mass, offered for the souls of the departed members of the parish was solemnized this morning at seven o'clock. The church was packed to the doors with men, women and children, assisting at Mass and hearing the final words of farewell voiced by Rev. Father J. Keough.

BULBS FEATURE FARM MARKET

Cuttings and Plants Also Plentiful—Real Flowers On Sale.

PRICES VARY.

All the flowers of summer came to the farmers' market on Saturday morning, along with the vegetables for the kitchen garden. They may now not have made much of a showing, but they were there all the same, potentially, at least. In bulbs and cuttings, in little square boxes showing tops of green foliage, rest the colored blooms and the vegetables that are going to burst forth later to make glad the eye and the inner man of those that buy them.

There is something fascinating about these slips and cuttings and bulbs. They don't look much now, but just wait awhile. Little round, hard, onion-like bulbs contain the frilly skirts and exquisite colors of gladioli, and can be bought, a dozen for a quarter. There are long roots that resemble yams, but are really dahlias, selling at 10 cents apiece, with cactus dahlias lifting an aristocratic eyebrow at their commoner sisters, and priced at 15 cents each.

Little green slips of Christmas cactus were 20 cents each, geranium slips were five cents apiece, Canterbury bells, three for twenty-five cents and white phlox 20 cents in little boxes of green plants. Forget-me-nots in embryo were 10 and 15 cents a box, and there were slips of feverfew, columbine, Shasta and English daisies.

Real spring flowers made their bow; also; red and white trilliums and marsh marigolds, at 10 cents for a big bunch, purple pansies at 15 cents, and mixed table bouquets of yellow daffodils and saffron tulips, at 25 cents. Spicy wild plum blossoms sold at 10 cents for a bouquet.

Downstairs, there were boxes of celery and cabbage and tomato plants, selling at 20 cents each.

CHANG BLAMES NATIONALISTS

Says Their Vanity and Feng's "Will to War" Cause Hostilities.

PEKING, May 21 (Canadian Press).—Responsibility for the continuation of warfare in China was placed on the "vanity of the Nationalists" and "the obdurate will to war of Feng Yu Hsiang," Southern General, in a statement issued by Chang Tso Lin, Northern dictator, to-day. The statement said that the Japanese suggestion that he withdraw to Manchuria was impracticable. This was interpreted as meaning that Chang intended to defend his position in Chihli if the Southerners continued their campaign.

Damp Weather Brought on Aching Back

Ontario Man was Quite Unable to Lift Anything

"For years I was troubled with my Kidneys," writes Mr. Ernest Gruen of Waldhof, Ont. "Especially in the cold, damp weather my back got so sore I was not able to bend or to lift anything. Since using your Dodd's Kidney Pills I feel well. I have used several other remedies, but none helped me. I cannot praise your Dodd's Kidney Pills enough." Backache, Urinary Disorders, Dizziness, Swollen Ankles, Rheumatic twinges, are early signs of Kidney trouble. Never neglect such warnings! Keep a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills always in the house. Even when well, an occasional dose of Dodd's Kidney Pills will fortify the Kidneys.

IN POLICE COURT

Two men pleaded guilty this morning to being intoxicated in a public place, namely on New Romaine Street, in the Township of North Monaghan. They both were fined $10.00, and costs, or thirty days in the common pail. One took the term in jail and the other paid his fine. They were arrested yesterday by Provincial Constable Harry E. Thompson.

Wilfrid McCulloch, through his lawyer, the Hon. G. N. Gordon, K.C., pleaded not guilty to the charge of non-support of his wife and family, and was remanded until Wednesday. Bail was set at $2,000.

Mrs. Florrie Manley pleaded not guilty to a charge of neglecting her children by leaving them alone at night. The case was remanded until Monday next. The information was laid by John Edgar, agent for the Children's Aid Society. She was represented by J. A. O'Brien.

Stock Exchange Hours Changed For Summer

TORONTO, May 21 (Canadian Press).—Together with the New York and Montreal Stock Exchanges and the Montreal Curb Market, the Toronto Stock Exchange and Standard Mining Exchange, commencing today will operate continuously from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily except Saturday. There will be no luncheon adjournment.

Wheat Prices Go Down At Chicago This Morning

CHICAGO, May 21 (Canadian Press). — Wheat prices turned downward to-day after an irregular start. Sellers were in the majority and appeared to be acting largely on reports that danger of further drought damage west and south-west has been dispelled for the time being. Initial quotations 1⅛ cents off to 1⅛ cents up were followed by material setbacks all around. Corn and oats were also easy, with corn opening at ¼ cent to ½ cent gain, but later showing a drop.

Opening prices were: Wheat, May, 147¾, July 150. Corn, May, 104⅝, July 107⅛. Oats, May 64⅝, July 55⅝.

SCHOOLS FORM RUGBY LEAGUE

Ten Central Ontario Secondary Schools Included in Organization.

THREE GROUPS.

Representatives from the Secondary Schools in this district met in the Collegiate Institute at Cobourg on Saturday and organized a Rugby League to be known as the Central Ontario Rugby League.

The league will consist of teams representing Oshawa, Cobourg, Lindsay, Peterborough, Napanee, and Picton Collegiate Institutes, Albert College, and Port Hope, Belleville and Bowmanville High Schools. It was decided to operate three groups, two seniors and one intermediate, each consisting of four teams. The winners of the senior groups will play a two-game series for the league championship. The champions will be entered in the semi-finals of the O. R. F. U. interscholastic series for the Ontario title.

The Port Hope and Bowmanville teams are new-comers in rugby, so they will perform in the intermediate series with intermediate teams from Oshawa and Peterborough Collegiates.

The officers elected were: President, C. S. Browne, Peterborough; Vice-President, W. V. Howard, Belleville; Secretary-Treasurer, T. R. McClelland, Cobourg. These, together with one representative from each school, constitute the executive committee.

According to the schedules adopted, a Peterborough team will be playing at home and one away from home each Saturday, beginning on September 29.

Germany, France and England are increasing their production of motion pictures.

and politics. Here his audience heard up-to-the-minute information about old classmates, who had, as Dr. McNeill phrased it, "outstripped the ninety and nine who never stray into the limelight of publicity." Even the latter had given a good account of themselves as the speaker showed by statistics drawn from our own province. "In this rapid bird's eye view Dr. McNeill carried his audience from 1857 to the present year, glimpsing the mountain peaks of the constituency of Queen's and glancing even at the more secluded valleys.

The Registrar naturally has a keen interest in, and a sun-eyed understanding of, Queen's financial position. He corrected a false impression prevalent in some quarters that the Endowment Campaign had been an S.O.S. call. No statement could be less true. The funds were needed for the development of the Queen's of to-morrow that must rise, ever pulsing with energy, ever growing, to meet the needs of a developing country, to sustain its ideals, to mould its outlook. No financial campaign ever before undertaken by Queen's was half so successful. Once again, as always before, it was not the wealthy few who sustained Queen's. It was a popular subscription and succeeded beyond its promoters' highest hopes.

With increasing funds come growing opportunities. In the field of Economic Research Queen's is now the Canadian pioneer, as she has been in the Banking Courses and in extramural work. Doubtless in economic research, as in university extension courses, she will be followed later by others, but as yet she is the most virile and progressive among Canadian universities in these fields.

Dr. McNeill's entire address gave his audience the assurance that their loyalty to their university was not nourished alone by sentiment but rooted in solid ground.

Richard Lees moved a hearty vote of thanks to the speaker, which was seconded by the Rev. William McDonald. Both gentlemen gave humorous anecdotes of their own under-graduate life and of the irrepressible pranks of the youth of that day.

A new executive for the Peterborough Alumni Association was then nominated and voted upon by those present. The result of the election was that the audience seemed unanimous in the wish that the following officers should preside over the destinies of the local branch for the coming year.

Honorary President—Richard Lees. President—R. F. Downey.

Vice-Presidents—Norwood, Dr. H. G. Carleton; Lakefield, Dr. J. C. Smith; Keene, Mrs. A. G. Cameron; Peterborough, Dr. A. G. Howson, E. R. Shirley, Edith Murphy.

Sec.-Treasurer—V. R. Henry.

Committee.—Mrs. H. R. H. Kenner, Miss A. Howson, Mrs. T. Paxman, R. M. Waddell, F. E. Kerr.

Chaplain—Rev. William McDonald.

The success of the evening was due in no small degree to the efforts of the committee in charge. Messrs. R. F. Downey, Richard Lees, F. E. Kerr, W. E. Jamieson; Mrs. Kenner and the Misses Howson and Paxman.

Wedding Bells

MATHER—ROOTES

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. John's Church on Saturday, May 19, when Lillian Fanny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Rootes became the bride of Mr. John Trayor Mather of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mather, Victoria B.C. The Rev. Dr. Blagrave officiated.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Rootes of Hamilton, and the best man was Mr. Frank Bridcott of Peterborough brother-in-law of the bride. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Toronto, where they will reside.

CRAWFORD—ROBERTS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at eight o'clock on Saturday evening, May 19 at St. Johns' Anglican church, when Margaret Myfanevy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts, Stettler, Alberta, became the bride of Dr. Hugh Crawford, B.A., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, of Medicine Hat, Alberta.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. George Garbutt, looked charming in an ensemble of rose beige flat crepe with lace picture hat and matching shoes and stockings. She carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Crawford, sister of the groom, was lovely dressed in pink chiffon, with hat to match, and her bouquet was of sweet peas.

The groom was supported by Mr. Donald Messenger, B. A., of Toronto. Dr. Blagrave rector of St. John's church, performed the ceremony.

Following the service, an informal reception and dance was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manson Cornish, 219 Sherbrooke street.

The bride and groom are both graduates in Arts in the University of Alberta, and the groom is in this year's graduating class in medicine at the University of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left by motor for a honeymoon through Western Ontario and on their return they will reside in Toronto.

OBITUARY

MRS SELINA COBB.

On Saturday, May 19, there passed away in this city one who had resided here for some thirty years, in the person of Selina Cobb, who before her marriage was Selina Murcer. Deceased was 79 years of age.

The funeral took place on Monday, May 21st, at 2.30 p.m. from the Protestant Home, to the Little Lake cemetery, the Rev. Mr. Paterson conducting the services.

MRS. GEORGE PETERS.

Ann Williamson, widow of the late George Peters, one of the oldest residents of Dummer township, passed away at her home at Cottesloe, on Tuesday, May 15th, where she has lived ever since her marriage in March 1870 and where she has been a faithful and efficient member of the Cottesloe church, giving of her best all these years. Her husband and two sons predeceased her in 1918 and the only remaining member of the family is one daughter, Mrs. Albert Webster, on the homestead.

Mrs. Peters was in her 83rd year, and death came as a release from the weakness of age. She was of a quiet and retiring disposition and was loved by a host of friends, who during the last few months of her life came from far and near to hold converse with her, and all give testimony to her nobleness of character.

The funeral was held from the family residence on Thursday afternoon, and was attended by relatives sympathetic friends and former neighbors from Toronto, Peterborough, Lakefield, Warsaw, Norwood, Hastings, Perth and Picton.

The Rev. G. H. Moyer, her pastor, was assisted in the service by a former pastor and friend of the family, Rev. Hugh Brown of Toronto. The pall bearers were six nephews: R. Peters of Toronto; H. Cooper of Picton; M. Waddell, J. Pickens, T. Williamson and L. Beamish of Hastings.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS GO INTO USE AT CHARLOTTE AND GEORGE; APPEAR TO BE SUCCESSFUL

Some Motorists Complain and Suggest Changing Them to Left.

EDUCATION NEEDED.

Public Will Have To Be Educated to "No Left Hand Turn" Rule" Says Chief.

Peterborough's new traffic lights at the corner of George and Charlotte Streets directed the traffic for the first time last night, and from all appearances worked very successfully.

Some motorists complained about not being able to see the light at the south-east corner, as it is set back, and thought that the system would have been much better if the lights had been to the drivers' left instead of to his right; but on the whole very few complaints were heard. The public will have to be educated to the "no left hand turn" rule, says Chief Newhall, for from a census taken during the past few days it has been found that 90 per cent of the cars coming from the west to the intersection made the left hand turn and went north on George Street.

Many motorists last night approachd too near the intersection when waiting for the lights to signal go, and hence obstructed the pedestrians who were going in the opposite direction.

From a close observation, The Examiner found that very few motorists gave the proper traffic signals if they knew them, hence the pedestrians were found to be wondering whether it was safe for them to go on the intersection or not, even if the traffic signals pointed that the way was clear for them.

SMALL CLOUDBURST DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Farmers' Fields in Lorneville Area Harmed By Heavy Rains.

LINDSAY, Ont., May 22.—(Canadian Press).—A small cloudburst over Lorreville, Argyle, and Woodville on Saturday afternoon, did considerable damage to the farmers' fields. William Newman, M.P.P., reports that the creek running through his place rose to a height of five feet. A small portion of the C.N.R. tracks at Lorneville was washed out.

SECOND DEATH RESULT OF WRECK

James Marsland, Whose Wife Was Killed Instantly, Dies To-day.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., May 22.—(Canadian Press.)—James Marsland, aged 70, who was injured in an auto accident on the St. Thomas-London highway on May 13, when his wife was instantly killed, died in the Memorial Hospital this morning. The accident occurred when the car in which the Marslands and their son Wilfrid had driven to Guelph, smashed into a telephone pole.

At the inquest last night into Mrs. Marsland's death, Wilfrid admitted that he felt drowsy while at the wheel, but denied that he had dozed off. The inquest was not concluded.

DECISIVE BATTLE IMMINENT IN CHINA

Northern and Southern Armies Likely to Clash at Wangtu, 110 Miles From Peking.

PEKING, May 22 (Canadian Press).—A decisive battle in the Northern defence of Peking against the Nationalists is reported imminent at Wangtu, 110 miles south of the Northern capital.

Yang Yu Ting, chief of staff for Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, Northern dictator, is said to be resolved to fight to the bitter end in order to keep the Nationalists from advancing up the railway line to Peking.

Restored to Command.

TIENTSIN, May 22 (Canadian Press).—Chang Tsung Chang, former commander of the Northern armies in Shantung, is reported to have been restored to favor after his recent defeat at the hands of the Southerners. He has proceeded to the Tientsin-Pukow front to resume command of the Shantung army for the final stand against the Southerners.

Adopts Daylight Saving

BROCK[illegible]E, Ont., May 22 (Canadian Press).—Acting upon a petition by more than 1,100 ratepayers, the municipal council last night decided to authorize the adoption of daylight saving time from June 17 next to September 9.

Confesses Deputies Murdered By Gang

LAFAYETTE, Ind., May 2 (Canadian Press). — After twelve hours of almost continuous grilling, John Burns, aged 20, arrested here early yesterday, admitted that Wallace McClure and John P. Grove, Tippecanoe County deputy sheriffs, who were murdered on February 7, after they had started with Burns and Samuel Baxter to the Indiana Reformatory, had been shot in his presence, and revealed details of the murder.

Burns' story indicated that the murder of the deputies was brought about by three men whose names were given the special prosecution, A. K. Sills. The names were not revealed pending further investigation.

Burns, under heavy guard, was taken to the Michigan City State Prison yesterday afternoon. He was ordered sent to the prison by Judge Homer W. Hennegar, of the Tippecanoe Circuit Court, because violence was feared if Burns were left in Lafayette.

BISHOP PLANS TO ENTER AREA NOW UNSERVED

Rt. Rev. C. A. Seager Tells Synod of Ontario of Places Where Churches Are Closed.

REFERS TO REVISION.

Rubrics Minor Matter, He Declares—Diocese in Good Shape Financially.

KINGSTON, Ont., May 22.—(Canadian Press.)—Addressing the Anglican Synod of Ontario for the second time since his consecration as Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. C. A. Seager to-day announced that preparations were being made to organize a missionary campaign in the district early next autumn. In his charge to the Synod His Lordship confined himself entirely to matters within the diocese. Speaking of conditions in the diocese Bishop Seager said there were great areas of a missionary character in which churches were closed. He stated that he would endeavor to fill these vacancies, but for the time the churches would be financially non-productive.

He was pleased to know that the deaneries were beginning to take steps to remedy the conditions in Sunday schools. The report of the committee on the state of the church, he remarked, noted that in about 50 congregations there are no Sunday schools.

His Lordship made only a passing reference to the prayer book controversy in England. "I am not interested in doctrinal wrangles about so-called principles," he declared. "I am not interested in rubrics and splitting of hairs. But I am absordedly interested and so I know is our Lord ,and so I hope are you, in the living and dying of men and of nations and of societies, with the vital issues of things as they are."

At the session at noon to-day the honorary officers for the year were re-elected as follows: Honorary Clerical Secretary, Rev. A. L. McTear ;Honorary Lay Secretary, Francis King, K.C.; Honorary Treasurer, R. J. Carson, Kingston.

The annual report of the honorary treasurer showed that the capital of the consolidated fund showed no losses for the year, but showed an increase of $21,896.66. The consolidated fund capital was $584,588.91, made up of bonds and debentures $274,945.79; stock $23,800; mortgages $251,865.11; real estate $21,364.60; capita uninvested $12,613.41. The general purpose fund was overdrawn $7,397.45, but the deficit was $200 less than a year ago.

SHOWER IS HELD

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Elmhurst Arrange Social Evening.

INDIAN RIVER, May 22.—On Wednesday evening, April 25, a party of friends and neighbors numbering about one hundred gathered at the home of Arthur Elmhirst and presented his son Stewart, and his bride (nee Phyllis Borland) with a shower. A very delightful evening was spent in games and dancing which was kept up till the early hours of the morning. The large number of beautiful and useful presents showed the respect and esteem in which the young couple were held.

Beer Flat Raids Put 250 In Cells

CHICAGO, May 22. — Nearly 250 men and women were occupying police station cells last night and more than a score of "beer flats' 'in different parts of the city were dark and deserted as a result of a series of raids in the war on "crime nests."

In almost every instance the "flats" were surrounded and the prisoners were being loaded in patrol wagons before the dazed proprietors realized what was happening.

NO CLUE FOUND OF E. L. DAVIS

Former Peterborough Man Has Been Missing From Brockville For a Week.

FOUL PLAY FEARED.

(Special to The Examiner.)

BROCKVILLE, May 22.—Although a week has passed since Edward L. Davis, former Peterborough man, left his home here for the avowed purpose of proceeding to the central part of Leeds county upon a business trip in company with a unnamed man, both the municipal and provincial police, who have been endeavoring to ascertain his whereabout or even to obtain information concerning his subsequent movements, confess themselves completely baffled. The situation is to-day as obscure as it was upon the day of Davis, disappearance. Since a woman, late last Tuesday evening, saw the insurance agent standing on King street as if waiting to keep an appointment, not the slightest trace of him has been discovered, although word of his almost inexplicable absence has been broadcast from three stations, situated respectively in Washington, D.C., Canton, N.Y., and Prescott, Ont., the police of all important cities have been circularized and an intensive search of the surrounding country has been conducted.

The disappearance of Davis is the more difficult of explanation because of the absence of any valid reason for him deciding suddenly to leave home. He bore an unblemished character, was temperate in his habits, his accounts with the insurance company, of which he was one of the representatives, are in perfect order, there was no domestic trouble, and robbery may be dismissed as a motive because of the comparatively small sum which he carried upon his person at the time of his departure. The anxiety of his wife and other relatives and the belief of the former that he has met with foul play of some description are easily explained, for Davis, it is stated, when absent from home, never failed to communictae regularly and promptly with his wife and when he left last Tuesday afternoon it was with the understanding that he would return the same night. Yet it is difficult to assign a motive for foul play, if such has occurred. So far as is known, Davis possessed no enemies and was not carrying enough money when he he left to keep the business engagement of which he spoke to make robbery worth while.

As day succeeds day, the police simply repeat their declaration that there is nothing to report, and this in spite of every attempt to solve the mystery by investigation in places where Davis formerly lived, by endeavoring to establish contact with his former associates and by notifying the authorities in Canadan and United States centres to be on the watch for him. In some quarters there is a disposition to believe that Davs may be suffering from a lapse of memory, perhaps of only temporary duration, and that eventually, as a result of the efforts which have been undertaken to find him, he will turn up. But there is really nothing more than conjecture to work upon, for Davis has disappeared as completely and as inexplicably as if the earth had opened and swallowed him.

CONSERVATIVE AMENDMENT ON REPARATIONS REJECTED 92-37

U.F.A. and Progressive Members Present Voted Solidly With Government.

LEADERS CLASH

Bennett Criticizes Government for Failure to Table Report.

OTTAWA, May 22. Canadian Press —By a vote of 92 to 37 the House yesterday afternoon rejected the Conservative amendment to supply regretting the refusal of the government to give effect to the Friel report on reparations. In the division Conservatives alone voted for the amendment, U.F.A. and Progressive members present voted with the government.

Debate on the amendment was continued yesterday by Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the opposition. Mr. Benentt declared that the Friel report had been completed and parliament should have it. The opposition must insist that as a condition of supply being granted the report be produced.

Hon. Lucien Cannon, solicitor-general, said the report had been presented over three months ago. With the House in session it was unfair to expect the Minister of Justice properly to review the 1600 claims mentioned in the report, and to decide what legislation should be brought down.

The debate closed with a declaration by William Duff (Liberal, Antigonish, Guysboro) that as the amendment was a motion of non-confidence, he would vote with the government. At the same time he believed the claims should be paid at the earliest possible moment.

OTTAWA May 22.—The prime minister yesterday stated in the House of Commons that following the prorogation of parliament there would be a conference between the prairie provinces and the federal government with respect to the return of natural resources to the west. He indicated separate conferences with each provincial government concerned would be held and possibly also an inclusive conference.

Debate on the Ernst amendment to the motion to go into supply was resumed yesterday. It is a direct want of confidence motion based on the failure of the government to table the Friel report on civilian reparations and then further failure of the government to give any effect to its recommendations.

"There was a recognition by this government that reparations moneys were received with a trust imposed upon them and they were ear-marked to meet certain specific liabilities," Mr. Bennett declared, and he added: "The government had promised three years ago that as soon as the claims were known they would be satisfied."

The government had stated last year it would make no statement of policy until the report was ready.

The report was in the hands of the printer on the 22nd of February this year and had not yet been brought down in the House.

"When a public inquiry has been instituted by order-in-council under the authority of the governor-general in council under the inquiries Act, and that report had been completed, it belongs to this House of Commons and not to the government," declared Mr. Bennett. He added parliament intends to have that report.

A sharp passage ensued between Mr. Bennet and the prime minister, when the latter referred to a memorandum before him as indicating the desire of the sub-committee of the council to have the matter in the first instance considered confidential. Mr. Bennett took exception to this pointing out the memorandum before the prime minister was not the report itself. "It is incomprehensible that the prime minister of the country should impose upon this house that kind of a statement," said Mr. Bennett.

The secretary of state observed that the government had withheld the details of the report pending consideration of the action to be taken on it, because it might lead many who had claims before the government to expect substantial payment which might be found not justified or possible.

"The money is here to pay these people. We have been holding it back all these years. Why isn't it paid?" asked Mr. Bennett, calling attention to the dire straits of the fishing industry in Nova Scotia. "The proper course to pursue is at least to pay all the small claims."

Mr. Bennett pointed out that only as an amendment to supply motion could the opposition bring a grievance of this kind before the the House. All the opposition hoped for was that an item would be included in the supplementary estimates to satisfy reparations claims. No reason had been given for nonpayment of these claims, he said.

Among the settlers who arrived in the Union of South Africa under auspices of the 1820 Memorial Settlers' Association were five unmarried women, one of whom is to be a doctor and three others are to raise fruit and poultry.

Mystery Surrounds Suing of Miss Boll

NEW YORK, May 22 (Canadian Press.)—Somewhat of a mystery to-day surrounded two suits for $20,000 filed against Miss Mabel Boll, known as "the Queen of Diamonds," who plans a trans-Atlantic flight this Summer.

On suit was for $12,000 filed by Charles Albert and Company, and the other was for $5,000 filed by the Stutz Park Avenue Corporation. Miss Boll said that "Charles Albert" was Charles Levine, who flew to Germany with Clarence Chamberlin, and that the suit must be a mistake as she did not owe any one such a sum. As for the Stutz suit, Miss Boll declared she did not owe Stutz.

RESCUE OF MAN REVIVES HOPES

Miner Found in Recess Alive and Brought To Surface.

67 NOW KNOWN DEAD.

MATHER, Penn., May 22. Canadian Press. — Rescue of a living man from the death ridden Mather mine to-day renewed hope for some of the 137 missing miners, entombed by the explosion on Saturday.

Imprisoned for more than 60 hours in an underground recess, Frank Krubik was found alive by a rescue crew. He was brought to the surface and rushed to the emergency hospital, where doctors said his condition was very good in view of his harrowing experience.

Seven additional bodies were brought from the mine during the morning making the total known dead sixty seven and leaving one hundred and thirty entombed men unaccounted for. Despite the rescue of Krubik veteran rescuers said they believed that all the others were dead. They said Krubiks case was exceptional and that through some break in the air currents the man had escaped death from gas.

WAR MEMORIAL WORK TO START

Contractor Interviews Local Committee and Site Is Chosen.

CONFEDERATION SQUARE.

Erection of the Peterborough War Memorial is likely to begin within a short time, judging from the fact that on Monday afternoon, Mr. Allward, Jr., son of the sculptor, and Mr. Crebar, contractor for the granite work, both of Toronto, were in the city. They were met by a sub-committee of the Memorial Committee, and during their visit, carefully examined Confederation Square to choose the most suitable site.

A location near the intersection of the cement and cinder walks was chosen and marked off preparatory to the breaking of sod and excavating for the base of the memorial.

TAGS ARE WANTED FROM EX-CARTERS

Those Still In Business Not Asked to Turn in Numbers.

A slight misunderstanding has arisen in the minds of the carters and taxi drivers in this city about turning in their tags. The Police Department only want the tags of those taxi men and carters who have gone out of business during the last two or three years. New tags are being issued, and the calling in of these tags that are not being used is only to have no new ones issued with the same numbers as those that are not licensed now but still remain in the hands of those who formerly were in the taxi and cartage business.

Will Re-Open Crowe Lake Dance Pavilion

MARMORA, May 22.—In addition to re-opening Crowe Lake Dance Pavilion for another season A. T. Neal has rented the Tipperary House from Mrs. J. McGrath as a guest house; at the two establishments about forty rooms will be available for tourists. The opening dance is billed for next Wednesday evening with Bon Ton Orchestra of Belleville furnishing music.

Pickerel Spawn Put In Crow Bay

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22.—In an effort to preserve the supply of fish in local waters, at least two men have put more fish in the river than they will ever, in all probability take from it. They are R. H. Cole and Fred Keller. Between them they put 180,000 pickerel spawn in Crow Bay yesterday. Of these, Mr. Cole put in 110,000 and Mr. Keller was responsible for the remaining 70,000. The spawn was received from the Government hatcheries.

CAR UPSETS IN DEEP DITCH

Automobile Driven By Lionel Brown of Peterborough, Runs Over Embankment.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22. — About ten-thirty yesterday morning a five passenger coach, license number 357-614, turned over in the ditch on the Hastings road about four miles west of this town. The car dropped over an embankment about eight feet deep and came to rest against some trees which held it on its side and resisted any tendency to turn completely over. Considering the fall, the car was only slightly damaged. The glass in the right front door is shattered and one fender and the running board on the right side are practically ruined. Otherwise the car does not appear to be damaged. The other glasses are not even cracked and the top where it rests against the trees is not damaged.

The driver of the car gave his name as Lionel Brown of Peterborough, and was only slightly injured about the hips with minor scratches. He said he was going about fifteen miles an hour up the incline and the next thing he knew he was experiencing the sensation of falling. He was unable to account for the accident. The tracks show that the car did not swerve suddenly but took a long incline toward the side of the road and struck the rocks built up at the edge.

DENIES CHARGE BY COLDWELL

McMurray Says He Did Not Collect From Constituents For Permits.

TURNED MANY DOWN.

OTTAWA, May 22 (Canadian Press).—Hon. E. J. McMurray, former Solicitor-General, denied absolutely before the Parliamentary immigration enquiry to-day that he had dealt in immigration permits for $100 each, as charged by Alderman Coldwell, of Regina, before the Immigration Committee.

"I was astounded and stunned to read in the papers the statement of Mr. Coldwell," Mr. McMurray said. "I denied it, and welcome the opportunity of coming before this committee and clearing away the charge. I was glad to read the denial of the Minister of Immigration. What he said was true. I have had no dealings with Mr. Forke since he has been in office.

Mr. McMurray explained that he had been elected in 1921 from North Winnipeg, which was half foreign born. "Many of these people wished to bring relatives to Canada. I assisted them, but I never charged them a cent." The numbers had become so great that later on he had charged them telegraph costs and such things. Then he had turned them away.

"A man would be a fool to charge his constituents $100 for permits. This was one cause of my defeat. There were not enough permits being granted. I never got along with my friend, Mr. Egan, Deputy Minister, in this matter," Mr. McMurray said.

GAS CAUSES TWO DEATHS

Toronto Man and Woman Found Dead in House This Morning.

LOOSE CONNECTION.

TORONTO, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—Mrs. Beatrice Holmes, aged 41, and Benjamin Cameron, aged 54, were asphyxiated by illuminating gas yesterday at the home of Mrs. Holmes. The bodies were discovered by Mrs. Holmes' two children.

The tragedy took place in a front room where a gas tube, fallen away from a small iron heater, provided mute evidence as to the cause of death. Cameron's body lay on a couch while Mrs. Holmes was on the floor by its side.

FAMILY KEPT IN QUARANTINE THOUGH HOUSE NOT MARKED; ACT NOW CALLS FOR PLACARD

Dr. Young Declares He Complied With Act As It Was Before Revision.

GOT NOTICE ON SATURDAY.

Saw That House Was Disinfected and Permitted Only Bread-Winner to Leave—No More Cases.

That he had taken all possible precautions and that much of the discussion about the city which might question the thoroughness of city officials in dealing with scarlet fever cases at the home of John Hodson, milk vendor, was due to inability on the part of those taking part in the discussion to appreciate the meaning of "quarantine," were among the statements made by Dr. T. W. H. Young, Medical Officer of Health, when interviewed by The Examiner.

Dr. Young stated that the report of the meeting of the Board of Health at which he had described the case and method of treatment, was absolutely correct, but went on to outline the case once again and to explain why there had been any questioning of his actions in the matter. He said:

"Dr. Hewett was called to the home on a Sunday evening, and the next morning I went down with him. The child was very sick so I quarantined the family. I sent the sick girl to the Isolation hospital, and one of the boys also. This case has developed into scarlet fever. Everyone in the houshold carried out my instructions; the mother being the only one to so much as go out on the verandah at the time of the funeral.

Was Placard Necessary?

When asked why no placard had been placed on the Hodson residence, Dr. Young repeated his statement made at the meeting of the Board of Health, that he does not placard a house when the patient has been removed to the Isolation hospital, but treats those that are left as contacts. He believed that by placarding, he would be stating that such a case of disease remained in the house; whereas it had been removed.

Amendment to Act.

"It has been my practice not to place a card stating there is a disease in the house when the patient or patients have been removed to the hospital and the house thoroughly disinfected," continued the M.O.H. "However, on April 3 of this year, the act was amended making it necessary to put a card to read 'This house is under quarantine,' instead of stating the disease. This amendment to the Health Act was received by me from the Government last Saturday. This was the first notification I had of the amendment. Therefore, I was working according to the old act, but it will be necessary in the future for every house to be carded as a quarantined house, where there are any contacts.

"The trouble was that many had not appreciated the fact that a family might be quarantined without it being necessary to place a card on the house (until the amendment came into force). I instructed the Hodson family to allow no one to enter the house and nobody did. By quarantine is meant the restriction to their places of residence of persons who have been exposed to a communicable disease to which they have been exposed. (Regulation 4, Provincial Board of Health of Ontario).

"I allowed the man Hodson, to go out and deliver milk after he had taken an antiseptic bath and the house had been disinfected. I believed that he was not handling the milk as it was all bottled, and sealed by others, and only delivered by him. He told me that this was so in the presence of Dr. Hewett. I later learned from Dr. Hewett that Hodson was selling other milk and I immediately went down with Dr. Hewett and stopped it.

"So, you see, both cases were removed to the Isolation hospital, the house thoroughly disinfected, and Hodson, the breadwinner followed instructions to take an antiseptic bath. Under regulation 5 of the Provincial Board of Health, if the M.O.H. (myself) be satisfied with the effectual isolation of the patient (both patients removed to the hospital) he may permit those who do not have direct care of the patient or patients (and they can't have direct care when the patients have been removed to the hospital) to leave the premises in order to attend to their regular duties, except when such individuals are employed or in any way engaged in the handling of food away from the quarantined house.

"This man was not handling food. He was delivering milk bottled at a creamery, which in no way was connected with the premises above mentioned. There is further proof that every precaution was taken in that there has been no case of scarlet fever or diphtheria in the city since this house was quarantined. Dr. Hewett and I visited the children in the hospital the day after they were placed in the hospital to see that everything was as it should be. We also visited and found the other

Valley Threatened By Flood Waters

PRICE, Utah, May 22 (Canadian Press). — Squads of workmen were battling yesterday to save the Pleasant Valley Dam, 25 miles from Castle Gate, Utah, which threatened to go out as the result of a leak sprung on Sunday night.

The flood gates were opened to relieve the pressure, and thousands of bags of sand were thrown in front of the dam for reinforcement.

There was little danger of loss of life, as all residents below the dam were warned to move to the foothills.

The reservoir covers an area of about 20 square miles, and contains 60,000 acre feet of water. Considerable property damage would result should the dam give way, the towns of Castle Gate, Colton and Helper being located below the structure.

PUBLIC ASKED TO CO-OPERATE DURING PARADE

Knights of Columbus Will Escort Papal Delegate to Cathedral.

ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Will Hold Church Parade on Thursday and Visit Cenotaph Later.

Citizens and motorists are asked to co-operate with the police force during the parades on Wednesday night and Thursday morning. On Wednesday evening the Knights of Columbus are planning a monster parade to welcome the Papal delegate to this city. The Knights and those taking part in the parade will form up on Aylmer street both north and south of Charlotte, and wait until the train comes in at 8 o'clock. The motorists are asked to refrain from parking on Charlotte street between Bethune and George streets from 7.30 until after the parade, and only through traffic will be allowed to pass. At the station the citizens are asked not to crowd on to the platform, but remain on the sidewalk, where there will be no cars to obstruct their views. The parade will go by way of Charlotte street to George, up George to Hunter, and up Hunter to St. Peter's Cathedral.

At 9.15 on Thursday morning the Knights of Columbus will parade from their rooms on Simcoe street by way of Aylmer and Hunter streets to the Cathedral. At 11.00 o'clock, they will leave the cathedral and parade to the cenotaph on Murray street by way of Hunter and Aylmer streets. Motorists are asked not to park their cars on Murray street between Aylmer and George as the street is very narrow and the parade will be large. After the ceremony at the cenotaph the Knight will parade by way of George and Simcoe streets to their rooms.

LABOR CANDIDATE DROWNED IN WEST

Frank T. Johns, Who Contested U. S. Presidency in 1924, Tries to Save Child.

BEND, Oregon, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—Frank T. Johns, of Portland, Oregon, Socialist-Labor candidate for president in 1924, was drowned here on Sunday when he attempted to save a boy who had fallen into the water. Johns managed to get the child to within ten feet from shore but then was exhausted and both sank.

COAST GUARDSMEN APPEAR IN COURT

Two Men Charged With Shooting Held For Grand Jury.

NIAGARA FALLS, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—Glen Jennings and Chris Dew, United States coast guardsmen charged with assault in connection with the shooting of J. C. Hanson on May 6, were arraigned yesterday before Peace Justice Charles Fieldus at Lewiston. They waived examination and were held for the grand jury.

TENDERS SOLICITED FOR NEW MEMORIAL BUILDING

KENT TROPHY DISPLAYED

Progressive Euchre Party Held to Raise Funds for New Clock.

MARMORA, May 22.—As the outcome of a special meeting of the Marmora Village Council held on Friday evening, tenders are being solicited for the erection of the new Memorial Building.

Trophy Displayed.

The Kent trophy to be competed for in the Marmora-Deloro road race (7 miles) on July 2 is on view in the store of F. N. Marrett and Company. Contestants must not be over 21 years of age with residency in Hastings County since January 1 of this year.

Euchre Party Enjoyed.

A succesful progressive euchre party was held in the Masonic Hall on Friday evening in aid of the new clock for the proposed Memorial Hall. H. W. Sabine won the gentleman's prize and Miss Anna O'Connor carried off the lady's prize. The door prize went to Mrs. T. W. Warren.

Mr. P. Sopha has a new car.

Mr. Alex. Boyd is a patient in Belleville Hospital.

Haultain

HAULTAIN, May 22.—Mrs. Eva Ianson, Mr. John Goughan and Miss Mildred Millar were at "Viamede," Mount Julian, last week to inspect the repair and redecorating work which is going on there. The hotel is being repainted on the outside and it is expected that everything will be in readiness for the summer business by June 1.

Friends of Mrs. R. T. C. Dwelly will be sorry to learn that she has undergone a serious operation in St. Joseph's Hospital. She is however making good progress under the present conditions. The Rev. R. T. C. Dwelly was forced to cancel the service at Holy Trinity, Haultain, owing to his wife's illness, but he is hoping and expecting that the regular schedule of services will be recontinued next Sunday, May 27, at 3.00 p.m.

Mr. Fred M. Young, of Young's Point, was called to inspect the boiler at the South Burleigh Cheese Factory last week, and pronounced that the boiler was in excellent condition. The South Burleigh Cheese Factory Company have done considerable repair work this year to the vat. New sides have been placed on it, and the patrons began drawing milk to the factory on Monday, May 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Stone were visitors at Lakefield last Thursday.

The steamer 'Islinda' of the Stoney Lake Navigation Company passed through the Burleigh Locks on Friday, being the first boat to pass through this season, on its way to Nogie's Creek, towing boom timber.

The tail of the Macdonald Company's drive down Eel's Creek is now near Brown's Falls, and it is expected that the logs will soon be at the mouth of the creek ready for towing down Stoney Lake.

Campbellford

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22.—Mr. Alex. Dunn Toronto, is spending a few days at his home here.

Mr. Walter Mitchell, Corbyville, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell.

HOLD FIELD DAY TO RAISE FUNDS

DATE SET JUNE 21

APSLEY, May 22.—A meeting of the Red Cross Committee was held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening to discuss the question of the annual campaign for funds for the hospital, and it was decided to hold a Field Day on June 21. An objective of $300 was set, and it is hoped that this sum will be raised without much difficulty.

Fence Erected.

Improvements were made to the United Church grounds on Thursday, when some of the men of the congregation got together, with the Rev. J. W. Ogden, and erected a fence around the lot and repaired the picket fence at the front.

Electric Light Installed.

D. Brown is having an electric light outfit installed this week. W. Gordon Hall, of Peterborough, is in charge of the wiring. When completed, the lighting will include the stove and house, and Roy Brown's new house and garage as well as the gas station. This will be a decided improvement to the village.

Building Being Done.

George Johnson is erecting a commodious bungalow on one of his lots recently sold to a party from the States, for the owner, and has several more to build for other tourists.

Personals.

The Rev. Mr. Stillman, of Norwood, visited the Rev. J. W. Ogden on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Kilborn and children, with Mrs. Spence, are spending a couple of weeks at Fairy Glen Falls, Loon Lake.

IN POLICE COURT

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22.—Yesterday morning before Magistrate Payne, a Seymour man paid ten dollars and costs for a breach of the Liquor Control Act. The case arose out of a motor accident on the Trent River road on Saturday night, when the car in which the man was riding went in the ditch about a mile south of Trent River village. N. A. MacColl appeared for the defense. Constable Seaborne, who was summoned to the scene, laid the charge.

VISIT HAVELOCK.

CAMPBELLFORD May 22.—About twenty members of the Campbellford Golden Rule Lodge, No. 126 A.F. and A.M. visited the Masonic Lodge in Havelock last night on the occasion of the official visit of the District Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. Morris of Peterborough, to the lodge there.

CAMPBELLFORD TAX RATE SET AT 40 MILLS BY TOWN COUNCIL

Pavement Extensions Meet Approval—Petition Presented To Have Work Done.

SEWER BY-LAW PASSES.

Council Holds Special Meeting For Discussion of Many Matters.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22. — All the members of the Council were present at the special meeting held in the clerk's office at eight o'clock last night. Following the general line of procedure, the matters of minor importance were dealt with first before getting down to the main issues. Last night the tax rate for 1928 was set at 40 mills, which is practically the same as last year. Front Street will be paved from Bridge to the north side of Market Street, and there is a feeling that the pavement will be continued along Front south of Bridge Streets as far as the Regent Theatre and on Mill Street as far as the Fire Hall. This is not yet by any means a certainty. Since Ranney Street ditch is being tiled and the street improved, Church Street from Kent to Queen Streets is to receive similar treatment. A by-law to construct a sewer along a section of Centre Street was also passed.

Rev. N. Clarke Wallace was one who brought Church Street before the Council. Some discussion arose as to the funds required for this work, and it was finally decided that the work could be done this year. Rev. Mr. Wallace was assured that the ditch would be tiled with two-foot tile and suitable filling put in to put the street into proper condition.

J. L. Hoover asked whether or not there would be a sewer service installed in front of his property on Queen Street, and expressed his anxiety that this be done this season. He said he had waited quite a long time for this service. The matter rested on what could be done regarding the Robertson property which the sewer would have to cross.

This was cleared up when Councillor O'Sullivan reported that he had interviewed Mr. D. F. Robertson, of Montreal, and secured an agreement to allow the sewer to cross his property for the sum of one hundred dollars.

"That's pretty definitely settled, then, Mr. Hoover," said the Mayor.

"Thank you," replied Mr. Hoover.

Has Big Petition.

J. A. Irwin, who has spent considerable time and effort obtaining signatures on a petition to pave Front Street, presented a formal petition, which, he said, was "heavily signed." He also said that the longer the petition was before the public, the more popular it had become. He thought that the business men who had opposed it at first were of the opinion now that the pavement was a real necessity to the prosperity of their businesses.

Before accepting the petition for verification and subsequent action, there arose a discussion as to the width of the street and whether or not the poles ought to be outside or inside the curb. The engineer present expressed the opinion that the roadway would be forty-one feet wide with the poles inside the curb. He did not think it would be good policy to allow them to remain in the roadway. The cost of putting the wires underground would be prohibitive, he thought. At the next meeting he will bring in an estimate of the cost of paving the proposed stretch from curb to curb. Estimates for storm and sanitary sewers have already been submitted. The petition was officially received on motion of Councillor Stone.

In order to avoid delay in operations, the Standard Paving Company asked permission to use the sidewalk on part of Bridge Street for driving empty wagons. This was granted on condition that it met with the approval of the chairman of the Road and Bridge Committee, and that the paving company be responsible for all damage and accidents.

Deputy Reeve Davidson asked the council if they would agree to fill in the old raceway in front of the McKelvie Mill on Mill street. This did not meet with the approval of the councillors, since the other property owners had been required to improve this property as they saw fit and at their own expense.

The by-law to construct a sewer on a section of Centre street was presented by Deuty-Reeve Davidson un-

NAVIGATION OPEN AT TRENT RIVER

TRENT RIVER, May 22.—The McColl tug passed through on her first trip of the season en route down the canal, towing the large scow No. 11 loaded with supplies for employees on the canal works. The big swing bridge opened for the first time to allow traffic through. The school children were on their way to school at the time and excitement was very high at the event of opening of navigation.

There has been some wonderful catches of fish at the big pier during last week.

Mr. Thomas Wight, whose birthdays number up in the eighties caught two very fine pickerel Friday night, both weighing 6 pounds.

Personals.

Mr. George Bush arrived Saturday from Toronto as guest at "Cedar Isle" over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rose and Miss Ethel arrived Friday from Toronto to "Ye Olde Mill."

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fairbrother motored from Toronto Friday. Mrs. Fairbrother remains for the season at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Preston from near Hastings attended the play given at the United Church Friday night.

ADDRESSES MEN AT ZION CHURCH

Rev. C. D. Denne Gives Interesting Sermon at Sunday Morning Service.

PETHERICK'S CORNERS, May 22.—When Rev. C. D. Daniel gave the Mothers' Day Address at Zion, he announced his intention of speaking to the men on the following Sunday. True to his promise, he took as his subject for the Sunday morning service, "What is Man?" Beginning with the scientists' cold, materialistic idea of man and his origin, Mr. Daniel contrasted with this the conception of man contained in Holy Scripture: "But little lower than the angels." Fine clothes, polished manners, great worldly possessions, and all the myriad things that go to provide creature comforts, do not make a real man, as a man might have all these and still, if sunk in the depths of sin, be anything but the kind of man that God intended him to be.

The choir, composed entirely of male voices, sang the beautiful old hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers," while Rev. Mr. Daniel and Fred Barnum sang a duet.

League Services.

Although sickness is still prevalent here, thirty-three attended League on Thursday evening last, when George Brunton, convenor of the citizenship group prepared the program with Miss Nellie Bennett as leader. After the regular business session and the devotional period conducted by Mrs. Fred Barnum, Rev. Mr. Daniel, Thomas Fry, a short program was given. Music by the Misses Freda Petherick and Gladys Simpson, reading by Lindsay Anderson, topic, "Young People and the Problems of Modern Home Life" by George Brunton, and an interesting singing lesson conducted by Mr. Daniel.

With the Whippet group still leading the contest race by a small margin, the second place Chevrolets, and the fourth place Fords are only separated by a dozen points, so leadership may change at any time. With longer evenings and fine weather, the softball program will soon be under way again.

Farmers Finish Seeding.

After one of the quickest rushes in spring seeding for some years, nearly all the local farmers are finished, with the exception of the inevitable low spots. The recent warm rains have rushed along pasture and hay crops, and have given the spring grains a start in the right direction.

SACRED CONCERT

Norwood United Church Choir Gives Musical Program in Warsaw.

WARSAW, May 22.—Professor Edwards and his choir, of the United Church, Norwood, gave a sacred concert in the United Church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening. This was the first wholly sacred concert that had been given in Warsaw for more than thirty years. The choir consisted of about fifteen male and twenty-four female voices.

The Rev. H. B. Herrington was chairman for the evening, which opened with the singing of "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Stillman. A short address was given by Mr. Herrington after which the following program was given by the choir: Anthem, bass solo, Mr. Stares; male quartette, "The City of God," Messrs. Edwards, A. Findlay, Squire and Stares; soprano solo, Mrs. Laivior, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul"; contralto solo, Mrs. Squire, "The Time Goes On"; mixed quartette, "When I Survey," Miss Una Duffield, Mrs. Squire, Mr. Finlay, and Mr. Stares; solo, Mr. Edwards, "And God Shall Wipe Away All Tears"; anthem, "O Lord, How Manifold Are Thy Works."

During intermission, Mr. Stillman spoke of the work of Mr. Edwards and of the choir and the great benefit to the church from having such good music at all services.

The second part consisted of an anthem, "I Will Extol Thee"; solo, Mr. Stares, "Rock of Ages"; male quartette, "Nearer My God to Thee"; soprano solo, Mrs. Scott Wildman, "I Shall Find Forgiveness"; soprano solo, Miss Una Duffield, "Arise O Lord"; solo, Mr. Edwards, "If With All Your Hearts."

Mrs. Herrington, on behalf of the Ladies' Aid, thanked Mr. Edwards and the choir for their splendid entertainment, also those who attended, and the members of the Aid, who assisted. A chorus by the choir, "Praise Ye the Lord," was the concluding number of the program.

Rain Does Much Good.

The gentle rain did much good on Thursday; land that had been worked was dusty and what could not be worked well, was in hard lumps. It will delay the seeding a little a little, but it made the grass rush up and the leaves come out more than they have done in three weeks.

Shingles Barn.

Thomas Miller has just re-shingled his barn with steel shingles. It is forty-four years since he put on the cedar ones which he has just replaced with steel.

Crowe Lake Boat Works Has Good Year; Orders Received From Distant Points

MARMORA, May 22. — Mr. C. Nicholson of the Crowe Lake Boat Works reports a busy season. Orders have been placed with him from a wide area, embracing even Buffalo. Mr. Nicholson is not only a boat builder but also a designer. Of his 1928 models of outboard motor boats, for which there is the greatest demand at present, he has completed five. With the present steady flow of orders and the number of boats brought in weekly for repair, Mr. Nicholson is faced with the necessity of securing other help.

The Pep of the Boy!

TIRELESS—full of energy—full of life! Never still the whole day through! Active kiddies need Kellogg's Pep.

And what a wonderful treat Pep is! Crisp, golden flakes of whole wheat. Full of Nature's vitamins and body-building elements. Builds strength. Gives vim and vigor.

Pep contains bran—just enough to be mildly laxative. Tends to prevent constipation. Keeps kiddies regular. It's "health in a package."

Serve Pep often. Give all the family Pep! With milk or cream. Add fresh or canned fruits, or honey, for an extra treat. Comes ready to eat. Pep up with Pep. Your grocer has Pep!

Protect the Millions Who Use the Highways

Everyone should Help in the Work of the Highway Safety Committee. With the Support of the Public it will be a Great Success.

The Highway Safety Committee has commenced its work for another year. It is a large and representative body of men who live in various parts of the Province. All members work voluntarily in this movement, which is dedicated to save life and prevent injury to persons and property. All are inspired with the necessity of creating a widespread consciousness of the new hazards which have been created by the rapid increase of motor traffic. The success of the effort depends upon the support of the public.

Will you help? Will you co-operate both when in a car and on the street? When driving a car, obey scrupulously the rules of traffic and exercise CARE, COURTESY and COMMON-SENSE. When walking, obey traffic rules too, and show the same CARE, COURTESY and COMMON-SENSE you expect from the motorist.

CARE COURTESY COMMON SENSE

Co-operation of all citizens—children and adults alike—is needed. The most widespread and rigid enforcement of the law that could be devised would not put an end to recklessness of drivers or carelessness of pedestrians. It would not apprehend every law-breaker. Only an alert and sympathetic public, conscious of the dangers arising from the increased traffic, and determined to support the Highway Safety movement, can prevent the killings, the maimings and the destruction of property which otherwise will result.

The volume of traffic is increasing at a tremendous rate. There are over 400,000 motor vehicles in the Province, and last summer at certain periods the number of outside cars on our streets and highways was equally as great. Another increase in traffic is expected this year. The accident hazard increases even more rapidly than the traffic.

The campaign to stir up the "traffic consciousness" of the motorist and the pedestrian will be carried on all summer. Your own suggestions will be helpful. Please write the Highway Safety Committee, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, freely with your well-considered suggestions of methods by which safety on the highways can be promoted, or of education of the public which you think the Committee could use successfully.

Please use your influence in your community in the direction of obedience to the law and the practice of CARE, COURTESY, and COMMON-SENSE by drivers and pedestrians. Urge, also, the rigid enforcement of municipal traffic laws.

7 Rules for Safety

You must observe each one scrupulously all the time

1. Have your car in perfect mechanical shape—particularly Brakes, Steering Gear and Headlights.
2. Give your undivided attention to your driving. In passing traffic, be sure there is a place for you in the traffic line ahead.
3. When other motor vehicles try to pass you—let them pass.
4. In entering main streets or highways, or in approaching a railway crossing where a full view of the track is obscured—stop and look.
5. Don't "loaf" where traffic is heavy.
6. Always signal before you slow down, stop, or change your course.
7. Never back up before ascertaining that the road behind is clear.

Neither motorists nor pedestrians can act on the streets and highways as they did a few years ago. Conditions have changed. Traffic is becoming more intense each year. Line up your habits with traffic conditions as they are today, and you will guard your own safety and contribute to the safety of others.

To Those in Charge of our Schools

To the School Inspectors, School Teachers, and School Boards of the Province a special appeal is made. A sad feature of the accident record is the number of children whose lives have been snuffed out or who have been injured because of thoughtlessness on the part of themselves or the driver of a car.

It is requested that in every school room in the Province a few minutes be devoted each week to talks to the pupils on Highway Safety. There are Six Simple Rules which will help to keep the children safe. These will be printed in subsequent advertisements.

MORE FILM USED SAY FINISHERS

Increase of Ten To Fifteen Per Cent Each Year Is Noted.

In spite of the fast hard lives we are supposed to live in America, it seems that there is still time to stop the procession and take plenty of snap-shots as we go. According to a local Master Photo Finisher, who was interviewed to-day in connection with the attractive photo window displays installed all over the city for National Camera Week, the number of films exposed increases about ten to fifteen percent each year.

"You see", explained the Finisher, "only since the simplification of the hand camera and the introduction of roll film about twenty years back has the public been able to take pictures in connection with home life, outings, vacations, and other pastimes. So it was necessary for the parents of to-day to acquire their own cameras and pretty much find out how to use them through experience. However, to-day these same parents are seeing their children have cameras and are in turn teaching them something about camera operation as a starter. Which means a constant heavy increase in the number of cameras in use each year."

Today, cameras which will take good pictures can be had for a dollar or two. True, they are box cameras, but the simplification of operation is such that many have been lead to believe that "box cameras take the best pictures." In connection with National Camera Week, the local Master Finishers are offering in most of the local stores handling photo service, a special camera of this type priced very low, which makes it possible for anyone who chooses to own a camera.

COOKS SPOIL LIGHT PLANS

Competition in brilliancy of lighting of business streets in Cannes, France, met its limitations recently. When the rue d'Antibes flashed forth with a new arc lighting system, merchants of other streets saw with terror the crowds that visited the street. Other thoroughfares soon blazed with light, and eventually merchants of the narrow and ancient rue Grande became enthusiastic. In one day they collected 7,000 francs for an ornamental lighting equipment. Then it was found that the many lights were taxing the local electric light plant so that at times all the illuminations of Cannes grow dim or go out altogether, especially at tea time when housewives are preparing the meals.

THE TRAFFIC SIGNALS.

The first try-out of the electric traffic signals at George and Charlotte streets last night is considered both from the driver's viewpoint and that of those entrusted with the handling of traffic as highly satisfactory.

It was demonstrated that traffic could be kept moving with less confusion and at a faster speed than under the old conditions, and it remains for drivers to see that the utmost value is obtained from this signal system.

This can be ensured, as The Examiner has already pointed out, by careful observance of the signals and by care in driving.

There seems little doubt of the value of the lights as a factor in traffic control, and the extension of the system to other intersections where cross-traffic is heavy would seem to be justified.

In the handling of motor traffic, as in other departments of municipal activity, Peterborough must keep pace with the times.

EMPIRE DAY.

It is reassuring to know that when certain influences seem to be at work in an effort to weaken the ties between Canada and the British Empire that in the schools of Peterborough and throughout the Province of Ontario Empire Day is to be loyally and enthusiastically honored to-morrow.

Canadian children cannot be told too often or too much of the history of the Empire, of which their country forms a worthy unit.

That history is rich in great achievements and replete with traditions that are well worth preserving, and it is well that each year we should celebrate our right to share the heritage of those achievements and those traditions and rejoice that we are members of the greatest commonwealth the world has yet known.

In hundreds of schools throughout the Province the story of the Empire will be re-told in song and address, and the children of Canada's greatest Province will join in patriotic exercises that will teach them to cherish their citizenship in the British Commonwealth.

That is a splendid thing and if, along with the glory of being a citizen of the Empire, the responsibility of each one of us toward the preservation of that Empire is strongly stressed, the observation of Empire Day will have results of importance.

MAKING UP FOR THE TIME WASTED.

It is obvious that Parliament is not going to finish the present session as early as predicted, and much as The Examiner favors short sessions, we are delighted to see that there is a sufficiently strong tendency to insist upon important business being given proper attention to keep the House at work for some time.

The way to shorten the session is not by galloping through the estimates and crowding through important legislation without consideration, but rather by eliminating the waste time in the early stages when weeks are consumed in discussing the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, and an even longer period devoted to that marathon of talking known as the Budget debate.

Surely it is possible to learn something from the Mother of Parliaments in this respect.

The British Parliament, containing many more members than we have at Ottawa and dealing with all the cares and vexatious details inseparable from a jurisdiction that extends round the world, passes its Budget after a discussion of a few days.

Why cannot we do the same?

What is gained by having some 135 or 140 members talk about anything they like under the guise of making a Budget speech?

No votes are changed, no Budget proposal is altered.

If the Debate were confined to one speaker from each party or group the result would undoubtedly be the same as if half the members of the House took part in tht discussion.

THOSE TELEPHONE BILLS.

Those members of Parliament who are opposing the passing of the bill authorizing the Bell Telephone Company to increase its capitalization from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000 until the Geary bill giving the Railway Commission power to investigate the Bell's subsidiary, the Northern Electric Company, has first been passed, are taking a position that is not only logical and wise but provides a needed safeguard for the public.

Why there should be any objection to this course if the whole transaction is straight and above board is a mystery to the man on the street

There is no pressing need of haste in regard to authorizing the increased capitalization asked for, which is obviously for melon-cutting purposes, and the bill should in the public interest stand over until the Bell's relations with the subsidiary it controls and from which it obtains most of its equipment can be investigated by the Railway Commission.

Mr. Geary's private bill to make this inquiry possible should be given right-of-way, and if that course is not taken many of the leading members of both the old political parties are going to occupy a position that they will find far from comfortable.

Already there is condemnation for politicians who are showing a tendency to crowd this Bell bill through, while as for the party leaders their inaction is also drawing fire.

Thus the Globe castigates both the chieftains:

"The attitude of the leaders must be grievously disappointing. Seemingly each of them is absent and uninterested. Premier King is strong enough, if he only realized it, to lead this fight himself—to defy St. James Street power and influence; to come to grips with corporate greed; to take, if necessary, his own Minister—or Ministers—by the scuff of the neck; to insist upon fair play for the weak against the strong. And Mr. Bennett, the new Leader who thrilled the Canadian citizenhood with the consecration of his undoubted talents, his energies—ay, even his wealth—to the public service, where is he? Has he forgotten so soon? Why is he in the backwoods when he is needed in the fighting ranks? He, too, is strong enough, if he only realized it, to lead; to give short shrift to the Cahans who would bedevil his serious pledges into empty platitudes; to demonstrate that he meant what he said; to supply vigor and virility in the first fight for those interests he assured the Winnipeg convention he proposed to serve."

ONE REASON AGAINST IMMIGRATION.

The fact that seasonal employment in Canada, due to climatic conditions is higher than in the United States, leads the economist of the Bank of Nova Scotia to discuss the means of remedy, and he points to the comparative security in Great Britain against poverty and distress provided by socialistic legislation and a paternal government as one reason why British workers are slow to come to Canada. There are 30 out of every 1,000 workers thrown out of jobs by seasonal change in Canada; in the United States the percentage is 15 to 1,000. Granted that Canada is in a very prosperous condition, we know, even in St. Catharines that the problem of seasonal unemployment is a severe one, and demands municipal attention. In some years, the problem is a national one in scope.

The bank economist then goes on to point out:

"When these considerations are assembled, the question at once arises, is not the seasonal fluctuation of employment, which this country conspicuously suffers, a potent factor in the problems of immigration and emigration?

"What, for example, is the position of the British worker who has migrated, or is considering migrating to this country?

"While he remains in Britain, he is furnished with an extraordinarily complete protection against all the main mischances which are not under his control. The legislation of the last twenty years has completely transformed his position.

"Thus, if he loses his employment through no fault of his own, he becomes eligible for benefit under the system of unemployment insurance. If he falls ill, he becomes eligible for benefit under the system of sickness insurance. If he should die, his widow receives a pension, also provided for by means of insurance, unless and until she remarries; and each of his children receives a pension until fourteen years of age. If he survives until sixty-five years of age, he receives an old age pension; and when his wife reaches the same age she secures a pension also. It is true that the sums involved are small; but the fear of destitution has been exorcised in Britain."

We have heard of British fathers on their sons coming to age where they are supposed to be units in industry, not letting them leave home because they would lose the dole. Undoubtedly the dole system has tended to keep Britishers at home, but is Canada not better off without people who would rather exist on doles than come to a new country, work hard and build up a competence for themselves. Unquestionably, Britain has advanced in social legislation a good deal farther than Canada will attempt to go for many years.

To cut down seasonal unemployment is quite a problem. Construction can only be catrried on at greater cost in winter months. But there are many in lines of industry who are fully employed, many work overtime in winter months. Rather the country should adopt a policy of stabilizing such industries and stimulating them, so that the greater number of workers can be absorbed. There is little use flying in the face of nature; in the economy of things, building costs can only reach a certain level if there is to be building at all. The Bank of Nova Scotia expert points to the erection of school buildings as a winter program, but the cost will only be visited on the ratepayers in general. If it could be worked out where construction could be carried out just as economically in winter time as in summer, it would be a different proposition. And, of course, the close of navigation will inevitably throw large numbers every year into idleness for some months at a stretch.—St. Catharines Standard.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The Federal Government's position in regard to reparations made by Germany is that the money belongs to the country, not to individuals. Which will recall the old story, "Who got hit with the brick?"

Canada is to be invited by the United States Secretary of State to participate in a league to outlaw war. At least Mr. Kellog can rest assured that we are not likely to embark upon a naval war against any country.

? ? ? The Question Box ? ? ?

D.V.R.: Q.—How many lives were lost in the Battle of Jutland?

A.—British: 6,447 officers and men; German: 2,586 officers and men. The British had 149 ships of all classes present and lost 14; the Germans had 110 ships present and lost 11.

B.E.: Q.—(1) How long should paved roadways, such as are being built in Peterborough this year, last? (2) What is the purpose of the curb? (3) Should it be spelled "curb" or "kerb?"

A.—(1) The lifetime is given as 10 years, but the pavement now being laid will doubtless last long beyond 1938. The Appian way, begun by the Censor Appicus Claudius in 312 B.C. as a highway through Rome to the east, is still in good condition, after 2,240 years, so what may be expected of modern engineering skill? (2) It is a retaining wall between a footwalk and the roadway, preserving a definite line of demarcation. (3) "Curb" is generally used in this country. Harmsworth finds that the word comes from the Latin curvus, crooked.

D.C.: Q.—A friend tells me that dentistry, at least as far as replacing teeth is concerned, is of recent origin, say 200 years ago. Is this correct?

A.—No. Your friend is mistaken. Dental diseases of certain kinds were treated in ancient Egypt, as long ago as 2,000 B.C. Similar knowledge was possessed by the Greeks, and Aristotle tells of instruments for scaling the teeth (4th Century B.C.). The Etrusians (500-400 B.C.) restored missing teeth, and specimens of their bridge work are preserved to this day. The work was primitive indeed, but the artificial substitutes were attached to the neighboring teeth by gold bands, indicating the essential principle of modern dental bridge work. Rhazis, a Persian, first advocated the filling of teeth for their preservation in 850 A.D.

J.B.O.: Q.—I was driving south on George Street when another motorist came east on Charlotte Street, and, without stopping at the "stop" sign, crashed into my car. What rights have I?

A.—The Examiner regrets that it cannot give legal advice through this column, as in every legal entanglement the only safe plan is to consult a lawyer.

THE TRENT CANAL.

To the Editor of The Examiner,
Peterborough.

Sir,—I received this morning from the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce a marked copy of The Examiner of the 15th inst., with an account of a meeting of representatives of the Trent Valley municipalities from Midland to Trenton. The writer, who was unavoidably unable to accept the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce, has been an advocate of Trent Valley construction for over fifty years, and has attended many conventions for the purpose of asking for financial assistance from the several Federal administrations. The building of the canal has never been Government policy, and what has been accomplished is the outcome of pressure from the Trent Valley municipalities, and it has been charged in the past that it was of value in influencing voters in Dominions elections.

Some years ago a non-political association was formed, viz., The Trent Valley Waterways Development Association and in 1924 they passed at a meeting in Peterborough the following resolution: "That, in view of the very large expenditure already made on the Trent Valley improvements, and in view of the fact that the whole work is largely unproductive of results, by reason of its incompleteness, and in view of the further fact that the final link on the Severn River will cost only a small fraction of the total outlay, this association would memorialize the Government and the Department of Railways and Canals, and urgently request that the balance of the work be carried through at the earliest possible date. The only answer to this is that just before the last Dominion election, a contract was let for a new lock at Young's Point, completed some time ago at a cost of $150,000. The old lock was built in 1869-70 at a cost for canal and lock of $31,192.72. The writer can unhesitatingly say that the new lock was uncalled for except in so far as it might have assisted in the West Peterborough election. There was no demand from any public body for a new lock, the expenditure was unwarranted, and therefore an unjustifiable misuse of public funds. It should now be the aim of the Trent Waterways Development Association to have further expenditures supervised by a Control Board, that is, insofar as relates to contracts for new work.—Yours, etc.,

J. F. LILLICRAP.

GOD'S MINUTE

Incline your heart to the Lord God of Israel—Josh. 24:23.

Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to accept this, our morning prayer and praise. We praise Thee for Thy goodness in having brought us safely to the beginning of another day, for Thy preservation of us during our past lives: for all the mercies Thou hast bestowed upon us notwithstanding our repeated transgressions; but especially for Jesus Christ, our Saviour, and in Him, all our means of grace and hopes of glory.

Give us grace that, amidst all our wordly cares and occupations, we may never forget Thee, but remember that we are ever walking in Thy sight. Enable us to subdue all unholy desires, and, denying all ungodliness and unholy lusts, to live wholly righteously and godly in this present world. Preserve us from idleness in the concerns both of our souls and bodies, that we may not be slothful in business, but fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. Be pleased, O Lord, to comfort and succor the poor and the afflicted, and dispose us to do good unto all men.

Spread the knowledge of Thy Word, and make Thy Church the instrument of diffusing and upholding true religion. Preserve us all in the unity of the faith, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life, and finally bring us to Thy Kingdom in Heaven, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK.

TORONTO, May 22.—With a moderate run, indicating a firm tone to the market, cattle buyers were a little slow breaking in. The run carried an exceptionally good average in quality and a few of the choicest offerings sold at slightly higher prices.

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Que., May 21 (Canadian Press).—The export trade in grain here yesterday was extremely dull owing to the fact that foreign bids were below working basis. In the domestic market there was some trading in Manitoba No. 6 Spring wheat at 24 cents per bushel under the Winnipeg May option, c.i.f. Montreal, and odd lots of oats changed hands. The demand for car lots was quiet on spot and prices were unchanged.

There was some demand from English importers for Spring wheat flour and a moderate amount of business was done. The domestic trade was quiet but prices were firm. The trade in Winter wheat flour was inactive, but the undertone was steady.

Owing to the lull in the demand from United States buyers for millfeed and the falling off in the sales for local account, the market was much quieter, but the undertone was firm. The market for standard grades of rolled oats was slow.

LUNCHEON AT THE CLUB

Dry and mellow— like a rare old wine

SOMEWHERE in the memory of every epicure hovers a taste which never will be forgot . . . a glass of Moët & Chandon sipped in the moonlight as the Mediterranean lapped the rocks below . . . a glass of nut-brown ale before the fire of an English wayside inn after a hard day's tramp over downs and moors . . . the steaming, spicy fragrance of hot posset drunk on a snowy Christmas Eve.

A Ginger Ale of Unforgettable Distinction

And somewhere within the memory of every epicure hovers another taste, never to be forgot, always to be long remembered . . . a clear, crystal glass through which the light strikes and divides into a thousand glistening rainbows . . . bubbles rising . . . an intriguing aroma . . . a mellow, subtle taste, not too dry and yet not too sweet . . . a tingle of goodness on the tongue. . . . You have drunk the beverage. "Canada Dry," the champagne of ginger ales!

A Real Ginger Ale Made from Real Jamaica Ginger

"Canada Dry" has rightly won its place among things epicurean. It is made with something of the care and skill expended on the making of a rare old wine. Pure Jamaica ginger is used. Its other ingredients are selected and blended with the utmost care. The proportions in which part of the ingredients are mixed is a carefully guarded secret. Its delightful sparkle is the result of an exact and carefully determined degree of carbonation.

And as a result you have a drink of distinction. Serve it with dinner tonight. Give it to your friends! Order it when you dine out. How delightfully it mixes with other beverages!

Hall's Bridge

HALL'S BRIDGE, May 22.— Mr. Wallace Shearer made a trip by motor car to Lindsay on Wednesday last.

Mr. Leslie Hall has purchased the house belonging to Mr. Theodore Simpson.

Mr. John Fulton is busy erecting a new house on George street.

Friends will regret to hear of the illness of Miss Iris Willis, daughter of Dr. E. E. Willis.

Mr. Robert Shaw, who has been in Nicholls Hospital, Peterborough, for an operation on his eyes, has returned to his home at Hall's Bridge.

Mrs. Robert Shaw, who has been suffering for some time with heart trouble, is regaining strength.

Owing to the fact that Mrs. Dwelly, wife of Rev. R. T. C. Dwelly, is ill in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, the service at St. Matthew's Church, Buckhorn, was cancelled on Sunday last. Friends of Mrs. Dwelly will be pleased to hear that she has made a good recovery from the operation, and is progressing as favorably as can be expected. Rev. Mr. Dwelly wishes to anounce that the services will be continued next Sunday, May 27 at 11.00 a.m.

John Edward Taylor, of Green Street Green, said to be the oldest man in Kent, England, celebrated his one-hundred-fourth birthday recently by working in his garden.

SMALL CHILDREN PLAY PLEASINGLY

Pupils of Mrs. W. A. Greenslade Give Fine Program at Recital.

The little elementary piano class of Mrs. W. A. Greenslade gave a very pleasing recital at her home, 196 Dalhousie street on Friday evening at which the parents of the pupils were present.

The spacious rooms were beautiful with spring flowers and the animation of the little tots presented a pretty picture.

The bright and well executed numbers of these young musicians, the majority of whom are under the age of ten years, received much applause and showed the excellent tuition of their teacher.

They were assisted by two of the junior vocal pupils of Mrs. Greenslade, Misses Marion Armstrong and Evelyn Miller, who sang for the first time before the public. Their sweet soprano voices were much admired. Miss Miller also contributed a reading.

The following pupils, Peggy Edmonds, Mildred Henthorne, Jack Ferguson, George Northcotte and Stuart Currie received prizes from their teacher for regular attendance.

At the conclusion of the program dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

The program was as follows:

Piano Solo—"White Rose" (Graham)—George Northcott.

Piano Solo—"Tulip" (Graham)—Verna Turner.

Piano Solo—"The Echo" (Rickey)—Harold Fife.

Piano Solo—"Red Rose" (Graham)—Peggy Edmonds.

Piano Solo—"Narcissus" (Slater)—Lloyd Louden.

Piano Solo—"Daisy Chains" (Slater)—Mildred Henthorne.

Vocal Solo "Fairy Bells" (Marguerite Lawrence)—Miss Marion Armstrong.

Piano Solo—"Petite Waltz" (Dennee)—Stuart Currie.

Piano Solo—"Rondo Villigois" (A. Letteir)—Margaret Pitchford.

Piano Solo—"Bohemian Song" (A. Letteir)—Tom Smart.

Reading—"The Middle Child"—Miss Evelyn Miller.

Piano Solo— "Merry Peasant" (Schuman)—Jack Ferguson.

Vocal Solo—"The Lover Man" (Jeffrey Lang)—Miss Marion Armstrong.

Piano Solo—"Dance of the Mermaids"—Sophia Yeotes.

Vocal Solo—"An Acadian Lullaby" (C. W. Krogmann)—Miss Evelyn Miller.

Piano Solo—"Elfin Dance" (Jensen)—Donald Ross.

BAY CONFERENCE SHOWS PROGRESS

Successful Efforts Reported Despite Slight Membership Decrease.

In this Conference there are 244 Pastoral Charges with 638 preaching places in them.

Members of Session total 2,024, two more than reported a year ago. Stewards or Managers number 2,921, four more than last year. Other members of official boards show a decrease of 46 and are reported as numbering 2,145.

There are according to the reports 239 more families under the care of The United Church of Canada in this Conference this year than last. The net membership of the United Church in the Bay of Quinte Conference stands at 67,366, 15 less than reported a year ago.

There are 545 Sunday Schools—9 less than last year with a total enrolment of 932 less than last year.

There has been an increase in salaries of ministers at the rate of $26,000 per year for the whole conference.

The Conference contributed $205,517 for the Maintenance and Extension Fund for nine months or at the rate of $274,000 for a twelve months' period—an increase over last year's figures of almost $31,000.

For all purposes the grand total givings of congregations within this conference amount to $1,064,108 for the nine months ending December 31st, an increase at the rate of $165,000 for the whole year.

Since the consummation of Union in 1925 mortgages have been paid off United Church property in this Conference to the amount of $51,000.

Churches and Sunday Schools have been repaired or redecorated at a total outlay of over $76,000.

Manses or parsonages have been bought or built at a cost of over $25,000 and repairs to parsonages already in use account for $24,415 additional outlay.

More than $4,700 have been spent in furnishings for manses and upwards of $4,650 for organs and pianos.

New churches and Sunday schools have been erected since Union in many parts of the Conference some of which may be mentioned:

Sharbot Lake, Minden, Port Anne, Greenwood and Oshawa Mission have new churches; Beachburg has extended the church. Bridge Street, Belleville, has a community hall, and Cartright and Little Britain have new sheds.

The Women's Missionary Society has 337 auxiliaries in this conference with a membership of 12,826, and contributed last year almost $69,800.

This Conference meets in Smith's Falls, on May 30th.

"DRY" REFUSES JOB, DOLE STOPS

When a "dry" refuses to work at a bar, and can get no other job, should he be entitled to unemployment dole? That is the question that puzzled the officials of Ireland recently. A youth of 18 was receiving unemployment dole and was offered employment at a public-house bar at wages commencing at $7.50 a week and three meals a day. The youth said he was a teetotaller, and refused the offer, whereupon his unemployment dole was stopped on the grounds that he "unreasonably refused a job offered to him." The Court of Referees refused his application for resumption of his dole, but when he put the case before an umpire under the Unemployment Insurance Act it was ordered resumed without further delay.

MAYOR WELCOMES YOUNG ORATORS

JERITZA TEMPERAMENTAL.

VIENNA, May 22 (Canadian Press)—Because she did not receive a coveted decoration from the French Government, Maria Jeritza, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, has decided to resign from the Vienna State Opera. She blames the director of the opera for the French Government's failure to adequately recognise her.

Across the Equator

Oil wells in far Peru producing a crude that has all the essentials of a fine motor oil; IMPERIAL tankers transporting this crude to Canada; IMPERIAL refineries employing an exclusive process for the manufacture of a superior oil—these are factors which have made Marvelube Canada's better motor oil.

Because it is made from a better crude, Marvelube is an inherently better oil. Because it is made by improved refining methods, it possesses added qualities of superiority. Because its production and distribution are safeguarded by the standards of Canada's largest refiners of petroleum products, it has won and held the confidence of motorists the country over.

Marvelube is a golden-pure lubricant, made by a better process from a better crude petroleum. Only IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED employs this improved process; only IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED has access to Peruvian crude.

IN POLICE COURT

Four local men pleaded guilty to being intoxicated in a public place, and were each fined $10 and $5.50 costs, or 30 days in the common jail. two of them took the jail term.Last night police officers arrested two of them on Water street, one on Harvey street, and the fourth on George street.

Magistrate Langley in passing sentence issued a warning that all offenders for drunkenness in the future would be assessed a heavier fine than $10. "I am going to jump these fines up to $15, for they have been coming far too thickly in the past few days. If I can help it, Peterborough is not going to run wild under this act," said His Worship.

A resident of North Monaghan pleaded guilty to permitting drunkenness on his premises on New Romaine street. and was fined $15 and $7.05 costs, or 30 days in the common jail.

BAND AND SINGERS PLEASE AUDIENCE

Madrigal Club and Rangers Band Present Fine Program.

Composed of numbers grave and gay, with a proper balance between band selections, choruses, and solo numbers, the concert given last night by the Madrigal Singers and the Peterborough Rangers Band thoroughly pleased every one of the large audience which gathered in the Canadian Legion Hall. From the first martial strains of the march, "Mon Ami," which was composed by Capt. O'Neil, bandmaster of the Royal 22nd Regiment, who is to be a judge at the Kiwanis Musical Festival in the fall, to the last words of the lilting "Two Little Stars," the audience gave careful attention, and every number was vociferously encored.

That which most pleased the audience was Major Maurice Park's fine tenor solo, "Come Into the Garden, Maud." Major Park was forced to sing again, being the only person on the program to do so. Another pleasing number was "Old King Cole," sung by Mrs. Doig and the Misses Lamb, Wolstenholme and Hill. This unusual version of the familiar nursery rhyme brought roars of laughter ,and its conclusion was marked by hearty applause.

Mrs. Hazel Davidson McClelland, ever popular, gave a humorous reading on a Pennsylvania Dutchwoman's first visit to the theatre, and responded to an encore with a short anecdote. Solos by Mrs. Ross Williamson, Miss Ethel Mabee, Miss Margaret Dickson and Miss Geraldine Collins, all in splendid voice, were also well received. Mrs. H. F. Doig and Miss Bertha Hill sang a pleasing duet, as did the Misses Lamb and Daisy Davidson.

The Madrigal Singers sang four groups of chorus numbers. These were of great variety, but mostly of a light type, with swift tempo. Under the leadership of Dorothy Allan Park, they displayed careful training, with close attention to time and phrasing ,and the balance and blending of the voices was good.

There were four numbers by the band. With more than thirty musicians in uniform, under the leadership of Lieut. W. H. Peryer they played well. A military band, they were possibly at their best in the march, "Mon Ami," but the heavy number, "Creme de la Creme," a fantasia containing many noted selections, the intermezzo, "Weymouth Chimes," with Band Sergeant A. E. Paterson playing the chimes, and the humorous rendering of "The Girl I Left Behind Me," which closed the program, were also good.

Miss Gwen Donley was accompanist for the chorus numbers and some of the solos, while Mrs. Park played for the others. Both pianists showed perfect sympathy with the singers, the accompaniments forming a fitting complement to the voices.

Before the last number Lieut.-Col. W. Gordon Hall, V.D., Officer Commanding the Peterborough Rangers, expressed the thanks of the officers and band for the support accorded them in their concert, which is for the purpose of raising funds to obtain several new instruments for the band.

The singers were: Mrs. A. Barton, Mrs. C. H. Crowe, Mrs. H. F. Doig, Mrs. T. H. Gillespie, Mrs. Fred Free, Mrs. Hazel Davidson McClelland, Mrs. Leila Spriggs, Mrs. Ross Williamson, Geraldine Collins, Isabel Connolly, Margaret Dickson, Daisy Davidson, Ethelwyn Dix, Bertha Hill, May Jory, Helen Lytle, Helen Lamb, Mildred Magee, Isobel McKee, Ethel Mabee, Marion Rannie, Frances Robertson, Cora Smith, Margaret Wolstenholme.

The bandsmen were: Band Sergeant A. E. Paterson, Bandsmen J. Waldroh, Janeway, W. Hodgson, W. Dyer, A. Bishop, E. Abraham, J. Irwin, W. Grieves, H. Woods, M. Caccavelli, F. Tamblyn, R. Bates, A. Gibson, A. Hempstead, McPhate, R. Naples, S. Peryer, A. E. Breadman, F. Peryer, H. Miles ,D. Chambers, W. Hesmond, W. Saunders, T. McBrien, J. Minnicola, C. Gallagher, A. Simmons, McLarnin, F. OBITUARY

MRS. A. D. McDONALD.

TORONTO, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—Mrs. A. D. McDonald, widow of the late Rev. Alexander D. McDonald, a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada for more than forty years, is dead here, aged 96. Born in Scotland, Mrs. McDonald came to Canada when fifteen years of age and with her family settled at Oakbank, Paris, Ont. During the pastorates of her husband at Clinton, Elora, and Seaforth, Ontario, Mrs. McDonald endeared herself to a wide circle. She will be buried from Willis Church, Clinton, Ontario, on Tuesday.

MRS. THOMAS GILLOTT.

MILLBROOK, May 22.—The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Gillott, the oldest citizen of this community, took place from her late residence, corner of Centre and Union Streets, on Monday, May 21, at 2.30 p.m., and was very largely attended.

Residing here continuously for over seventy years, Mrs. Gillott had an intimate connection with community growth and history. Her ninety-third birthday occurred on April 17, and though not very strong, deceased was able to be downstairs and receive the many callers who came to extend good wishes for the occasion. Since then she had been rather more feeble in health, but no alarm was felt, the end coming suddenly on Saturday, May 19, when she slept peacefully away between eight and nine o'clock in the morning.

Her pastor, Rev. John Riddell, of Grace Presbyterian Church, and Rev. P. C. Howard, assistant minister of the Parish of Millbrook and Cavan, had charge of the funeral service, the former basing his address on the thirty-fourth chapter of Deuteronomy, with particular reference to the words: "So the servant of the Lord died there in the land."

The immediate survivors are one son, W. J. E. Gillott, and one brother, John Edwards, of Crediton, in Huron County.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. W. T. Wood, H. W. Johnston, J. N. McGill, S. E. Eakins, J. A. Vance, Alexander Hunter.

Interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

Among the many beautiful floral tributes was a wreath from Grace Presbyterian Church, and one from the Comstock Undertaking Company, Peterborough.

Among those from outside the village who attended the funeral were: Messrs. R. M. Waddell and R. Fair, Peterborough; Mr. James and Miss Mary Fair, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. McCullough, Hope; Mrs. Dickinson and Miss Cora Ramsay of Port Hope; Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Westwood; Mr. and Mrs. C. Breckenridge, of Westwood; Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, Mrs. John Armstrong, and Mrs. Wesley Armstrong, Peterborough; Mr. John Reid of Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Kindred, of Otonabee, and Miss I. Breckenridge, of South Monaghan.

BREMEN'S CREW VISITS MONTREAL

German-Irish Fliers Welcomed By Large Crowd This Morning.

MONTREAL, May 22. Canadian Press. — The German-Irish east to west iquerors of the Atlantic paid their first official visit to Canada today, and incidentally were the first trans-Atlantic fliers to come to Montreal.

The trio arrived here from Albany at 9.55, and were given an enthusiastic welcome at the station by a tremendous crowd. They were met by Mayor Houde, the German consul and representatives of several German and Irish societies. They later went to the hotel to rest before attending several social functions this afternoon.

Mine Shares Slip Down In Active Dealing To-day

TORONTO, May 22 (Canadian Press).—Prices softened this morning on the Mining Market under the leadership of Noranda, which, under profit taking, suffered a loss of 1.40, bringing the market price to an even $24 at noon. Teck Hughes, another leader, had fair activity, but no sign of weakness. It eased off ten before noon to 10.40, while Wright Hargreaves was off two to 4.48 and Kirkland Lake, which showed signs of advancing at the opening, came back unchanged at 1.81. With the price of silver remaining at 62¼ cents an ounce, the silver issues showed no signs of any particular softening. Castle Tretheway remained at 74, Keeley softened 5 to 75, Mining Corporation was unchanged at 3.50. Pend. Oreille took a reverse of 35 points, dropping back to 17.10, while Hollinger, with the annual report out, fluctuated slightly at 15.50 to 15.60. Lake Shore held at $24, unchanged. Sheritt Gordon had no change at 5.85; Sudbury Basin was off ten at 9.85, and Abana, the feature last week, suffered a reverse at 2.95. Central Manitoba failed to hold yesterday's gain, going back seven to 1.33. Amulet dropped five to 3.40, and Ajax Oil under further selling slipped down another seven to 71.

Wheat Prices Go Up Because Of Hot Spell

CHICAO, May 22. — (Canadian Press.)—Dry hot weather northwest, unfavorable for spring wheat growth, tended to make wheat prices average higher to-day in early dealings. There were also reports of adverse crop conditions in Europe. Opening at 3-8c. decline to 7-8c. advance, wheat later showed gains all around. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, with corn starting unchanged to 5-8c. off and subsequently undergoing a general sag.

Opening prices were: Wheat, May 148, July 148 5-8. Corn, May 103 3-4, July 106 3-8. Oats, May 65 July 55.

Downward Trend Shown On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, May 22. Canadian Press.—A general stiffening of trade was shown during this morning's trading on the Toronto stock exchange, with the prices tending downward. International Nickel led the market in the turnover of shares and at 12.30 remained unchanged at 88. Massey-Harris sold down to 40¼ for a loss of 1 1-4 points. Page-Hersey also lost ground, selling at 101, down 1½, in heavy trading. Photo-Engravers continued its upward trend, advancing 1 1-4 to 38 1-4.

Brazilian New receded fractionally to 59 7-8. City Dairy in quiet trading lost one point to 56½. Canadian Oil, British American Oil, Imperial Oil, International Petroleum, Riverside Mills and shredded wheat eased down fractionally. Canada Dry Ginger Ale suffered the greatest decline, selling down 2¾ to 73¾. Hiram Walker, Goodyear Tire, Distillers Seagram, and Abitibi, were 1 point easier. Canada Malting sold at 36 1-4 for a net loss of 1¾.

NEW WAREHOUSE ALREADY IN USE

First Shipment of Lumber Has Passed Through Millbrook Building.

DEFENCE IS CLEVER.

MILLBROOK, May 22.—The new building near the C.NR. station under erection by the Millbrook Coal Company, H. R. Scott, manager, is now completed and will be used for the storage of both dressed and rough lumber, mouldings, hardwood, etc. It is twenty by sixty feet, and being along the railway siding lumber may be moved readily from the cars to either the upper or lower story of the building, making possible a reduction of handling costs. It has been roofed with a fireproof material to eliminate danger from sparks from the engines of passing trains. The initial shipment of material for the new branching out of this local company arrived last week, probably fifty per cent of it being disposed of from the car without need of storage facilities.

CLUB BAG GIVEN ALBERT BARTON

Canadian Woollens Bonner-Worth Staff Makes Presentation Before Departure.

TAKES NEW POSITION.

The members of the staff of the Canadian Woollens Limited, Bonner-Worth Mills, assembled in the head office of the company, McDonnel street, on Saturday, where the presentation of a club bag was made to Albert Barton, as a slight token of the esteem in which he is held by that company.

The gathering was addressed by William Tinker, secretary-treasurer of the company, who in a brief but sincere manner voiced the general feelings of the staff in congratulating Mr. Barton on his recent appointment as manager of the Elliott Manufacturing Company. He further stated that while the members of the staff were reluctant to realise that Mr. Barton had decided to sever his connection with the company, they were happy to know that he and his family would not be leaving the city, and wished him every success in his new field of endeavor.

Mr. Barton replied briefly, thanking the staff for their kindness and assuring them of his keen interest in all the atcivities of the Canadian Woollens Limited, and of the pleasure his relationship with the company for the past ten years had afforded him.

MANDELL WINS FROM McLARNIN

POLO GROUNDS, New York, May 22.—Seeking the end of the lightweight rainbow, Jimmy McLarnin chased a fleeting, dark-haired shadow in vain tonight and Sam Mandell is still 135-pound champion of the world.

In 15 slashing, bristling rounds Mandell, a jabbing, elusive jumping jack, repulsed the challenge of the young Irish-Canadian in decisive fashion with one of the greatest exhibitions of boxing skill the lightweight class has seen since Benny Leonard was in his prime.

Decisive Victory.

Mandell's victory over the Vancouver challenger was as startling as it was convincing. Off to a hurricane start, he had McLarnin dizzy and bewildered with a fast, furious and varied attack. From start to finish he piled up a margin on points that never was threatened in spite of McLarnin's most courageous rallies.

McLarnin found out to his annoyance and sorrow that a chin that can't be reached can't be cracked.

Not once during the entire fifteen rounds was McLarnin able to reach Mandell's jaw with any of the two-fisted dynamite that had carried him to the top of the challenging heap in the light-weight brigade.

Seldom, for that matter, was McLarnin ever able to penetrate Mandell's jumping-jack defense or pin the champion to one spot long enough to swing a few solid punches.

They looked like high school youths at the start—McLarnin chunky and baby-faced, Mandell dark, sleek-haired and more sophisticated. But at the finish McLarnin was a sorry sight. His left eye, that had started to swell from the fifth round, was shut tight. Blood streamed from his nose. He was the victim of greater experience, speed, and a baffling left jam wielded by Mandell, who was still the sleek-haired champ at the finish, smiling and unmarked, except for the blotches around his ribs and waist-line, that testified to McLarnin's vicious body attack.

Unanimous Decision.

The decision of the two judges and Referee Lou Magnolia in the champ's favor was unanimous. On The Associated Press score sheet, Mandell was credited with the decisive margin of nine rounds, with three awarded to McLarnin, and three others scored as even.

It was Mandell's first bout in New York since he won the title, nearly two years ago, from the ageing Rocky Kansas in Chicago, his first title bout of any consequence since then, and one of the best exhibitions of his career.

TAG DAY COUNT SHOWS INCREASE

Salvation Army Collects the Sum of $552.05 For Social Service Work.

Peterborough citizens experienced an unheralded eclipse on Saturday last. It was not one in which the solar system played the entire role, although early in the morning the sun was veiled and torrential rains forecasted a failure, but later in the day revealed its welcome splendour.

Whilst the rays of the sun were playing upon the streets, the seventy indomitable workers, in connection with the Tag Day of the local branch of the world-girdling Salvation Army, turned the thoroughfares of our fair city into a veritable beehive of industry placing the tags on, in some cases, "the coats of many colours," dispensing smiles and thank yous, and God bless yous, in exchange for the coppers, nickels, dimes, quarters, half dollars, yes and even one and two dollar bills placed in their boxes.

They also appreciated the kindly expressions of gratitude from many of the citizens regarding their admiration for the practical work of The Salvation Army. One citizen in particular when the word "begging" was mentioned, remonstrated with the worker and said "we consider as a populace that we reap good annual dividends from the achievements wrought through public support of The Salvation Army."

Evidently these sentiments were shared by very many, for in spite of the wet start and wet finish, the citizens played in the boxes to the tune of $552.05, an increase of $51.00 over last year's total, which was $501.00. An eclipse, says Ensign E. H. Green of which the citizens need feel proud, and for which on behalf of Commissioner W. Maxwell, Territorial Commander for Canada East, he wishes to pledge The Salvation Army both generally and locally to as whole-hearted service for the blessing and uplift of mankind as this Territory has known heretofore.

Something worthy of the endeavour could be said for each tagger from the least to the greatest, but the first six were as follows:—Miss Violet St. Clair, $28.00; Miss Faith Boorman, $23.09; Miss Gertrude Leggott, $22.87; Miss Edith Halcrow, $22.84; Mrs. Ensign Green, $22.43; Mrs. St. Clair, $20.90.

KIND ACTS DONE.

Junior Humane Society Members Hold Their Weekly Meeting.

The regular weekly meeting of the Junior Humane Society of Peterborough was held in St. John's Parish Hall.

The "Marching Song" was the opening number. The pledge was then repeated by all the members.

Miss Constance Legon reported having stopped men from cruelly whipping a team of horses. As a result of this kind act the horses continued their work. Alfred Pink took a kitten from a woman who was going to drown it. He promised to find a home for it. Several matters were reported to be handled by the Society's inspector. The treasurer's report was then read.

The roll call showed a slight increase over a week ago in attendance. Twenty-eight were present. For a change the members, as their names were called, answered by repeating the pledge.

The song, "Ring the Bells of Mercy" was then sung.

Alfred Pink, of St. John's choir then sang, "Oh! Hush Ye, My Babe."

"Robert's Kitten" was the title of a reading by Miss Hilda Sedgwick.

Miss Constance Legon rendered a very fine piano solo entitled, "The Shepherd Boy's Song."

Next meeting's program was then arranged.

By a vote of the members it was decided that there would be no meeting until the first Thursday after the twenty-fourth of May.

The automobile is being credited with much of the rapid growth in Turkey, Greece, Bulgaria, Rumania and Yugoslavia.

While the body of William J. Clarkson was being taken home from Leeds, England, to Glasgow, Scotland, his five-year-old son fell from the window of the speeding train, and was instantly killed.

That he frequently writes his speeches while traveling on a train, was confessed recently by the Prince of Wales, who said that he pounded the keys of a portable typewriter, using the two-finger method.

A feature of the egg trade was the increased demand that developed from jobbers and packers for fresh extras for storing purposes and sales were made at 34c per dozen, f.o.b. Ontario shipping points, cases returned; but the demand for the lower grades was very limited. The trade in a jobbing way was fair, there being steady demand for small lots to meet immediate requirements and prices were unchanged. The receipts were 3,756 cases.

A firmer feeling developed in the market for potatoes and prices were a trifle higher which was attributed to the increased demand from outside sources for supplies for seeding purposes. Sales of car lots of Quebec varieties were made at 85c per bag of 90 lbs in bulk, and New Brunswick North Shore Green Mountains at 90c per bag of 90 lbs. in bulk, ex-track.

The market for imported beans was steady under a moderate demand for supplies. Sales of choice white hand-picked grades in broken lots were made at $4.20 per bushel, ex-store, and car lots were quoted at $4 per bushel, ex-track.

There was no important change in the condition of the local butter situation. Prices being steady under a fair demand and a moderate amount of business was done. The receipts were 226 packages.

In sympathy with the prices paid for cheese at the country boards at the close of last week the tone of the local market was firm, but business was quiet. The receipts were 1640 boxes.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, May 22 (Canadian Press).—With advices current that domestic Winter wheat prospects showed improvement, and with export business again slack, wheat values yesterday had a general downward slant. It was estimated that European buying of wheat yesterday from North America totalled only 200,000 bushels.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, ⅝c to 1⅛c net lower, with corn ½ to 1⅛c off; oats varying from ⅜c down to ⅛c up, and provisions unchanged to a setback of 5c.

At first the wheat market here was more or less responsive to firmness shown at Liverpool, in connection with word that Argentine labor troubles were extending. Besides, dry weather was prevalent throughout the American and Canadian Spring wheat belt. However reports at hand indicating that danger of further drought damage in Winter wheat territory west and southwest had been dispelled for at least the time being, proved soon to be more than a counter-balance. In some quarters the southwest taken as a whole was said to have sufficient moisture now to carry the wheat crop to maturity.

Selling pressure on wheat increased in the late dealings and buying power was correspondingly curtailed, as talk continued of a better outlook for wheat southwest and as evidence of a halt in export demand became more and more noticeable.

Meanwhile a decrease of 3,176,000 bushels in the United States wheat visible supply total was virtually ignored, the aggregate supply being still largely in excess of the figures a year ago.

Corn declined toward the last, largely as a result of the fact that the corn visible supply decrease of 2,998,000 bushels, was less than had been looked for by many traders. Earlier smallness of country offerings although corn planting is practically complete over a good part of the corn belt, had considerable bullish influence. Oats were unsettled, with May firmer, whereas September was easier. Oats crop reports averaged better, but the visible supply again decreased sharply.

SCALDING KILLS JOSEPH YOUNG

Native of Peterborough Loses Life On Tug at Port Arthur.

BOILER BREAKS.

PORT ARTHUR, May 22.—Joseph Young, aged 38, fireman of the tug Horton, was fatally scalded with escaping steam on Friday morning when a disc blew off the side of the boiler in the tug. Young had just gone off duty, and was asleep in his bunk. The tug soon filled with steam, and the boiling vapor penetrated into Young's bunk, suffocating him.

Captain William West, wrapping his own head in blankets, rushed through the steam to rescue Young. He found him lying on the floor, having rolled off the bunk, unconscious but still alive. Tying a rope around Young's body, the Captain hauled him up on deck, but Young was dead by the time they reached the open air.

Unable to get down to blow the whistle on account of the dense clouds of hot steam, Captain West mounted the top deck and waved his arms. The tug Conmee, Captain Nuttall, came to the Horton's assistance, and towed her to shore from her moorings. Chief Engineer Vance was also badly scalded on the arms and legs, and is now in the hospital, but will recover. An inquest has been ordered.

The tug Horton is owned by the Port William Paper Company, and is leased this season to the Hammermill Paper Company, engaged in towing and moving logs and booms to that part of the waterfront where the boats and barges load with wood for export to Detroit.

The dead fireman was unmarried, and lived with his father. He is survived by two sisters and one brother. He was born at Peterborough.

: ALL AT SEA :

By CAROLYN WELLS

1927—By NEA Service Inc.

Riggs and Robin Sears thought deeply, and were suddenly brought to attention by the decided tones of Miss Folsom, as she said:

"Well, then, I'll ask you, Mr. Barron, and you, Mr. Sears, to go with me at once to the office and give your depositions."

It was clear from the glance of the speaker that she meant Croydon Sears and not his son.

But Robin, eager for the opportunity of seeing the investigation carried on, said, quickly, "Come on, dad. I'm going with you."

"And I, of course," Tite Riggs added, which left only Madeline Barron and Angelica Fair behind.

"You girls better go up to your rooms," Barron said, glancing at his wife. "Run along, Maddy, and take Angel with you."

"I will, Ned. Come to us there as soon as you can get away."

Miss Folsom seemed to marshal her crowd along the way, and led them to Room J, where already a crowd was besieging the door.

Tite Riggs and Robin Sears fell behind and the elder man said, "Sister is certainly on the warpath! I shouldn't care to be the villain of the piece if she is hunting him down!"

"No. And she will hunt him down and convict him before she is through."

"But she can't do that all on her own," Riggs returned. "The judge and jury will have something to say."

Young Sears smiled. "I've been reading 'Alice in Wonderland' to the Barron kiddy," he said, "and sister reminds me much of one of the jingles:

"'I'll be judge, I'll be jury,'
Said cunning old Fury,
'I'll try the whole cause and condemn you to death!'

"Somehow Miss Folsom seems to me very like cunning old Fury."

"Yes, that just expresses her. I'm much interested to see what she makes out of the mystery."

They entered Room J to find it almost filled with would-be witnesses.

It was amazing to see how many people had suddenly bethought themselves of knowledge they possessed concerning the behavior of Garrett Folsom while in bathing the day before.

Detective Jepson and the hotel detective, Dixon, were at their wits' end to decide which ones were important to be listened to and which should be summarily dismissed with scant attention.

Men and women both, nearly all with an air of mysterious knowledge, thronged the place and more or less insistently tried to pour forth their stories.

Tite Riggs was deeply interested, and found himself a place near the interlocutors, where he might get the drift of the examinations going on.

He was surprised at the deft handling of the crowd by the experienced Jepson, whose knowledge of the value of testimony enabled him to dismiss many with a few words, and hold others while he put leading questions to them.

But, after all, little was told of any real help to the investigation.

Most of the reports were merely from those who had seen Garrett Folsom in the water, and had perhaps heard him speak a few words to his companions.

Others told of seeing him on the beach before he entered the surf, but none could tell of any one who might have attacked him with murderous intent.

"All right, all right," Jepson would say to the more garrulous ones. "this isn't an inquest. I'll take your name and if wanted you will be called for."

It really seemed as if many gave their scant evidence from a desire to get called to the inquest and by that route reach the desired goal of newspaper publicity.

As Miss Folsom and her companions entered the room, Jepson was talking to Mr. and Mrs. Tracy, who were, as many witnesses asseverated, near Mr. Folsom when he died, though not holding the rope.

"Yes, sir," Mr. Tracy declared, "we were within what you might call a stone's throw of him. Yes, sir, a stone's throw."

"Yes, as close as that!" his wife corroborated. "We were nearer at first, but a big wave came—"

"That was the wave that took him under," Tracy put in, but Mrs. Tracy said:

"No, it wasn't a wave took him under. He was stabbed, you know—"

"Yes," and Miss Folsom turned her piercing eyes on the speaker, "that's what I want to know. You saw him stabbed?"

"Mercy, no!" almost screamed the frightened Mrs. Tracy. "'Course I didn't know he was stabbed then! But he musta been, for that's when he let go the rope and went under. I saw him go under, but at first I thought nothing of it. We all go under when a big wave comes, and if we lose hold of the rope we grab for it again. But he didn't seem to grab for it, and then, next thing I knew, he was being brought up by the life guards and by some men who stood near."

"What men? Who?" asked Miss Folsom, sharply. "Come, madam, out with it! Was your husband one of these men who assisted?"

"No, I wasn't," Tracy spoke up for himself. "I had my wife to look after and there was plenty of help about if the man was in any danger."

"You, Mr. Barron?" Miss Folsom's voice was tense. "Did you assist the rescuers?"

"No," replied Ned Barron. "I, too, had my wife in my charge, and as the surf was very strong, I didn't relax my hold on her arm. I saw the commotion about Mr. Folsom, but I took no part in it. Had my help seemed necessary, I should, of course, have offered it. But with two able life guards and several quite evidently helpful bystanders, I saw no reason for mixing in."

"Where were you, Mr. Sears?" and Miss Folsom looked directly at Croydon Sears.

"Swimming about," he returned in a disinterested voice. "I was not far away, but not near enough to hear any words that were said. So, though I saw a sort of excitement there, I had no reason to think of any tragedy until I saw them carrying Mr. Folsom out to the beach. And then I assumed that it was a case of cramp or something like that."

"You knew my brother?" The words were shot at him almost accusingly.

"I had met him a few times in business. I never met Mr. Folsom socially."

"No, but I have some letters you have written him."

"Yes?" The monosyllable was a mere murmur of courtesy— and carried no invitation to further disclosures.

"Yes. You will be so good as to appear at the inquest and explain those letters."

"Certainly," said Croydon Sears.

Robin had looked up anxiously at the beginning of this conversation, but as he noted his father's complete indifference to the remarks of the lady, he breathed freely again and returned his attention to the scene before him.

Although the detectives gave Miss Folsom precedence in the matter of questioning the willing witnesses, they kept a supervision of the affair in their own hands, and made a list of the ones whom they wanted to talk with later. If it pleased the sister of the dead man to feel that she was in charge of the solution of the mystery of her brother's death, they were willing it should be so, especially as it seemed to them that help might come through just that arrangement.

And so the procedure continued. One after another the voluble witnesses were weighed and more often than not found wanting. Their stories were vague and uncertain, their impressions were imaginative and sometimes fictitious, their statements were contradictory and unverified.

So, after a morning's work, a mere handful of witnesses had been instructed to present themselves that afternoon at the inquest.

It would not have been held that afternoon, but that Miss Folsom's peremptory orders could not be disregarded without exceeding difficulty.

"Have the inquest," she ordained. "Then, if you don't get anywhere, you can always adjourn for further investigation."

So it was set for two o'clock, and at that time the coroner's office was filled to overflowing and many disappointed would-be auditors were turned away.

(To be continued.)

WILL HOLD FOUR SHOOTS

Lakefield Rifle Association to Enter Silver Salver Competition.

OPEN MAY 24TH

LAKEFIELD, May 22.—At a recent meeting of the Lakefield Rifle Association Mr. B. Q. Dench was re-elected captain, Mr. G. H. Spence as secretary, and Mr. G. G. Connell as treasurer with Messrs. Albert Darling, W. A. Payne and A. E. Webster as the executive committee.

It was decided to enter the silver salver competition and to hold four shoots during the season in the competition. Two extra shoots will be held for which prizes will be given, one on May 24th at 8 a.m. and the second on Labor Day, September 3. The shoots in the competition will be held on May 14 and 28th and September 13th and 27th. The list closes on May 24th and all wishing to join must do so on or before that day.

An executive meeting, held on Saturday night the following schedule was drawn up for the shoot on May 24th, the first of the season, beginning at 8 o'clock in the morning.

5 shots at 200 yards, quick fire.
6 shots at 500 yards, 5 to count.
6 shots at 600 yards, 5 to count.

The schedule for Labor Day will be the same as for May 24th, and the prizes for each of these will be:

First prize, $5.00; second prize, $4.00; third prize, $3.00; fourth prize, $2.00; fifth prize, $1.00.

8 shots at 500 yards, 7 to count.
8 shots at 600 yards, 7 to count.

The following is the prize list for the total points in the four shoots:

First, given by the Government; second, $4.00; third, $3.00: fourth, $2.00; fifth, $1.00.

OTONABEE TEACHER GUEST AT SOCIAL

Lamp and Bible Presented to Mr. and Mrs. H. Elmhurst.

INDIAN RIVER, May 22.—A social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Borland in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Elmhurst. Mrs. Elmhurst before her marriage was the school teacher of Otonabee school section number three and the members of the Indian River Baptist church and its community took the opportunity to express their appreciation of her efficient services while engaged there. Mr. and Mrs. Elmhurst became the happy recipients of a beautiful Aladdin lamp and a large family Bible. About sixty guests were present and a number took part in the program, at the close of which a dainty luncheon was served by the ladies of the congregation. At the presentation the following letter was read by the pastor, who made the presentation:

Dear Mr and Mrs. Elmhurst,—Tonight it is my happy privilege to express in a few words what I believe to be the feeling and thoughts of this company. Some, no doubt, could express this more adequately, or with greater eloquence, yet none can express this more sincerely. This gathering ought to assure you at least of the esteem and good will we have towards you, and we hope that the brightest days may still lie ahead in this new relationship which you have already undertaken.

Of your work at home, little need to be said. Those who have known you best are the ones who will miss you most. Your service and thoughtfulness are the cherished possessions of those who were so largely responsible for endowing you with those mental, physical and spiritual capacities and which capacities were so unselfishly used when the opportunity arose. These opportunties soon came and different parts of this province shared in your service. Dummer Coldsprings and Sherrywood are well known names to you, but to-night we are thinking more particularly about Otonabee, and the work you did in Otonabee school number three.

Yours has been the happy privilege of teaching the boys and girls and moulding them into useful citizens of a greater Dominion. But greater than all the things you have taught and the success you have achieved, which, however, are not being lightly esteemed by those here present, there have been those silent forces influencing the lives of our boys and girls. Yours has been the task of building character and setting before them the great ideals of love, obedience and determination.

Receive therefore as a small token of our appreciation this Aladdin lamp. May its friendly rays light up your home and ever remind you of the days that are passed. May it give light when discouragements or disappointments should come, but above all, remind you of the One who has said: "I am the light of the world, he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life." May each one in that home share in that "light" and life's problems will soon be solved, since "His blessing only maketh rich and addeth no sorrow to it."

On behalf of the Indian River Baptist Church—A. Elkenaar.

MEN'S CLUB PLANS TO BANQUET LADIES

Christ Church Men Will Serve Dinner Next Monday Evening.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22.—There were two main items of business discussed at the meeting of Christ Church Men's Club last night. The first was the matter of a banquet to be tendered the ladies of the church, and the second was suitable colors for the club.

The banquet will be served in the Parish Hall at seven o'clock next Monday evening and arrangements are being made for approximately one hundred plates. The affair will be entirely arranged and carried out by the men of the club. Last night the convenors of the various committees necessary in order that such a function may be run off smoothly, were named. A. T. Linton will head the decoration committee. A. J. Jenkins will act in the capacity of head waiter. The kitchen will be in charge of Harry Cubitt, and the toast list will be given the attention of the president, S. H. Neale and the rector, the Rev. N. Clarke Wallace. The program for the evening is being arranged by Robert Dunk, who reported that he was making excellent progress so far.

While discussing the matter of decorations, colors were mentioned and it was discovered that the club had never selected any official colors. Acting on the suggestion that the official flag of the Church of England was the red cross of St. George on the white back ground, the colors red and white were selected. Others were mentioned and discussed, among them being the different ecclesiastical colors.

CAMPBELLFORD TAX RATE SET

der section 239, sub. section 9 of the Public Health Act. This will be installed at once, with the cost to be met by a special assessment with payments spread over a period of fifteen years. Debentures for the same length of time and bearing interest at 5½ per cent will be issued. The by-law was passed unanimously.

Serviceable Pavement

Mr. Keefer ,the engineer retained by the town during the paving operations was asked to express his opinion on the work. He thought that Campbellford ought to be pleased that they were getting such a good road at such a reasonable cost. The concrete base was not costing any more than an ordinary asphalt base would cost and was much more serviceable. He thought that the construction was of the highest order.

The last, and perhaps the most important item to the ratepayers, was the tax by law. This was presented by Councillor Wiggins and provided a rate of forty (40) mills on the assessed dollar and was divided as follows County rate, 5.6 mills; town debenture rate, 10.9 mills; school debenture rate, 4.8 mills; public and separate school trustees' rate, 11.8 mills; high school debenture rate, 2.8 mills; electric light debenture rate, 2.9 mills; town rate 1.2 mills. This makes a total of forty mills on the dollar, and is based on the fact that the fixed assessment for the Campbellford Cloth Company has been left at $50,000 for 1928. The Separate school rate for 1928 will also remain the same as last year at 2.6 mills.

OBITUARY

MRS. RICHARD LEES

OMEMEE, May 22.—Debora Bell Burley, beloved wife of Mr. Richard Lees, passed away early Friday morning, May 18th, About ten days previous, the late Mrs. Lees was stricken with a paralytic stroke from which she never rallied although at times she was semi-conscious. The deceased was of a quiet, kind, disposition, a good wife, mother and neighbor, always ready and willing to help others whenever needed.

She was a faithful worshippe: at the former Methodist Church, and later the United Church and rarely ever missed a service when health permitted. Two weeks previous to the day of her funeral, she was in her accustomed pew but now it is empty, and she will be missed, not only at the church service but in the social functions of the church, where she was always willing to do her part.

The funeral was very largely attended on Sunday afternoon. A short service was conducted at the home by her pastor, Rev. E. W. Rowland, after which the remains were conveyed to Trinity United Church, where a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives had gathered to pay their last tribute of respect. The pastor gave a beautiful and sympathetic message after having read the 22nd chapter of Revelation. Two favorite hymns if the departed were sung during the service 'Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross," and "Will Your Anchor Hold?"

The funeral cortege then wended its way to Emily Cemetery, where the body was tenderly laid to rest. The beautiful floral tributes placed on and around the casket were tokens of love and esteem.

Those left to mourn the loss of a loving wife, mother and sister are her husband and two daughters, Mrs. James Turner of Brantford and Miss Bessie Lees at home; two grandchildren, two brothers and one sister at Fenelon Falls; also a sister, Mrs. Walter Arkesey of Lindsay.

JARED DINGMAN.

APSLEY, May 22.—The death occurred on Saturday of an old resident of Methuen Township, Jared Dingman, at the ripe age of 80 years, at the home of his nephew, Ambrose Dingman, after a brief illness. The funeral took place on Monday at Grace Church, Lasswade, the Rev. J. W. Ogden conducting the service. Interment was made in the family plot at Lasswade Cemetery.

ARTHUR EDWARD BAILEY.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22. — The remains of the late Arthur Edward Bailey were brought here yesterday from Belleville for interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The service was conducted by the Golden Rule Lodge A. F. and A. M. 126, Campbellford, of which the deceased was for many years a member. Many beautiful floral tributes were placed to his memory. The pall-bearers were members of the Masonic Order and were from both Campbellford and Belleville. They were: Herbert Morton, Anthony Herity and Frank Herity of Belleville, and F. W. Wood, G. A. Kingston and W. J. Armstrong of Campbellford.

The late Mr. Bailey was in his seventy-fifth year and had for the past few years resided in Belleville. He is survived by his widow, one son, Arthur, who resides in the United States, and one daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Duprau, Belleville. There are also three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Sandy, Mrs. L. Craean, Miss Alice Bailey, and James, Thomas and Harry Bailey of London, England.

Mr. Bailey was well-known as one of the pioneers of industry in this district. About forty years ago he built the Woodland cheese factory, and continued to operate it for several years. He was the first to operate a factory under the haulage and manufacturing plan. Later he erected a store and residence, and for a number of years carried on a prosperous general store business. Later disposing of his property, he moved to Campbellford and resided at the corner of Market and Rear Streets on the property lately known as the Kent property. While resident here, Mr. Bailey took an active interest in the affairs of the town, then a village, and held the positions of councillor and deputy reeve. A member of the Methodist Church, the late Mr. Bailey was for many years a member of the quarterly official board of the church here. In politics he was, generally, a Conservative, and was strongly in favor of tariff protection for Canada. With his passing, Campbellford loses another of the pioneers of the district.

NORMAN M. GRIFFITS.

HAVELOCK, May 22.—The death occurred on Sunday night at his home in Belmont of Norman Mackey Griffith, in his 46th year.

Born in the township of Seymour, he lived all his life in the district. He has been in ill health for two years. About ten days ago he contracted a cold, which owing to his delicate constitution, was the cause of his detath. He was a member of the Belmont Orange lodge and the Havelock lodge A.F. and A.M.

There are left to mourn his loss his mother, one sister, Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, of Adams, Sask., two brothers, George of Haliburton, and William of town.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon from the residence of his brother, W. E. Griffith, Old Havelock, to Maple Grove cemetery.

MRS. ELIZABETH ROBSON.

NORWOOD, May 22.—The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Robson on Sunday morning removed one of the old residents of Norwood and a most highly esteemed lady. She was very active up until a few days ago, when she was suddenly stricken with pleuro-pneumonia, and passed away after but three days' illness. The late Mrs. Robson is survived by two daughters, Miss Theresa Robson of the teaching staff of Queen Alexandra Public School, Toronto, and Mrs. Norton C. Porter of Norwood. She was a lifelong member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of this place, and one of its most active workers. One brother, Donald MacNaughton, of Peterborough, is the only surviving member of one of the pioneer families of this district. Burial will take place at Norwood this afternoon.

SCULPTOR DIES.

LONDON, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—Sir George James Frampton, noted British sculptor who executed many memorials and statues, including the Edith Cavell Memorial in London, died on Monday, aged 68.

children in the household quite well. There has been no further disease in this house; it has been thoroughly disinfected and cleansed and, as I said before there has been no further case of scarlet fever or diphtheria in the city. I with the sanitary inspector have kept this house under close observation and our instructions have been carried out satisfactorily.

Swabs Investigated

"Swabs were sent down from the Isolation hospital to Dr. C. E. Waite of the Peterborough Branch Provincial Laboratory and he reported no diphtheria germs. Dr. Sutton, who afterwards examined the swabs (I don't know what his authority was for this) reported his findings to Dr. Waite, who then reported that there were diphtheria germs. I then sent two swabs to the Provincial Laboratory in Peterborough and two swabs to the Provincial Laboratory in Toronto and I received four reports—two from Peterborough and two from Toronto that there were no diphtheria germs detectable.

"Dr. Waite then cultivated the swabs and found no diphtheria germs. The boy now in the Isolation hospital is pealing, proving that his case is scarlet fever."

Dr. C. D. Hewett

When interviewed on the matter this morning, Dr. C. D. Hewett said that rather than make any statement he preferred to corroborate what Dr. Young had said. "I did call at the Hodson home on the Sunday evening mentioned, and I found the little girl very ill, but there was not time for a proper diagnosis, so I returned at eight o'clock the netx morning and diagnosed the case as scarlet fever. The child had had toxide treatment against diphtheria just three or four months before, but despite this fact I gave immunizing doses of diphtheria anti-toxin and scarlet fever anti-toxin.

"I then called Dr. Young in consultation. The patient (the little girl who later died), was removed to the Isolation hospital together with her brother, who was also ill with the same condition. Dr. Young quarantined the family in my presence, but allowed Mr. Hodson to deliver bottled milk after taking an antiseptic bath and other precautions. We both understood from Mr. Hodson that he was not handling milk other than what was bottled off the premises, and not by himself.

"Two days later, in conversation with Dr. Sutton, I learned that Mr. Hodson was bottling milk himself; I immediately notified Dr. Young and he and I went down to Hodson's place. Dr. Young forbade him to deliver any other than the bottled milk procured from outside.

"In my opinion, there could be no questioning of the diagnosis, in that the boy later showed distinct pealing, indicative of scarlet fever."

HOROSCOPE

The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate)
FOR WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 1928.

Astrologers read this as rather an unfortunate day in planetary government, but benefic stars dominate.

The early morning favors dealings with banks or financial negotiations. The rule indicates postponement or delay that leads to success.

The stars are fairly favorable to those who start on journeys, especially those made on the water.

Students of psychology or the occult should benefit from this day aspect of Neptune.

This is not a sway for opening new places of business or for engaging in any sort of an uncertain venture.

It is not a propitious day to speculate, for again an exceedingly nervous market is indicated.

All the signs appear to presage success and happiness for those who cultivate patience and sustained effort.

Neptune continues in a place supposed to be inimical to unity of thought. The rule encourages factions in political parties and schisms in churches.

A London astrologer prophesies that a new gas will be discovered to take the place of petrol.

This authority foresees inventions in armaments which will increase efficiency in war and reduce the number of men needed for battle.

War is to persist until it becomes a problem of mere mechanics, this seer declares, and a new ray will cause long distance destruction that wipes out whole cities.

Great trade activity for Canada and the western states is foretold for the summer.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have difficulties regarding money in the coming year. Women will be helpful to their husbands in financial policies.

Children born on this day probably will be good executives. Land speculation will probably be unfortunate.

FORCED TO SLEEP IN CHAIR—GAS SO BAD

"Nights I sat up in a chair, I had such stomach gas. I took Adlerika and nothing I eat hurts me now. I sleep fine."—Mrs. Glenn Butler.

Even the FIRST spoonful of Adlerika relieves gas on the stomach and removes astonishing amounts of old waste matter from the system. Makes you enjoy your meals and sleep better. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adlerika will surprise you. McDermid & Jury, E. L. Payne, McDermid Drug Co.

DRESS

By MARY MARSHALL

This blouse was made of polka-dot silk scarfs edged with fringe.

Fringe is not one of the outstanding trimmings of the season, still one occasionally sees short fringe used on the more elaborate frocks, and the new frock shown in the sketch makes use of it in an interesting manner.

The important thing about trimmings this year is the variety of sorts employed. In fact, there is much variety all along the line, in hats, frocks, wraps, jewelry, and other accessories. It is much easier for a woman to choose things that really become her and suit her type than it was in previous seasons when greater standardization existed.

I think I never have seen such a large variety of handbags as this spring. Once upon a time—a good many years ago—every woman who could manage to do so, carried a gold or silver mesh bag. Then came a time when everyone carried a beaded bag. One winter, I recall, velvet pouch bags with metal tops were used almost to the exclusion of everything else. Now we have all sorts of bags—pouches, envelopes, little bags, big bags—made of every known sort of leather, and fabric in every conceivable color.

In Paris and to some extent in this country many smart women still retain their fondness for bags made of fine antique fabrics. The objection to this sort of bag, from the American point of view, is that they cannot be made in quantities, for each piece of material is different and each needs individual treatment. Having established the success of a bag made of a certain sort of antique brocade or tapestry there is never any certainty of being able to obtain any more of the same sort. To the Parisian bag dealer, who usually has his bags made by painstaking workers on the premises and who is a connoisseur in antique fabrics, this phase of the matter is not objectionable. A fragment of an historic old shawl, an oblong of beautifully faded century-old petit point, tapestry that was once hung on the wall of a royal palace—such are the fabrics that these Parisian bag makers like to use.

LYRICS OF LIFE

FRUITION

The trees are fairest when in flow'r,
But autumn is the fruitful hour.
Although some moment seems less glad
Than some great happiness we had,
Perhaps it is some time of rain
When earth we lose, the heaven we gain.

Oh, I would have you love the spring,
But that is not the only thing.
And when the trees their blossoms shed,
And some old happiness is dead,
I hope upon the tree survives
The ripening fruit, the ripening lives.

For God the fruits of orchards forms
From both His blossoms and His storms;
And even though the petals fall
Of blossomtime, that is not all.
For every little raincloud now,
A richer fruit will deck the bough.

And you, with each experience,
I hope will feel a finer sense
Of what you are and are to be—
More than a blossom on a tree;
The ripened mind, the rounded soul,
That are God's purpose and man's goal.

PAINFUL RHEUMATISM

Some diseases give immunity from another attack, but rheumatism works just the other way. Every attack of rheumatism invites another; worse than that, it reduces the body's power so that each attack is worse than the one before.

If any disease needs attention early it is rheumatism, but there is scarcely any disease more difficult to treat successfully. When a medicine does relieve rheumatism therefore it is worthy of special notice. Medical authorities agree that the blood becomes thin with alarming rapidity as rheumatism develops. Maintaining the quality of the blood is therefore a reasonable way of preventing and combatting rheumatism. That it works out in fact is shown by the beneficial effects which follow the treatment of rheumatism, acute, muscular and articular, with that great blood tonic, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

That thousands of people who have taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for their rheumatism does not return as long as the blood is kept rich and red is equally true. If, therefore, you are suffering from rheumatism in any form you should lose no time in giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Automobiles have become so popular in the Netherlands this year that some dealers are selling out before the cars arrive.

Why We Do What We Do.

WHY SOME ARE BORN GREAT

By Mehran K. Thomson, Ph.D.
(Author, The Springs of Human Action)

"Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and others have greatness thrust upon them." Those who are born great are classed as geniuses. We now apply the term genius to a person of unusual ability. Michael Angelo, Shakespeare, Napoleon, Edison, Bismark, Gladstone, Benjamin Franklin and others who are outstanding in their respective fields belong to the genius type.

A distinction should be made between talent and genius. "Talent is that which is in a man's power; genius is that in whose power a man is."

Psychological studies have been made of geniuses to determine the exact reasons and if possible to measure it as we measure intelligence. The results have been only partly successful.

It is generally agreed that a genius is born, not made. You cannot make a genius out of a man of ordinary inheritance. Heredity is the biggest factor in producing a genius.

The law of heredity is conservative. It transmits from generation to generation the characteristics that are peculiar to the race and family. If this were the only law operating a genius could come only from a genius. It does not work that way. A genius may spring up anywhere to be the first and last of the line. The explanation is that the law of variation introduces changes and modifies the hereditary pattern. Occasionally this law produces a freak. Every genius is a freak. He is radically different from average folk.

Biologists are inclined to accept this theory because it is generally agreed that acquired characteristics cannot be inherited and the law of heridity would merely reproduce like from like without any changes such as we see in the genius.

The genius is a freak of nature who has found opportunity to develop his extraordinary power, which is the result of the law of variation that occasionally produces something entirely different.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

RAYBESTOS WINS OPENING GAME OF SEASON

CRESCENTS OUTHIT RAYBESTOS IN EAST PETERBOROUGH OPENER

Losers Fail to Hit in Pinches—Winners Stage Rally in Third.

SCORE 4 RUNS TO 1

Mayor Denne and Alderman Stanley Lowe Opened the Season.

The Raybestos defeated the Crescents last night four runs to one to win the opening fixture of the East Peterborough Baseball League. Good steady baseball was played by both teams, and the Crescents' failure to hit in the pinches lost the game to them, although they outhit their opponents and were given six free passes to first base.

The season opened with Mayor Denne in the pitcher's box, Alderman Stanley Lowe at the bat, and Bob Ross doing the receiving. Alderman Lowe made several attempts but failed to connect with Mayor Denne's drops.

Three times during the game the Crescents filled the bases, but each time Scotty Maudsley the southpaw of the Raybestos, and his able backers, stood in the way of them scoring any runs. After striking the first man out in the sixth, Kane secured a single and stole second, but was caught attempting to steal third. Maudsley walked the next three men, filling the bases, but when Williams faced him he popped a nice infield fly to Scully and the side was retired which was the only period of the game when Maudsley showed any signs of weakening.

Very few new faces appeared on either teams and the Crescents have strengthened up from last year by adding the veterans Lew LeBarr and Bob Ross to their line-up.

Maudsley kept the hits well scattered, in two of the innings he retired the side without allowing a hit, in three innings there was one hit in each, in one innings there was two hits and in the other three.

Frost, for the losers, pitched a steady game, and the winners secured their four runs in the third innings. In five frames he held them hitless and in the other only one run was secured He struck out three men, hit two, and walked none. Maudsley struck out two, hit none and walked six

Lew LeBarr, after being out of the game for several seasons, came back strong, getting two hits in the four times at bat. He got on once more and made ten put-outs.

The Game.

Hillier, the first man up for the "Rays", struck out; Barrie made first when Kane muffled the ball, but was caught making second on Scully's infield drive; Corrin lifted one to J. LeBarr. For the Crescents J. LeBarr rolled one to the pitcher, J. Jones singled into right field, but was caught making second when forced by Williams. Bob Ross singled into left, Frost made first when they failed to tag Williams at third. L. LeBarr singled to right, scoring Williams, and Mein lifted one to O. Nicholls.

In the second neither team had a man reach first, with Maudsley registering his first strike-out. In the third H. Nicholls, Maudsley and Hillier, the first three up for the Raybestos, singled, with Nicholls scoring on Hillier's hit; Barrie made first when they tried to get Maudsley at third. Scully hit out to F. Jones, Corrin singled, scoring Maudsley and Hillier; Rogers struck out; Moore singled, scoring Barrie, and O. Nicholls was caught at first. Williams was the only man to reach first in this innings for the Crescents. Frost struck out. Ross was caught at first, and J. Jones hit out to Moore.

In the fourth the Raybestos failed to get a man on, and the Crescents filled the bases. L. LeBarr singled, but was caught stealing second. Mein singled; Kane drove one out to Moore; F. Jones walked; J. LeBarr made first to fill the bases, but J. Jones rolled one to Scully for the third out.

In the fifth the Raybestos went out in a row and Frost secured the only hit for the Crescents. In the sixth Rogers made first when Williams muffled the ball; Moore singled; Nicholls brothers both made first but Rogers was caught at third; Maudsley popped one to Frost and Hillier struck out, retiring the side with the bases full. Mein, first up for the Crescents, struck out; Kane singled and stole second, but was caught stealing third; F. Jones, J. LeBarr and J. Jones walked, but Williams popped one to Scully to retire the side.

None of the "Rays" reached first in the seventh. Ross hit out to second for the Crescents, Frost walked but was caught when L. LeBarr forced him at second; Mein walked and Kane lifted one to Moore to end the game;

McGill Practising For Regatta Meets

MONTREAL, Que., May 22.—(Canadian Press)—With the worries of examinations now part of the dim past, members of the McGill Rowing Club settled down to hard and serious practice in preparation for the Eastern Regatta and the Canadian Henley.

Active training began early yesterday but the crews had their stiffest workout of the year over the week-end patching and repairing the verandah and front of their clubhouse which had been swept away Sunday by the high waves.

OFFICIATE AT OPENING

MAYOR ROLAND DENNE

ALD. STANLEY A. LOWE

who officiated at the opening tilt of the East Peterborough League schedule between the Raybestos and the Crescents.

VIEWS ON SPORT

The City Softball League will carry on. The executive would like one more entry to make the loop complete.

There should be no limit to softball interest here this year. Five teams have decided to enter the City League with a possibility of two more. As an eight team loop has been set by the executive for a full league, there is still room for one more club.

C.G.E., Teco Combine Stores, Percy Harrison's North-Enders, Lock Works, Knights of Columbus Westclox, and Coca-Cola and one other club would just about make the right kind of a loop.

The entrance fee has been reduced to $10, with no refund at the end of the season. The entry list time has also been extended till Wednesday, May 23rd, when the final meeting before the schedule opens will be held in the Belmont Club rooms at 5.30 p.m. sharp.

It is thought likely that the Teco Combined Stores will build up their team around two men who played senior softball in Toronto last year.

Confederation Square and Riverside Park will be used as playing grounds for league games and practise alike; the loop to operate under the O.A.S.A. rules.

The East Peterborough League got under way to a good start last night, when the Raybestos defeated the Crescents 4—1 in the opening fixture. Failure to hit in the pinches accounted for the Crescents' loss, althoug they outhit the Rays throughout most of the game.

Mayor Rolan Denne and Alderman Stanley Lowe were the civic representatives at the game; Stan. Lowe as a batter taking the count through not being able to connect with Mayor Denne's drop ball.

Last year's regular players were seen on both line ups, while the Crescents were strengthened by the addition of two veterans, Lew LeBarr Jr., and Bob Ross. "Bun' Frost, also on the Crescent team, pitched a steady game, while "Scotty" Maudsley for the Brakeliners, kept the hits well scattered.

RED WINGS EVEN SERIES

Batter Doyle and Martin to Defeat Toronto 18-2 in Final Tilt.

SKEETERS WIN 4-3

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 22.—(Canadian Press).—Rochester evened its series with Toronto by winning the fourth and final game here yesterday, 18 to 2, making 23 hits off the delivery of Jess Doyle and Martin. Gelbert hit his ninth homer of the season, with Joe Brown on first base, in the sixth. The victory gave Rochester an even break on a 20-game home stand, which opened here May 2. The Red Wings will leave to-night for Montreal for a series with the Royals.

Gain Edge in Series.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 22. —(Canadian Press).—Jersey City gained an edge in its three-game series with Reading by defeating the Keys in the final game here yesterday by a score of 4 to 3.

By staging a rally that produced three nicely timed hits following a base on balls in their half of the eighth inning, the Jerseys produced two runs, overcoming the Reading lead, and won out.

Buffalo Win From Montreal.

BUFFALO, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—The Bisons won a stirring 11-inning duel from the Montreal Royals yesterday, 4 to 3, in order to register a clean sweep on the three-game series. It was the first time this year the Bisons were able to cop three straight.

The Royals broke a two-all deadlock, which existed from the fifth inning, by scoring a run in the 11th on consecutive singles by Shannon, Holt and Gulley. The Bisons kicked back in their half to score two runs with one out Malone walked, Barnes sent him home with a long double, and went to third on Stryker's infield out. Archdeacon and Monohan were purposely passed, filling the bases, and Moore promptly won the game with a single to right. Beall of the Royals walked 12 men.

Wilson Leading In National Home Runs

ST. LOUIS, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—Hack Wilson, Chicago outfielder, took the lead in National League home runs when he hit for the circuit the seventh and eighth times this season in the first and third innings of yesterday's game with St. Louis. One man was on base each time. Alexander was pitching.

REDS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL

Defeat Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 in First, Losing the Second 6-3.

CARDS WIN 8-7

NEW YORK, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—The Reds broke even in a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates at Cincinnati yesterday, winning the first game 4 to 3, and dropping the second 6 to 3. The Pirates bunched three hits for two runs in the ninth of the second game to make their lead safe after another two-run rally in the sixth had put them ahead.

Homers Feature.

A battle of home runs at St. Louis was won by the Cardinals yesterday, 8 to 7 at the expense of the Chicago Cubs. Hack Wilson, by circling the bases in the first and third innings on four-ply swats, with a man ahead of him each time, went into the leadership as the league home run expert with eight for the season.

Sunny Jim Bottomley duplicated Wilson's feat by crashing out a pair of homers with a man on each time, while Harper and Roettger each clouted circuit wallops.

WILSON'S BACHELOR

YANKS LOSE FIRST GAME

New Yorkers Split Doubleheader 8-4 and 3-2 With Boston Red Sox.

HOME RUNS FEATURE

NEW YORK, May 22.—(Canadian Press).—The Yankees split even with the Boston Red Sox in a doubleheader yesterday, losing the first game by an 8 to 4 score, and winning the second 3 to 2. Home runs played a big part in both games, providing the margin of victory each time.

Malone and Alexander, starting hurlers, found the going too strenuous and were relieved.

Phil. Todt and Johnny Regan won the first game for Boston. Each got a homer with two men on base. Todt's came in the fifth inning off the delivery of Shealy, and Regan's came in the seventh, with Moore in the box. Bob Meusel did the same thing for the Yankees in the sixth inning of the second game when the Red Sox had a 2 to 0 lead. Combs and Tait also got homers.

In both games the losing team made the greater number of hits. The Yankees got 9 to Boston's 6 in the first, while the Red Sox reversed the decision 8 to 4 in the second.

Take Doubleheader.

The Athletics won a doubleheader from Washington at Philadelphia yesterday and gained a full game on the New York Yankees, but lost the services of Tris Speaker and Bing Miller, the outfield stars for an indefinite period. Jack Quinn delivered the winning blow in the 13th inning of the first game to win his fifth contest in succession by a score of 4 to 3.

In the second game Rube Walberg registered his sixth straight win by nosing out Irvin Hadley by a score of 2 to 1.

Tris Speaker and Bing Miller were shaken up and bruised in the sixth inning of the first game when they collided going after Reeves' drive to left centre. Speaker was knocked out for a few moments and was injured in the right arm, as well as suffering a gash in his left leg. Bing Miller came out of the mishap with a badly bruised thigh.

The Mackmen only made three hits off Hadley in the second game, but one was a homer by Jimmy Dykes in the first inning and Hauser's stealing of second and French's double gave them another tally in the fourth. Washington averted a shutout in the ninth when Goslin batted for Hadley, walked, moved to third on an infield out, and a single and registered on a sacrifice fly.

SOCCER CHAMPIONS IN TORONTO JUNE 9

Personenl of Scottish Champions' Touring Team—Won the Triple Crown.

Glasgow Rangers, who are on their way across the briny for a nine-game tour on this side are wearers of a triple crown this season, the Scottish Cup, Scottish League championship and the Glasgow Charity Cup, having found a resting place at Ibrox park. Not only did the famous "Light Blues" team beat their Irish rivals, the Celtic, in a memorable cup final, but they overcame the Parkhead team in the Charity Cup semi-final, and defeated Queen's Park in the final. All the players who starred in both events are travelling with the team. There were doubts at first as to whether the inimitable Alan Morton would make the trip, but Manager Struth cabled that he was a certain starter. The other players are Tom Hamilton, the goalie; Dougald Gray and Robert Hamilton, full backs; Tom Muirhead, Dave Meiklejohn and Tom Craig, half backs; Alexander Archibald, outside right; "Andy" Cunningham, inside right; James Fleming, centre forward; Robert McPhail in side left, and Alan Morton, outside left. The foregoing comprise Rangers' regular eleven, and accompanying them will be the following substitutes, who gave exceptional service when regulars were out of action through injuries: William McCandless full-back or half-back; John Buchanan, half-back or forward; James Marshall, forward; James Simpson, half-back or forward, and George McMillan, inside-forward.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

OLD RIVALS TO CLASH HERE IN FIRST FIXTURE

Some New Faces in Belleville Line-up for This Year's Race.

HERE SATURDAY

Fireworks When Walter Gerow Leads His Men Into Action.

Saturday's game with Belleville, the first home fixture in the Central Ontario League series, is creating much interest and the probabilities are that a big crowd will be on hand when the senior season gets under way. The Petes and Belleville did not clash at all last year but the old rivalry still exists and there will be plenty of pep in the proceedings when Walter Gerow trots his men out there on Saturday.

The Belleville team still includes the Mills brothers, Ross, Weir, and Hagerman, and has some new talent including Utrooke, a box artist from Renfrew, and Scott, an infielder from the same town.

The local management is arranging fitting ceremonies to mark the opening of the season and they hope to crown it all by presenting the fans with a win over their old adversaries. Both teams are in action on the holiday, Belleville entertaining the Kingston Ponies, while the Petes journey to Oshawa. A number of Peterborough fans will make a holiday jaunt to the Motor City for this engagement.

STOCKHOLM, May 22—(Canadian Press).—Czecho Slovakia won its match in Davis Cup tennis play on Sunday against Sweden, five games to nothing, qualifying to meet New Zealand in the third round play.

YOUTH SHOWS WELL IN ROUND

Ian Patey Defeats Veteran in British Amateur Golf Play.

MAKES BRILLIANT DISPLAY

PRESTWICK, Scotland, May 22.—Canadian Press Cable.—Although half of the field composed of 220 competitors played through the first round of the British amateur golf championship here yesterday, including golfers from many parts of the world no formidable contender for the title, now held by Dr. W. Tweddell, appeared on the horizon, with the exception perhaps of J. McHugh of San Francisco, who did not play in the first round as his opponent withdrew from the competition.

Altogether it was a day of youthful triumphs which was capped by the brilliant display of Ian Patey, who in 1926, represented England in the boys' international tournament. He is not yet 20 years of age but he showed the form of a veteran in defeating William Campbell of Cambuslang, a Scottish international player, 3 and 2.

Patey went out in 36 owing to his beautiful driving, which enabled him to be two up returning for home. Campbell, however, did not submit to defeat easily and playing tenaciously the Scottish international carried young Patey to the sixteenth before bowing to the inevitable.

Hugh Gow, one of the youngest members of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club also accounted for an international player by defeating Major Keith Thorburn. The present boy champion, Eric Fiddian, eliminated Grant White, former English Walker Cup international.

Hon. Michael Scott Ousted.

The young Irish international N. Manley, ousted Hon. Michael Scott. The latter was three down at the eleventh but won the next four holes to be one up. Manley even the match on the eighteenth and laid Scott a stymie, which he failed to negotiate.

The match between Stout, the English champion and Major Campbell of Tantallon, saw some of the best golf of the day played. Stout in winning the tenth hole which is 500 yards, secured an eagle three to lead 1 and 0. Major Campbell squared the match on the eleventh with a birdie two, then Stout practically won the match with another eagle three at the twelfth, which is 503 yards.

One of the most peculiar incidents of the first round occurred during the match between Rex Hartley of Sunningdale, and M. Young of Sandy Lodge which the former won by one hole when he was allowed to replace his ball after having played the wrong one. Both players apparently misunderstood the rules as Hartley should have lost the hole at which he played the wrong ball.

THEATRES

AT THE REGENT.

Fancy a screen player having fashionable clothes made to fit the various sets of pictures in which he appears! That however is what Harrison Ford, leading man opposite Marie Prevost, star of "The Girl in the Pullman" recently did during the filming of that picture at the De Mille studio.

Before Mr. Ford selected his wardrobe he sent his tailor to the studio with samples and compared these with the color schemes of the sets in which he appears. In this way he was enabled to select such patterns as were best suited for the individual sets and a rush order was given the tailor for a dozen suits of clothes. As a result, Ford is never de trop in a scene and in "The Girl in the Pullman" his attire is at once tasty and inconspicuous

Mr. Ford has the role of a physician in "The Girl in the Pullman," whose wife obtains a divorce from him. He becomes engaged to another woman and on the day he learns that his former wife is to visit the home of his fiancee. This starts the complications which follow thick and fast but which finally are adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned. In the development of the story there is much wholesome comedy, some of the situations being exceptionally amusing.

Besides Mr. Ford there are featured in "The Girl in the Pullman," Franklin Pangborn, Kathryn McGuire and Harry Myers. The comedy was directed by Erle C. Kenton. It is a screen version of Willson Collison's stage farce, "The Girl in Upper C." Now playing at the Regent.

AT THE CAPITOL.

"THE LITTLE SHEPHERD OF KINGDOM COME."

"Richard Barthelmess, the star who has made such a success of youthful, rather stern roles, and who was the hero of the much liked picture, "Tol'able David," is back again in a similar role as Chad, steller figure in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," filmed from the famous novel of the same title. The "Little Shepherd," however, is not made the central figure as in the book.

Chad is the serious-eyed lad of the Cumberlands, who plays with the mountain girl, Lizzie. He is a barefoot wanderer befriended by the kindly folk of a rough region. Enamored of racing horses, he goes to an auction, when on a visit to the city, and there buys a beautiful racer for the five dollar gift which has been presented to him. Getting the horse through the connivance of a pair of watchers whose attention is attracted to the bright, dark face of the lad, one of the pair an old Colonel, later adopts Chad, not knowing until years later that he is his own grandson. Chad is brought up by his wealthy foster father, and educated at college. He meets Margaret, the aristocratic daughter of the old Major, a friend of the Colonel, and the story points to a romance between the two.

Then, the Civil War intervenes and Chad is impelled to enlist on the side of the Union forces, thereby earning the wrath of his benefactor, a stalwart Confederate supporter. Going his way, Chad fights under Lincoln's banner. The picture ends rather abruptly with a scene in which Chad returns to his mountain home on a visit and meets Lizzie to once more renew the romance that was interrupted years before by his departure.

The art of the star and of an excellent supporting cast makes "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," fully equal, as a picture, to the book from which it takes its name and subject matter.

The Least Excitement Made Her Heart Palpitate and Flutter

Mrs. Ambrose Orser, Elginburg, Ont., writes:—"I suffered for some time with a bad heart which seemed to be controlled by my nerves. The least little excitement would cause it to flutter and palpitate, and at times I would have real bad spells. I suffered in this way for some time when, one day, I saw advertised, so decided to try them. I had only taken a few boxes when I noticed that I felt better, so I continued taking them and in a short time my heart felt entirely different."

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Price 50c. a box at all druggists and dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Soccer Notes

A very well attended meeting of the local soccer association took place last evening in the Chamber of Commerce Rooms. President Stewart occupied the chair, and had a full executive board, also all club representatives being present in the interests of their club.

* * *

No Mid-Week Game.

Owing to the holiday and a number of soccer players going on a vacation, the executive decided not to have a mid-week game this week. On May 30th the C.G.E. will play the Thistle in a league fixture as an evening match.

* * *

Saturday's Game.

According to the draw for the Phelan Charity Cup, the C.G.E. entertain the Thistle on Saturday afternoon at King Edward Park. Referee appointed was Alex. McKinley. Kick-off must take place at 3 o'clock prompt. On the following Saturday, the DeLaval vs. Quakers is scheduled in charity cup tie.

* * *

Another for the Book.

For the benefit of fans and players amendment to Rule 11, accepted by the International Board last season, and law in Canada this year, should be brought to mind. It reads: "A goal may be scored direct from a corner kick, and if a free kick is awarded because of any infringement of law 9, a goal may be scored direct from such free kick against the offending side but not from any other free kick."

By way of illustration, should the player of the side taking the kick, pass back, and the ball go into the goal, it would only be a corner. Under the old rule a goal would have counted.

Players Released.

H. Ferguson was given his release from C.G.E.; H. Waddell was permitted to be scored off Thistle quota and R. Carmichael was given his release from the Quaker Oats through ill-health.

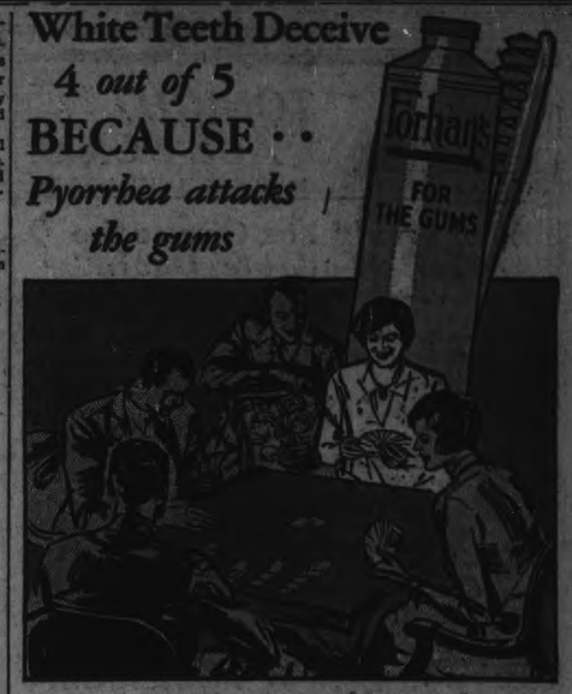
White Teeth Deceive 4 out of 5 BECAUSE . . Pyorrhea attacks the gums



SO many people think they are secure when teeth are gleaming white. But too often they are fooled.

Lurking behind clean teeth is the marauder that takes high toll in health from 4 persons out of 5 after forty, and thousands younger—dread Pyorrhea. It ignores the teeth and attacks the gums.

Take this precaution: See your dentist every six months. And start using the dentifrice that cleans teeth without the use of harsh abrasives and at the same time helps keep the gums firm and healthy—the best safeguard against Pyorrhea.

Morning and night, every day, use Forhan's for the Gums. Massage your gums daily with this dentifrice, following directions in booklet that comes with tube. Then you provide the protection teeth and gums must have. At all druggists—in tubes, 35c and 60c.

PRESENTATION MADE TO W.I. MEMBERS

Misses Govan Leaving Seymour West to Live in Campbellford.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22— As a remembrance of long and friendly association, the members of the Seymour West Women's Institute called a special meeting recently for the purpose of bidding farewell to the Misses Govan and to present them with a brass jardiniere. The meeting was held at the home of Miss Jessie Anderson, on the eighth concession and the members enjoyed an afternoon of social activity. There was no business done at the meeting.

The Misses Govan are moving to Campbellford, where they will reside, and are leaving behind them a wide circle of friends. The presentation address was read by Mrs. Robert McCulloch and the presentation was made by Mrs. E. Fairman. Miss Lily Govan responded briefly but fittingly. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in social intercourse with contests and music. The contest was prepared by Miss Mary McArthur and Mrs. Reginald McCulloch, and won by Mrs. Chas. McArthur's group. Music was furnished by three members of the Institute and lunch was served by four girls of the community. On the whole the afternoon was most enjoyable.

During the month of June there will be no regular meeting of the Institute but the district annual meeting will be held in the Parish Hall, Rear street, Campbellford, on June 13. There will be three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

To-day's Bedtime Story

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE FENCE HOLES.

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

For a long time the Woozie Wolf looked at the sentence with letters missing from many words. The Lady Mouse Teacher from the Hollow Stump School had written the puzzle with white chalk on a black rock.

"You can't nibble Uncle Wiggily until you put in all the missing letters and recite the verse," the Mouse had squeaked.

"Then I give up! I can't do it! I'll nibble Uncle Wiggily some other time!" snarled the Wolf, and back to his den he went.

"Thank you, Miss Mouse," spoke the bunny gentleman. "You saved my life with that puzzle."

"It was you who taught me how to make puzzles," said Miss Mouse. "But this was so easy even a baby wolf could have read it."

"Then I'll grab him!" thought the Bad Chap.

"Of course!" chuckled Uncle Wiggily. "I can read it myself. When the missing letters were put in the verse said: 'Once a little boy had a great big dog. He used to sit upon the fence and croak just like a frog.' How was that?"

"Very good," answered the Lady Mouse. "That's the answer."

"But did you mean," went on Uncle Wiggily, "that the boy croaked like a frog or the dog did?"

"Oh! why do you ask me so many questions?" laughed Miss Mouse. And then she crept away to her home under a toadstool, after again thanking Uncle Wiggily for having helped get her tail out of a crack in the rock.

"Well, that was a pretty good adventure," said Mr. Longears when he had rubbed the chalk marks off the rock that was like a school blackboard. "But I must hop along and have another."

Up hill and down dale, over the fields and through the woods hopped the rabbit gentleman, and he was twinkling his pink nose and thinking how soon it would be summer when, all of a sudden on a distant hill, he saw the Bob Cat.

"Oh, ho!" said Uncle Wiggily to himself. "There is one of the Bad Chaps, and I think he's after me."

Surely enough the Bob Cat had seen the rabbit, so he began creeping down the hill after the bunny uncle. And after the Bob Cat came his silly little tail, no bigger than your thumb. For wherever the Bob Cat went his tail went also.

"I think I'm going to catch that rabbit this time," purred the Bob Cat to himself. "The Fox and Wolf couldn't fool him, but I think if I hide behind one of those fences down at the bottom of the hill, and make a noise like an ice cream soda, Uncle Wiggily will stop and look to see what it is, and then I'll catch him."

So the Bob Cat went slinking his way down to the bottom of the hill where there were some fences with holes in them.

"When I make a sound like an ice cream soda it will sift through the holes," thought the Bad Chap. "Uncle Wiggily will hear it and come around the corner to see what it's all about. Then I'll grab him!"

Uncle Wiggily and the Bob Cat reached the fences at the bottom of the hill about the same time. The Bob Cat was just getting ready to hide and make a noise like an ice cream soda but, all of a sudden, through one of the fence holes, Mr. Longears caught sight of the silly little tail, no bigger than your thumb.

"Oh, Mr. Bob Cat! I see you!" cried the rabbit. "Come out! You can't play any tricks on me!"

But the Bob Cat was so angry that out from behind the fence he rushed, growling: "I'll have your ears, anyhow!"

Before the Bad Chap could nibble any ears, all at once through five holes in the fences five different tails were thrust and a voice said:

"Here we are, Uncle Wiggily! Five friends of yours. We have stuck our tales through holes in the fences and the Bob Cat must guess who we are just by looking at our tails and not looking over the tops of the fences."

"Oh, what a fine puzzle!" cried Mr. Longears. "Go on, Bob Cat!" he said. "Look at the tails through the holes and guess whose they are before you try to nibble my ears!"

Now see if you can be smarter than the Bob Cat and guess whose tails they are.

PICKEREL SEASON SHORTENED FOR KAWARTHA LAKE REGION. OPENS JULY 1; CLOSES SEPT. 30

Bass and 'Lunge Season Cut For Whole Province, Closing Sept. 30.

NOW IN EFFECT.

Dip Nets For Catching Bait Allowed—Sale of Pickerel Prohibited.

Fishing through the ice for pickerel, about which so many complaints were made in this district last winter, is made illegal by an order-in-council passed by the Dominion Government on May 7 ,a copy of which The Examiner received from E. A. Peck, M.P., this morning. The season for catching pickerel in Peterborough, Victoria and Durham counties and the inland waters of Northumberland, now opens July 1, the same day as the bass and lunge season, and, in common with the season for those game fish, ends Sept. 30.

The order-in-council makes nine amendments to the fishery regulations for Ontario, and is passed at the request of the Provincial Department of Game and Fisheries. Besides cutting off two months at the end of the fishing season, it cuts the bass limit from eight to six a day, the lunge limit from four to two, and the pickerel catch is now eight a day instead of twelve. The sale of pickerel or salmon trout by any person who has no license to sell them is prohibited, and fishing through the ice or from a boat, raft, etc., during the closed season is also made illegal for the four counties.

The order reads:

"Whereas the Minister of Marine and Fisheries reports that the Department of Game and Fisheries for Ontario, which administers the fisheries in that Province, asks that certain changes be made in the special fishery regulations for the Province of Ontario which are adopted by order-in-council of the 11th May, 1927, sai dchanges having been recommended by the Fish and Game committee of the Legislature and by the various Fish and Game Protective Associations of the Province;

"Therefore the Deputy of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries and under the provisions of Section 46 of the Fisheries Act, Chapter 73 of the Revised Statutes, 1927, is pleased to amend the said regulations as follows:

"1.—Section 3 of the said regulations is hereby amended by adding

MILITARY NURSE IS VISITING CITY

Sister Una H. Barton Has Had Interesting Career in Imperial Service.

HAS MANY MEDALS.

Sister Una H. Barton, R.R.C. (Royal Red Cross), Q.A.I.M.N.S. (Queen Alexandra Imperial Military Nursing Service), is an interesting and picturesque visitor to the city just now. She is paying a week's visit to the home of her brother, Charles Barton, Edinburgh street, whom she had not seen for twenty-one years.

Sister Barton wears the uniform of her order, the Military Nursing Service of England that takes its orders from the War Office in London, and is detailed for military service in the British Isles and on the Continent. With a long experi-

Flag on Armour Hill Marks Empire Day

As a sign of Empire Day there is found flying on the highest peak on Armour Hill the Union Jack. For several years Edward Courtney of East City, has always had the flag flying on the hill on Empire Day This year the flag was placed on the pole by Claud Rogers for Mr. Courtney.

EMPIRE DAY IS OBSERVED BY SCHOLARS

Children of City Schools Sing Patriotic Songs and Hear Speakers.

PATRIOTISM STRESSED.

Speakers at Various Schools Remind Pupils of Greatness of Empire.

Peerborough city schools observed Empire Day in patriotic manner this afternoon when the regulations of the department were carried out and enlarged upon. Special speakers addressed the children, while the various classes in the schools were responsible for numerous drills, choruses, and recitations.

Queen Alexandra School

At Queen Alexandra School, there was a pleasing program in the primary room, where the children of that department gathered in company with the tiny tots from the kindergarten, while in the kindergarten department the older pupils assembled. The special speakers were Dr. J. J. Craig and the Rev. Mr. Wren, both of whom spoke, emphasizing the greatness of the British Empire and all that Empire Day stands for.

Drills, choruses and an acrostic representing Canada were very cleverly carried out by the pupils led by their teachers.

Prince of Wales School

Colonel J. W. Miller and the Rev. William Allan of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church were the special speakers at Prince of Wales School where, during the afternoon, Empire Day was observed. Following the singing of the National Anthem and "Rule Britannia' choruses were sung by the primary class, the second book class and by the entire school, while Howard Botnick of the primer class recited the 90th Psalm.

The words of the two speakers proved most instructive as well as interesting to pupils and teachers alike, both inspiring loyalty to and pride in the Dominion and the Empire.

Central School

Following out departmental regulations the classes of Central School, Murray street, assembled this afternoon. The program carried out was of high patriotic calibre. Special songs, two and three-part choruses and recitations were given, while A. J. Madill of the Peterborough Normal School and Principal K. S. Whiteman addressed junior and senior pupils.

Drills showing the building of the flag and another depicting Confederation were special features worthy of mention.

QUEEN MARY SCHOOL.

The pupils of Queen Mary School enjoyed and took part in a splendid Empire Day program during the

A Hymn of Empire

Lord, by Whose might the Heavens stand,
The Source from Whom they came,
Who holdest nations in Thy hand,
And call'st the stars by name,
Thine ageless forces do not cease
To mould us as of yore—
The chiselling of the arts of peace,
The anvil-strokes of war.

Then bind our realm in brotherhood,
Firm laws and equal rights,
Let each uphold the Empire's good
In freedom that unites;
And make that speech whose thunders roll
Down the broad stream of time,
The harbinger from pole to pole
Of love and peace sublime.

Lord, turn the hearts of cowards who prate,
Afraid to dare to spend,
The doctrine of a narrower state
More easy to defend;
Not this the watchword of our sires,
Who breathed with ocean's breath,
Not this our spirit's ancient fires,
Which naught could quench but death.

Strong are we? Make us stronger yet;
Great? Make us greater far;
Our feet antarctic oceans fret,
Our crown the polar star;
Round Earth's wild coasts our batteries speak,
Our highway is the main,
We stand as guardian of the weak,
We burst the oppressor's chain.

Great God, uphold us in our task,
Keep pure and clean our rule,
Silence the honeyed words which mask
The wisdom of the fool;
The pillars of the world are Thine,
Pour down Thy bounteous grace,
And make illustrious and divine
The sceptre of our race.

Over-Rules Vetoes Of President Coolidge

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 23. (Canadian Press.)— The House in rapid order yesterday twice over-rode vetos of President Coolidge. Despite the President's expressed disapproval, a bill to provide increased pay for postal employees assigned to night work and approved by a vote of 319 to 42. Then, just as quickly as the roll could be called, the House voted 319 to 45, to pass the bill to grant allowances to fourth class postmasters for rent, light and fuel.

The Senate still must act on both measures.

TWO EXPLOSIONS AND CAVE-IN IN UNITED STATES MINES ADD 29 MEN TO MATHER MINE TOLL

Thirteen Known Dead and Four Missing From West Virginia Pit.

SEVEN DEAD IN KENTUCKY.

One Other Missing — Copper Mine Slide Kills Four Workmen.

Indications were to-day that 238 workers had lost their lives in four mine accidents since Saturday as follows:

Mather, Penn., coal mine explosion, 164 known dead, 39 missing.

Yukon, W.V., coal mine explosion, 13 known dead, 4 missing.

Harlan, Ky., coal mine explosion, 7 dead, 1 missing.

Kimberley, Nev., copper mine cave in, 4 dead.

All Hope Abandoned

MATHER, Penn., May 23 (Canadian Press).—With all hope abandoned, Mather to-day grimly turned its attention to preparations for the burial of its dead, while State mine officials and rescue squads continued their search for the thirty-three blast victims still unaccounted for.

Bodies of 164 victims of the Mather Mine disaster had been recovered from the explosion swept workings up to to-day as rescue men continued their search for the thirty-three missing men. One hundred and fifty-two of the bodies were identified, five were unidentified, and seven were held at the bottom of the main shaft to be brought to the surface later in the day.

Serious Explosion

HARLAN, Ky., May 23 (Canadian Press).—An explosion in the Black Mountain Coal Mine near here yesterday took at least seven lives and possibly eight. Seven bodies had been recovered to-day and one man was known to be missing and was believed to be in the mine.

The explosion, occurring just as the shifts were being changed early in the night, caught eighteen of the seventy-five men who were then in the mine. The remainder made their way to safety. The two bodies their way to safety.

Seventeen Men Killed

BLUEFIELD, W.Va., May 23 (Canadian Press).—Thirteen miners were known to have been killed and four were missing to-day following a blast in Number 1 Mine of the Yukon Pocahontas Coal Company at Yukon, McDowell County, last night.

The bodies of thirteen workers had been brought to the surface by rescue workers. The exact number of men in the mine at the time of the explosion was unknown, but company officers said they did not think there were more than seventeen.

The cause of the blast was undetermined, but its source was thought to have been gas.

Cave-In Kills Four

ELKO, Nevada, May 23 (Canadian Press).—Four miners were killed in the old Alpha shaft of the Consolidated Copper Mines at Kimberly, near here, yesterday, by a cave-in of material which had been blocking the shaft for years. The men were engaged in clearing the shaft at the time of the accident.

Flags Welcome Visitors To City

The merchants and all citizens possessing flags are asked to fly them to-morrow as a welcome to the guests from all parts of Ontario who are attending the Knights of Columbus twenty-fifth anniversary. Peterborough at this time of year looks its best and the added flags will give the visitors a real welcome.

Haileybury Pumping Station Again Put Out Of Operation By High Water

COBALT, Ont., May 23 (Canadian Press). — A strong wind blowing in from Lake Temiskaming yesterday was responsible for putting the Haileybury pumping station again out of commission and of interrupting the street car service to New Liskeard. The high water in the lake was forced farther up the shore north of Haileybury, bringing with it logs and stumps and washing out a considerable part of the railway tracks. At the same time the water broke over the protecting wall at the pumping station, which had been placed in operation after being temporarily flooded out, and the pumps are not working, the town being once more dependent on springs.

Insulin, Established Cure For Diabetes, Is Still Mystery To Medical Science

WINNIPEG, Man., May 23 (Canadian Press). — Insulin, the established cure for diabetes, is still a mystery to medical science, Dr. J. R. MacLeod, Professor of Physiology at the University of Toronto, the co-worker with Dr. F. G. Banting, revealed on his arrival here yesterday for the meeting of the Royal Society of Canada.

"The year's work which followed Dr. Banting's world-stirring discovery of insulin, led science on far paths, but has not disclosed how insulin works on the human system," Dr. MacLeod said. "So far we know it can be used to fatten underweight children, and that it affords the means of investigating the whole problem of nutrition."

Asked if insulin had been found efficient in the treatment of any other disease than diabetes, Dr. MacLeod observed with a smile that "diabetes" covered a multitude of ills.

"We had thought that the discovery of insulin would simplify many problems," he said, "whereas we are finding that it has opened up a door of medical exploration which leads to many dark and yet unproved passages.

"There is no doubt that insulin has excelled our brightest hopes as a cure for diabetes, but it is baffling us in many ways, and has given us a thousand new problems to solve," Dr. MacLeod asserted.

Currency Bill Is Given Third Reading

LONDON, May 23.— (A.P.)— The currency and bank notes bill was advanced to third reading in the House of Commons last night by a vote of 219 to 101. It was afterwards given third reading. The bill sanctions the amalgamation of bank notes and currency notes and also a fiduciary issue of £260-,000,000.

The contracting of the fiduciary issue is left to the discretion of the Bank of England alone, but any expansion will be subject to the consent of the Treasury, renewable at intervals of six months. If continued more than two years, this expansion would require the approval of Parliament.

Opposition to the bill centred mainly on complaints against giving such extensive power to the Bank of England.

Lindy Appointed Chairman Of Board

LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 23. (Canadian Press.) — Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has been appointed chairman of the Technical committee of the Trans-Continental Air Transport, Inc., said a statement issued by C. M. Keyes, president of the corporation, and released here through Blair and Company yesterday.

Lindbergh, whose affiliation with the Aeronautical corporation takes place immediately, takes over practically all the running operations of the concern, the report said. He will virtually head a committee which will be spread from coast to coast and will be in supreme command of the air lines reaching from Los Angeles to New York.

Believed Certain Parties on Both Sides Negotiating for Peace.

LONDON, May 23 (A.P.).—A long stretch of territory still separates the Nationalist forces under Chiang Kai-Shek, from their ultimate goal, which is Peking.

Late despatches from the national capital indicate that Marshal Chang Tso-Lin is prepared to carry out his announced determination of defending Peking and frustrating the advance of the Nationalists.

In confirmation of this comes the report that Marshal Chang's chief of staff, Yang Yu-Ting, has concentrated his troops along the railway below Paotingfu to give battle to the approaching enemy.

The Northerners are said to be in the neighborhood of Wangtu, 30 miles below Paotingfu and about 110 miles from Peking. Previous reports last week indicated that the Nationalists had reached Paotingfu, and the northern commanders later declared that their foe had been driven back after an engagement.

The situation in that particular section of Chihli Province has not been made clear in any of the brief messages reaching London yesterday.

A Tientsin despatch says that Chang Tsung-Chang, who commanded the northern armies in Shantung when they were defeated by the Southerners, has been restored to favor and will make a stand against the Southerners on the Tientsin-Pukow front.

Missionaries have refused to abandon their duties in the war zone in Chihli, around the Paotingfu section, and are doing all in their power to give aid to the Chinese civilians and thousands of refugees seeking shelter in the face of the Nationalist threat.

Negotiations for Peace

There appears to be a disposition among certain groups both of the North and South to reach an agreement by negotiations and end the civil war, as well as intervention by Japan, which is looked upon with disfavor by both sides. On the other hand the Japanese have turned over to the Nationalist authorities at Tsinan all prisoners and munitions taken during the recent troubles there.

From Shanghai comes word that the Canton government has forbidden anti-Japanese demonstrations and has promised protection to all the Japanese and other foreign residents.

INMATE KILLED BY COMPANION

Whitby Asylum Crime Solved By Superintendent—Assailant Enraged.

INQUEST OPENS.

OSHAWA, May 23. Canadian Press—An inquest into the death of Walter Toom, inmate of the Ontario Hospital at Whitby, who was found murdered beside his bed, with his head crushed in yesterday afternoon, opened this morning in the hospital buildings before Coroner Dr. McGillivray of Whitby. Crown Attorney J. A. McGibbon is conducting the examination of witnesses.

After investigation by Dr. G. H. Stevenson, the Superintendent the mystery surrounding the man's death is believed to have been solved. It was learned that another inmate, apparently enraged over some remarks, had attacked the victim with a long handled floor polisher which was found covered with blood and hair beside the body.

Lakefield Resident Meets With Accident

LAKEFIELD, May 23. — Mr. Westhall Adamson met with a painful accident on Monday, when three fingers were taken off his right hand in the packing room of the Canada Cement Companys Lakefield plant. Medical aid was summoned and the wound dressed and the patient is doing as well as possible. Mr. Adamson, who is only in his teens, was a member of the Cement Companys hockey team last winter and his large circle of friends regret his accident.

MASONS MEET AT MARMORA

Bro. O. L. Morrow Pays Official Visit to A. F. & A. M., No. 222.

BANQUET HELD

MARMORA, May 23 — On Monday evening Rt. Wor. Bro. O. L. Morrow, D.D.G.M., of Prince Edward District, paid his official visit to Marmora Lodge A. F. and A. M. No. 222.

Following the regular meeting at the lodge room, the brethren augmented by many visiting brethren, were joined by the ladies in the fourth degree at the town hall.

The menu for the excellent banquet was provided by the Ladies' Aid of the United church, and the Delmara orchestra was in attendance. The toast of the King and Craft having been given, Wor. Bro. H. F. Berry, W.M. called upon Wor. Bro. A. Y. Yates to propose the Grand Lodge of Canada, which was given in most suitable style.

The response of Rt. Wor. Bro. Morrow, took the form of a most inspiring speech, in which he selected the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man, observance of the moral law, obedience to the golden rule and the hope of the life everlasting as landmarks of Masonry. The toast to the ladies was ably proposed by Rt. Wor. Bro. T. E. Laycock, Mrs. C. A. Bleecker responded, receiving great applause. Bro. M. J. Tamplin, senior warden, neatly proposed "Visiting Brethren," response being forthcoming from Wor. Bro. Professor S. R. Laycock, of Saskatoon, Bro. H. Heath of Stirling Lodge, and Bro. J. A. Murray of Campbellford.

Bro. W. McInroy at the conclusion gave the Junior Warden's toasts.

Six charming vocal solos by Bro. J. Bankier of Belleville, between the toasts, were listened to with much appreciation

Personals.

CHARLES O'HARA, 95 YEARS OLD, IS MADOC'S OLDEST RESIDENT

Native of Madoc Township, He Recalls Early Days of Settlement.

ONTARIO'S OLDEST MASON

Joined Madoc Lodge 56 Years Ago and Helped Build Masonic Hall.

"Yes, he just went around the corner there. You will probably overtake him if you hurry. He walks down around this way almost daily and we're mightily pleased to have him drop in." My informant, one of Madoc's most progressive business men, was speaking of Charles Wesley O'Hara, patriarchal figure in the Village of Talc, with its wealth of mining history. His words seemed possessed of the same spirit of pride and good will that all citizens accorded the old gentleman who has lived in or near Madoc practically his entire life time of nearly ninety-six years.

Sure enough, The Examiner reporter located the old gentleman resting in a store "just around the corner"—alert despite his years and a not overly noticeable deafness. A short motor ride, during which he commented on the spring-like weather as well as topics of the day, and his place of residence was reached. Hospitably he invited his interviewer to his room and there a most interesting half hour was spent.

Parents Lived in Madoc.

"One hundred and two years ago" said he during the conversation which ensued, "my parents, James O'Hara and Mary Healey, came here from Watertown, N.Y., and settled just north-east of where the village now stands. I remember that the first religious services were held once a month in our log house. My brother James (he is dead now) was the first white baby born in this township and I attended the first school in an old log building not far from our place. It was down near the railway crossing though the road is not used now.

"The Village of Madoc? No, there wasn't much of a village in those days. It was nearly all woods but there was a little hotel. I never think of it but I recall one cold morning when we went to school there. Our school was not fit to do work in, it was so cold, so our teacher, whose home was at the hotel, marched us all down to it, up the stairs and into a large sitting room, directly above the bar room. We were not there long until some of us discovered a stove pipe hole through which we could see a lot of Indians lounging about below. It was funny to watch them when we dropped things down on them from above. That was a real morning for going to school."

The old man's memory is good and he relates for his callers many incidents of by-gone days. When only fourteen years of age he carried the mail between Madoc and Stirling, riding horse-back in the summer and using sleighs in the winter. The days when Madoc was at its height as a mining town remain fresh in his memory and he is content to spend the twilight of life within its borders.

The Oldest Mason.

Charles O'Hara, distinguished for his extraordinary longevity, has another record of which he is proud. He is the oldest member of the Masonic lodge in the Province and probably in the dominion and even now the Madoc lodge takes a proud interest in him. It was back in 1872 that he joined the local lodge at its inception and since that time he has been associated with it and the splendid work which it has done. He helped build the Madoc Masonic hall which is now standing and passed through the many offices of the lodge. He still treasures several jewels, including silver square and compass given him during the years of his activities. In addition to assisting with the building of the Masonic hall, Mr. O'Hara helped to build two Methodist edifices, the first, a Wesleyan, now used as the United church sanctuary at Hart's corners, Queensboro pastoral charge, and the present beautiful red brick United church at Madoc, his contribution to these including manual labor as well as money. For years, while farming on the homestead about a mile and a quarter from the village, he attended the Methodist and later the United church until deafness interfered. In politics, Charles O'Hara is a staunch Reformer.

Next November 2, Mr. O'Hara will observe his 96th birthday. He now resides with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones and is never sick a day. He likes gardening and it is said of him that in the winter time he wields a snow shovel as well as many men years his junior. He has taken several long trips during his lifetime, having spent three winters with a nephew in the Southern states and with his brothers out in the state of Nebraska. One brother, John, was a successful doctor in Nebraska.

Charles O'Hara has other peculiarities (if such they may be called). For instance, he has never smoked or used tobacco and as for shaving—a razor has never touched his face for even as a young man he contented himself and indeed derived a satisfaction from neatly trimming his beard with scissors. Another thing—he has never married. Sum up his life, habits and age and draw conclusions as you will regarding the cause of his longevity.

Three great nieces are proud of this aged relative. They are Miss Minnie O'Hara, Mrs. Archie Kincaid and Mrs. Dr. Alexander, all of Madoc.

MEN GATHER AT SERVICE

Lindsay Men Motor to Omemee for Church Service on Sunday.

MALE CHOIR

OMEMEE, May 23. — Trinity United Church was packed to overflowing on Sunday afternoon, when according to a previous announcement, the men's organization of the First United Church, Lindsay, motored to Omemee, and conducted a public service. The gallery was filled and numerous chairs were placed in the aisles.

R. E. Stinson was the leader and after the singing of a familiar hymn the men's choir composed of twenty-three voices, sang very effectively, "When the Roll is called up Yonder." Following the scriptural reading by W. W. Staples, the choir rendered a splendid program, consisting of a violin solo, by Mr. Claxton, a chorus of several voices in "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," a quartette by Messrs. H. McMullen, A. Allin A. T. Claxton and A. J. McBride, "Lead Kindly Light." A hearty welcome was extended to the organization by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Rowland, and after the singing of "Tell Me the Old, Old Story."

W. W. Staples adressed the gathering from the words found in Philippians 3:13: "Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

"Shall we gather at the river" was the next number used by the choir, followed by a quartette, "Steal away to Jesus," and the impressive service was brought to a close by the singing of "Will your anchor hold?" and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Francis Johnston. Many visitors from Lindsay accompanied the men, also numerous visitors from Reaboro, Dunsford, Mount Pleasant and Bethel, were present.

TENNIS CLUB HOLDS DANCE

Big Attendance at Social Evening Held in Madoc Armouries.

DISTRICT NEWS

MADOC, May 22.—On Friday evening, the Madoc Tennis Club held a dance in the Armouries. The dance commenced about nine o'clock, with the Bon Ton Orchestra of Belleville, playing for the dancing. Many Belleville people journeyed to Madoc to attend, and several parties were present from adjacent villages. The floor space of the Armouries was filled to capacity with those who enjoyed the dance, which was kept up until after two o'clock in the morning.

WILL PREACH AT WARSAW

Pastor of Davenport Baptist Church, Toronto, Will Give Anniversary Sermon.

BURN MORTGAGE

WARSAW, May 23.—The Rev. J. Boyd, pastor of Davenport Baptist Church, Toronto, will preach the anniversary sermon in Warsaw Baptist Church on Sunday morning, May 27. He will also conduct the service in the afternoon and evening at Indian River, and on Monday evening the mortgage on the church at Indian River will be burned.

The Rev. H. B. Herrington will have four services next Sunday. In the morning he will speak at Bethel; in the afternoon, at 1.30, at Zion; at 3.30 at Carmel, and at 7.30 at Warsaw. The service at Carmel will be a special one. Mr. Grubb, who has a cottage at the lake, will present Carmel Church with two brass collection plates, in memory of his father and mother.

Rains Commence Growth

The rains of last week-end started a wonderful growth. Before then growth had been slow, but now the buds have bursted and the country is beautiful. Meadows and fields of Fall grain have rushed up and perhaps the warmth and rain may yet bring good crops. Those who were able to get their Spring seeding done have a great start. However, the soil for sowing now is warm and moist and will be better worked. Some have so much yet to do that they will sow buckwheat. One year a farmer near Warsaw had a good crop of barley from seed which had been sown on June 15.

There is not likely to be the usual acreage of corn, as several men find that it takes too much time to fill the silos. Gordon Payne plans to sow twelve acres of corn.

CANADA INVITED TO JOIN POWERS

Note Presented Asking Her To Enter Outlawing of War Scheme.

ATTITUDE FAVORABLE.

OTTAWA, May 23 (Canadian Press). — Canada was invited officially to become a party to the proposals of the United States Secretary of State Kellogg for outlawing war to-day. This afternoon the Hon. William Phillips, United States Minister at Ottawa waited upon Premier Mackenzie King and presented him with a copy of the message from Washington inviting Canada to join with the other Powers.

Premier King told newspapermen that it had been arranged between the two countries that the text of the formal notes would not be made public until Friday. Mr. King expressed the view that Canada's attitude toward the proposals would be entirely favorable.

MACDONALD IN FAVOR.

LONDON, May 22 (Canadian Press). — When the great Powers sign the treaty suggested by the proposals of United States Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg, the armies and navies of the world will shrivel up, Ramsay MacDonald, former Labor Premier, declared before the American Chamber of Commerce today.

"Sign the multi-lateral pact outlawing war," said MacDonald, "and these false securities we have vainly trusted, these defensive arms which have never protected us will disappear, because they are useless."

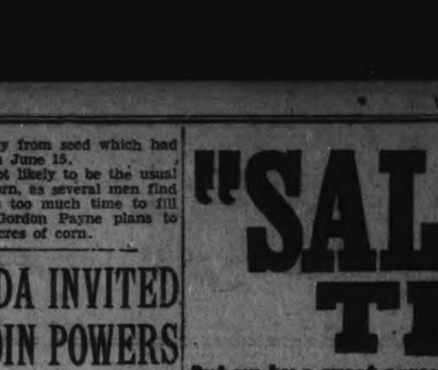
How? How clear, healthy skins came back to thousands



"I am a news photographer. You can imagine how a bad case of boils and a general run-down condition would fit in with my calling. Fleischmann's Yeast has been a wonderful thing for me during the past year. I have taken it three times a day for the past five months and as a result my complexion has cleared up and I have not been troubled with boils since. I want to pass on the good suggestion to all who may be afflicted with them."
H. C. Irvine, Montreal, P. Q.

A very interesting booklet on "Regaining Health" will be sent you gladly. Write to The Fleischmann Co., Dept. 223B, 1449 St. Alexander Street, Montreal, Que.

Everyone now-a-days knows where skin disfigurements come from. The knowledge is part of the equipment for modern life—for getting from life all the best it can yield.

Nature knows the cause—faulty elimination, intestinal uncleanliness. Nature seeks constantly to get rid of the cause. Cathartics can't do it. Other foods do not enable nature to win completely.

But this food — Fleischmann's Yeast—can. It is doing it.

You see the proof all around you. In thousands of clear, bright, happy faces; if you could have seen those faces a few months ago!

• • •

Do you know about this new Health Custom that has spread so rapidly everywhere in our modern life, among men and women of high standard? It is helping to correct the source of most of our ills—Constipation with its ever-attendant troubles . . . indigestion, skin disorders and run-down condition.

Thousands of Canadians have adopted this Health Custom of eating Fleischmann's Yeast — the living vegetable—three times daily throughout the year—before or between meals.

Tell your grocer to add your name to his list for regular delivery; three cakes for each member of your family.

PRESENT PLAY AT TRENT RIVER

"Mother Mine" Given Under Auspices of L. A. of United Church.

TAKE PARTS WELL

TRENT RIVER, May 23. — The three-act play entitled "Mother Mine" was presented in the United Church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, on Friday evening to a packed edifice. Despite the threatening showers, crowds came from Havelock and surrounding country. The first act, an evening late in August; second act, three weeks later; and third act two days later than the second act.

Cast of Characters.

Mirandy Peasley, Mother Mine—Leta Chaplain

Cynthia Whitcomb, deacon's wife—Ada Doupe.

Martha Tisdale, a neighbor—Fleda Thompson.

Lettie Holcomb, with a nose for news—Laura Wight.

Mary Tisdale, Martha's daughter—Elgan Ruttan.

John Whitcomb, the deacon—G. Buchanan.

Jack Payson, the merchant's son—R. Redden.

Jerry McConnell, the newcomer—Bruce Spencer.

Joe Payson, the merchant—M. McMillan.

Officer Lewis, from Montreal—W. Longmuir.

Sam Blunt, the constable—H. Thompson.

Each character took his part exceedingly well, special mention is to be given Leeta Chaplin as "Mother Mine," who gave good advice to the friendless. Laura Wight as Lettie Holcomb was right up to the minute for all the latest news, and brought forth hearty applause by her witty remarks. G. Buchanan as the "stuttering deacon, had a difficult part, but played it well, even if he proved too strong in breaking his ebony cane in trying to emphasize the truth. Agnes Wight and Rufus Redden acted the newly-weds to perfection. Bruce Spencer, the hero of the play, was well received. Elgan Ruttan, Ada Doupe, and Fleda Thompson also did justice to their parts as did M. McMillan, W. Longmuir, and H. Thompson.

The Sunday School Orchestra from Havelock played pleasing numbers during intermissions. I. Lawson was called upon to extend a vote of thanks on behalf of the Ladies' Aid.

Rev. W. R. Archer had charge of the program. After the play the Ladies' Aid served lunch in the dining hall to those taking part and the members of the orchestra. Home-made candy was sold during the evening from which $10.15 was realized. The door receipts amounted to $67.85. The money is to be handed over to the Ladies' Aid to be used on repairs to the church property.

Blossoms Appear

Apple trees are beginning to show blossom and prospects look good for a good crop of apples.

Wild strawberries are in blossom and there appears to be abundance of them.

Gardeners are busy planting potatoes and seeds this week.

Mr. J. Ward is having extensive repairs made at his cottage and when completed he will transfer his household good here. Mr. and Mrs. Ward have travelled considerable, the former says he has enjoyed better health since taking up residence here.

Personals

Miss Eva Inkster and brother Bud, of Marmora, were home for the week-end.

Mrs. McQuigge has returned to Marmora after spending the past few months with Mrs. W. W. Redden.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and son, Jack, returned to Toronto, from spending a few days at "Kare Free."

FEATURING LABOR-SAVING DEVICES

G. Fordyce, Architect.

The predominating objective in the design of this home was the inclusion of every possible convenient, labor-saving feature which a woman might wish installed in her home. How successfully this has been accomplished a brief survey of the outstanding items will reveal.

Passing from the front verandah through the vestibule, we enter directly into the living room. It is about 11 ft. 6 ins. by 18 ft. in size, and contains a large fireplace equipped with a gas burner, but convertible for wood burning if desired. An interesting and rather unusual feature of this room is the inclusion of a little alcove with shaped shelves and a semi-dome shaped top, which is really a simplified form of the niches which add their charm to so many original Queen Anne Period rooms.

Connected to the living room by a very wide archway, and therefore rightly decorated to conform with it, is the dining room. It is bright and of ample size, and repeats an interesting idea employed in the living room of an inlaid border of dark wood in the polished oak floor.

The average modern kitchen has become a beautifully efficient room but still some practical and worthwhile features not in general use are to be found in this kitchen. Worthy of special attention is the ventilating shaft with funnel over the stove to draw away objectionable cooking odours and a large folding table which lets down against the wall when not in use. The switch controlling the electrical appliance outlet has a red pilot light to indicate whether the current is on or off. Between the kitchen and the dining room is the breakfast nook which is finished in white similar to a dining booth in a high class restaurant.

Each of the three bedrooms are entered from an inner hall and contain large clothes closets on inspection of which another pleasant surprise awaits us, for upon opening the full length mirrored door a light is automatically switched on inside the closet. Located at the extreme end of the hall is the bathroom, the walls and floor of which are completely tiled.

Erected with a basement extending under the entire house and including hot air heating, this home cost approximately $6,500.

Readers desiring further information regarding a house of this design should communicate with Home Building Information Service, 345 Adelaide St., West, Toronto, Ont., who will see that it is supplied. When writing please mention design number 125. Copyright, 1928.

FURNISHING THE SMALL HOME PRESENTS THREE PROBLEMS

Careful planning and discriminating buying required if long satisfaction desired.

There are three distinct problems that arise every time that anything is purchased. First, the objects must suit the house in size, coloring and style; second, they must look well when placed together if they are to be used together, and must be comfortable and well made; third, they must fit the family purse and answer the needs of the family.

Starting with the floor coverings, a general rule is that they should be several shades darker than the walls and should be in plain colors or in a small, all-over design. If the walls are to be plain the all-over design is generally preferred: When walls have a great deal of design in their covering plain rugs should be used.

The backgrounds of the home are just as important as the floor coverings. Plain painted or tinted walls and wall-papers of a hazy, indistinct all over pattern make the best backgrounds. For rooms facing north the best colors are the yellows, ranging from a soft cream to a deep yellow, a little deeper than golden glow. Light grays, pale greens and deep putty color are all satisfactory colors to use in the room that has a south exposure.

Hangings are always thought of in close connection with the floor coverings and walls: The hangings should have the same relation to the walls as the walls have to the floors. If the walls have plain coverings, striped or figured hangings may be used; but in rooms where the wall coverings are figured the hangings should be plain colors, repeating the dominant color note in the walls, however.

Furniture does not have to be heavy and massive to be durable and comfortable: This is obvious when a Windsor chair and an overstuffed chair are compared. There is no intention to persuade the home-maker to refrain from buying comfortable upholstered furniture. There should be two or more comfortable chairs and a davenport, daybed or couch of some sort in every living room that is really a living room: The intention is rather to suggest the buying of pieces that have been designed for a small home.

The photographer has obtained some interesting results by combining various facial features of Secretary Herbert Hoover and Governor Al Smith, two aspirants for the United States presidency. (1) Combines Smith's forehead with Hoover's eyes, nose and chin. This composite face reveals imaginative power linked up with conservative clear thinking. (2) is the forehead of Hoover and the lower part of Smith's face, the composite showing physical and mental energy as indicated by the nose, united with deliberate reasoning power. (3) Links up the mouth and chin of Smith with the forehead and eyes of Hoover while in (4) the seriousness of Hoover's eyes disappears before the humor and impulsiveness of Smith's mouth and chin and the intuitive, snap-judgment qualities suggested by the governor's forehead.

Vice-Minister of War Says Civil Authority Rules Army,

DON'T WANT SHANTUNG.

TOKIO, May 23 (Canadian Press).—Anxious to dispel any possible foreign suspicion that Japan's present activities in China were aimed at achieving permanent control of Shantung, General Hata, permanent Vice-Minister of War, stated in an interview that nothing was further from the mind of the Japanese Government. He repudiated rumors of a militaristic policy, saying that the Japanese army was as much an instrument of the civil power as the British and American troops.

MILITARY MAP IS BEING MADE

Surveyors From Department of National Defence Here at Present.

VERY ACCURATE WORK.

For the past number of years the Department of National Defence has been giving serious attention to the accurate mapping of the populous portions of Canada. A party of surveyors are now located in this city, providing the framework or control for the mapping of the district in this vicinity. They will be followed shortly by planetablers and aeroplane photographers.

With the exception of an area between Whitby and Napanee, which is now being attended to, a continuous stretch of accurate maps exists from Sarnia to Montmagny, some miles east of Quebec City. Portions of the province of Nova Scotia in the vicinities of Halifax and Sydney, have also been mapped.

These maps are available to the public, and show in accurate position every road and railroad; every dwelling, school, and church; towns, post offices, hills, lakes, rivers, wooded areas, telephone and telegraph lines and a wealth of other detail.

The survey is largely under the control and jurisdiction of the Royal Canadian Engineers. Each year it offers a training in surveying, essential to the Canadian Permanent Force. It thus provides at but little direct cost to the country an article whose value is best estimated by those who know, as all men should know, how to use an accurate map.

RICKARD MAKES $20,000

NEW YORK, May 23 (Canadian Press).—Instead of a deficit Tex Rickard has been agreeably surprised to find that he realized a profit of about $20,000 on the much-postponed Mandell-McLarnin lightweight title fight.

Our Customers are Proving This to be The World's Greatest Tire

FOR over a year now, customers of ours have been enjoying the greater safety, greater comfort and longer mileage of the World's Greatest Tire—the Goodyear All-Weather Tread. Like millions of other motorists, they now know that the All-Weather Tread does give greater traction, does wear more slowly. And they know that SUPERTWIST cords give Goodyear Tires longer life because they stretch and recover instead of breaking under road shocks. (See chart for difference in stretch).

Buying here doesn't mean waiting a few days for it

How do you buy?

When you enter a store to buy anything, how do you ask for it? Do you call for the articles by name, or do you generalize—a can of tomato soup; a bag of flour; an aluminum kettle; so many square yards of linoleum; a meat grinder?

It is much better and far more satisfactory to specify the articles you want by name, for merchandise that is good enough to be sold by name is almost always better in quality, and usually no higher in price, than goods of uncertain lineage and less certain quality

The advertising columns of this newspaper carry advertised names that are familiar to millions of people. Soap, flour, sugar, cereals, kitchen ware, rugs, linoleum, automobiles, etc. They represent those articles that stand for the best in their respective classes of merchandise—quality all through.

Advertising keeps these names before you constantly. Advertising is a constant reminder that the articles you want are the same articles that you see advertised day after day—that justify their being by the service they render. And advertising brings you news—of inventions, discoveries, improvements that keep you up to date.

Tell the sales-clerk what you want by its advertised name. You'll get it—and your money will purchase full value. It pays to read advertising and remember advertised names.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 1928.

NO HARDSHIP IN THIS.

If we have any sense of humor we should be able to get considerable amusement out of the complaints of some motorists because left-hand turns are to be forbidden at the intersection of Charlotte and George streets.

It surely is entertaining to find that men whose ancestors tramped a forest trail all the way to Port Hope with bags of grain on their backs to be ground into wheat should consider it a hardship that they are called upon to motor round a block.

As a matter of fact, it is so manifestly a contribution to the general safety to eliminate left-hand turns at this intersection that any slight inconvenience that may be occasioned should be cheerfully accepted.

The growth in motor traffic makes new restrictions necessary from time to time, and while all of these may not be satisfactory to everybody, it is only by prompt obedience to such rules that traffic jams and traffic accidents can be avoided.

The automobile has brought many problems in its train, and the public must co-operate in solving them as satisfactorily and as effectively as may be possible.

There is no particular hardship in this particular regulation in regard to left turns.

VICTORIA DAY.

Victoria Day, keeping green the memory of the "Good Queen" whose long reign was marked by such outstanding developments in the British Empire, has always been a popular holiday with Canadians, so much so that its observance has been continued each year since her death, and probably will remain firmly fixed in the Canadian calendar.

There are two reasons for this; the popularity of Victoria the Good among her people throughout the Empire, and the fact that the holiday comes at the beginning of summer and gives the people of Canada their first taste of the outdoor feast of recreation that is theirs so bountifully during the beautiful Canadian summer.

So to-morrow Canada will be out-of-doors—if the weather conditions are propitious—and seasonable sports, picnics, visits to summer homes and similar activities will occupy general attention.

Just a note of warning.

It should be everybody's job to make it a safe and sane holiday.

There will be a heavy stream of motor traffic on the highways, so good citizens will drive carefully.

Many will be in boats for the first time this year—they, too, should be careful.

As the Highway Safety Committee puts it, "Care, Courtesy and common sense will prevent most accidents."

That fact should be generally remembered to-morrow.

OPERATORS' PERMITS

Editors of Ontario's newspapers have been made members of the Advisory Committee of the Highway Safety Committee, and have been asked to make practical suggestions looking toward accident prevention.

The Examiner agrees with the committee that care, courtesy and common sense will prevent most accidents.

Yet there is a minority among drivers that does not respond to appeals, and that will necessarily have to be dealt with by more direct methods.

In this connection we would suggest to the Minister of Highways that he make more use of his licensing system in the weeding out of careless drivers.

If it has been considered advisable to cancel the liquor permits of 3,000 people who have shown that they were not fit to be entrusted with the right to purchase liquor, then it is surely logical to insist that people who have shown that they are not fit to drive an automobile should have the privilege taken away from them.

The regulation as it stands now gives the authorities a chance to eliminate the motorist who is habitually careless or reckless, but, unfortunately, it is not been enforced.

There must be dozens of people driving cars on Peterborough's streets at the present time who have no operators' license, and that condition undoubtedly exists all over the Province.

It shouldn't exist, and if Hon. Mr. Henry wants to make his campaign a success one of his first steps should be to urge a more rigid enforcement of this important law.

A K. OF C. MILESTONE.

In celebrating to-morrow the twenty-fifth anniversary of the institution of their society in Peterborough, the Knights of Columbus focus impartial public attention upon themselves. As a social centre their club has frequently been thrown open to the public, and its hospitality can be attested by many citizens who are not members. Its charities are well known in this community, its special effort in behalf of boys is a development of its activities that should be productive of much good, and its readiness to co-operate in public affairs has always been demonstrated.

Representative of the charter members who are to be honored during this celebration are His Lordship Bishop O'Brien and His Honor Judge Daniel O'Connell, formerly a brilliant member of the Peterborough Bar and now a judge in Toronto. Judge OConnells active leadership in the Knights of Columbus is a work that is passed, but those who knew him during his Peterborough days are not surprised to learn that he was an outstanding pioneer of the society's expansion in Ontario.

Bishop O'Brien's gift of leadership has been manifested in another sphere. Perhaps his greatest accomplishment was in the cause of temperance. In the days of his priesthood he was widely known as the spiritual director of St. Peters Total Abstinence Society, the effectiveness of which still endures in this community. To-day, apart from his responsibilities as the head of the diocese that has been entrusted to his care, he is also Ontario Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus, and in that field should find a wide scope for the gifts of mind and heart, and the interest of public service and welfare which have characterized his life work.

The local branch of the Knights of Columbus have displayed a commendible energy in their plans for the first K. of C. demonstration beyond the scale of a church parade, and have incidentally endeavored on this occasion to make Peterborough better known among their members throughout the country. The souvenir number of their monthly magazine is devoting considerable space to a comprehensive article on the industrial, social and the summer playground advantages of their own city. In all their plans they have received many expressions of approval and good-will which they may interpret as typical of the sentiments of their fellow-citizens.

GOVERNMENT COSTS

Mr. Frank W. Wilson, M.L.A., continuing his advocacy of better financial treatment for the letter carriers, finds serious fault with a Parliament that talks of higher sessional indemnity, increased salaries for judges, etc., while turning a cold shoulder to the appeals of important public servants who now receive a minimum of $1,020 and a maximum of $1,500 per year, less retiring allowance. And Mr. Wilson goes on to emphasize a point that has been made again and again in these columns, namely, that Canada is over-governed to an alarming degree and that the cost of this over-government is a heavy burden on the shoulders of the people.

Some of the figures given by Mr. Wilson furnish food for thought for every Canadian who is interested in the progress and development of his country. Though we have less than ten millions of population, Mr. Wilson finds that there are 61 Provincial Ministers and 17 Federal Ministers in Canada, costing the public treasury $524,300 annually. In addition, there are 589 Provincial members and 341 Federal members, throwing the total cost up to nearly three millions a year. If the United States had the same basis of representation in Washington, Mr. Wilson said, Congress would have 4,092 members. In the Province of Ontario, Mr. Wilson added, there are 468 municipal organizations and, estimated at the same rate as Essex, 19 for each municipality, there would be 8,992 civic officials in this Province and 26,976 in the Dominion. These are the elected officials. In addition to them there is a vast army of clerks, assessors, tax collectors, municipal engineers, auditors, solicitors, etc. Looking over the whole field—Federal, Provincial and municipal—Mr. Wilson estimates that Canada has a grand total of 300,000 elective and appointive representatives—for less than 10,000,000 population. The percentage is far too high and it is costing this country large sums of money that could be spent to much better advantage in other ways.

What can be done about it, someone asks. The answer is simple, but it is not so simple to induce those who possess the necessary authority to take action. Obviously, any move to reduce the number of members of the Senate and House of Commons would have to receive the sanction of those bodies. There are plenty of men in Parliament who appreciate the fact that the affairs of the country would be handled to much better advantage were the number of representatives materially cut. A 50 per cent. reduction at Ottawa would be a splendid thing all around. Yet we seldom hear of any public man making a demand along these lines. A reduction of the kind described would leave a good many fellows at home, and men who have experienced the delights—as well as the disadvantages—of public office, seldom like to be left at home. However, the personal desires of a few individuals cannot be given too much consideration in a situation of this kind. When a manufacturer or a merchant or any other employer of labor finds that he is overstaffed, he proceeds to lay off some of the hands. Canada, finding herself sadly overstaffed from a governing standpoint, should lay off some of the hands, too. There was a time, years ago, when the matter was not as serious as it is now. We had no war debts to pay and public representatives received small indemnities. Municipal representatives got nothing at all. The cost of the government these days, however, is a serious matter, financially. Sessional indemnities have gone up and there is a demand that they be sent up again. Aldermen and councillors are being paid for their services, in many places. When public men received little or nothing in this way the size of public bodies mattered a great less than it does now. But it is a serious matter to-day, not only through the inefficiency that is bound to result when you have two or three men trying to do the work of one, but from the standpoint of actual cost in the matter of salaries and indemnities.

Mr. Wilson does well to call attention to this situation. It is a subject that most public men avoid.—Border Cities Star.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Now that Premier Ferguson is to be absent in Europe for two months, the Toronto Star's rumor factory will doubtless work overtime.

It really begins to look as if the ice man is going to have his inning after all.

The bunion derbyists are doubtless unanimous by this time in the opinion that Columbus accomplished nothing wonderful in discovering America. They probably think that he couldn't have missed it.

The Question Box

M.B.E. Q.—(1) What does the word "cenotaph" really mean? (2) Is the cross at the Canadian Legion Hall a true cenotaph, as it is called? (3) How big is the cenotaph at London?

A.—(1) The word is derived from the Greek, kenos, empty; taphos, tomb, and therefore means an empty or honorary tomb. The term is usually applied to a monument in memory of a person or persons whose remains are irrecoverable or buried elsewhere. (2) Perhaps not strictly, since it does not represent an empty tomb. On the other hand, it most certainly is "a monument in memory of persons whose remains are irrecoverable." (3) The cenotaph in Whitehall, London, in memory of the Empire's war dead, is a rectangular pylon, 33 feet high. The inscription is "The Glorious Dead."

P.A. Q.—When was the first radio heard in Peterborough?

A.—It cannot be definitely stated, because dozens of fans were tinkering with sets before reception was good enough to invite their friends to a demonstration. The first public demonstration of radio, however, was on March 23, 1922, at the Engineering Institute meeting, when a "wireless telephone" picked a concert from Schenectady out of the air.

L. C. Q.—What are the duties of a District Officer of Health?

A.—By the Public Health Act of the province, the District Officer of Health is the official representative of the Department of Health. The Act says, in part, "He shall for the promotion of public health and for the protection of the inhabitants from communicable disease have authority . . to enforce the provisions of this Act and the regulations, and he shall be responsible through the local Medical Officer of Health for the enforcement of this Act and the regulations." He is given "all the powers and rights and authority to perform all the functions and duties of the local Medical Officer of Health or the sanitary inspector." He may summon a special meeting of a local Board of Health for public health purposes. If L.C. is interested further, he may read the Act at The Examiner office.

GOD'S MINUTE

If thou canst believe, all things are possible.—Mark 9:23.

Our Father, we bless Thee for the privilege we have, through Jesus our Lord and Saviour, to call Thee Father. In this new day we would put our hand in Thine and ask Thee to lead us. The future is all dark to us, except as it is lighted up with hope of Thy presence to go with us. Thou knowest the end from the beginning; not a temptation will lurk in our way, not a danger will beset our feet, not an opportunity will cross our path, but that Thou knowest beforehand. When we think of Thy servants of old, how Thou didst lead them and give them the victory over every weakness and every foe, we are encouraged to trust Thee. Make each of us to-day helpers to the ongoing Kingdom of our Christ. Our neighbors we would remember. Make plain to us our duty to them. May our sympathies flow out to all the sorrowing of earth. Help us by our efforts to give wings to the Gospel of our Lord, which made life here sweeter to us and filled our hearts with hope of a life to come. To this may the best thoughts of our minds, the best efforts of our lives, and the most liberal offering of our means be given. For the sake of Thy son, our Saviour, we ask these blessings this day.

Rev. W. B. Crumpton,
Montgomery, Alabama.

A Thought

THE WORLD-WIDE APPEAL

Velma Runnels, Campbellford, Ont.

Life can be compared to a swift flowing river rushing on like a mighty torrent, stopping and waiting for no one. Did you ever stop to think that we are being swept away with that powerful force? Life grows shorter every day for each one of us and I wonder if we have ever tried to win souls for the Lord?

In Acts 1, verse 8, Jesus said unto His disciples: "Ye shall be witnesses unto Me." Did not the faithful disciples obey Jesus' command and go unafraid among their enemies to preach that Jesus was the Son of God; that He was love and died on the cross to save us? These disciples suffered all kind of pain and the faithful Stephen was stoned to death. But yet the rest carried on his work unafraid. They knew that God needed more to preach the gospel and they carried on His word to the people fearlessly.

We are disciples of the Lord and if we love Him as His disciples did, then it is our duty to carry on Paul's work and be witnesses unto Him.

There is a great work to be done for the home and foreign mission fields. The great appeal for more workers is being made every year. The toil must be constant and unremitting.

The mission fields need more men and women who are full of the evangelizing spirit. They need men who will go to preach the Gospel to those savage warriors of dark South Africa. Now we must turn our faces from that dark continent to the great east, the land of the sunrise. Thousands are dying there every day without even the knowledge that Jesus died to save our sins.

There are citizens in the western part of Canada who have never heard the gospel preached. Think of it, people, and we sitting here in our comfortable homes with the great knowledge of God's love. Is it fair to those beyond the seas? Is it fair to those in our own country?

If we can't go to preach the gospel then please send money to help those that can go. This is the great appeal. Don't let others crave for the gospel when we can give it to them.

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Que., May 23 (Canadian Press).—The demand from foreign buyers for Canadian grain continued slow here yesterday and little business was done.

Owing to the renewed strength in oat futures at Winnipeg the local market for cash oats was stronger and prices were marked up one cent per bushel.

The trade in Spring and Winter wheat flour continued of a limited character, but prices for all grades were steady.

A moderate amount of business was done in all lines of millfeed and the undertone to the market was firm. The demand for standard grades of rolled oats was quiet, but values were unchanged.

There was no change in the condition of the local egg situation, prices being fully maintained under a steady demand for extras for storing purposes of which the offerings from Ontario shippers were not large and only sales of odd cars were made at 34c per dozen, f.o.b. shipping points. The domestic consumptive demand was somewhat of a limited character, which was attributed to the warmer weather prevailing. The receipts were 3,212 cases.

Potato prices were unchanged, but the undertone to the market was firm at the recent improvement noted with a continued steady demand from outside buyers for supplies and a moderate amount of business was done.

The trade in imported beans was quiet, the demand being principally for small lots to meet immediate wants, but as the offerings were not large the tone of the market was steady. Car lots of choice white hand-picked grades were quoted at $4 per bushel, ex-track, and smaller quantities sold at $4.20 per bushel, ex-store.

A firm feeling prevailed in the butter situation under a good demand from both local and outside interests. The receipts were 363 packages.

On the local curb market there were 1,000 packages of creamery butter offered and the settling price for No. 1 pasteurized was 30½c per lb., No. 2 pasteurized, 32½c per lb., and No. 3 pasteurized 31½c per lb., delivered here.

A stronger feeling prevailed in the spot cheese market and prices scored an advance of ¼c to ⅝c per lb., which was attributed to the higher prices paid in the country last week. There was some demand between houses for supplies. The receipts were 3,218 boxes.

The offerings of Eastern cheese from producers on the local curb market were 700 boxes for which 18¾c per lb. was paid, delivered here.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, May 23 (Canadian Press).—Decidedly higher prices for wheat resulted yesterday from apparent likelihood of crop injury northwest because of unusual and persistent lack of rain. Besides European crop reports were of an adverse character, and the Argentine strike seemed to be more threatening.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, 1¼c to 2¼c net higher, with corn ¾c to ⅞c up; oats showing ⅛c to ⅜c advance, and provisions unchanged to 5c off.

With complaints on hand that above 90 temporary and dearth of moisture incurred delay of Spring crop yield both north and south of the Canadian boundary line, the market developed an upward trend yesterday almost from the beginning.

Reports that European crops were also suffering gave the reason as exactly opposite, a need of warmth and sunshine. Considerable notice was also taken of word that some Argentine wheat arriving at Liverpool is weevily, an unusual situation as weevil in current crop has seldom been reported. On the other hand, export demand yesterday for North American wheat showed but little increase and domestic Winter wheat reports were favorable and showing improvement.

Corn and oats rallied with wheat. Primary shipments of corn continue larger than the receipts, and Kansas City advised of a big general demand from the south. Favorable weather over the corn belt had only a temporary market influence. Provisions were somewhat responsive to a reduction in the value of hogs.

Catchacoma News

Mountain trout fishing is now in season in these lakes.

"What are the Catchacoma Lakes?" This question has been asked your correspondent many times. If anyone outside the very few original inhabitants could give an answer it would be the members of the famous "Ketcheeum Hunt Club" founded by the late Harry Winch 65 years ago. It has had many well known members such as the late Robert Stuart of the Quaker Oats, R. M. Denistoun, now one of the judges of the Court of Appeal of Manitoba, W. G. Morrow, president of the Toronto Savings and Loan Co. of Peterborough, and etc., etc.

The names of the Catchacoma Lakes are Catchacoma, Gull and Gold all joined together, Eagle near by, Bottle, Sucker, Bear, Pencil, Long, Loon, White and etc, to the number of about fifty. The highlands of Ontario begin at the ridge upon which these waters are situated and extend north to Algonquin Park and west to Muskoka. It is all the same class of country.

Where is the Mississauga river, one of those which drain these lakes? It falls into The Kawartha System just below Buckhorn and hustles down about 100 feet into Lovesick Lake.

This vast stretch of country will never be a farming country but a health-seekers', hunting, fishing, trapping and ranching country. It is dry, elevated and inclined to be sandy loam rather than heavy soil.

Outcrops of gypsum and silver-lead are frequent and some day there will be opened up mines here like those of Northern Ontario for it has the same kind of strata and indications all through.

But if Peterborough is to be to this country what Toronto is to Northern Ontario it has got to get a move on. We must have less party politics and more brains and energy. There is a big source of supply both ways up north here for Peterborough but at present it is chiefly going to Bobcaygeon and Lindsay because our own northern roads are not what they ought to be.

Pulp, hardwood, water, power, minerals at our northern door and we don't realize it. Will "some day" be too late, after Toronto has got all the connections?

Will the old Peterborough custom of sixty years ago revive when parties duly chaperoned went to Cobourg and the "Front" and staged a week dancing and having a good time. The "Mississauga Lodge" dance pavilion and good music will invite them and the moonlight on the lovely lakes will inspire them. Parties preparing to come can secure extra accommodation at all the "resorts" here by giving notice.

It may not be generally known that poplar when dry is at least the equal of beech and maple for firewood and other purposes. Young pine, hardwood poplar and birch are here in plenty. As Dr. Newcomb, of Cleveland, Ohio, once said: 'Some day doctors will be sending their patients up there."

A Substitute for Time!

Think of being able to eliminate Time, to bring the future—even 20 years or more hence—into the present.

This is the great contribution Life Insurance makes to modern living. It enables you to guarantee to your family at the present time all you are likely to earn in the years to come, even if you do not live to earn it.

—And, it must be remembered, upon this future earning power rest the destinies of your wife and family.

Recent researches have led The London Life to offer The Earning Power Series—a true substitute for Time.

They provide protection over your productive period (to ages 60 or 65); or, by the Interchange Privilege, for your entire lifetime.

Uncle Wiggily

To-day's Bedtime Story

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE FIRE.

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

The Bob Cat, who had slunk along until he had nearly caught Uncle Wiggily at the foot of the hill, near the old fences—the Bob Cat turned suddenly as he heard some voices talking. And no wonder, for one of the voices said:

"You can't nibble Uncle Wiggily's ears unless you guess whose tails these are stuck through the fence holes!"

Then the Bob Cat looked and, strange as it may seem, he saw five tails thrust through five holes in the fences. Uncle Wiggily was surprised, also, for he had not known his friends with their tails were so near to save him from the Bob Cat.

"This is a trick of yours, Mr. Longears!" snarled the Bob Cat, as he looked at the different tails, wishing he had one of them. For even the shortest tail, the one with the curl in it, was much longer than the Bob Cat's silly little tail, of which he was greatly ashamed.

"Trick or no trick!" cried Uncle Wiggily, bravely, "can you tell whose tails these are?"

The Bob Cat looked again and thought hard. Then he growled:

"That tail with rings around it is Dr. Possum's!"

"Wrong! Wrong!" shouted the voices behind the fences. And with that the owners of the tails pulled them out of the holes through which they had thrust them and began throwing stones at the Bob Cat.

"Bang! Bung! Bumpo!" One of the stones hit the Bob Cat on his nose, and with a howl he ran away, taking his silly little tail with him.

Then out from behind the fences came the five animal boy friends of Uncle Wiggily, who had driven away the Bob Cat.

"Did you know who we were just by looking at our tails?" asked one.

"Of course I did!" chuckled Mr. Longears. "I knew your broad, flat tail at once, Toodle," and he waved his paw at the beaver boy. "And then I couldn't mistake your funny, little, quirky tail, Floppy," said the rabbit gentleman to the pig boy.

"Did you see my tail?" crowed Charlie Chick, the rooster. "I stuck it through the hole in the middle fence."

"Oh! I knew you, Charlie," said Mr. Longears. "Though at first I thought it was Nurse Jane's tail with a dusting brush tied on the end. And I knew your tail, Tommie Kat."

"Mine was easy," mewed Tommie. "But the Bob Cat thought Bobbie's tail was Dr. Possum's! Ha! Ha! Ha!" and the little raccoon boy whose ringed tail was next to Tommie's laughed with the cat.

So Uncle Wiggily was saved because the Bob Cat couldn't rightly guess the tails, though I am sure you children did in Saturday's puzzle. And then Mr. Longears bought the animal boys some jelly bean candies and they ran off to play while he went to look for a new adventure.

Uncle Wiggily had not hopped very far through the woods before, all of a sudden, the bunny rabbit saw, just ahead of him, the Fox and Wolf slinking along under the bushes.

"My! It's lucky they didn't see me!" whispered Uncle Wiggily, shrinking down under the leaves. The Bad Chaps passed close by but they were so busy talking that they did not even smell the rabbit. However, Uncle Wiggily was frightened when he heard the Fox say:

"It is burning fast, now. I'm glad we set fire to it!"

"So am I," growled the wolf.

"Goodness! I wonder if they have set fire to my bungalow?" thought the rabbit. "I must run and see."

So Uncle Wiggily hopped fast and, all of a sudden, he saw not his bungalow burning, but the kennel house of Mr. Bow Wow, the dog gentleman, which was on fire. Running toward it was Mr. Whitewash, the Polar Bear, with a cake of ice.

"Help me put out the fire!" growled Mr. Whitewash. "Use those sticks, Uncle Wiggily!" The Polar Bear gentleman pointed to eighteen straight sticks on the ground, near the burning kennel, and Mr. Longears wondered how he could put out a fire with them. He knew it must be a puzzle, and it is.

Use sticks to put fire out.

ROOT CAUSES DEATH

Eating the root of water-hemlock he found while playing in a ravine in Toronto brought death in a few hours to 11-year-old Joseph Lawler (No. 1). Two boy ocmpanions, Wilbert Kitchen, 11 (3), and Ernest Griffith (4) were along, and took some of the water hemlock into their mouths, but spat it out again, not caring for it. No. 2 is a specimen of the water hemlock, which grows up like a parsnip, to a height of two to six feet, later in the season. The location where the root was dug by the boys is seen at No. 5.

OUT IN THE WILDERNESS OF ONTARIO

(By Mrs. Jarvis.)

No doubt you have heard terrible tales from the far North, but having spent the greater part of my life along the shores of Salmon Lake where the fresh breezes blow and wild animals roam through the thickly wooded forests, I never knew a more beautiful spot to spend your holidays, free from the bustle of city life and camp along its shores. I, with a party of five, left the city and motored some sixty miles and had dinner at the home of a farmer, which we all enjoyed. After dinner we walked around the farm and enjoyed the breath from the new mown hay, filled our pockets with the fresh fruit until our party was ready to start. After traveling some twenty miles we found our selves in the midst of a great woods, with in some places hardly room for our car to crawl through, but anxious to reach the village before night would set in we hurried along.

After some hours we reached the village where a hearty welcome was given us and supper was waiting for us which was served in a screened building close to the house. Words cannot express how good the home-made bread and buns and all the good things tasted that had been provided for us.

After tea our baskets were filled for the last part of our journey which had to be made by boats. At last everything was ready and we took the trail over the rocks and through the fields to the boat-house where a big motor boat with a skiff tied to the back was ready for us. We soon had our boats loaded and amid cheers and shouts we started for camp. Far in the west the rays of the fast setting sun could be seen, and over the far hills to the north a forest fire was burning, sending its rays of light far into the beautiful sky. Not a sound could be heard only the ripple from the skiff and the spray from the motor boat. The lake was most beautiful, darkness was fast approaching, but far-off could be seen the lights from the cottage, and the great owl hooted its welcome note. The cottage was situated on the side of a large hill in a beautiful spot. After having lunch and talking of our first day's outing we were told the first one up was to catch the fish for breakfast. We all went to bed tired and full of excitement from the long day's journey. We could hardly entice sleep to come. The windows were screened in and the ripple of the poplar trees and the splash of the water along the shore could be heard so distinctly.

As soon as the first rays of the sun were seen I crept out and walked along the cottage. Rabbits were hopping here and there and the sun-fish were jumping in the lake below. Birds were singing their merry note while far in the distance could be seen the smoke from the different cottages. Soon, a noise from the cottage reminded me of the fish we had to have for breakfast. I had always been an expert at fishing, but one of our party had never caught a fish before. We soon got our trolls and with a guide we started for our first fish. It wasn't long before we had four nice trout and on rolling in my line I found I had hooked a nice bass. Breakfast was soon ready and we enjoyed a real meal.

After breakfast we took our boats across the lake to a wild raspberry patch and we soon had lots of the wild fruit for tea. Most of the day was spent in fishing and enjoying the sights, while in the evening, stories were told and some of our party climbed to the top of the mountain. The light from the moon made it possible to see the far shores of the great lake and as far as the eye could see the thickly wooded forests.

Our next day's outing was the most wonderful to us as our hostess proposed taking our dinner and spending the day on the other shore. Baskets were soon prepared and when everything was ready we started out. Catching a few fish and spending the forenoon on the water we landed in a beautiful spot where Nature had arranged things completely. Two rocks had been found, with space large enough to build a fire and on this we cooked potatoes, boiled tea and fried fish. We had with us a Flight-Lieutenant, who had flown over the Black Sea and was able to relate many stories. The afternoon soon passed by and we were ready to start for the cottage.

Time was fast flying and we knew we would soon have to arrange for our home journey, but eager to see more of the sights we spent the next day exploring. We were taken where a large bear had been killed just a short time before and had the pleasure of shooting a Kingfisher. Later in the day we went to the sand shore where as far as the eyes could see, white sand covered the beach.

Next day we were taken to the top of a mountain where a cottage had been built from the natural forest, the walls were built of small logs. Chairs had been made of the smaller poles while the fireplace and chimney had been made of the choicest pebbles from the beach. The yard around was tastefully arranged with souvenirs from the forests. Small stones were laid for paths. Nothing could be more beautiful.

In the afternoon arrangements were made for our return to the village where we spent the night. Next morning a box was arranged, and seventeen trout were packed in it, and after we had bid all goodbye we started for the city, sorry to leave. The return journey was made without a mishap and to this day we relate the marvellous trip we had and the sights we saw and cannot say too much for what some people call the backwoods.

OUR BIG DAY AT EXHIBITION PARK

Great Bill of Horse Racing—Opening of City League Baseball To-morrow.

There should be no complaint on the program to be given tomorrow at the Exhibition Grounds, which includes a full program of horse racing and in addition the opening of the City League Baseball season at two o'clock, when the Kiwanis Juniors meet the Royals in what should be a great game. The full band of the Peterborough Rangers will be in attendance. There will be a street parade of band and players and the local sportsmen who have put on the day are hoping for a big attendance.

Spend your holiday at home.

Exhibition Park has never looked better. The grass is green and everything is clean and tidy. The track is in wonderful condition and the baseball diamond is being put into shape this morning. J. Hickson, president of the Lindsay Exhibition, and T. Hodson, a director, together with Nelson Stone of Campbellford, and W. J. Lingard of Port Hope, will act as judges and timers. A. W. Blade will be the starter.

Many of Canada's leading social and sporting clubs use Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea exclusively. The added strength and inimitable flavor of Red Rose Orange Pekoe make it last longer, go farther and taste better. Packed in damp-proof aluminum. 12EW

U. S. PURCHASE 40 TONS OF GAS

That Which Escaped From the Hamburg Plant Was For Export.

HAMBURG, Germany, May 23. — (Canadian Press).—Dr. Hugo Stolzenberg, head of the chemical plant which was the scene of Sunday night's poison gas catastrophe, said to-day that forty tons of phosgene are shipped to the United States annually. Previously it had been stated that the gas which escaped, causing the deaths of eleven persons, was destined for the United States. It is now proposed to dump the remaining stock of phosgene into the North Sea in order to remove any possible further danger.

VETERAN MISSIONARY THINKS SOUTHERN RULE BENEFICIAL

Regime More Suitable To Present Day, Says Rev. E. J. Blandford.

IN CHINA 43 YEARS.

Visits This City While Forced To Leave Field Because of Troubles in Country.

Over forty years a missionary in Central China is the record of Rev. E. J. Blandford, an English missionary who has been in the city for a few days, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mulligan. Last summer the southern army forced Rev. Mr. Blandford to flee for his life but he is hoping to return this autumn for, in every mail, he receives letters from the natives imploring him to return to his mission work.

In 1885 the reverend gentleman was sent out to Kiangsi by the North-West Kiangsi Mission of England, and there he labored for many years. His nearest port was Kui Kiang, where was stationed a resident British consul. Early last summer the invading southern army drove the Britishers from that section of the country and Mr. Blandford, along with all the rest, took refuge in the mountains for several weeks, from whence they made their way to port where they were received by a British Admiral and taken to Shanghai and cared for by the ladies of the British colony.

Twice in making his escape; Mr. Blandford told The Examiner, that he had to pass through the firing lines and the few things that they attempted to carry with them were taken away by the troops.

Asked about conditions in China at present, Mr. Blandford said that the southern army was gradually sweeping everything in front of it on its march north. The troops were being received with open hands by the people everywhere and everything was being done by the inhabitants to help their advance. The northern troops on the other hand are greatly disliked and every hindrance possible is being put in their way by the inhabitants. The southern soldiers treat the people well and pay for everything they get; the other soldiers play the part of plunderers and in many cases even resort to brutality.

"We were forced out because we were British, for at that time an anti-British wave was passing throughout the country due principally to Bolshevik propaganda which was launched against the British and at times was anti-Christian. The only salvation of China is the success of the southern army, which will bring in a new regime that will be more suited to the present day. There is apparently very little hope as long as the northern army is in power.

"To-day the great question is what will Japan do. She is determined to preserve peace in Manchuria and from the latest reports had ordered all the soldiers from the northern army to be disarmed when they enter that province. This spells the defeat of Chang Tso-Lin and the collapse of the northern army.

"Mission work in China at present is at a standstill for nine-tenths of the missionaries have had to withdraw and the present consuls will issue no passports for any who want to go inland. The whole country is quite unsettled in every respect and our merchants are suffering. The Chinese are a very apprehensive people and they think the foreigners have some plans whereby they will take China from them, so their great slogan to-day is China for the Chinese.' Nothing would suit them better than to have the foreigners withdraw and they desire to have all the old treaties revised on a more equal basis.

"We missionaries have great hope for China and her future and we anticipate to be able to get back again to work with the Chinese taking a greater part in the government of the church."

MILITARY NURSE IS VISITING CITY

ence of seventeen years spent in nursing to her credit prior to the outbreak of the Great War, she nursed throughout its duration in Military Hosiptals in different countries, being attached during that time for nine months to the Canadian Forestry (52nd) Company at Etaples in France.

At the close of the war, Nurse Barton was detailed for duty in a Military Hospital in Italy, and has also done military service work in England, France, Switzerland, Greece and West Africa. She came to this continent in February and expects to leave in July, coming over with a party of diplomats to New York City and having leave of absence for one week to visit her brother in Canada. She hopes at some time to pay a longer visit to the Dominion.

A resemblance to the uniform of the Salvation Army is noticed in the dark blue costume worn in this service, with navy dress and plain white linen collar, navy serge coat and straw bonnet with flowing blue veil. The manner in which portions of the uniform are bestowed on the wearers is interesting and is drawn out over a long period of probationary training. After the first year the belt may be worn with its large steel buckle, embossed with four little hearts for England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales and adorned with the rose, the thistle and the shamrock. Another year brings shoulder crowns and longer service adds the coveted insigia of "Queen's" to the bonnet front.

Nurse Barton, who has only two more years of study to put in to gain the degree of "M.B." owns two boxes full of medals and decorations bestowed for war nursing service, including the medal of the Legion of Honor and the Italian Military Cross given by Queen Margherita of Italy.

EMPIRE DAY IS OBSERVED

afternoon. There were two special speakers, Mrs. W. R. Morris, of the Board of Education, who based her remarks on a recent address of Mrs. Stanley Baldwin to a group of English school children, and the Rev. J. E. Todd of George street United church, who spoke on "Patriotism."

The remainder of the program was as follows:

Chorus by the Book I class entitled "The Union Jack."

Chorus by Book II classes, "A Song, a Song, for England."

Hymn by Junior III classes, "From Ocean unto Ocean."

Hymn by Senior III and Junior IV classes, "Eyes to the Hills."

Chorus by Junior and Senior IV classes, "We are part of Britain."

Chorus by Senior IV. class, "Rule Britannia."

Recitation, by Helen Heffernan, "All in One."

Recitation by Margaret Scott, "The Flag of Britain"

Recitation by Olga Huffman, "The Union Jack"

Recitation by Dorothy Perks, "A Reckoning"

The salute to the flag, the singing of the National Anthem and the usual cheers concluded the program.

KING GEORGE SCHOOL

The special speaker during Empire Day observance at King George School was A. Mowat, Inspector of Public Schools, who addressed the assembled classes on "Canada's Part in the Empire," during which he stressed the main principles of citizenship which the young people must assume as they grow older.

There were numerous splendid recitations and songs delivered by individual pupils and various classes, as well as drills, all of patriotic nature. In all, those taking part reflected credit upon their teachers.

King Edward School

Stressing the advantages of living in a part of the great British Empire, Joseph Wearing addressed the pupils of King Edward School during Empire Day observance. There was a varied program carried out by the assembled pupils, with choruses, drills and recitations of a high standard.

Wheat Shows Advance Hot Weather In West

CHICAGO, May 23. Canadian Press. — New upturns in the price of wheat resulted early to-day from the persistent hot dry weather in the northwest, detrimental to the spring crop. A maximum temperature of 98 degrees in Canada was reported. Opening unchanged to ⅝c higher, wheat afterward showed a material advance all round. Corn, oats and provisions were likewise firm with corn starting at 1-4c off to 3-8 up, and subsequently holding near to initial figures.

Wheat, May, 148⅜; July 151 1-4; corn, May, 104 7-8; uly 107 1-2; oats May 6 1-2, July 56 1-8.

Wright and Curtis Issues Make Sharp Advances

NEW YORK, May 23 (Canadian Press). — Trading was only moderately heavy in volume, with ticker keeping abreast of the market during the first three hours. The revival of the bullish sentiment was encouraged, in part, by the more favorable overnight news developments. The sharp advances in Wright and Curtis presumably were influenced by the announcement that Col. Charles Lindbergh had decided to accept the post of chairman of the Technical Committee of the newly organized Transcontinental Air Transport Inc.

A slightly easier undertone also was noted in the money market. Call money held firm at 6 per cent., but time money was again available at 5¼ per cent. for shorter maturities with 5½ for longer dates as compared with the rate of 5⅝ to 5½ yesterday. Houston Oil scored the largest individual gain by moving up twelve and one-half points to 152⅝. Curtiss climbed ten points and Wright 9⅝ points. Radio was marked up eight points, and Ludlum Steel, General Motors, Montgomery Ward and Consolidated Gas sold four to six points higher. Rock Island, Pittsburgh, and West Virginia Atcheson, New Central and Southern Pacific were the leaders in the railroad group.

List Shows Strength On Dull Exchange

TORONTO, Ont., May 23 (Canadian Press). — Dullness prevailed on the Toronto Stock Exchange during the morning part of the session with International Nickel again leading the market in activity with 1¾ point gain to 90⅜. The majority of stocks, although not actively traded in, showed upward movement. International Utilities B continued its upward trend with a gain of ⅞ at 17½. Massey-Harris was fractionally higher at 41¾. Carlings led the unlisted section selling up 2½ to 36½. Canada Dry Ginger Ale was fairly active with ¾ rise to 21¾. Hiram Walker, Imperial Oil, Northern Bakeries, Service Stations, and British American Oil showed fractional gains. Cockshutt New advanced a point to 28. English Electric suffered the biggest decline in the unlisted section, selling down one to 29.

Lower Price Tendencies Continue In Mining Stocks

TORONTO, Ont., May 23 (Canadian Press). — Trading was dull on the Standard Mining Exchange today, with the lower price tendencies of yesterday continuing. Barry Hollinger dropped another two points to 88, and Bidgood was easier by three at 90. Hollinger was up ten at 15.35 and Kirkland Lake six at $1.87. Among the more notable declines were Noranda down 15 at 14.60, Teck Hughes down 20 at 10.00, Lake Shore down ten at 23.75, and Premier down five at 2.25.

CAHAN WILLING TO WORK WEEKS

Must Clear Up Immigration Now, He Says—Press is Censured.

SENSATIONALISM CHARGED.

OTTAWA, May 23 (Canadian Press).—"If any person in Canada has any evidence, that would form a reasonable ground for suspicion against any member of Parliament, I am prepared to stay here for weeks," declared C. H. Cahan (Conservative, St. Lawrence-St. George) before the Parliamentary immigration inquiry this morning. "It is unjust to create a suspicion through the public press that there is something rotten in this matter of immigration which we are afraid to probe," declared Mr. Cahan, referring to an editorial in the Ottawa Citizen to-day.

Extracts from the editorial were read saying that the general opinion was that conditions in the Immigration Department were as unsatisfactory as they were in the Customs Department.

The press came in for condemnation from several members, the Hon. J. W. Edwards (Conservative, Frontenac-Addington) saying that the newspapermen of the press gallery seemed to be under the influence of the movies. They were simply catering to sensationalism. Dr. Young, Liberal, Saskatoon, declared he was tired of "these men who sit behind an editorial pen and cast slime on the members of Parliament."

2ND ARMOUR TROOP

The troop met at 7 o'clock and the boys enjoyed a series of games until 7.40. The Assistant Commissioner, F. L. Roy, then officiated in the investure of four boys who have proved themselves able and willing to become Scouts. Mr. Roy was assisted by G. E. Groombridge, S.M. There were also present, J. John, president of the Boy Scouts' Association; H. Dickin, and Scout Master C. Corbett.

The ceremony was ably carried out and the following boys were invested into the great brotherhood of Scouts, G. S. Williamson, J. Langley, K. Kelley, and W. Milliken.

The Assistant Commissioner then welcomed each boy and gave a short address to the troop.

This was followed by a short talk from Mr. Dickin. Mr. Corbett then gave the new Scouts a welcome in a hearty handshake. Mr. John also said a few words.

Each of these items was followed by a Scout yell from the troop and each new Scout was given a real welcome by the patrol leader and the troop as a whole.

The troop then carried on its practice and games.

After the troop was dismissed the new boys were welcomed to the court of honour and there given a bigger insight to Scouts and scouting.

OSHAWA TEAM TRAINING HARD

PERFORM WELL

OSHAWA, May 23.—The manner in which Oshawa's hopes in the Central Ontario Ball League's Senior series delved into their work at Alexandra Park was a revelation to the fans who attended.

Schultz, Burgoyne, Luke, et all, had their performers working in close harmony with pleasing results. No one can accuse the hard working executives of failing to give everyone a chance. Two teams went through their paces for the official "weeder's" inspection, but the conclusions arrived at will remain a secret until to-day at least. Schaffer and Elliott formed the battery on one team and were opposed by Matthews and Kohen. Schaffer, who is a product of Cobourg, took things fairly easy, apparently taking pity on some of the players who have not been in the batters' box long enough to get used to the breaks of the horse-hide. Matthews on the other hand breezed them in with rare abandon and Kohen found difficulty in holding him up. Matthew's "Johnstonian" efforts soon disclosed those who have a tendency to keep one foot in the water pail.

Elliott, on the receiving end of Schaffer's slants, displayed a nice style and was pegging the apple to second base on a dead line. Grouped around the Schaffer-Elliott combination was Keller at the initial sack, who was with the intermediates last season, Sutton, at second, who played for Chevrolets in Flint, Michigan, in 1927, Tommy Morrison, at short also of last year's team, and Gord Young of Motors Juniors covering the red-hot corner. Williams, Fair and Jones did Garden duty the first two being Intermediate players from last year and Jones coming up from the Juniors.

The opposition, batteryed by Matthews and Kohen, had Cook at first, Penu at second, McAllum at short and Shelenkoff at third. The latter is a Junior and hardly likely to go up this year. Penu is a stand-by from the Intermediates. Shaw, Bond and Kenny patrolled the outfield in impressive style, although both Shaw and Kenny are pitchers. Bond, who was with the Champion Deloro Intermediates for the last three years, will be able to play due to the residence rule.

The old reliable "Duke" Dainty confined his efforts to the "bullpen," taking keen delight in swelling up the hands of Manager Walt Schultz and a few others.

Dainty and Kenny are the portside flingers, with Shaw, Fair, Matthews and Schaffer hurling from the right side. Herb Wolfe was an absentee from the outfield, but will be back with Catcher Quinn in a day or so, the latter being out with an infected hand. "Bull" Whitely was unfortunate enough to sustain an injury to his knee and will take an enforced rest for a month or two.

The announcement of Mr. Gordon Smith that he would donate a razor to the first Oshawa playe to hit a home run started a few bets among the players about dispensing with shaving if they didn't win the prize. Secretary Harold Luke, however, drew the line at a House of David ball team.—Oshawa Times.

Woven in gold or platinum, and set with precious stones, knee bracelets have become a fashionable "fad" among women of Paris.

Entering a bank at Doncaster, England, recently, a valuable milch cow had to be slaughtered before it could be taken out.

"A good cry" is a certain aid to beauty, says a European expert, who declares that the flow of tears acts as a safety-valve to nerve strain, which injures the complexion.

KNIGHTS NAME J. J. DUFFUS STATE DEPUTY

Local Man Becomes Presiding Officer of Ontario Convention.

DELEGATE ATTENDS.

Papal Representative in Canada Visits Belleville To-day, Then Leaves For Peterborough.

BELLEVILLE, May 23 (Canadian Press).—At the election of officers of the Knights of Columbus to-day at the 26th annual convention, J. J. Duffus of Peterborough was elected State Deputy for the Province of Ontario. Other officers elected were: State Secretary, T. E. Brown, Ottawa; State Treasurer, A. B. Collins, Belleville; State Advocate, C. E. Sequin, Ottawa; State Warden, J. A. Sheedy, North Bay.

This afternoon His Excellency the Most Reverend Andrew Casulo, D.D., Papal Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, motored to the city, and, escorted by a bodyguard of convention delegates, was taken to St. Michael's Church, where an address of welcome was read and Papal Benediction given to the parish. Shortly after the Papal Delegate left for Peterborough by private train, where he will, with other dignitaries of the Church, commemorate the jubilee of the Peterborough Council of the Knights of Columbus.

OFFICIAL MAP VERY COMPLETE

Provincial Road Guide Shows Holiday Resorts and Camp Sites.

LAWS EXPLAINED.

A complimentary copy of the 1928 Official Government Road Map of Ontario, with index of cities, towns, and villages, has reached the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. On examination, this map reveals a fund of information hitherto lacking in the average map available to the motoring public. The famous holidaying sections are indicated in large red letters, such as the Kawartha Lakes, Muskoka Lakes, Algonquin Park, Rideau Lakes, Timagami Forest Reserve, Mississagi Reserve, etc. The mileage is indicated along the main highways as are camp sites and ferry points on the St. Lawrence River and Great Lakes. Several panels on the map are devoted to line cuts showing the principal cities in Ontario with cross city routes. Other panels are devoted to a synopsis of game laws, motor vehicle laws, Canadian and American customs regulations, etc.

The Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, in response to a request for a large supply of these maps to be distributed to tourists, has received the following letter from K. A. Cockburn, secretary, Department of Public Highways, which emphasizes the far-reaching effect of Chamber of Commerce and Trent Waterway publicity at the Motor Boat Show, New York, each year, and this spring at Ohio's second annual Outdoor and Sportsmen's Show, May 17 to 23 inclusive:

"I have your letter of the 18th instant, and perhaps you will be glad to know we have already received some additional enquiries from Americans who obtained a copy of our map in your booth at the National Motor Boat Show.

"As requested, we are sending you 400 copies under separate cover on the understanding that, as in the past, they will only be used for distribution by mail to prospective American tourists."

CLOSE CRICKET GAME.

St. Andrew's College Second Team Defeats Grove Boys 38 to 37.

The last open night of the season was held on Monday night in the form of a concert the following artists appearing: Miss Cross pianist; Miss Brady soprano; Frank Clark, banjo Mrs. Slade, solo, Mr. John, stories and recitations; Miss Cane, solo. Past Dictator Austin gave a talk on Moosehearf. An auction of goods donated by members was held, and an impromptu dance ended the evening to music furnished by Ferdie Mowry's Collegians.

SOFTBALL.

The North Enders this year have a real soft ball team that will give all the others a chase for the soft soft ball championship. They are composed of many old timers both in baseball and soft ball, and with a lot of young blood added that will add strength to the team.Percy Harrison, the manager, has a nice line-up signed up, which is composed of Dorrington, Dundas, Walton,Theobald, Baird Fraser, Vinette, Brothers, Green, Montgomery, Fleming, Allin, Ross, Lowe and Frenchie French.

Practices are being held every evening and when the season opens they will be ready to meet whoever they are matched against.

He cared.

Gradually Agnes Morse realized that he cared. And she cared. Cared for the man who could bring her nothing but solicitude and gentleness and decency and goodness.

AGNES MORSE was one of those women who might be said to have come grandly into their own. She came into her own, it is true, at the age of fifty-four, and at fifty-four Mrs. Morse looked it. That is, she was guiltless of the pretense of being anything other than her years. There was no attempt at the flub-dubbery of silhouette, marcelled bob, stilted heels and revealed leg of the grandmotherhood of her day. Agnes Morse was one of those women who had grown old frankly and rather beautifully.

Years of the toil and moil of widowhood and rearing of a successful family by the literal sweat of her brow, had left their inroads, it is true. She had not built up a fragment of a plate-glass concern left her by her husband the seventh year after their marriage into one of the largest concerns of its kind in the middle West, for naught. Twenty years of struggle and competition had cut deeply into the face of Agnes Morse and had given it strength and even a certain beauty that had not been there in the more placid years of her girlhood.

A LOOK of ability—of satisfaction at the daily mastering of a difficult job. A look of understanding and sympathy with the struggle of mankind. Understanding of his necessity to fight and conquer poverty. Sympathy with him in his failures.

For her accomplishment had not made Agnes Morse hard. She still remembered the worry and struggle of the years when she had not been sure whether she could make a go of her husband's business. Years when she did not know whether failure or success stood waiting, just around the corner, to meet her.

Twenty years—long years, but happy years, because they had been filled with activity and struggle, and because they had been crowned with everything she had worked for.

The ability to give her children what they wanted—what she wanted to give them. Health and happiness and comfort. A chance to meet life with a smile and a firm feeling of ability to master its obstacles and difficulties.

AND now, at fifty-four, with the plate-glass business sold at an astonishingly handsome profit, her three daughters handsomely married, from the social, financial and even romantic angle, Agnes Morse, respected in the town, a philanthropist, a club-woman, and still an executive, lived alone in the square stone house on Berkeley Street that she had bought the year that Adela, her eldest daughter, had made her debut.

It was so obvious that Agnes Morse was not the sort of woman to live with any one of her three daughters who would have welcomed that advent, that it was scarcely a matter of comment in the community. Ever since anyone could remember, Agnes Morse had been on her own, so to speak; had been both father and mother to her children; had been the head of her home and the head of her business. It was fantastic to even imagine Agnes Morse taking up her abode in the home of anyone else.

And so the house on Berkeley Street, strangely quiet now, but with the appearance of a household in which human life ran vibrantly, continued to keep its hearth-fires burning, so to speak.

A charming house, breathing of life and activity. A house that seemed to bear witness to the long years of pleasant, profitable struggle that had gone on under its roof. Years when Agnes, tired by her days of work and worry, had returned happily to the house that she kept so bravely over the orphaned heads of her children.

A home, in every sense. A house to harbor activity, vitality, the vigorous doings of a growing family. Or at least the more calm and settled activities of a busy adult group.

IF Agnes Morse, with her business successfully disposed of and the three pretty girls who had kept the house agog during their school days, their society days, their wooings and their marriages, felt panic in the sudden let-down in her scheme of life, she was not the one to show it.

She still maintained a proprietary interest in the plate-glass window business, drawing a small salary in an advisory capacity. She was the head of two local women's clubs, chairman of the largest philanthropic group in the state and with the three daughters and presently grandchildren living within a mile or two of the house on Berkeley Street, her days could scarcely be called vacant or dull.

It was the nights. Never any too good a sleeper, there settled upon Agnes Morse in the rather sudden quietude of these latter years, the disquietudes of insomnia.

FACT was, what with her enormous vitality, Mrs. Morse, her duties lightened, was not quite tired enough when night came. It was all well and good to attend a committee meeting, a motion picture theatre or dine at the home of one of her daughters or even have in a few guests for bridge. It was after the hours of evening diversion that the stark and rather terrifying things began to happen to Agnes Morse.

The house became a mausoleum. It was as if she sat in a tomb of her yesterdays. Out of the corners and out of the rafters and out of the attic-places, like mice, came stirring memories and heart aches and visions of loneliness that terrified her. After a while, it became a house of dreadful nights to Agnes Morse, which not even a visit to French Lick Springs or a motor trip to New York with one of her married daughters and son-in-law, could assuage.

Sometimes, at two or three in the morning, Mrs. Morse got up and dressed, fully. She was not the sort of woman who indulged in dressing-gowns. One doctor had offered a theory that these sleepless nights might be induced by hunger. In her state of nerves and desperation, Mrs. Morse sometimes prepared herself a small meal and set table in the dining-room to eat it.

A dainty meal, neatly served for its lone guest. Lights turned on, cloth spread, pretty china laid carefully, shining silver placed precisely. Steaming coffee, toast, perhaps. Sometimes fruit.

They could be pretty horrible, these feasts, because as she gulped down the food, tears rolled toward her lips and salted it. Any one of her three daughters, sleeping snugly and safely in their homes nearby, would have been horrified at the spectacle.

The woman sitting there, lonely and afraid, terrified at the thought of the years stretching out before her, years empty and solitary. Years filled with—nothing. Years in which she might rest and rest and rest.

The house, dark and somber, with a trail of light leading from Agnes's bedroom down to the big dining room. And a pool of brightness there, with the lonely, eager woman sitting there, trying to drown her loneliness in a familiar, comforting rite.

SOMETIMES, the night watchman, passing, tapped his stick, and that, to Mrs. Morse, was something to be grateful for. It meant a human being sharing the solitude of these dreadful watches of the dreadful nights. Once, when it was raining, Mrs. Morse stepped out on the front veranda and called him in for a cup of hot coffee and thick cream which was on the dining-room table. He was a new man on the beat. A gracious old gentleman who had apparently quite an assortment of qualifications still left in him for many things except the more strenuous one of night-watching.

He was just one of those genial old gentlefolk who can suddenly find that the world no longer needs him in any particular capacity.

The large elevator-construction company where he had held an office position for forty years, had decided that about him and this was the result—sharing a nip of midnight coffee with Mrs. Morse on his watchman's rounds. It was the beginning of a strange and eerie series of tete-a-tetes. The immaculately-proper Mrs. Morse; the gentle, slightly-bewildered, white-haired night watchman "breaking bread" together night after night at the witching-hour of two and three o'clock.

HE had about him the rather devastating capacity for solicitude that is so often characteristic of the gentle. He cared about Mrs. Morse's nerves. He exchanged with her the small-talk of his routine job, and yet his blue eyes were troubled for her. He brought her homely little home brewed sedatives and newspaper clippings that offered panacea to the sleepless.

He cared.

Gradually, there came to be borne upon Mrs. Morse's consciousness this incredible realization.

She cared. And that day, there came the further realization that she cared for a man who in every way represented the kind of inadequacy with which she had had to cope in other people all her life. A sort of appealing kind of inadequacy, it is true, the same kind that had ground the lines into her face. Her husband had been like that. Her three daughters, lovely and devoted, had been like that.

The night watchman was like that.

He could bring her nothing except solicitude and the inbred gentleness and decency and goodness that were writ all over him. But to Mrs. Morse, at fifty-four, it seemed that the miracle of life had taken place. Her family, her friends, her neighbors, gasping when the news finally descended upon them, could not understand.

But to Mrs. Morse, the miracle was that here in the twilight of her life, the shades of night were threatening to fall.

The night watchman, gentle, solicitous, caring, had come into her impending night, and Mrs. Morse was no longer afraid.

LOCAL COUNCIL HAS PROSPERED

Columbus in Ontario. They were Ottawa, Kingston and Cornwall. To-day there are sixty-one, the youngest being St. Gregory Council of Oshawa, which was recently formed with the assistance of Peterborough Council.

Peterborough Knights of Columbus have the fourth oldest Council in Ontario. For some years it was the western outpost of the society in Canada, and its membership was drawn from a large area including the cities and towns of London, St. Catharines, Kitchener, Toronto, Belleville, Orillia, Cobourg, Lindsay, and other centres. This diversity indicates that although the society was new and but little known it attracted Catholic men by its implication of satisfying their social needs.

In the Beginning.

The first Ontario charter was granted to Ottawa in 1899, and several years later Daniel O'Connell of Peterborough became a member of Ottawa Council, no doubt through his friendship with F. R. Latchford now the Honorable Chief Justice Latchford of the Ontario Second Divisional Court, who invited Mr. O'Connell to go to Ottawa for initiation. It is manifest, therefore, that Judge O'Connell, for many years an eminent member of the Ontario Bar and highly respected and prominent citizen of Peterborough, was a pioneer of the Knights of Columbus in this province. There were no branches of the Order in Central and Western Ontario, but the movement westerly seems to have set in as a result of Mr. O'Connell's affiliation. On July 1st, 1902, the following party went to Ottawa for initiation: Michael O'Brien, Dr. F. P. McNulty, Richard Sheehy, and John Corkery of this city, Augustus J. Gough of Toronto, and Bernard Gough of Lindsay. From their enthusiasm and interest sprang a proposal to apply for a charter and authority to form a Council in this city. This ambition was fully realized on Victoria Day in 1903. A class of some forty candidates was received into the Society that day. They marched to St. Peter's Cathedral where His Lordship the late Bishop R. A. O'Connor celebrated Pontifical Mass, and Rev. Father Whalen of Ottawa preached the sermon. Fraternal goodwill was expressed by the officers and members of the Cathedral of the officers and members of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society, the Catholic Order of Foresters and C.M.B.A.

Met in Law Office.

The first meeting of the new and inexperienced Council was held in Mr. O'Connell's law offices on the following July 1st. Officers were elected and a committee was authorized to arrange for Council quarters. These were presently rented over James Lynch"s drug store. In May, 1907, Knights of Columbus assumed the lease of the Elks Club in the Bradburn Block and also purchased its complete furnishings, and as these quarters soon became too small for the increasing membership the old Stevenson residence on Simcoe street was bought for $6,000 in 1911, and was enlarged and renovated in 1925 at an outlay of $16,000.

Famous Degree Team.

The Peterborough degree team which was organized and developed by Mr. O'Connell contributed some of the most colorful pages to the history of the Society during its first twenty-five years. Mr. O'Connell was literally thrust into this work. It is related that in 1906 when he was the State Deputy of Ontario, Ottawa Council had arranged for the exemplification of the Third Degree, and a New York team was engaged. Its leader, however, was taken suddenly ill a day or two before the date of the initiation, and an emergency call was sent to the Peterborough lawyer. He had only a few hours to learn the ritual, which he rehearsed all night on the train to Ottawa. The result was that his first degree work was said to have been among the best he ever presented. He was assisted on that occasion by the late Bernard McAllister and Mr. James O'Brien of Peterborough, and other members from the Ottawa district. For some years the Peterborough team was called to many western Ontario cities and towns, also to Quebec and even as far as Charlottetown, P.E.I. From Ottawa to London and from Belleville to Haileybury and North Bay and Chapleau, this team was in constant demand as the Order spread out into western and northern sections of the province.

The greatest historical event of the first quarter of the present century was the 1914-18 war. To assist in Canada's splendid contributions to victory, the Knights of Columbus undertook the collection of various funds, such as the Belgian Relief Fund, the Chaplain's Fund and the Catholic Army Huts Drive for the welfare and comfort of Canadian soldiers overseas. In this assistance Peterborough Council had a prominent share, and the enlistment of members for active service was recounted on Armistice Day in the thirty-five stars in the Council's flag.

Founded in 1882.

The complete story of the Knights of Columbus is told in the two volumes written by the late Maurice Francis Egan and John B. Kennedy, entitled "Knights of Columbus in Peace and War." The society was founded by the late Reverend Michael J. McGivney of New Haven, Conn., in 1882. In its inception it was a parochial society, evolving several similar Catholic societies, but its ideals exerted an instant and universal appeal among Catholic men.

Its expansion throughout the United States was rapid and by 1900 it had crossed into Canada. To-day it extends to all parts of North America, including Newfoundland, Alaska, Mexico, Cuba, Porto Rico and Panama. But the Board of Directors has so far considered it inadvisable to accede to requests for affiliation from the British Isles, Australia, New Zealand, France, and other European countries.

Volume 1 of the "Knights of Columbus in Peace and War" devotes a chapter to "The Fourth Degree and the Bogus Oath." "It is a strange paradox", the authors say, "that this degree conceived as an essentially patriotic feature of the general ritual and ceremonial of the Order, should have been the object of bitter hostility. Within the past six years (ending 1920) the Fourth Degree has been the target of violent attacks by bigots where professionalism has been proved beyond question through legal action promptly taken by officers of the Order. It seems almost fantastic to record that no less recent an authority than the United States Committee on Public Information felt obliged to stamp as traitors and designed to stir up internal enmities, the circulation of a bogus oath attributed to the Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus. Were it not for the malice behind its composition and propagation one would be inclined to laugh out of existence so grotesque an exaggeration of impotent hatred."

The authors of this K. of C. volume reprint this alleged oath, and relate the several actions for defamatory libel which were instituted as the result of the circulation of this "oath" and in which convictions were registered. One of these was in Newfoundland where the defendant Charles A. Swift pleaded guilty and apologized and the proceedings were withdrawn. In a case in Minnesota the Fourth Degree pledge was submitted to the court.

Submitted to Masons.

Finally, according to the K. of C. chronicle "In Peace and War" the Knights of Columbus in California submitted the entire work, ritual and pledges of the Order to a committee of Freemasons, composed of Messrs. Motley Hewes Flint, 33rd Degree Past Grand Master of Masons of California; Dana Reid Weller, 32nd Degree Past Grand Master of Masons of California; William Rhodes Hervey, 33rd Degree Past Master and Master of Scottish Rite Lodge, and Samuel E. Burke, 32nd Degree Past Master and Inspector of Masonic District. These gentleman issued the following statement:

"We hereby certify that by authority of the highest officer of the Knights of Columbus in the State of California, who acted under instructions from the Supreme Officer of the Order in the United States, we were furnished a complete copy of all the work, ceremonies and pledges used by the Order, and that we carefully read, discussed and examined the same. We found that while the Order is in a sense a secret association, it is not an oath bound organization and that its ceremonies are comprised in four degrees, which are intended to teach and inculcate principles that lie at the foundation of every great religion and every ffee state. Our examination of these ceremonials and obligations was made primarily for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not a certain alleged oath of the Knights of Columbus, which has been widely circulated, was in fact used by the Order and whether, if it was not used, any oath, obligation or pledge was used which was or would be offensive to Protestants or Masons, or those who are engaged in circulating a document of peculiar viciousness or wickedness.

We find that neither the alleged oath, nor any oath or pledge bearing the remotest resemblance thereto in matter, manner, spirit or purpose, is used or forms a part of the ceremonies of any degree of the Knights of Columbus. The alleged oath is scurrilous, wicked and libelous and must be an invention of an impious and venomous mind

We find that the Order of the Knights of Columbus as shown by its rituals, is dedicated to the Catholic religion, charity and patriotism. There is no propaganda proposed or taught against Protesants or Masons or persons not of Catholic faith. Indeed, Protestants and Masons are not referred to directly or indirectly in the ceremonials and pledges. The ceremonial of the Order teaches a high and noble patriotism, instills a love of country, inculcates a reverence for law and order, urges the conscientious and unselfish performance of civic duty and holds up the Constitution of our country as the richest and most precious possession of a Knight of the Order. We can find nothing in the entire ceremonials of the Order that to our minds could be objected to by any person."

Position of Canadans.

On page 340 of the same Volume 1 the fololwing reference to the position of Canadian members of the Order is found: "The case of the war relief work of the Canadian Knights illustrates clearly one of the principal reasons why there has always been a decided hesitancy to plant the Order on other than American soil. When the European war broke out and Canada flung her weight into the balance against the German Empire, the United States remained neutral, and the President of the United States urged all citizens of the Union to observe strict neutrality. The vast bul kof the membership of the Knights of Columbus was in the United States.... Questions have been asked concerning the inactivity of the Order, as a corporation, in the welfare of Canadian troops from the very outset of the war. But no action could possibly be taken to benefit the troops of any side of the conflict while the United States remained a neutral observer. The Supreme Board had no objections to interpose against the action of Canadian Knights, either individually or collectively, in their capacity as Canadian citizens loyal to the British Crown. In fact, everything they did for their country, whether on active or home service, was warmly applauded as an exhibition of the patriotism which is one of the first principles of Columbianism. But it was not until the United States had entered the war that the Supreme Board could give consent and moral support to the war relief work inaugurated by the Canadian Knights."

Wedding Bells

WILSON—MORTON.

OMEMEE, May 23.—A pretty spring wedding was solemnized in Omemee on May 16 when Marguerite Morton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Morton, became the bride of Wilford Wilson, youngest son of Mr. Hugh Wilson and the late Mrs. Wilson of Nestleton.

The Rev. E. W. Rowland of Trinity United Church performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Rowland.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a gown of pink silk crepe and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern. Miss Henry was the dainty bridesmaid, dressed in a frock of robin egg blue crepe. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. John Wilson of Nestleton.

Following the signing of the register, a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to over twenty guests, the table being artistically decorated with cut flowers.

The young couple travelled by motor to their home at Nestleton, the bride wearing a pretty tweed coat, a pink hat and scarf with blonde shoes and stockings.

Out-of-town guests present were: Mr. Hugh Wilson, father of the groom; Mr. Preston Latchford, of Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Wannacot, of Enniskillen; Miss King, of Peterborough; Mr. Wesley Morton and Miss Martha Morton of East Emily.

MAGUIRE—BOSSENCE

(From the Belfast, Ireland, News Letter)

St. John's Church, Laganbank, Belfast, was crowded on the occasion of hte wedding of the rector, Rev. C. W. Maguire, youngest son of the late Rev. William Maguire, and Miss Ada M. Bossence, fourth daughter of the late Mr. Francis G. Bossence (H.M. Customs, Belfast) and Mrs. Bossence.

A brother of the bridegroom, Rev. Finlay Maguire, Bangor, assisted by Rev. S. E. Cooney, M.A., and Rev. Johnstone Hunter, performed the marriage ceremony, and another brother, Rev. F. Scott Maguire, acted as best man.

The bride was accompanied by the Misses Ethel, Muriel, Blanche, and Louise Emily Bossence as bridesmaids. The service was fully choral. After the wedding a reception was held, and in the evening the newly married couple left by the Liverpool boat for England, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Amongst those present at the church service were many Ulster clergymen and representatives of the Church Lads' Brigade, in which the bridegroom is an officer. Members of the Brigade formed a guard of honor at the entrance to the church.

The bride's bouquet was composed of white roses, white iris, pink carnations, lily-of-the-valley, and asparagus fern, and was tied with white satin ribbon. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink carnations, "Clara Butt" tulips, and asparagus fern, tied with pink satin ribbon.

ZAIMIS CABINET RESIGNS TO-DAY

Venizelos Expected To Form New Government in Greece.

ATHENS, May 22 (Canadian Press).—The Coalition Government of Premier Zaimis resigned to-day after a brief life of somewhat more than three months.

Despatches from Athens last night predicting the resignation of the Cabinet said that Venizelos, strong man of Greece during the war, would probably be entrusted with the formation of a new government.

Carrying a sign, "We have traveled 3,000 miles looking for work. I have a wife and three children to support," a man was fined in Glasgow, Scotland, for taking his two children from Ireland to beg on the streets.

OCEAN SHIPPERS OPPOSE SCHEME

Think St. Lawrence Waterway Not Justified at Present, Says Spokesman.

OTTAWA, May 22. — Canadian Press. — "It is our firm conviction that, as far as Canada is concerned, the project is untimely and unnecessary," said A. L. W. MacCallum, manager of the Shipping Federation of Canada, to the Senate Committee on Waterways to-day with respect to the St. Lawrence project.

Mr. MacCallum assured the committee that his organization was concerned only with ocean shipping, and that it was not wedded to any particular port or ports in Canada. It felt, however, that the immense expenditure on such a scheme as the St. Lawrence waterways could only be justified if it was proven that the benefits would be large.

The federation had given special consideration to the matter and it had come to the conclusion that the expenditure at present was not warranted.

CANADIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

3 Day Cruise

JUNE 4th, 5th, and 6th.

THE magnificent new steamship "Tadoussac" has been engaged to take the members of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce on a three-day cruise, leaving Montreal June 4th and continuing on to the Saguenay.

At St. Alphonse the party will leave the ship for an automobile tour through part of the Lake St. John district, rejoining the ship at Chicoutimi. From there they will proceed to Tadoussac and Murray Bay where they will enjoy an afternoon of golf, and thence to Quebec, arriving on the morning of the 7th ready for the first day of the Convention.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

Death strikes GARRETT FOLSOM while bathing with a party at Ocean Town, N.J. At the Hotel Majusaca, where they had been guests, an inquiry is begun, after a doctor, perfunctorily examining him on the beach, pronounces him dead.

Folsom's companions had been ROGER NEVILLE, MRS. HELEN BARNABY and CARMELITA VALDON. It is established that Folsom, just before his death, had been standing next to NED BARRON, known as the copper king.

Folsom's sister, ANASTASIA, is sent for in New York. Then the startling announcement is made that Folsom had been stabbed to death in the water. ROSS, his valet, is questioned, as are Barron and his wife, but no light is shed on the mystery.

Anastasia Folsom, eccentric and masterful, takes command. An inquest is ordered and many attend.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XV.

The first witness called was, of course, Doctor Manning.

He testified that he was in the ocean for his daily salt-water bath. That he heard a commotion near him.

"Just what was the commotion?" the coroner asked. "Describe it, please."

"It's not easy to describe," Doctor Manning said, thinking deeply. "For the roar of the surf drowned most other noises or distorted them beyond discernment. But, as nearly as I can recollect, I heard two or three people scream in what seemed to me a different way from the hilarious shouts of the bathers. Then, as I looked toward the noise I heard, I saw two of the life guards swimming vigorously that way. They seemed to be intent on some errand, so I watched them. They went directly toward the rope and diving beneath the surf came up immediately, bearing what seemed to be the unconscious body of a man. Though naturally somewhat interested, I paid little attention to it. But a moment later one of the guards came down to the edge of the water and called out: "'Doctor—is there a doctor here?'

"Realizing the need for immediate medical service, I hurried to the beach and found the man who had been carried there wrapped in a blanket and lying on the sand. I saw at a glance that he was dead. I felt his heart and his pulse and then, assured that life was entirely extinct, I told them so, and, as there was no further request for my services, I went back into the ocean. Then, after my bath, as I had a luncheon engagement, I went away and did not return until late in the afternoon.

"Then the management of the hotel asked me for a certificate of death. This, of course, necessitated a more thorough examination, and then I discovered that death had followed a stab in the abdomen of the deceased man."

"With what sort of a weapon, Doctor Manning?" asked the coroner.

"So far as I can judge it was a long sharp-bladed knife or dagger. I should say a knife because the incision that it made is wider at one end than at the other. This incision is rather more than an inch, proving a sharp instrument, whose blade was a little over an inch wide. The incision is a clean, straight cut, but one end of it is perhaps an eighth of an inch and the other of no width at all. This shows, apparently, a blade like a knife blade, with only one cutting edge. Not like a dagger blade, which has two sharp sides."

"Could this have been the instrument of death, Doctor Manning?"

The coroner held out to him a long sharp knife, much the size and shape of a carving knife, a small one, such as is known as a steak carver.

Doctor Manning took the weapon in his hand and examined it closely. "So far as I can judge," he said, "that is precisely the kind of knife that would make the incision I discovered on the dead man."

A breathless silence fell on the audience.

"This knife," the coroner proceeded, "was brought to me a few moments before this inquest was opened. It was given me by a man who is now before me. Mr. Tracy, will you tell of finding this knife?"

A little embarrassed, Stephen Tracy stepped forward. He was the man to whom Miss Folsom had talked that morning, but who then had said nothing of the knife.

"I stood near Mr. Folsom when he went under yesterday," Tracy said, "and not long after that I felt something on the sand under my feet. I stooped down and picked it up, and it was that knife. I didn't turn it in at once, for at first there was no thought of the gentleman being stabbed. Then later, when I heard what had happened to him, I thought—I thought that might be the weapon that was used. It's a—a carving knife, I suppose."

"No, Mr. Tracy," Jepson informed him, "it is not a carving knife. At least, I have never seen a carver of that kind of steel, or with such workmanship. And the handle, or hilt. If you notice you will see that it is of ivory, carved with a design and an inscription. Carving knives are not like that. This weapon, Mr. Tracy, is a pichaq."

"A pick ax!" cried the bewildered witness.

"No. A pichaq, which is a dagger of rarity and value, from some Persian or Turkish country."

There was a stir in the back of the room, and a man rose in his place.

"May I interrupt," he said, in a low, clear voice, "to ask if the pichaq in question will fit this scabbard?"

Stepping forward, he handed to the coroner a scabbard of metal and covered with worn velvet of a violet color. The pichaq, as it was called, fitted it so perfectly there could be no doubt they were made for each other.

James Hubbard, the coroner, experienced a decided feeling of satisfaction as he inserted the wicked-looking blade into the ornate scabbard and found them a perfect fit.

"At last," he thought to himself, "we have a clue."

Aloud, he said:

"Will you give me your name, sir?"

"Certainly," returned the man who had produced the scabbard. "I am Everard Meeker, of Portland, Me. I am staying at the Victoria Hotel, in Ocean Town. I have been here a fortnight or so."

"And where did you get the scabbard you have just handed me?"

"I found it in the ocean yesterday soon after Mr. Folsom had been carried ashore."

"Near where Mr. Folsom had been standing by the rope?"

"Not very near that spot. Perhaps a hundred feet away."

Mr. Meeker was a tall, portly gentleman, with the general effect of a prosperous business man. He had a pleasant address, and a genial twinkle in his eye. Although he seemed to realize the gravity of the situation, he also seemed to enjoy the mild sensation he was creating. His interested gaze swept the crowd of attentive faces as he stood with one hand on the coroner's table.

"You found this in the ocean?"

"Yes. I chanced to step on it in much the same way; I suppose, as Mr. Tracy stepped on the knife that belongs to it. As has been said, Mr. Coroner, that knife or dagger is the weapon known as a pichaq and is of Oriental manufacture. Now, personally, I can tell you no more of the matter than that, except that I can tell you where that dagger came from."

"Please do so, Mr. Meeker."

A hush fell over the assembly as they awaited the first real information regarding the weapon that, in all probability, was the one that had killed Garrett Folsom.

Miss Folsom stared at the witness, until it almost seemed her eyes would bore into his very soul. She looked like an avenging fate as her strong, stern face set itself into an expression of accusation.

Yet it was obvious that the man, Meeker, could not have been implicated in the crime, or he would not have offered the scabbard of the weapon as evidence.

"It came," Everard Meeker stated, "from a shop on the boardwalk. It was sold there Thursday evening, at an auction of Oriental curios. I was at the auction as I am, in a small way, a collector of rare objects of art, and especially interested in Oriental metal work."

"And you know this dagger and its scabbard, together, were sold there that night?" Hubbard eagerly inquired.

"I know it was in the collection that was sold that night. I examined the whole collection before the sale, and I remember perfectly well that pichaq, with its carved ivory hilt and its worn violet velvet scabbard. A pichaq, as you may or may not know, is a weapon shaped almost exactly like a small carving knife. It has a straight blade, not curved, and is a type made in India, Persia or Turkey in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Any collector of arms would recognize it at once, but to the layman it looks astonishingly like a steak carver."

"Your information, Mr. Meeker, is of the greatest importance. Have you any idea who bought this—er—pichaq?"

"No, it was sold after I left the auction room. I went there for the express purpose of acquiring an Indian parade dagger, that I desired. I bought it within the price I had set as my limit, and greatly pleased with my purchase, I went home."

FISH AND CHIPS ON SALE AGAIN

Sidney Whatley Opens Cafe For Sale of Popular Dish.

EXPERIENCED CATERER.

On Saturday last there opened at 193 Charlotte street a bright, clean little cafe under the proprietorship of Sidney Whatley where one may obtain fresh fried fish and chip potatoes, cooked to the king's taste. The place, though formerly a cafe, has been completely renovated and Mr. Whatley has adopted the motto "Cleanliness with service."

Fish dinners are served and orders filled for the home dinner table, whether halibut or fresh fillet be asked for. Later there will be stocked all grades of wet and smoked fish.

Mr. Whatley has been at this kind of work before and is well qualified to please his customers. While in India with Imperial forces he catered to the officers' mess of his unit and has been in business in the Old Country.

Mr. Whatley is proud of the fact that he was the oldest in service secretary of G.W.V.A. and Canadian Legion work and intends continuing with the work of pensions and adjustments.

PRESIDENT URGES RESEARCH AS MEANS OF INCREASING INDUSTRIAL EFFICIENCY

Royal Society of Canada Holding Conference in Winnipeg.

RESTS ON EDUCATION

Advocates Closer Co-operation Between Agencies Working in Field of Research.

WINNIPEG, Man., May 3.—(Canadian Press.)— A plea for research as a means of increasing industrial efficiency was urged by Dr. H. M. Tory president of the National Research Council in his address before Section 3 (chemical, mathematical and physical sciences) of the Royal Society of Canada, which was read by Prof. Allen, Winnipeg, here yesterday. The president advised the members that he was unavoidably detained and would not be able to attend the conference.

The co-ordination of technical and vocational education and closer co-operation between agencies working in the field of research, was advocated by Dr. Tory as a means of increasing industrial efficiency from a scientific viewpoint. Industrial development of the future he said must essentially rest upon the public education of the community so that elementary and high school education had a definite relation to industrial development.

Need Co-operation.

"The organization of this work must of necessity be under provincial authority but as the whole problem is of such national importance there certainly should be brought to bear upon it the co-operation of the men most capable of dealing with these problems irrespective of provincial boundaries.

"In developing graduate research schools, Dr. Tory continued, the National Research Council may assist in providing means for special equipment and increase its grants for schqlarships; beyond this point, however, the responsibility must lie with the provinces. Here again there is room for co-ordianted effort on the part of our major universities."

It was an outstanding fact, the speaker asserted, that public attitude towards research in relation to national development, had undergone a drastic change due largely to the fact that industrial men had come to understand the possibilities of pure research, and also because scientists had broken away from their tradition of isolation from the industrial world.

"In agriculture the corresponding institutions are the colleges of agriculture From these institutions are drawn at the present moment almost entirely the directitve agencies which control the agriculture of the world." Ranking above all these, however Dr. Tory placed the graduate school of the great universities "when men are brought face to face with the unsolved problems of science" and trained in methods of attacking their solution.

The speaker further stressed the need of better organization of the work of standardization in Canada. Time after time, he said, it had been emphasized that the industries of the Dominion were almost entirely dependent upon laboratories outside the country to certify whether equipment manufactured in Canada was suitable to the country's needs.

It was the considered judgment of the National Research Council, he said, when a system of national research laboratories was established by the central government, the provinces through the universities, carrying out suggestions regarding the development of post-graduate schools for research, the most effective means will have been found for correlating pure research into the industrial system of the country.

"It is perfectly clear to those connected with the operations of the Council, and it must be apparent to everyone who considers the matter seriously, that if Canada is to maintain her place in world trade, her greatest need is the provision of adequate laboratory facilities where researches of an industrial character can be carried out," Dr Tory concluded.

The Little Clod Hopper.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 23. — One of the fastest moving and most entertaining plays that has been staged under local talent here for some time was given in the school room of the United Church last night, under the auspices of the Young People's Society. Every available seat was occupied and the audience expressed their appreciation at various points of the play's progress. The title role was played by Miss Audrey Cassan, and the general opinion was that she played her part exceptionally well. Miss Velma Runnels also played a heavy part as the beautiful lady who is attempting to hatch a deep dark plot. The young people are being widely acclaimed as artists of the profession.

The cast calls for a large number of characters, but several of these have no speaking part, appearing as guests and villagers only. The program was augmented by several extra numbers. The first was a male quartette group, "Keep on Hoping" and "Until," sung by Messrs. Hasel, Bygott,(Richardson and Henson. After the first act, A. Hazell sang a baritone solo which was greatly appreciated. There was also a violin duet by the Richardson brothers, whose playing is always well applauded. Between the second and third acts the musical trio, Cecil Searles, violin; Ed. Roberts, banjo, and Miss Cherrie Turner, piano, was encored, as was also Mrs. Frank DeCarroll's vocal solo. The Rev. Ernest Harston took the opportunity after the solo to express the appreciation of the society and himself to those from outside its membership who had assisted with the program..

The cast for "The Little Clod Hopper"; Juliette Bean, a Splinterville boarding house keeper, Helen Thomas; Ocey Gump, her hired man, Fred Palliser; Mrs. Chiggerson-Boggs, a widow with a scheme, Velma Runnels; George, her son, an innocent little lamb, Ronald Hazell; Septimus Green, a young book agent, Roy Barnum; Charmaine Carter, a vampire, Cherry Turner; Judy Elliot, the little clod hopper from the county poorhouse, Audrey Cassan; the silent villagers: Miss Nettie Forde, Miss Ruth Taylor, Miss Verna Sanders, Morley Horseman, and Millar Donald.

SEYMOUR LOSES POPULAR PASTOR

Rev. C. D. Daniel Accepts Call To Sunderland United Church.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 23.—After four years, Seymour is to lose one of the most popular ministers for many years, the Rev. C. D. Daniel. Mr. Daniel has accepted a call to the East Toronto Presbytery in the Toronto Conference, and will assume his duties as minister of the United Church in Sunderland on the first Sunday in July.

Mr. Daniel has been widely known throughout this district during his time as minister on the Seymour circuit, both as a clergyman and a devotee of all forms of active sport. He is unofficially referred to as the "Sporting Parson," and there is every reason to believe that he has earned the title. In the affairs of the church, Mr. Daniels has been exceedingly popular among the young people. His removal from this conference will necessitate his resignation from many of the church and sport organizations. Among the positions which become vacant when he departs are: Secretary-treasurer of the Bay of Quinte Conference and of the Winter School held in Cobourg each winter for the education of church workers; Convenor of the Christian Fellowship department of the Young People's Eccieties of the Bay of Quinte Conference; Director for the Conference for the Summer Navigation Excursion; leader of the recreational group of the Young People's Summer School at Oak Lake Park.

In Campbellford, Mr. Daniel has been active along the lines of local sport. Last Winter he was vice-president of the town hockey league. This Summer he is president of the softball league. He is also county secretary of the hardball league. Whenever the pressure of duty will permit, Mr. Daniel does not allow himself to be content with executive work, but takes his place on the regular team line up. This Summer he has been signed to play with the Wooden Soldiers, and will be one of the clerical battery on which the veterans have based their hopes of victory.

The official board of Mr. Daniel's charge will meet at the parsonage Wednesday night to select his successor.

Norham

NORHAM, May 23.—Miss Margaret Clare has returned home after completing her fourth year at Victoria College.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Eatock, of Toronto visited relatives in Norham over the week-end.

Mrs. Mary Clare who has been visiting at the parsonage for some time returned to Toronto on Sunday.

Miss Mildred Curtis and her father, Mr. H. Curtis, attended a funeral in Belleville on Saturday.

The "flu"" stil l has its hold on the people of Norham. The attendance at school last week was reduced through illness to one-half the number on the roll.

Doctors Order 72 Year Old Army Head To Abandon All Engagements.

LONDON, May 23 (Canadian Press) —General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, has been ordered to take a complete rest and relief from all public engagements temporarily. He is 72 years old.

McGraw's Leg Broken In Taxi Accident

NEW YORK, May 23.—(Canadian Press.)—Examination under an X-ray yesterday revealed two breaks in a small bone in the leg of John J. McGraw, who was struck by a taxicab in Chicago recently.

The Giants manager will remain in his home at Pelham through the Brooklyn series, but expects to direct the team on its return to the Polo Grounds on Friday.

McGraw's leg was placed in a plaster cast yesterday. He will be forced to use crutches for several weeks.

Is fast driving safe?

Twenty odd years ago the young fellow with goggles who roared along the road at 20 miles an hour was a reckless speed demon—a public menace. To-day we step on the gas, toss the swift miles behind, and watch the speedometer creep up to 40, 50 or more. Broader, smoother highways, 4-wheel brakes and balloon tires have made fast driving comparatively safe.

But while high speeds are safe for the motorist they are not always safe for the motor. Tests show that 45 miles an hour is the danger point in motor lubrication. At high speed few oils have the stamina to safeguard a motor. Greater heat is developed. Ordinary motor oils fail. The thin oil film covering the cylinder walls and bearings gives way and burns, leaving vital parts exposed. Intense heat and friction cause burnt out bearings and engine trouble.

Motor design has changed radically of late. The new high-compression motors operating at high speeds develop more heat and friction. To meet this condition Veedol motor oils that give that fighting "film of protection," have been reformulated. Heavier-bodied, tougher, longer-lived than ever, Veedol is the "fightingest" oil that ever tanned heat. Correct for the new motors, it is better for any motor. Thin as tissue, smooth as silk, tough as steel, the Veedol film gives added motor protection, longer mileage and greater economy. Have your crankcase filled with the new Veedol and let this heat-resisting oil give your motor the extra protection it requires.

GAS DISSIPATED; MANY STILL ILL

More Than 200 Persons In Hospitals—Physicians Fear After Effects.

LINGER FOR YEARS.

HAMBURG Germany, May 22. — (Canadian Press.)—A cloud of phosgene, one of the deadliest of war gasses, which hung over Hamburg and claimed eleven lives, had been dissipated, but its menace lingered to-day.

More than 200 persons were in hospitals suffering from phosgene poisoning and efforts were being made to save their lives. The authorities said that many of these might die since the gas sometimes did not have fatal effects until a week after it had been inhaled. Physicians feared even those discharged as cured may be afflicted with lung trouble for years.

All the gas stored at the plant from which the gas came has been ordered sent out of the city by the police. The districts in which the gas tanks stand are closed to all persons.

Millbrook

MILLBROOK, May 23—Among those from Millbrook Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 308, who motored to Pontypool on Sunday evening and attended divine worship with the Oddfellows of that town at the United Church, were: Brothers P. I. Bentley, P. G.; R. I. Fallis, P.G.; H. A. Fallis, P.G.; W. E. Ball, P.G., and Harry Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sayles and son George, and Mrs. E. Kenyon of Peterborough, motored to Toronto and spent the week-end with their daughter, Miss Marjorie Sayles.

Miss Shirley L. Muir was a visitor to Peterborough on Saturday and attended "Bubbling Over," the Dumbells revue, at the Grand.

Postmaster T. H. Collins, and Miss Mamie Collins motored to Toronto and spent the week-end in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duncan and family, who have been residents here for the past two years, removed to Orono to reside on Monday.

The many friends of Rev. S. T. Tucker, a former pastor on the United Church here, will regret to learn that he has been seriously ill with 'flu for several weeks past, and has been unable to occupy his own pulpit for at least two months. The church officials at Dorchester have granted Mr. Tucker a further six weeks' absence, and more if necessary, and he and Mrs. Tucker have gone to their summer home at Wasaga Beach for his convalescence. Heart weakness in a severe form is an after effect of the attack of 'flu.

Mrs. (Dr.) Brand of Toronto, and Mrs. E. Davis of Los Angeles, California, were in town for a brief visit last Friday and called upon a few friends. Mrs. Davis was formerly Marjorie Ough, only daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Ough, and spent her girlhood days in Millbrook. Her only brother, Reg. Ough, died last January. Mrs. Davis has a family of four children, the eldest, a son, being married. She has been organist of one of the leading churches in Los Angeles practically ever since going to that city to reside quite a number of years ago.

Mr. Graham Russell, who has spent the winter at Technical School, Toronto, is home for the summer months.

Cavan

CAVAN, May 23.—Mrs. Albert Elliott visited her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Hutchinson, of Norwood, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Parnell of Newcastle visited friends here on Sunday.

Mr. Oakley Carley, of Toronto, is spending a few days with friends here.

Miss Florence Stark spent the week-end at her home in Nestleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fidgett and family, of Eldorado, were week-end guests with Mr. and Mrs. W. Card.

Mr. Harold Kincaide, who has been ill in Nicholls Hospital for the past twelve weeks, has returned to his home.

Mrs. Ida Keegan has returned to her home after spending the winter in Peterborough.

Mr. J. W. Howson left on Monday morning for Oshawa.

Mr. J. Grandy was a visitor to Myrtle last week.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanrahan, of Montreal, formerly of Peterborough, will be interested in the success of their little daughter Patricia, who recently appeared in a classical fantasy entitled "The Golden Age,' 'presented at the Princess Theatre in Montreal by members of Esak Ruvenoff School of Dancing. Little Patricia had one of the principal dancing roles among the younger children, and appeared several times during the production. S. Morgan-Powell, dramatic critic of The Montreal Star, gave the performance a lengthy and very complimentary review. He said, in part: "Among the divertissements were many obviously designed to afford the little tots opportunities to show what they could do, but in no instance was a dance devoid of definite significance as dancing. For instance, a Kosatski, by S. Katz, danced by P. Hanrahan, and later by E. Rafael, made the audience literally sit up and take notice because each little one showed remarkable dexterity, control of muscles, and understanding of the rhythms and steps — which, by the way, are not easy ,even for grown-up folk."

A large number of the congregation and choir of Centreville Presbyterian Church, of which Miss Wood was a member, were present, the pastor of the church, Rev. J. Riddell, acting as chairman for the occasion. A musical program followed brief addresses by the chairman, Reeve W. C. Wood, and Mr. D. N. Dodds. Piano solo numbers were given by Miss G. Hutchinson and Miss Viola White, Miss D. Hall gave a reading, and Mr. McIntyre, a visitor from Glasgow, Scotland, sang "The Family Album" and an encore number. Later, refreshments were served by a committee of ladies.

On Monday evening, May 21st, St. George's A.Y.P.A. held their annual banquet, which brought to a close a most successful season. The banquet was served at long tables, beautifully decorated with streamers of blue and white, with blue and white candles in silver stands. This was accomplished through the generous and untiring efforts of Mesdames Andrews, Brownlie and Parkes, and the result was most satisfying and successful. Short addresses were given by the rector, Rev. Mr. Hughes, Miss M. Huxley, the President, Mr. S. Robertson and Miss I. Howarth. A cordial vote of thanks on behalf of the A.Y.P.A. was moved by Mr. J. Cuffe to the ladies for their kindness in providing the banquet. The entertainment committee then took charge, the tables were cleared away, and the balance of the evening was spent in the enjoyment of varied amusements and community singing.

Bright sunshine favored the tea and exhibit held yesterday in aid of the Grenfell Mission at the home of Mrs. Gordon Langley Ashburnham. The exhibit of new work prepared for the bale, which is to be sent shortly to the Labrador coast, was held on the verandah. Admiration for the quality and amount of work accomplished by the missionary societies of the churches, and the Thursday club was expressed by the large number of ladies present. There were sweaters scarves, toques, dresses, coats, socks, knickers and warm underwear. The work was in charge of Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. W. E. Conway and Mrs. McWilliams. A small sale of home-made cocking also took place on the verandah. This was in charge of Mrs. S. D. Carver. The guests were received by the president, Miss H. S. Peck and Mrs. Langley. Mrs. R. J. Devey presided at the door, and Mrs. F. M. Somerville showed the ladies into the dining room, where tea was poured by Mrs. W. R. Morris, for many years a president of the Grenfell Mision in Peterborough. Those assisting in the tea room were Mrs. A. F. Bookhout, Mrs. Norman Seaton, Miss May Denne and Miss Grace Reinhardt. The floral decorations were carried out in tulips, narcissi, apple blossoms and marsh marigolds.

DRESS

By MARY MARSHALL

This close-fitting beret is of antelope dyed a soft beige and is also shown in other pastel colors.

If you want to look particularly Parisian wear a beret. Fashions come and fashions go—but the beret type of hat goes on forever in Paris. And Americans in Paris now and for a number of years in the past are impressed with the fact that French women wear berets rather more than Americans do. I should say—Americans who have time, between sightseeing and shopping, to notice what French women are wearing. One reason that the beret is so highly favored over there is because it is a type of hat that lends itself especially well to individual treatment—and French women are much less disposed than Americans to buy their hats ready made.

Suzanne Talbot's so-called middy beret has met with considerable popularity here this season. Made in wool and metallic braid it is a very lightweight, soft, wearable little hat with a little draping at the top and a band of narrow ribbon around the edge that is tied in a little bow that extends down over one cheek. It is characteristic of all this season's berets that they are quite scant. There is much less fullness in the crown, and this when present is usually draped quite closely to the head. Some of the youthful berets have no crown fullness at all—but are drawn closely over the head like a real Basque beret.

One has to keep a tight hold on the purse nowadays not to be led into extravagance with the new handkerchiefs. If you have adopted the fashion for the large evening handkerchief you will want one to wear with every evening gown in your wardrobe. There are black chiffon squares with border or corners of white lace, and white chiffon squares with black lace. And for all the lovely light evening shades that one finds in evening frocks there are pastel-toned chiffon handkerchiefs to go with them.

Why We Do What We Do.

WHY THE GROOM IS MORE NERVOUS THAN THE BRIDE

By Mehran K. Thomson, Ph.D.
(Author, The Springs of Human Action)

Perhaps you do not agree that the groom is more nervous than the bride at the wedding. If that is the case let us hear from you. In the meanwhile we will try to account for the observation and testimony of many who say that the groom is usually more nervous.

At times the groom's nervousness is pathetic. One correspondent asserts that at a wedding which he attended the groom was so nervous that he could not go on with the ceremony and fainted.

The bride is usually less nervous because she is more interested in what is going on. She is thinking of the beautiful decorations, the guests in their best finery, and of her own appearance and of her maids. For her it is one grand occasion, the greatest of her life. The ceremony is enjoyed for its own sake, while for the groom the ceremony is a means, something to go through with and have over as quickly as possible.

The groom is more nervous because he is inclined to be self-conscious. Men as a rule do not receive the same amount of attention as women. They are less at ease in a mixed company, especially when all eyes are turned in their direction.

Men who are accustomed to evening dress and formal parties are not likely to be as nervous during the wedding as the groom who dolls up in full dress for the first time. Since most men fight shy of formal affairs it is not uncommon for some to approach the wedding ceremony without ever having donned the formal regalia. Women, however, are always having teas and formal parties of one sort or another. It comes more natural to them, it is a part of their life. For these reasons the bride stands the ordeal of a wedding ceremony with a lot more grace and less nervousness than does her partner.

HOROSCOPE

The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate.)

FOR THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1928.

Conflicting planetary influences are strong today, according to astrology, which reads benefic aspects as dominant.

The early morning hours are auspicious for planning and for outlining courses of action.

While the brain will be active and the vision clear, it is well not to put the test to any financial venture by soliciting loans from banks. This is a forbidding day for business with banks.

There is fair promise for those who seek employment, but they may have difficulty in finding just what they want.

The evening is a good time for entertaining persons of importance. There is a favorable sign for banquets.

The seers prophesy that talking will become a prevalent vice which the radio encourages. They warn that it may be unfortunate for a presidential candidate.

As the first day of June draws near the seers foretell a summer of variable weather, storms and extraordinary happenings.

Astrologers prophesy the rise of more dictators in the world and explain this because the people imagine dictators as representing a certain type of democracy.

While dictators gain power in Europe new leaders are to be recognized here in this country, it is foretold.

A new invention that will revolutionize the motion picture industry is prognosticated.

Mexico is to suffer from earthquakes as never before in its history, according to the seers.

Children born on this day are supposed to be highly favored. Success and happiness are indicated for them.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of real prosperity.

WOMEN WHO ARE WEARY

Gain New Vitality By Taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There are many women who pass their days in a constant state of weariness, The have barely sufficient energy to enable them to perform their manifold duties. Often they have an aching head, a miserable pain in the back, and limbs that feel as heavy as lead. The whole trouble is due to bloodlessness. This anaemia, or lack of good blood, causes not only pale faces and white lips; it is the root of many of the pains and miseries from which women suffer. It is said that anaemia causes nine-tenths of women's ailments. Lack of blood robs a woman of all her energy; she loses her breath when going upstairs, becomes despondent and irritable; and seems to lose interest in life.

No woman need suffer in this way. It is easy to obtain a supply of rich red blood by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The new blood created by these pills rapidly builds up the system; headaches and backaches disappear, energy returns and the joy of living is felt once more.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers, or can be had by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Givecon fidence

A CURE FOR HICCUPS.

Occasionally we read of some prominent individual dying of hiccups, after practically every remedy was tried without success. Most cases of hiccups are only of short duration, however, and usually the nervous system can be restored by taking a long drink of cold water, or breathing in and out deeply a number of times.

This disorder often comes on after a hearty meal which causes a pressure on the diaphragm. It is a spasmodic contraction of the muscular diaphragm, which we use for breathing. This contraction is either nervous in origin, or is caused by irritation or pressure on the diaphragm.

When too much food starts the contraction, this may continue until the stomach has become empty, which may require eight or ten hours. By this time the diaphragm is apt to be sore and irritated and keep on with its spastic jerks unless a remedy is employed.

Hiccups may develop in the course of wasting diseases or from brain irritation, kidney stones or pelvic disorders. In any of these conditions, the principal disease should be cared for, but a great relief will result from stopping the hiccups.

I have been able to stop every case that has come to my attention within a few minutes by the simple treatment of pressure upon the central cervical plexus. This is a collection of nerve bodies located on each side of the spine about the middle of the neck.

The patient may administer this treatment himself by placing the fingers of each hand firmly on the sides of his neck, pulling forward and, at the same time, bending the head back as far as possible. The reason is that this pressure inhibits the nerves supplying the diaphragm. This nerve may also be deadened temporarily by the application of ice to each side of the neck.

Should this self-applied treatment not be sufficient to stop the trouble, it would be well to call in an osteopath or chiropractor who, by making pressure at exactly the right spot, will stop the spasms almost instantly.

Of course, you realize that if there is a chronic cause, the hiccup is apt to return in a few hours, and every effort should be employed to ascertain and cure the original cause.

After dinner sufferers should remember what I have said about avoiding eating too much, eating too rapidly, or using food that produces too much stomach gas. By acting accordingly, they can avoid having future attacks.

Questions and Answers.

Question—Mrs. Jas. W. writes: "I have been paralyzed for several months from high blood pressure. It first started in two fingers on the left hand and finally went up in the arm and all over the left side. Have taken electric treatments, and have done everything I know, but get no better. Can you help me in any way?"

Answer: Your high blood pressure can be reduced to practically normal through fasting and dieting. The paralysis will disappear as soon as the blood-clot has been absorbed, but you can only accomplish this by living on the most rigid diet. The D'Arsenvol high frequency treatment will temporarily reduce your blood pressure after each treatment, but does not have any permanent effect.

Question—Housekeeper writes: "I am very interested in your health column, and am being greatly benefited, but am having difficulty in knowing which foods to combine. Will you please give some kind of a rule to go by?"

Answer: Proteins, which are the meats, cheeses, nuts, etc., properly combined with non-starchy and salad vegetables, such as string beans, spinach, celery, etc., are extremely easy to digest. The starches, such as potatoes, macaroni, rice, should also be combined with the non-starchy or salad vegetables but never with the proteins. Just remember this, and study the menus given in this column each week and it will soon become very easy for you to select good foods and combine them correctly. I have prepared a special article on "Food Combinations" which I will be glad to send to you on receipt of a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

LYRICS OF LIFE

THE BIRD OF HOPE

One little bird keeps singing on,
Even after the day is gone,
One little bird sings a note or two,
Even after the day is through.
Some say robin, and some say wren,
Some will say it's a bluebird then;
Some may wonder, and some may grope,
But I know that bird, and his name is hope.

One little bird never failed me yet,
Even after the sun had set.
I went to bed on a bed of tears,
One little song in my weary ears.
I might have slept till the sun was high,
I might not rise, and I might not try,
But there at dawn on my window sill
One little bird was a-singing still.

The bird of joy we will follow far,
Will try to climb where the eagles are,
Will chase the bird with the golden wings,
And lose our way in the midst of things;
And then we'll follow another bird,
When another sings that we have not heard,
We'll find our joy and we'll climb life's slope—
But the bird to thank is the bird of hope.

DANGER

Your tongue is the best barometer of your physical condition. Look at it every morning before breakfast. If it is coated with white, yellow or brown coloring, and does not have a clean red appearance you are constipated and not well.

Heed Its Warning

Constipation causes more ailments than all other diseases, and is the result of not having a daily bowel movement. Sick-headache, indigestion, biliousness and sallow complexion follow. Ask your druggist for a 25c red paper package of CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS "Safe Laxative". Take a dose to-night and continue one pill after each meal. Don't stop—until your tongue is clean. You will be surprised at the tonic effect this doctor's formula will have on you.

Bison Hurlers Knocked Out Of Box By Leaf Sluggers

LEAFS TROUNCE BUFFALO 9-4

Four Bison Pitchers Were Slaughtered for 19 Hits.

BEARS WIN 6-1

MAPLE LEAF STADIUM, May 23. Toronto slaughtered four Buffalo pitchers here yesterday afternoon to win the first game of the series 9 to 4. They pelted the mail for 19 hits of which 5 were doubles and 1 triple. Styles with four and a pass had a perfect day. Webb had three as had Burke, while Bedore contributed a triple and a double in three tries. Hankins pitched excellent ball and would probably have had a shut out were it not for seven Toronto errors, four of them crowded into the fourth inning. Bedore replaced Sheedy in left field after the latter injured his finger. Toronto presented its old line-up, with Webb at third, Jacobson in centre and Rabbitt in right.

Bears Win First.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 23. — Newarwk's Bears took the first game of the series from Jersey City here yesterday by a score of six to one. An early lead compiled in the opening frame, gave Newark the decision. In the first inning, Conlan doubled and Kingdon walked. Fournier's double sent them both in. Two innings later, with Conlan and Fournier on base, Lee blasted a home run to put the game on ice.

AMATEUR CHAMP IS DEFEATED

Dr. W. Tweddell Falls to Major Hezlett, British International Player.

THREE OTHERS OUT

PRESTWICK, Scotland, May 23 (Canadian Press Cable).—The second round of the British amateur golf championship played here yesterday proved the downfall of no less than three former champions and the present title-holder, Dr. W. Tweddell, who was defeated by Major Hezlett, London Irishman and British international player. Cyril Tolley, for years the outstanding British amateur, was another who found the going too difficult. He was eliminated by A. R. MacCallum of South Staffordshire, five up and four to play.

The Tweddell-Hezlett match provided the most brilliant golf of the championship to date. Experts agreed that there has been nothing in the history of the championship to compare with Hezletts brilliance. The victor said it was the finest golf he had ever played. He went out in 33, while Tweddell was right at his heels with 35.

An immediate comparison of the feature match can be taken from the playing of the young Scottish doctor, MacCallum in defeating Tolley. Had McCallum been playing Tweddell he would have been three down on the turn for home, and had Tolley been playing Hezlett he would have been seven down.

The complete Hezlett - Tweddell card for the sixteen holes follows:

Hezlett—Out	.. .. ..	..334434444—33
In	.. ..	..5435454 —30
Total	.. ..	..—63
Tweddell—Out	.. .. ..	..425533355—35
In	.. ..	..6355544 —32
Total	.. ..	..—67

Tolley in defeat was truly a pathetic figure and the crowd became amused at his violent efforts to put length to his drives which were futile and lacked direction.

In addition to completing play in the first round, only half of the competitors entered having played through the first round Monday, yesterdays play also saw the completion of the second round.

VIEWS ON SPORTS

Three local ball teams will open the amateur baseball season to-morrow—the Seniors in Oshawa and two teams at home.

As a Victoria Day attraction here, the Moose and East City Beavers will play in the opening fixture of the juvenile series of the City League. The tilt will be held in Riverside Park, and will start at 10 a.m. sharp. The management would like to see a good crowd at the game.

* * * * * * *

The Royals and the Kiwanis will open the junior series of the City League at the Exhibition Grounds at 2 p.m. to-morrow afternoon. The game will fill out a program which will be held in connection with the horse races slated for that day.

* * * * * * *

The Royals are now in mid-season form, and the Kiwanis intend to place a strong line-up in the field. Comparing the two teams, Deannard will pick his battery from Kenneally, Cotton, Crary, and Howden. Choices from LeBarr, Starr, Terry Hall, Ken Graham, and Dormer will form the infield, Gillespie and two "dark horses' for the outfield. Kitchen, Holmes, and Hatton will comprise the battery for the Royals, while the outfield will be picked from Gordon, Hollingsworth, Hartley, Jones and Weir, for the outfield Hope, Newson, Sturgeon, and Beavis.

* * * * * * *

Both teams are requested to meet at the corner of Charlotte and George Streets at one o'clock on Thursday afternoon. The teams will parade to the Exhibition Grounds, and will be escorted by the Peterborough Rangers Band. It is considered likely that Mayor Denne will officiate at the opening ceremonies.

* * * * * * *

While the Seniors and the East Peterborough League are the big attractions here, it is up to the baseball fans to support the Junior League also. The children of to-day are the men of tomorrow. So why not turn out on Thursday and give the youngsters a boost?

* * * * * * *

Bantam baseball will get its inaugural on Monday, May 28, when Riley & Hickey and Grafton's meet. Both teams have rounded up some good material, and a successful season is looked forward to.

* * * * * * *

Peterborough Seniors will journey to Oshawa on the holiday afternoon for the opening engagement of the C.O.B.L. in that city with the re-vamped General Motors team. Fans expect that a red hot battle will be staged, as the Motor City team management feel that things will not be right unless they take a fall out of the team that put them out of the running in the play-offs last year.

* * * * * * *

Frank DeForge's Grafton gang held a snappy workout with the Riley & Hickey aggregation at the Park Street Grounds. The practice took the form of a friendly game, with both squads performing in nice style. Gatfield, the southpaw, and Scollard form a snappy battery for the Riley & Hickey crew. Sweetman, the opposing hurler, relied upon his hooks to baffle them at the plate, while Gatfield sent them down the Grove with plenty of steam. Both squads showed plenty of style and pep in their fielding, and with a little more coaching the youngsters should put up a good game when they clash in the league fixture.

* * * * * * *

The Public School hardball and softball leagues are travelling along in fine style, and are now in the second half of the schedule. Central and Queen Mary are dividing the honors for first place in the softball league, while Prince of Wales School, which won the softball, hockey, relay race, and football honors last year, are making a desperate bid for first place this season, while the other schools are providing real lively opposition.

June 29—Keene at Curve Lake.
July 5—Hastings at Keene.
July 6—Lockworks at Curve Lake.
July 9—Hastings at Lockworks.

The winner of this group will play the winner of the city series for the championship of the League.

Crescents and Cogs.

Crescents and Cogs hook up in what should be an interesting battle at Exhibition Park next Friday evening at six o'clock. The Crescents will likely start Mein, who made a lot of trouble for the Cogs last season. The Cogs have Vannest and Billingsley ready for the fray and a tidy team of ball heavers.

The schedule for the city series of the East Peterborough League covering the first half follows:

Mon., May 21—Raybestos at Crescents.
Fri., May 25—Crescents at Cogs.
Wed., May 30— Bethany at Raybestos.
Fri., June 1—Cogs at Crescents.
Tues. June 5—Crescents at Bethany.

CRICKET NEWS.

LAKEFIELD, May 23.—Only one run separated Saint Andrew's College second eleven and the Grove team at the end of an exciting cricket match here on Saturday. The visitors won out, 38—37.

The Lakefield bowling was better while the visiting batsmen showed good form. Smith of the Grove had top score with 13, while Vick bowled well, taking six wickets for 20 runs.

CLERKS OPEN SEASON WELL

Champions Defeat Outlaws 17-10 in First Meeting—Large Crowd Present.

GAME CUT SHORT.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 23. — The Clerks and the Outlaws met last night for the first time this season in the town softball league. The Clerks, who were champions for the last two years, showed good form and took in the Outlaws to the tune of 17-10 in eight innings. Darkness made it necessary for the umpires to call the game at five minutes to eight. Had the battle started at the scheduled time, the nine innings would have been played, but there were not enough players on the grounds till almost a quarter to seven.

It is not unusual to see large crowds along the sidelines when the season is drawing to a close, and there are some keenly contested games to be played, but there was an unusually large crowd watching the game last night in spite of the cold weather, and the fact that this is only the first of the season, with plenty of dope to be upset before the championship is finally decided. Tonight the Legionaries take the field against St. Andrew's, and an interesting feature of the game will be the clerical battery playing for the "Wooden Soldiers" against the churchmen. The Legionaires are newcomers into the league, and there is just a slight possibility that they may turn out to be the proverbial dark horse.

DEFEAT SOX IN SLUG MATCH

Yankees Crash Out 22 Hits to Win 14 to 4 Victory.

HOMERS FEATURE

NEW YORK, May 23. Canadian Press. — The Yankees enjoyed one of their old fashioned slugging sprees here yesterday, and defeated the Boston Red Sox 14 to 4. The Yankees crashed out 22 hits and 38 bases. Babe Ruth's thirteenth homer, Gehrig's seventh and Meusel's fourth were included in the assortment of extra base drives. Gehrig and Meusel hit successive homers in the fifth. Combs got two triples. Harris was the victim of most of the Yankee slugging, but Danny MacFayden was called to the mound in the sixth after Durocher had singled and Ruth had hit his homer.

Stanley Covelskie went the route for the Yankees He had the Red Sox shut out until the eighth when Todt hit a home run with two men on.

The Athletics took an eleven inning game from the Washington Senators at Philadelphia by a score of 7 to 6, when Eddie Collins drove Hale home with the winning tally. Collins also saved the game in the ninth inning with a double. Sam Jones hit a home run in the second inning.

Speedy Johnny Mostil legging it all the way home from second base on a wild pitch by Uhle, scored the winning run that gave the White Sox a four to three victory over the Indians in their series opener at Chicago.

Alex. Metzler's home run in the fourth with Hunnefield on third after a triple also helped the White Sox. Mostil's brilliant work in the field, however, was the bright light of the day, Johnny tieing the world's record for centre fielding by handling 11 putouts and one assist without an error.

The wildness of Jack Ogden, the St. Louis pitcher in the first inning, enabled Detroit to get off to a four-run lead, and take the home series opener from the Browns 8 to 3. Ogden forced in two Tiger runs. Heil man got a home run in the fifth with Rice on.

Victor Sorrell started for Detroit, but became wild in the seventh, and was replaced by Vangilder, who was equally as wild, and was relieved in the ninth on by Stoner, who finished the game.

BIG SIX.

(By the Associated Press).

The first five members of the Big Six scaled downward in the averages yesterday, while Harry Heilmann, in the cellar, added just one point to his mark. Rogers Hornsby, tied for the lead with Paul Waner for a day, dropped one point further than his Pittsburgh rival, who thus returned to the lead. The Big Six maulers accounted for six hits, distributed one to each member.

The Yankees smacked two Boston pitchers for 22 hits and 38 bases, but Ruth connected only once—for his 13th homer.

The standing to date:

	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.

GIANTS TAKE FIRST GAME

Vance Loses Control in Sixth Inning for 9-5 Loss.

BRAVES WIN 3-1

NEW YORK, May 23. — Canadian Press. — Dazzy Vance lost his effectiveness in the sixth inning at Brooklyn yesterday, when the Giants won the first game of their series in Flatbush 9 to 5. When Vance weakened the infield went to pieces behind him.

Barnes and Chaplin were ineffective for the Giants, but Jim Faulkner finished the game in fine form to get credit for the victory. The hitting of Mel Ott was a feature.

Brandt held Philadelphia to three hits and Boston won its home-coming game 3 to 1. The Boston pitcher allowed the visitors but one hit until the ninth inning when Southern got a homer. Singles by Hornsby and Brown followed by a walk and Bell's single gave Boston two runs in the sixth.

The Reds batted opportunely in the latter innings of the fourth game at Cincinnati with the Pirates to come from behind and score a 8-4 win. Doubles by Allen and Picinich in the eighth inning took the game out of a tie. Paul Waner ran from first when Walker fumbled Wright's single, to score, in the first inning. Wright tripled and scored on Traynor's single in the third. Lloyd Waner scored Smith ahead of him with a home run in the fourth for the Pirates' other two runs.

Hack Wilson's third home run at St. Louis in two days and the ninth of the season, failed to give the Chicago Cubs the necessary incentive, and the St. Louis Cardinals won yesterday 3 to 2.

In losing the Cubs slipped into second place with the Cincinnati Reds climbing to the lead. The Cardinals, in spite of the victory, slipped to fourth when the Giants, also winning, went into third.

Chick Hafey scored from second base on an infield out as the feature of the game. A single by Roettger in the eighth, drove in the deciding run.

THEATRES

AT THE CAPITOL.

MARY PICKFORD'S "MY BEST GIRL" WILL BE THE BIG HOLIDAY ATTRACTION AT THE CAPITOL, TWO PERFORMANCES ONLY ON THE 24TH, 2.30 AND 8.00 P.M.

Manager Stewart of the Capitol Theatre has not decided yet whether he is going to call the balance of the week commencing on the holiday tomorrow "Laugh Days" or "Love Days" at his popular playhouse. Mary Pickford in "My Best Girl," the feature picture, was directed by Sam Taylor, who is famous for the laughs he put into Harld Lloyd's productions; and the Pickford picture is said to teem with delightful comedy. On the other hand, "My Best Girl" was written by Kathleen Norris, whose love stories are a delight to lovers of romance and who knows the heart of youth as few other American writers do.

"My Best Girl" is the story of a shop girl, Maggie Johnson, who through all the hard knocks she receives, still retains a belief in better things. She is an enigma to her own family, who cannot understand the idealism with which she paints out the shadows in their lives. At the store she meets a new employee, Joe Grant, with whom she falls in love. She has no idea that he is the son of her employer. It is a marvelous romance of two youngsters walking headlong and blindfolded into the trap that Fate has set for them. Maggie has a sister whose friendship for a married man nearly wrecks the whole Johnson family and does play havoc with Maggie's own romance.

Charles Rogers plays the part of Joe Grant, and it is expected that this handsome youngster, last seen in "Wings", will soon be one of the most popular leading men on the screen.

The beautiful Carmelita Geraghty is cast for the part of Liz Johnson, hard-boiled sister of Maggie. Hobart Bosworth, the well known character actor, is the wealthy owner of the big store and the father of the hero. In the several dramatic scenes he is called upon to play, his performance has received plaudits of all critics who have viewed the picture.

Lucien Littlefields is Maggie's Pa. Among the other members of the cast are Avonne Taylor, Sunshine Hart and Mack Swain, Charlie Chaplin's playmate in "The Gold Rush."

AT THE REGENT.

The coming of Rin-Tin-Tin is an event in any town—an event to those who await their teens, and to those who have passed them. "Rinty of the Desert," so we are told, is the fifteenth picture the Wonder Dog has starred in, and he is, if possible, more alert, more brilliant, and more appealing than ever before. He never steps out of his part. Never loses the verve which sets audiences shouting.

In "Rinty of the Desert" he plays the part of a dog who, deserted in the sandy wastes of his home, hops a truck and rides to town, where he is taken in by old Pop Marlowe, who keeps a small dime museum, with the aid of his pretty granddaughter, Mary, and an evil and aged "critter" named Mason. Mary has a husky young beau, Pat Casey of the police force. Rinty finds favor with the lot of them, and, in addition, opens his heart to the care of a litter of pups, outcasts, as he had been.

Pop Marlowe is summoned to court by Mason, who claims that he has not lived up to his contract. Marlowe does not return home and Mary suggests that Pat and Rinty go in search of him. Doyle's gang have imprisoned Marlowe. They escape when Pat and the dog come, and a fierce bull-dog attacks Pat. In the darkness it is supposed that Rinty did the deed and he is sentenced to be shot! Then begins the exciting action which makes "Rinty of the Desert" the fastest and most furious of all Rin-Tin-Tin's pictures. Meet the gang there. Rinty comes to the Regent Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

WILL HOLD WRIGLEY SWIM AT TORONTO

Special Race For Ladies To Be Held August 29.

TORONTO, May 22.—The third Wrigley marathon swim will be held in Toronto during the Canadian National exhibition, it was announced by J. Allen Ross, representing William Wrigley, jun., of Chicago here. The swim will be held in two parts, one for men and the other for women. The women's race, of ten miles, will be held on August 29, and the men's race, of fifteen miles, on September 5. The prize list will total $50,000.

The plan is to have the races contested over a three-mile triangle, each leg of which would be a mile in length.

It will be possible for women who compete in the women's race to enter the men's affair also. It is intended that the prize money for the women's swim shall total $15,000. Last year $10,000 was divided between the women making the best showing.

The International Professional swimmers' association has agreed that the races be for the professional championships of the world, Elwood Hughes, manager of last year's swim for the exhibition, declared today that it would be impossible to limit entries for either event, but a limit might be put on the number of women allowed to enter the men's event. "But," he added, "there will be no freak swimmers allowed in these events."

George Vierkoetter, German winner of last year's 21-mile race, and George Young, of Toronto, conqueror of Catalina channel, will both be entrants in this year's crawl. Vierkoetter has been training in Montreal, while Young has been hard at work near Toronto. The shorter distance is not expected to meet with Vierkoetter's approval, but the promoters decided, mindful of the circumstances surrounding last year's swim, that in cold, fresh water, fifteen miles is long enough.

As last year, entrants are expected from all over the world. It is thought that even more may be entered this year, attracted by the shorter distance.

Neither of the races should take more than eight hours and both will be started at 8 or 9 o'clock in the morning.

ST. EDMUNDS CLUB HERE TO-MORROW

Fast Cricket Match Expected At Oval—Will Start at 12.30.

The Peterborough Cricket Club will play the St. Edmund's Cricket Club of Toronto at the Oval to-morrow, May 24. Play will commence at 12.30, and stumps will be drawn about 5.30.

St. Edmunds played here last year, and a drawn game resulted after some heavy scoring. The Toronto boys have been looking forward to this trip as they had a most enjoyable time last season. Lunch will be served the visitors at the "Paragon" at 11.15 a.m. It is to be hoped that the game will be patronized by a goodly number of spectators.

A special pitch has been prepared by the local club's groundsman, Mr. A. Davis, and an enjoyable game is expected by all.

The following players have been selected to play for Peterborough and are asked to be at the Oval at 10 o'clock sharp: C. Elliot (capt.,) J. Dunkerly, C. Thorpe, Doug. Hammond, R. N. Stuart, F. Dyer, G. Monkman, J. Gore, A. Hamilton. W. Smith, W. Jefferson, A. Dymond.

Reserves: E. Massey-Cooke, J. Cridland, F. Imrring.

DOUBLE PROGRAM EXHIBITION PARK ON THE HOLIDAY

Many Outstanding Horses Competing and Rousing Baseball Game.

Local sportsmen are providing a big double program of horse racing and baseball at the Exhibition Grounds for the holiday. There will be many out of town trotting and pacing horses of note competing for the many prizes in addition to the numerous local entries.

The baseball game promises to be a real interesting contest between the Kiwanis Juniors and the Royals. This is the first league game of the season and it will be put on with all due ceremony. It is expected the Mayor and W. H. Bradburn will officiate in the box and behind the bat.

The committee in charge are doing everything in their power to make this event one of enjoyment for the elders as well as the juniors and ask the people of Peterborough and district to swarm to the park and thus make it possible for other such local sports programs to be made possible. With this idea in mind the admission charge has been made nominal at 35c. for adults and 15c. for children.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby and Sue will be there so join the crowds and make it a real holiday.

Look to the Blood for Beauty's Secret

THE source of skin beauty is in the blood. To acquire "The Skin That Charms" you must correct whatever faults of impurity or deficiency exist in the blood.

A doctor, prescribing for his patients, first proved the great value of "TRU-BLOOD" in improving the skin's texture and smoothness; in giving it healthful clearness and color.

TRU-BLOOD promptly corrects faulty conditions in the blood, then works its magic on the skin and complexion.

Used in conjunction with TRU-BLOOD, Buckley's OINTMENT works further wonders in clearing the skin of blemishes. Rashes, blackheads, pimples, blotches and roughness are quickly banished.

Your druggist can supply you with these proven "Buckley's" products.

EXCELLENT TESTIMONY FROM A COAL MINER

Who Used Dodd's Kidney Pills With Very Beneficial Results.

Mr. B. Fearon Suffered With Sore Back and Found Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills

Beersville, N.B., May 22.—(Special)—"I am glad there is such a medicine in pill form as Dodd's Kidney Pills", writes Mr. B. Fearon, who lives at this place. "I am a coal miner and but for Dodd's Kidney Pills I would not be able to do my work. When I get a sore back I take two or three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and feel like a new man. I am glad to recommend them to anyone suffering from kidney trouble."

Kidney trouble is very common amongst all classes of people and usually a lot of valuable time is lost by using unsuitable remedies. A good plan is to watch the kidneys and keep them healthy. If they are kept strong and well, all the impurities are strained out of the blood. But, if they are weak and out of order, the impurities stay in the blood and disease is sure to follow. Don't delay, let Dodd's Kidney Pills keep you fit.

BREMEN'S CREW GOES TO QUEBEC

STORM KILLS FOUR IN SOUTHERN TEXAS

Wind, Hail and Lightning Cause Heavy Damage to Crops.

LAREDO, Texas, May 22 (Canadian Press).—Four persons were killed, upwards of 50 injured, and heavy crop and property damage caused by wind, hail and electrical storms in Southern Texas yesterday. Driven before a 70-mile wind, large hailstones killed a 14-year-old boy and injured his mother as they worked in a field near here. Two cowboys were crushed to death when the wind wrecked a house south of Laredo, and another man was killed when lightning struck his home.

BANQUET FEATURE OF K. OF C. PROGRAM

Armories Needed To Accommodate 600 Local and Visiting Knights.

The banquet which will conclude the Knights of Columbus celebration tomorrow has been planned on an unusually ambitious scale. Dowling of Toronto has been engaged as caterer, and will bring a staff of thirty waiters, equipment of kitchen, and silver and table ware. Local caterers declined to tender for the banquet because of the expected attendance of approximately six hundred men. An orchestra of twenty pieces has been engaged with Rupert Gliddon directing, and the parade room of the armouries has been decorated by J. J. Turner and Sons. The admission fee to the banquet is five dollars, which also includes the after dinner dance at the Simcoe street club.

Fourth Degree Knights are expected from Eastern and Western Ontario. The delegates attending the K. of C. Convention in Belleville will come to Peterborough this evening for the holiday events, and if the plans proceed as they have been arranged a large number of the members of the society will visit Peterborough, many of them for the first time.

Wednesday, May 23 (this evening) 7.30 to 9.30 o'clock—Registration of visitors at K. of C. Club, Simcoe street.

8 p.m.—Arrival of the Apostolic Delegate at the C.N.R. Station; parade by Catholic clergy and laity to St. Peter's Cathedral; address and Benediction.

9.30 p.m.—Reception at K. of C. club to the charter members of Peterborough Council and presentation to them of specially designed medals commemorating their long membership.

Thursday, May 24:—

9 a.m.—Procession from K. of C. club to St. Peter's Cathedral, where Pontifical High Mass will be celebrated by the Papal Delegate beginning at 9.30, and sermon by Rev. John Burke of Toronto.

After the Mass the members will return to their club by way of the Canadian Legion cenotaph, where a wreath will be deposited as a tribute to the memory of those who died in the war.

Noon—Civic welcome at the K. of C. Club by His Worship Mayor Roland Denne.

1.30 p.m.—At the Canadian Legion Hall, exemplification of the second degree by Peterborough Council with A. J. Reynolds officiating; to be followed by the third degree in charge of Major William J. Hanley and staff of Toronto.

6.30 p.m.—Banquet at the Armouries.

9.30 p.m.—Dance at the K. of C. club.

thereto the following sub-section:

"3. An angler shall be permitted to take minnows for his personal use as bait, by means of a dip-net having a diameter of not more than twenty-seven inches.

"2—Sub-section 2 of Section 4 of the aforesaid regulations is hereby rescinded and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

"2.—No one shall fish for, catch or kill any large-mouthed or small-mouthed black bass from the first day of October to the thirtieth day of June following, both days inclusive; provided that the close season for black bass in the waters of the River St. Lawrence and the Ottawa river shall be free from the first day of October to the fifteenth day of June following, both days inclusive.

"3.—Sub-section 3 of the said section 4 of the aforesaid regulations is hereby rescinded and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

"3.—No one shall fish for, catch or kill in any of the waters of the Province, in one day by angling a greater number than six large-mouthed or small-mouthed black bass, nor shall anyone have in possession, nor take away at any time, a greater number than two days' legal catch.

"4.—Sub-section 2 of section 5 of the aforesaid regulations is hereby rescinded and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

"2.—No one shall fish for, catch or kill any maskinonge from the first day of October to the thirtieth day of June following, both days inclusive; provided that the close season for maskinonge in the waters of the River St. Lawrence and the Ottawa river shall be from the first day of October to the fifteenth day of June following, both days inclusive.

"5.—Sub-section 3 of the said Section 5 of the aforesaid regulations is hereby rescinded and the following substituted in lieu thereof

"3.—No one shall fish for, catch or kill in any of the waters of the Province in one day by angling, a greater number than two maskinonge, nor shall any one have in possession, nor take away at any time a greater number than two days' legal catch.

"6.—Sub-section 2 of Section 8 of the aforesaid regulations is hereby rescinded, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

"2.—In the other waters of the Province to the southward of but not including French river, Lake Nipissing and Mattawa river no one shall fish for, catch or kill any pickerel (dore) from the first to the thirtieth of April in each year, both days inclusive; provided that in the waters of the Counties of Victoria, Peterborough and Durham and the inland waters of the County of Northumberland, no one shall fish for, catch or kill any pickerel (dore) from the first day of October to the thirtieth day of June in each year, both days inclusive; and in the other waters of the Province to the north and north-west of and including the said French river, Lake Nipissing and Mattawa river, no one shall fish for, catch or kill any pickerel (dore) from the fifteenth day of April to the fifteenth day of May in each year, both days inclusive.

"7.—Sub-section 3 of the said section 8 of the aforesaid regulations is hereby rescinded and the following, substituted in lieu thereof:

"3.—No one shall fish for, catch or kill in any of the waters of the Province in one day by angling, a greater number than eight pickerel (dore).

"8.—Sub-section 5 of section 13 of the aforesaid regulations is hereby rescinded and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

"5—No one shall by means of a boat or other floating device or through the ice, take fish by any means in the Counties of Victoria, Peterborough and Durham, and the inland waters of the County of Northumberland during the closed season for the taking of bass or maskinonge.

"9.—The said section 13 is hereby further amended by adding thereto the following sub-section:

"6—No person shall sell pickerel (dore) or salmon trout which were taken by angling or that were taken in any other manner in the Province by any person without a license.'

Belgian Draft Stallion

R. H. NESBITT, the well-known horse man, has just purchased a particularly fine Belgian Draft Stallion, 3 years old and weighs better than 1,800 lbs. Registered No. (4009) (14307).

Will make the season of 1928 as follows: Will be at his own stable Monday and Tuesday; Wednesday will go to Bailieboro, where he will remain until Thursday evening, when he will return to his own stable. Friday will go to Roger Maloney's, Douro, for noon, thence to Albert Garbutt's, Smith, for night; Saturday will be at the Windsor Hotel, Peterboro, where he will remain until 4 o'clock; will return to his own stable, Lakefield.

STRONG LINE-UP FOR VISITORS ON SATURDAY

Belleville Will Introduce Some New Talent To Local Fans.

VETERANS, TOO.

Stalwarts of Other Years Still With Gerow Men..

Although the Petes will not be at full strength at Oshawa to-morrow, both Max Swanston and Ray Rose being out of the game, they will have everybody on hand Saturday when the first home game will be played at James Stevenson Park with Belleville as the opposition.

The Belleville team, managed as usual by Walter Gerow, shapes up as a strong crew. Peeney Mills is still behind the bat, with a pitching staff composed of Gibson, Jeffrey, Gerow and Utronke, the latter a recruit from Renfrew. Harry Mills is at first base, Weir at second, Blakely short-stop, and Bob Scott of Renfrew at third. In the outfield are the well-known pair, Ross and Hagerman, with Alex. Scott, formerly of the Kingston Ponies, as their garden mate.

The Saturday game will start at 3 o'clock, with Ken. Colling of Belleville as the umpire-in-chief, and will be opened with fitting ceremony.

Indications are that a big crowd will greet Central Ontario League ball after a year's absence, and that the Petes will be given a real send-off.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunn were the attendants. After a dainty luncheon the happy couple left for points south, and will make their new home in Welland.

OBITUARY

JAMES LYLE.

Yesterday William Irwin received a wire from Sudbury advising him of the sudden death of James Lyle a former resident of Peterborough.

When Mr. Irwin was in the lumber business in a large way on the north shore, Mr. Lyle was his camp foreman, and was a most efficient man. After Mr. Irwin discontinued operations in the district Mr. Lyle was connected with the Spanish River Pulp and Paper Co. He was one of the best woodsmen that Peterborough county has turned out, a very kindly man, and well liked by those with whom he came in contact.

Information from Sudbury also requested to get in touch with relatives of his in Peterborough county. It is thought that he has a brother, William Lyle, near Kinmount, and it is the wish that any relatives communicate with Mr. Irwin in Peterborough in connection with Mr. Lyle's death.

MARY JANE FRASER.

The death took place at her home, Jackson's Park Road last evening, May 22, of Miss Mary Jane Fraser, following a short illness. Deceased was born in Smith township and during her life has been an esteemed attendant at St. Peter's Cathedral She leaves to mourn, one brother, Ben Fraser, and a niece, Miss Hannah Fraser, both of Peterborough.

The funeral will take place from her late residence, Jackson's Park Road, on Friday morning at 8.30 o'clock proceeding to St. Peter's Cathedral and cemetery.

FLAG RAISING IS NOT SIMPLE

Frank Taylor, of Local Scouts' Association, Raises Now One at Collegiate.

MUST BE FOLDED RIGHT.

Do you know how to raise the Union Jack properly? There is a right and a wrong way, as was shown this morning at the Peterborough Collegiate Institute when Frank Taylor, secretary of the local Boy Scouts' Association raised to the fresh northwesterly breeze a large new Jack, 12 x 6 feet. Forty-five feet in the air, mounted on the splendid new steel pole recently erected by J. J. Turner and Sons, it "broke" at the snap of a rope and sailed out clear and free.

The flag raising was not so simple as one might suppose. First of all, it was necessary to fold the flag from top to bottom several times, then to double it back almost a like number, roll it in a small bundle and so fasten the ropes that when the bundle reached the top, a slight pull would release it, being the "break" referred to above. It was also necessary to have the flag so attached that the wider white borders of the Cross of St. Andrew's appeared on the upper side next to the pole.

Chiropractic -- Is It Mechanical?

QUESTION—Will you please explain why your patients say Chiropractic is a MECHANICAL way to get sick people well?

ANSWER—Chiropractic is a mode of adjusting disarranged parts of man's spinal structure, so that Nature can operate without interference in providing FUNCTIONAL ENERGY to man's working parts.

A large percentage of diseases are due to pressure on nerves as they leave the spinal column. This pressure interferes with function in the tissues supplied by the impinged nerves, hence inflammation, pain and distress are manifest in these weakened tissues. Disease is prolonged until this pressure is corrected.

The Chiropractor acts as a body mechanic when by skilful movements of his hands he adjusts the cause of this nerve pressure. He first locates the vertebrae which has become slightly displaced, determines the exact degree and direction of displacement, then proceeds to correct this abnormality by a scientific adjustment. In doing this he applies simple MECHANICAL principles to man's MECHANICAL structures.

CANADA INVITED TO TAKE PART IN UNITED STATES' TREATY FOR RENUNCIATION OF WAR

Hon. William Phillips Presents Note To Canadian Government.

MADE PUBLIC.

Identical Note Sent to Other Dominions of the Empire.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 25. — (Canadian Press.)—Expressing keen satisfaction that the British Dominions "are so favorably inclined towards the treaty for the reunciation of war which my government proposed on April 13, 1928, as to wish to partcipate therein individually and as original signatories, "Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg has extended to Canada a cordial invitation to become one of the original parties to the treaty for the reunciation of war which is now under consideration."

Secretary Kellogg's note on this subject was despatched to the Canadian Government through Hon. William Phillips, American Minister at Ottawa, and was made public last night An identical note has been sent to the Governments of Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, the Irish Free State and the Government of India. The Amereican note refers specifically to the treaty to outlaw war as an instrument of national policy, to which all the great Powers have been invited to adhere . No mention is made of the further proposed treaty to provide machinery for the arbitration of international disputes. This second treaty, in the case of the British Empire, would replace the Root-Bryce aribtration treaty, which is about to expire.

Mr. Kellogg's note reads:

Dominions in Agreement.

"In the note which he addressed to the American ambassodor at London on May 19, 1928, Sir Austen Chamberlain was good enough to inform my government that His Majesty's Government in Great Britain had been in communication with His Majesty's Governments in the Dominions and with the Government of India, and had ascertained that they were all in cordial agreement with the general principle of the multilateral treaty for the reunciation of war which the Government of the United States proposed on April 13, 1928. Sir Austen added that he felt confident, therefore, that His Majesty's Governments in the Dominions and the Government of India were prepared to accept an invitation to participate in the conclusion of such a treaty as that proposed by the Government of the United States.

"I have been instructed to state to Your Excellency that my Government has received this information with the keenest satisfaction. My Government has hoped from the outset of the present negotiations that the Governments of the Dominions and the Government of India would feel disposed to become parties to the suggested anti-war treaty. It is moreover gratifying to the Government of the United States to learn that His Majesty's Governments in the Dominions and the Government of India are so favorably inclined towards the treaty for the reunciation of war which my Government proposed on April 13, 1928, as to wish to participate therein individually and as original signatories, and my Government, for its part, is most happy to accede to the suggestion contained in Sir Austen Chamberlain's note of May 19, 1928, to the American ambassador at London

Extends Invitation.

"Accordingly I have been instructed to extend to His Majesty's Government in Canada, in the name of the Government of the United States, a cordial invitation to become one of the original parties to the treaty for the renunciation of war which is now under consideration Pursuant to my instructions I also have the honor to inform you that the Government of the United States will address to His Majesty's Government in Canada, at the same time and in the same manner as to the other governments whose participation in the proposed treaty in the first instance is contemplated any further communications which it may make on the subject of the treaty after it has been acquainted with the views of all the Governments to which its note of April 13, 1928, was addressed."

Miss Lloyd George Is Entering Politics

LLANGEFNIX, Anglesey, Wales, May 25.—Canadian Press —Miss Megan Lloyd George, the 25 year old daughter of former Premier Lloyd George, was selected yesterday as Liberal candidate for Anglesey division at the next general election. There were three candidates and Miss Lloyd polled 323 votes to the 245 and 14 received by tthe others.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF KNIGHTS GREAT SUCCESS

Visitors Attend From All Parts of Ontario—Great Banquet Feature.

INSPIRING ADDRESSES.

The celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary yesterday of the institution of Peterboro' Council of the Knights of Columbus surpassed in the degree of its success the most sanguine expectations of its members. Nearly all the Councils in Ontario, from Port Port Arthur to Ottawa, were represented and visitors were present from several other provinces. The provincial convention in Belleville on Wednesday and Thursday made it convenient for the delegates to proceed to Peterboro, and the splendid weather was another assisting factor in the gratifying realization of a Columbian project that has perhaps rarely been duplicated by any other branches of the Order in Canada. The exceptional quality of this accomplishment was frequently referred to at the banquet in the evening in a chorus of congratulations for the Peterboro' Council, unstinted acknowledgment of the assistance of His Lordship Bishop O'Brien and very cordial appreciation of the welcome extended by the city in the gracious expressions of His Worship Mayor Denne, Alderman Nagle Phelan and Alderman George MacDonald, chairman of the city Council's Reception Committee.

Only one little fleck of disappointment arose out of the day's compact programme. The morning ceremonies overlapped the early afternoon with a loss of time that stole nearly two hours from the evening, cutting short the program, including the excellent dinner music by the symphony orchestra, under the direction of Rupert Gliddon. This delay in completing the afternoon degree work also affected the attendance at the banquet. It prevented many of those who motored to the city from remaining until the late hour that loomed up for the conclusion of the long day's celebration. Another diverting circumstance was the absence of the Supreme Knight, Marcin A. Carmody, who had to attend the funeral yesterday of the Supreme Chaplain, the late Monsignor Patrick J. McGivney.

Picturesque features of the celebration were the presence of dignitaries of the Catholic Church in Ontario, and of the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus.

The Most Reverend A. Cassulo, Apostolic Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, postponed the elevation of a Bishop in order that his first visit to the diocese of Peterboro' might coincide with the K. of C. celebration. This mark of respect for the society was emphasized by the presence also of Archbishop McNeil of Toronto, Bishop Couturier of Alexandria and Bishop McNally of Hamilton, with the Bishop of Peterborough. Touches of color and distinction were also agreeably evident in the group of Fourth Degree members of the Order from the eastern and western Ontario districts Assemblies from Windsor to Ottawa were represented in morning and evening dress with baldrics.

In the morning the Knights paraded to St. Peter's Cathedral, where solemn High Mass was celebrated by the Papal Delegate, at the close of which an address of welcome was read by John R. Corkery, who with J. J. Duffus, State Deputy-elect John E. Sullivan, John Corkery Sr., and Fred Pepe, entered the sanctuary to greet the Delegate on behalf of the Knights of Columbus. The sermon was preached by the Rev. John E. Burke of Toronto.

From the church the Knights accompanied the Papal Delegate to the Bishop's residence, and behind the D La Salle cadets' bugle band of forty bugles and drums marched by way of Hunter and Aylmer streets to the Canadian Legion cenotaph on which a wreath was placed in memory of the soldiers who died in the war. The Fourth Degree members saluted, the Last Post was sounded, and the parade continued by way of George street to the K. of C. club.

The Civic Welcome.

"On behalf of the City Council and the citizens of Peterborough I extend to you a hearty welcome to our city," said Mayor Denne on the club lawn. "We are very proud of Peterborough, and we want you to have a good impression of us. We would like you to come and visit us often, not just on occasions like this but to come individually and see what a fine city we have. You are the kind of men we want, and it might be that some of you would remain with us. The Knights of Columbus are doing a good work in Peterborough. We know what they have done in an educational way and in charities, and I take this opportunity

Cashier Killed In Bank Robbery

LAMAR, Calif., May 25. Canadian Press. — John Parrish, cashier of the First National Bank of Lamar, was shot to death, and his father, A N. Parrish, was seriously wounded by four unmasked men who looted the institution yesterday afternoon and fled after kidnapping two tellers. One of the robbers was wounded by the younger Parrish.

A posse led by Sheriff L. D. Alderman, started in pursuit of the robbers, who headed toward the Kansas line. The loot secured was small.

FIREMEN BUSY OVER HOLIDAY

Three Small Fires and One Chimney Blaze Occupy Their Time.

FIREWORKS HELP.

Three small fires and a chimney fire claimed the attention of the city firemen over the holiday. In conversation with The Examiner this morning, Fire Chief George Gimblett stated that, aside from the fires, there was considerable careless handling of fireworks as on George Street and other thoroughfares, fire crackers were being thrown about regardless of danger. The fires occurred, one on Wednesday evening, two on Thursday and one this morning.

At 6.03 p.m. on Wednesday, the fire department received a call from 200 London Street, where a fire had started in a lean-to shed and had spread into the attic above the kitchen. Three hundred feet of hose was laid and the blaze extinguished. The damage, exclusive of injury to contents by smoke, was about $100.00.

Incidentally, in connection with this fire, one motorist is likely to appear in police court for having struck the rear of Fire Chief Gimblett's car and for driving over the hose.

Just about twenty-four hours later, at 6.22 p.m. on Thursday, the brigade was summoned to Sacred Heart School, where a fire had started in the roof, dut to a sky rocket. The booster pump of the main pumper was used by the firemen, and damage confined to $15.00.

Early this morning, at 4.28 o'clock, damage to the extent of $50.00 was done to an unoccupied residence at 243 Stewart Street, the rear part of the house suffering the most. Though the origin of the blaze was not determined, it was presumably due to fireworks.

There was also a chimney fire at 8.57 o'clock on Thursday morning at 233 Park Street. Chemicals were used to extinguish the blaze.

IN POLICE COURT

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25.— Two local youths appeared in police court recently and were found guilty of stealing gasoline from the tank of a car. They were given the option of a fine of ten dollars and costs or three months in gaol. One or other of the punishments was to take effect on Wednesday. The youths elected to pay the fine.

Police Officers Watch Speeders

During the last few days the police have been watching closely the speeders on Hunter Street Bridge and in the northern part of the city, with the result that the traffic court on Wednesday promises to be rather heavy. Constable Piercy has been patrolling Hunter Street and Sergeant Wigg has been watching Water and George Streets.

COAL CONTRACT LET.

Sanitary Ice Company Will Supply Fuel For Police Station.

The police commission at a special meeting this morning let the contract for 28 tons of coal for the police station to the Sanitary Ice Co. Nine coal dealers submitted tenders, and every one quoted the same price, $14.75 a ton.

The Sanitary Ice Company supplied the coal last year and it was of such excellent quality that the commissioners thought they would try it again.

GRAHAM McMILLAN, AGED FOUR IS FATALLY INJURED WHEN HIT BY MOTOR CAR WHILE PLAYING

Small Boy Dies To-day As Result of Injuries Received Last Night.

ON YOUNG STREET.

J. W. Devall, Taxi Driver, Held On Charge of Manslaughter —Inquest Ordered.

Graham McMillan, aged four years and eight months, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McMillan, 19 Braidwood avenue, died early this morning in Nicholls Hospital, to which he was admitted after being knocked down by a taxi car driven by J. W. Devall, 514 Water street.

He was struck by the rear of the motor car and badly bruised around the shoulders and on one side. He was also bleeding from the mouth when picked up. The boy was struck at about 9 o'clock in the evening, and died in the hospital at 12.30 this morning.

The little chap was playing with other boys, who were setting off fire crackers on Young street, just around the corner from his home. J. W. Devall answered a taxi call to the corner of Young and Braidwood avenues, and when turning around he struck the boy. Mr. Devall was backing on to Braidwood avenue, when he struck the child.

Dr. F. B. Neal and Dr. G. S. Cameron were summoned and had the child removed to the hospital. Devall at the time of the accident, did not know that he had struck the child and it was only some time later that he found out what had happended. Provincial Constable Harry E. Thompson investigated the case and placed Devall under arrest.

In police court this morning Devall appeared before Magistrate O. A. Langley, charged with unlawfully causing the death of Graham McMillan by criminal negligence while in the control of a motor car and hence is charged with manslaughter. The Crown was unable to proceed with the preliminary inquiry and Crown Attorney G. W. Hatton, K.C. said he desired to have the inquest first. Bail was placed at $10,000—$5,000 of his own, and two securities of $2,500 each. The inquest was set by Coroner Dr. T. W. H. Young for 8.00 o'clock tomorrow night and the preliminary inquiry will be held in the police court on Tuesday morning. F. D. Kerr, K.C., is acting for the accused.

FLOWER SHOW ON WEDNESDAY

Horticultural Society Arranges For Display of Tulips and Narcissus.

IN TECO WINDOW.

The activities of the Horticultural Society go quietly on, in spite of discouragingly poor support from the citizens. In a city like Peterborough, where many hundreds of people spend a great deal of time in beautifying their grounds, there ought to be a society of at least 1,000 members, say officials of the organization, which would be strong enough to do things in a big way to make Peterborough actually come up to the society's slogan: "The City Beautiful."

In spite of the fewness of its members, however, the directors make up in enthusiasm for that lack, and a more impressive program than ever has been planned for this season. Shows for the several specialties: Tulips, iris, peonies, roses, and gladiolus, will be held as the season for each is at its height. Next Wednesday, May 30, has been set apart as Tulip and Narcissus Day. The show will be made in the window of the Teco Store, which has very kindly been offered to the society for this event. Nice prizes are offered for tulips, narcissus, or daffodils, and entries should be made to the secretary, S. T. Harris, 139 Simcoe Street, before the 30th.

The Prizes.

For the best display of tulips in one vase, one variety or mixed, 1st prize, $3.00; 2nd, one bulb Gladiolus, Pfitzer's Triumph, value $2.00; 3rd prize, value $1.00.

For the best display of daffodils or narcissus, in one vase, any varieties, prize two rose bushes.

THE WEATHER

When good old Queen Victoria was alive we were almost invariably favored with fine, bright and balmy weather on the anniversary of her birthday, and "Queen's weather" became associated with that day. Yesterday was no exception, and was all that could be desired. The morning was cool, the thermometer having been down to 3f degrees, Most of the day the temperature was up to 65 degrees. The shade trees, while not yet in full leaf, are well advanced and the season is but little behind its average.—W. P.

RETIRED FARMER.

Carried into the W. H. Hamilton grocery store on Simcoe Street at 10.50 this morning after he had fallen to the pavement, overcome by heart trouble, Israel Payne, of 84 London Street, passed away, death, according to Dr. J. H. Eastwood, being due to acute heart trouble. In falling, the old man received a severe bruise near his left eye. He was later removed to Comstock's undertaking parlor.

Alfred Wilson, of 118 Aylmer Street, who, assisted by Donald Cameron of Birdsall, carried the unfortunate man into the store, told of seeing him walking along from the direction of water Street, stumbling and falling, near the store. Cameron did not see the man fall.

Israel Payne, retired from farming some years ago, and has resided at the home of his nearest relative, a nephew, William K. Payne, at 84 London Street. He attended and was highly esteemed in the congregation of Mark Street United Church, East City.

BOY'S EYE HURT BY FIRECRACKER

Billy Drummond, 13, May Lose Sight of Right Eye From Explosion.

Billy Drummond, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Drummond, 617 Bethune Street, suffered an accident which may seriously affect the sight of his right eye. He was playing with fire crackers in front of his home when the accident occurred about 8.30 o'clock last night.

The boy was alone at the time. He apparently held in his hand a two-inch "salute," which exploded, striking the right side of his face. A severe powder burn caused a swelling, while the eye was necessarily injured, though to what extent can only be determined in time.

Dr. N. D. Buchanan was called and attended the lad, stating that the eye was injured, while a scar would likely result from the powder burn. Young Drummond's hand was uninjured. He is the fifth son in a family of nine boys and two girls. His condition is believed to have improved to-day.

Back in 1879, when Peterborough was a town, the council then saw fit to pass a by-law forbidding the exploding of firecrackers in the town limits. The by-law has never been repealed and is still in force.

King Participates In Celeberation

OTTAWA, May 25 (Canadian Press).—By means of direct telephone communication between Ottawa and London, England, Premier King yesterday participated in the Empire Day celebrations in Hyde Park. From his office in the east block of the parliament building, Mr. King spoke the following words to London at one thirty in the afternoon:

For many years the oceans have separated the younger households of the British Empire from the Motherland. To-day, with the progress of aviation and radio communication, their waters no longer divide us. On this Empire Day, Canada is proud to be associated with the British Isles and with the other nations of the Commonwealth in proclaiming a common allegiance to His Majesty the King.

PAPAL DELEGATE WELCOMED BY CATHOLICS OF DIOCESE

Six Hundred Men Escort His Excellency From the Station.

CHILDREN SING.

A very cordial welcome to the city was tendered the Apostolic Delegate, His Excellency the Most Reverend Andrea Cassulo, D.D., when he arrived here on Wednesday evening to perform a double function, to make his first official visit to Peterborough since his appointment as Papal Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, and to make this visit coincide with the celebration by the local Council, No. 798, of the Knights of Columbus, of the twenty-fifth anniversary of its foundation here.

On his arrival at eight o'clock at the C.N.R. Station, His Excellency was welcomed by His Lordship Bishop O'Brien and several of the priests of the diocese, and was escorted to the Cathedral by a procession of men from the city and district, numbering nearly six hundred. The band of the Peterborough Rangers and the De La Salle Boys' band from Toronto were also in attendance, playing stirring music for the parade which took place from the station to George street, thence up Hunter street to the Cathedral.

The precincts of the Cathedral, the Bishop's palace, the priests' house and St. Mary's Convent were gaily decorated with strings of colored lights. A large Canadian Ensign and the Papal flag were flying before the main entrance of the church, while dozens of similar small flags decorated the long verandah of the priests' residence, extending to the main portal of the Bishop's palace, where the pillars were wreathed in yellow and white bunting.

Pausing at the head of Hunter street, the Delegate's car waited for the presentation by little George Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sullivan, Gilmour Street, of a bouquet of rich red roses, fourteen in number, symbolizing fourteen years of service in the Episcopacy, the anniversary of which was observed yesterday by His Excellency.

Welcome from Children.

Here too the Rangers' band played for the children in their "Welcome" song. Massed together on the Cathedral lawn, around the statue of Christ the King, were eight hundred pupils of the Separate schools of the city, singing and waving tiny Papal emblems and Union Jacks. Fifty-five little tots in white sat on the ground in formation of the word "Vivat", the first letter of the "Welcome" song to the "Good Shepherd" of the flock, a hymn entitled "Vivat, Pastor Bonus."

Children from St. Peter's High School sang the Benediction music later, when the prelate, after resting at the Bishop's palace and entering the main door of the Cathedral, to kneel for a moment at the prie dieu placed near its entrance, solemnized Benediction, assisted by Rev. V. McFadden of Trout Creek and Rev. J. Collins of Parry Sound. Rev. J. J. O'Brien acted as Master of Ceremonies, assisted by Rev. C. Moloney.

The large edifice, which was filled to capacity, was decorated streamers capacity, was decorated with streamers of yellow and white and the high white altar was lovely with a profusion of pale pink roses, gold lace draperies, lighted, candelabra and blazing votive stands.

An address to His Excellency from the clergy of the diocese was read by His Lordship Bishop O'Brien, and a similar address from the laity was read by J. A. O'Brien, who was accompanied by the signors of the document, L. D. Letellier and B. R. Strano, also F. Fairen and N. Tobin.

Replying briefly to both addresses, His Excellency assured his hearers of the pleasure he experienced in such a cordial welcome, brought them further assurance of the love of the Supreme Pontiff for his faithful children and enjoined on them faithfulness in the practice of their religion.

Honor Memory Of Dollard Des Ormeaux

MONTREAL, Que., May 25.—(Canadian Press).—The exploit of Dollard Des Ormeaux and his sixteen companions who, in 1660, saved New France from the Iroquois, was commemorated yesterday when French-Canadian societies from all parts of the Island of Montreal gathered at the Dollard monument in Lafontaine Park to lay wreaths. One thousand school children took part in the ceremony, though rain forced cancellation on the part of the program.

KNIGHTS HEAR SOLEMN MASS

Parade From Club Rooms To St. Peter's Cathedral For Service.

FINE SERMON PREACHED.

Pontifical High Mass was celebrated at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday morning by His Excellency, the Most Reverend Andrea Cassulo, D.D., Papal Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland. Over four hundred of the Knights of Columbus, representing members in the city, the district and the visitors from outside points, gathered in Peterborough to celebrate the silver anniversary of the foundation of the local council, marched in procession from the Simcoe street clubrooms, attended by the Boys' Band of the De La Salle School, Toronto, and attended the Mass. Marching first to the Bishop's Palace, they escorted the Papal Delegate and visiting clergy to the Cathedral, the Delegate proceeding under cover of a white and gold canopy, with a guard of honor of nearly fifty Knights, wearing the insignia of their order, bandoliers of white, red and blue, and carrying swords. Each of the Knights in the procession wore a boutonniere of a pink rose.

Assisting His Excellency in solemnizing Mass were Rev. J. McAuley of Ennismore, assistant priest; Rev. P. Butler of Cobourg, deacon of the Mass; Rev. C. Carroll of the Church of The Immaculate Conception, subdeacon; Rev. V. McFadden of Trout Creek, and Rev. J. Collins of Parry Sound, honorary deacons; Rev. G. Maher, cross-bearer to the Papal Delegate; Rev. J. J. O'Brien, first master of ceremonies; and Rev. C. Moloney, second master of ceremonies. The music was sung by two choirs,—the choir of the Cathedral singing M. E. Downey's Mass of the Blessed Sacrament in splendid voice, with Miss Hurley leading and Miss Mary Reynolds at the organ; and a choir of twelve male voices from St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto, singing the Proper of the Mass and the offertory music, led by Rev. Edward Ronan, director of plain chant at the seminary.

The sermon was preached by Rev. John J. Burke, C.S.P., of Toronto, who took his text from Matthew 16: 17th and 18th verses: "Thou are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give to thee the keys of the kingdom of Heaven, and whatsoever thou shalt bind upon earth shall be bound also in Heaven and whatsoever thou shalt loose upon earth shall be loosed also in Heaven."

Speaking in preface of the honor to the Catholics and the Knights of Columbus of the city done by the visit here of the Papal Delegate, of the good work of Bishop O'Brien and of the excellent service to the community given by the Knights of Columbus, the reverend speaker went on to dilate on the claims to supremacy and infallibility made by the Roman Pontiff, the successor of Peter. He quoted the words of Christ to the chief of His Apostles: "Behold, Satan has desired you to sift you as wheat but I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not, and thou, being once converted, confirm thy brethren." The singular form of address used here was significant of the part that Peter was to play in the perpetuity of the faith.

REPORT OF DISTRICT M.O.H. INDICTS LOCAL AUTHORITIES FOR ALLEGED BREACH OF ACT

Dr. Sutton Declares Provisions of Health Act Were Not Carried Out.

SHOWS AUTHORITY.

Representative of Minister of Health Lays Hodson Case Before Board.

The report which Dr. N. H. Sutton, District Medical Officer of Health, made to his chief, Dr. W. J. Bell, Deputy Minister of Health, on the scarlet fever case which has been discussed recently at regular meetings of the Board of Health, was presented complete at a special meeting on Wednesday. This report sets out that the City Medical Officer of Health, Dr. T. W. H. Young, accepted a misleading statement from the proprietor of a milk business, when the sanitary inspector's or some other city records should have shown just where this man's milk was obtained and how it was bottled; that the house was not placarded, although those who worked with the milk had all been contact with the two cases of scarlet fever that developed; and that the provisions of the milk by-law, as applied to the sanitary inspector's duties, are not being carried out. The report was read by Alderman C. H. Ackerman, chairman of the board.

At times the discusdon became very heated. The report pointed out where, according to the Act, Dr. Young had erred in the case and Dr. Sutton in many cases asked Dr. Young as to what steps he had taken. Sanitary Inspector C. S. Stapleton's work came in for considerable criticism by the District M.O.H. also when it was reported that Mr. Stapleton had not made the inspections at the farm from which the milk supply was coming. Mr. Stapleton claimed that he had been led to believe that Hodson got his milk from the Campbell Dairy and that "an intelligent looking man like the District M.O.H." might be able to carry out the duties of sanitary inspector better than he could. When the inspector was asked for his book to show when he had inspected the Hodson home he claimed he had an immediate appointment to keep but that the book could be seen by Dr. Sutton any time he called in the sanitary inspector's office. The book was ordered produced at the next meeting of the board.

With Dr. Sutton's criticism of the way Dr. Young handled the case, Dr. Young wanted to know why the District M.O.H. had not stepped in and stopped the bottling of the milk in the home when he found out that milk was being bottled there. Dr. Sutton answered that he had always taken an attitude of co-operation in view of the circumstances.

J. J. Turner thought that as at the last meeting the members had expressed their approval of the way Dr. Young handled the case it ought to be closed as far as the board was concerned, but if the Department wanted to take action it could deal with Dr. Young. Dr. Sutton explained that according to the Act the board was equally responsible and could not shirk its duties at this time.

Mayor Challenges D.M.O.H. Duties.

Mayor Denne then questioned Dr. Sutton's right at the meeting and his duties in the City of Peterborough. Dr. Sutton again referred to the Act, pointing out that it distinctly says the District M.O.H. is the official representative of the Department of Health in the district and he shall, for the promotion of public health and for the protection of the inhabitants from communicable diseases, have authority to enforce the provisions of the Public Health Act and the regulations, and he shall be responsible through the local M.O.H. for the enforcement of this Act and the regulations. He is also given all the powers and rights, and authority to perform all the functions and duties of the M.O.H. and the sanitary inspector.

The question of placarding the house was then discussed, and Dr. Young explained his practice which was to put up no card when the diseased person was moved to the hospital but to treat those in the house as contacts. In this case they were kept in quarantine longer than usually is the case. Those in the house were told to take baths and to disinfect everything thoroughly, said Dr. Young.

Dr. Sutton— In accordance with the Act, did you put up a card?

Dr. Young—I refuse to answer.

Mr. Reynolds — In my opinion a certain type of people need watching to see if they carry out the proper regulations as to disinfection.

Mayor Denne—Are we a jury? I think this is a matter for the Deputy Minister. Has he communicated with us?

Dr. Sutton— His representative is here.

Dr. Young — Is there a charge laid?

Ald. Ackerman—This is a report we are discussing.

Dr .Young told of seeing Dr. Sutton at the Montgomery hotel at the time of the shooting, but he was too busy carrying out his duties as coroner to discuss the matter.

Dr. Sutton read the "bread winner" clause in the Act which allows the head of the family to carry on certain lines of work where there is

LAKEFIELD BRIGADE HOLD FIRE DRILL

LAKEFIELD, May 25.—The surprise party which Fire Chief A. H. Clarke put on last Tuesday evening demonstrated the speed with which the brigade with the motor trucks can be on the scene of action. The alarm was phoned in from the school hill, and four minutes later the brigade with both motors was on the scene, and one and a half minutes later water was being pumped through one line. Three lines were used in the demonstration, which was witnessed by a very large crowd, which gathered at the call of the siren, and the quiet residential streets in the school district developed a traffic problem hitherto quite unknown and "safety first" was a vital consideration and not a theory. An extension telephone put in the Fire Hall has facilitated matters and will cut the time needed for a response call. Efficiency and speed are characteristic of the Lakefield brigade, and in consequence the brigade stands in a leading place among the village assets.

Shower for Fire Victims.

A shower of useful household articles for the Gordon Northey family of Young's Point, who lost practically everything in a disastrous fire which swept away their home and its contents about ten days ago, was held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. The response was generous and many practical household articles were gathered which will be at least a start in the re-establishment of a home.

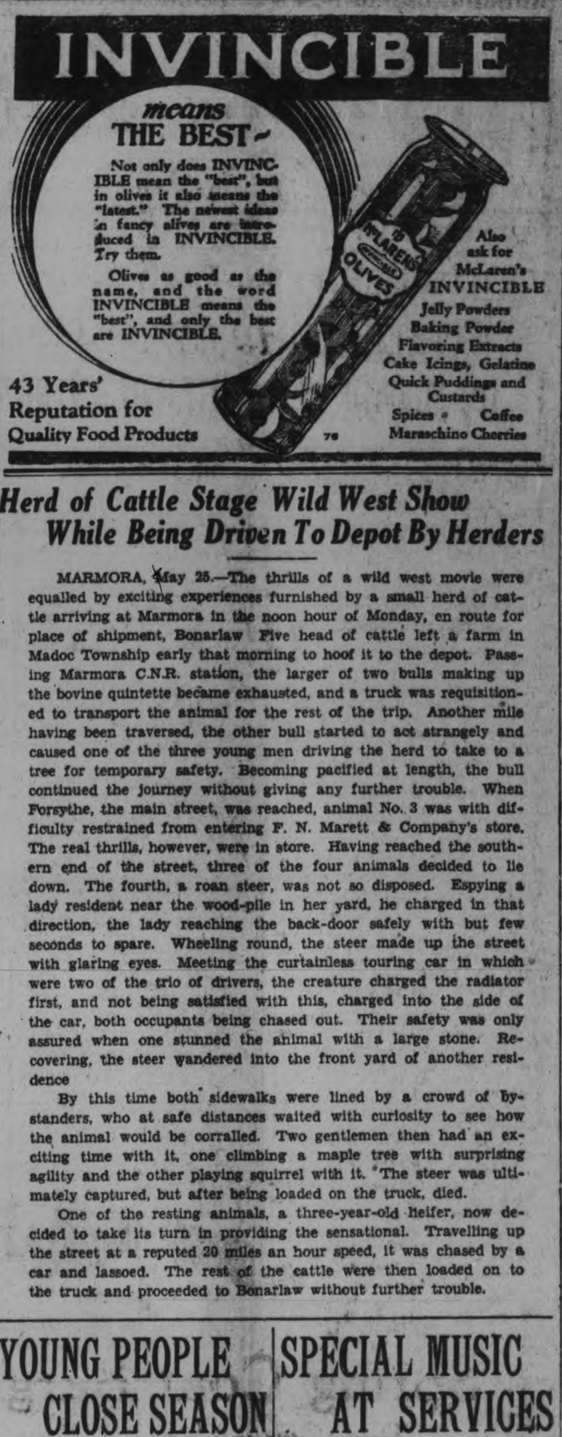
Lodge Attends Service.

The members of Lakefield Lodge, No. 358, I.O.O.F., attended the evening service in Regent Street United Church on Sunday, where the Rev. S. A. Kemp gave a thoughtful and impressive sermon on the responsibilities and privileges which follow membership in a fraternal organization which stands for the "Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man."

The choir under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Moore, provided special music appropriate to the occasion.

GIRL WINS LIPSTICK CASE

Low-priced lipsticks are the proper thing for a working girl on a small salary, even if girl and lipstick do leave marks on office curtains. So declared a labor court in Berlin, Germany, recently. Fraulein Bibi, a stenographer with a face like a doll's, claimed a month's wages in lieu of notice. Her former employer said she used the curtains instead of a pocket handkerchief when perfecting a lipstick curve to her lips, thereby jeopardizing the reputation of himself and his firm, so he discharged her and refused to pay anything but the money due for work done. Fraulein Bibi pleaded her own case, saying her wages were so low she could not afford curtain-proof or kiss-proof lipsticks, or even pocket handkerchiefs. The court ordered the employer to pay her the month's salary.



Herd of Cattle Stage Wild West Show While Being Driven To Depot By Herders

MARMORA, May 25.—The thrills of a wild west movie were equalled by exciting experiences furnished by a small herd of cattle arriving at Marmora in the noon hour of Monday, en route for place of shipment, Bonarlaw. Five head of cattle left a farm in Madoc Township early that morning to hoof it to the depot. Passing Marmora C.N.R. station, the larger of two bulls making up the bovine quintette became exhausted, and a truck was requisitioned to transport the animal for the rest of the trip. Another mile having been traversed, the other bull started to act strangely and caused one of the three young men driving the herd to take to a tree for temporary safety. Becoming pacified at length, the bull continued the journey without giving any further trouble. When Forsythe, the main street, was reached, animal No. 3 was with difficulty restrained from entering F. N. Marett & Company's store. The real thrills, however, were in store. Having reached the southern end of the street, three of the four animals decided to lie down. The fourth, a roan steer, was not so disposed. Espying a lady resident near the wood-pile in her yard, he charged in that direction, the lady reaching the back-door safely with but few seconds to spare. Wheeling round, the steer made up the street with glaring eyes. Meeting the curtainless touring car in which were two of the trio of drivers, the creature charged the radiator first, and not being satisfied with this, charged into the side of the car, both occupants being chased out. Their safety was only assured when one stunned the animal with a large stone. Recovering, the steer wandered into the front yard of another residence.

By this time both sidewalks were lined by a crowd of bystanders, who at safe distances waited with curiosity to see how the animal would be corralled. Two gentlemen then had an exciting time with it, one climbing a maple tree with surprising agility and the other playing squirrel with it. The steer was ultimately captured, but after being loaded on the truck, died.

One of the resting animals, a three-year-old heifer, now decided to take its turn in providing the sensational. Travelling up the street at a reputed 20 miles an hour speed, it was chased by a car and lassoed. The rest of the cattle were then loaded on to the truck and proceeded to Bonarlaw without further trouble.

YOUNG PEOPLE CLOSE SEASON

Entertained at Final Weekly Meeting by Musical Program.

AT OMEMEE

OMEMEE, May 25.—The Young People's Union of Trinity Church brought its weekly meetings to a close on Monday evening by a social time. Following a short program of two piano duets, a quartette and two contests, refreshments were enjoyed. Misses Edna Morcombe, Helen Johnson and Mary Weir were appointed as delegates to attend the League convention in Belleville in July.

Pupils Have More Holidays

The teachers and pupils of Omemee High and Public Schools will enjoy four holidays this week. As a result of holding school on Saturday last, they will take Friday following Victoria Day off with Saturday and Sunday following.

Trees Planted.

About five hundred spruce and pine trees were planted in the O.A.A. Park last week, having been secured from a surplus at the farm north of the village which has been planted for reforestation.

Property Changes Hands.

Messrs. Wesley Wilson and Wilbert Moncrief have dealt property in Omemee. Mr. Wilson owns the cement block house occupied by Mrs. Robert Wilson while Mr. Moncrief's house is the old Elliott home. The exchange will be made about June 1.

Personals.

Mr. Roy Overholt has secured the position as secretary for the North American Leather Company to fill Mr. T. McCammon's place.

ST. ANDREW'S WINS FROM LEGIONAIRES

Soldiers, Short a Man, Lose Out 32-9 in Curtailed Game.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25.—The Legionaires did not do so well when they took the field against St. Andrew's on Wednesday night. In the first place they were one man short and by the end of four innings, it was necessary to call the game since some of those who were there were forced to leave to go on duty. In the four innings the church members managed to chalk up thirty-two runs against nine for the troops, but the Legionaires have decided to practice and see what that will do for their cause. Most of of them were card players in days gone by and believe that it is the most certain omen of bad luck to win the first "pot."

SPECIAL MUSIC AT SERVICES

Good Congregations Attend Sunday Services in Madoc United Church.

MALE VOICE CHOIR

MADOC, May 25.—The Sunday services at Trinity United Church, Madoc, were marked by special music in the morning, and men's choir in the evening.

Good congregations attended both morning and evening, but owing to the severe electric storm in the evening, the power was off, preventing the use of the lights and the pipe organ. Adjournment was made to the Sunday School rooms, where lamps were provided and the piano was used during the evening worship.

In the morning, the subject was "First Things First", and a very effective solo was sung by Raymond Rivers, "Is the Saviour Who Loves You, Yours?" The anthem by the choir, was "Come, Thou Holy Spirit", and the solo parts were taken by Mrs. C. N. Whytock, and with Miss Muriel Rousehorn taking the alto in the duet.

William Scrutton assisted the choir with the violin, and gave a delightful violin solo, "The First Movement of the Moonlight Sonata", by Beethoven.

The men's choir in the evening gave a very enjoyable service of song, choosing mostly familiar hymns, and an anthem, "Oh Can You Say You are Ready, Brother?"

The pianist for the evening was R. Rivers, and in the choir were Messrs. B. Richmond, O. Shane, F. Taylor, W. McBain, T. Tucker, R. Wellman, B. Bailey, C. I. Ross, A. Caskey, and Hoard.

Rev. G. W. Rivers spoke specially to Fathers and Sons, read 1 Chron. 28th chapter, and then taking as his text, "And thou Solomon, my son, know thou the God of thy Father, and serve Him, with a perfect heart and a willing mind."—I Chron. 28:9. He went on to speak of the father's duty to provide not only food, and clothing, but also counsel, companionship, patience, and teaching in reverence and Godly living.

A full Sunday school room greeted the special men's choir, and all enjoyed the service of song and the message to father and son.

Marmora

MARMORA, May 25.—The superabundance of provisions for the Masonic banquet of Monday evening by the Ladies' Aid caused the serving of supper in the Council Chamber on Tuesday evening, the affair being well patronized.

Personals.

Mr. Robert Scott of Belleville spent Tuesday in town.

Mr. F. S. Pearce is able to be around again after his recent serious illness.

GIVES ADDRESS AT HAVELOCK

Robert Archer Speaks on Problems of Modern Home Life.

EFFICIENCY LEAGUE MEETS

HAVELOCK, May 25.—"Young People and the Problems of Modern Home Life" was the subject of the address given by Robert Archer at the regular meeting of the Efficiency League of the United Church on Monday evening. The discussion centred around the statement of a prominent writer that "the disappearance of domestic religion has bred a world of young people with weak morals." Unfortunately there is a decline in the practice of family worship but the statement that it has disappeared is too sweeping as is also the latter part of the statement regarding the effect of the alleged disappearance of family worship. Then there are other causes of lack of religion among youth. Prominent among these is the lack of comradeship and confidence between parents and children. However the moral weakness of youths to-day, seems greater, simply because more attention is paid to it. Careful consideration will reveal that in the majority of homes, God is honored and that the young people from these homes are by no means morally weak.

After the address a reading was given by Miss Josephine Sampson. This reading, a poem entitled "Life", had an appropriate bearing on the topic which it followed. An instrumental selection was also given by Miss Barbara Fennell.

The devotional exercises were conducted by G. W. Denike in the absence of the president. The scriptural lesson was read by Keith Chiles.

There was not a sufficient number of members present at seven thirty to stage the second game of the volley ball series so those who were on hand spent the time in a practice match.

Personals.

Miss Beryl Hart, of the Peterborough Normal School, visited at the home of her cousin, Mrs. John Hunter, over the week-end.

Five couples were married simultaneously in a church at Southwark, England, recently.

53 LOSE LIVES ON TWO SHIPS

Victims of Disasters On Russian Rivers Include 34 Children.

SAILORS ARRESTED.

MOSCOW, May 25.—The death toll of two Russian ship disasters today stood at fifty-three. A steam launch on the River Kuban carrying eight children capsized at Temryuk. Thirty-four children were drowned.

Nineteen persons died in a fire on the steamer Leo Tolstoi, which was tied to a dock in the Dnieper River near Petrovsk. The crew of the Leo Tolstoi, with the exception of the captain and two sailors, were arrested to-day charged with leaping from the boat as soon as the fire started instead of helping passengers to escape.

Obituary

MRS. W. J. HINCHEY.

WARKWORTH, May 25. — Mrs. W. J. Hinchey, of Tweed, formerly of Arrowhead, B.C., passed away on Tuesday evening at the home of her brother, Rev. D. R. Clare, of Norham.

Deceased, who was sixty years of age, had many friends, and on account of ill-health came to live with her mother at Tweed a couple of years ago. Besides her husband, Rev. W. J. Hinchey, of Arrowhead, B.C., she leaves to mourn her loss two sisters and five brothers: Mrs. E. W. Gartley, Belleville, Mrs. Allen Sanderson, Lampman, Sask., Dr. Harvey Clare of Homewood Sanatorium, Guelph, Henry Clare, Belleville, Wilmot Clare, Thurlough, Bert Clare, Saskatoon, Sask., and Rev. D. R. Clare, Norham.

After the service at the home of her brother, Rev. D. R. Clare, interment will be at Tweed.

SPECIAL SPEAKER

STIRLING, May 25.—Rev. Father Corrigan, of St. James Roman Catholic church, was the speaker at the Pontifical mass celebrated in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston, this week, it being the occasion of the visit of His Excellency Andrew Cassulo, D.D., Papal delegate to Canada.

SHE AROUSES CANNES' IRE

Cannes, France, is all fussed over the visit and subsequent report made by Miss Ethel Mannin, an English novelist. According to a Monte Carlo report she asked the local press to note her arrival, supplied her photograph and said she was looking for local color for future novels. Since then she has written two articles attacking the Riviera, declaring that fine weather was most unusual, and that the region was "inhabited by old maids and uninteresting folk of that sort." A Cannes newspaper writer rushed to the defense of the climate, and added, "We hope that this novelist will keep away from a place which obviously she does not appreciate, and which in turn will not appreciate her." To this the editor added, "Novels are fiction, you know; and novelists, therefore, fiction writers."

HOLDS WARRING FACTIONS OF CHINA AT ITS MERCY

Japan Holds Key Position Maintains Japanese Chronicle at Kobe.

CONTROLS TSINAN CITY.

TOKIO, May 25 (Canadian Press).—Japan, through its control of Tsinan, the key city of Shantung Province, and through its ascendancy in Manchuria, holds the warring factions of China at its mercy, so The Japanese Chronicle, the English language daily published at Kobe, maintains.

In discussing Japan's position and opportunity in China, the Chronicle says:

"Japan holds Mukden and Tsinan and can minimize or entirely prevent the advance or reinforcement of either the Northern or the Southern armies exactly as she wishes, and that without taking any visible action. She can accomplish it simply by an order holding up the train at either point. Thus the issue of the war is entirely in Japan's hands and whichever way it turns, it will be because Japan decided it should turn that way."

It may be that Japan does not care whether the North or the South wins, continues the editorial, but the point is that she is deciding the fate of China.

"Japanese interests in Manchuria have for long been regarded as 'vital'," continues The Chronicle. "We are always told of the blood and treasure with which they were bought, not to speak of their economic necessity. Japan's interests in Shantung were, from 1915 to 1922, almost as great, although the Washington Treaties apparently changed all that. However, there were considerable properties and business interests left, even when the military were withdrawn and the railway and civil administrations handed over. For the second time the protection of these interests has been held to justify precautions such as would be (and have been) taken in Manchuria when anything menaces Japanese interests there.

"Japan, therefore, is the arbiter of fate for the Chinese factions and can secure binding agreements from both of them at the same time. Moreover, her position in northeastern Asia is so strong that no other state will find fault with her actions in this region. It is only necessary to add that General Baron Tanaka, now Premier and Foreign Minister, was intimately associated with that China policy which was supposed to have come to an end at Washington."

WEDDING BELLS

BELL—WEBSTER.

LAKEFIELD, May 25.—A quiet wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of the Regent Street United Church on Wednesday morning, May 23, at 10 a.m., when Jean Love Webster, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Webster was united in marriage to Clarence Matthew Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bell, of Lakefield. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. A. Kemp.

The bride wore a rose beige gown of canton crepe with gloves and hose to match, a rosewood hat, black velvet shoes and a coat of navy blue. Following the ceremony the young couple left for a motor trip and on their return will reside in Lakefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell are popular young people and their marriage is accompanied by heartiest good wishes from scores of friends.

OBITUARY

ELLA TANNER.

MADOC, May 25.—The death occurred in Huntingdon Township on May 10, of Ella Tanner, aged 28 years.

R. N. PINCOCK.

MADOC, May 25.—Robert Newton Pincock, well-known osteopath, died at his residence, 47 Church street, St. Catharines, on May 11th, 1928, after a brief illness.

He was born in Newfoundland, and came to St. Catharines in 1917. His wife, formerly Miss Jennie O'Hara, of Madoc, and his parents, Rev. James and Mrs. Pincock, of Winnipeg, survive. He was a member of the Ontario Osteopathetic Association and of the board of St. Paul Street United Church.

SARAH VICTORIA KING.

HAVELOCK, May 25.—The death occurred on Tuesday, May 22nd, of a highly respected resident of the Township of Belmont in the person of Sarah Victoria King, widow of the late Elias Baker, in her 47th year. Born in Shefield, Ontario, Mrs. Baker came to Belmont when three years of age with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Noah King. She has been in declining health since her husband passed away last October and pneuomonia, contracted a few days ago, resulted in her death.

There are left to mourn her loss one sister, Mrs. J. H. Toms; four brothers, John, Ezra, Horace and Albert King, all of Belmont. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon from the residence of her brother, Horace King, to Maple Grove Cemetery.

MRS. JONATHAN THAIN.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25.—The funeral of the late Maria Hay, widow of the late Jonathan Thain, was held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Leonard, Front street, yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. Service was in the Baptist church, and the remains were interred in the Mount Pleasant cemetery. The service at the church and at the grave was conducted by the Rev. L. M. Smith, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Shaw of Menie. There were many beautiful flowers attesting the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The pall bearers were John L. Hay, Fred Hay, Edward Hay, Benjamin Miller, John Thain and Herbert Leonard.

Mrs. Thain was well known throughout the district as a woman of character and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She is survived by one son George Toronto and three daughters, Mrs. H. Leonard, town, Mrs. Warner, Toronto, and Miss May Thain, Sault Ste Marie. There are also two sisters, Mrs. John Craighead of Alpena, Mich., and Mrs. Charles Watson, Seymour, and two brothers, William Hay, Seymour and Adam Hay of town

The late Mrs. Thain died in Toronto, after an illness of approximately one month. The remains were brought here for burial in the family plot.

Marmora Resident Catches Rare Moth

MARMORA, May 25.—C. Nicholson has mounted a very fine Cecrophia moth, which was hatched a month ago in his house which when spread out, measures 6½ inches.

MISS MARY E. HOGAN.

The death occurred on May 8th in the Sacred Heart Hospital, Spokane, Wash., of Miss Mary E. Hogan, a former resident of the township of Douro.

The late Miss Hogan was born in Douro 72 years ago, but for the last 20 years resided in Spokane.

The only surviving member of the family is a brother, Patrick, of Medford, Oregon.

MRS. ELIZABETH ROBSON

NORWOOD, May 25.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Robson was held on Tuesday afternoon from her residence on Dummer road.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Elizabeth MacNaughton, was in her 81st year, and had been a resident of this village for many years. She was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. She was an active and lifelong member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The service was conducted by the Rev. H. S. Philpot, assisted by Rev. W. A. Nesbit of Toronto. Rev. J. P. McLennan, pastor of the Baptist Church, also took part in the service. Interment was made in the Norwood Cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Theresa of Toronto and Mrs. N. C. Porter, who resides in the village; also one brother, Mr. Donald MacNaughton of Peterborough. Her husband and one son, Alfred, predeceased her some years ago.

The bearers were: Messrs. Fred Robertson, J. W. Rork, Alex. MacNaughton, W. D. Robson and W. Grattan.

GARAGE MAN LOSES LIFE IN LAKE ERIE

Leaps Into Water to Smother Flames When Clothing Catches Fire.

FIXING MOTOR LAUNCH

Russell Bronson and Three Others Travelling From Port Stanley to Turkey Point.

PORT ROWAN, Ont., May 25.—(By The Canadian Press).—Russell Bronson, a garage owner of Port Stanley, and a son of F. Bronson, merchant of Walsingham Centre was drowned in Lake Erie yesterday when he leaped overboard from a 24-foot motor launch in an effort to smother flames which had enveloped him when his clothing caught fire from gasoline which had been allowed to run from the carburetor of the motor into the bottom of the boat.

Bronson along with H. S. Card of Tilsonburg, Vern Lute of St. Thomas, and Arnold Fletcher of Langton, were travelling from Port Stanley to Turkey Point in the launch which was recently purchased by Card. They had finished lunch and were going along at a 15-mile an hour clip when the motor started missing. Bronson, who was in garage clothes, climbed over into the cockpit and drained some gasoline from the carburetor petcock into his hand remarking as he did so that it was "no wonder she would not run on water I will let some of it out of here." He then let some of it run into the bottom of the boat and almost instantly the gasoline burst into flames and enveloped Bronson who immediately jumped over board.

Could Not Stand Strain.

Lute shut off the motor switch but the boat was 150 yards from Bronson before it lost its headway. The latter after being in the water some time while the others were fighting the fire called out that he was "getting tired." The men in the boat then tried to reach life belts which were in the cockpit but when they were about to toss one to Bronson he had sunk.

Fletcher was badly burned about the hands in fighting the fire which was not subdued until nearly an hour, and not until the men had partially undressed in expectation of having to jump into the water themselves as the blaze stubbornly resisted their efforts to extinguish it.

The three survivors then paddled to shore, a distance of a mile. The boat was badly burned. The wives of the four men had motored from Port Stanley to Turkey Point where they had planed to join their husbands in the launch.

Tug Crew Held On Liquor Charge

DETROIT, May 26.—(Canadian Press.)—The crew of seven of unregistered tug seised late Sunday in Straits of Mackinac with liquor cargo estimated to be worth $1,500,000 was held yesterday on charges violating customs law by transporting liquor. Tug and members of crew captured by special customs agents who said they trailed it to the Straits from liquor export dock at Windsor, was conveted here by United States' revenue cutter Cook, and boat with liquor cargo docked here. It was one of the largest liquor seizures ever made on Great Lakes. The craft formerly had been in Canadian lighthouse service but was sold by Canadian Government.

BAR HIM FROM THE HIGHWAY.

The drunken driver being undoubtedly the greatest menace to highway safety, the opinion is growing that the man convicted of this serious offence should be permanently deprived of the privilege of driving an automobile.

In an Ontario court this week a man who, under the influence of liquor, drove at a furious clip on the wrong side of the road and ran down and injured a boy, was sentenced to a year's imprisonment.

Surely that particular motorist should never again be entrusted to drive a car on the public highway.

Nor should any other individual who attempts to control a motor car under present-day traffic conditions while he is under the influence of liquor.

The man who tries to mix alcohol and gasoline should be barred from the highway for life—so far as driving is concerned.

THE PRESS UNDER FIRE.

Canadian newspapers were under fire at Ottawa on Tuesday when several members of Parliament expressed resentment of criticisms in a number of journals in regard to the immigration permit question.

Apparently some politicians have not yet realized that with the departure of most of the party organs newspapers in this country have entered upon a new field of usefulness and responsibility, and are alive to their duty of criticizing what they consider to be detrimental to the interest of the people, no matter what party corns may be trodden upon in the process.

The newspapers did not originate the charges that have been made in regard to immigration permits, but they have a right to demand that such charges should be thoroughly ventilated, and politicians who show a willingness to go thoroughly into the matter need have no fear of criticism.

To the outsider it would seem not impossible to secure evidence of trafficking in permits if there has been such trafficking, and the newspapers are merely asking that no possible avenue of investigation should be left unexplored.

WHY NOT AT ALL HOURS?

If the newly installed electric traffic signals at George and Charlotte streets are to be in operation only at night, the task of educating the driving public to their proper use will take some time.

At present motorists are working under three different systems of control at this intersection at various hours of the night and day, and that is not a condition that will bring about a maximum of safety and a minimum of confusion.

For the greater part of the daylight hours traffic is unregulated, save in the application of the through-street plan.

At busy hours a policeman is on duty there, and traffic has to move according to his signals.

And then at night the electric signals are put into commission, and another control system becomes operative.

Surely it would be much more effective were the electric signals to be constantly employed, and motorists trained to drive according to the same regulations at all hours of the day and night.

The point is one The Examiner submits and should receive consideration from the authorities.

UNFAIR TO THE HONEST OFFICIALS.

Revelations made by Hon. Peter Veniot, Postmaster-General, of dishonesty in the Postoffice Department, resulting in the arrest or dismissal of many officials, have shocked the public.

There is a feeling, however, that the Minister cannot let the matter rest as it is, inasmuch as his statement cannot fail to discredit and injure all postal officials who have been dismissed since he took office, some of whom lost their positions for reasons other than dishonesty.

It is bad enough for a postmaster to be fired without much chance to defend himself, but it is infinitely worse if by reason of a general statement made by the Minister in charge of the department he may be branded in the eyes of the public as a thief.

Officials who have been dismissed on political grounds on the complaint of the local member or the defeated candidate, as the case may be, surely are entitled to protection from charges of dishonesty.

Hon. Mr. Veniot's statement was far from complete, and if nothing more is said by him on the matter, the honest men among the dismissed officials will be the victims.

That is a condition the Postmaster-General should seek to avoid.

"LET THE CHIPS FALL WHERE THEY MAY."

Between June, 1926, and March, 1928, over 3,000 persons were admitted into Canada by the Immigration Department under special permits. Because it is thought that the bulk of these permits were issued in the months just prior to the 1926 election, when the Government of Mr. Meighen was in office, certain Liberal M.P.'s are slapping one another on the back and proclaiming that the inquiry into the permit business is going to act as a boomerang on the Conservative party.

The Conservative party needn't worry. If it isn't big enough to stand up to an inquiry into its conduct in the Immigration Department in the few short months that it held office in 1926, then it isn't big enough to govern Canada. Further: so far as the country is concerned, it doesn't care a tinker's curse whether the men who may have done wrong in the matter of immigration permits were Conservatives, Liberals or Progressives. All that the country is concerned with is to discover whether this permit system is being abused, whether the abuse is bad for Canada, and, if so, how it can be stopped. If in that process the Conservative party gets hurt, then so much the worse for the Conservative party. Or the Liberal party, or Progressive party.

If, however, certain people are going to make this permit question a partisan matter, if they are going to try to compare the record of the Conservative party in regard to it with the record of the Liberal party, then there is but one fair thing to do. It is to examine the record back to 1925. If it is fair to ascertain how many permits the Conservatives issued before the 1926 election, then there should also be scrutiny of the number of permits the Liberals issued before the 1925 election. Mr. Egan, giving evidence on Friday, said that this would be difficult; the system of issuing permits before 1926 was different. It is not an adequate excuse. Since this probe has been begun, the thing to do is to finish it thoroughly. Let Parliament and the country have an honest statement showing all the permits that have been issued since the beginning of 1925, and let the statement show on whose behalf they were issued. That, we submit, will constitute a check on both parties in this permit matter for considerable time to come.—Ottawa Journal.

AMERICA AND THE ANTI-WAR PACT.

The following admirable editorial is from the London (Eng.) Daily Observer, and the very fine spirit that it breathes cannot fail to strike the reader. It voices the true British feeling toward the United States, and it is to be hoped will be read by many Americans:

"Ever since the breakdown of the Geneva Conference a certain uneasiness has been manifest in American comment on British policy. Out of this feeling have sprung rumors, exaggerated, tendentious, altogether ugly, as to the motives which have delayed the British reply to the American note. As the inactive days pass, the danger grows that suspicion will paralyze good-will and hesitation culminate in failure.

"Let us steadily keep the end in view. It is the most vital and inspiring of all political ends, nothing less than the peace of the world. One condition, the co-operation of America, is indispensable for its attainment. By her aid alone can the world attain the solid confidence which will so transform the feelings of its peoples as to ensure peace in our time and for all time.

"Realizing this, Europe has struggled, with a scrapping of traditional ways of thought which would have seemed incredible even five years ago, to set her affairs in an order from which America should no longer hold aloof. With Locarno came the first positive organization of peace. The American proposal makes this tentative step permanent and universal. Its acceptance involves a revolutionary change in the whole tone of thought. If all goes well, if the vision can but be grasped, we shall round a turning point in the world's history. The effort is as difficult as it is noble; its accomplishment calls for patience, for perseverence, and above all, for a sense of perspective. The politics of Europe are complicated and delicate. Sufferings not yet forgotten, ambitions not yet fulfilled, obscure the view of the present to an extent without a parallel in the fresher, simpler experience of the New World. Could Americans but breathe our atmosphere, could they but realize the clashing interests which must needs be harmonized, they would not mistake caution for guile.

"Above all, the policy of Britain cannot be shaped in a trice. Her position is pivotal. She is the head of an Empire. In so fateful an issue she cannot act except in consultation and agreement with the Dominions, and especially with Canada and Ireland, both of whom are so intimately linked with the United States. She is also a European Power, concerned with the Continent's affairs, and bound to her neighbor France by ties of common exertions, agonies and triumphs. The published correspondence reveals a divergence of view between France and America. It would be worse than impolitic—it would be indecent—if at the word and without effort at mediation we were now to throw France over.

"So much for the momentary course of British policy. Ultimately, however, it moves to the current of British feeling, which on this issue is so fixed and resolute that a few words will convey it. We are keenly interested to promote good-will in Europe, and especially between France and Germany. But our friendship with America comes first. It is a friendship which will not tolerate the slightest element of friction. To this friendship, our connection with France, dear though it is, must give way as our alliance with Japan has already given way. Our membership of the league itself would be a tragedy if it involved a breach with America. It is not to be imagined that our statesmen who declare war with America untlinkable should decline to make it formally and legally impossible. War and the methods of war must be excised from the relations of the English-speaking peoples. The final word of unity and concord now lies with the British Government. The British people await its utterance."

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Yesterday was an occasion on which care, courtesy and common sense were constantly needed on the highways, and, fortunately, most drivers recognized that fact.

Canada has been invited officially to become a party to the proposals of the United States to outlaw war. Well, that's all right with us.

The court decision that there is no right or wrong side of the road may be good law, but is it common sense?

It might be well for the Parks Committee to recognize the arrival of summer by having seats installed in the city parks.

Perhaps if there were not so many members of Parliament the people of Canada might be willing to consider a salary increase.

A fine example of an unnecessary statement is the item calling attention to the fact that all five lawyers on the committee voted for bigger salaries for the judges.

Doubtless Tom Stinson, M.P., is willing to admit that Lindsay saw better running yesterday than at any time since the last Dominion election.

The Question Box

C.N. Q.—To settle an argument, please tell me when the old Hunter street bridge was removed.

A.—The old wrought iron bridge, erected in 1875, was demolished in the week of January 10, 1920.

A.M. Q.—Did men ever carry hand bags?

A.—Yes, indeed—and many do yet, in Boston, for instance. It is said the fashion will return, and tailors at least will not be sorry. Certainly the presence in bulging pockets of cigarette case, pipe, tobacco pouch, matches, card case, key ring, check book, pocket book and all the other male impedimenta, does not help the hang of a man's suit. The Examiner will write an article on this subject for Saturday's paper. Thanks for the idea, A.M.

J.E.K. Q.—It seems that throwing out the clutch of my car does not entirely stop the transmission gears from turning and I have a hard time engaging the gears at starting but after the car is once in motion, I have no trouble in shifting from one gear to another. What is the remedy for this?

A.—Apparently the driving and driven surfaces of the clutch do not entirely free from one another, at least until the clutch has been engaged and disengaged several times. This may be on account of the surface condition of the clutch fabric. You might try blocking out the clutch, when you leave the car at night, in the hope that the dragging tendency may thus be overcome. Of course, if you engage low gear and hold out the clutch while you start the engine, the difficulty of getting the gears into mesh will be eliminated.

N.T.L. Q.—What is the meaning of "corner" as applied to the stock market.

A.—"Corner" as a commercial term means the operation of suddenly securing control of the supplies of a given article in order to force up the price. The chief corners have been made in wheat, copper, and the shares of public companies. "Corner" should be distinguished from "trust," as the former is only temporary.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, May 25.— (Canadian Press.)—Increasingly pessimistic reports concerning the spring crop outlook northwest led a further advance in values yesterday. Temperatures touched 100 and drought continued without relief. Some damage of irreparable character appeared. Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled 5-8c. to 1 1-8c. net higher, with corn 1-4c. and 3-8c. off to 1-4c. up; oats showing 1-8 and 1-4c. to 5-8 and 3-4c. advance and provisions a rise of 2c. to 10c.

At times yesterday the wheat market scored all around gains of more than two cents a bushel, but in the final hour heavy selling to realize profits wiped out more than half of the advance.

By far the greatest bullish factor was persistent hot, dry weather in spring wheat territory, both north and south of the Canadian line.

Drought areas were reported to be spreading, especially in north central South Dakota and in southern North Dakota. Advices were also at hand telling of thin stands in Minnesota, and of adverse conditions in eastern Montana.

Prospects of cooler weather to-day in the northwest had considerable effect in causing the wheat market somewhat yesterday during the late dealings. There were no indications of any important moisture relief, however, and bulls contended that the longer rain is delayed the more serious the situation north-west would become. Meanwhile European crop advices continued unfavorable, especially as to France, and exceptionally good flour business with Europe in evidence. On the other hand, export call yesterday for wheat from North America proved to be only moderate.

Corn sympathized at times with wheat strength, but buying of corn was not of a sustained nature. Weather over the corn belt was favorable for the new crop, and planting is rapidly nearing completion.

Oats ascended to the highest price which the May delivery has touched yet this season. Dryness northwest was a stimulus to buyers.

Provisions were responsive to upturns in the value of hogs.

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Que., May 25 (Canadian Press). — The demand from the United Kingdom and the Continent for grain here on Wednesday was of a limited character and little business was done. A little trading was done in oats in the local market for domestic account for shipment from Fort William, but the car lot trade was quiet and prices were unchanged.

Prices for all grades of spring and winter wheat flour were well maintained, but the inquiry was quiet.

The tone of the millfeed market was steady under a limited demand from all sources. The movement of standard grades of rolled oats was small and prices were unchanged.

The undertone to the local egg market was easier owing to the increased offerings from Ontario shippers and sales of car lots of extras were made at 33c to 34c per dozen, f. o.b. shipping points. There was no change in the condition of the jobbing market, prices being steady with a moderate amount of business passing for immediate consumption. The receipts were 2,648 cases.

Owing to the small stocks of potatoes on track here and the continued steady demand from outside sources for supplies, a stronger feeling developed in the market and prices advanced 2½c to 5c per bag. A fair trade was done in car lots of Quebec varieties at 87½c to 90c per bag of 90 pounds in bulk, and in New Brunswick Green Mountains at 92½c to 85c per bag of 90 pounds in bulk, ex-track.

A steady feeling prevailed in the market for imported beans owing to the fact that supplies are not arriving as fast as expected and in consequence stocks on spot continue rather small, for which the demand was fair. Sales of choice white hand-picked grades were made at $4.20 per bushel, ex-store, in a jobbing way, and car lots were quoted at $4.00 per bushel, ex-track.

A feature of the local butter market was the stronger feeling that developed, and prices scored a further advance of ½c per pound, which was attributed to the small arrivals of the past three days, and the fact that stocks in first hands were pretty well cleaned up. The receipts were 112 packages.

There was no further change in the condition of the local cheese trade, but the undertone to the market was firm at the late advance noted owing to the increased demand from English importers. There was also some trading between houses on spot. The receipts were 2,499 boxes.

All roads lead to Dominion Tire Depots

Go with us on an imaginary trip from Windsor, Ontario, to Mont Joli, Que. From Windsor to London we will pass by nine Dominion Tire Depots (not including the three in London). From London to Toronto we will pass eighteen Depots (not including the twenty-five in Toronto). Between Toronto and Montreal we will see sixteen Depots; six between Montreal and Quebec; five between Quebec and Mont Joli.

Within a radius of fifty miles of Montreal there are twenty-five Dominion Tire Depots; sixty-six within a radius of fifty miles of Toronto; fifty-four within a radius of fifty miles of London, Ont.

Many of these Depots are modern garages; many operate towing trucks; many have vulcanizing equipment; all of them are equipped to give expert tire service on all makes of tires.

Drop in and see us, and let us explain how thoroughly this system of Depots covers every locality in Ontario and Quebec, and how it can be of use to you in motoring.

Dr. McCoy's menus suggested for the week beginning Sunday, May 27th:

Sunday—Breakfast: Eight-ounce glass of orange juice one-half hour before breakfast, coddled eggs, Melba toast. Lunch: Potato on the half shell, string beans, salad of head lettuce with olive oil. Dinner: Jellied tomato bouillon served in cubes, roast pork, spinach, cooked celery, salad of cold cooked asparagus (canned), baked apple.

Monday—Breakfast: Cottage cheese, pineapple (fresh or canned), Melba toast. Lunch: Buttered beets, squash, salad of chopped raw cabbage. Dinner: Vegetable soup, broiled steak, cooked beet tops, egg-plant, salad of sliced tomatoes and chopped parsley, cup custard.

Tuesday—Breakfast: French omelet, small piece of broiled ham, Melba toast, applesauce. Lunch: One pint of buttermilk, 10 or 12 dates. Dinner: Roast mutton, baked small turnips and carrots grated together without removing peel, green peas, salad of shredded lettuce, apricot whip.

Wednesday—Breakfast: * Waffles, 1 coddled egg, stewed prunes. Lunch: Stewed corn, cooked lettuce, ripe olives. Dinner: Baked chicken, cooked oyster plant, string beans, salad of grated raw carrots, Jello or Jell-well, with cream if desired.

Thursday—Breakfast: Poached eggs on toasted shredded wheat biscuit, pear sauce. Lunch: Glass of grapejuice. Dinner: Vegetable soup, Salisbury steak, cooked tomatoes, cooked lettuce, salad of tender raw spinach leaves, pineapple sponge.

Friday—Breakfast: Wholewheat muffins, peanut butter, stewed prunes. Lunch: Generous dish of Junket and 1 or 2 apples. Dinner: Tomato and celery broth, baked white fish, cooked turnips with tops, molded salad of peas and chopped celery, raspberry whip (leaving off cream).

Saturday—Breakfast: Baked eggs, Melba toast, stewed figs. Lunch: Cornbread, spinach, raw celery. Dinner: Broiled lamb chops, asparagus, baked ground beets, salad of shredded lettuce, peanut butter dressing, carrot pudding.

* Waffles—½ cup flour (sifted with baking powder and salt), ½ cup cream, 2 eggs, 1 level teaspoonful of baking powder, pinch of salt. Separate the yolks from the whites of the eggs. Beat the yolks, and add the cream, mixing well. Next, add the flour, with baking powder and salt thoroughly mixed in, and beat until smooth. Fold in the whites of the eggs which have been beaten into a moderately stiff froth, but not too dry or they will be inclined to separate and rise to the top of the batter.

The quantity is sufficient for five or six waffles, which should be baked in aluminum waffle irons to which no grease is to be added. Bake very thin, allowing waffle to become a light golden brown all the way through. This will dextrinize the starch in the flour, as in Melba toast. Serve with butter, and a small amount of maple syrup if desired.

Questions and Answers.

Question—Mrs. H. writes: "I want to thank you for the health I have received through your column—your advice is wonderful. Will you please tell me how to get rid of catarrh? Have much phlegm in my throat and severe headaches. Have had my eyes tested and properly fitted with glasses which reduced the headaches a little. Am taking —— to build up as I weigh only 102 pounds. Am 28 years old."

Answer—Do not try to put on weight while you are getting rid of catarrh. A mucusless diet will probably reduce your weight to some extent, but through following a well balanced diet afterwards and taking vigorous physical culture exercises, you will be able to build up a strong body and perhaps weigh more if nature considers it good for you. Temporarily, eliminate all heavy starches, also sugars and fats with the exception of a small amount of butter. Send for a special article on the cure of catarrh.

Question—R. W. asks: "Is milk a good substitute for meat, eggs, and fish? If a person eats greens sometimes, also starches, fruits, and milk in abundance, does he still need meat, eggs and fish?"

Answer—The protein of milk is not exactly the same as that found in flesh foods but it provides an excellent substitute for meat with those who are theoretically vegetarians. There is no good scientific reason against the use of a certain amount of flesh food in the diet, but milk or cheese may be substituted, if one is not inclined to catarrhal disorders.

Question—O. W. writes: "I seem to be in good health but every once in a while I have a siege of hives. Will you please tell me the cause?"

Answer—Hives are caused from chronic hyperacidity of the stomach which is brought to an acute stage by the use of some especially irritating food, or bad mixtures of even good food.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

To-day's Bedtime Story

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE BOB CAT'S GLASS

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate.)

"Fire! Fire! Fire!" barked Jackie Bow Wow, running around in circles, as though trying to catch his tail, near his burning kennel.

"Oh, my goodness, what a terrible thing!" howled Mrs. Bow Wow. She threw the clock out of the window and was carrying down a feather pillow when she saw Mr. Whitewash, the Polar Bear gentleman, shuffling up with a big cake of ice.

"You can't put out this fire with a cake of ice!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "We must send for the engines!"

"Just you watch!" growled Mr. Whitewash. "Do the stick puzzle I showed you and I'll put out this fire."

"You can't stop a fire without water," said Mr. Longears.

"There is plenty of water!" chuckled

"The Bad Chaps passed me in the woods."

Mr. Whitewash. He pointed to the eighteen sticks on the ground. At the same time the shite Bear gentleman tossed his cake of ice on the burning roof of the dogs' kennel.

At once the heat of the fire melted the ice into water. And the water, dripping down into the fire, soon put it out before Jackie's house was much burned.

"Oh, thank you, Mr. Whitewash!" barked Mr. Bow Wow, who had been down cellar trying to find a pail. "Thank you so much!"

"But what did you mean," asked Uncle Wiggily, "by telling me there was water in those sticks?" and the rabbit looked at these on the ground. "What did you mean, Mr. Whitewash?"

"You can get water with those sticks," chuckled Mr. Whitewash, "and everybody knows water puts out a fire. Look!" With that the Polar Bear took the first four sticks and with them made the letter W. Then he took the next three sticks and made the letter A. He used two sticks to make T, four sticks to make E and five sticks to make the letter R.

"W-A-T-E-R spells water," laughed the Polar Bear as Uncle Wiggily looked at the sticks. "Of course I had to make the top part of the letter R square instead of curved as it should be, for I had no crooked stick. But it was a good puzzle, wasn't it?"

"A very good puzzle, indeed," said Uncle Wiggily. "As good as any I could have made. Ha! Ha; the idea of making water out of eighteen wooden sticks to put out a fire! But who set your kennel on fire, Mr. Bow Wow?"

"It was the Fox and Wolf," answered the dog lady, as she picked up the clock, the hands and face of which were broken when she tossed it from the window. "They came here looking for you, Uncle Wiggily, and when they didn't find you they set our kennel on fire to be mean."

"The Bad Chaps passed me in the woods," said Uncle Wiggily, "and I heard them talking about something burning, so I ran. But I thought Mr. Whitewash was a bit odd to want me to do a puzzle at such a time."

"Oh, I knew my cake of ice would put out the fire!" chuckled the Polar Bear. Then they helped Mr. and Mrs. Bow Wow put things to rights and mend the burned hole in the kennel roof and all was well.

It was the day after this that the Bob Cat once more set out to try and catch Uncle Wiggily again. He took with him a piece of looking glass and Mrs. Bob Cat snarled and asked her husband:

"Is that so you can look at your silly little tail?"

"No, indeed!" growled Mr. Bob Cat. "I'm going to shine the sun in Uncle Wiggily's eyes with this glass and when he's blinded I'll get him."

About an hour after this, as Uncle Wiggily was hopping through the woods, all of a sudden he came face to face with the Bob Cat.

"Ah! I've got you now!" snarled the Bad Chap, and he tried to flash the sun from the looking glass into the rabbit's eyes. But there was no sun in the deep, dark woods. And then, Uncle Wiggily, seeing a piece of black paper on the ground, and having a piece of white chalk in his pocket—Uncle Wiggily quickly wrote some puzzle writing.

"If you can't read this funny writing you can't get me!" said the bunny to the Bob Cat. The Bad Chap looked at the puzzle. Did he do it? Ah! but can you? Try and see.

ROERICH PARTY REACHES SAFETY

Explorers Have Had Many Troubles With Wild Chinese Tribes.

NEW YORK, May 25 (Canadian Press).—A cablegram telling of the safety of Prof. Nicholas Roerirch and his expedition into Central Asia was received yesterday at the Roerich Museum here. It sketched a drama of war with the half civilized tribes of the vast territory in Western China, north of India, of capture and imprisonment in Summer tents in the Himalyaya Mountains for five months in the middle of Winter with a temperature at times 44 degrees below zero and of the loss by death of five native guides and ninety caravan animals and final escape and arrival in British territory.

The message was the first received from the expedition in more than a year.

COULD NOT WALK

But Restored with Natural Herbs

Elmwood, Ont., May 13th, 1927.

Mr. B. J. Murfin,

Dear Sir,—I must write and let you know how our son, who had creeping paralysis, is improving. He had only taken your medicine about a week when he could walk, and in three weeks had gained 13 pounds. He helped his father with seeding and is feeling fine. Our daughter is also making an improvement, is gaining nicely, but is still taking your medicine. We certainly cannot praise your medicine too highly for what it has done for us all. We do not think there is any medicine on the market so effective in building up a rundown system as Mr. Murfin's Herb Medicine and we highly recommend it to our neighbors and friends.

Hoping to see you soon, we remain, sincerely yours,

It is your fault — not that of the child

You cannot expect Children to be Safe on Street or Highway unless you teach them how

A MOTOR VEHICLE moving at a moderate speed along a street or highway. A child, heedless of danger, darts from behind a parked vehicle. A scream! The screech of brakes jammed hard. A sudden swerving of the vehicle. The fender just rubs the child's clothes.

A sample of the near accidents that occur every day. By the merest chance a fatality is averted.

The lesson is plain. It is of vital importance that every child be impressed with the need for care. It is the duty of every parent and teacher to see that children understand the dangers that are ever present where motor vehicles run. Consciousness of the dangers of traffic must be instilled into young minds and they must be taught how to avoid these dangers.

Obedience to the 6 Simple Rules of Safety will help to keep children safe from street and highway accidents. The Highway Safety Committee urges the co-operation of all parents and teachers in seeing that the children know and obey these Rules. A few words of instruction daily may save a life or avoid injuries.

There is an added responsibility in driving where children congregate. Motorists are warned to exercise every precaution. Every motor vehicle should be absolutely under control and running at a moderate speed wherever children are liable to appear on the street or highway.

The Children's 6 Rules for Safety

1. Don't play on streets or highways.
2. Cross busy streets only at crossings.
3. Never cross a street or highway without first looking both ways. Never dart from behind a parked car.
4. When riding your bicycle keep close to the edge of the street or highway. Keep both hands on the handle bars and both feet on the pedals. Don't swerve in and out. Be careful at cross streets.
5. Don't hang on the backs of waggons, trucks or motor cars.
6. Always walk on the left side of highways, facing on-coming traffic, and in single file.

The Report In Full.

The report of the District M.O.H. to the Department of Health follows:

As directed by you, I beg to report on the above subject as follows:

Mr. Hodson, a retail dairyman, conducts his business from his residence, 211 Rink street, Peterborough. He gets the larger part of his milk from a farmer named Lowe in Township of Otonabee, which borders the city; the remainder he buys bottled from Campbell's Dairy, a pasteurizing plant in the city.

On Sunday morning, April 29th, one of his seven children, a girl of nine years was not very well and vomited once. At noon a younger child, a boy, could not eat his dinner. The parents did not call their family physician, Dr. Hewitt, until night. He visited them between 10 and 11 p.m., but the symptoms resembled influenza of a type affecting some other patients he had recently had. On again visiting them next morning he concluded it was scarlet fever. The girl was desperately ill. He called the M.O.H., Dr. Young, in consultation and the children were sent to the Isolation Hospital, where in spite of the administration of S.P. Antitoxin, the girl died that evening. The boy did not become seriously ill and is recovering.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 2nd, I was informed through a non-medical source, that a child had died in Isolation Hospital of either "Black Diphtheria" or bad Scarlet Fever and that the house from which they came was not placarded and their father had been allowed to go on with his milk business from the same house.

I immediately tried to get in touch with the M.O.H., but could not locate him and was informed that he was probably out of the city. The Mayor could give me no information nor could the City Clerks' office, as the death certiifcate had not yet been received or any other information.

Thursday morning, I saw the M.O.H., who is also the Coroner, at the scene of the Montgomery shooting affray and asked him if I might speak to him a moment. He passed on without a reply and for the remainder of the day I tried many times to get in touch with him, left word at his office for him to call me etc., but without success. That afternoon I found that a swab had been sent in from the Isolation Hospital and that a slide from its culture had shown a mixed Cocci growth with one or two clumps of Black Diphtheria. I went down to the Hodson home. As I drove up some of the household hurried into their own backyard from the yard next door where they had been conversing with the neighbors. The house was not placarded and the side verandah was lined with cases of milk bottles. The man was not at home and the door opening from the side verandah was opened by a daughter of some fifteen years who was attended by a few small children. Through the door I saw other milk bottles and the varied paraphernalia of a small dairy business. The girl told me that they got the greater part of their milk from a farmer and handled it from the house. They also got some bottled pasteurized milk from Campbell's Dairy. She stated that her father had continued to live at home as usual under instruction from the M.O.H. to that effect. Their doctor was Dr. Hewitt. (I had not been able so far to find out who it was).

I called up Dr. Hewitt, who told me that he was satisfied the cases were Scarlet Fever, described the rash and other symptoms and stated that Dr. Young and he in consultation were agreed on that, though there might be a mixed infection with Diphtheria or other germs. He was quite sure the child died of Scarlet Fever. He had not inquired much into the nature of the man's business but had the idea that he was some sort of a distributer for Campbell's. He thought that the M.O.H. was under a similar impression. The M.O.H. had inquired into that aspect of the affair. He would also try to get in touch with the M.O.H. in view of this information about other milk being handled from the house. Subsequent events showed that he succeeded in doing this when I could not.

The following day I proceeded to Port Hope on the investigation required by the Minister and between times did not have any luck in locating the M.O.H. The following morning I saw you on the matter.

This morning the M.O.H. was not home so I again visited milkman Hodson's home hoping to find him in. He arrived some ten minutes and meanwhile I was questioning his wife as to exact date of the illness. On his arrival Hodson roughly found fault with his wife for answering me at all as he had given her strict orders not to answer any one. He stated that Dr. Young had told him I had no authority to get any information from any one except the M.O.H. He said that he himself would tell me nothing except that I had been misinformed about milk being bottled at the house; it was bottled at the farm and all bottles were washed at Campbell's. I have since 'phoned Mr. Campbell who tells me that since Thursday (i.e., shortly after I spoke to Dr. Hewitt) Hodson had been having them wash all his bottle (steam, etc.) Hodson's statement as to the farmer still lacks confirmation.

I located Dr. Young at St. Joseph's Hospital and was informed by him that the two Hodson children when taken to the Isolation Hospital were placed in a separate ward and not with either Scarlet Fever or Diphtheria patients, until they should show up more definitely which it was; the death certificate gave Scarlet Fever as the cause of death; the funeral arrangements were in accordance. He said that the father had told him that he got his milk from Campbell's just as it was bottled by them, that he distributed it from there and took the bottles back there. Dr. Young for this reason did not see that any danger would accrue to the public from this man's activities. He had accordingly disinfected the house, directed that the man take a disinfectant bath and go on with his business. The family were placed in quarantine by telling them to stay on their own premises, except the father, who as breadwinner could go and come. He asked what more he could have done when the man had deceived him by thus lying to him. He said that as soon as Dr. Hewitt had informed him of the discrepancy between the man's story and the fact, he had forbidden him having any of the milk or milk business about his premises.

To sum up:

Two cases of infectious disease, diagnosed as Scarlet Fever arose on April 29th, in the family of a retail milkman who conducted his business from his residence, part of this residence being used for this business. The members of the family had and have access to all parts of the residence.

The cases were taken to the Isolation Hospital on April 30th, where one of them died within 48 hours from the onset of the disease. The funeral was conducted in accordance with the Regulation for Communicable Disease, and no member of the family allowed to attend except the parents who were allowed to go to the cemetery. The death was certified as due to Scarlet Fever.

In the absence of adequate records in the local Health Department and without close inspection of full inquiry into the nature of the man's business, his statement of it was accepted at its face value and the man was allowed to stay on in his house, mingle with his family and continue to distribute milk to his customers as usual.

The house was not placarded, but the M.O.H. states that it was disinfected and the family placed in quarantine by being told to all stay on the premises, except the father who could go and come under the breadwinner clause. The M.O.H. would not state how the disinfection was to be done. My observation showed how the quarantine was failing to be observed.

A Second Report.

On May 9 some further facts have come to light, on the above subject and I beg to supplement my report of the 6-5-28. as follows:

The M.O.H. having told me he knew nothing of the farmer from whom Mr. Hodson was getting milk, I interviewed the sanitary inspector whose duty it is to inspect the premises of the milk vendors and producers. The sanitary inspector said he was not aware that Hodson was getting milk from anyone but Campbell's; that the licenses were issued from the City Clerk's office, and that he had no information on the subject, he advised me to ask at the Clerk's office. I accordingly did so, and on looking up their card, they found that this dealer's license had been issued some years ago and that there was no information or annotation as to where he got his milk.

The city of Peterborough milk by-law closely follows the model milk by-law and it is laid down that the application for a license as milk dealer is to be turned over from the City Clerk's office to the Sanitary Inspector who shall investigate and report upon the source of the supply and the methods and facilities for handling, etc. If he approves, he reports accordingly to the Clerk's office, who then issues the license. It is further laid down that these licenses are only good for one year, and thus this procedure should be repeated every year.

Having found that there was no information in the local Health Department or Clerk's office concerning this family supplying milk to Hodson, I proceeded to make inquiries around the city. I finally found out who he was and drove out to his farm. I found there that Hodson at the time of geting his original license, had been living on the adjoining farm and producing most of his milk, but that even then he had got some milk from this farmer, Mr. J. M. Lowes. At that time, the sanitary inspector had visited Mr. Lowe's premises and had given his approval. No visits have been since paid by the sanitary inspector. I was informed by Mrs. Lowes that they had been supplying Mr. Hodson with milk for years, and that up until the time it was stopped, they had delivered it to him in cans at his residence on Rink Street. She could not remember the exact date on which this practice was stopped, but was certain it was not until the later half of last week. She thought on Thursday or Friday. Up until then, Mr. Hodson had bottled their milk at his residence. Since that time, he had brought them the bottles, which she understood were now washed at Campbell's Dairy, and that they bottled it on the farm and delivered the milk to his residence on Rink street.

Copy of Milk By-law is enclosed.

SEVEN MINERS KILLED.

Explosion at Colliery Near Wilkes-Barre Causes Fatalities.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 25 (Canadian Press). — Seven mine workers were killed and several more may be missing as a result of an explosion of gas at the Conyngham Colliery in North Wilkesbarre to-day. A priest coming to the surface with the rescue squads said five more men are known to be dead.

Wedding Bells

LALONDE-ARMSTONG.

A very happy event was solemnized at St. Columbin's church, Cornwall, on Monday morning, May 21, when Miss Margaret Anne Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John James Armstrong of Peterborough, became the bride of Mr. Jos. Henry Lalonde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lalonde of Lancaster, Ont.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Cameron, in the presence of many friends of the young couple. The bride wore a suit of grey with hat and stockings to match, and black satin slippers, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink sweet peas.

The bridesmaid was Miss Isabel Lalonde sister of the groom and the gromsman was Mr. Hebert Dutt of Cornwall, Ont.

After the ceremony the young people left the church to the strains of the wedding march. Several carloads of friends accompanied them to the Canadian National Railways station. They were met at Lancaster by a number of friends and motored to the home of the groom, where a jolly reception was tendered them.

After a tour through Ottawa, Montreal and other eastern points Mr. and Mrs. Lalonde will return to Corn wall on Friday, May 25, and reside at 321 Water street east.

The popularity of the young couple was shown in the many valuable presents received.

EGGERDON—MAXWELL.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized in Toronto by the Rev. Mr. Loy, when Molly, youngest daughter of Mr. Robert Maxwell and the late Mrs. Maxwell, of Peterborough, became the bride of George Eggerdon, son of the late George Eggerdon, R.N., and Mrs. Eggerdon of Portsmouth, Eng.

A dainty luncheon was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. Long, after which the happy couple left for Smithville, N.Y. On their return they will reside in Peterborough.

OBITUARY

TERESA GRAY.

The death occurred yesterday of Teresa Gray, the four year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Gray, 262 Wolfe Street, and the late Nelson Gray after a very short illness. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 8.30 from 26a Wolfe street, with interment at St. Joseph's cemetery, Douro.

CONSTIPATION! PILES!

Are Completely Relieved By "Fruitatives"

MR. JAS. PAGE

"I suffered from constipation for five years and from piles for about six months, but one box of "Fruitatives" gave me complete relief. I had remedies from Quebec, Montreal, New York, Kansas City and Michigan, but all without results. "Fruitatives" gives results as nothing else does, and I sincerely recommend them to every other sufferer", writes Mr. Jas. Page of Cabano, Que.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Ald. Macdonald said he could but reiterate the expressions of sentiment made by Mayor Denne. "The Knights of Columbus are doing wonderful work, not only among their own people, but in the city as a whole. They have made great strides during the twenty-five years of their existence, and we hope they will make as great strides in the next twenty-five years."

Ald. N. E. Phelan spoke briefly, saying that he was glad to associate himself with the welcome extended by Mayor Denne and Ald. McDonald.

In reply, R. A. Jeffery of Arnprior, the retiring State Deputy, said he was deeply touched by the cordial greeting from the city's representatives.

"With such a welcome it seems to me that nothing is wanting to make our visit a very happy and memorable one," he said. The Knights of Columbus aimed to elevate the ideals of citizenship in and through its members, and it was a pleasure to know that they enjoyed the confidence and goodwill of their fellow citizens.

"We have just come from laying a wreath on the cenotaph, as a little mark of remembrance for all the soldiers who died in the War, and to show that their sacrifice has not been forgotten."

The Banquet.

The dinner service of Dowling of Toronto was one of the many satisfactions of the celebration. In every detail it was excellently appointed and prepared. The toastmaster was D. A. Costello, Grand Knight of Peterborough Council. With him at the head table were His Excellency, Most Reverend Andrew Cassulo, Archbishop of Leontopolis, His Grace Archbishop Neil McNeil of Toronto, Bishop O'Brien, Bishop Couturier, D.D., O.B.E., M.C., Major W. J. Hunter, LL.B., Toronto; William Kennedy, Toronto; James McGrath, Jr., Toronto, Past District Deputy; Philip Phelan, Ottawa, Master of First Ontario District of the Fourth Degree; Dr. G. J. Lunz, Hamilton, Master of Second Ontario District, Fourth Degree; V. J. McElderry, Past Grand Knight; Frank O'Connor, Toronto; Paul Poisson, M.P.P., North Essex; Senator W. H. McGuire, Toronto; R. A. Jeffery, Arnprior, Ontario State Deputy; Lt.-Col. Claude Brown, O.B.E., Supreme Director, London, Ont.; Rt. Rev. W. J. McColl, Lindsay; Monsignor Joseph Beazzotti, secretary to the Apostolic Delegate; Rev. John E. Burke, Toronto; Judge Daniel O'Connell, Toronto; Rev. J. V. McAuley; Rev. J. J. O'Brien, Capt. William A. Wells, Edmonton, Alta.; W. J. McCaffrey, Ottawa, vice Supreme Master, Fourth Degree, Canada and Newfoundland; George Hanrahan, Windsor, Past State Deputy; Rev. Paul Costello, chaplain of Peterborough Council, K. of C. and J. J. Duffus, State Deputy-elect.

In replying to the toast to the Pope, which was given by Mr. Costello, the Apostolic Delegate said it was a pleasure to be the guest of one of the most important societies of the Knights of Columbus in Canada. I am glad to invoke the blessings of God upon your society and upon your ideals," he said.

I thank you for your very kind expression to the Holy Father and I thank you for the cordial words you have expressed toward myself. In your anniversary I trust you will realize that your best efforts can be secured through piety and the Catholic Church. It is my great happiness on this occasion to propose the health of His Majesty King George V."

Mr. Costello thanked the Delegate for his assistance in the success of the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration, and expressed his gratitude to all others who had helped. "To our fellow citizens we say that Peterborough Council is fortunate in having nothing but their kindest feelings, and we would like to tell them on this occasion that we extend to them the hand of fellowship as we have done in the past. We think they will admit that we have always been ready to take our place in the citizenship of Peterborough."

The toast "our Country" was proposed by V. J. McElderry who spoke briefly but impressively of patriotism, which he said was made up of gratitude, devotion and sacrifice. When these elements are present there is a lofty and ennobling spirit of patriotism.

W. A. Wells, of Edmonton, responding to this toast, said he was born in Nova Scotia and had spent many years in the West.

"I think I know something of Canada," he declared. "Older in years than the great republic to the south of us we have progressed more slowly, but also more safely on lines that assure equality to all men. We glory in our connection with the Mother country. We pay homage to the Mother land, and cling to the old ideals and principles that have made Britain great, and which are also making Canada great, by following her example. As Knights of Columbus we have no higher ideal than that of patriotism, and we bow to no man in our allegiance to this great Dominion. During the war we took second place to no other part of Canada. I find that Major Hanley was to have responded to this toast. It was my pleasure to serve as Adjutant of the Canadian battalion, of which he was second in command. While we speak of duty to our country during the war, let us remember that we have also a great duty in times of peace. We should render to our country, our church and our Order the service they so well deserve. Let us hope that as times go by our Catholic people will take an ever-increasing pride in this great Dominion, and aspire to take their proper place in all her councils."

Major Hanley proposed the toast "Our Order" which Lt.-Col. Claude Brown replied to in an address that reviewed the works of the Knights of Columbus, in education work, welfare and relief work as at Halifax following the war-time disaster, at Haileybury, after the fire, in Japan, and in various parts of the United States; also war-time endeavours, boys' work, and various other activities.

R. A. Jeffrey proposed the toast to "Peterborough Council" to which Judge O'Connell replied.

Bishop O'Brien spoke briefly in conclusion, publicly thanking the Apostolic Delegate for his presence, and expressing his gratitude that the anniversary celebration had been so thoroughly successful.

The singing of Ed. Hanrahan of Montreal was a delightful contribution to the program.

The afternoon degree work was in charge of A. J. Reynolds of Peterborough and District Deputy Hanley of Toronto. The candidates were from Peterborough, Oshawa, Cobourg, Lindsay and Orillia.

SKINNY MEN

Gain pounds of weight and strength in 3 weeks with new YEAST and IRON—or pay nothing

"Gained 10 Pounds"
"I found Ironized Yeast to be the most beneficial tonic I have ever taken. In a few weeks I gained 10 pounds and have been gaining steadily ever since."—Mr. G. J. W., Spencerville, Ont.

Daily the letters pour in telling how Ironized Yeast has put on 5 to 15 pounds of good solid flesh in 3 weeks. Has built up strength in nervous, tired people. Has cleared skins of ugly pimples and boils.

What is the Magic in Ironized Yeast?

Ironized Yeast is two tonics in one — weight-building Yeast and strengthening Iron. The yeast is the same used in making malt, and which makes malt so beneficial. It is specially cultured yeast, concentrated to give the utmost in flesh-producing value.

This Yeast is treated with pure, vegetable iron, the same as in spinach, lettuce and celery. In this form Iron is easily assimilated by the body, making rich, red blood and toning up nerves and muscles.

Only when Yeast is Ironized in this way is it 100% effective—for Iron is needed to bring out the weight-building values of Yeast. By this special formula Ironized Yeast gives you results in half the time required by yeast or iron taken separately.

Don't have a skinny, weak body. Don't go around with an ugly skin. Go to your druggist. Get a handy bottle of Ironized Yeast tablets. Safe for everybody. Easy-to-take.

Try it on "Money Back" Offer

Go today to your druggist. Get a full size treatment of Ironized Yeast. If you are not delighted get your money back. If inconvenient to buy from the druggist, send $1.25 direct to the Canadian Ironized Yeast Co., Fort Erie, Ont., Desk 149-LL.

CAUTION! While the amazing health-building value of IRONIZED YEAST tablets has been clearly and positively demonstrated in cases of lack of energy, indigestion, constipation, skin eruptions, poor complexion, and a generally weakened physical and mental condition, IRONIZED YEAST should not be used by anyone who OBJECTS to having weight increased to normal.

Noranda's Gain Features Standard Market To-day

TORONTO, May 25.—Canadian Press. — Jumping 2.40 to 27.00 in sympathy with yesterday's rise in New York, Noranda was the centre of interest on the standard stock and mining exchange this morning.

In later trading the issue held to around 23.50. The market as a whole was steady, the strength of Noranda reflecting itself in several other issues. Hudson Bay was firmer by 40; Kirkland Lake was also steady.

Among the issues showing gains were Bathurst, up 2, Dome up 3, Malartic up 1, and Federal up 4.

Pend Oreille dropped 45 from its previous close of 16.90; Sudbury Basin was down 20 and Central Manitoba six.

Cooler Temperature Sends All Grain Down

CHICAGO, May 25 (Canadian Press).—With cooler temperatures north-west favoring the spring crop, wheat averaged lower to-day in the early dealings. Better weather over Western Europe was also reported. Opening unchanged to 1-8 cent off, wheat fluctuated throughout a range of about 1 cent, mostly downward. Corn and oats were likewise easier, with corn starting at 5-8 cent decline to ¼ cent advance and subsequently receding all around.

Opening prices were: Wheat, May, 151 3-8; July, 153 1-8. Corn, May 104 7-8; July, 107.3-8. Oats, May 68; July 57 5-8.

KIWANIANS ADDRESS COUNTRY SCHOOLS

Speak On Significance of Empire Day at Patriotic Exercises.

Kiwanians addressed some of the country schools on Empire Day on the significance of Empire Day and our national holidays. Those who gave addresses were: J. John, at Brealey's and Town Hall Schools. N. Monaghan; the Rev. Doug. Paterson, at Stewart's Hall and Zion Schools, Otonabee; Chas. Saunders at Coldsprings School, Otonabee, and J. J. Turner at Confederation and May's School, N. Monaghan.

The children enjoyed the addresses very much, and showed their appreciation by giving hearty votes of thanks.

MANY CITIZENS GREET LEGATE

Address of Welcome Read By His Worship Mayor Denne During Reception.

PAYS OFFICIAL.

Yesterday's program for the Apostolic Delegate, who had dinner at noon at St. Alphonsus Lyceum, in company with the visiting clergymen and clergy of the city and district, included the service of Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the Cathedral in the afternoon, when the Delegate was assisted by Rev. P. Butler of Cobourg as deacon and Rev. C. Carroll of the city as subdeacon, with Rev. P. Costello assisting, and the music was sung by a specially trained choir from St. Peter's High School, directed by Rev. Father Finn, who had charge of the children's music for the different ceremonies in connection with the Delegate's visit.

After Benediction in the Cathedral, a large number of people took advantage of the public reception by His Excellency, held on the grounds of St. Mary's Convent, where the reception stand was decorated with yellow and white bunting and a profusion of Canadian flags and Papal emblems.

Here an address was read to His Excellency by Mayor Denne, the text of which follows in full, and the Delegate replied in cordial terms, expressing his accord with the tribute paid to the pastoral love and zeal of Bishop O'Brien, as manifested in the community, thanking the Mayor and those he represented for their welcome to the city and speaking of the desire of Catholics to work in harmony with their fellow-citizens in all walks of life.

A very pleasing feature of the various public affairs in connection with the visit here of His Excellency was the careful attention to order and system paid by the local police force, who did much to conduct all occasions in a proper manner.

To-day, the Papal Delegate is visiting the Catholic institutions of the city and gave Benediction to the school children at three o'clock this afternoon in the Cathedral. He leaves tomorrow by motor for Port Hope and Cobourg, travelling east from there on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The Mayor's address was as follows:

Your Excellency:

We desire to give you a very cordial welcome to Peterborough on this, your first visit to our city. It is a pleasure to us to welcome visitors, and especially one who holds an exalted position such as that occupied by your excellency.

Peterborough has twice previously been honored by a visit from an Apostolic Delegate, on the last occasion two years ago, when the centennial of the establishment of the Catholic church in Peterborough was celebrated. You have come to join in an important celebration, that of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the inauguration of the society of the Knights of Columbus in this city, a society which has done a great deal in the benevolent work of assisting those who are in need of help.

It is a subject of gratification to all the citizens of Peterborough that the head of this diocese of your church, His Lordship Bishop O'Brien, is a native son of this city. It was felt by all that his devotion to that high position was a just recognition of abilities and worth, and he has devoted his energies, not only to the strict duties of his office, but also to the advancement of the best interests of this community.

The location of Peterborough, situated on the River Otonabee and surrounded by noble hills; its numerous important and prosperous manufacturing industries; the fine agricultural district of which it is the centre; its important mercantile institutions; and above all the spirit of friendliness and of respect for law and order which characterize the people, combine to make Peterborough a very desirable place of residence. In the building up of the community and the promotion of the good feeling which exists, Catholics have taken their full share.

We sincerely hope that your stay in Peterborough will be enjoyable and that you will carry with you most pleasant recollections of our visit.

Roland Denne, Mayor.

Through his loyalty its principles were to be maintained.

When Christ at Caeserea asked of Peter: "Who do men say that I am?" and Peter answered: "Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God," then to him who had once been Simon were spoken the words that turned over to him the sacred trust of the church, the keys which were a symbol in ancient Jewish times of all authority. Whatever laws he promulgated or abrogated on earth were to be treated similarly in Heaven and his absolutions were to be ratified there also. These were part and parcel of his supernatural endowment of authority. Later, he was commanded also to feed the lambs and sheep of the flock, the form of the Greek words used giving to him in the first instance a paternal attribute and in the second one of supreme authority over the flock.

"Ave, Roma Immotalis" ("Hail, immortal Rome") was significant of the erection there of the beacon light of faith which has made the aged city the citadel of faith and because there is the immortal growth of Peter, the Fisherman.

At the conclusion of the Mass, the Papal Benediction was imparted by His Excellency, and an address from the Knights of Columbus, beautifully illuminated by Miss Mamie L. McCarty, and signed by the Grand Knight, A. Costello, was read by J. R Corkery, who was accompanied by John Corkery, J. J. Duffus, F. Pepe, F. A. Shannon and J. E. Sullivan.

Present in the sanctuary for the preceding evening's service and for the Pontifical High Mass were many clergymen from the city, district and outside points. They included His Lordship, Bishop O'Brien, His Grace, Archbishop Neil McNeill of Toronto, His Lordship, Bishop McNally of Hamilton, His Lordship Bishop Couturier of Alexandria, Monsignor Bierzoddi, secretary to His Excellency, the Papal Delegate, Monsignor O'Sullivan of Toronto, president of St Augustine's Seminary, Monsignor Kelly of Cobourg, Monsignor McColl of Lindsay, Dean R Gehl of Paris, Ontario, Dean O'Sullivan of Port Hope, Rev Father Traynor of Arthur, Rev. POWERFUL, PENETRATING ANTISEPTIC OIL HEALS ECZEMA AND OTHER SKIN DISEASES

Must Give Results in 7 Days or Money Back.

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your skin a real chance to get well.

Like a lot of other people, you've probably been convinced that the only thing to use was an ointment or salves (some of them are very good) but in the big majority of cases these sticky salves simply clog the pores and the condition primarily remains the same.

Go to Bond's Drug Store, C. M. Moncur, Bert McLeod, McDermid Drug Co. Ltd., and McDermid & Jury or any other druggist today and get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil.

The very first application will give you relief and a few short treatments will thoroughly convince you that by sticking faithfully to it for a short while your skin troubles will be a thing of the past.

Remember that Moone's Emerald Oil is a clean, powerful, penetrating Antiseptic Oil that does not stain or leave a greasy residue and that it must give complete satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded.

FLAG IS RAISED AT ALL SAINTS'

Men's Club Has Erected New Flagstaff at End of Bowling Green.

SHORT CEREMONY.

A small crowd of spectators witnessed the raising of the Union Jack on the new flagpole put up on the bowling green at All Saints' Church yesterday. The men of the bowling club have been working hard to put the pole in position for the Victoria Day celebration, and it also marks the culmination of their work in beautifying the church grounds which has involved considerable expense. The flagstaff is on the east end of the bowling green and has for a background a lattice work fence, before which is a fine flower bed.

B. Attewell, rector's warden, the Rev. J. D. Paterson, C. Wiggins and several members of the men's club were present at the short ceremony and the bunting was raised by Mrs. B. Attewell.

Now it floats triumphantly in the breeze and is quite outstanding in its position.

HOSPITAL DESTROYED.

AMHERST, N.S., May 25.—(Canadian Press.)—The Highland View hospital was destroyed by fire early this morning, but all the patients were safely removed. Defective wiring is thought to have caused the fire, which did damage estimated at more than $100,000.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS 40 YEARS OLD

Coldsprings People Will Observe Anniversary Next Sunday.

WORK FLOURISHING

On Sunday, May 27, Coldsprings Union Sunday School, Otonabee, will celebrate its fortieth anniversary. Rev. J. H. Dudgeon, of St. James' Church, Peterborough, will be the speaker.

Forty years ago, before the automobile was known, in the days of the top-buggy; when only a few possessed a phaeton or a double-buggy and the average farmer had no means of going to church in town, two young ladies of the neighbourhood, Miss Lizzie Welch of St. John's Anglican Church and Miss Linda Kennedy of Charlotte Street Methodist Church, felt that there was a need for some place of worship, especially for the young people. They decided to canvas the homes and to get the feelings of the people. The result was that, on May 28, 1888, Isaac Richardson organized a Union Sunday School. R. A. Ward of Murray street Baptist Church was the first superintendent and H. D. Kennedy of Charlotte street Methodist church was secretary-treasurer. Under the supervision of these, the foundation work was well and truly laid or the result could never have been so successful. God has blessed the work.

For 18 years the Sunday services were held in the Public school house, but as years went by the Sunday school out-grew the school-room and in 1907 the present hall was erected. The school had a membership of 30 when started and the present membership is 102.

Some find their place in the foreign fields but who can say that the present superintendent did not find her place in her own neighbourhood and among her own people. Miss Laura Bennett has been superintendant since 1899 and it is largely due to her zeal and faithfulness in her work the school has always found itself in the forefront.

The present staff of teachers and officers have all, with the exception of one, been educated in the school. The school is self-supporting and besides, through the Bible Society, supports a colporteur in India and it gives its Christmas offering to the Children's Shelter. The school has always had many warm friends among the city clergymen.

The Sunday school now has a sixteen-piece orchestra under the leadership of J. A. Wilson. This helps greatly in the regular services to make them more cheerful and helpful.

The first officers of the school were: Superintendant, R. A. Ward, Murray street Baptist Church; Secretary-Treasurer, H. D. Kennedy, Charlotte Street Methodist Church; Primary Class, Miss L. Kennedy, Charlotte Street Methodist Church; Jr. Boys' Class, Thomas Welch, Sr., St. John's Anglican Church; Jr. Girls' Class, James Rose, Sr., Charlotte Street Methodist Church; Sr. Boys' Class, David Thompson, St. Paul's Presbyterian Church; Sr. Girls' Class, R. O. Ward, Murray Street Baptist Church; Men's Bible Class, Mrs. D. Kennedy, Charlotte Street Methodist Church; Women's Bible Class, D. Kennedy, Charlotte Street Methodist church —Music Leader, Charles Kitney Sr., Charlotte Street Methodist Church. In the early days the school had no organ and the only instrument of music was a tuning fork.

The present staff of the school is: Superintendent: Miss L. Bennett, St. James' Church; Assistant Superintendent, Frank Kitney, St. James' Church; Treasurer, Joseph Tully, Knox Church; Recording Secretary, Earle Huston, St. Andrew's Church; Pianist, Miss Florence Kitney, St. James' Church; Assistant Pianist, Mrs. E. Kitney, St. James' Church; Orchestra Leader, J. A. Wilson, St. Luke's Church.

Teachers: Primary Department—Mrs. G. Gillespie, St. Paul's Church; Miss A. Gillespie, St. Paul's Church; Junior Girls, Miss Mary Tully, Knox Church; Junior Boys, Mrs. Bennett, St. Andrew's Church; Intermediate Girls, Miss Florence Kitney, St. James' Church; Intermediate Boys, Ernest Kitney, St. James' Church; Young Men's Bible Class, Miss Emma Welch, St. George's Church; Young Women's Bible Class, Frank Kitney, St. James' Church; Sr. Bible Classes—Mrs. J. A. Wilson, St. Luke's Church; Miss L. Bennett, St. James' Church.

The Trustees of the Sunday school are, Charles Long, Knox Church; Alex Huston, St. Andrew's; Wm. Reid, St. Paul's; J. A. Wilson, St. Luke's; Frank Kitney, St. James'; G. Gillespie, St. Paul's.

STRESSES VALUE OF CO-OPERATION

James Dutton Addresses Oshawa Rotary Club On Monday.

The value of co-operation in business was clearly demonstrated in an illuminating address presented by James Dutton, well-known Peterboro' bread manufacturer and President of the Bread and Cake Manufacturers' Association of Canada at the Rotary Club luncheon on Monday. Mr. Dutton was introduced by Rotarian Dave Tod, who had charge of the day's program. Rotarian Tod, who for four years had been president of the association, pointed out that the present president was highly thought of as indicated by the fact that he had been elected for his second term. Mr. Dutton is also president of the Peterboro' Chamber of Commerce.

The speaker mentioned that leading business men in the United States had stated that while the volume of trade in that country had been particularly heavy in the last two years, profits were particularly small. Mr. Dutton considered that the United States has possibly been passing through a period of depression whereas Canada is in the midst of a period of activity. None the less, Canadian industrialists were being faced with the same problem of dangerous competition eliminating profits without which no industry may exist. Mr. Dutton admitted that to a certain extent the saying "Competition is the life of trade," holds good but he emphasized that it depended upon the type of competition. Business today, he claimed, was meeting with new conditions and creating new precedents. Mergers and chain stores had resulted, and to the speaker's mind these vast combinations had entered upon the field as a permanent factor.

Continuing, Mr. Dutton suggested that individual businesses might co-operate for common good so that they could enjoy the advantages of a combination without its disadvantages.

The speaker blamed the cut-throat type of competition upon lack of a proper knowledge of cost accountancy. Much opportunity for co-operation was to be found along this line as the majority of problems confronting a particular type of business common among all businesses of this nature and not peculiar. As an example of co-operation in cost accountancy he pointed out the provincial department of agriculture where much research had been made with the result that the department could tell the farmer how much it cost to raise one pig, cow, bushel of wheat, and so forth.

Advertising also offered great opportunity for united effort as it had become of highly specialized art and big business was availing itself of the best assistance to be had in this line to "get over" the right sales appeal to the public.

The fields of industrial research and co-operative purchasing were ably covered in Mr. Dutton's address and he gave a splendid explanation why small businesses should unite in these two phases to keep abreast of their big competitors. In concluding the speaker expressed his belief that a new industrial era was dawning and that the latter half of this century would become known in history as a period marked by united industrial effort.

Very hearty applause was accorded Mr. Dutton for his remarks and on behalf of the club, a vote of thanks was conveyed to the visiting speaker by President Alex Storie.

The club was also favored to have as its guest Rotarian Tom Dutton, of Peterboro', who extended an invitation to the local club to send boys to the summer camp conducted by the Peterboro' organization at Clear Lake, in the Kawartha district. Kiwanian Frank G. Stinson, Secretary of the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce was a guest of the club as well.—Oshawa Daily Times.

The Dollar's Reach

There was a time when a dollar would buy a whole Sunday dinner for a family—including the inevitable chicken—and perhaps leave part of the dollar still in the customer's purse.

The Sunday chicken and the dollar are no longer "on speaking terms"—for the dollar has a shorter reach.

For this reason the customer must have greater care in the expenditure of his dollar—for if it will not purchase as much as it did aforetime, it must buy the most and best obtainable.

C.D.S. cash pricing, by keeping costs to a minimum, lowers the prices to the customer — increases the volume of sales, which in turn, opens new sources of supply at the most favorable prices.

C.D.S. cash pricing comes to mean lower prices—better values—and widest choice—C.D.S. cash pricing gives the dollar its longest reach.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

Death strikes GARRETT FOLSOM while swimming at Ocean Town, N.J. After being perfunctorily examined by a doctor, the body is brought to the Hotel Majusaca, where an inquiry is started.

Folsom's bathing companions had been ROGER NEVILLE, MRS. HELEN BARNABY, and CARMELITA VALDON. It is established that Folsom, just before his death, had been standing next to NED BARRON, known as the copper king.

Then the startling announcement is made that Folsom had been stabbed to death in the water. ROSS, his valet, is questioned, as are Barron and his wife, but no light is shed on the mystery.

ANASTASIA FOLSOM, eccentric and masterful sister of the dead man, arrives and takes command. At the inquest it is established that the death weapon was a pichaq, an Oriental knife, and that it and its scabbard had been purchased on the boardwalk.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XVI.

"Then," said the coroner, "our next step is to find out who did buy this particular weapon. What is the address of the shop, Mr. Meeker?"

"It isn't exactly a shop, it is an auction room. A place where auctions are held of various stocks or consignments carried there for that purpose."

"Yes, I understand. Well, doubtless, the proprietors can give us the information we want. Jepson, you'd better go there yourself, and now, and learn all you can of the matter."

The detective went off at once, and the coroner, with a sigh, returned to his investigation.

"I am in rather a strange predicament," he said, frankly. "Never before have I had to conduct an inquiry with so little evidence to work upon. The question before us is how did Mr. Folsom come to his death? What weapon was used? and who used it? Those are the only matters that affect us. With the private life of the gentleman we have no concern, unless it can be shown that it has to do with his tragic death.

"There is nobody under suspicion in the case, but it is undoubtedly murder, and was apparently committed with premeditated intent. There is little question of motive or opportunity, which are usually the first matters to be taken up. But, as you can readily see, everyone in the ocean at the time of Mr. Folsom's death may be said to have had opportunity, and so far as we have been able to learn, nobody has shown any evidence of having had a motive. This makes the affair most mysterious, for men are not murdered without motive. And so, gentlemen of the jury, I will call on those who knew Mr. Folsom personally, and you may gather what knowledge you may from their depositions."

Hubbard was naturally a little verbose and stilted of diction, but in this case he was more so, by reason of his own uncertainty how to proceed. It seemed absurd to call on the people who knew Garrett Folsom, for they were the ones most interested in learning the truth, and the ones least likely to be implicated in the crime.

However, it was the only thing to be done and Miss Folsom, as the nearest relative of the dead man, was called next.

Her testimony was, of course, only to the effect that she had been summoned to Ocean Town by the telegram announcing her brother's death. This message had been sent to her Chicago home, but as she was in New York, it had been forwarded to her there and she had immediately started for the seashore resort.

She answered readily the coroner's questions as to her brother's business and habits of life, but nothing she could tell had any bearing on the subject of his death. In addition to the information required of her, she reiterated her determination to bring the murderer to justice, and declared herself willing to spend as much of her fortune as might be necessary in order to succeed in her quest.

There was something about Anastasia Folsom that made her hearers respect her, though none of them would have cared to make any effort to become better acquainted with her. She was not attractive, she rather repelled people, yet none could say she was not sincere and determined in her effort to solve the mystery of her brother's death.

The next witness was Ross, the dead man's valet.

But he had no more of importance to communicate than had Miss Folsom.

"You have been with Mr. Folsom some time?" Hubbard asked, a bit perfunctorily.

"Four years, sir," replied Ross.

"He was a good master?"

"In every way, sir. He was kind always, though to please him everything had to be in strict accordance with his orders."

"And you came here with him when?"

"Day before yesterday—that is to say, Thursday, sir. We arrived in the afternoon and went to the Hotel Majusaca."

"And what did Mr. Folsom do on Thursday after reaching here?"

"As soon as we arrived, he left me to put away his clothing and belongings, and he went out for a stroll on the boardwalk. I didn't see him again until he came in to dress for dinner. After he was dressed, he told me I could have the evening to myself. He advised me to go for a stroll on the boardwalk or to take a ride in the chairs or to go to a movie show."

"Which did you do?"

"I did all three. The gay scenes were most interesting and I had a pleasant evening."

"You're wasting time talking to Ross," Miss Folsom put in with an annoyed shake of her head. "I've known the man for years; he was my brother's trusted assistant. Get what he can tell of Garrett's doings the morning he died, and then get at some more important witnesses."

Coroner Hubbard was not accustomed to receiving advices from his audience as to how to proceed, but Miss Folsom's suggestion was sensible and he showed no resentment.

"Tell us, then, Ross," he said, "what Mr. Folsom did the morning that he met his death. Tell the story of the day."

"He rose early, as he always does, sir. I mean about eight o'clock, earlier than most men on holiday. He went downstairs and breakfasted in the dining room. Mr. Folsom was never one to have meals in his room. Then he came back to his rooms about, maybe, ten o'clock, and told me to get out his bathing suit and the bag of toilet things that he always carried with him to the bath house.

"I did this, and very soon he picked up the bag and started off. He turned back to tell me that I could go for an ocean dip while he was gone, but to be back by one o'clock, as he would return about that time."

"And you went in the ocean, then?"

"Yes, sir, for a short time. I didn't stay in long because I wanted to be sure to be back in Mr. Folsom's rooms by one o'clock."

"And were you?"

"Oh yes, some time before one. By half-past twelve or thereabouts."

"You saw or heard nothing of the commotion caused by Mr. Folsom's death while you were in the water or on the beach?"

"Oh no. I was told Mr. Folsom was—was hurt at about half-past twelve o'clock. At that time I was in his rooms, or just going there."

Your own room is on the same floor with Mr. Folsom's?"

"Yes, at the back of the house. Mr. Folsom's rooms are on the ocean front."

"Yes. Now, Ross, think carefully. Do you know of anybody who could have any reason or any intent to wish for Mr. Folsom's death?"

"No, sir. Not anybody."

"Who will benefit by this decease?"

"Benefit, sir?"

"Yes, financially, I mean."

"I'm sure I don't know, sir."

"Don't ask those questions of Ross, Mr. Hubbard," interrupted Miss Folsom with asperity. "I will tell you of my brother's business affairs. Though I don't see what they have to do with the inquiry into his death."

"They might have a great deal to do with it, Miss Folsom. Who, then, will receive the bulk of Mr. Folsom's fortune?"

"That I can tell you in a general way. The will of my brother leaves some minor bequests, but the main part of his estate is divided approximately into thirds, one of which will be my portion, another will go to a nephew of mine and the other to Mr. Roger Neville, my brother's friend and business associate."

"Who is this nephew? Where is he?"

"His name is Pelton—Daniel Pelton. He is just now in New York city. I was with him the evening before I came down here."

"Thursday evening, that is?"

"Yes, night before last. Now, Mr. Hubbard, get on with your inquiry, for I want to learn all I can of these matters before I engage my own detective to ferret out the mystery."

OFFICERS ELECTED LAKEFIELD A.Y.P.A.

Walter Chappell Will Head Society for 1928-29—Financial Report Read.

LAKEFIELD, May 2g. — The annual business meeting and election of officers of the A.Y.P.A., of St. John's church, was held in the parish hall on Monday evening, with a fair attendance of members present, and the president, W. Chappell in the chair. E. J. Robertshaw read the treasurer's statement which showed unusually larger expenditure and receipts, and a good balance on hand after all expenses had been paid. The officers were:

Officers 1928-29.

The following officers were elected, the Rev. W. J. Creighton in the chair: President, Walter Chappell; vice-president, W. S. Remnant; secretary, Mrs. M. Smith; treasurer; E. J. Robertshaw; visiting committee, Mrs. W. Millage and Miss Grace Watson; Lookout Committee, Mrs. W. Chappell, Messrs. L. J. Charlton and M. Hampton; Property Committee, Miss A. Watson, Messrs W. Dyke and Mr Hampton; Dramatic Committee, Messrs T. A. Simpson and M. Smith.

Plans were made for a picnic to be held the second Thursday in June to Hague's Point, and also for meetings once a month during the summer on the second Monday of each month. Arrangements were made for the members of the Dramatic Club and others who wish to do so, to attend the Dramatic contest in Omemee on Friday morning.

FRECKLES

Tells How to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots and Have a Beautiful Complexion

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine from any drug or department store and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove your freckles.

Westwood

WESTWOOD, May 25.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in St. Andrew's United Church on Sunday morning, the service being conducted by the pastor, the Rev. S. H. Moyer.

Before administering the sacred emblems, eight young men were admitted to the membership of the chuch, four by certificate, and four by profession of faith.

Dyspepsia Troubled Him for Many Years

Mr. J. Savoy, Loggieville, N.B., writes:—"I have suffered for many years from dyspepsia and could not seem to get any relief.

"One day I told my wife I thought I would try a bottle of and when I had half of it taken I felt a lot better, so I continued until I had taken two bottles, and now have no pains and no coated tongue, and feel that I am completely rid of my trouble."

MASONS OPEN FINE TEMPLE AT WARKWORTH

Percy Lodge Has Large Lodge Room, With Auditorium For Public Use.

WELL FITTED UP.

Dedication Ceremonies Held in Lodge Room Yesterday—Many Visiting Brethren Present.

WARKWORTH, May 25. — For the first time since its origin in the year 1864, Percy Lodge 161, A.F. and A.M., is now the proud possessor of a temple which houses not only the lodge rooms, but also a large auditorium, which may be used for dinners, dances, or theatrical purposes. The original building was used as the village Town Hall almost one hundred years ago. It is of brick structure on a stone foundation. Since acquiring the property the Masons of the lodge have added to the size of the structure and also redecorated the entire building, exterior and interior, at a cost of about ten thousand dollars.

The building is situated on Main Street, near the outskirts of the village. Its overall dimensions are 70 by 30 feet. The grounds have not yet been levelled and seeded, but this is due to the fact that building operations have but recently been completed.

Inside, the building is finished in rough cast plaster, with natural fir panelling. The floors are of highly polished hardwood throughout. There is also a small stage with special lighting systems to accommodate theatre requirements. Behind the stage is a kitchenette and cloak rooms for use when dancing is in progress. There is also a ladies' rest room. The water in the building is supplied by a private system specially installed in the building. Lighting is by the indirect system.

On the second floor, the Masonic lodge rooms occupy the entire floor space, as they are much larger than the recently vacated quarters, much new furniture has been installed. The floor is covered with heavy grade linoleum, and a special lighting system has been installed. At the rear is a spacious ante-room and a locker room for Masonic regalia and lodge equipment of every description.

Yesterday Percy Lodge, which originated with fourteen members sixty-four years ago, added another milestone to its long years of active existence by the dedication and consecration of the new temple. The ceremony began with a dinner served by the wives of the members in the auditorium on the ground floor. Approximately three hundred Masons were seated about the table. They formed one of the most representative gatherings which Warkworth has ever witnessed. Among the places represented by visiting brethren were Toronto, Hamilton, Cobourg, Port Hope, Colborne, Brighton, Campbellford, Trenton, Hastings, Bowmanville, Peterborough, Norwood, Millbrook, and Bobcaygeon.

After the banquet the Masons retired to the second storey, where the dedication ceremony was held in the lodge rooms. Later they returned to the main floor, where the program arranged by Rt. W. Bro. Benjamin Buchanan was thoroughly enjoyed. The musical numbers were a solo by W. H. Smooker and by H. R. Pollock, Toronto, a trio from the Brighton Lodge, and a duet from the home lodge. The speakers were Rt. Wor. Bro. Dargaval, Toronto, Rt. Wor. Bro. Logan, Hamilton, Rt. Wor. Bro. R. C. Blagrave, D.D., Peterborough, and Rt. Wor. Bro. W. R. Morris, D.D.G.M., Peterborough. Accompaniments were played by Bro. J. W. Dixon, Warkworth.

STAGE PLAY AT BRIDGENORTH

"Pollyanna, the Glad Girl" Presented by Young People of Lindsay.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

BRIDGENORTH, May 25.—"Pollyanna, the Glad Girl," was presented on Monday evening by the young people of Lindsay United Church, in the United Church, Bridgenorth, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. The church was filled to the doors with an appreciative audience. The play consisted of four acts, the Lindsay orchestra playing several selections between the acts.

The scenes were as follows: Act 1, Miss Polly Harrington's parlor; Act 2, John Pendleton's library some weeks later; Act 3, the library an hour later; Act 4, the library five years later.

"Kruschen is Wonderful."

Read this Letter

"My husband and I have been taking Kruschen Salts now for the last two years and have felt the utmost benefit. We know they are wonderful because when we have not been taking them through my husband being out of work, we have felt the difference.

"I give it to the children every morning, even the two babies. If all expectant mothers would take these salts every morning I think they would feel the benefit. Another thing, I had three children very bad recently with eczema, and I was buying ointment for weeks, but they never got better. I even tried a famous blood mixture without success.

"My hubby said, 'Try them with Kruschen Salts.' I did so and I was glad too, for in two weeks they were better."

SHOWER IS GIVEN LAKEFIELD BRIDE

Miss Jean Webster's Friends Give Her Many Useful Gifts.

LAKEFIELD, May 25.—On Monday evening a miscellaneous shower was given Miss Jean Webster by about sixty friends who met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Spence. The familiar strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. H. E. Moore, heralded the entrance of two little girls, Misses Jean Clark and Nora Webster, who carried a clothes basket filled with a large assortment of useful and fancy articles, which go to make up a miscellaneous shower and mean a great deal to the bride in the arranging of her home, combining as they do, good wishes and practical usefulness.

Mrs. Albert Darling, president of the Ladies' Aid, spoke a few kind words of felicitation to the youthful bride elect and Mrs. S. S. Spence, who has arranged more events of this kind than any other woman in Lakefield, added her good wishes in a gracefully worded speech. Miss Webster thanked her friends for their remembrances of her on the eve of her marriage and assured them of her heartiest appreciation.

Inn Renovated.

The Lakefield Inn which has been entirely re-decorated will be re-opened on June 1 under the management of J. S. Strickland.

O.H.A. Team Gets Sweaters.

The members of the O.H.A. team which distinguished itself in last winter's sporting activities, have received the new sweater coats which are given by the hockey club. They are white with red facings and are very handsome and very much admired.

COMES TO TERMS

NEW YORK, May 25 (Canadian Press)—Jack Sharkey, Boston heavyweight, has agreed to terms through his manager for a match in July with the winner of the Johnny Risko-George Godfrey battle at Ebbets Field, June 20, Humber J. Fugazy announced yesterday. The contracts will be signed Monday.

MACHINE GUNNERS SHOOT AT RANGES

Major Dodds' Company Carries Out Annual Firing Course Over Holiday.

Active service conditions were closely approximated yesterday when No. 3 Company of the fourth battalion, Machine Gun Corps, shot the annual course at the rifle ranges on the Norwood road. Smoke bombs were used to partially obscure the targets, and colored star shells hung from parachutes overhead while the gunners trained their guns on the targets.

Major H. Dodds was in command of the Company, with Captain J. A. Dewart, M.C., second in command. Lieut. R. Devey was in charge of three and four guns, and Lieut. J. R. Heron of one and two guns. The practices started at 8 o'clock and continued until 4.30, the work including traversing, searching and grouping as well as the more difficult clinometer "shoots" and training in indirect-fire work.

Among the interested visitors were Capt. the Rev. Dr. R. C. Blagrave, Chaplain of the 4th Battalion, C.M.G.C., Police Sergeant W. Wigg, whose son is a member of the Company, A. A. Fowler, and F. Haggart.

As usual, Q.M.S.I. Thomas was responsible for the details of the day's shoot, and the great success of the gunners in their difficult tasks is credited to his training.

YARDLEY'S
Old English
LAVENDER SOAP

Maidens who were courted by the gallant dandies of a century and a half ago used Yardley's Old English Lavender Soap to enhance their comeliness. Discriminating women of to-day the world over still rely on Yardley's refining purity—delight, too, in its lavish perfume—the lovable fragrance of Lavender which lingers on the softened skin.

A local fisherman has just returned from Hollow Lake in the Muskoka district. He proved his story by producing conclusive evidence in the form of a speckled trout twenty inches long and weighing over three pounds.

Grand road is now open to traffic from Victoria street to the station corner. The concrete base has been laid, but the surface has not been applied. Centre street is barricaded from Second to Bridge street, and Bridge street is closed almost as far as the corner of Front street. The Ranney street creek is almost completely tiled and extensive operations are in progress for the improvement of the roadway. It is expected that this street will be one of the best of the unpaved streets of the town.

The Experience of Mrs. Roy Brown is Well Worth Reading

Peterboro, Ont.— " I was in a miserable state of health, my nerves gave way completely, I could not sleep, had backaches and was completely exhausted—so weak and sleepy and tired that I was compelled to give up and take to my bed. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as nothing I had used helped me. By the time I had taken one bottle I was able to be up and around, I kept on taking it and was completely restored to health. I cannot say enough in praise of the 'Favorite Prescription' for the wonderful help it gave me."—Mrs. Roy Brown, 222 King St.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis or stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with pepsin or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines.

Instead neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little Bisurated Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better than Bisurated Magnesia, to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. Your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes. Bisurated Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive.

Mrs. Clifford Mulligan, of Lindsay, and Mrs. Leslie Goodova, of Kingston, are among those to be presented.

GAS MADE HER CROSS, CAN'T EAT OR SLEEP

"When I ate I would bloat up with gas. I couldn't sleep, was cross and nervous. Adlerika has given me real relief."—Mrs. M. Meyer.

Adlerika relieves stomach gas and sourness in TEN minutes. Acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel, it removes old waste matter you never thought was in your system. Let Adlerika give your stomach and bowels a REAL cleansing and see how much better you feel. It will surprise you! McDermid & Jury, E. L. Payne, McDermid Drug Co.

DRESS
By MARY MARSHALL

The bathing cap above is of red moire with a bag to match lined with rubber. The necklace for bathing wear is of shell-like coral. The sandals are of wood shellacked red and gold with gold leather straps. The new-type bathing suit indicated consists of a pair of navy blue shorts worn over a white skirt with strap to hold it down, and the jaunty cap is made of jersey with a pompom on the top. The beads shown below are of phosphorized wood that shine when wet, and the handkerchief scarf has a border of fine tucks.

The mother who told her darling daughter who wanted to go swimming to hang her clothes on a hickory limb, but not to go near the water, wouldn't seem so unreasonable now as she did once—because nowadays bathing apparel may be worn quite as effectively on land as in the water and many a woman who starts out apparently to swim merely loiters on the beach for a sun bath.

Once only women who swam or were at least fond of surf bathing included bathing apparel in their wardrobes. Now every one includes bathing things as a matter of course, and never before have the dressmakers of Paris laid such emphasis on these things as they do this season. The sketch shows a number of the newest accessories and the new type of two-piece bathing costume with a tuck-in upper portion that is held secure by a center strap.

An unusual beach costume that I saw the other day consisted of a sailor blouse of white duck or some other heavy white material, worn with a pair of sailor trousers also of the white cotton material. It might be considered just an adaptation of the new yachting note to the beach pajama, but it looked for all the world like a real sailor suit.

Every day the yachting note is gaining ground and I recently even saw a tennis ensemble that carried out this yachting idea. This showed a one-piece sleeveless frock of white crepe de chine made with a deep sailor collar, with a short double-breasted middy jacket of navy blue light-weight flannel.

There is something very tempting about the new large chiffon evening handkerchiefs. Many of them are trimmed with costly fine lace, in the form of edging or medallions at three corners. One corner is always left plain for tying about the wrist. Fine footing is chosen for many of these new handkerchiefs. One attractive model has footing all around with little insets of the footing and a simple embroidery stitch at three corners.

Why We Do What We Do.

WHY WE FAIL
By Mehran K. Thomson, Ph.D.
(Author, The Springs of Human Action)

Failure means missing the mark. We dislike to fail for the same reason that we like to succeed. It is unpleasant to lose out in any undertaking because it reacts unfavorably upon our self esteem. We lose caste in our own eyes and in the eyes of our fellows.

Failure is discounted because there is no distinction about it. Anybody can fail. It takes skill, courage and ability to succeed. We admire these traits because they bring us greater satisfaction than clumsiness; cowardice and lack of ability.

There is no end to reasons why we fail. Moreover, there is failure and failure. Not all failure is equally serious or discouraging. All types of failure; however, are unpleasant and we try to avoid them as much as possible. Some of the more common and important reasons why most of us fail may be set down as follows.

Undertaking projects that are beyond our ability. If I should try to write a symphony, or fly to the moon, I would fail because both of these are entirely out of my line. Of course we cannot always tell what is our line until we try. But the fact remains that a lot of failure is due to over-reaching ourselves.

Inability to adapt one's self to new conditions is also a common cause for failure. We live in a dynamic world where it is necessary to make new adjustments almost constantly. It takes real intelligence to see through a situation, to go around a problem and, if there is no other way, to cut the Gordian knot as did Alexander the Great.

You can't succeed if you expect failure. Whatever is on the mind will work itself out in action. Lack of confidence, and all forms of the inferiority complex play into the hands of failure.

HOROSCOPE
The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel

(Copyright, 1928, McClure Syndicate.)
FOR SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1928.

While this is read as an unimportant day in planetary government, according to astrology it is a time to be cautious.

There is a sign indicating arrogance and a disposition to be exacting among persons who wield power under this rule of the stars.

This is not an auspicious day to seek employment or to ask for promotion.

The rule makes for criticism and misjudgment of both men and women who are prominent. It is bad for all who desire to attain public positions of any sort.

Neptune is in a place disturbing to the mind and supposedly encouraging wrong ideas regarding public affairs.

Under this sway enemy propaganda and radical writings receive more notice than they would at other times.

There is a sign read by the seers as presaging a great uprising in favor of eliminating organized crime and vice.

A leader of power and wisdom is to appear in an eastern city where he will demonstrate novel methods of dealing with the underworld, astrologers foretell.

It is this malefic planet Saturn that is believed by occultists to influence politics in the pre-convention campaign.

Diet now comes under general discussion, owing to some new health theory.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have a year in which they must expect diplomacy in business as well as domestic affairs.

Children born on this day probably will be able to attain real success through unaided efforts.

LYRICS OF LIFE

CROESUS RETURNS.

I saw him when he went away;
To seek his fortune, as we say;
A purse in which the ducats gleam
Of regal wealth, that was his dream.
"Yet money is not everything,"
He said, "to make a fellow sing,
And something some day I will be
To make the village proud of me."

Then tales came back from that great world
Beyond our hills. His flag unfurled.
He climbed the heights of fortune, fame—
Then yesterday back home he came.
And now he says that he intends
To spend his days among his friends.
But by the fire he sits alone,
For now his friends have friends their own.

He made the error some men will.
He thought the village would stand still
Until he came with bugle blare;
But when he came men did not care.
I saw him; saw him just to-day;
Brushing an ivy vine away
Beside the cemetery gate
To find the one bit thought would wait.

Seniors Lose Opening Game To Oshawa In C.O.B.L.

PETES BEATEN 6-4 IN FIRST LEAGUE BATTLE AT OSHAWA WITH REGULARS OFF LINE-UP

Heckman Goes Route Without Practice When Called on in Pinch.

DAINTY WINS

Veteran Oshawa Southpaw Grabs First Start of Season.

Minus some of their regulars and with Al. Heckman unexpectedly called upon at the last moment to do the twirling the Petes were outscored 6 to 4 in the opening Central Ontario League battle at Oshawa yesterday.

Manager Holyman and his squad, however, came home almost as tickled as is they had grabbed the verdict.

The much-touted Oshawa reinforcements of which so much had been heard failed to put in an appearance. Sutton, a smooth second baseman, being the only stranger in the lay out and even in victory the Motors did not look formidable enough to cause any apprehension in the Peterborough camp.

Facing weakened opposition and with Heckman decidedly short on work, having to go the route against them, the Motor gang were not materially stronger than last year, save through the presence of Herb. Wolfe, former Peterborough outfielder whose home run in the third with one on represented the Oshawa margin of victory.

Until the umpires were about to announce the batteries Manager Holyman expected to send Jeff Hardill to the hill top. The young right-hander had been working out for some time and was counted upon to stop the Oshawa attack but at game time he reported himself not in shape and declined the honor of pitching the opener. Heckman, in spite of the fact that he was far from in condition, responded when called on in the emergency and went the full game, though necessarily under wraps.

In spite of his condition the veteran, who is starting his seventh season in a Peterborough uniform, turned in a fine performance, fanning nine of the enemy and giving but one base on balls. The winners looked as if they could have been easy picking for "Heck" if he had been in shape to bear down on them. And to complete a good day's work the Petes' pitcher crashed out three hits in four trips to the plate.

Opposed to him was the durable old southpaw, Duke Dainty, who, although touched for eleven hits, kept them well scattered, except for a couple of innings and with five left-handed batters to work on used his curve ball to good advantage. It looked like curtains for the veteran left-handed in the fifth when the Petes bunched three hits with a walk, but Dainty weathered the storm.

The Petes were minus Swanston, Rose and Harrison, Wilgar doing the catching, Batten covering second and Ash coming in from the outfield to play first, Jack Turner, Jake Hall and Harvey Smith, the latter with the Cogs last year, comprised the outfield. The squad did some fine fielding and Wilgar, coming back into the game after several years' absence, performed nicely behind the bat.

Sutton, who hails from Flint, Mich. was the only newcomer on the Oshawa line up and did some fine defensive work round the keystone sack. Otherwise the Motors looked very familiar and after looking them over the Petes are not worrying a great deal about the season's prospects.

Mayor Preston and Dr. Henry of Oshawa and H. T. McFadden of Peterborough, President of the Central Ontario League, participated in the opening ceremonies as pitcher, batter and catcher respectively.

The biggest Oshawa baseball crowd in several years saw the battle and were given a fast and well-played exhibition, the defensive work of both clubs benng of mid season calibre.

There was nothing doing in the first. The Petes went out in order and Although Williams singled for Oshawa with two out, Jake Hall retired the side with a pretty running catch of Dainty's fly.

Wilgar singled with one gone in the Petes second, but Heckman hit into a double play.

Oshawa started the scoring in their half. Sutton singled to centre and made second when the ball rolled past Smith. T. Morrison fanned. So did Fair but Wilgar dropped the third one and had to throw to first, Sutton going to third. He scored on a wild pitch. Hank Morrison popped to Holyman.

With two down in the third Turner cracked one on a line to left for a triple but he was out at the plate trying to stretch it into a homer.

The Motors had a big inning. Elliott singled to left, stole second and scored ahead of Wolfe when the former Peterborough outfielder hit for the circuit down the left field foul line. Kellar singled past Heckman, stole second and went to third on Williams' infield out. Dainty drew a pass. Sutton fanned. Kellar scored on Holyman's fumble on T. Morrison's grounder. Johnston tossed out Fair.

The Petes got their first in the fourth. Holyman walked and stole second to score on infield outs by Johnstan and Hall.

Oshawa had two on in their half on a single by Elliott and a pass to Wolfe but with two out Elliott was picked neatly off second by Holyman and Heckman.

The Holyman squad threatened to drive the Duke to retirement in the fifth. Heckman started by singling on a line to left and advancing on a passed ball. Smith drew a walk. Batten doubled over third, scoring Heckman. Turner struck out but Holyman singled to left to send Smith in; Fair losing the ball in the sun. Johnston popped out and Hall fanned to end the rally.

Oshawa came right back with a pair, their last runs of the game. Williams hit to right and made third by daring baserunning. Dainty singled to left to score Williams, taking second on the throw in, and Sutton to left to let Dainty cross the plate.

There was no further scoring until the ninth when the Petes got the last run of the game. Heckman ripped a single past third, his third hit in a raw, and went all the way to the difficult corner when Jones let the ball roll through. Smith rolled to Dainty and Batten hoisted one to Sutton but Turner singled to left to score Heckman. Holyman also ripped a single to left but Johnston popped to Dainty to wind up the game.

TENNIS PLAYERS ELECT OFFICERS

T. W. Rhind Will Head Marmora Club For Coming Year.

MARMORA, May 25.—The second annual meeting of Marmora Tennis Club was held on Monday evening. The following executive was elected:

Honorary President — Mr. F. S. Pearce.

President—Mr. T. W. Rhind.

Vice-President—Mr. D. E. Bell.

Secretary-Treasurer— Mr. A. R. Millar.

Committee—Miss M. Litt, Miss H. Williams, Mrs. T. W. Rhind, Mrs. S. C. Boyd, Messrs. J. Hughes, M. J. Auger and W. Beyaert.

The same membership fee as last year was decided upon: Gentlemen $1.50, ladies $1.00, juveniles $1.00.

Courts are again available through the courtesy of the honorary president, and a pleasant season is anticipated.

VIEWS ON SPORT

Remember—
The Peterborough Seniors and Belleville clash at James Stevenson Park to-morrow in the opening fixture of the C.O.B.L. here.

Kiwanis Juniors opened the junior series of the City League by defeating the Royals 4-3 in the Exhibition Grounds yesterday afternoon. A close score, and from all appearances a close game.

• • • • • • •

Cotton's and Crary's drives into the field apparently did the trick for the winners, Dormer and LeBarr stepping across the plate on the first and Howden and Cotton on the second.

• • • • • • •

That "dark horse" of the spring training days has made good. Kitchen in the hurler's box for the Royals pitched a superb game, allowing only one hit, while his teammates came across with loyal support.

• • • • • • •

For the first time since they began to play ball, the Hollingsworth brothers appeared in uniform for the same team. Both are good sportsmen, and featured in getting a double in the play.

• • • • • • •

Six teams have entered the City Softball League, and a bumper season is looked forward to by the executive. Much optimism was felt at the meeting held on Wednesday night, when the grounds question and other matters pertaining to the running of a league were discussed. The playing schedule will be published in the early part of next week.

• • • • • • •

C.G.E., Knights of Columbus, Lockworks, Teco Stores, Percy Harrison's North-enders, and the De Laval are the teams entered, and while it is not certain, two more teams may enter the League before the schedule opens.

PETERBOROUGH ATHLETES MAKE FINE SHOWING IN LINDSAY MEET

Number of Prizes Come To City From Monarch Club's First Field Day.

MANY FAMOUS RUNNERS.

The Monarch Athletic Club of Lindsay took advantage of a happy break from the weather man, and on the 24th holiday put over one of the finest all-round road races that has ever been held in this part of the province, and one which cimpared most favorably with such meets held in Toronto, Hamilton, or Guelph. The entry list showed it, and the races, run during morning and afternoon, proved it beyond doubt. It was the first event of its kind put on by the comparatively youthful Monarch A. C. in Lindsay, yet it attracted to Lindsay town athletes of note from various parts of Ontario, including Hamilton, Galt, Guelph, Belleville, Toronto West-End "Y", Gladstone A. C. of Toronto, U. of T. men, as well as runners from Haliburton, Victoria and Peterborough Counties.

A softball tournament for both ladies and men's teams held the interest of a large holiday crowd which had gathered in the county town for this an unusual holiday diversion.

Peterborough Represented.

A number of Peterborough athletes representing the Y.M.C.A. and the C.G.E. made the trip to Lindsay, and in every event one of them entered, he put up a creditable race, more than one prize coming to local men.

Among 28 entries in the five-mile running race were five Peterborough runners, namely: R. Bates, Palmer, Tranter of the C.G.E., E. H. Peters of Peterborough, and N. Hamilton of the Peterborough "Y." who finished twelfth, a fine showing.

I. J. Larmer, of Peterborough "Y," showed up well, taking third place against a strong field in the 100 yards dash senior, fourth place in the half-mile senior, while his running mate, Asquith, took fourth place in the former and third in the latter event.

Connolly, representing C.G.E., showed up remarkably well, doing the 100 yards special race in 10 1-5 seconds, and winning the half-mile senior race by doing the trip in 2 minutes 15 seconds.

Bates and Tranter, both of C.G.E., picked off first and second places, while Luderath, also of this city, took fourth standing in the one mile senior handicap. Peterborough "Y" team was good enough to take second place in the four-mile relay.

The Y.M.C.A. team from Peterborough went down in a scrappy game of softball during the morning, being defeated by the Monarch A.C. team of Lindsay by 19-6. The homesters showed up better in their fielding, while the Petes failed to get to O'Leary with any degree of consistency.

Other Events.

The fifteen-mile race was the big event of the day, with Nick Meissner being the only entrant from Peterborough. He went to the line against a particularly strong field, but failed to finish, while Webster, of the Olympic Club, Hamilton, took the tie prize for doing the route in 1 hour 22 minutes 2-5 seconds. George Moss, of Kendal, was not far behind him.

BIG SIX.

Ty Cobb claimed the spotlight in the Big Six Wednesday when he pounded out three singles and climbed into fourth place over Frank Frisch who had no game scheduled. Cobb sent his average up to .333 as the Athletics downed the Washington Senators, 4 to 2.

Rogers Hornsby, kept idle by rain, fell upstairs into the lead when Paul Waner got only one hit in four attempts as his team lost in Cincinnati. Paul's one hit was a homer in the first inning, and without it the Pirates would have succumbed in nine innings. The Reds won, 4 to 3, in the tenth.

The standing to date:

HORSES MAKE RECORD TIME AT THE RACES

Eleanor Mae, Owned by James Akey, Wins First Money in the Classified Race.

NINE ENTRIES

In 2.28 Class Lu Todd, Owned by R. Welsh, of Hastings, Won Race.

Nine horses were entered in the two races held at the Exhibition Park yesterday afternoon. The track was fast and the park looked its very best. Owing to the lateness of the season the horses were green and hence only half mile heats were run. Record time was made in these heats with the Classified horses taking the lead making the second heat of their race in 1.04½. The 2.28 class were a close second scoring their final heat in 1.07½. The five horses in the Classified race made real heats of it every time and every finish saw four of them touching the toe line almost together. In this race the three entering from the stable of James Akey carried off the money. Eleanor Mae, a brown six-year-old mare, driven by Eddie Jones took first place in each heat; Jack Abber, driven by J. Akey, won second place and Alfred Elk, driven by J. Sutherland, won third place. Fourth honors went to Hal E. owned by W. E. Elmhirst, Indian River, and driven by E. Elmhirst and fifth went to Lu Grattan the fine horse of Charles Schooley.

In the 2.28 class Lu Todd, owned by R. Welsh of Hastings won the three heats. Hal Direct, Eddie Jones' horse won second money, coming second place in the first and third heats and third in the second. Alkie Silk, owned by Charles Fife of Lang won third money and Herman Winger, Jr., a new horse on the local track, owned by Lu Ferguson, Peterborough, won fourth place.

The 57th Band supplied the music while the races were being run off and Kiwanis and Royals opened the Junior baseball season. The Kiwanis won four runs to three.

ALL READY FOR OPENING TILT TO-MORROW

Belleville and Petes Will Usher in Central Ontario Season.

WILL BE BATTLE

Always Fireworks When These Two Teams Get Together.

Although they dropped their first game in Oshawa yesterday, the Petes are satisfied that they can take on the Motors for the balance of the season, and they are now anxiously waiting for tomorrow to see how Walter Gerow and his Belleville team shape up.

The Belleville gang will pry the lid off the local season at James Stevenson Park tomorrow and the Petes, who expect to field a considerably stronger line up in their battle, are confident of taking a fall out of the visitors and breaking into the win column.

There has always been plenty of action in a Belleville-Peterborough clash and tomorrow's bout will be no exception. With Peeny and Harry Mills, Weir, Ross and other well remembered veterans and a sprinkling of new talent Walter Gerow hopes to get the edge on the Petes by grabbing the first game here.

It will be a lively affair all around and a big crowd will see the season opened. Ken Colling of Belleville will be the umpire-in-chief with Edgar Lebarr of Peterborough on the bases. They will send the teams away at 3 o'clock sharp.

The Central Ontario League is going to provide some great ball and every game is likely to develop into a battle. Tomorrow's clash should be one of the best.

YANKS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL

Batter Grove to Win Opener 9-7, Losing Nightcap 5-2.

HOMER FOR RUTH

NEW YORK, May 25 (Canadian Press).—The largest crowd that ever jammed its way into a Philadelphia ball park saw the Athletics and the Yankees divide a double-header yesterday as the six-game battle for first place was opened. More than 41,000 fans paid to see the games.

The Yankees plastered Robert Moses Grove to win by 9 to 7 in the opener, but the Athletics came back to life in the nightcap, which they won, 5 to 2, despite Babe Ruth's fourteenth home run of the season and Lazzeri's first.

Orwoll held the Yankees to six hits in the nightcap and suffered no damage from any but the two homers. George Pipgras, whose winning string of seven was snapped, puzzled the Athletics for five rounds, but they got him in the sixth and the seventh.

All of the Philadelphia runs in the second game were scored after two were out.

Lazzeri batted in six runs in the opener, capping his play with a triple off Ehmke in the ninth with the bases filled.

Grove was ineffecive from the start but remained in the game until relieved by a pinch batsman in the eighth.

Singles by Rice and Galloway, and a double by Fothergill in the 12th inning, enabled Detroit to take the opening game of the Chicago series with the White Sox, 6 to 4 yesterday.

Fothergill and Gehringer led Detroits attack with three hits apiece. Gehringer hitting a home run in the fifth inning with Sweeney on base. The victory pushed Detroit into sixth place in the American league race, the White Sox dropping to seventh.

Everybody joined in the slugging out at Dunn Field in Cleveland and, with sloppy fielding on both sides, St. Louis came out on the end of a 12 to 9 score in the opening game of the series with Cleveland. Sam Gray held the mound for the Browns during the entire game, despite a barrage of 18 Indian hits, while St. Louis pounded three Cleveland pitchers for 12 hits.

DAVIS CUP PLAY IS CALLED OFF

Rain Forces Halt in Opening Matches Between Canada and Japan.

MONTREAL, Que., May 25.—(Canadian Press).—Rain yesterday forced postponement of the opening matches in the semi-final, American Zone Davis Cup play, between Canada and Japan.

The matches scheduled for yesterday will be played today, weather permitting, with Willard F. Crocker meeting Captain Teizo Toba in the first singles encounter and Jack Wrigth playing Yoshiro Ohta in the second contest.

Rain was falling yesterday at the time set for the opening match and the unroofed stands at the Mount Royal Tennis Club were half-filled. The crowd waited an hour and a half before a definite decision to postpone the matches was made.

Beyond moving the matches back one day, no changes will be made. The doubles match set for to-day will be played Saturday and the two final singles will be contested Monday. In addition to the double Saturday Gilbert Nunns, Canadian Davis Cup player and G. W. Airman, a ranking player of the province will meet in an exhibition contest.

KIWANIS JUNIORS STAGE RALLY IN SIXTH INNING TO DEFEAT ROYALS IN OPENING FIXTURE

Two Doubles in Sixth Enable Winners to Overcome Early Lead.

KITCHEN GOOD

Mayor Denne, J. Hickson and Tom Brown Officiate at Opening.

By bunching their hits in a sixth inning batting rally to get four runs, the Kiwanis Juniors defeated All Saints' Royals by 4-3. Up until that inning Kitchen on the mound for the losers had allowed only one scraggy hit and his teammates were giving loyal support.

The league was opened with Mayor Denne in the pitcher's box, J. Hickson, president of the Lindsay fair at the plate, and Tom Brown of the Exhibition Board catching. T. Hickson opened for a good ball and then connected with one of the Mayor's drops.

Cotton's double in the sixth frame sent Dormer and LeBarr across the plate. Carroll and Walton were both put out. Howden was given a walk, and both Howden and Cotton scored on Crary's drive over first. Crary in that way sent the winning run home. The rally was broken up with Gillespie striking out.

L. Hollingsworth's triple to the right field in the sixth opened a strong attack but both Hartley and Jones struck out. This is the first season the Hollingsworth brothers have been playing on the same team and both featured in getting a double in the game.

Kitchen made his first appearance here in a uniform, and put up a classy brand of ball, which baffled Jack Deanard's crew for a few innings.

The Game

Gillespie chalked up the first error of the game by dropping Hope's fly to centre field Hollingworth rolled to Starr and was thrown out at first. Hope was caught off second Beavis got safe on Starr's high throw to first after rolling to third. Hollingsworth was caught off second, while Beavis scored when LeBarr missed Hatton's liner. Hatton was caught off second. LeBarr struck out. Cotton flied to H. Hollingsworth. Carroll's high fly to centre was caught by Beavis.

PETTY HOLDS GIANTS 3-0

Cubs Lose Fourth Straight by Their Defeat by Pirates 6 to 2.

CARDS WIN 7-1

NEW YORK, May 25.—(Canadian Press.)—Jess Petty, star southpaw, held the Giants to three scattered hits at Brooklyn yesterday in his first start since his ten day suspension for dining out, and the Robins white-washed New York, 3 to 0. This gave Brooklyn an even break on the four game series.

The Pirates played ball behind Grimes at Pittsburgh to defeat the Chicago Cubs in the first battle of a three game series. The score was 6 to 2, and the defeat was the fourth straight for Chicago.

Nehf pitched five innings for the Pirates, the Cubs breaking through for a big inning in the fourth, when they scored four runs. Bush and Holly, the latter a recruit, finished.

The Buccaneers went into the game without Captain Pie Traynor, who is ill with influenza. Eddie Mulligan moved from second to third and Recruit Dick Bartell played second where his work featured.

While the Cardinals touched three Cincinnati hurlers for ten hits, "Flint" Rhem had the Reds entirely subdued and the Cards won their fourth straight game at St. Louis yesterday, 7 to 1. Holm and Bottomley collected home runs, while Douthit gathered a single, double and triple as his share of the hitting. The Reds' only run came as the result of an error.

Only three National League games scheduled.

MARY PICKFORD IN "MY BEST GIRL."

Mary Pickford, complete with curls and smiles and winning ways, is at the Capitol Theatre in her latest vehicle, "My Best Girl," and had a capacity audience last night for the first evening's showing.

This is one of the stories in which the little star is in her very best vein. Her winsome ways, her talent for presenting the character portrayed in the very best light, and the sweetness which she injects into her work in pictures which are always of a highly moral and yet very interesting type, make it exceptionally attractive. "My Best Girl" is interesting from start to finish. It has a profusion of the little human touches that make the onlookers chuckle in sympathy, and there is plenty of comedy.

Mary enacts the role of Maggie Johnson, stock room worker, in a five and ten cent store, part of a chain owned by Robert Merrill, whose son, Joe, is put into the store under the name of Joe Grant, to try out his mettle and his staying powers. He is engaged to Millicent, a society girl, but Maggie attracts his attention at once, and they have a very amusing romance with Maggie doing a great deal of the love making, under the impression that Joe is really the poor boy he pretends to be.

When Joe's engagement dinner is being held at the fashionable Mayfair, he and his little sweetheart Maggie, are enjoying a funny episode in the dinner at the Merrill home the girl believing Joe when he tells her that there is truth in the Merrill motto of "one great big family." Later, Maggie's sister becomes involved with a crook in the Night Court and Joe follows Maggie there.

The story has various little twists, one of the most unexpected of which is the scene where Maggie has a chance to try it. There is a little Pickford, it is said, yearns always to be dramatic and this scene gives her a chance to try it. There is little relief in the atmosphere when she stops trying to pretend and reverts once more to her little-girl self.

Joe's father proves to be an understanding individual and the final scene is a rush for the Honolulu boat, with Maggie and Joe off on a honeymoon trip, with the blessing of everyone except Joe's fashionable mother.

At the final moment, Maggie's came out of his worm chrysalis, became out of his worm chrysalis, demands that his wife stop attending funerals and mind house instead, spanks the wilful elder daughter, Lis., and steps out of the wash basin in which he has been bathing his feet, to do the "man of the family" act in a whirlwind, amusing finish to a delightful picture. —Jeanette.
